LEVI STRAUSS & CO.

2016 ANNUAL REPORT

OUR ASPIRATION

At Levi Strauss & Co., we aspire to be, and be seen as, the world's best apparel company and one of the best-performing companies in any industry.

Over the past five years, we've set LS&Co. on a transformative path toward sustained, profitable growth while preserving the values and industry-leading standards that have allowed our company to thrive. We embrace our rich heritage — more than 160 years of creating some of the world's most-loved, iconic apparel — and look to our future by putting our consumers' needs firmly at the center of everything we do.

OUR BRANDS

CHIP BERGH
Chief Executive Officer

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS, CUSTOMERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER STAKEHOLDERS,

Five years ago we set out an ambitious plan to transform Levi Strauss & Co., an industry icon, from an inconsistently performing company to a disciplined one focused on reliable, profitable growth. Our goal is "to be, and be seen as, the world's best apparel company and one of the best-performing companies in any industry." Within the first six months, we put in place four long-term strategic choices that have served us well: (1) grow the profitable core business, (2) "expand for more" by driving under-developed segments and geographies, (3) become a leading omni-channel retailer and (4) drive improved productivity to fuel growth. At the same time, we built what I believe is the strongest leadership team in the industry.

Today, we are well on our way to achieving our aspiration. We have moved from being a consistent bottom-quartile performer in the industry to a top-quartile performer benchmarked against our industry peers based on total shareholder return. LS&Co. is a more sound and more diversified business today than it has been in more than a decade. In short, LS&Co. is fundamentally healthier than when we started this chapter.

In 2016, we delivered our fourth consecutive year of top- and bottom-line growth excluding foreign currency impacts (or "constant currency"). Our revenue growth rate accelerated, with revenue up 3 percent on a constant-currency basis. Adjusted EBIT also grew 2 percent on a constant currency basis, and we generated free cash flow of roughly double the prior year. These results distinguish us from most of our peers and are especially remarkable given the unprecedented external challenges the industry has faced, particularly in our biggest market, the U.S. Based on these results and the board of directors' continued confidence in our business, we announced a $70 million dividend, a 17 percent increase versus prior year. Here are the highlights of 2016:

FISCAL YEAR 2016 FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS[1]

- Net revenue was $4.6 billion, up 1 percent in reported dollars and up 3 percent on a constant-currency basis, both versus prior year.
- Gross margins were 51.2 percent on a reported basis, up from 50.5 percent last year.
- Net income grew approximately 40 percent over the prior year, to $291 million from $209 million, primarily reflecting the higher gross margins, lower restructuring and related charges and debt reduction.
- Adjusted EBIT of $480 million was flat on a reported basis but grew 2 percent versus prior year on a constant-currency basis.
- Net debt declined to $670 million from $834 million last year.
- Free cash flow was $161 million, nearly double the $81 million we reported last year, reflecting lower restructuring and related payments, lower cash interest and taxes.
- Our shareholder dividend of $70 million, a $10 million increase over last year, will be paid in two $35 million installments in 2017.

Our company is healthiest when our largest business, the Levi's® brand, is strong, and last year the brand grew a solid 3 percent in constant currency. We also made progress diversifying the brand by expanding our women's and lifestyle portfolio. Women's grew 11 percent and is now close to $1 billion in sales, and our tops business grew 22 percent, including a 50 percent growth in Trucker jackets, all in constant dollars.

We also gained momentum outside the U.S., with revenue in our Europe region growing 10 percent and revenue in our Asia, Middle East and Africa region up 6 percent for the year, both excluding impacts of foreign currency. These two regions now represent 41 percent of our revenue, and our strategic focus on scale markets has helped us deliver strong results that offset the challenges in the U.S. wholesale market.

[1] See our fourth quarter and fiscal year 2016 earnings release for a reconciliation of GAAP financial measures to the following non-GAAP financial measures: adjusted EBIT, net debt and free cash flow.

Our direct-to-consumer business delivered 12 percent revenue growth and represented more than a quarter of our net revenue for the year. We grew our brick-and-mortar retail stores by high single digits and our global ecommerce business double digits. We have potential for more investment and growth since this is an underdeveloped channel for LS&Co. We'll continue to invest in new stores around the world and expect to open net 80 doors in 2017 after opening nearly 70 in 2016, and we will continue to invest in ecommerce and building true omni-channel capabilities.

While we are pleased with our performance in 2016, we still have more work to do if we are to achieve our aspiration of being the world's best apparel company. We have three major focus areas to help us drive accelerated growth. First is to return our U.S. wholesale business, which is our single biggest and most profitable business, to growth. That's no small task, given the challenges that some of our biggest customers are facing, but our view is that their challenges are our opportunity. Second, and related, is to stabilize the Dockers® brand and exit the year stronger than we started, particularly in U.S. wholesale. And finally, we have opportunity to accelerate growth with our franchise partners around the world.

GROWING WITH PURPOSE

We've remained deeply committed to LS&Co.'s sustained, profitable growth while embracing the innovative, values-based approach that has helped us become the iconic company we are today. We're best known for inventing the blue jean, but we also have built a reputation for making a difference in the world. We would not be the company we are today if it weren't for our founder Levi Strauss' unwavering belief in doing well by doing good. He donated some of his first profits to an orphanage in San Francisco — which we still support today — establishing a tradition of giving back that endures more than 160 years later. At LS&Co., our founder's commitment to giving back is the inspiration for our deep-rooted sense of responsibility to our communities, our shareholders and our employees. Our belief in profits through principles is what continues to help us grow with purpose.

In 2016, we continued to push the industry forward by significantly expanding our Worker Well-being program — a framework for our third-party factories to invest in programs benefiting their workers, from improving financial literacy to providing access to women's health education. The program has had a demonstrable financial impact on suppliers — delivering up to a 4:1 return on investment[2] — and now reaches 100,000 primarily female workers around the world.

Given its success, the Levi Strauss Foundation is partnering with the Harvard School of Public Health to further validate the business case and track the progress of the Worker Well-being program. We also open-sourced the program so our learnings can reach far beyond our direct influence.

Finally, in terms of direct charitable support, we were able to contribute $9 million in fiscal 2016, thanks to our strong financial results.

OUR EXPECTATIONS FOR 2017

Our solid progress in 2016 gives us a strong foundation to build on this year. As before, we will be guided by our four key strategies which we expect to deliver profitable growth. We are starting 2017 with more uncertainty and headwinds than we anticipated just a few months ago — the political climate, challenges facing the U.S. retail environment and our shifting structural economics are challenges that we will continue to navigate thoughtfully.

I believe there are moments that matter more than others — times when our values will be tested; when our words and actions will carry more weight. We are at an unequal moment in time today, with challenges around the world to immigration, equality, basic human rights, inclusion and free trade.

I recognize the responsibility that comes with leading this great company, and I am more determined than ever to ensure that LS&Co. remains true to the principles that made it iconic. We will continue to live the values that have shaped us over the past 163 years, and we'll continue to be a courageous voice on the important issues of our time. Our consumers, our employees and our peers have come to expect bold, responsible innovation from LS&Co., and we are committed to delivering on that. With all this momentum, we're confident that the best is yet to come.

OUR LONG-TERM STRATEGIES

Five years ago, LS&Co. put four long-term strategies in place to guide our business forward. Knowing that our core business — men's pants and key markets — represents a majority of our profits, the priority was to make sure those businesses were healthy while diversifying the company through more product categories and retail outlets for the long run. Every year, we look at our progress against these priorities as key indicators for success.

1. GROW OUR PROFITABLE CORE BUSINESSES

Our core businesses are Levi's® men's bottoms globally; Dockers® men's bottoms in the U.S.; our top 10 wholesale customers and our five largest mature markets: the U.S., France, Germany, Mexico and the U.K. Collectively, our largest markets represent almost 70 percent of total company revenue.

All men's products generated approximately 76 percent of our total net sales in fiscal year 2016. From a product standpoint, we expanded on our icons and essentials. We drove innovation in the Levi's® 501® family to include stretch, and now approximately two-thirds of our Levi's® bottoms now include stretch, which reflects our focus on comfort, fit and performance. However, the continued softness in the U.S. wholesale environment contributed to lower-than-expected results for our Levi's® men's bottoms and the U.S. Dockers® businesses. Offsetting this was the strong performance of the other four mature markets, which collectively grew 10 percent compared with the prior year.

'THE WEDGIE' WAS ALL OVER SOCIAL MEDIA AND A HUGE SALES SUCCESS.

2. EXPAND FOR MORE

In 2016, we made strong progress building a more balanced portfolio and positioning Levi's® as a lifestyle brand. We successfully grew our Levi's® women's and tops businesses, delivering on our strategy to expand for more. Combined, our men's and women's tops business grew double-digits. As product offerings expanded in 2016, so did distribution in our key growth markets of China, India and Russia; these markets collectively grew 4 percent in 2016.

LEVI'S® WOMEN'S

Our Levi's® women's business grew 11 percent in 2016, building on the momentum of the successful relaunch of our women's business almost two years ago. We continue to make Levi's® a coveted brand for women. Our women's retail business in Europe has been exceptionally strong — up 28 percent over the prior year in constant currency — and we believe there is even more opportunity ahead. Last year, we introduced a new fit for women called the Wedgie, which built on the heritage of the iconic 505™ jean, and due to positive consumer response we are adding a straight leg version this year as well.

TOPS AND T-SHIRTS

What goes better with a pair of jeans than a great T-shirt? In 2016, our tops business grew 22 percent, with double-digit growth in both men's and women's — all in constant dollars. Trucker jackets also continue to be hot, with sales up almost 50 percent in constant currency this past year. And, for sports fans, Levi's® introduced the MLB collection for select teams in 2016 and the NBA collection for select teams in 2017, which added to the full line of NFL apparel already available.

We've extended our Levi's® branded T-shirt offerings, which have delivered solid results and become a fashion item in several cities around the world. Consumers can also find a greater selection of button-down shirts, sweaters and sweatshirts, along with belts, scarves and other accessories, such as backpacks and leather goods.

> “FOR THE EARLY DAYS OF FALL, A CASUAL-COOL DENIM JACKET IS ALL YOU NEED. LATER ON IT WILL BE AN ESSENTIAL LAYERING PIECE FOR TONS OF OUTFITS. THE LEVI’S® DENIM TRUCKER JACKET IS THE INDISPUTABLE ICON IN THIS SEGMENT.”
> — BUSINESS INSIDER

In 2016, the Levi’s® brand partnered with Pintrill to offer a line of pins and patches so consumers could personalize their Trucker jackets. There is a long history of customizing jackets — think punk, metal and slasher music fans — to tell a personal story. Our historian has an incredible collection and stories to tell that you can only find at Levi Strauss & Co.

3. BECOME A LEADING OMNI-CHANNEL RETAILER

Building on the momentum we experienced over the last few quarters, the company is poised to accelerate its profitable growth in our direct-to-consumer channels. Our products are currently available in 110 countries and in more than 50,000 doors. Included in our retail network are 2,900 branded stores, nearly 700 of which are owned and operated by LS&Co., as well as both owned and wholesale-partner operated online platforms. In 2017, we will continue to invest for growth in this channel because we’ve seen strong results when we are in control.

The rapidly evolving retail dynamics present in the apparel industry — namely the influence of mobile devices on the shopping experience — continue to create unprecedented opportunities to connect with consumers. Shoppers expect a seamless experience across all brand touchpoints. Nearly half of our online traffic is used as research for an in-store purchase, and in our stores, we see purchase intent and conversion is on the rise. That’s why, in 2016, we continued to invest in strengthening our overall direct-to-consumer and omni-channel experience, resulting in 12 percent growth in the direct-to-consumer business in the past fiscal year.

Today, we are focused on delivering a broader product assortment, in the right size, as well as offering online exclusives to help drive traffic. Enhancing the in-store experience with highly trained stylists remains essential to meeting our shoppers’ individual needs. And we’re committed to delivering fluid online-to-retail storytelling, offering consumers inspiration when shopping with us.

Looking ahead, diversification and direct-to-consumer expansion continues to be a priority. We aim to add another 80 net new stores in 2017, mainly to our retail footprint in Europe and Asia. Owned-and-operated retail will continue to present us with strong opportunities to tailor the consumer experience in key cities, and we will build key partnerships with likeminded wholesalers that are as dedicated as we are to investing in the future of retailing.

4. ACHIEVE OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

In the past five years, we have focused on streamlining our business operations to free up cash to reinvest back into the business. One of the major initiatives over the past few years has been to simplify and improve productivity throughout our global supply chain. By putting the consumer at the center of our decisions, we’ve reduced our fabric base, rationalized our product offering and consolidated our strategic vendor base, among other changes. We have created fewer but better options that have significantly reduced our cost of goods sold. This has enabled us to invest in direct-to-consumer initiatives as well as in planning, product development and sourcing, distribution and sustainability.

Simultaneously, in the last five years, we’ve shored up the structural economics of our business. In particular, we cut our debt in half — from nearly $2 billion to $1 billion — while delivering growth and solid profit margins.

THE LEVI'S® BRAND
RE-LAUNCHED THE 505™
FIT, FIRST INTRODUCED
IN 1967 DURING THE SUMMER OF LOVE.

OUR ICONIC BRANDS

Levi Strauss & Co. invented the blue jean and launched the khaki pant revolution — and we continue to inspire how people dress every day. In 2016, the Levi's® brand represented 85 percent of total net revenue. The Dockers® brand accounted for 10 percent of revenue, while Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and Denizen® products delivered 5 percent of sales. Although we offer an assortment of apparel, we're best known for pants across all our brands — including jeans, casual pants and dress pants — which represented approximately 77 percent of our total units sold this year.

THE LEVI'S® BRAND

Our products are versatile, customizable, essential and well-loved pieces of every wardrobe. We strive to create apparel that our consumers want to live in, that withstands the test of time and that inspires generation after generation to share our obsession for beautifully and responsibly made apparel. We want to be the item you grab every morning and know will look and fit great.

Few brands have the power to evoke the same level of emotion that ours continues to spark. We've always been firmly at the center of culture and style — worn and loved by musicians, artists, revolutionary thinkers and game-changing doers. From James Dean's iconic look to the stages of SXSW and Coachella to the boardrooms of today's most innovative startups, our brand has timeless appeal that has allowed generations of consumers to wear their favorite item of Levi's® clothing and style it however they desire.

The Levi's® brand is at its best when it's at the center of culture, and 2016 was no exception. There was no bigger stage to showcase our place in the zeitgeist than Levi's® Stadium, which showed up in a major way for Super Bowl 50 and subsequently hosted some of the world's biggest names in music, such as Beyoncé and Coldplay. In addition to the NFL, the venue also hosted the Copa America Centenario and the PAC 12 football championship game and has drawn crowds for music, sporting and other events. To build on that success, we launched the Levi's® Lounge with Cumulus, an intimate performance space just a few blocks from our company headquarters in San Francisco that has welcomed acts like The Lumineers, Pete Yorn and Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros.

Music and creativity were also the driving forces behind the brand's re-launch of the 505™ fit, first introduced in 1967 during the Summer of Love. It became the uniform of counterculture by the early 1970s, when it appeared on album covers for The Rolling Stones and The Ramones and became the go-to stage attire for Debbie Harry. Today's version, the 505™C, is built on this rock 'n' roll heritage but with a modern and slimmer fit that's rapidly winning over a new generation of loyal fans.

The Levi's® iconic 501® fit also continued to command shoppers' attention, debuting in both skinny and stretch. Another great example of consumer-driven innovation, we took a cue from our fans who wanted the same, iconic look of the original 501® jean with remastered details.

SIGNATURE BY LEVI STRAUSS & CO.™

DOCKERS®, SIGNATURE BY LEVI STRAUSS & CO.™ AND DENIZEN®

For a more buttoned-up look, the Dockers® brand offers an alternative to suits in the form of the khaki pant — an American essential. The Dockers® brand is a global leader in the casual pant category — which we created — while also providing tops and accessories for a complete head-to-toe look for all occasions. Dockers® celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2016, marking three decades of leading the casual revolution.

Dockers® continues to evolve to engage today's consumer, moving to more stretch and slimmer fits that remain a classic staple in every man's wardrobe. Last year, we added stretch into our Signature Khaki product.

We distribute our Levi's® and Dockers® products primarily through chain retailers and department stores in the United States, and primarily through department stores, specialty retailers, franchised or other brand-dedicated stores and shop-in-shops outside of the United States. Levi's® and Dockers® products are also sold through our brand-dedicated, company-operated retail stores and through the ecommerce sites we operate, as well as the ecommerce sites operated by some of our key wholesale customers and other third parties.

For the value-conscious consumer, Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and Denizen® products are available through mass channel retailers in the Americas. Within our value segment, we'll continue to leverage the momentum we've seen in these brands, which grew double-digits in 2016.

THE FIRST DENIM INNOVATION LAB

Our Eureka Innovation Lab, located in San Francisco, is a collaboration hub for our designers, merchants and innovation experts. It's also a place for our suppliers and partners to convene with us on the most cutting-edge and sustainable practices — most notably for 2016, the creation of a jean made with a portion of post-consumer waste, which we designed in partnership with Evrnu.

The Eureka team, in partnership with Google, was instrumental in developing a Trucker jacket that incorporates wearable technology, called Project Jacquard. The team set out with a bold, practical idea to help bicyclists better navigate the streets using a simple interface on the sleeve of their jacket. With a concept and teamwork, the team created a beautiful, wearable jacket.

Eureka is also where we work with other designers in the industry to create special collections. In 2016, we collaborated with Blonde Salad, OffWhite and Vetements, to name a few.

Day in and day out, we're innovating products based on four strategic pillars — Made for Her (Levi's® women's collection), Made for Performance (Commuter® and Skate), Made of Progress (WellThread® and Water<Less®) and Made Better. We're always looking for ways to improve. For example, the team has worked with suppliers to create fabrics that stretch and recover, and to expertly fit and finish products for that perfect, authentic look. It's about making products more sustainably while keeping that quality craftsmanship consumers expect from our brands. We are continually creating new styles while reimagining our icons with fits and finishes that will delight consumers, generation after generation.

As leaders in the industry, we feel a deep responsibility to constantly evaluate how products are made and how we can make them even better.

SUSTAINABILITY

For more than 25 years, LS&Co. has been a pioneer in sustainability. From introducing the industry's first comprehensive supplier code of conduct in 1991 to setting strict water quality standards for all our product manufacturing in 1994 to implementing a ban on harmful chemicals in 2001, we see ourselves as a company of firsts.

But to create lasting, meaningful change, we know we can't act alone. That's why we've taken a cue from the tech industry and started open-sourcing many of our sustainability programs. By sharing the tools, resources and results from a range of our initiatives, we hope to create an outsized impact that goes well beyond our company walls. In 2016, we made this open mandate a priority for our sustainability strategy.

2016 OPEN SOURCE HIGHLIGHTS

WATER<LESS® FINISHING TECHNIQUES

When it comes to reducing our water impact, we know the areas to focus on because we've studied them. In 2007 and again in 2015, we conducted a lifecycle assessment (LCA) on a pair of Levi's® 501® jeans. The results showed us how much water was being consumed at each stage of the lifecycle and where we could make a difference.

Although it doesn't represent the biggest area of water use, manufacturing is where we have the most control. And in 2011 a group of our designers took the data from the LCA and challenged themselves to design and produce jeans with less water. The result? Twenty-one water-saving finishing techniques that we call Water<Less®. When combined, Water<Less® techniques can save up to 96 percent of the water used to make a pair of jeans. So far, we've saved nearly 2 billion liters of water, and today, 40 percent of all our products by volume are made using Water<Less® techniques.

On World Water Day 2016, we open sourced these water-saving techniques. We believe that if other denim brands and retailers adopt them, the apparel industry could save billions of liters of water.

SCREENED CHEMISTRY PROGRAM

In 2001, LS&Co. was one of the first companies to establish a Restricted Substances List (RSL), identifying chemicals that are prohibited in the manufacturing of our products due to their potential impact on consumers, workers and the environment. And we were the first company to set EPA-level standards for the wastewater leaving our supplier factories.

Today, chemical management is largely focused on managing risk at the supply chain level. But at LS&Co., our innovation team saw an opportunity to move upstream — going beyond managing risk to designing products with greener chemicals in mind.

To achieve this, in 2012 we began piloting what we call the Screened Chemistry Program. This program represents the future of chemical management by taking a hazard-based approach to identify and substitute best-in-class or better alternatives from the onset. It assesses chemicals against specific health and environmental impacts so we can work with our suppliers to develop better alternatives and set innovation priorities.

Results from our pilots have been very successful, and we're now in the process of rolling out Screened Chemistry to suppliers worldwide. Our goal is for all LS&Co. suppliers to be using this more sustainable approach to chemical management by 2020.

To scale this new, more sustainable Screened Chemistry approach, we shared it with the 22 brands in the Joint Roadmap Toward Zero Discharge of Hazardous Chemicals (ZDHC), an apparel industry collaboration that aims to achieve zero discharge of hazardous chemicals by 2020. We also worked with the University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business to develop a case study on the program, which we posted publicly on our website.

BY SHARING THE TOOLS, RESOURCES AND RESULTS FROM A RANGE OF OUR INITIATIVES, WE HOPE TO CREATE AN OUTSIZED IMPACT THAT GOES WELL BEYOND OUR COMPANY WALLS.

WORKER WELL-BEING

More than 25 years ago, LS&Co. established itself as the industry standard-bearer for responsible supply chain practices with the introduction of its Terms of Engagement — the industry's first comprehensive code of conduct for suppliers. In 2011, we saw an opportunity to go beyond compliance and introduced the Worker Well-being initiative. Representing the next generation of sustainable labor practices, the Worker Well-being initiative provides a framework for suppliers to implement worker programs focused on financial empowerment, health and family well-being, and equality and acceptance.

Since we began our pilot, we've seen evidence that investing in the well-being of workers is not only good for the workers — it's also good for business. In fact, studies show that some programs result in a 4:1 return on investment in the form of reduced absenteeism and increased productivity. Based on these results, we're scaling the initiative across our supply chain. From here on out, it's simply what we expect and how we do business with our global supplier base. Today, 60 percent of our product volume is being produced by vendors that are implementing Worker Well-being programs, reaching nearly 100,000 workers. By 2020, our goal is to reach 80 percent of product volume and more than 200,000 apparel workers.

In October, LS&Co. open-sourced our Worker Well-being guidebook, worker surveys, program lessons and impacts publicly. Ultimately we believe this initiative will serve as a catalyst to transform the industry by setting a new standard for sustainable labor practices.

And we aren't stopping there. We'll continue to open source our sustainability programs so that others may benefit from what we've learned.

COLLABORATION SPOTLIGHT: BETTER COTTON INITIATIVE

At LS&Co., we believe that how we make our products is as important as what we make. One way that belief comes to life is through Better Cotton.

LS&Co. is a proud pioneering member of the Better Cotton Initiative, which promotes the use of cotton farmed to higher environmental, social and economic standards. Each year, we've been increasing the percentage of Better Cotton we source. In 2016, we did even better than predicted, using 21 percent Better Cotton instead of the targeted 17 percent.

This means that last year, through the Better Cotton Initiative, our cotton suppliers used an average of 11 percent less water, 12 percent less pesticide and 16 percent less synthetic fertilizer than their peers. Overall, the initiative benefited more than 1.4 million farmers, who saw higher than average profits and cotton yields.

LS&Co. was also one of the top five buyers of Better Cotton last year, which helped drive sales of the sustainably-produced fiber. As a result, Better Cotton represented more than 12 percent of all cotton grown in the world.

PROFITS THROUGH PRINCIPLES

Profits through principles is in our jeans. When our founder, Levi Strauss, immigrated to America, he did much more than open a business. He established a values-led company and a philosophy that continues to inspire the way we operate and engage with communities around the globe.

Our core values of originality, empathy, courage and integrity drive our commitment to advocating for equal opportunities, social justice and the sustainable advancement of the more than 100 communities in which we operate. In 2016, we contributed $9 million to social programs, largely through the Levi Strauss Foundation (LSF). For more than 60 years, LSF has actively supported the important social issues of our time.

Five years ago, LSF piloted a groundbreaking program called Pioneers in Justice. The Pioneers are a group of changemakers in the San Francisco Bay Area who build alliances across sectors and champion marginalized populations to raise consciousness, inspire hope and drive action. The American Civil Liberties Union (Northern California), National Center for Lesbian Rights, Equal Rights Advocates and Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights are the next generation of civil rights leaders transforming their organizations. A new class of Pioneers were selected in 2016 and are already hard at work connecting with their communities using new technologies and resources.

In addition to the work we support through LSF, we have strategically focused our corporate giving. Last year, we established the first-ever LS&Co. Collaboratory — an annual fellowship program designed to share our sustainability learnings with the next generation of apparel leaders. This initiative was born of the simple conviction that we can achieve much more together than we ever could alone. The inaugural class of 10 fellows convened in October to collaborate with LS&Co. leaders, outside experts and employee mentors on solutions for reducing their organization's water impact. Each group of fellows will focus on an area of critical importance to the apparel industry's sustainable future and can submit a proposal for LS&Co. funding to help execute their plans.

The work we do in our communities is important to us, and it's why many employees come to LS&Co. Our employees are some of the most inspired and active champions for inclusiveness and equality. They encourage our company to stand up when it matters most and serve as agents of positive change in their own communities.

In 2016, two groups of LS&Co.'s most engaged and socially minded employees earned the chance to participate in our Service Corps program — visiting suppliers in Sri Lanka and Cambodia to experience our values in action. They talked to apparel workers who take part in our Worker Well-being programs, hearing firsthand how these programs have positively influenced their lives. They also taught local schoolchildren the LS&Co. Project WET curriculum and installed handwashing stations at a local school in partnership with factory workers. The Service Corps is an eye-opening and transformational experience that connects employees more deeply to LS&Co. and converts them into ambassadors for our community and sustainability programs.

Every employee can participate in our global day of giving, Community Day. After celebrating its 16th year, the day has become a favorite of many LS&Co. employees, and last year they gave 40,000 hours of time to support our communities. In 2016, donations reached $1.1 million, and LS&Co. employees gave a record amount to the Red Tab Foundation (RTF), which helps employees and retirees facing financial emergencies. Since it was founded 35 years ago, RTF has provided more than $17 million to help members of the LS&Co. community get through difficult times. RTF's global reach is stronger than ever before, with local partners advocating for LS&Co. workers in more than 30 countries.

OUR WORKER WELL-BEING PROGRAM REACHED NEARLY 100,000 WORKERS IN 12 COUNTRIES IN 2016.

Item 1. BUSINESS

Overview

From our California Gold Rush beginnings, we have grown into one of the world's largest brand-name apparel companies. A history of responsible business practices, rooted in our core values, has helped us build our brands and engender consumer trust around the world. Under our Levi's ®, Dockers ®, Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and Denizen ® brands, we design, market and sell – directly or through third parties and licensees – products that include jeans, casual and dress pants, tops, shorts, skirts, jackets, footwear, and related accessories for men, women and children around the world.

An Authentic American Icon

Our Levi's ® brand has become one of the most widely recognized brands in the history of the apparel industry. Its broad distribution reflects the brand's appeal across consumers of all ages and lifestyles. Its merchandising and marketing reflect the brand's core attributes: authentic, courageous, confident, effortless, connected and purposeful.

Our Dockers ® brand offers an alternative to suit dressing in the form of the American staple – the khaki pant. The Dockers ® brand has evolved around the world as a market leader in the casual pant category, while also providing tops and accessories to complete a head-to-toe offering.

Our Global Reach

Our products are sold in more than 110 countries, grouped into three geographic regions: Americas, Europe and Asia. We support our brands throughout these regions through a global infrastructure, developing, sourcing and marketing our products around the world. Although our brands are recognized as authentically "American," we derive approximately half of our net revenues from outside the United States. A summary of financial information for each geographical region, which comprise our three reporting segments, is found in Note 20 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report. As a global company with sales and operations in foreign countries, we are subject to risks of doing business in foreign countries. See "Item 1A – Risk Factors", specifically "Risks Relating to Our Industry – Our business is subject to risks associated with sourcing and manufacturing overseas " and "Risks Relating to Our Business – We are a global company with significant revenues and earnings generated internationally, which exposes us to political and economic risks as well as the impact of foreign currency fluctuations ".

Our products are sold in approximately 50,000 retail locations worldwide, including approximately 2,900 retail stores, both franchised and company-operated, and shop-in-shops dedicated to our brands. We distribute our Levi's ® and Dockers ® products primarily through chain retailers and department stores in the United States and primarily through department stores, specialty retailers, franchised or other brand-dedicated stores and shop-in-shops outside of the United States. Levi's ® and Dockers ® products are also sold through our brand-dedicated company-operated retail stores and through the ecommerce sites we operate, as well as the ecommerce sites operated by certain of our key wholesale customers and other third parties. We distribute Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and Denizen ® brand products primarily through mass channel retailers in the Americas.

Levi Strauss & Co. was founded in San Francisco, California, in 1853 and incorporated in Delaware in 1971. We conduct our operations outside the United States through foreign subsidiaries owned directly or indirectly by Levi Strauss & Co. We have headquarter offices in San Francisco, Brussels and Singapore. Our corporate offices are located at Levi's Plaza, 1155 Battery Street, San Francisco, California 94111, and our main telephone number is (415) 501-6000.

Our common stock is primarily owned by descendants of the family of Levi Strauss and their relatives.

Our website – www.levistrauss.com – contains additional and detailed information about our history, our products and our commitments. Financial news and reports and related information about our company can be found at http://levistrauss.com/investors/financial-news . Information contained on our website is not incorporated by reference into this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Our Business Strategies

Our goal is to generate and sustain profitable growth over the long term in order to significantly improve the value of the enterprise. The management team is focused on four key strategies to achieve this goal:

- Drive the profitable core businesses . Our core businesses represent the greatest value on a brand, geographic, customer or business-segment basis. These include our men's bottoms business for the Levi's ® brand globally and the Dockers ® brand in the United States, including our iconic 501 ® jean and Dockers ® khaki pant. We also consider our key international markets of France, Germany, Mexico and the United Kingdom, as well as key wholesale accounts globally, to be vital elements of our long-term growth strategies. We manage collaborative relationships with these wholesale accounts to focus on customer support, marketing planning, and inventory levels, in order to achieve mutual commercial success.
- Expand the reach of our brands and build a more balanced portfolio. We believe we have opportunities to grow our two largest brands through new or expanded product categories, consumer segments and geographic markets. We are building upon our iconic brands, including our innovative design and marketing expertise, to deepen our connection with consumers and expand the reach and appeal of our brands globally. For example, we believe we can better serve the female consumer, and that there are significant opportunities in tops, outerwear and accessories. We also believe opportunities remain to expand in emerging and underpenetrated geographic markets, including China, India and Russia.
- Become a world-class omni-channel retailer . We will continue to grow our direct-to-consumer business in brand-dedicated stores globally, including making selective investments in additional company-operated stores, dedicated ecommerce sites, franchisee and other dedicated store models. We believe these brand-dedicated stores represent an attractive opportunity to establish incremental distribution and sales, as well as to showcase the full breadth of our product offerings and deliver a consistent brand experience to the consumer.
- Improve our cost structure to achieve operational excellence . We are focused on operational excellence to improve our long-term profitable growth, including stabilizing the work we have outsourced while delivering the anticipated financial savings, reducing our controllable cost structure and driving efficiencies by streamlining our product development, planning, and go-to-market strategies, implementing efficiencies across retail, supply chain and distribution networks and continuing to pursue practices that result in greater cost efficiencies. We will continue to balance our pursuit of improved organizational agility and marketplace responsiveness with our ongoing cost management efforts to improve the structural economics of the company.

Our Brands and Products

We offer a broad range of products, including jeans, casual and dress pants, tops, shorts, skirts, jackets, footwear and related accessories. Across all of our brands, pants – including jeans, casual pants and dress pants – represented approximately 77% , 81% and 82% of our total units sold in fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively. Men's products generated approximately 76% , 77% and 77% of our total net sales in fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively.

Levi's ® Brand

The Levi's ® brand epitomizes classic American style and effortless cool and is positioned as the authentic, original and definitive jeanswear brand. Since their inception in 1873, Levi's ® jeans have become one of the most recognizable garments in the world – reflecting the aspirations and earning the loyalty of people for generations. Consumers around the world instantly recognize the distinctive traits of Levi's ® jeans – the double arc of stitching, known as the Arcuate Stitching Design, and the Red Tab Device, a fabric tab stitched into the back right pocket. The Levi's ® brand continues to evolve to meet the tastes of today's consumers, driven by its distinctive pioneering and innovative spirit. Our range of leading jeanswear, other apparel items and accessories for men, women and children are available in more than 110 countries, allowing individuals around the world to express their personal style.

The Levi's ® brand encompasses a range of products. Levi's ® Red Tab™ products are the foundation of the brand, consisting of a wide spectrum of jeans and jeanswear offered in a variety of fits, fabrics, finishes, styles and price points intended to appeal to a broad spectrum of consumers. The line includes the iconic 501 ® jean, the original and best-selling five-pocket jean of all time. The line also incorporates a full range of jeanswear fits and styles designed specifically for women. Sales of Red Tab™ products represented the majority of our Levi's ® brand net sales in all three of our regions in fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 . We also offer premium products around the world including a range of premium pants, tops, shorts, skirts, jackets, footwear, and related accessories.

Our Levi's ® brand products accounted for approximately 85% of our total net sales in each of fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , approximately half of which were generated in our Americas region.

Dockers ® Brand

Founded in 1986, the Dockers ® brand sparked a revolution in the way millions of men dressed around the world, shifting from the standard issue suit to a more casual look. Thirty years later, the Dockers ® brand continues to embody the spirit of khakis and define business casual. Since its introduction, the brand has focused on men's khakis and the essential clothing accessories to go with them.

Our Dockers ® brand products accounted for approximately 10% of our total net sales in fiscal years 2016 and 2015 , and 11% of our total net sales in fiscal year 2014 . Although the substantial majority of these net sales were in the Americas region, Dockers ® brand products are sold in more than 50 countries.

Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ Brand and Denizen ® Brand

In addition to our Levi's ® and Dockers ® brands, we offer two brands focused on consumers who seek high-quality and fashionable jeanswear at a value price. We offer denim jeans, casual pants, tops and jackets in a variety of fits, fabrics and finishes for men, women and kids under the Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ brand through the mass retail channel in the United States and Canada. The Denizen ® brand was introduced in Target stores in the United States starting in 2011, and includes a variety of jeans to complement active lifestyles and to empower consumers to express their aspirations, individuality and attitudes at a value price point.

Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ brand and Denizen ® brand products accounted for approximately 5% of our total net sales in fiscal years 2016 and 2015 , and 4% of our total net sales in fiscal year 2014 .

Licensing

The appeal of our brands across consumer groups and our global reach enable us to license our Levi's ® and Dockers ® trademarks for a variety of product categories in multiple markets in each of our regions, including footwear, belts, wallets and bags, outerwear, sweaters, dress shirts, kidswear, sleepwear and hosiery. We also license our Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and our Denizen ® trademarks in various markets for certain product categories.

In addition to product category licenses, we enter into regional license agreements with third parties to produce, market and distribute our products in several countries around the world, including various Latin American, Middle Eastern and Asia Pacific countries. Licensing accounted for approximately 2% of our total net revenues in each of fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 .

We enter into licensing agreements with our licensees covering royalty payments, product design and manufacturing standards, marketing and sale of licensed products, and protection of our trademarks. We require our licensees to comply with our code of conduct for contract manufacturing and engage independent monitors to perform regular on-site inspections and assessments of production facilities.

Sales, Distribution and Customers

We distribute our products through a wide variety of retail formats around the world, including chain and department stores, franchise stores and shop-in-shops dedicated to our brands, our own company-operated retail network, multi-brand specialty stores, mass channel retailers, and both company-operated and retailer ecommerce sites.

Multi-brand Retailers

We seek to make our products available where consumers shop, including offering products and related assortments that are appropriately tailored for our wholesale customers and their retail consumers. Our products are also sold through authorized third-party ecommerce sites. Sales to our top ten wholesale customers accounted for approximately 30% of our total net revenues in 2016 and approximately 31% of net revenues for both 2015 and 2014 . No customer represented 10% or more of net revenues in any of these years. The loss of or significant business decline of any major wholesale customer could have a material adverse effect on one or more of our segments or on the company as a whole. See "Item 1A - Risk Factors", specifically "Risks Relating to Our Business - We depend on a group of key wholesale customers for a significant portion of our revenues. A significant adverse change in a customer relationship or in a customer's performance or financial position could harm our business and financial condition" .

Dedicated Stores

We believe retail stores dedicated to our brands are important for the growth, visibility, availability and commercial success of our brands, and they are an increasingly important part of our strategy for expanding distribution of our products. Our brand-dedicated stores are either operated by us or by independent third parties such as franchisees. In addition to the dedicated stores, we maintain brand-dedicated ecommerce sites that sell products directly to consumers.

Company-operated retail stores . Our company-operated ecommerce sites and retail stores, including both mainline and outlet stores, generated approximately 28% , 26% and 25% of our net revenues in fiscal 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively. As of November 27, 2016 , we had 697 company-operated stores, predominantly Levi's ® stores, located in 31 countries across our three regions. We had 234 stores in the Americas, 267 stores in Europe and 196 stores in Asia. During 2016 , we added 68 company-operated stores and closed 27 stores.

Franchised and other stores . Franchised, licensed, or other forms of brand-dedicated stores operated by independent third parties sell Levi's ® and Dockers ® products in markets outside the United States. There were approximately 1,300 of these stores as of November 27, 2016 , and they are a key element of our international distribution. In addition to these stores, we consider our network of dedicated shop-in-shops, which are located within department stores and may be either operated directly by us or third parties, to be an important component of our retail distribution in international markets. Outside of the United States, approximately 400 dedicated shop-in-shops were operated directly by us and approximately 500 were operated by third parties as of November 27, 2016 .

Seasonality of Sales

We typically achieve our largest quarterly revenues in the fourth quarter, reflecting the “holiday” season. In fiscal 2016 , our net revenues in the first, second, third and fourth quarters represented 23% , 22% , 26% and 29% , respectively, of our total net revenues for the year. In fiscal 2015, our net revenues in the first, second, third and fourth quarters represented 23%, 23%, 25% and 29%, respectively, of our total net revenues for the year.

Our fiscal year ends on the last Sunday of November in each year, although the fiscal years of certain foreign subsidiaries end on November 30. Fiscal 2016 and 2015 were 52-week years, ending on November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , respectively. Fiscal 2014 was a 53-week year ending on November 30, 2014 . Each quarter of fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 consisted of 13 weeks, with the exception of the fourth quarter of fiscal 2014, which consisted of 14 weeks.

Marketing and Promotion

Our marketing is rooted in globally consistent brand messages that reflect the unique attributes of our brands, including the Levi's ® brand as the authentic and original jeanswear brand and the Dockers ® brand as the definitive khaki. We support our brands with a diverse mix of marketing initiatives to drive consumer demand, such as through social media and digital and mobile outlets, sponsorships, product placement in leading fashion magazines and with celebrities, television and radio advertisements, personal sponsorships and endorsements, on-the-ground efforts such as street-level events and similar targeted “viral” marketing activities.

We also use our websites, www.levi.com , www.dockers.com , www.levistrausssignature.com , and www.denizen.com , in relevant markets to enhance consumer understanding of our brands and help consumers find and buy our products.

Sourcing and Logistics

Organization . Our global sourcing and logistics organizations are responsible for taking a product from the design concept stage through production to delivery to our customers. Our objective is to leverage our global scale to achieve product development and sourcing efficiencies and reduce total product and distribution costs while maintaining our focus on product quality, local service levels and working capital management.

Product procurement . We source nearly all of our products through independent contract manufacturers. The remainder is sourced from our company-operated manufacturing and finishing plants. See “Item 2 – Properties” for more information about those manufacturing facilities.

Sources and availability of raw materials . The principal fabrics used in our products include cotton, blends, synthetics and wools. The prices we pay our suppliers for our products are dependent in part on the market price for raw materials used to produce them, primarily cotton. The price and availability of cotton may fluctuate substantially, depending on a variety of factors. The price fluctuations impact the cost of our products in future seasons due to the lead time of our product development cycle. Fluctuations in product costs can cause a decrease in our profitability if product pricing actions taken in response are insufficient or if those actions cause our wholesale customers or retail consumers to reduce the volumes they purchase.

Sourcing locations . We use numerous independent contract manufacturers located throughout the world for the production and finishing of our garments. We conduct assessments of political, social, economic, trade, labor and intellectual property protection conditions in the countries in which we source our products before placing production in those countries and on an ongoing basis.

In 2016 , we sourced products from contractors located in approximately 25 countries around the world. We sourced products in North and South Asia, South and Central America (including Mexico and the Caribbean), Europe and Africa. No single country accounted for more than 15% of our sourcing in 2016 .

Sourcing practices . Our sourcing practices include these elements:

- We require all third-party contractors and subcontractors who manufacture or finish products for us to comply with our code of conduct relating to supplier working conditions as well as environmental, employment and sourcing practices. We also require our licensees to ensure that their manufacturers comply with our requirements.
- Our code of conduct covers employment practices such as wages and benefits, working hours, health and safety, working age and discriminatory practices, environmental matters such as wastewater treatment and solid waste disposal, and ethical and legal conduct.
- We regularly assess manufacturing and finishing facilities through periodic on-site facility inspections and improvement activities, including use of independent monitors to supplement our internal staff. We integrate review and performance results into our sourcing decisions.

We disclose the names and locations of our contract manufacturers to encourage collaboration among apparel companies in factory monitoring and improvement. We regularly evaluate and refine our code of conduct processes.

Logistics . We operate dedicated distribution centers in a number of countries. For more information, see “Item 2 – Properties.” Distribution center activities include receiving finished goods from our contractors and plants, inspecting those products, preparing them for retail presentation, and shipping them to our customers and to our own stores. Our distribution centers maintain a combination of replenishment and seasonal inventory. In certain locations around the globe, we have consolidated our distribution centers to service multiple countries. In addition, we outsource some of our logistics activities to third-party logistics providers.

Competition

The global apparel industry is highly competitive and fragmented. It is characterized by low barriers to entry, brands targeted at specific consumer segments, many regional and local competitors, and an increasing number of global competitors. Principal competitive factors include:

- anticipating and responding to changing consumer demands and apparel trends in a timely manner;
- developing high-quality, innovative products with relevant designs, fits, finishes, fabrics, style and performance features that meet consumer desires and trends;
- maintaining favorable and strong brand name recognition and appeal through strong and effective marketing support and intelligence in diverse market segments;
- securing desirable retail locations and presenting products effectively at company-operated retail and franchised and other brand-dedicated stores;
- ensuring product availability at wholesale and direct-to-consumer channels, and at franchised and other brand-dedicated stores;
- optimizing supply chain cost efficiencies and product development cycle lead times;
- delivering compelling value for the price of our products in diverse market segments; and
- generating competitive economics for wholesale customers, including retailers, franchisees, and distributors.

We face competition from a broad range of competitors at the global, regional and local levels in diverse channels across a wide range of retail price points, and some of our competitors are larger and have more resources than we do in the markets in which we operate. Our primary competitors include vertically integrated specialty stores, jeanswear brands, khakiwear brands, athletic wear companies, retailers' private or exclusive labels, and certain ecommerce sites. For more information on the factors affecting our competitive position, see “Item 1A – Risk Factors.”

Trademarks

We have more than 5,000 trademark registrations and pending applications in approximately 180 jurisdictions worldwide, and we acquire rights in new trademarks according to business needs. Substantially all of our global trademarks are owned by Levi Strauss & Co., the parent and U.S. operating company. We regard our trademarks as our most valuable assets and believe they have substantial value in the marketing of our products. The Levi's ® , Dockers ® and 501 ® trademarks, the Arcuate Stitching Design, the Tab Device, the Two Horse ® Design, the Housemark and the Wings and Anchor Design are among our core trademarks.

We protect these trademarks by registering them with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and with governmental agencies in other countries, particularly where our products are manufactured or sold. We work vigorously to enforce and protect our trademark rights by engaging in regular market reviews, helping local law enforcement authorities detect and prosecute counterfeiters, issuing cease-and-desist letters against third parties infringing or denigrating our trademarks, opposing registration of infringing trademarks, and initiating litigation as necessary. We currently are pursuing over 200 infringement matters around the world. We also work with trade groups and industry participants seeking to strengthen laws relating to the protection of intellectual property rights in markets around the world.

Employees

As of November 27, 2016 , we employed approximately 13,200 people, approximately 6,200 of whom were located in the Americas, 3,800 in Europe, and 3,200 in Asia. Approximately 1,900 of our employees were associated with the manufacturing and procurement of our products, 6,600 worked in retail, including seasonal employees, 1,300 worked in distribution and 3,400 were other non-production employees.

History and Corporate Citizenship

Our history and longevity are unique in the apparel industry. Our commitment to quality, innovation and corporate citizenship began with our founder, Levi Strauss, who infused the business with the principle of responsible commercial success that has been embedded in our business practices throughout our more than 160-year history. This mixture of history, quality, innovation and corporate citizenship contributes to the iconic reputations of our brands.

In 1853, during the California Gold Rush, Mr. Strauss opened a wholesale dry goods business in San Francisco that became known as “Levi Strauss & Co.” Seeing a need for work pants that could hold up under rough conditions, he and Jacob Davis, a tailor, created the first jean. In 1873, they received a U.S. patent for “waist overalls” with metal rivets at points of strain. The first product line designated by the lot number “501” was created in 1890.

In the 19 th and early 20 th centuries, our work pants were worn primarily by cowboys, miners and other working men in the western United States. Then, in 1934, we introduced our first jeans for women, and after World War II, our jeans began to appeal to a wider market. By the 1960s, they had become a symbol of American culture, representing a unique blend of history and youth. We opened our export and international businesses in the 1950s and 1960s. In 1986, we introduced the Dockers ® brand of casual apparel which revolutionized the concept of business casual.

Throughout this long history, we have upheld our strong belief that we can help shape society through civic engagement and community involvement, responsible labor and workplace practices, philanthropy, ethical conduct, environmental stewardship and transparency. We have engaged in a “profits through principles” business approach from the earliest years of the business. Among our milestone initiatives over the years, we integrated our factories two decades prior to the U.S. civil rights movement and federally mandated desegregation, we developed a comprehensive supplier code of conduct requiring safe and healthy working conditions among our suppliers (a first of its kind for a multinational apparel company), and we offered full medical benefits to domestic partners of employees prior to other companies of our size, a practice that is widely accepted today.

Item 1A. RISK FACTORS

Risks Relating to our Industry

Our revenues are influenced by economic conditions that impact consumer spending.

Apparel is a cyclical industry that is dependent upon the overall level of consumer spending. Consumer purchases of discretionary items, including our products, generally decline during periods when disposable income is adversely affected or there is economic uncertainty. Our wholesale customers anticipate and respond to adverse changes in economic conditions and uncertainty by reducing inventories, canceling orders or increasing promotional activity. Our brand-dedicated stores are also affected by these conditions which may lead to a decline in consumer traffic and spending in these stores. As a result, factors that diminish consumer spending and confidence in any of the markets in which we compete, particularly deterioration in general economic conditions, the impact of foreign exchange fluctuations on tourism and tourist spending, volatility in investment returns, fear of unemployment, increases in energy costs or interest rates, housing market downturns, fear about and impact of pandemic illness, and other factors such as acts of war, natural disasters or terrorist or political events that impact consumer confidence, could reduce our sales and adversely affect our business and financial condition through their impact on our wholesale customers as well as their direct impact on us. These outcomes and behaviors have in the past, and may continue to, adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Intense competition in the global apparel industry could lead to reduced sales and prices.

We face a variety of competitive challenges in the global apparel industry from a variety of jeanswear and casual apparel companies, and competition has increased over the years due to factors such as the international expansion and increased presence of vertically integrated specialty stores; expansion into ecommerce by existing and new competitors; the proliferation of private labels and exclusive brands offered by department stores, chain stores and mass channel retailers; the introduction of jeans and casual apparel by well-known and successful athletic wear companies; and the movement of apparel companies who traditionally relied on wholesale distribution channels into their own retail distribution network. Some of these competitors have greater financial and marketing resources than we do and may be able to adapt to changes in consumer preferences or retail requirements more quickly, devote greater resources to the building and sustaining of their brand equity and the marketing and sale of their products both in stores and online. In addition, some of these competitors may be able to achieve lower product costs or adopt more aggressive pricing and discounting policies than we can. As a result, we may not be able to compete as effectively with them and may not be able to maintain or grow the demand for our products. These evolving competitive factors could reduce our sales and adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The success of our business depends upon our ability to offer on-trend and updated products at attractive price points.

The global apparel industry is characterized by ever-changing fashion trends and consumer preferences and by the rapid replication of new products by competitors. As a result, our success depends in large part on our ability to develop, market and deliver innovative and stylish products at a pace, intensity, and price competitive with other brands in the markets in which we sell our products. In addition, we must create products at a range of price points that appeal to the consumers of both our wholesale customers and our dedicated retail stores situated in each of our diverse geographic regions. Our development and production cycles take place prior to full visibility into all of these factors for the coming seasons. Failure on our part to forecast consumer demand and market conditions and to regularly and rapidly develop innovative and stylish products and update core products could limit sales growth, adversely affect retail and consumer acceptance of our products, and negatively impact the consumer traffic in our dedicated retail stores. In addition, if we fail to accurately forecast consumer demand, we may experience excess inventory levels. Inventory levels in excess of consumer demand may result in inventory write-downs and the sale of excess inventory at discounted prices, which could have an adverse effect on the image and reputation of our brands and could adversely affect our gross margins. Moreover, our newer products may not produce as high a gross margin as our traditional products and thus may have an adverse effect on our overall margins and profitability.

The global apparel industry is subject to intense pricing pressure.

The apparel market is characterized by low barriers to entry for both suppliers and marketers, global sourcing through suppliers located throughout the world, trade liberalization, continuing movement of product sourcing to lower cost countries, regular promotional activity, and the ongoing emergence of new competitors with widely varying strategies and resources. These factors have contributed, and may continue to contribute, to intense pricing pressure and uncertainty throughout the supply chain. Pricing pressure has been exacerbated by the variability of raw materials in recent years. This pressure could have the following effects:

- result in reduced gross margins across our product lines;
- increase retailer demands for allowances, incentives and other forms of economic support; and
- increase pressure on us to reduce our production costs and our operating expenses.

Any of these factors could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Increases in the price of raw materials could increase our cost of goods and negatively impact our financial results.

The principal fabrics used in our products include cotton, blends, synthetics and wools. The prices we pay our suppliers for our products are dependent in part on the market price for raw materials used to produce them, primarily cotton. The price and availability of cotton may fluctuate substantially, depending on a variety of factors, including demand, acreage devoted to cotton crops and crop yields, weather, supply conditions, transportation costs, energy prices, work stoppages, government regulation and government policy, economic climates, market speculation and other unpredictable factors. Any and all of these factors may be exacerbated by global climate change. Cotton prices suffered from unprecedented variability and uncertainty in prior years and may fluctuate significantly again in the future. Increases in raw material costs, unless sufficiently offset by our pricing actions, may cause a decrease in our profitability and negatively impact our sales volume. These factors may also have an adverse impact on our cash and working capital needs as well as those of our suppliers.

Our business is subject to risks associated with sourcing and manufacturing overseas.

We import both raw materials and finished garments into all of our operating regions. Our ability to import products in a timely and cost-effective manner may be affected by conditions at ports or issues that otherwise affect transportation and warehousing providers, such as port and shipping capacity, labor disputes and work stoppages, political unrest, severe weather, or security requirements in the United States and other countries. These issues could delay importation of products or require us to locate alternative ports or warehousing providers to avoid disruption to our customers. These alternatives may not be available on short notice or could result in higher transportation costs, which could have an adverse impact on our business and financial condition, specifically our gross margin and overall profitability.

Substantially all of our import operations are subject to customs and tax requirements as well as trade regulations, such as tariffs and quotas set by governments through mutual agreements or bilateral actions. In addition, the countries in which our products are manufactured or imported may from time to time impose additional quotas, duties, tariffs or other restrictions on our imports or adversely modify existing restrictions. Adverse changes in these import costs and restrictions, or our suppliers' failure to comply with customs regulations or similar laws, could harm our business. In this regard, the results of the November 2016 U.S. election and the Brexit vote have introduced greater uncertainty with respect to future tax and trade regulations. Changes in tax policy or trade regulations, such as the disallowance of tax deductions on imported merchandise or the imposition of new tariffs on imported products, could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Our operations are also subject to the effects of international trade agreements and regulations that impose requirements that could adversely affect our business, such as setting quotas on products that may be imported from a particular country into our key markets such as the United States or the European Union.

Risks Relating to Our Business

We depend on a group of key wholesale customers for a significant portion of our revenues. A significant adverse change in a customer relationship or in a customer's performance or financial position could harm our business and financial condition.

Sales to our top ten wholesale customers accounted for approximately 30% of our total net revenues in fiscal year 2016 and 31% of net revenues in both fiscal years 2015 and 2014 . No customer represented 10% or more of net revenues in any of these years. While we have long-standing relationships with our wholesale customers, we do not have long-term contracts with them. As a result, purchases generally occur on an order-by-order basis, and the relationship, as well as particular orders, can generally be terminated by either party at any time. If any major wholesale customer decreases or ceases its purchases from us, cancels its orders, reduces the floor space, assortments, fixtures or advertising for our products or changes its manner of doing business with us for any reason, such actions could adversely affect our business and financial condition. In addition, a decline in the performance or financial condition of a major wholesale customer – including bankruptcy or liquidation – could result in a material loss of revenues to us and cause us to limit or discontinue business with that customer, require us to assume more credit risk relating to our receivables from that customer or limit our ability to collect amounts related to previous purchases by that customer, all of which could adversely affect our own business and financial condition.

The retail industry in the United States has experienced substantial consolidation over the last decade, and further consolidation may occur. Consolidation in the retail industry typically results in store closures, centralized purchasing decisions, and increased emphasis by retailers on inventory management and productivity. In addition, we and other suppliers may experience increased customer leverage over us and greater exposure to credit risk as a result of industry consolidation. Any of the foregoing results can impact, and have adversely impacted in the past, our net revenues, margins and ability to operate efficiently.

We face risks arising from the restructuring of our operations and uncertainty with respect to our ability to achieve the estimated cost savings.

We continuously assess opportunities to streamline operations and fuel long-term profitable growth. Future charges related to such actions may harm our profitability in the periods incurred.

Implementation of global productivity actions presents a number of significant risks, including:

- actual or perceived disruption of service or reduction in service levels to wholesale customers and retail consumers;
- potential adverse effects on our internal control environment and inability to preserve adequate internal controls relating to our general and administrative functions in connection with the decision to outsource certain business service activities;
- actual or perceived disruption to suppliers, distribution networks and other important operational relationships and the inability to resolve potential conflicts in a timely manner;
- diversion of management attention from ongoing business activities and strategic objectives; and
- failure to maintain employee morale and retain key employees.

Because of these and other factors, such as the implementation delays we have experienced with our outsourcing of certain global business service activities, we cannot predict whether we will fully realize the purpose and anticipated operational benefits or cost savings of our global productivity actions and, if we do not, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected. Furthermore, if we experience adverse changes to our business, additional restructuring or reorganization activities may be required in the future.

We may be unable to maintain or increase our sales through our primary distribution channels.

In the United States, chain stores and department stores are the primary distribution channels for our Levi's ® and Dockers ® products. Outside the United States, department stores, franchised stores, and independent jeanswear retailers have traditionally been our primary distribution channels.

We may be unable to maintain or increase sales of our products through these distribution channels for several reasons, including the following:

- the retailers in these channels maintain – and seek to grow – substantial private-label and exclusive offerings as they strive to differentiate the brands and products they offer from those of their competitors;
- these retailers may also change their apparel strategies in a way that shifts focus away from our typical consumer or that otherwise results in a reduction of sales of our products generally, a reduction of fixture spaces or purchases of brands misaligned with their strategic requirements;
- other channels, including vertically integrated specialty stores and ecommerce sites, account for a substantial portion of jeanswear and casual wear sales. In some of our mature markets, these stores have placed competitive pressure on our primary distribution channels, and many of these stores are now looking to our developing markets to grow their business; or
- shrinking points of distribution, including fewer doors at our customer locations, or bankruptcy or financial difficulties of a customer.

Further success by retailer private-labels and vertically integrated specialty stores may continue to adversely affect the sales of our products across all channels, as well as the profitability of our brand-dedicated stores. Additionally, our ability to secure or maintain retail floor space, market share and sales in these channels depends on our ability to offer differentiated products and to increase retailer profitability on our products, which could have an adverse impact on our margins.

We are a global company with significant revenues and earnings generated internationally, which exposes us to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations, as well as political and economic risks.

A significant portion of our revenues and earnings are generated internationally. In addition, a substantial amount of our products come from sources outside of the country of distribution. As a result, we are subject to the risks of doing business outside of the United States, including:

- currency fluctuations, which have impacted our results of operations significantly in recent years;
- political, economic and social instability;
- changes in tariffs and taxes;
- regulatory restrictions on repatriating foreign funds back to the United States; and
- less protective foreign laws relating to intellectual property.

The functional currency for most of our foreign operations is the applicable local currency. As a result, fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates affect the results of our operations and the value of our foreign assets and liabilities, including debt, which in turn may adversely affect results of operations and cash flows and the comparability of period-to-period results of operations. For example, the June 2016 decision by the United Kingdom to leave the European Union ("Brexit") has resulted in increased uncertainty in the economic and political environment in Europe and has caused increased fluctuations and unpredictability in currency exchange rates. Changes in currency exchange rates may also affect the relative prices at which we and foreign competitors sell products in the same market. Foreign policies and actions regarding currency valuation could result in actions by the United States and other countries to offset the effects of such fluctuations. Given the unpredictability and volatility of foreign currency exchange rates, ongoing or unusual volatility may adversely impact our business and financial conditions.

Furthermore, due to our global operations, we are subject to numerous domestic and foreign laws and regulations affecting our business, such as those related to labor, employment, worker health and safety, antitrust and competition, environmental protection, consumer protection, import/export, and anti-corruption, including but not limited to the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act which prohibits giving anything of value intended to influence the awarding of government contracts. Although we have put into place policies and procedures aimed at ensuring legal and regulatory compliance, our employees, subcontractors and agents could take actions that violate these requirements. Violations of these regulations could subject us to criminal or civil enforcement actions, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business.

As a global company, we are exposed to risks of doing business in foreign jurisdictions and risks relating to U.S. policy with respect to companies doing business in foreign jurisdictions. Legislation or other changes in the U.S. tax laws could increase our U.S. income tax liability and adversely affect our after-tax profitability. For example, U.S. lawmakers are considering several U.S. corporate tax reform proposals, including, among others, proposals which could reduce or eliminate U.S. income tax deferrals on unrepatriated foreign earnings and eliminate tax incentives in exchange for a lower U.S. statutory tax rate. In addition, the results of the November 2016 U.S. election have introduced greater uncertainty with respect to future tax and trade regulations. Changes in tax policy or trade regulations, such as the disallowance of tax deductions on imported merchandise or the imposition of new tariffs on imported products, could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

If we encounter problems with distribution, our ability to deliver our products to market could be adversely affected.

We rely on company-owned and third-party distribution facilities to warehouse and ship products to our wholesale customers, retail stores and ecommerce consumers. As part of the pursuit for improved organizational agility and marketplace responsiveness, we have consolidated the number of distribution facilities we rely upon and continue to look for opportunities for further consolidation in certain regions. Such consolidation may make our operations more vulnerable to interruptions in the event of work stoppages, labor disputes, earthquakes, floods, fires or other natural disasters affecting our company-owned and third-party distribution centers. In addition, distribution capacity is dependent on the timely performance of services by third parties, including the transportation of products to and from their distribution facilities. Moreover, our distribution system includes computer-controlled and automated equipment, which may be subject to a number of risks related to security or computer viruses, the proper operation of software and hardware, power interruptions or other system failures. If we encounter problems with our distribution system whether company-owned or third-party, our ability to meet wholesale customer and ecommerce consumer expectations, manage inventory, complete sales and achieve operating efficiencies could be adversely affected.

Our efforts to expand our retail business may not be successful, which could impact our operating results.

One of our key strategic priorities is to become a world-class omni-channel retailer by expanding our consumer reach in brand-dedicated stores globally, including making selective investments in company-operated stores, dedicated ecommerce sites, franchisee and other dedicated store models. In many locations, we face major, established retail competitors who may be able to better attract customers and execute their retail strategies. In addition, a retail operating model involves substantial investments in equipment and property, information systems, inventory and personnel. Due to the high fixed-cost structure associated with these investments, a significant expansion in company-operated stores, a decline in sales or the closure of or poor performance of stores could result in significant costs and impacts to our margins. Our ability to grow our retail channel also depends on the availability of real estate that meets our criteria for traffic, square footage, demographics, and other factors. Failure to identify and secure adequate new locations, or failure to effectively manage the profitability of the fleet of stores, could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations.

If we are unable to effectively execute our ecommerce business our reputation and operating results may be harmed.

While still comprising a small portion of our net revenues, ecommerce has been our fastest growing business over the last several years. The success of our ecommerce business depends, in part, on third parties and factors over which we have limited control, including changing consumer preferences and buying trends relating to ecommerce usage, both domestically and abroad, as well as promotional or other advertising initiatives employed by our wholesale customers or other third parties on their ecommerce sites.

We are also vulnerable to certain additional risks and uncertainties associated with our ecommerce sites, including: changes in required technology interfaces; website downtime and other technical failures; costs and technical issues from website software upgrades; computer viruses; and changes in applicable federal and state regulations. In addition, we must keep up to date with competitive technology trends, including the use of new or improved technology, creative user interfaces and other ecommerce marketing tools such as paid search and mobile applications, among others, which may increase our costs and which may not succeed in increasing sales or attracting consumers. Our failure to successfully respond to these risks and uncertainties might adversely affect the sales in our ecommerce business, as well as damage our reputation and brands.

Additionally, the success of our ecommerce business and the satisfaction of our consumers depend on their timely receipt of our products. The efficient flow of our products requires that our company-operated and third-party operated distribution facilities have adequate capacity to support the current level of ecommerce operations and any anticipated increased levels that may follow from the growth of our ecommerce business. If we encounter difficulties with our distribution facilities or in our relationships with the third parties who operate the facilities, or if any facilities were to shut down for any reason, including as a result of fire or other natural disaster, we could face shortages of inventory, resulting in "out of stock" conditions in the ecommerce sites we operate and those operated by our wholesale customers or other third parties, and we could incur significantly higher costs and longer lead times associated with distributing our products to our consumers and experience dissatisfaction from our consumers. Any of these issues could have a material adverse effect on our business and harm our reputation.

Any major disruption or failure of our information technology systems could adversely affect our business and operations.

We rely on various information technology systems, owned by us and third parties, to manage our operations. Over the last several years, we have been and continue to implement modifications and upgrades to our systems, including making changes to legacy systems, replacing legacy systems with successor systems with new functionality and acquiring new systems with new functionality. These types of activities subject us to inherent costs and risks associated with replacing and changing these systems, including impairment of our ability to fulfill customer orders, potential disruption of our internal control structure, substantial capital expenditures, additional administration and operating expenses, retention of sufficiently skilled personnel to implement and operate the new systems, demands on management time, and other risks and costs of delays or difficulties in transitioning to new systems or of integrating new systems into our current systems. Our system implementations may not result in productivity improvements at a level that outweighs the costs of implementation, or at all. In addition, the difficulties with implementing new technology systems may cause disruptions in our business operations and have an adverse effect on our business and operations, if not anticipated and appropriately mitigated.

As we outsource functions, we become more dependent on the entities performing those functions. Disruptions or delays at our third-party service providers could adversely impact our operations.

As part of our long-term profitable growth strategy, we are continually looking for opportunities to provide essential business services in a more cost-effective manner. In some cases, this requires the outsourcing of functions or parts of functions that can be performed more effectively by external service providers. In 2014, we entered into an agreement with Wipro Limited to outsource certain information technology operations, and certain finance, human resource, consumer relations and customer service functions. While we believe we conduct appropriate diligence before entering into agreements with the outsourcing entity, the failure of one or more entities to meet our performance standards and expectations, including with respect to data security, provide them on a timely basis or to provide them at the prices we expect may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition. In addition, we could face increased costs associated with finding replacement vendors or hiring new employees in order to return these services in-house. We may outsource other functions in the future, which would increase our reliance on third parties.

We face cybersecurity risks and may incur increasing costs in an effort to minimize those risks.

We utilize systems and websites that allow for the secure storage and transmission of proprietary or confidential information regarding our customers, employees, and others, including credit card information and personal identification information. As evidenced by companies who have recently suffered serious security breaches, we may be vulnerable to, and unable to anticipate or detect data security breaches and data loss, including rapidly evolving and increasingly sophisticated cybersecurity attacks. In addition, data and security breaches can also occur as a result of a breach by us or our employees or by persons with whom we have commercial relationships that result in the unauthorized release of personal or confidential information. In addition to our own databases, we use third-party service providers to store, process and transmit confidential or sensitive information on our behalf. Although we contractually require these service providers to implement and use reasonable security measures, we cannot control third parties and cannot guarantee that a security breach will not occur in the future either at their location or within their systems.

A security breach may expose us to a risk of loss or misuse of this information, and could result in significant costs to us, which may include, among others, potential liabilities to payment card networks for reimbursement of credit card fraud and card reissuance costs, including fines and penalties, potential liabilities from governmental or third-party investigations, proceedings or litigation and diversion of management attention. We could also experience delays or interruptions in our ability to function in the normal course of business, including delays in the fulfillment or cancellation of customer orders or disruptions in the manufacture and shipment of products. In addition, actual or anticipated attacks may cause us to incur costs, including costs to deploy additional personnel and protection technologies, train employees, and engage third-party experts and consultants. Any compromise or breach of our security could result in a violation of applicable privacy and other laws, significant legal and financial exposure, and a loss of confidence in our security measures, which could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and our reputation.

In addition, the regulatory environment surrounding information security and privacy is increasingly demanding, with frequent imposition of new and changing requirements. Compliance with changes in privacy and information security laws and standards may result in significant expense due to increased investment in technology and the development of new operational processes.

We currently rely on contract manufacturing of our products. Our inability to secure production sources meeting our quality, cost, working conditions and other requirements, or failures by our contractors to perform, could harm our sales, service levels and reputation.

We source approximately 95% of our products from independent contract manufacturers who purchase fabric and make our products and may also provide us with design and development services. As a result, we must locate and secure production capacity. We depend on independent manufacturers to maintain adequate financial resources, including access to sufficient credit, secure a sufficient supply of raw materials, and maintain sufficient development and manufacturing capacity in an environment characterized by continuing cost pressure and demands for product innovation and speed-to-market. In addition, we currently do not have any material long-term contracts with any of our independent manufacturers. Under our current arrangements with our independent manufacturers, these manufacturers generally may unilaterally terminate their relationship with us at any time. Finally, while we have historically worked with numerous manufacturers, in the past several years we have begun consolidating the number of independent manufacturers from which we source our products. Reliance on a fewer number of independent manufacturers involves risk and any difficulties or failures to perform by our independent contract manufacturers could cause delays in product shipments or otherwise negatively affect our results of operations.

Our dependence on contract manufacturing could subject us to difficulty in obtaining timely delivery of products of acceptable quality. For example, a contractor's failure to ship products to us in a timely manner or to meet our quality standards, or interference with our ability to receive shipments due to factors such as port or transportation conditions, could cause us to miss the delivery date requirements of our customers. Failing to make timely deliveries may cause our customers to cancel orders, refuse to accept deliveries, impose non-compliance charges, demand reduced prices, or reduce future orders, any of which could harm our sales and margins.

We require contract manufacturers to meet our standards in terms of working conditions, environmental protection, raw materials, facility safety, security and other matters before we are willing to place business with them. As such, we may not be able to obtain the lowest-cost production. In addition, the labor and business practices of apparel manufacturers have received increased attention from the media, non-governmental organizations, consumers and governmental agencies in recent years. Any failure by our independent manufacturers to adhere to labor or other laws or appropriate labor or business practices, and the potential litigation, negative publicity and political pressure relating to any of these events, could harm our business and reputation.

Our suppliers may be impacted by economic conditions and cycles and changing laws and regulatory requirements which could impact their ability to do business with us or cause us to terminate our relationship with them and require us to find replacements, which we may have difficulty doing.

Our suppliers are subject to the fluctuations in general economic cycles, and global economic conditions may impact their ability to operate their businesses. They may also be impacted by the increasing costs of raw materials, labor and distribution, resulting in demands for less attractive contract terms or an inability for them to meet our requirements or conduct their own businesses. The performance and financial condition of a supplier may cause us to alter our business terms or to cease doing business with a particular supplier, or change our sourcing practices generally, which could in turn adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Regulatory developments such as the use of "conflict" minerals mined from the Democratic Republic of Congo and adjoining countries could affect the sourcing and availability of raw materials used by our suppliers in the manufacturing of certain of our products. We have been and may continue to be subject to costs associated with regulations, including for the diligence pertaining to the presence of any conflict minerals used in our products and the cost of remediation and other changes to products, processes, or sources of supply as a consequence of such verification activities. The impact of the regulations may result in a limited pool of suppliers who provide conflict free metals, and we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain products in sufficient quantities or at competitive prices. Also, because our supply chain is complex, we may face reputational challenges with our consumers and other stakeholders if we are unable to sufficiently verify the origins for all metals used in the products we sell.

If one or more of our counterparty financial institutions default on their obligations to us, we may incur significant losses.

As part of our hedging activities, we enter into transactions involving derivative financial instruments, which may include forward contracts, commodity futures contracts, option contracts, collars and swaps, with various financial institutions. In addition, we have significant amounts of cash, cash equivalents and other investments on deposit or in accounts with banks or other financial institutions in the United States and abroad. As a result, we are exposed to the risk of default by or failure of counterparty financial institutions. The risk of counterparty default or failure may be heightened during economic downturns and periods of uncertainty in the financial markets. If one of our counterparties were to become insolvent or file for bankruptcy, our ability to recover losses incurred as a result of default or our assets that are deposited or held in accounts with such counterparty may be limited by the counterparty's liquidity or the applicable laws governing the insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings. In the event of default or failure of one or more of our counterparties, we could incur significant losses, which could negatively impact our results of operations and financial condition.

The loss of members of the Company's executive management and other key employees could harm our business.

Our future success depends in part on the continued service of our executive management team and other key employees, and the loss of the services of any key individual could harm our business. Our future success depends, in part, on our ability to recruit, retain and motivate our employees sufficiently, both to maintain our current business and to execute our strategic initiatives. Competition for experienced and well-qualified employees in our industry is particularly intense in many of the places where we do business, and we may not be successful in attracting and retaining such personnel.

Most of the employees in our production and distribution facilities are covered by collective bargaining agreements, and any material job actions could negatively affect our results of operations.

In North America, most of our distribution employees are covered by various collective bargaining agreements, and outside North America, most of our production and distribution employees are covered by either industry-sponsored and/or government-sponsored collective bargaining mechanisms. Any work stoppages or other job actions by these employees could harm our business and reputation.

Our licensees and franchisees may not comply with our product quality, manufacturing standards, marketing and other requirements which could negatively affect our reputation and business.

We license our trademarks to third parties for manufacturing, marketing and distribution of various products. While we enter into comprehensive agreements with our licensees covering product design, product quality, sourcing, manufacturing, marketing and other requirements, our licensees may not comply fully with those agreements. Non-compliance could include marketing products under our brand names that do not meet our quality and other requirements or engaging in manufacturing practices that do not meet our supplier code of conduct. These activities could harm our brand equity, our reputation and our business.

In addition, we enter into franchise agreements with unaffiliated franchisees to operate stores and, in limited circumstances, websites, in many countries around the world. Under these agreements, third parties operate, or will operate, stores and websites that sell apparel and related products under our brand names. While the agreements we have entered into and plan to enter into in the future provide us with certain termination rights, the value of our brands could be impaired to the extent that these third parties do not operate their stores in a manner consistent with our requirements regarding our brand identities and customer experience standards. Failure to protect the value of our brands, or any other harmful acts or omissions by a franchisee, could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and our reputation.

Our success depends on the continued protection of our trademarks and other proprietary intellectual property rights.

Our trademarks and other intellectual property rights are important to our success and competitive position, and the loss of or inability to enforce trademark and other proprietary intellectual property rights could harm our business. We devote substantial resources to the establishment and protection of our trademark and other proprietary intellectual property rights on a global basis. Our efforts to establish and protect our trademark and other proprietary intellectual property rights may not be adequate to prevent imitation of our products by others or to prevent others from seeking to block sales of our products. Unauthorized copying of our products or unauthorized use of our trademarks or other proprietary rights may not only erode sales of our products but may also cause significant reputational harm to our brand names and our ability to effectively represent ourselves to our customers, contractors, suppliers and/or licensees. Moreover, others may seek to assert rights in, or ownership of, our trademarks and other intellectual property, including through civil and/or criminal prosecution. We may not be able to successfully resolve those claims, which may result in financial liability and criminal penalties. In addition, the laws and enforcement mechanisms of some foreign countries may not allow us to protect our proprietary rights to the same extent as we are able to in the United States and other countries.

We have substantial liabilities and cash requirements associated with postretirement benefits, pension and our deferred compensation plans.

Our postretirement benefits, pension, and our deferred compensation plans result in substantial liabilities on our balance sheet. These plans and activities have and will generate substantial cash requirements for us, and these requirements may increase beyond our expectations in future years based on changing market conditions. The difference between plan obligations and assets, or the funded status of the plans, is a significant factor in determining the net periodic benefit costs of our pension plans and the ongoing funding requirements of those plans. Many variables, such as changes in interest rates, mortality rates, health care costs, investment returns, and/or the market value of plan assets can affect the funded status of our defined benefit pension, other postretirement, and postemployment benefit plans and cause volatility in the net periodic benefit cost and future funding requirements of the plans. Plan liabilities may impair our liquidity, have an unfavorable impact on our ability to obtain financing and place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to some of our competitors who do not have such liabilities and cash requirements.

Natural disasters, public health crisis, political crisis, and other catastrophic events or other events outside of our control may damage our facilities or the facilities of third parties on which we depend, and could impact consumer spending.

Our global headquarters and the headquarters of our Americas region are both located in California near major geologic faults that have experienced earthquakes in the past. An earthquake or other natural disaster or power shortages or outages could disrupt operations or impair critical systems. Any of these disruptions or other events outside of our control could affect our business negatively, harming our operating results. In addition, if any of our facilities, including our manufacturing, finishing or distribution facilities or our company-operated or franchised stores, or the facilities of our suppliers or customers, is affected by natural disasters, such as earthquakes, tsunamis, power shortages or outages, floods or monsoons; public health crisis, such as pandemics and epidemics; political crisis, such as terrorism, war, political instability or other conflict; or other events outside of our control, our business and operating results could suffer. Moreover, these types of events could negatively impact consumer spending in the impacted regions or depending upon the severity, globally, which could adversely impact our operating results. Disasters occurring at our vendors' manufacturing facilities could impact our reputation and our customers' perception of our brands.

Risks Relating to Our Debt

We have debt and interest payment requirements at a level that may restrict our future operations.

As of November 27, 2016 , we had approximately $1.0 billion of debt, all of which was unsecured, and we had $784.3 million of additional borrowing capacity under our amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility. Our debt requires us to dedicate a substantial portion of any cash flow from operations to the payment of interest and principal due under our debt, which will reduce funds available for other business purposes, and result in us having lower net income than we would otherwise have had. This dedicated use of cash could impact our ability to successfully compete by, for example:

- increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;
- limiting our flexibility in planning for or reacting to changes in our business and industry;
- placing us at a competitive disadvantage compared to some of our competitors that have less debt; and

- limiting our ability to obtain additional financing required to fund working capital and capital expenditures and for other general corporate purposes.

In addition, borrowings under our amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility bear interest at variable rates. As a result, increases in market interest rates could require a greater portion of our cash flow to be used to pay interest, which could further hinder our operations. Increases in market interest rates may also affect the trading price of our debt securities that bear interest at a fixed rate. Our ability to satisfy our obligations and to reduce our total debt depends on our future operating performance and on economic, financial, competitive and other factors, many of which are beyond our control.

Restrictions in our notes, indentures and amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility may limit our activities, including dividend payments, share repurchases and acquisitions.

Our amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility and the indentures relating to our senior unsecured notes contain restrictions, including covenants limiting our ability to incur additional debt, grant liens, make acquisitions and other investments, prepay specified debt, consolidate, merge or acquire other businesses, sell assets, pay dividends and other distributions, repurchase stock, and enter into transactions with affiliates. These restrictions, in combination with our leveraged condition, may make it more difficult for us to successfully execute our business strategy, grow our business or compete with companies not similarly restricted.

If our foreign subsidiaries are unable to distribute cash to us when needed, we may be unable to satisfy our obligations under our debt securities, which could force us to sell assets or use cash that we were planning to use elsewhere in our business.

We conduct our international operations through foreign subsidiaries and we only receive the cash that remains after our foreign subsidiaries satisfy their obligations. We may depend upon funds from our foreign subsidiaries for a portion of the funds necessary to meet our debt service obligations. Any agreements our foreign subsidiaries enter into with other parties, as well as applicable laws and regulations limiting the right and ability of non-U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates to pay dividends and remit cash to affiliated companies, may restrict the ability of our foreign subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other distributions to us. If those subsidiaries are unable to pass on the amount of cash that we need, we may be unable to make payments on our debt obligations, which could force us to sell assets or use cash that we were planning on using elsewhere in our business, which could hinder our operations and affect the trading price of our debt securities.

Volatility in the capital markets could affect our ability to access capital or could increase our costs of capital.

A downturn or disruption in the credit markets may reduce sources of liquidity available to us or increase our costs of capital, which could impact our ability to maintain or grow our business, which in turn may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Item 2. PROPERTIES

We conduct manufacturing, distribution and administrative activities in owned and leased facilities. We operate two manufacturing-related facilities abroad and seven distribution centers around the world. We have renewal rights for most of our property leases. We anticipate that we will be able to extend these leases on terms satisfactory to us or, if necessary, locate substitute facilities on acceptable terms. We believe our facilities and equipment are in good condition and are suitable for our needs. Information about our key operating properties in use as of November 27, 2016 , is summarized in the following table **:

Location	Primary Use	Leased/Owned
Americas
San Francisco, CA	Design and Product Development	Leased
Hebron, KY	Distribution	Owned
Canton, MS	Distribution	Owned
Henderson, NV	Distribution	Owned
Etobicoke, Canada	Distribution	Owned
Cuautitlan, Mexico	Distribution	Leased
Europe
Plock, Poland	Manufacturing and Finishing	Leased (1)
Northhampton, U.K.	Distribution	Leased (2)
Asia
Adelaide, Australia	Distribution	Leased
Cape Town, South Africa	Manufacturing, Finishing and Distribution	Leased

(1) Building and improvements are owned but subject to a ground lease.

(2) In the second quarter of 2016, we executed a sales-leaseback for this distribution center.

Our global headquarters and the headquarters of our Americas region are both located in leased premises in San Francisco, California. Our Europe and Asia headquarters are located in leased premises in Diegem, Belgium and Singapore, respectively. In addition to the above, we operate finance shared service centers in Eugene, Oregon and Singapore. We also operate a back-up data center located in Westlake, Texas. As of November 27, 2016 , we also leased or owned 81 administrative and sales offices in 42 countries, as well as leased 12 warehouses in 6 countries.

In addition, as of November 27, 2016 , we had 697 company-operated retail and outlet stores in leased premises in 31 countries. We had 234 stores in the Americas region, 267 stores in the Europe region and 196 stores in the Asia region.

Item 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the ordinary course of business, we have various pending cases involving contractual matters, facility and employee-related matters, distribution matters, product liability claims, trademark infringement and other matters. We do not believe any of these pending legal proceedings will have a material impact on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Item 4. MINE SAFETY DISCLOSURES

PART II

Item 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY, RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS AND ISSUER PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES

Our common stock is primarily owned by descendants of the family of Levi Strauss and their relatives. Shares of our common stock are not publicly held or traded. All shares are subject to a stockholders' agreement. The agreement, which expires in April 2019, unless otherwise extended pursuant to its terms as further described in Item 12, limits the transfer of shares to other holders, family members, specified charities and foundations and back to the Company. The agreement does not provide for registration rights or other contractual devices for forcing a public sale of shares or certificates, or other access to liquidity.

As of February 6, 2017 , there were 276 record holders of our common stock. Our shares are not registered on any national securities exchange, there is no established public trading market for our shares and none of our shares are convertible into shares of any other class of stock or other securities.

We paid a cash dividend of $60.0 million on our common stock in the second quarter of 2016 , and cash dividends of $50.0 million and $30.0 million in the first half of 2015 and 2014 , respectively. Subsequent to the fiscal year end, on February 1, 2017, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $70.0 million , payable in two $35 million installments. The Company expects to pay the first installment in the first quarter of 2017 and the second installment in the fourth quarter of 2017. Please see Note 15 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for more information. The Company does not have an established annual dividend policy. The Company will continue to review its ability to pay cash dividends at least annually, and dividends may be declared at the discretion of our board of directors depending upon, among other factors, our financial condition and compliance with the terms of our debt agreements. Our debt arrangements limit our ability to pay dividends. For more detailed information about these limitations, see Note 6 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report.

We repurchased and retired 9,316 shares of common stock during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended November 27, 2016 , in connection with the exercise of call or put rights under our 2016 Equity Incentive Plan, as described in Note 11 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report.

Item 6. SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

The following table sets forth our selected historical consolidated financial data which are derived from our audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2016 , 2015 , 2014 , 2013 and 2012 . The financial data set forth below should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified by reference to, "Item 7 – Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," our audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2016 , 2015 and 2014 and the related notes to those audited consolidated financial statements, included elsewhere in this report.

Item 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Our Company

We design, market and sell – directly or through third parties and licensees – products that include jeans, casual and dress pants, tops, shorts, skirts, jackets, footwear and related accessories for men, women and children around the world under our Levi's ®, Dockers ®, Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ ("Signature") and Denizen ® brands.

Our business is operated through three geographic regions: Americas, Europe and Asia. Our products are sold in approximately 50,000 retail locations in more than 110 countries. We support our brands through a global infrastructure, developing, sourcing and marketing our products around the world. We distribute our Levi's ® and Dockers ® products primarily through chain retailers and department stores in the United States and primarily through department stores, specialty retailers and approximately 2,200 franchised or other brand-dedicated stores and shop-in-shops outside of the United States. We also distribute our Levi's ® and Dockers ® products through 697 company-operated retail stores located in 31 countries, including the United States, and through the ecommerce sites we operate. Our company-operated retail stores and ecommerce sites generated approximately 28% of our net revenues in 2016 , as compared to 26% in the same period in 2015 , with our ecommerce sites representing approximately 14% of this revenue in 2016 , as compared to 13% in the same period in 2015 . In addition, we distribute our Levi's ® and Dockers ® products through ecommerce sites operated by certain of our key wholesale customers and other third parties. We distribute products under our Signature and Denizen ® brands primarily through mass channel retailers in the Americas.

Our Europe and Asia businesses, collectively, contributed approximately 41% of our net revenues and 39% of our regional operating income in 2016 , as compared to 39% of our net revenues and 37% of our regional operating income in 2015 . Sales of Levi's ® brand products represented approximately 85% of our total net sales in each of 2016 and 2015 . Pants represented approximately 77% of our total units sold in 2016 , as compared to 81% of our total units sold in 2015 , and men's products generated approximately 76% of our total net sales as compared to 77% in 2015 .

Our Objectives

Our key long-term objectives are to strengthen our brands globally in order to deliver sustainable profitable growth and generate strong cash flow. Critical strategies to achieve these objectives include driving our profitable core business; expanding the reach of our brands and building a more balanced product portfolio; elevating the performance of our retail channel, including ecommerce; and leveraging our global scale to improve our cost structure.

For 2017, on a constant-currency basis, our financial objective is to grow full-year revenues, as compared to 2016, and maintain full-year gross margin at approximately 51%.

Trends Affecting Our Business

We believe the key business and marketplace factors that are impacting our business include the following:

- Factors that impact consumer discretionary spending, which remains mixed globally, have created a challenging retail environment for us and our customers, characterized by declining traffic patterns and contributing to a generally promotional environment. In developed economies, slow real wage growth and a shift in consumer spending to interest-rate sensitive durable goods and other non-apparel categories also continue to pressure global discretionary spending. Given consumers' increasing focus on value pricing amid the slowly recovering economy, the off-price retail channel remains strong, partially to the detriment of traditional broadline retailers, particularly at the mid-tier.
- More competitors are seeking growth globally, thereby raising the competitiveness across regions. Some of these competitors are entering into markets where we already have a mature business such as the United States, Mexico, Western Europe and Japan, and those new brands may provide consumers discretionary purchase alternatives or lower-priced apparel offerings.
- Wholesaler/retailer dynamics and wholesale channels remain challenged by slowed growth prospects due to increased competition from vertically-integrated specialty stores, fast-fashion retail, and ecommerce shopping, and pricing transparency enabled by proliferation of online technologies. As a result, many of our customers desire increased returns on their investment with us through increased margins and inventory turns, and they continue to build competitive exclusive or private-label offerings. Many apparel wholesalers, including us, seek to strengthen relationships with customers as a result of these changes in the marketplace through efforts such as investment in new products, marketing programs, fixtures and collaborative planning systems.

- Many apparel companies that have traditionally relied on wholesale distribution channels have invested in expanding their own retail store and ecommerce distribution and consumer-facing technologies, which has increased competition in the retail market.
- Competition for, and price volatility of, resources throughout the supply chain have increased, causing us and other apparel manufacturers to continue to seek alternative sourcing channels and create new efficiencies in our global supply chain. Trends affecting the supply chain include the proliferation of lower-cost sourcing alternatives, resulting in reduced barriers to entry for new competitors, and the impact of fluctuating prices of labor and raw materials. Trends such as these can bring additional pressure on us and other wholesalers and retailers to shorten lead-times, reduce costs and raise product prices.
- While currency values are in constant flux, we expect that the appreciation of the U.S. Dollar against various foreign currencies, particularly the Euro, British Pound, Yen and Mexican Peso, will continue to impact our financial results, affecting translation, revenue and operating margins, as well as traffic in stores located in or near major domestic tourist attractions.
- Recent sociopolitical events, including the results of the November 2016 U.S. election, and the Brexit decision, have introduced greater uncertainty with respect to future tax and trade regulations. Changes in tax policy or trade regulations, including import tariffs, could have material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

These factors contribute to a global market environment of intense competition, constant product innovation and continuing cost pressure, and combine with the continuing global economic conditions to create a challenging commercial and economic environment. We evaluate these factors as we develop and execute our strategies.

Our 2016 Results

Our 2016 results reflect constant-currency net revenues growth and an increase in operating income.

- Net revenues. Compared to 2015 , consolidated net revenues increased by 1% on a reported basis and increased by 3% on a constant-currency basis, driven by higher retail revenues from the expansion and improved performance of our retail network performance in all three regions, partially offset by a decline in wholesale revenues in the United States.
- Operating income . Compared to 2015 , consolidated operating income increased by 7% and operating margin improved to 10% , primarily reflecting lower restructuring and restructuring-related charges in 2016 and an improvement in our constant-currency gross margin, partially offset by increased investment in retail and the effects of currency.
- Cash flows. Cash flows provided by operating activities were $307 million for 2016 as compared to $218 million for 2015 ; the increase reflects higher trade receivable collections and lower payments associated with restructuring-related items and interest, offset by increased inventory levels.

Financial Information Presentation

Fiscal year . Our fiscal year ends on the last Sunday of November in each year, although the fiscal years of certain foreign subsidiaries end on November 30. Fiscal 2016 and 2015 were 52-week years ending on November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , respectively. Fiscal 2014 was a 53-week year ending on November 30, 2014 . Each quarter of fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 consisted of 13 weeks, with the exception of the fourth quarter of 2014, which consisted of 14 weeks.

Segments . We manage our business according to three regional segments: the Americas, Europe and Asia. Effective as of the beginning of 2015, our regional licensing revenue, previously recorded centrally in our Americas region, was revised to be recorded in our respective regions. Regional licensing revenues are not significant to any of our regional segments individually in any of the periods presented herein, and accordingly, business segment information for the prior periods has not been revised. Certain of our global expenses, including global e-commerce infrastructure, global brand merchandising and global brand marketing costs, that support all of our regional segments, are included in our Americas region segment operating income.

Classification . Our classification of certain significant revenues and expenses reflects the following:

- Net revenues is primarily comprised of sales of products to wholesale customers, including franchised stores, and direct sales to consumers at our company-operated ecommerce sites and stores and at our company-operated shop-in-shops located within department stores. It includes discounts, allowances for estimated returns and incentives. Net revenues also include royalties earned from the use of our trademarks by third-party licensees in connection with the manufacturing, advertising and distribution of trademarked products.

- Cost of goods sold is primarily comprised of product costs, labor and related overhead, sourcing costs, inbound freight, internal transfers, and the cost of operating our remaining manufacturing facilities, including the related depreciation expense.
- Selling costs include, among other things, all occupancy costs and depreciation associated with our company-operated stores and commissions associated with our company-operated shop-in-shops, as well as costs associated with our ecommerce operations.
- We reflect substantially all distribution costs in SG&A, including costs related to receiving and inspection at distribution centers, warehousing, shipping to our customers, handling, and certain other activities associated with our distribution network.

Gross margins may not be comparable to those of other companies in our industry since some companies may include costs related to their distribution network and occupancy costs associated with company-operated stores in cost of goods sold.

Constant currency. Constant-currency comparisons are based on translating local currency amounts in the prior-year period at actual foreign exchange rates for the current year. We routinely evaluate our financial performance on a constant-currency basis in order to facilitate period-to-period comparisons without regard to the impact of changing foreign currency exchange rates.

Results of Operations

The following table summarizes, for the periods indicated, our consolidated statements of income, the changes in these items from period to period and these items expressed as a percentage of net revenues:

Net revenues

The following table presents net revenues by reporting segment for the periods indicated and the changes in net revenues by reporting segment on both reported and constant-currency bases from period to period:

	Year Ended
			% Increase (Decrease)
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	As Reported	Constant Currency
	(Dollars in millions)
Net revenues:
Americas	$ 2,682.9	$ 2,726.5	(1.6)%	(0.3)%
Europe	1,091.4	1,016.4	7.4 %	10.0 %
Asia	778.4	751.6	3.6 %	6.1 %
Total net revenues	$ 4,552.7	$ 4,494.5	1.3 %	3.1 %

As compared to the same period in the prior year, total net revenues were affected unfavorably by changes in foreign currency exchange rates across all regions.

Americas . Net revenues in our Americas region decreased on reported basis and remained relatively flat on a constant-currency basis, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $35 million .

Excluding the effects of currency, the continued weak environment for apparel retailers in the United States resulted in a decline in the United States wholesale net revenues. This decline was mostly offset by wholesale growth in Mexico and the improved performance and expansion of our company-operated retail network in the region, including e-commerce.

Europe . Net revenues in Europe increased on both reported and constant-currency bases, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $24 million .

Net revenues increased from the expansion and performance of our company-operated retail network, including e-commerce.

Asia . Net revenues in Asia increased on both reported and constant-currency bases, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $18 million .

The increase in net revenues was primarily due to the expansion and improved performance of our company-operated retail network, particularly company-operated outlet and e-commerce channels. Higher traditional wholesale revenues were partially offset by a decline in the Mainland China franchise channel as a result of weakened performance and an increase in franchisee support.

Gross profit

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	% Increase (Decrease)
	(Dollars in millions)
Net revenues	$ 4,552.7	$ 4,494.5	1.3 %
Cost of goods sold	2,223.7	2,225.5	(0.1)%
Gross profit	$ 2,329.0	$ 2,269.0	2.6 %
Gross margin	51.2%	50.5%

Currency translation unfavorably impacted gross profit by approximately $36 million . Gross margin improved primarily due to lower negotiated product costs and streamlined supply chain operations as well as international retail growth, partially offset by the unfavorable transactional impact of currency.

Selling, general and administrative expenses

The following table shows our SG&A for the periods indicated, the changes in these items from period to period and these items expressed as a percentage of net revenues:

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	% Increase (Decrease)	November 27, 2016 % of Net Revenues	November 29, 2015 % of Net Revenues
	(Dollars in millions)
Selling	$ 776.7	$ 734.1	5.8 %	17.1%	16.3%
Advertising and promotion	284.0	276.4	2.8 %	6.2%	6.1%
Administration	351.9	364.4	(3.4)%	7.7%	8.1%
Other	446.7	418.3	6.8 %	9.8%	9.3%
Restructuring-related charges	7.2	30.7	(76.6)%	0.2%	0.7%
Total SG&A	$ 1,866.5	$ 1,823.9	2.3 %	41.0%	40.6%

Currency affected SG&A favorably by approximately $26 million as compared to the prior year. The constant-currency increase in SG&A reflected our strategic investments in our growth initiatives: direct-to-consumer retail and advertising.

Selling . Currency impacted selling expenses favorably by approximately $16 million as compared to the prior year. Higher selling expenses primarily reflected costs associated with the expansion of our company-operated store network. We had 41 more company-operated stores at the end of 2016 than we did at the end of 2015 .

Advertising and promotion . Currency impacted advertising and promotion expense favorably by approximately $4 million as compared to the prior year. The slight increase as a percentage of net revenues reflected higher advertising investment as compared to the prior-year period, in line with our constant-currency revenue growth.

Administration . Currency impacted administration expenses favorably by approximately $3 million as compared to the prior year. As compared to 2015, administration expenses in 2016 reflect the recognition of approximately $7.0 million of benefit as a result of the resolution of a vendor dispute and the related reversal of liabilities recorded in a prior year. Lower organization costs, including salaries, benefits and long-term incentive compensation, also contributed to the decrease.

Other . Other SG&A includes distribution, information resources, and marketing organization costs. Currency impacted other SG&A expenses favorably by approximately $3 million as compared to the prior year. The increase in other SG&A primarily reflects higher information technology expenses and distribution costs. Additionally, we recorded a gain of $6.1 million in conjunction with the sale-leaseback of our distribution center in the United Kingdom in 2016 as compared to a $7.5 million gain recognized related to the sale of our finishing and distribution facility in Turkey in 2015.

Restructuring-related charges . Restructuring-related charges consist primarily of consulting fees incurred for our centrally-led cost-savings and productivity projects, as well as transition costs associated with our decision to outsource certain global business service activities. These related charges represent costs incurred associated with ongoing operations which will benefit future periods and thus were recorded in SG&A in our consolidated statements of income.

Restructuring, net

For the year ended November 27, 2016 , we recognized restructuring charges, net, of $0.3 million , as compared to $14.1 million for the same period in 2015 , related to our global productivity actions, consisting primarily of severance benefits, consulting fees and noncash pension and postretirement curtailment gains or losses.

Currency translation unfavorably affected total operating income by approximately $10 million as compared to the prior year.

Regional operating income .

- Americas. Currency translation unfavorably affected operating income in the region by approximately $8 million as compared to the prior year. Lower constant-currency operating income and operating margin primarily reflected lower revenues and gross margin as well as increased investment in retail.
- Europe. Currency translation favorably affected operating income by approximately $1 million as compared to the prior year. Operating income increased primarily due to the region's higher net revenues, partially offset by increased investment in retail in the region and the unfavorable currency transaction impact of the British Pound. Operating margin remained consistent.
- Asia. Currency translation unfavorably affected operating income by approximately $5 million as compared to the prior year. Lower constant-currency operating income and operating margin primarily reflected lower gross margin for the region as well as increased investment in retail and advertising, partially offset by higher revenues in the region.

Corporate . Corporate expenses represent costs that are not attributed to any of our regional operating segments. Included in corporate expenses are restructuring charges, the consulting fees incurred for our centrally-led cost-savings and productivity projects and other corporate staff costs. Currency translation did not have a significant impact on corporate expenses.

As compared to the prior year, other corporate staff costs and expenses decreased, primarily driven by lower restructuring and restructuring-related charges and a decrease in foreign currency transaction losses related to our global sourcing organization's procurement of inventory on behalf of our foreign subsidiaries, of which approximately $23 million of the decrease is related to our Europe region and $10 million related to our Asia region.

Interest expense

Interest expense was $73.2 million for the year ended November 27, 2016 , as compared to $81.2 million in the prior year. The decrease in interest expense was primarily due to lower average debt balances and lower average borrowing rates in 2016, resulting from our debt reduction and refinancing activities in 2015.

The weighted-average interest rate on average borrowings outstanding for 2016 was 6.37% , as compared to 6.72% for 2015 .

Loss on early extinguishment of debt

For the year ended November 29, 2015 , we recorded a loss of $14.0 million on early extinguishment of debt as a result of our debt refinancing activities during the year. The loss was comprised of redemption premiums of $7.5 million and the write-off of $3.5 million of unamortized debt issuance costs, and $3.0 million of other costs.

Other income (expense), net

Other income (expense), net, primarily consists of foreign exchange management activities and transactions. For the year ended November 27, 2016 , we recorded net other income of $18.2 million as compared to net other expense of $25.4 million for the prior year. The income in 2016 primarily reflected net gains on foreign exchange derivatives partially offset by losses on our foreign currency denominated balances, which economically hedge future foreign currency cash flow obligations. The majority of the net expense in 2015 reflected net losses on our foreign currency denominated balances, partially offset by net gains on foreign exchange derivatives.

Income tax expense

Income tax expense was $116.1 million for the year ended November 27, 2016 , compared to $100.5 million for the prior year. Our effective income tax rate was 28.5% for the year ended November 27, 2016 , compared to 32.4% for the prior year.

The decrease in the effective tax rate in 2016 as compared to 2015 is primarily due to a higher proportion of 2016 earnings in jurisdictions where we are subject to lower tax rates.

For the year ended November 27, 2016, management asserted indefinite reinvestment on $100.0 million of undistributed foreign earnings, as management determined that this amount is required to meet ongoing working capital needs in certain foreign subsidiaries; no U.S. income taxes have been provided for such earnings. If the Company were to repatriate such foreign earnings to the United States, the deferred tax liability associated with such earnings would have been approximately $26.6 million.

The following table summarizes, for the periods indicated, our consolidated statements of income, the changes in these items from period to period and these items expressed as a percentage of net revenues:

	Year Ended

Net revenues

The following table presents net revenues by reporting segment for the periods indicated and the changes in net revenues by reporting segment on both reported and constant-currency bases from period to period:

	Year Ended
			% Increase (Decrease)
	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014	As Reported	Constant Currency
	(Dollars in millions)
Net revenues:
Americas	$ 2,726.5	$ 2,862.9	(4.8)%	(2.7)%
Europe	1,016.4	1,143.3	(11.1)%	7.8 %
Asia	751.6	747.8	0.5 %	7.7 %
Total net revenues	$ 4,494.5	$ 4,754.0	(5.5)%	1.2 %

As compared to the same period in the prior year, total net revenues were affected unfavorably by changes in foreign currency exchange rates across all regions.

Americas . Net revenues in our Americas region decreased on both reported and constant-currency bases, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $62 million.

Net revenues decreased primarily due to the inclusion of an additional sales week in the prior year, since 2014 had 53 fiscal weeks compared to 52 weeks in 2015, as well as a decline at wholesale in sales of Dockers ® brand women's products due to our decision in the third quarter of 2014 to exit that business in the United States. Additionally, lower sales of both Levi's ® and Dockers ® brand men's products were offset by growth in Signature and Denizen ® brands and at retail in Canada and Mexico.

Europe . Net revenues in Europe decreased on a reported basis but increased on a constant-currency basis, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $200 million.

Net revenues increased from the expansion and performance of our company-operated retail network, particularly in the U.K. and Russia markets.

Asia . Net revenues in Asia increased on both reported and constant-currency bases, with currency affecting net revenues unfavorably by approximately $50 million.

The increase in net revenues was primarily due to the expansion of our company-operated retail network as well as increased promotional activity across channels, primarily in China and India.

Gross profit

The following table shows consolidated gross profit and gross margin for the periods indicated and the changes in these items from period to period:

	Year Ended
	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014	% Increase (Decrease)
	(Dollars in millions)
Net revenues	$ 4,494.5	$ 4,754.0	(5.5)%
Cost of goods sold	2,225.5	2,405.6	(7.5)%
Gross profit	$ 2,269.0	$ 2,348.4	(3.4)%
Gross margin	50.5%	49.4%

Currency translation unfavorably impacted gross profit by approximately $166 million. Gross margin improved primarily due to lower negotiated product costs and streamlined supply chain operations as well as price increases, partially offset by the unfavorable transactional impact of currency and product investment costs. Gross margin also benefited from our international retail growth.

Selling, general and administrative expenses

The following table shows our SG&A for the periods indicated, the changes in these items from period to period and these items expressed as a percentage of net revenues:

	Year Ended
	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014	% Increase (Decrease)	November 29, 2015 % of Net Revenues	November 30, 2014 % of Net Revenues
			(Dollars in millions)
Selling	$ 734.1	$ 730.9	0.4 %	16.3%	15.4%
Advertising and promotion	276.4	272.8	1.3 %	6.1%	5.7%
Administration	364.4	377.7	(3.5)%	8.1%	7.9%
Other	418.3	466.4	(10.3)%	9.3%	9.8%
Restructuring-related charges	30.7	27.6	11.3 %	0.7%	0.6%
Lump-sum pension settlement loss	—	30.7	(100.0)%	—	0.6%
Total SG&A	$ 1,823.9	$ 1,906.1	(4.3)%	40.6%	40.1%

Currency affected SG&A favorably by approximately $113 million as compared to the prior year. The constant-currency increase in SG&A reflected our strategic investments in our growth initiatives: direct-to-consumer retail and advertising. The constant-currency decline in our administrative and other costs reflected savings resulting from our global productivity initiative.

Selling . Currency impacted selling expenses favorably by approximately $62 million as compared to the prior year. Higher selling expenses primarily reflected costs associated with the expansion of our company-operated store network and investment in our ecommerce business. We had 91 more company-operated stores at the end of 2015 than we did at the end of 2014.

Advertising and promotion. Currency impacted advertising and promotion expense favorably by approximately $15 million as compared to the prior year. The increase as a percentage of net revenues reflected higher advertising spend as compared to the prior-year period, and in line with our constant-currency revenue growth.

Administration. Currency impacted administration expenses favorably by approximately $16 million as compared to the prior year.

Other. Other SG&A includes distribution, information resources, and marketing organization costs. Currency impacted other SG&A expenses favorably by approximately $20 million as compared to the prior year. Lower costs primarily reflected information resources and marketing organization savings resulting from our global productivity initiative. Lower costs also reflected a gain of $7.5 million in conjunction with the sale of our finishing and distribution facility in Turkey in the second quarter of 2015.

Restructuring-related charges. Restructuring-related charges consist primarily of consulting fees incurred for our centrally-led cost-savings and productivity projects, as well as transition costs associated with our decision to outsource certain global business service activities. These related charges represent costs incurred associated with ongoing operations which will benefit future periods and thus were recorded in SG&A in our consolidated statements of income.

Lump-sum pension settlement loss. Settlement loss consists of a noncash pension settlement charge taken in the fourth quarter of 2014 related to an early pension settlement for our U.S. pension plans.

Restructuring, net

For the year ended November 29, 2015, we recognized restructuring charges, net, of $14.1 million, as compared to $128.4 million for the same period in 2014, related to the global productivity initiative, consisting primarily of severance benefits, consulting fees and noncash pension and postretirement curtailment gains or losses.

Operating income

The following table shows operating income by reporting segment and corporate expenses for the periods indicated, the changes in these items from period to period and these items expressed as a percentage of net revenues:

* Percentage of consolidated net revenues

Currency translation unfavorably affected total operating income by approximately $41 million as compared to the prior year.

Regional operating income .

- Americas. Currency translation unfavorably affected operating income in the region by approximately $13 million as compared to the prior year. Higher constant-currency operating income and operating margin primarily reflected an improvement in the region's gross margin, partially offset by increased investment in retail and advertising and lower net revenues in the region.
- Europe. Currency translation unfavorably affected operating income by approximately $39 million as compared to the prior year. Operating income and operating margin increased primarily due to the region's higher net revenues, partially offset by increased investment in retail in the region.
- Asia. Currency translation unfavorably affected operating income by approximately $8 million as compared to the prior year. The improvement in operating income and operating margin primarily reflected an improvement in the region's gross margin as well as the region's higher revenues, partially offset by increased investment in retail and advertising in the region.

Corporate . Corporate expenses represent costs that are not attributed to any of our regional operating segments. Included in corporate expenses are restructuring charges, the consulting fees incurred for our centrally-led cost-savings and productivity projects, other corporate staff costs, and in 2014, the noncash pension settlement charge. Currency translation favorably affected corporate expenses by approximately $19 million.

As compared to the prior year, other corporate staff costs and expenses increased primarily due to foreign currency transaction losses in 2015 related to our global sourcing organization's procurement of inventory on behalf of our foreign subsidiaries, of which approximately $25 million related to our Europe region and $6 million related to our Asia region; such amounts were immaterial in 2014.

Interest expense

Interest expense was $81.2 million for the year ended November 29, 2015, as compared to $117.6 million in the prior year. The decrease in interest expense was primarily due to lower average debt balances and lower average borrowing rates in 2015, resulting from our debt reduction and refinancing activities in 2014 and 2015.

The weighted-average interest rate on average borrowings outstanding for 2015 was 6.72%, as compared to 7.58% for 2014.

Loss on early extinguishment of debt

For the year ended November 29, 2015, we recorded a loss of $14.0 million on early extinguishment of debt as a result of our debt refinancing activities during 2015. The loss was comprised of tender and redemption premiums of $7.5 million, and the write-off of $3.5 million of unamortized debt issuance costs, and $3.0 million of other costs.

For the year ended November 30, 2014, we recorded a loss of $20.3 million on early extinguishment of debt as a result of our debt refinancing activities during 2014. The loss was comprised of redemption premiums of $15.2 million and the write-off of $5.1 million of unamortized debt issuance costs.

Other income (expense), net

Other income (expense), net, primarily consists of foreign exchange management activities and transactions. For the year ended November 29, 2015, we recorded net expense of $25.4 million as compared to $22.1 million for the prior year. The net expense in 2015 reflected net losses on our foreign currency denominated balances, partially offset by net gains on foreign exchange derivatives. The expense in 2014 reflected losses on our foreign currency denominated balances as well as losses on foreign exchange derivatives.

Income tax expense

Income tax expense was $100.5 million for the year ended November 29, 2015, compared to $49.6 million for the prior year. Our effective income tax rate was 32.4% for the year ended November 29, 2015, compared to 32.2% for the prior year.

The increase in the effective tax rate in 2015 was primarily due to a one-time, incremental annual tax benefit associated with multi-year California Enterprise Zone credits recognized in 2014, partially offset by a $8.0 million discrete tax benefit recognized in 2015 attributable to deductions taken for losses on the investment in a consolidated subsidiary.

The effective tax rate in 2014 included a tax benefit that we recorded in 2014 as a result of reversing a deferred tax liability associated with the change in assertion during the period to indefinitely reinvest certain undistributed foreign earnings.

For the year ended November 29, 2015, management asserted indefinite reinvestment on $100.0 million of undistributed foreign earnings, as management determined that this amount is required to meet ongoing working capital needs in certain foreign subsidiaries; no U.S. income taxes have been provided for such earnings. If the Company were to repatriate such foreign earnings to the United States, the deferred tax liability associated with such earnings would have been approximately $26.5 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity outlook

We believe we will have adequate liquidity over the next twelve months to operate our business and to meet our cash requirements.

Cash sources

We are a privately-held corporation. We have historically relied primarily on cash flows from operations, borrowings under credit facilities, issuances of notes and other forms of debt financing. We regularly explore financing and debt reduction alternatives, including new credit agreements, unsecured and secured note issuances, equity financing, equipment and real estate financing, securitizations and asset sales.

We are borrowers under a senior secured revolving credit facility. The facility is an asset-based facility, in which the borrowing availability is primarily based on the value of our U.S. Levi's ® trademarks and the levels of accounts receivable and inventory in the United States and Canada. The maximum availability under the facility is $850 million, of which $800 million is available to us for revolving loans in U.S. Dollars and $50 million is available to us for revolving loans either in U.S. Dollars or Canadian Dollars.

As of November 27, 2016 , we did not have any borrowings under the credit facility. Unused availability under the facility was $784.3 million , as our total availability of $838.0 million , based on collateral levels as defined by the agreement, was reduced by $53.7 million of other credit-related instruments.

As of November 27, 2016 , we had cash and cash equivalents totaling approximately $375.6 million , resulting in a total liquidity position (unused availability and cash and cash equivalents) of $1.2 billion .

Cash uses

Our principal cash requirements include working capital, capital expenditures, payments of principal and interest on our debt, payments of taxes, contributions to our pension plans and payments for postretirement health benefit plans, settlement of shares issued under our 2016 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended to date ("EIP") and, if market conditions warrant, occasional investments in, or acquisitions of, business ventures in our line of business. In addition, we regularly evaluate our ability to pay dividends or repurchase stock, all consistent with the terms of our debt agreements.

The following table presents selected cash uses in 2016 and the related projected cash uses for these items in 2017 as of November 27, 2016 :

	Cash Used in 2016	Projected Cash Uses in 2017
	(Dollars in millions)
Capital expenditures [1]	$ 103	$ 120
Interest	67	67
Federal, foreign and state taxes (net of refunds)	57	60
Pension plans [2]	32	53
Postretirement health benefit plans	14	14
Dividend [3]	60	70
Total selected cash requirements	$ 333	$ 384

(1) Capital expenditures consist primarily of costs associated with information technology investments for ecommerce and investment in company-operated retail stores.

(2) The 2017 pension contribution amounts will be recalculated at the end of the plans' fiscal years, which for our U.S. pension plan is at the beginning of the Company's third fiscal quarter. Accordingly, actual contributions may differ materially from those presented here, based on factors such as changes in discount rates and the valuation of pension assets.

(3) Subsequent to the fiscal year end, on February 1, 2017, our Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $70.0 million , payable in two $35 million installments. The Company expects to pay the first installment in the first quarter of 2017 and the second installment in the fourth quarter of 2017.

The following table provides information about our significant cash contractual obligations and commitments as of November 27, 2016 :

Total	$ 3,606	$ 959	$ 320	$ 277	$ 222	$ 198	$ 1,630

(1) Interest obligations are computed using constant interest rates until maturity.

(2) Amounts reflect contractual obligations relating to our existing leased facilities as of November 27, 2016 , and therefore do not reflect our planned future openings of company-operated retail stores. For more information, see "Item 2 – Properties."

(3) Amounts reflect estimated commitments of $468 million for inventory purchases, $203 million for sponsorship, naming rights and related benefits with respect to the Levi's ® Stadium, $220 million for human resources, advertising, information technology and other professional services.

(4) The amounts presented in the table represent an estimate for the next ten years of our projected payments, based on information provided by our plans' actuaries, and have not been reduced by estimated Medicare subsidy receipts, the amounts of which are not material. Our policy is to fund postretirement benefits as claims and premiums are paid. For more information, see Note 8 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report.

(5) The amounts presented in the table represent an estimate of our projected contributions to the plans for the next ten years based on information provided by our plans' actuaries. For U.S. qualified plans, these estimates can exceed the projected annual minimum required contributions in an effort to level out potential future funding requirements and provide annual funding flexibility. The 2017 contribution amounts will be recalculated at the end of the plans' fiscal years, which for our U.S. pension plan is at the beginning of the Company's third fiscal quarter. Accordingly, actual contributions may differ materially from those presented here, based on factors such as changes in discount rates and the valuation of pension assets. For more information, see Note 8 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report.

(6) Long-term employee-related benefits primarily relate to the current and non-current portion of deferred compensation arrangements and workers' compensation. We estimated these payments based on prior experience and forecasted activity for these items. For more information, see Note 12 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report.

This table does not include amounts related to our uncertain tax positions of $29.1 million . We do not anticipate a material effect on our liquidity as a result of payments in future periods of liabilities for uncertain tax positions. The table also does not include amounts related to potential cash settlement of stock appreciation rights ("SARs") put to the Company under the terms of our EIP. Based on the fair value of the Company's stock and the number of shares outstanding as of November 27, 2016 , future payments under the terms of the EIP could range up to approximately $70 million , which could become payable in 2017. These payments are contingent on the Company's liquidity and the Board's discretion.

Information in the two preceding tables reflects our estimates of future cash payments. These estimates and projections are based upon assumptions that are inherently subject to significant economic, competitive, legislative and other uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. Accordingly, our actual expenditures and liabilities may be materially higher or lower than the estimates and projections reflected in these tables. The inclusion of these projections and estimates should not be regarded as a representation by us that the estimates will prove to be correct.

Cash flows

The following table summarizes, for the periods indicated, selected items in our consolidated statements of cash flows:

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014
	(Dollars in millions)
Cash provided by operating activities	$ 306.6	$ 218.3	$ 232.9
Cash used for investing activities	(68.3)	(80.8)	(71.8)
Cash used for financing activities	(173.5)	(94.9)	(341.7)
Cash and cash equivalents	375.6	318.6	298.3

2016 as compared to 2015

Cash flows from operating activities

Cash provided by operating activities was $306.6 million for 2016 , as compared to $218.3 million for 2015 . Cash provided by operating activities increased compared to the prior year primarily due to higher trade receivables collections and lower payments associated with restructuring-related items and interest, reflective of the increase in our operating income, offset by our higher inventory levels which are primarily driven by lower than anticipated demand in the U.S.

Cash flows from investing activities

Cash used for investing activities was $68.3 million for 2016 , as compared to $80.8 million for 2015 . The decrease in cash used for investing activities as compared to the prior year was primarily driven by proceeds from the settlement of our forward exchange contracts and cash received from the sale-leaseback of our distribution center in the United Kingdom, partially offset by investment in information technology systems and distribution.

Cash flows from financing activities

Cash used for financing activities was $173.5 million for 2016 , as compared to $94.9 million for 2015 . Cash used in 2016 primarily reflected net repayments on our senior revolving credit facility, the payment of a $60 million cash dividend in the second quarter of 2016 and the $36 million settlement of our Yen-denominated Eurobonds. Cash used in 2015 primarily reflected the payment of a $50 million cash dividend as well as our refinancing activities and debt reduction during the period.

2015 as compared to 2014

Cash flows from operating activities

Cash provided by operating activities was $218.3 million for 2015 , as compared to $232.9 million for 2014 . Cash provided by operating activities decreased compared to the prior year primarily due to higher payments to vendors and higher pension payments, partially offset by an increase in cash received from customers, reflecting our higher beginning accounts receivable balance, lower cash used for inventory purchases, and lower interest payments.

Cash flows from investing activities

Cash used for investing activities was $80.8 million for 2015 , as compared to $71.8 million for 2014 . The increase in cash used for investing activities as compared to the prior year primarily reflects increased investment in information technology projects and retail expansion.

Cash flows from financing activities

Cash used for financing activities was $94.9 million for 2015 , as compared to cash provided of $341.7 million for 2014 . Cash used in both periods primarily related to our refinancing activities and debt reduction in each year.

Indebtedness

The borrower of substantially all of our debt is Levi Strauss & Co., the parent and a U.S. operating company. Of our total debt of $1.05 billion as of November 27, 2016 , we had fixed-rate debt of $1.02 billion (97.4% of total debt) and variable-rate debt of $27.4 million (2.6% of total debt). As of November 27, 2016 , our required aggregate debt principal payments on our unsecured long-term debt were $1.02 billion in years after 2021. Short-term borrowings of $38.9 million at various foreign subsidiaries were expected to be either paid over the next twelve months or refinanced at the end of their applicable terms.

Our long-term debt agreements contain customary covenants restricting our activities as well as those of our subsidiaries. As of November 27, 2016 , we were in compliance with all of these covenants.

Effects of Inflation

We believe that inflation in the regions where most of our sales occur has not had a significant effect on our net revenues or profitability.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements, Guarantees and Other Contingent Obligations

Off-balance sheet arrangements and other . We have contractual commitments for non-cancelable operating leases; for more information, see Note 14 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report. We participate in a multiemployer pension plan; however, our exposure to risks arising from participation in the plan and the extent to which we can be liable to the plan for other participating employers' obligations are not material. We have no other material non-cancelable guarantees or commitments, and no material special-purpose entities or other off-balance sheet debt obligations.

Indemnification agreements . In the ordinary course of our business, the Company enters into agreements containing indemnification provisions under which the Company agrees to indemnify the other party for specified claims and losses. For example, the Company's trademark license agreements, real estate leases, consulting agreements, logistics outsourcing agreements, securities purchase agreements and credit agreements typically contain such provisions. This type of indemnification provision obligates the Company to pay certain amounts associated with claims brought against the other party as the result of trademark infringement, negligence or willful misconduct of Company employees, breach of contract by the Company including inaccuracy of representations and warranties, specified lawsuits in which the Company and the other party are co-defendants, product claims and other matters. These amounts generally are not readily quantifiable; the maximum possible liability or amount of potential payments that could arise out of an indemnification claim depends entirely on the specific facts and circumstances associated with the claim. The Company has insurance coverage that minimizes the potential exposure to certain of such claims. The Company also believes that the likelihood of material payment obligations under these agreements to third parties is remote.

Critical Accounting Policies, Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and the related notes. We believe that the following discussion addresses our critical accounting policies, which are those that are most important to the portrayal of our financial condition and results of operations and require management's most difficult, subjective and complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. Changes in such estimates, based on newly available information, or different assumptions or conditions, may affect amounts reported in future periods.

We summarize our critical accounting policies below.

Revenue recognition . Net sales is primarily comprised of sales of products to wholesale customers, including franchised stores, and direct sales to consumers at our company-operated and online stores and at our company-operated shop-in-shops located within department stores. We recognize revenue on sale of product when the goods are shipped or delivered and title to the goods passes to the customer provided that: there are no uncertainties regarding customer acceptance; persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; the sales price is fixed or determinable; and collectability is reasonably assured. Revenue is recorded net of an allowance for estimated returns, discounts and retailer promotions and other similar incentives. Licensing revenues from the use of our trademarks in connection with the manufacturing, advertising, and distribution of trademarked products by third-party licensees are earned and recognized as products are sold by licensees based on royalty rates as set forth in the licensing agreements.

We recognize allowances for estimated returns in the period in which the related sale is recorded. We recognize allowances for estimated discounts, retailer promotions and other similar incentives at the later of the period in which the related sale is recorded or the period in which the sales incentive is offered to the customer. We estimate non-volume based allowances based on historical rates as well as customer and product-specific circumstances. Actual allowances may differ from estimates due to changes in sales volume based on retailer or consumer demand and changes in customer and product-specific circumstances. Sales and value-added taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental authorities are presented on a net basis in the accompanying consolidated statements of income.

Inventory valuation . We value inventories at the lower of cost or market value. Inventory cost is generally determined using the first-in first-out method. We include product costs, labor and related overhead, sourcing costs, inbound freight, internal transfers, and the cost of operating our remaining manufacturing facilities, including the related depreciation expense, in the cost of inventories. We estimate quantities of slow-moving and obsolete inventory by reviewing on-hand quantities, outstanding purchase obligations and forecasted sales. In determining inventory market values, substantial consideration is given to the expected product selling price. We estimate expected selling prices based on our historical recovery rates for sale of slow-moving and obsolete inventory and other factors, such as market conditions, expected channel of disposition, and current consumer preferences. Estimates may differ from actual results due to changes in resale or market value, avenues of disposition, consumer and retailer preferences and economic conditions.

Impairment . We review our goodwill and other non-amortized intangible assets for impairment annually in the fourth quarter of our fiscal year, or more frequently as warranted by events or changes in circumstances which indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. We qualitatively assess goodwill impairment and non-amortized intangible assets to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or other non-amortized intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. During fiscal 2016, the Company performed this analysis examining key events and circumstances affecting fair value and determined it is more likely than not that the reporting unit's fair value is greater than it carrying amount. As such, no further analysis was required. If goodwill and other non-amortized intangible assets are not qualitatively assessed and it is determined that it is not more likely than not that the reporting unit's fair value is greater than its carrying amount, a two-step quantitative approach is utilized. In the first step, we compare the carrying value of the reporting unit or applicable asset to its fair value, which we estimate using a discounted cash flow analysis or by comparison to the market values of similar assets. If the carrying amount of the reporting unit or asset exceeds its estimated fair value, we perform the second step, and determine the impairment loss, if any, as the excess of the carrying value of the goodwill or intangible asset over its fair value. The assumptions used in such valuations are subject to volatility and may differ from actual results; however, based on the carrying value of our goodwill and other non-amortized intangible assets as of November 27, 2016 , relative to their estimated fair values, we do not anticipate any material impairment charges in the near-term.

We review our other long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount of an other long-lived asset exceeds the expected future undiscounted cash flows, we measure and record an impairment loss for the excess of the carrying value of the asset over its fair value.

To determine the fair value of impaired assets, we utilize the valuation technique or techniques deemed most appropriate based on the nature of the impaired asset and the data available, which may include the use of quoted market prices, prices for similar assets or other valuation techniques such as discounted future cash flows or earnings.

Income tax assets and liabilities . The future effective tax rate will ultimately depend on the mix of earnings between domestic and foreign operations, the impact of certain undistributed foreign earnings for which no U.S. taxes have been provided because such earnings are planned to be indefinitely reinvested outside of the United States, changes in tax laws and regulations and potential resolutions on tax examinations, refund claims and litigation. Remittances of foreign earnings to the United States are planned based on projected cash flow, working capital and investment needs of our foreign and domestic operations. Based on these assumptions, we estimate the amount that will be distributed to the United States and provide U.S. federal taxes on these amounts. Material changes in our estimates as to how much of our foreign earnings will be distributed to the United States or tax legislation that limits or restricts the amount of undistributed foreign earnings that we consider indefinitely reinvested outside the United States could materially impact our income tax provision and effective tax rate. Significant judgment is required in determining our worldwide income tax provision. In the ordinary course of a global business, there are many transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax outcome is uncertain. Some of these uncertainties arise from examinations in various jurisdictions and assumptions and estimates used in evaluating the need for valuation allowance.

We are subject to income taxes in both the United States and numerous foreign jurisdictions. We compute our provision for income taxes using the asset and liability method, under which deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and for operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the currently enacted tax rates that are expected to apply to taxable income for the years in which those tax assets and liabilities are expected to be realized or settled. Significant judgments are required in order to determine the realizability of these deferred tax assets. In assessing the need for a valuation allowance, we evaluate all significant available positive and negative evidence, including historical operating results, estimates of future taxable income and the existence of prudent and feasible tax planning strategies. Changes in the expectations regarding the realization of deferred tax assets could materially impact income tax expense in future periods.

We continuously review issues raised in connection with all ongoing examinations and open tax years to evaluate the adequacy of our tax liabilities. We evaluate uncertain tax positions under a two-step approach. The first step is to evaluate the uncertain tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination based on its technical merits. The second step is, for those positions that meet the recognition criteria, to measure the tax benefit as the largest amount that is more than fifty percent likely of being realized. We believe our recorded tax liabilities are adequate to cover all open tax years based on our assessment. This assessment relies on estimates and assumptions and involves significant judgments about future events. To the extent that our view as to the outcome of these matters changes, we will adjust income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made. We classify interest and penalties related to income taxes as income tax expense.

Employee benefits and incentive compensation

Pension and postretirement benefits. We have several non-contributory defined benefit retirement plans covering eligible employees. We also provide certain health care benefits for U.S. employees who meet age, participation and length of service requirements at retirement. In addition, we sponsor other retirement or post-employment plans for our foreign employees in accordance with local government programs and requirements. We retain the right to amend, curtail or discontinue any aspect of the plans, subject to local regulations. Any of these actions, either individually or in combination, could have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements and on our future financial performance.

We recognize either an asset or liability for any plan's funded status in our consolidated balance sheets. We measure changes in funded status using actuarial models which utilize an attribution approach that generally spreads individual events either over the estimated service lives of the remaining employees in the plan, or, for plans where participants will not earn additional benefits by rendering future service, over the plan participants' estimated remaining lives. The attribution approach assumes that employees render service over their service lives on a relatively smooth basis and as such, presumes that the income statement effects of pension or postretirement benefit plans should follow the same pattern. Our policy is to fund our pension plans based upon actuarial recommendations and in accordance with applicable laws, income tax regulations and credit agreements.

Net pension and postretirement benefit income or expense is generally determined using assumptions which include expected long-term rates of return on plan assets, discount rates, compensation rate increases and medical trend and mortality rates. We use a mix of actual historical rates, expected rates and external data to determine the assumptions used in the actuarial models. For example, we utilized a yield curve constructed from a portfolio of high-quality corporate bonds with various maturities to determine the appropriate discount rate to use for our U.S. benefit plans. Under this model, each year's expected future benefit payments are discounted to their present value at the appropriate yield curve rate, thereby generating the overall discount rate. We utilized country-specific third-party bond indices to determine appropriate discount rates to use for benefit plans of our foreign subsidiaries. Changes in actuarial assumptions and estimates, either individually or in combination, could have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements and on our future financial performance. For example, as of November 27, 2016 , a 25 basis point change in the discount rate would yield an approximately three percent change in the projected benefit obligation and an approximately two percent change in the annual service cost of our pension plans, and an approximately two percent change in the projected benefit obligation and an approximately three percent change in the annual service cost of our postretirement benefit plan.

Employee incentive compensation. We maintain short-term and long-term employee incentive compensation plans. For our short-term plans, the amount of the cash bonus earned depends upon business unit and corporate financial results as measured against pre-established targets, and also depends upon the performance and job level of the individual. Our long-term plans are intended to reward certain levels of management for its long-term impact on our total earnings performance. Performance is measured at the end of a three-year period based on our performance over the period measured against certain pre-established targets such as the compound annual growth rates over the periods for net revenues and average margin of net earnings adjusted for certain items such as interest and taxes. We accrue the related compensation expense over the period of the plan, and changes in our projected future financial performance could have a material impact on our accruals.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

See Note 1 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for recently issued accounting standards, including the expected dates of adoption and expected impact to our consolidated financial statements upon adoption.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain matters discussed in this report, including (without limitation) statements under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" contain forward-looking statements. Although we believe that, in making any such statements, our expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, any such statement may be influenced by factors that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected.

These forward-looking statements include statements relating to our anticipated financial performance and business prospects, including constant-currency revenue and gross margin expectations, and/or statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "believe", "will", "so we can", "when", "anticipate", "intend", "estimate", "expect", "project", "could", "plans", "seeks" and similar expressions. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date stated and we do not undertake any obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, even if experience or future events make it clear that any expected results expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements will not be realized. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, these expectations may not prove to be correct or we may not achieve the financial results, savings or other benefits anticipated in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of our senior management and involve a number of risks and uncertainties, some of which may be beyond our control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements and include, without limitation:

- changes in general economic and financial conditions, and the resulting impact on the level of discretionary consumer spending for apparel and pricing trend fluctuations, and our ability to plan for and respond to the impact of those changes;
- our ability to timely and effectively implement global productivity actions as planned, which are intended to increase productivity and efficiency in our global operations, take advantage of lower-cost service-delivery models in our distribution network and streamline our procurement practices to maximize efficiency in our global operations, without business disruption or mitigation to such disruptions;
- consequences of impacts to the businesses of our wholesale customers, including significant store closures or a significant decline in a wholesale customer's financial condition leading to restructuring actions, bankruptcies, liquidations or other unfavorable events for our wholesale customers, caused by factors such as inability to secure financing, decreased discretionary consumer spending, inconsistent traffic patterns and an increase in promotional activity as a result of decreased traffic, pricing fluctuations, general economic and financial conditions and changing consumer preferences;
- our and our wholesale customers' decisions to modify strategies and adjust product mix and pricing, and our ability to manage any resulting product transition costs, including liquidating inventory or increasing promotional activity;
- our ability to purchase products through our independent contract manufacturers that are made with quality raw materials and our ability to mitigate the variability of costs related to manufacturing, sourcing, and raw materials supply and to manage consumer response to such mitigating actions;
- our ability to gauge and adapt to changing U.S. and international retail environments and fashion trends and changing consumer preferences in product, price-points, as well as in-store and digital shopping experiences;
- our ability to respond to price, innovation and other competitive pressures in the global apparel industry, on and from our key customers and in our key markets;
- our ability to increase the number of dedicated stores for our products, including through opening and profitably operating company-operated stores;
- consequences of foreign currency exchange and interest rate fluctuations;
- our ability to successfully prevent or mitigate the impacts of data security breaches;
- our ability to attract and retain key executives and other key employees;
- our ability to protect our trademarks and other intellectual property;
- the impact of the variables that affect the net periodic benefit cost and future funding requirements of our postretirement benefits and pension plans;
- our dependence on key distribution channels, customers and suppliers;
- our ability to utilize our tax credits and net operating loss carryforwards;
- ongoing or future litigation matters and disputes and regulatory developments;
- changes in or application of trade and tax laws, including potential increases in import tariffs; and
- political, social and economic instability, or natural disasters, in countries where we or our customers do business.

Our actual results might differ materially from historical performance or current expectations. We do not undertake any obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Item 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Investment and Credit Availability Risk

We manage cash and cash equivalents in various institutions at levels beyond FDIC coverage limits, and we purchase investments not guaranteed by the FDIC. Accordingly, there may be a risk that we will not recover the full principal of our investments or that their liquidity may be diminished. To mitigate this risk, our investment policy emphasizes preservation of principal and liquidity.

Multiple financial institutions are committed to provide loans and other credit instruments under our amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility. There may be a risk that some of these institutions cannot deliver against these obligations in a timely manner, or at all.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The global scope of our business operations exposes us to the risk of fluctuations in foreign currency markets. This exposure is the result of certain product sourcing activities, some intercompany sales, foreign subsidiaries' royalty payments, interest payments, earnings repatriations, net investment in foreign operations and funding activities. Our foreign currency management objective is to minimize the effect of fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on our nonfunctional currency cash flows and selected assets or liabilities without exposing ourselves to additional risk associated with transactions that could be regarded as speculative.

We use a centralized currency management operation to take advantage of potential opportunities to naturally offset exposures against each other. For any residual exposures under management, we may enter into various financial instruments, including forward exchange contracts, to hedge certain forecasted transactions, as well as certain firm commitments, including third-party and intercompany transactions.

Our foreign exchange risk management activities are governed by a foreign exchange risk management policy approved by our Treasury committee. Members of our Treasury committee, comprised of a group of our senior financial executives, review our foreign exchange /activities in support of monitoring our compliance with policy. The operating policies and guidelines outlined in the foreign exchange risk management policy provide a framework that allows for a managed approach to the management of currency exposures while ensuring the activities are conducted within established parameters. Our policy includes guidelines for the organizational structure of our treasury risk management function and for internal controls over foreign exchange risk management activities, including various measurements for monitoring compliance. We monitor foreign exchange risk and related derivatives using different techniques, including a review of market value, sensitivity analysis and a value-at-risk model. We use the market approach to estimate the fair value of our foreign exchange derivative contracts.

We use derivative instruments to manage certain but not all exposures to foreign currencies. Our approach to managing foreign currency exposures is consistent with that applied in previous years. As of November 27, 2016 , we had forward foreign exchange contracts to buy $674.9 million and to sell $364.9 million against various foreign currencies. These contracts are at various exchange rates and expire at various dates through February 2018 .

As of November 29, 2015 , we had forward foreign exchange contracts to buy $883.7 million and to sell $481.6 million against various foreign currencies. These contracts were at various exchange rates and expire at various dates through February 2017.

Derivative Financial Instruments

We are exposed to market risk primarily related to foreign currencies. We manage foreign currency risks with the objective to minimize the effect of fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on our nonfunctional currency cash flows and selected assets or liabilities without exposing ourselves to additional risk associated with transactions that could be regarded as speculative.

We are exposed to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the counterparties to the over-the-counter forward foreign exchange contracts. However, we believe that our exposures are appropriately diversified across counterparties and that these counterparties are creditworthy financial institutions. We monitor the creditworthiness of our counterparties in accordance with our foreign exchange and investment policies. In addition, we have International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. (“ISDA”) master agreements in place with our counterparties to mitigate the credit risk related to the outstanding derivatives. These agreements provide the legal basis for over-the-counter transactions in many of the world's commodity and financial markets.

The following table presents the currency, average forward exchange rate, notional amount and fair values for our outstanding forward contracts as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 . The average forward exchange rate is the weighted average of the forward rates of the contracts for the indicated currency. The notional amount represents the U.S. Dollar equivalent amount of the foreign currency at the inception of the contracts, and is the net sum of all buy and sell transactions for the indicated currency. A net positive notional amount represents a position to buy the U.S. Dollar versus the exposure currency, while a net negative notional amount represents a position to sell the U.S. Dollar versus the exposure currency. All transactions will mature before the end of February 2018 .

Item 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
Levi Strauss & Co.:

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, stockholders' equity, and of cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Levi Strauss & Co. and its subsidiaries as of November 27, 2016 and November 29, 2015, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended November 27, 2016, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In addition, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule listed in the index appearing under Item 15(2) presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein when read in conjunction with the related consolidated financial statements. These financial statements and the financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

LEVI STRAUSS & CO. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED NOVEMBER 27, 2016 , NOVEMBER 29, 2015 , AND NOVEMBER 30, 2014

NOTE 1 : SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Levi Strauss & Co. (the "Company") is one of the world's largest brand-name apparel companies. The Company designs, markets and sells – directly or through third parties and licensees – products that include jeans, casual and dress pants, tops, shorts, skirts, jackets, footwear and related accessories, for men, women and children around the world under the Levi's ® , Dockers ® , Signature by Levi Strauss & Co.™ and Denizen ® brands. The Company operates its business through three geographic regions: Americas, Europe and Asia.

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of the Company and its wholly-owned and majority-owned foreign and domestic subsidiaries are prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. The Company is privately held primarily by descendants of the family of its founder, Levi Strauss, and their relatives.

The Company's fiscal year ends on the last Sunday of November in each year, although the fiscal years of certain foreign subsidiaries end on November 30. Fiscal 2016 and 2015 were 52 -week years, ending on November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015, respectively. Fiscal 2014 was a 53-week year ending on November 30, 2014. Each quarter of fiscal years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 consists of 13 weeks, with the exception of the fourth quarter of 2014, which consisted of 14 weeks. All references to years relate to fiscal years rather than calendar years.

Subsequent events have been evaluated through the issuance date of these financial statements.

Out-of-period Adjustments

The Company's results for the year ended November 30, 2014, include out-of-period adjustments which decreased income before income taxes and net income by $1.3 million and $6.9 million , respectively. These adjustments were comprised of $1.3 million of pre-tax items, principally related to duty accruals, and $5.6 million of additional tax expense, all associated with prior years. Management has evaluated these items in relation to year ended November 30, 2014, as well as the periods in which they originated, and believes these items are immaterial to both the consolidated quarterly and annual financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements. Estimates are based upon historical factors, current circumstances and the experience and judgment of the Company's management. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis and may employ outside experts to assist in its evaluations. Changes in such estimates, based on more accurate future information, or different assumptions or conditions, may affect amounts reported in future periods.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are stated at fair value.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash primarily relates to required cash deposits for customs and rental guarantees to support the Company's international operations. As restricted cash is not material in any period presented, it is included in "Other current assets" and "Other non-current assets" on the consolidated balance sheets.

Accounts Receivable, Net

The Company extends credit to its customers that satisfy pre-defined credit criteria. Accounts receivable are recorded net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. The Company estimates the allowance for doubtful accounts based upon an analysis of the aging of accounts receivable at the date of the consolidated financial statements, assessments of collectability based on historic trends, customer-specific circumstances, and an evaluation of economic conditions. Actual write-off of receivables may differ from estimates due to changes in customer and economic circumstances.

Inventory Valuation

The Company values inventories at the lower of cost or market value. Inventory cost is determined using the first-in first-out method. The Company includes product costs, labor and related overhead, inbound freight, internal transfers, and the cost of operating its remaining manufacturing facilities, including the related depreciation expense, in the cost of inventories. The Company estimates quantities of slow-moving and obsolete inventory, by reviewing on-hand quantities, outstanding purchase obligations and forecasted sales. The Company determines inventory market values by estimating expected selling prices based on the Company's historical recovery rates for slow-moving and obsolete inventory and other factors, such as market conditions, expected channel of distribution and current consumer preferences.

Income Tax Assets and Liabilities

The future effective tax rate will ultimately depend on the mix of earnings between domestic and foreign operations, the impact of certain undistributed foreign earnings for which no U.S. taxes have been provided because such earnings are planned to be indefinitely reinvested outside of the United States, changes in tax laws and regulations and potential resolutions on tax examinations, refund claims and litigation. Remittances of foreign earnings to the United States are planned based on projected cash flow, working capital and investment needs of our foreign and domestic operations. Based on these assumptions, the Company estimates the amount that will be distributed to the United States and provides U.S. federal taxes on these amounts. Material changes in the Company's estimates as to how much of the Company's foreign earnings will be distributed to the United States or tax legislation that limits or restricts the amount of undistributed foreign earnings that the Company considers indefinitely reinvested outside the United States could materially impact the Company's income tax provision and effective tax rate. Significant judgment is required in determining the Company's worldwide income tax provision. In the ordinary course of a global business, there are many transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax outcome is uncertain. Some of these uncertainties arise from examinations in various jurisdictions and assumptions and estimates used in evaluating the need for valuation allowance.

The Company is subject to income taxes in both the United States and numerous foreign jurisdictions. The Company computes its provision for income taxes using the asset and liability method, under which deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and for operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. All deferred income taxes are classified as non-current on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the currently enacted tax rates that are expected to apply to taxable income for the years in which those tax assets and liabilities are expected to be realized or settled. Significant judgments are required in order to determine the realizability of these deferred tax assets. In assessing the need for a valuation allowance, the Company's management evaluates all significant available positive and negative evidence, including historical operating results, estimates of future taxable income and the existence of prudent and feasible tax planning strategies.

The Company continuously reviews issues raised in connection with all ongoing examinations and open tax years to evaluate the adequacy of its tax liabilities. The Company evaluates uncertain tax positions under a two-step approach. The first step is to evaluate the uncertain tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination based on its technical merits. The second step, for those positions that meet the recognition criteria, is to measure the tax benefit as the largest amount that is more than fifty percent likely to be realized. The Company believes that its recorded tax liabilities are adequate to cover all open tax years based on its assessment. This assessment relies on estimates and assumptions and involves significant judgments about future events. To the extent that the Company's view as to the outcome of these matters change, the Company will adjust income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made. The Company classifies interest and penalties related to income taxes as income tax expense.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation. The cost is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Costs relating to internal-use software development are capitalized when incurred during the application development phase. Buildings are depreciated over 20 to 40 years, and leasehold improvements are depreciated over the lesser of the life of the improvement or the initial lease term. Machinery and equipment includes furniture and fixtures, automobiles and trucks, and networking communication equipment, and is depreciated over a range from three to 20 years. Capitalized internal-use software is depreciated over periods ranging from three to seven years.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill resulted primarily from a 1985 acquisition of the Company by Levi Strauss Associates Inc., a former parent company that was subsequently merged into the Company in 1996, and the Company's 2009 acquisitions. Goodwill is not amortized. Intangible assets are comprised of owned trademarks with indefinite useful lives which are not being amortized and acquired contractual rights. The amortization of these intangible assets is included in "Selling, general, and administrative expenses" in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

Impairment

The Company reviews its goodwill and other non-amortized intangible assets for impairment annually in the fourth quarter of its fiscal year, or more frequently as warranted by events or changes in circumstances which indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The Company qualitatively assesses goodwill and non-amortized intangible assets to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or other non-amortized intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. During fiscal 2016, the Company performed this analysis examining key events and circumstances affecting fair value and determined it is more likely than not that the reporting unit’s fair value is greater than its carrying amount. As such, no further analysis was required for purposes of testing of the Company’s goodwill or other non-amortized intangible asset for impairment.

If goodwill is not qualitatively assessed or if goodwill is qualitatively assessed and it is determined it is not more likely than not that the reporting unit’s fair value is greater than its carrying amount, a two-step quantitative approach is utilized. In the first step, the Company compares the carrying value of the reporting unit or applicable asset to its fair value, which the Company estimates using a discounted cash flow analysis or by comparison with the market values of similar assets. If the carrying amount of the reporting unit or asset exceeds its estimated fair value, the Company performs the second step, and determines the impairment loss, if any, as the excess of the carrying value of the goodwill or intangible asset over its fair value.

The Company reviews its other long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds the expected future undiscounted cash flows, the Company measures and records an impairment loss for the excess of the carrying value of the asset over its fair value.

To determine the fair value of impaired assets, the Company utilizes the valuation technique or techniques deemed most appropriate based on the nature of the impaired asset and the data available, which may include the use of quoted market prices, prices for similar assets or other valuation techniques such as discounted future cash flows or earnings.

Debt Issuance Costs

The Company capitalizes debt issuance costs on its senior revolving credit facility, which are included in "Other non-current assets" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. Capitalized debt issuance costs on the Company's unsecured long-term debt are presented as a reduction to the debt outstanding on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The unsecured long-term debt issuance costs are generally amortized utilizing the effective interest method whereas the senior revolving credit facility issuance costs are amortized utilizing the straight-line method. Amortization of debt issuance costs is included in "Interest expense" in the consolidated statements of income.

Restructuring Liabilities

Upon approval of a restructuring plan, the Company records restructuring liabilities for employee severance and related termination benefits when they become probable and estimable for formal and pre-existing severance arrangements. The Company records other costs associated with exit activities as they are incurred. The long-term portion of restructuring liabilities is included in “Other long-term liabilities” on the Company’s consolidated balance sheets.

Deferred Rent

The Company is obligated under operating leases of property for manufacturing, finishing and distribution facilities, office space, retail stores and equipment. Rental expense relating to operating leases are recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term after consideration of lease incentives and scheduled rent escalations beginning as of the date the Company takes physical possession or control of the property. Differences between rental expense and actual rental payments are recorded as deferred rent liabilities included in "Other accrued liabilities" and "Other long-term liabilities" on the consolidated balance sheets.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair values of the Company's financial instruments reflect the amounts that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). The fair value estimates presented in this report are based on information available to the Company as of November 27, 2016 and November 29, 2015 .

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and short-term borrowings approximate fair value since they are short term in nature. The Company has estimated the fair value of its other financial instruments using the market and income approaches. Rabbi trust assets and forward foreign exchange contracts are carried at their fair values. The Company's debt instruments are carried at historical cost and adjusted for amortization of premiums, discounts, or deferred financing costs, foreign currency fluctuations and principal payments.

Pension and Postretirement Benefits

The Company has several non-contributory defined benefit retirement plans covering eligible employees. The Company also provides certain health care benefits for U.S. employees who meet age, participation and length of service requirements at retirement. In addition, the Company sponsors other retirement or post-employment plans for its foreign employees in accordance with local government programs and requirements. The Company retains the right to amend, curtail or discontinue any aspect of the plans, subject to local regulations.

The Company recognizes either an asset or a liability for any plan's funded status in its consolidated balance sheets. The Company measures changes in funded status using actuarial models which utilize an attribution approach that generally spreads individual events over the estimated service lives of the remaining employees in the plan. For plans where participants will not earn additional benefits by rendering future service, which includes the Company's U.S. plans, individual events are spread over the plan participants' estimated remaining lives. The Company's policy is to fund its retirement plans based upon actuarial recommendations and in accordance with applicable laws, income tax regulations and credit agreements. Net pension and postretirement benefit income or expense is generally determined using assumptions which include expected long-term rates of return on plan assets, discount rates, compensation rate increases and medical and mortality trend rates. The Company considers several factors including historical rates, expected rates and external data to determine the assumptions used in the actuarial models.

At the end of 2015, the Company elected to adopt the spot-rate approach to determine the interest cost component of pension and postretirement expense. Under the spot-rate approach, the interest cost is calculated by applying interest to the discounted cash flow expected at each payment date. The interest is determined using the same spot rate along the yield curve that was used to determine the present value of the associated payment. This approach was used to recognize the 2016 expense. Prior to 2016, all plans with a yield curve available for discount rate setting purposes used a single weighted-average rate.

Employee Incentive Compensation

The Company maintains short-term and long-term employee incentive compensation plans. Provisions for employee incentive compensation are recorded in "Accrued salaries, wages and employee benefits" and "Long-term employee related benefits" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The Company accrues the related compensation expense over the period of the plan and changes in the liabilities for these incentive plans generally correlate with the Company's financial results and projected future financial performance.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has stock-based incentive plans which reward certain employees and directors with cash or equity. Compensation cost for these awards is based on the fair value of the Company's common stock and generally reflects the number of awards that vest or are expected to vest. Compensation cost is recognized over the period that an employee provides service for that award, which generally is the vesting period.

The Company's common stock is not listed on any established stock exchange. Accordingly, the stock's fair value is based upon a valuation performed by an independent third-party, Evercore Group LLC ("Evercore") and approved by the Company's board of directors (the "Board"). Determining the fair value of the Company's stock requires complex judgments. The valuation process includes comparison of the Company's historical and estimated future financial results with selected publicly-traded companies and application of a discount for the illiquidity of the stock to derive at the fair value of the stock. The Company uses this valuation for, among other things, making determinations under its stock-based compensation plans, such as the grant date fair value of awards.

The fair value of equity awards granted to directors is based on the fair value of the common stock at the date of grant. The fair value of equity awards granted to employees is estimated on the date of grant based on the Black-Scholes option pricing model, unless the awards are subject to market conditions, in which case the Company utilizes the Monte Carlo simulation model. The fair value of liability awards granted to employees is based on the fair value of the Company's common stock at each quarter end.

The Black-Scholes option pricing model and the Monte Carlo simulation model require the input of highly subjective assumptions including volatility. Due to the fact that the Company's common stock is not publicly traded, the computation of expected volatility is based on the average of the historical and implied volatilities over the expected life of the awards, of a representative peer group of publicly-traded entities. Other assumptions include expected life, risk-free rate of interest and dividend yield. For equity awards with a service condition, the expected life is derived based on historical experience and expected future post-vesting termination and exercise patterns. For equity awards with a performance condition, the expected life is computed using the simplified method until historical experience is available. The risk-free interest rate is based on zero coupon U.S. Treasury bond rates corresponding to the expected life of the awards. Dividend assumptions are based on historical experience.

Due to the job function of the award recipients, the Company has included stock-based compensation cost in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" in the consolidated statements of income.

Self-Insurance

Up to certain limits, the Company self-insures various loss exposures primarily relating to workers' compensation risk and employee and eligible retiree medical health benefits. The Company carries insurance policies covering claim exposures which exceed predefined amounts, per occurrence and/or in the aggregate. Accruals for losses are made based on the Company's claims experience and actuarial assumptions followed in the insurance industry, including provisions for incurred but not reported losses.

Derivative Financial Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company recognizes all derivatives as assets and liabilities at their fair values, which are included in "Other current assets", "Other non-current assets" or "Other accrued liabilities" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The Company uses derivatives to manage exposures that are sensitive to changes in market conditions, such as foreign currency risk. Additionally, some of the Company's contracts contain provisions that are accounted for as embedded derivative instruments. The Company does not designate its derivative instruments for hedge accounting; changes in the fair values of these instruments are recorded in "Other income (expense), net" in the Company's consolidated statements of income. The non-derivative instruments the Company designates and that qualify for hedge accounting treatment hedge the Company's net investment position in certain of its foreign subsidiaries. For these instruments, the Company documents the hedge designation by identifying the hedging instrument, the nature of the risk being hedged and the approach for measuring hedge effectiveness. The ineffective portions of these hedges are recorded in "Other income (expense), net" in the Company's consolidated statements of income. The effective portions of these hedges are recorded in "Accumulated other comprehensive loss" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets and are not reclassified to earnings until the related net investment position has been liquidated.

Foreign Currency

The functional currency for most of the Company's foreign operations is the applicable local currency. For those operations, assets and liabilities are translated into U.S. Dollars using period-end exchange rates; income and expenses are translated at average monthly exchange rates; and equity accounts are translated at historical rates. Net changes resulting from such translations are recorded as a component of translation adjustments in "Accumulated other comprehensive loss" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

Foreign currency transactions are transactions denominated in a currency other than the entity's functional currency. At each balance sheet date, each entity remeasures the recorded balances related to foreign-currency transactions using the period-end exchange rate. Unrealized gains or losses arising from the remeasurement of these balances are recorded in "Other income (expense), net" in the Company's consolidated statements of income. In addition, at the settlement date of foreign currency transactions, the realized foreign currency gains or losses are recorded in "Other income (expense), net" in the Company's consolidated statements of income to reflect the difference between the rate effective at the settlement date and the historical rate at which the transaction was originally recorded.

Noncontrolling Interest

Noncontrolling interest includes a 16.4% minority interest of third parties in Levi Strauss Japan K.K., the Company's Japanese subsidiary.

Revenue Recognition

Net sales is primarily comprised of sales of products to wholesale customers, including franchised stores, and direct sales to consumers at the Company's company-operated and online stores and at the Company's company-operated shop-in-shops located within department stores. The Company recognizes revenue on sale of product when the goods are shipped or delivered and title to the goods passes to the customer provided that: there are no uncertainties regarding customer acceptance; persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; the sales price is fixed or determinable; and collectability is reasonably assured. The revenue is recorded net of an allowance for estimated returns, discounts and retailer promotions and other similar incentives. Licensing revenues from the use of the Company's trademarks in connection with the manufacturing, advertising, and distribution of trademarked products by third-party licensees are earned and recognized as products are sold by licensees based on royalty rates set forth in the licensing agreements.

The Company recognizes allowances for estimated returns in the period in which the related sale is recorded. The Company recognizes allowances for estimated discounts, retailer promotions and other similar incentives at the later of the period in which the related sale is recorded or the period in which the sales incentive is offered to the customer. The Company estimates non-volume based allowances based on historical rates as well as customer and product-specific circumstances. Sales and value-added taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental authorities are presented on a net basis in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

Net sales to the Company's ten largest customers totaled approximately 30% of net revenues for 2016 , and 31% of net revenues for both 2015 and 2014 . No customer represented 10% or more of net revenues in any of these years.

Cost of Goods Sold

Cost of goods sold includes the expenses incurred to acquire and produce inventory for sale, including product costs, labor and related overhead, inbound freight, internal transfers, and the cost of operating the Company's remaining manufacturing facilities, including the related depreciation expense.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses ("SG&A") are primarily comprised of costs relating to advertising, marketing, selling, distribution, information technology and other corporate functions. Selling costs include, among other things, all occupancy costs associated with company-operated stores and with the Company's company-operated shop-in-shops located within department stores. The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. For 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , total advertising expense was $284.0 million , $276.4 million and $272.8 million , respectively. Distribution costs include costs related to receiving and inspection at distribution centers, warehousing, shipping to the Company's customers, handling and certain other activities associated with the Company's distribution network. These expenses totaled $168.3 million , $159.7 million , and $168.7 million for 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

The following recently issued accounting standards, all of which are FASB Accounting Standards Updates ("ASU"), have been grouped by their required effective dates for the Company:

First Quarter of 2018

- ASU No. 2015-11, "Inventory (Topic 330): Simplifying the Measurement of Inventory," clarifies that, for inventories measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value, net realizable value should be determined based on the estimated selling prices in the ordinary course of business less reasonably predictable costs of completion, disposal, and transportation. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this new accounting standard will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.
- ASU No. 2016-09, "Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718)" simplifies accounting for share-based payment transactions, including the income tax consequences, classification of awards as either equity or liabilities, an option to recognize gross stock compensation expense with actual forfeitures recognized as they occur, as well as certain classifications on the statement of cash flows. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

First Quarter of 2019

- ASU No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)," outlines a new, single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes most current revenue recognition guidance, including industry specific guidance. This new revenue recognition model provides a five-step analysis in determining when and how revenue is recognized. The new model will require revenue recognition to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration a company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. In August 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2015-14, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Deferral of the Effective Date," ("ASU 2015-14"). The amendment in this update defers the effective date of ASU 2014-09 for all entities by one year. Additional ASUs have been issued that are part of the overall new revenue guidance including: ASU No. 2016-08: " Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net) ", ASU No. 2016-10: " Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing" and ASU 2016-12: " Narrow Scope Improvements and Practical Expedients". The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting these new revenue accounting standards will have on its consolidated financial statements.
- ASU No. 2016-04, " Liabilities - Extinguishment of Liabilities (Subtopic 405-20): Recognition of Breakage for Certain Prepaid Stored-Value Products " aligns recognition of prepaid stored-value product financial liabilities (for example, prepaid gift cards), with Topic 606, Revenues from Contracts with Customers, for non-financial liabilities. In general, certain of these liabilities may be extinguished proportionally in earnings as redemptions occur, or when redemption is remote if issuers are not entitled to the unredeemed stored value. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

- ASU No. 2016-15, " Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230) Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments " designates the appropriate cash flow classification for debt prepayment or extinguishment costs, the maturing of a zero coupon bond, the settlement of contingent liabilities arising from a business combination, proceeds from insurance settlements, distributions from certain equity method investees and beneficial interests obtained in a financial asset securitization. In certain circumstances, transactions may require bifurcation to appropriately allocate components among operating, investing and financing activities. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.
- ASU No. 2016-16, "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other Than Inventory," requires that the income tax consequences of an intra-entity transfer of an asset other than inventory be recorded when the transfer occurs. Under this guidance, current income taxes and deferred income taxes will move when assets (such as intellectual property and property, plant and equipment) are transferred between consolidated subsidiaries. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.
- ASU No. 2016-18, " Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Restricted Cash" , requires that restricted cash be included with cash and cash equivalents when reconciling the beginning-of-period and end-of-period total amounts shown in the statement of cash flows. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

First Quarter of 2020

- ASU No. 2016-02, " Leases (Topic 842)" requires the identification of arrangements that should be accounted for as leases by lessees. In general, for operating or financing lease arrangements exceeding a twelve month term, a right-of-use asset and a lease obligation will be recognized on the balance sheet of the lessee while the income statement will reflect lease expense for operating leases and amortization/interest expense for financing leases. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

First Quarter of 2021

- ASU No. 2016-13, " Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments" amends the impairment model to utilize an expected loss methodology in place of the currently used incurred loss methodology. This will result in the more timely recognition of losses. ASU No. 2016-13 also applies to employee benefit plan accounting, with an effective date of the first quarter of fiscal 2022. The Company is currently assessing the impact that adopting this new accounting standard will have on its consolidated financial statements and employee benefit plans’ accounting.

Rabbi trust assets consist of a diversified portfolio of equity, fixed income and other securities. See Note 12 for more information on rabbi trust assets.

(2) Fair values estimated using Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly and include among other things, quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in markets that are active or inactive as well as inputs other than quoted prices that are observable. For forward foreign exchange contracts, inputs include foreign currency exchange and interest rates and, where applicable, credit default swap prices.

(3) The Company’s over-the-counter forward foreign exchange contracts are subject to International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. master agreements. These agreements permit the net-settlement of these contracts on a per-institution basis.

The following table presents the carrying value, including related accrued interest, and estimated fair value of the Company's financial instruments that are carried at adjusted historical cost:

NOTE 5 : DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES

The Company's foreign currency management objective is to minimize the effect of fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on nonfunctional currency cash flows and selected assets or liabilities without exposing the Company to additional risk associated with transactions that could be regarded as speculative. Forward exchange contracts on various currencies are entered into to manage foreign currency exposures associated with certain product sourcing activities, some intercompany sales, foreign subsidiaries' royalty payments, interest payments, earnings repatriations, net investment in foreign operations and funding activities. The Company manages certain forecasted foreign currency exposures and uses a centralized currency management operation to take advantage of potential opportunities to naturally offset foreign currency exposures against each other. The Company had designated a portion of its outstanding Yen-denominated Eurobonds as a net investment hedge to manage foreign currency exposures in its foreign operations. The Company does not apply hedge accounting to its derivative transactions. As of November 27, 2016 , the Company had forward foreign exchange contracts to buy $674.9 million and to sell $364.9 million against various foreign currencies. These contracts are at various exchange rates and expire at various dates through February 2018 .

Senior Revolving Credit Facility

The Company is a party to a credit agreement for a senior secured revolving credit facility. The credit facility provides for an asset-based facility, in which the borrowing availability is primarily based on the value of the U.S. Levi's ® trademarks and the levels of accounts receivable and inventory in the United States and Canada, as further described below.

Availability, interest and maturity. The maximum availability under the credit facility is $850.0 million , of which $800.0 million is available to the Company for revolving loans in U.S. Dollars and $50.0 million is available to the Company for revolving loans either in U.S. Dollars or Canadian Dollars. Subject to the availability under the borrowing base, the Company may make and repay borrowings from time to time until the maturity of the credit facility. The Company may make voluntary prepayments of borrowings at any time and must make mandatory prepayments if certain events occur. The current maturity date of the credit facility is March 21, 2019. Of the maximum availability of $850.0 million , $350.0 million is secured by the U.S. Levi's ® trademarks. The interest rate for borrowing under the credit facility is LIBOR plus 125 to 200 basis points, depending on borrowing base availability, and the range of the rate for undrawn availability is 25 to 30 basis points (depending on the Company's credit ratings). Upon the maturity date, all of the obligations outstanding under the credit agreement become due.

The Company's unused availability under its amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility was $784.3 million at November 27, 2016 , as the Company's total availability of $838.0 million , based on the collateral levels discussed above, was reduced by $53.7 million of letters of credit and other credit usage allocated under the facility. The $53.7 million was comprised of $2.4 million of other credit usage and $51.3 million of stand-by letters of credit with various international banks which serve as guarantees to cover U.S. workers' compensation claims and the working capital requirements for certain subsidiaries, primarily India.

Guarantees and security. The Company's obligations under the credit agreement are guaranteed by its domestic subsidiaries. The obligations under the agreement are secured by specified domestic assets, including certain U.S. trademarks associated with the Levi's ® brand and accounts receivable, goods and inventory in the United States. Additionally, the obligations of Levi Strauss & Co. (Canada) Inc. under the credit agreement are secured by Canadian accounts receivable, goods, inventory and other Canadian assets. The lien on the U.S. Levi's ® trademarks and related intellectual property may be released at the Company's discretion so long as it meets certain conditions; such release would reduce the borrowing base.

Covenants. The credit agreement contains customary covenants restricting the Company's activities as well as those of the Company's subsidiaries, including limitations on the ability to sell assets; engage in mergers; enter into transactions involving related parties or derivatives; incur or prepay indebtedness or grant liens or negative pledges on the Company's assets; make loans or other investments; pay dividends or repurchase stock or other securities; guaranty third-party obligations; and make changes in the Company's corporate structure. There are exceptions to these covenants, and some are only applicable when unused availability falls below specified thresholds. In addition, the credit agreement includes, as a financial covenant, a springing fixed charge coverage ratio of 1.0 :1.0, which arises when availability falls below a specified threshold.

Events of default. The credit agreement contains customary events of default, including payment failures; failure to comply with covenants; failure to satisfy other obligations under the credit agreements or related documents; defaults in respect of other indebtedness; bankruptcy, insolvency and inability to pay debts when due; material judgments; pension plan terminations or specified underfunding; substantial stock ownership changes; and specified changes in the composition of the Board. The cross-default provisions in the agreement apply if a default occurs on other indebtedness in excess of $50.0 million and the applicable grace period in respect of the indebtedness has expired, such that the lenders of or trustee for the defaulted indebtedness have the right to accelerate. If an event of default occurs under the credit agreement, the lenders may terminate their commitments, declare immediately payable all borrowings under the agreement and foreclose on the collateral.

Yen-denominated Eurobonds due 2016

In 1996, the Company issued ¥20 billion principal amount Eurobonds (equivalent to approximately $180.0 million at the time of issuance) due in November 2016, with interest payable at 4.25% per annum. The Company repurchased a portion of the Yen-denominated Eurobonds due 2016 in May 2010, and again in May 2012. The remaining balance was repaid at maturity in November 2016.

Senior Notes due 2020

The Company issued $525.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 7.625% senior notes due 2020 (the “Senior Notes due 2020”) to qualified institutional buyers in May 2010 which were later exchanged for notes in an exchange offer registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

The notes were unsecured obligations that ranked equally with all of the Company's other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt. On April 20, 2015, the company commenced a cash tender offer for the outstanding amount of its Senior Notes due 2020. The tender offer expired April 24, 2015, and the Company redeemed all the remaining notes that were not tendered in the offer on May 28, 2015.

Principal, interest and maturity . On May 8, 2012, the Company issued $385.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 6.875% senior notes due 2022 (the "Original Senior Notes due 2022") to qualified institutional buyers and to purchasers outside the United States, which were later exchanged for new notes in the same principal amount with substantially identical terms, except that the new notes were registered under the Securities Act.

On March 14, 2013, the Company issued an additional $140.0 million in 6.875% senior notes due 2022 (the "Additional Senior Notes due 2022") to qualified institutional buyers in compliance with the Securities Act, which were later exchanged for new notes in the same principal amount with substantially identical terms, except that the new notes were registered under the Securities Act (the Additional Senior Notes due 2022 along with the Original Senior Notes due 2022, hereinafter referred to as the "Senior Notes due 2022"). The Additional Senior Notes due 2022 were offered at a premium of $11.2 million , which will be amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the term of the notes. Costs of approximately $2.6 million associated with the issuance of the Additional Senior Notes due 2022, representing underwriting fees and other expenses, are also amortized to interest expense over the term of the notes.

The notes are unsecured obligations that rank equally with all of the Company's other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt. The Senior Notes due 2022 mature on May 1, 2022. Interest on the notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on May 1 and November 1.

The Company may redeem some or all of the Senior Notes due 2022 prior to May 1, 2017, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest and a "make-whole" premium. On or after May 1, 2017, the Company may redeem all or any portion of the notes, at once or over time, at redemption prices specified in the indenture governing the notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. Costs of approximately $7.4 million associated with the issuance of the notes, representing underwriting fees and other expenses, are amortized to interest expense over the term of the notes.

Covenants and other terms . The Additional Senior Notes due 2022 and the Original Senior Notes due 2022 are treated as a single class for all purposes under the indenture governing the Company's Senior Notes due 2022. The indenture governing the notes contains covenants that limit, among other things, the Company's and certain of the Company's subsidiaries' ability to incur additional debt; make certain restricted payments; consummate specified asset sales; enter into transactions with affiliates; incur liens; impose restrictions on the ability of its subsidiaries to pay dividends or make payments to the Company and its restricted subsidiaries; enter into sale and leaseback transactions; merge or consolidate with another person; and dispose of all or substantially all of the Company's assets. The indenture provides for customary events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), which include nonpayment, breach of covenants in the indenture, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments and certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the trustee under the indenture or holders of at le ast 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding notes may declare all notes to be due and payable immediately. Upon the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the indenture), each holder of notes may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of the notes in cash at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon to the date of purchase.

Issuance of Senior Notes due 2025

Principal, interest, and maturity. On April 27, 2015, the Company issued $500.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.00% senior notes due 2025 (the "Senior Notes due 2025") to qualified institutional buyers and to purchasers outside the United States, which were later exchanged for new notes in the same principal amount with substantially identical terms, except that the new notes were registered under the Securities Act. The notes are unsecured obligations that rank equally with all of the Company's other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt. The Senior Notes due 2025 will mature on May 1, 2025. Interest on the notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on May 1 and November 1, commencing on November 1, 2015. The Company may redeem some or all of the Senior Notes due 2025 prior to May 1, 2020, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption, and a "make-whole" premium; on or after this date, the Company may redeem all or any portion of the notes, at once or over time, at redemption prices specified in the indenture governing the notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. In addition, at any time prior to May 1, 2018, the Company may redeem up to a maximum of 40% of the original aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes due 2025 with the proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price of 105% of the principal amount of the Senior Notes due 2025, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption. The Company recorded a discount of $13.9 million in conjunction with the issuance of the Senior Notes due 2025, related to tender and redemption premiums paid to certain holders of the Senior Notes due 2020 who participated in the issuance of the Senior Notes due 2025, which will be amortized to interest expense over the term of the notes. Costs of approximately $6.9 million associated with the issuance of the notes, representing underwriting fees and other expenses, were capitalized and will be amortized to interest expense over the term of the notes.

Covenants. The indenture contains covenants that limit, among other things, the Company's and certain of the Company's subsidiaries' ability to incur additional debt, make certain restricted payments, consummate specified asset sales, enter into transactions with affiliates, incur liens, impose restrictions on the ability of its subsidiaries to pay dividends or make payments to the Company and its restricted subsidiaries, merge or consolidate with another person, and dispose of all or substantially all of the Company's assets. The indenture provides for customary events of default (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), which include nonpayment, breach of covenants in the indenture, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments and certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the trustee under the indenture or holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Senior Notes due 2025 may declare all the Senior Notes due 2025 to be due and payable immediately. Upon the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the indenture), each holder of notes may require the Company to repurchase all or a portion of the notes in cash at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, thereon to the date of purchase.

Short-term Borrowings

Short-term borrowings consist of term loans and revolving credit facilities at various foreign subsidiaries which the Company expects to either pay over the next twelve months or refinance at the end of their applicable terms. Certain of these borrowings are guaranteed by stand-by letters of credit allocated under the Company's amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility.

Loss on Early Extinguishment of Debt

For the year ended November 29, 2015 , the Company recorded a loss of $14.0 million on early extinguishment of debt, comprised of tender and redemption premiums of $7.5 million , and the write-off of $3.5 million of unamortized debt issuance costs, and $3.0 million of other costs.

For the year ended November 30, 2014, the Company recorded a loss of $20.3 million on early extinguishment of debt as a result of our debt refinancing activities during 2014. The loss was comprised of redemption premiums of $15.2 million and the write-off of $5.1 million of unamortized debt issuance costs.

Principal Payments on Short-term and Long-term Debt

The table below sets forth, as of November 27, 2016 , the Company's required aggregate short-term and long-term debt principal payments (inclusive of premium and discount) for the next five fiscal years and thereafter.

Interest Rates on Borrowings

The Company’s weighted-average interest rate on average borrowings outstanding during 2016 , 2015 and 2014 was 6.37% , 6.72% and 7.58% , respectively. The weighted-average interest rate on average borrowings outstanding includes the amortization of capitalized bank fees and underwriting fees, and excludes interest on obligations to participants under deferred compensation plans.

Dividends and Restrictions

The terms of the indentures relating to the Company's unsecured notes and its amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility agreement contain covenants that restrict the Company's ability to pay dividends to its stockholders. For information about the Company's dividend payments, see Note 15 . As of November 27, 2016 , and at the time the dividends were paid, the Company met the requirements of its debt instruments.

Subsidiaries of the Company that are not wholly-owned subsidiaries and that are "restricted subsidiaries" under the Company’s indentures are permitted under the indentures to pay dividends to all stockholders either on a pro rata basis or on a basis that results in the receipt by the Company or a restricted subsidiary that is the parent of the restricted subsidiary of dividends or distributions of greater value than it would receive on a pro rata basis.

The terms of the indentures relating to the Company's unsecured notes and its amended and restated senior secured revolving credit facility agreement contain covenants that restrict (in each case subject to certain exceptions) the Company or any restricted subsidiary from entering into any arrangements that would restrict the payment of dividends or of any obligation owed by the restricted subsidiary to the Company or any other restricted subsidiary, the making of any loans or advances to the Company or any other restricted subsidiary, or transferring any of its property to the Company or any other restricted subsidiary.

NOTE 7 : GUARANTEES

Indemnification agreements. In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into agreements containing indemnification provisions under which the Company agrees to indemnify the other party for specified claims and losses. For example, the Company's trademark license agreements, real estate leases, consulting agreements, logistics outsourcing agreements, securities purchase agreements and credit agreements typically contain such provisions. This type of indemnification provision obligates the Company to pay certain amounts associated with claims brought against the other party as the result of trademark infringement, negligence or willful misconduct of Company employees, breach of contract by the Company including inaccuracy of representations and warranties, specified lawsuits in which the Company and the other party are co-defendants, product claims and other matters. These amounts generally are not readily quantifiable; the maximum possible liability or amount of potential payments that could arise out of an indemnification claim depends entirely on the specific facts and circumstances associated with the claim. The Company has insurance coverage that minimizes the potential exposure to certain of such claims. The Company also believes that the likelihood of material payment obligations under these agreements to third parties is low.

Covenants. The Company's long-term debt agreements contain customary covenants restricting its activities as well as those of its subsidiaries, including limitations on its, and its subsidiaries', ability to sell assets; engage in mergers; enter into capital leases or certain leases not in the ordinary course of business; enter into transactions involving related parties or derivatives; incur or prepay indebtedness or grant liens or negative pledges on its assets; make loans or other investments; pay dividends or repurchase stock or other securities; guaranty third-party obligations; make capital expenditures; and make changes in its corporate structure. For additional information, see Note 6 . As of November 27, 2016 , the Company was in compliance with all of these covenants.

NOTE 8 : EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Pension plans. The Company has several non-contributory defined benefit retirement plans covering eligible employees. Plan assets are invested in a diversified portfolio of securities including stocks, bonds, cash equivalents and other alternative investments including real estate investment trust funds. Benefits payable under the plans are based on years of service, final average compensation, or both. The Company retains the right to amend, curtail or discontinue any aspect of the plans, subject to local regulations.

Postretirement plans. The Company maintains plans that provide postretirement benefits to eligible employees, principally health care, to substantially all U.S. retirees and their qualified dependents. These plans were established with the intention that they would continue indefinitely. However, the Company retains the right to amend, curtail or discontinue any aspect of the plans at any time. The plans are contributory and contain certain cost-sharing features, such as deductibles and coinsurance. The Company's policy is to fund postretirement benefits as claims and premiums are paid.

The following tables summarize activity of the Company's defined benefit pension plans and postretirement benefit plans:

(1) The decrease in interest cost is primarily due to the election made at the end of 2015 to adopt the spot-rate approach to determine the interest cost component of pension and postretirement expense.

Table of Contents

(2) Actuarial losses in 2016 in the Company's pension benefit plans resulted from changes in discount rate assumptions. Actuarial gains in 2015 in the Company's pension benefit plans resulted from changes in mortality and discount rate assumptions, primarily for the Company's U.S. plans. Changes in financial markets during 2016 and 2015 , including a decrease and increase, respectively, in corporate bond yield indices, resulted in an increase and decrease in benefit obligations, respectively.

(3) The decrease in pension plan settlements in 2016 was primarily due to 2015 settlement activity that continued to reflect impacts from restructuring.

(4) The increase in return on plan assets in 2016 was primarily due to better-than-expected asset performance, as compared to the poor investment performance in 2015, of U.S. and international equity securities.

Amounts recognized in the Company's consolidated balance sheets as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , consist of the following:

	Pension Benefits		Postretirement Benefits
	2016	2015	2016	2015

(1) The decrease in interest cost is primarily due to the election made at the end of 2015 to adopt the spot-rate approach to determine the interest cost component of pension and postretirement expense.

The amounts that will be amortized from "Accumulated other comprehensive loss" into net periodic benefit cost in 2017 for the Company's defined benefit pension and postretirement benefit plans are expected to be $13.4 million and $1.3 million , respectively.

Assumptions used in accounting for the Company's benefit plans were as follows:

	Pension Benefits			Postretirement Benefits
	2016	2015	2014	2016	2015	2014
Weighted-average assumptions used to determine net periodic benefit cost:
Discount rate	4.0%	3.8%	4.6%	3.8%	3.6%	4.2%
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	5.9%	5.9%	6.3%
Rate of compensation increase	3.4%	3.4%	3.7%
Weighted-average assumptions used to determine benefit obligations:
Discount rate	3.8%	4.0%	3.8%	3.7%	3.8%	3.6%
Rate of compensation increase	3.4%	3.4%	3.4%
Assumed health care cost trend rates were as follows:
Health care trend rate assumed for next year				6.4%	6.4%	7.0%
Rate trend to which the cost trend is assumed to decline				4.4%	4.4%	4.5%
Year that rate reaches the ultimate trend rate				2038	2038	2028

For the Company's U.S. benefit plans, the discount rate used to determine the present value of the future pension and postretirement plan obligations was based on a yield curve constructed from a portfolio of high quality corporate bonds with various maturities. Each year's expected future benefit payments are discounted to their present value at the appropriate yield curve rate, thereby generating the overall discount rate. The Company utilized a variety of country-specific third-party bond indices to determine the appropriate discount rates to use for the benefit plans of its foreign subsidiaries.

The Company bases the overall expected long-term rate of return on assets on anticipated long-term returns of individual asset classes and each pension plans' target asset allocation strategy based on current economic conditions. For the U.S. pension plan, the expected long-term returns for each asset class are determined through a mean-variance model to estimate 20 -year returns for the plan.

Health care cost trend rate assumptions are not a significant input in the calculation of the amounts reported for the Company's postretirement benefits plans. A one percentage-point change in assumed health care cost trend rates would have no significant effect on the total service and interest cost components or on the postretirement benefit obligation.

Consolidated pension plan assets relate primarily to the U.S. pension plan. The Company utilizes the services of independent third-party investment managers to oversee the management of U.S. pension plan assets. The Company's investment strategy is to invest plan assets in a diversified portfolio of domestic and international equity securities, fixed income securities and real estate and other alternative investments with the objective of generating long-term growth in plan assets at a reasonable level of risk. Prohibited investments for the U.S. pension plan include certain privately placed or other non-marketable debt instruments, letter stock, commodities or commodity contracts and derivatives of mortgage-backed securities, such as interest-only, principal-only or inverse floaters. The current target allocation percentages for the Company's U.S. pension plan assets are 40-44% for equity securities, 48-52% for fixed income securities and 6-10% for other alternative investments, including real estate.

The fair value of the Company's pension plan assets by asset class are as follows:

(3) Primarily comprised of investments in U.S. Real Estate Investment Trusts.

(4) Represents holdings in a diversified portfolio of private equity funds and direct investments in companies located primarily in North America. Fair values are determined by investment fund managers using primarily unobservable market data.

(5) Primarily invested in a diversified portfolio of equities, bonds, alternatives and cash with a low tolerance for capital loss.

(6) Primarily relates to accounts held and managed by a third-party insurance company for employee-participants in Belgium. Fair values are based on accumulated plan contributions plus a contractually-guaranteed return plus a share of any incremental investment fund profits.

The fair value of plan assets are composed of U.S. plan assets of $697.4 million and non-U.S. plan assets of $139.9 million . The fair values of the substantial majority of the equity, fixed income and real estate investments are based on the net asset value of commingled trust funds that passively track various market indices.

The Company's estimated future benefit payments to participants, which reflect expected future service, as appropriate are anticipated to be paid as follows:

Fiscal year	Pension Benefits	Postretirement Benefits	Total
	(Dollars in thousands)
2017	$ 65,722	$ 14,237	$ 79,959

At November 27, 2016 , the Company's contributions to its pension plans in 2017 were estimated to be approximately $53.2 million .

NOTE 9 : EMPLOYEE INVESTMENT PLANS

The Company's Employee Savings and Investment Plan ("ESIP") is a qualified plan that covers eligible home office employees. The Company matches 125% of ESIP participant's contributions to all funds maintained under the qualified plan up to the first 6.0% of eligible compensation. Total amounts charged to expense for the Company's employee investment plans for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 , and November 30, 2014 , were $12.0 million , $11.5 million and $12.1 million , respectively.

NOTE 10 : EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLANS

Annual Incentive Plan

The Annual Incentive Plan ("AIP") provides a cash bonus that is earned based upon the Company's business unit and consolidated financial results as measured against pre-established internal targets and upon the performance and job level of the individual. Total amounts charged to expense for this plan for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 , and November 30, 2014 were $68.3 million , $65.7 million and $68.3 million , respectively. Total amounts accrued for this plan as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 were $68.5 million and $69.9 million , respectively.

Long-Term Incentive Plans

2016 Equity Incentive Plan (“EIP”). In July 2006, the Board adopted, and the stockholders approved, the EIP. The EIP was subsequently amended in 2011 and 2014 and then amended and restated by the Board of Directors and approved by the stockholders in April 2016. For more information on this plan, see Note 11.

Cash Long-Term Incentive Plan (“LTIP”). The Company established a long-term cash incentive plan effective at the beginning of 2005. Executive officers are not participants in this plan. Performance will be measured at the end of a three -year period based on the Company's performance against the following pre-established targets: (i) the target compound annual growth rate in the Company's net revenues over the three -year period; and (ii) the Company's average margin of net earnings over the three -year period adjusted for certain items such as interest and taxes. Beginning in 2015, the Company introduced an additional target: total shareholder return over the three -year period relative to an expanded peer group. Awards will be paid out in the quarter following the end of the three -year period based on Company performance against the pre-established targets.

The Company recorded expense for the LTIP of $4.9 million , $4.3 million , and $2.3 million for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 , and November 30, 2014 , respectively. As of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , the Company had accrued a total of $10.2 million and $8.8 million , respectively, for the LTIP.

NOTE 11 : STOCK-BASED INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLANS

The Company recognized stock-based compensation expense of $20.3 million , $25.6 million and $24.8 million , and related income tax benefits of $7.8 million , $9.8 million and $9.6 million , respectively, for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 and November 30, 2014 , respectively. As of November 27, 2016 , there was $37.6 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested equity and liability awards, which cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.14 years. No stock-based compensation cost has been capitalized in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

2016 Equity Incentive Plan

In April 2016, the Company amended, restated and renamed the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan to the 2016 Equity Incentive Plan ("EIP"). Under the Company's EIP, a variety of stock awards, including stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units ("RSUs"), stock appreciation rights ("SARs") and cash or equity settled performance awards may be granted. The aggregate number of shares of common stock authorized for issuance under the EIP is 8,000,000 shares. At November 27, 2016 , 2,906,683 shares remained available for issuance.

Under the EIP, stock awards have a maximum contractual term of ten years and generally must have an exercise price at least equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the grant date. Awards generally vest according to terms determined at the time of grant, or as otherwise determined by the Board in its discretion.

Upon the exercise of a SAR, the participant will receive shares of common stock. The number of shares of common stock issued per SAR unit exercised is equal to (i) the excess of the per-share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of exercise over the exercise price of the SAR, divided by (ii) the per-share fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of exercise.

Only non-employee members of the Board have received RSUs. Each recipient's vested RSUs are converted to a share of common stock six months after their discontinuation of service with the Company. The RSUs additionally have “dividend equivalent rights,” of which dividends paid by the Company on its common stock are credited by the equivalent addition of RSUs.

Shares of common stock will be issued from the Company's authorized but unissued shares and are subject to the Stockholders Agreement that governs all shares.

Shares of common stock issued under the EIP contain certain repurchase rights, which may be exercised only with respect to shares of the Company's common stock that have been held by a participant for at least six months following their issuance date. The holder is exposed to the risk and rewards of ownership for a reasonable period of time. Accordingly, the SARs and RSUs are classified as equity awards, and are reported in "Stockholders' equity" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Temporary equity. Equity-classified stock-based awards that may be settled in cash at the option of the holder are presented on the balance sheet outside permanent equity. Accordingly, "Temporary equity" on the face of the accompanying consolidated balance sheets includes the portion of the intrinsic value of these awards generally relating to the elapsed service period since the grant date as well as the fair value of common stock issued pursuant to the EIP. The increase in temporary equity from the year ended November 29, 2015 to November 27, 2016 , was primarily due additional vesting of performance awards and service awards.

Equity Awards

SARs. The Company grants SARs, which include service or performance conditions, to a small group of the Company's senior executives. Beginning in 2013, the Company issued cliff vesting performance awards ("performance-based SARs") to align with the achievement of three -year financial performance goals. SARs activity during the year ended November 27, 2016 was as follows:

	Service SARs			Performance-based SARs
	Units	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Life (Years)	Units	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Life (Years)
	(Units in thousands)
Outstanding at November 29, 2015	2,669	$ 47.02	4.3	1,228	$ 54.96	5.0
Granted	629	62.27		419	62.27

Vested and expected to vest at November 27, 2016	3,028	$ 48.96	3.8	1,040	$ 59.96	4.9
Exercisable at November 27, 2016	1,902	$ 38.63	2.8	263	$ 40.09	3.3

SARs with service conditions ("service SARs") vest from three-and-a-half to four years, and have maximum contractual lives ranging from seven to ten years. The performance-based SARs vest at varying unit amounts, up to 150% of those awarded, based on the attainment of certain three -year cumulative performance goals and have maximum contractual lives of seven years. The total intrinsic value of service SARs exercised during the year ended November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , was $1.4 million and $4.7 million , respectively. The total intrinsic value of performance SARs exercised during the year ended November 27, 2016 was $1.0 million . The total fair value of service SARs vested as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , was $54.0 million and $51.8 million , respectively. The total fair value of performance SARs vested as of November 27, 2016 was $7.1 million . Unrecognized future compensation costs as of November 27, 2016 of $12.9 million for service SARs and $6.0 million for performance-based SARs are expected to be recognized over weighted-average periods of 2.69 years and 1.99 years, respectively. The Company believes it is probable that the performance-based SARs will vest.

The weighted-average grant date fair value of SARs was estimated using the Black-Scholes option valuation model, unless the awards were subject to market conditions, in which case the Company utilized the Monte Carlo simulation model. The weighted-average grant date fair values and corresponding weighted-average assumptions used in the Black-Scholes option valuation model were as follows:

	Service SARs Granted			Performance-based SARs Granted
	2016	2015	2014	2016	2015	2014
Weighted-average grant date fair value	$ 15.74	$ 18.24	$ 14.62	$ 15.94	$ 18.73	$ 15.75
Weighted-average assumptions:
Expected life (in years)	4.8	4.7	4.7	5.0	5.0	5.0
Expected volatility	36.4%	31.8%	31.8%	36.3%	31.8%	33.1%

Expected dividend	2.5%	1.6%	1.2%	2.5%	1.6%	1.2%

The weighted-average grant date fair value of SARs subject to market conditions was estimated using a Monte Carlo simulation model. The weighted-average grant date fair values and corresponding weighted-average assumptions used in the model were as follows:

	Performance-based SARs Granted
	2016	2015	2014
Weighted-average grant date fair value	$ 20.56	$ 21.41	$ 22.63
Weighted-average assumptions:
Expected life (in years)	4.8	4.8	4.8
Expected volatility	36.5%	30.1%	33.0%
Risk-free interest rate	1.5%	1.6%	2.2%
Expected dividend	2.6%	1.8%	1.0%

RSUs . The Company grants RSUs to certain members of its Board. RSU activity during the year ended November 27, 2016 was as follows:

	Units	Weighted-Average Fair Value
	(Units in thousands)
Outstanding at November 29, 2015	66	$ 58.51
Granted	23	67.95
Converted	(13)	61.47
Outstanding, vested and expected to vest at November 27, 2016	76	$ 60.90

The weighted-average grant date fair value of RSUs was estimated using the Evercore stock valuation. The total fair value of RSUs outstanding, vested and expected to vest as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , was $5.1 million and $4.5 million , respectively.

RSUs vest in a series of three equal installments at thirteen months, twenty-four months and thirty-six months following the date of grant. However, if the recipient's continuous service terminates for a reason other than cause after the first vesting installment, but prior to full vesting, then the remaining unvested portion of the award becomes fully vested as of the date of such termination.

Liability Awards

Cash settled liability awards provide long-term incentive compensation for select levels of the Company's management. The common stock values used in the determination of the cash settled awards and payouts are approved by the Board based on the Evercore stock valuation. Unvested awards are subject to forfeiture upon termination of employment, but are subject in some cases to early vesting upon specified events, as defined in the agreement. From 2008 through 2012, the Company's Total Shareholder Return Plan ("TSRP") provided grants of units that vest over a three -year performance period. Upon vesting of a TSRP unit, the participant would receive a cash payout in an amount equal to the excess of the per-share value of the Company's common stock at the end of the three -year performance period over the per-share value at the date of grant. In 2013, the Company replaced the TSRP with the Phantom Restricted Stock Unit Plan ("PRSU"). The PRSU provides for grants of units, with actual number of units vesting subject to a minimum and maximum, based on the fair value of the common stock at the end of a three -year performance period. Upon vesting of a PRSU unit, the participant will receive a cash payout in an amount equal to the vested units multiplied by the fair value of the Company's common stock at the end of the three -year performance period. Unrecognized future compensation cost as of November 27, 2016 , for PRSUs is $18.7 million and is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.81 years. The Company believes it is probable that the liability awards will vest.

Liability award activity during the year ended November 27, 2016 was as follows:

	PRSUs
	Units	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Fair Value At Period End
Outstanding at November 29, 2015	626	$ 57.92	$ 68.00
Granted	334	61.94
Vested	(245)	38.40
Performance adjustment of PRSU	(6)	111.34
Forfeited	(70)	67.58
Outstanding at November 27, 2016	639	$ 65.92	$ 67.00
Expected to vest at November 27, 2016	560	$ 66.09	$ 67.00
Exercisable at November 27, 2016	—	$ —	$ —

The total intrinsic value of PRSU awards exercised during the year ended November 27, 2016 was $15.8 million . The weighted-average fair value of PRSUs at the grant date was estimated using the Evercore stock valuation while the PRSUs fair value at November 27, 2016 , was estimated using an internally derived calculation consistent with Evercore's calculation methodology.

As of November 29, 2015 , there were no TSRP awards outstanding, vested or expected to vest, due to the replacement of the TSRP with the PRSU. The total intrinsic value of TSRPs exercised during the years ended November 29, 2015 and November 30, 2014 was $5.6 million and $3.5 million , respectively. The total fair value of TSRPs vested as of November 30, 2014 was $6.9 million . The weighted-average fair value of TSRPs at November 30, 2014 , was estimated using the Black-Scholes option valuation model. The weighted-average assumptions used in the TSRPs Black-Scholes model were as follows:

	November 30, 2014
Weighted-average assumptions:
Expected life (in years)	0.1
Expected volatility	27.3%
Risk-free interest rate	—
Expected dividend	1.2%

NOTE 12 : LONG-TERM EMPLOYEE RELATED BENEFITS

Long-term employee-related benefit liabilities primarily consist of the Company's liabilities for its deferred compensation plans.

Deferred compensation plan for executives and outside directors, established January 1, 2003. The Company has a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for executives and outside directors that was established on January 1, 2003 and amended thereafter. The deferred compensation plan obligations are payable in cash upon retirement, termination of employment and/or certain other times in a lump-sum distribution or in installments, as elected by the participant in accordance with the plan. As of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , these plan liabilities totaled $23.6 million and $24.2 million , respectively, of which $0.9 million and $1.5 million was included in "Accrued salaries, wages and employee benefits" as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , respectively. The Company held funds of approximately $27.1 million and $26.0 million in an irrevocable grantor's rabbi trust as of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , respectively, related to this plan. Rabbi trust assets are classified as available-for-sale marketable securities and are included in "Other current assets" or "Other non-current assets" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. Unrealized gains and losses on these marketable securities are reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity and included in AOCI on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

Deferred compensation plan for executives, prior to January 1, 2003. The Company also maintains a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for certain management employees relating to compensation deferrals for the period prior to January 1, 2003. The rabbi trust is not a feature of this plan. As of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , liabilities for this plan totaled $32.2 million and $35.1 million , respectively, of which $4.5 million and $3.8 million , respectively, was included in “Accrued salaries, wages and employee benefits” on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

Interest earned by the participants in deferred compensation plans was $2.5 million , $1.9 million and $5.3 million for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 , and November 30, 2014 , respectively. The charges were included in "nterest expense" in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

NOTE 13 : RESTRUCTURING

In 2014, the Company announced and began to implement a global productivity initiative designed to streamline operations and fuel long-term profitable growth. The majority of the actions related to the global productivity initiative were implemented through the end of 2016. The Company does not anticipate any significant additional costs associated with the global productivity initiative.

The Company recognized restructuring charges, net, of $0.3 million , $14.1 million and $128.4 million for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 and November 30, 2014 , respectively. These restructuring charges were recorded in "Restructuring, net" in the Company's consolidated statements of income. Related charges of $7.2 million , $30.7 million , and $27.6 million for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 and November 30, 2014 , respectively, consist primarily of consulting fees for the Company's centrally-led cost-savings and productivity projects, as well as transition costs associated with the Company's decision to outsource certain global business service activities. These related charges represent costs incurred associated with ongoing operations which will benefit future periods and thus were recorded in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

The table below summarizes the components of charges included in “Restructuring, net” in the Company’s consolidated statements of income:

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014
	(Dollars in thousands)
Restructuring, net:
Severance and employee-related benefits [1]	$ 1,963	$ 14,819	$ 104,398
Adjustments to severance and employee-related benefits	(1,789)	(4,182)	(5,697)
Other [2]	311	2,776	26,377
Noncash pension and postretirement curtailment (gains) losses, net [3]	(173)	658	3,347
Total	$ 312	$ 14,071	$ 128,425

(1) Severance and employee-related benefits relate to items such as severance, based on separation benefits provided by Company policy or statutory benefit plans, out-placement services and career counseling for employees affected by the global productivity initiative.

(2) Other restructuring costs are expensed as incurred and primarily relate to consulting fees and legal expenses associated with the execution of the restructuring initiative.

(3) Noncash pension and postretirement curtailment gains or losses resulting from the global productivity initiative are included in restructuring charges, with the associated liabilities included in "Pension liability" and "Postretirement medical benefits" on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the activities associated with restructuring liabilities for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 and November 30, 2014 . In the table below, "Charges" represents the initial charge related to the restructuring activity. "Adjustments" includes revisions of estimates related to severance, employee-related benefits, lease and other contract termination costs, and other restructuring costs. "Payments" consists of cash payments for severance, employee-related benefits, lease and other contract termination costs, and other restructuring costs.

NOTE 14 : COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Operating Lease Commitments

The Company is obligated under operating leases for manufacturing, finishing and distribution facilities, office space, retail stores and equipment. At November 27, 2016 , obligations for future minimum payments under operating leases were as follows:

	(Dollars in thousands)
2017	$ 159,101
2018	121,638
2019	99,499
2020	79,074
2021	61,368
Thereafter	148,500
Total future minimum lease payments	$ 669,180

In general, leases relating to real estate may include renewal options of various length. The San Francisco headquarters office lease contains multiple renewal options of up to 57 years . Rental expense for the years ended November 27, 2016 , November 29, 2015 , and November 30, 2014 , was $204.6 million , $192.5 million and $193.0 million , respectively.

Forward Foreign Exchange Contracts

The Company uses over-the-counter derivative instruments to manage its exposure to foreign currencies. The Company is exposed to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the counterparties to the forward foreign exchange contracts. However, the Company believes that its exposures are appropriately diversified across counterparties and that these counterparties are creditworthy financial institutions. See Note 5 for additional information.

Other Contingencies

Litigation. In the ordinary course of business, the Company has various pending cases involving contractual matters, facility and employee-related matters, distribution matters, product liability claims, trademark infringement and other matters. The Company does not believe any of these pending legal proceedings will have a material impact on its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 15 : DIVIDEND

The Company paid a cash dividend of $60.0 million on our common stock in the second quarter of 2016 , and cash dividends of $50.0 million and $30.0 million in the first half of each of 2015 and 2014 , respectively. Subsequent to the Company's year end, the Company's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $70.0 million , payable in two $35 million installments. The Company expects to pay the first installment in the first quarter of 2017 and the second installment in the fourth quarter of 2017.

The Company does not have an established annual dividend policy. The Company will continue to review its ability to pay cash dividends at least annually, and dividends may be declared at the discretion of the Board depending upon, among other factors, the Company's financial condition and compliance with the terms of the Company's debt agreements.

Please see Note 8 for additional information. These amounts are included in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" in the Company's consolidated statements of income.

NOTE 17 : OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE), NET

The following table summarizes significant components of "Other income (expense), net":

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014
	(Dollars in thousands)
Foreign exchange management gains (losses) [1]	$ 15,860	$ 34,106	$ (11,104)
Foreign currency transaction (losses) gains [2]	(7,166)	(64,161)	(15,331)
Interest income	1,376	1,253	1,930
Investment income	976	697	562
Other [3]	7,177	2,672	1,886
Total other income (expense), net	$ 18,223	$ (25,433)	$ (22,057)

(1) Gains and losses on forward foreign exchange contracts primarily result from currency fluctuations relative to negotiated contract rates. Gains in 2016 and 2015 were primarily due to favorable currency fluctuations relative to negotiated contract rates on positions to sell the Mexican Peso. Losses in 2014 were primarily due to unfavorable currency fluctuations on embedded foreign currency derivatives in certain of the Company's operating leases in Russia.

(2) Foreign currency transaction gains and losses reflect the impact of foreign currency fluctuation on the Company's foreign currency denominated balances. Losses in 2016 , 2015 and 2014 were primarily due to the weakening of various currencies against the U.S. Dollar.

(3) Income in 2016 principally relates to business insurance recoveries.

NOTE 18 : INCOME TAXES

The Company's income tax expense was $116.1 million , $100.5 million and $49.5 million for the years 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively. The Company's effective income tax rate was 28.5% , 32.4% , and 32.2% for 2016 , 2015 and 2014 , respectively.

The decrease in effective income tax rate in 2016 as compared to 2015 is primarily due to a favorable impact of foreign operations as compared to 2015. The effective tax rate increased in 2015 as compared to 2014 primarily due to a one-time, incremental annual tax benefit associated with multi-year California Enterprise Zone credits recognized in 2014, partially offset by a $8.0 million discrete tax benefit recognized in 2015 attributable to deductions taken for losses on the investments in a consolidated subsidiary.

The Company's income tax expense differed from the amount computed by applying the U.S. federal statutory income tax rate of 35% to income before income taxes as follows:

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016		November 29, 2015		November 30, 2014
	(Dollars in thousands)
Income tax expense at U.S. federal statutory rate	$ 142,541	35.0 %	$ 108,639	35.0 %	$ 53,849	35.0 %
State income taxes, net of U.S. federal impact	6,943	1.7 %	8,938	2.9 %	7	—
Impact of foreign operations	(28,727)	(7.1)%	(7,286)	(2.3)%	(5,296)	(3.4)%
Reassessment of tax liabilities	(2,387)	(0.6)%	(7,577)	(2.4)%	(3,466)	(2.3)%
Deduction related to subsidiaries	(6,788)	(1.7)%	(8,060)	(2.6)%	—	—
Write-off of deferred tax assets	—	—	1,718	0.6 %	4,899	3.2 %
Other, including non-deductible expenses	4,469	1.2 %	4,135	1.2 %	(448)	(0.3)%
Total	$ 116,051	28.5 %	$ 100,507	32.4 %	$ 49,545	32.2 %

Impact of foreign operations. The increase of tax rate benefit in 2016 as compared to 2015 is primarily due to a favorable change in the mix of earnings in jurisdictions with lower effective tax rate and lower amount of foreign losses with no tax benefit in 2016 as compared to 2015.

Reassessment of tax liabilities. In 2016, the $2.4 million tax benefit is primarily attributable to the lapse of statutes of limitations in various jurisdictions. In 2015, the $7.6 million tax benefit primarily related to remeasurement of a tax position and the lapse of statutes of limitations in various jurisdictions.

Deduction related to subsidiaries. In 2016, the $6.8 million benefit is primarily related to a discrete tax benefit attributable to deductions for worthless debts in a consolidated subsidiary. In 2015 the $8.1 million discrete tax benefit is primarily attributable to the deductions for losses on the investments in a consolidated subsidiary.

The U.S. and foreign components of income before income taxes were as follows:

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015	November 30, 2014
	(Dollars in thousands)
Domestic	$ 189,478	$ 194,540	$ 31,733

Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities

The Company's deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities were as follows:

	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015
	(Dollars in thousands)
Deferred tax assets
Foreign tax credit carryforwards	$ 92,845	$ 116,862

Net deferred tax assets	$ 586,262	$ 655,063
Valuation allowance	(68,212)	(75,753)
Total net deferred tax assets	$ 518,050	$ 579,310

Foreign tax credit carryforwards . The foreign tax credit carryforwards at November 27, 2016 , are subject to expiration through 2022 if not utilized.

Foreign net operating loss carryforwards. As of November 27, 2016 , the Company had a deferred tax asset of $85.1 million for foreign net operating loss carryforwards of $300.3 million . Approximately $142.2 million of these operating losses are subject to expiration through 2026. The remaining $158.1 million are available as indefinite carryforwards under applicable tax law.

Valuation Allowance. The following table details the changes in valuation allowance during the year ended November 27, 2016 :

	Valuation Allowance at November 29, 2015	Changes in Related Gross Deferred Tax Asset	Release	Valuation Allowance at November 27, 2016
	(Dollars in thousands)
U.S. state net operating loss carryforwards	$ 3,500	$ (1,780)	$ —	$ 1,720
Foreign net operating loss carryforwards and other foreign deferred tax assets	72,253	(3,247)	(2,514)	66,492
	$ 75,753	$ (5,027)	$ (2,514)	$ 68,212

At November 27, 2016 , the Company's valuation allowance primarily related to its gross deferred tax assets for state and foreign net operating loss carryforwards, which reduced such assets to the amount that will more likely than not be realized.

Unremitted earnings of certain foreign subsidiaries. For the year ended November 27, 2016 , management asserted indefinite reinvestment on $100.0 million of undistributed foreign earnings, as management determined that this amount is required to meet ongoing working capital needs in certain foreign subsidiaries; no U.S. income taxes have been provided for such earnings. If the Company were to repatriate such foreign earnings to the United States, the deferred tax liability associated with such earnings would have been approximately $26.6 million .

Uncertain Income Tax Positions

As of November 27, 2016 , the Company's total gross amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $29.1 million , of which $21.7 million could impact the effective tax rate, if recognized, as compared to November 29, 2015 , when the Company's total gross amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $32.7 million , of which $20.6 million could have impacted the effective tax rate, if recognized.

The following table reflects the changes to the Company's unrecognized tax benefits for the year ended November 27, 2016 and November 29, 2015 :

	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015
	(Dollars in thousands)
Unrecognized tax benefits beginning balance	$ 32,704	$ 41,571
Increases related to current year tax positions	1,970	3,687
Increases related to tax positions from prior years	45	—
Decreases related to tax positions from prior years	(584)	(4,723)
Settlement with tax authorities	—	—
Lapses of statutes of limitation	(4,266)	(7,576)
Other, including foreign currency translation	(816)	(255)
Unrecognized tax benefits ending balance	$ 29,053	$ 32,704

The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that unrecognized tax benefits could decrease within the next twelve months by as much as $2.0 million due to the lapse of statutes of limitations.

As of November 27, 2016 , and November 29, 2015 , accrued interest and penalties primarily relating to non-U.S. jurisdictions were $4.1 million and $6.7 million , respectively.

The Company's income tax returns are subject to examination in the U.S. federal and state jurisdictions and numerous foreign jurisdictions. The following table summarizes the tax years that are either currently under audit or remain open and subject to examination by the tax authorities in the major jurisdictions in which the Company operates:

NOTE 20 : BUSINESS SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company manages its business according to three regional segments: the Americas, Europe and Asia. The Company considers its chief executive officer to be the Company's chief operating decision maker. The Company's chief operating decision maker manages business operations, evaluates performance and allocates resources based on the regional segments' net revenues and operating income. The Company reports net trade receivables and inventories by segment as that information is used by the chief operating decision maker in assessing segment performance. The Company does not report its other assets by segment as that information is not used by the chief operating decision maker in assessing segment performance.

Effective as of the beginning of 2015, the Company's regional licensing revenue, previously recorded centrally in the Company's Americas region, was revised to be recorded in the Company's respective regions. Regional licensing revenue are not significant to any of the Company's regional segments individually in any of the periods presented herein, and accordingly, business segment information for the prior periods have not been revised.

Business segment information for the Company is as follows:

Item 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

None.

Item 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") that are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in the reports we file or submit to the SEC is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

We have evaluated, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our chief executive officer and our chief financial officer, the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of November 27, 2016 . Based on that evaluation, our chief executive officer and our chief financial officer concluded that as of November 27, 2016 , our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level.

Management's annual report on internal control over financial reporting

We maintain a system of internal control over financial reporting that is designed to provide reasonable assurance that our books and records accurately reflect our transactions and that our established policies and procedures are followed. Because of inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act). Our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting and concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was effective as of November 27, 2016 . In making this assessment, our management used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO") in Internal Control-Integrated Framework (2013) .

Changes in internal controls

We maintain a system of internal control over financial reporting that is designed to provide reasonable assurance that our books and records accurately reflect our transactions and that our established policies and procedures are followed. We continued the transition of certain global business service activities to our outsourced service provider during our last fiscal quarter, and this resulted in a change to our processes and control environment. There were no other changes to our internal control over financial reporting during our last fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Directors

Stephen C. Neal , a director since 2007, is our Chairman of the Board, a position he has held since September 2011. He is also the Chairman of the law firm Cooley LLP, where he was also Chief Executive Officer from 2001 until January 1, 2008. In addition to his extensive experience as a trial lawyer on a broad range of corporate issues, Mr. Neal has represented and advised numerous boards of directors, special committees of boards and individual directors on corporate governance and other legal matters. Prior to joining Cooley in 1995, Mr. Neal was a partner of the law firm Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Mr. Neal brings to the board deep knowledge and broad experience in corporate governance as well as his perspectives drawn from advising many companies throughout his career.

Charles V. Bergh, a director since he joined the Company in September 2011, is our President and Chief Executive Officer. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Bergh held a progression of leadership roles during his 28-year career at P&G. Mr. Bergh is currently a director of HP Inc. ("HPQ") and previously served on the Board of Directors for VF Corporation and on the Singapore Economic Development Board, and was a member of the US-ASEAN Business Council, Singapore. Mr. Bergh's position as our Chief Executive Officer and his past experience as a leader of large, global consumer brands make him well-suited to be a member of our board of directors.

Troy Alstead , a director since 2012, is the founder of Harbor O5, developing a new consumer-facing concept to open in 2017, and founder of the Ocean5 Foundation focused on raising awareness and funding for sustainability of the world's oceans and seas. In February 2016, he retired from Starbucks Corporation after 24 years with the company, having most recently served as Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Alstead previously held the positions of Group President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Administrative Officer of Starbucks. He joined Starbucks in 1992, and over the years served in a number of operational, general management and finance roles. Mr. Alstead spent a decade in Starbucks international business, including roles as Senior Leader of Starbucks International, President of Europe, Middle East and Africa headquartered in Amsterdam and Chief Operating Officer of Starbucks Greater China headquartered in Shanghai. Mr. Alstead brings to the board his broad financial and business perspective developed over many years in the global consumer goods industry. Mr. Alstead currently serves as a director of TopGolf.

Jill Beraud , a director since 2013, is Chief Executive Officer of Ippolita (Seno Jewelry), a privately-held luxury jewelry company with distribution in high-end department stores, flagship and e-commerce, a position she has held since October 2015. Previously, Ms. Beraud was Executive Vice President for Tiffany & Co., with responsibility for its Global Retail Operations and oversight of strategic store development and real estate from October 2014 until June 2015. Prior to Tiffany & Co., Ms. Beraud was with Living Proof, Inc., a privately-held company that uses advanced medical and materials technologies to create hair care and skin care products for women, where she was Chief Executive Officer from December 2011 to October 2014. Prior to that, Ms. Beraud served as President of Starbucks/Lipton Joint Ventures and Chief Marketing Officer of PepsiCo Americas Beverages from July 2009 to June 2011, and PepsiCo's Global Chief Marketing Officer from December 2008 to July 2009. Before PepsiCo, Ms. Beraud spent 13 years at Limited Brands in various roles, including Chief Marketing Officer of Victoria's Secret and Executive Vice President of Marketing for its broader portfolio of specialty brands, including Bath & Body Works, C.O. Bigelow, Express, Henri Bendel, and Limited Stores. Ms. Beraud was selected to join the board due to her extensive marketing, social media and consumer branding experience, as well as her extensive managerial and operational knowledge in the apparel and other consumer goods industries.

Robert A. Eckert , a director since 2010, is Operating Partner of Friedman Fleischer & Lowe, LLC ("FFL"), a private equity firm, since September 2014. Mr. Eckert is also Chairman Emeritus of Mattel, Inc., a role he has held since January 2013. He was Mattel's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from May 2000 until December 2011, and he continued to serve as its Chairman until December 2012. He previously worked for Kraft Foods, Inc. for 23 years, and served as President and Chief Executive Officer from October 1997 until May 2000. From 1995 to 1997, Mr. Eckert was Group Vice President of Kraft Foods, and from 1993 to 1995, Mr. Eckert was President of the Oscar Mayer foods division of Kraft Foods. Mr. Eckert was selected to join the board due to his experience as a senior executive engaged with the dynamics of building global consumer brands through high performance expectations, integrity and decisiveness in driving businesses to successful results. Mr. Eckert is currently a director of McDonald's Corporation, Amgen, Inc. Eyemart Express Holdings, LLC and Enjoy Beer Holdings, LLC, and Quinn Company.

Spencer C. Fleischer, a director since 2013, is Managing Partner of Friedman Fleischer & Lowe, LLC ("FFL"), a private equity firm. Our Board of Directors

Our board of directors currently has eleven members. Our board is divided into three classes with directors elected for overlapping three-year terms. The term for directors in Class I (Ms. Beraud, Mr. Fleischer, Mr. McCormick, and Mr. Neal) will end at our annual stockholders' meeting in 2017. The term for directors in Class II (Mrs. Haas, Mr. P. E. Haas Jr. and Ms. Ming) will end at our annual stockholders' meeting in 2018. The term for directors in Class III (Mr. Alstead, Mr. Bergh, Mr. Eckert and Ms. Pineda) will end at our annual stockholders' meeting in 2019.

Committees . Our board of directors has four standing committees.

- Audit. Our Audit Committee provides assistance to the board in the board's oversight of the integrity of our financial statements, financial reporting processes, internal controls systems and compliance with legal requirements. The committee meets with our management regularly to discuss our critical accounting policies, internal controls and financial reporting process and our financial reports to the public. The committee also meets with our independent registered public accounting firm and with our financial personnel and internal auditors regarding these matters. The committee also examines the independence and performance of our internal auditors and our independent registered public accounting firm. The committee has sole and direct authority to engage, appoint, evaluate and replace our independent auditor. Both our independent registered public accounting firm and our internal auditors regularly meet privately with this committee and have unrestricted access to the committee. The Audit Committee held eight meetings during 2016 .

  – Members: Mr. Alstead (Chair), Ms. Beraud, Mr. Fleischer, Mr. McCormick and Ms. Ming.

  Each of Messrs. Alstead and Fleischer have been determined to be our Audit Committee financial experts as currently defined under SEC rules. We believe that the composition of our Audit Committee meets the criteria for independence under, and the functioning of our Audit Committee complies with the applicable requirements of, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and SEC rules and regulations.

- Finance. Our Finance Committee provides assistance to the board in the board's oversight of our financial condition and management, financing strategies and execution and relationships with stockholders, creditors and other members of the financial community. The Finance Committee held five meetings in 2016 and otherwise acted by unanimous written consent.

  – Members: Mr. Fleischer (Chair), Ms. Beraud, Mrs. Haas and Mr. McCormick.

- Human Resources. Our Human Resources Committee provides assistance to the board in the board's oversight of our compensation, benefits and human resources programs and of senior management performance, composition and compensation. The committee reviews our compensation objectives and performance against those objectives, reviews market conditions and practices and our strategy and processes for making compensation decisions and approves (or, in the case of our chief executive officer, recommends to the Board) the annual and long term compensation for our executive officers, including our long term incentive compensation plans. The committee also reviews our succession planning, diversity and benefit plans. The Human Resources Committee held four meetings in 2016 .

  – Members: Mr. Eckert (Chair), Mr. Alstead, Mr. P.E. Haas Jr. and Ms. Pineda.

- Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship. Our Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee is responsible for identifying qualified candidates for our board of directors and making recommendations regarding the size and composition of the board. In addition, the committee is responsible for overseeing our corporate governance matters, reporting and making recommendations to the board concerning corporate governance matters, reviewing the performance of our chairman and chief executive officer and determining director compensation. The committee also assists the board with oversight and review of corporate citizenship and sustainability matters which may have a significant impact on the Company. The Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee held four meetings in 2016 .

  – Members: Mr. Neal (Chair), Mr. Eckert, Mrs. Haas, Mr. P.E. Haas Jr. and Ms. Pineda.

Board Composition and Risk Management Practices

Board Leadership

While our by-laws do not require separation of the offices of chairman and chief executive officer, these positions are held by different individuals. The Board believes that the separation of the roles of chairman and chief executive officer is a matter to be addressed as part of the succession planning process for those roles and that it is in the best interests of the Company for the board, upon the review and advice of the Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee, to make such a determination when it elects a new chairman or chief executive officer or otherwise as the circumstances may require.

Board Selection Criteria

According to the board's written membership policy, the board seeks directors who are committed to the values of the Company and are, by reason of their character, judgment, knowledge and experience, capable of contributing to the effective governance of the Company. Additionally, the board is committed to maintaining a diverse and engaged board of directors composed of both stockholders and non-stockholders. Upon any vacancy on the board, it seeks to fill that vacancy with any specific skills, experiences or attributes that will enhance the overall perspective or functioning of the board.

Board's Role in Risk Management

Management is responsible for the day-to-day management of the risks facing the Company, while the board, as a whole and through its committees, has responsibility for the oversight of risk management. Management engages the board in discussions concerning risk periodically and as needed, and addresses the topic as part of the annual planning discussions where the board and management review key risks to the Company's plans and strategies and the mitigation plans for those risks. In addition, the Audit Committee of the board has the responsibility to review the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures, with management, the senior internal auditing executive and the independent registered public accounting firm.

Worldwide Code of Business Conduct

We have a Worldwide Code of Business Conduct which applies to all of our directors and employees, including the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer, the controller and our other senior financial officers. The Worldwide Code of Business Conduct covers a number of topics including:

- accounting practices and financial communications;
- conflicts of interest;
- confidentiality;
- corporate opportunities;
- insider trading; and
- compliance with laws.

A copy of the Worldwide Code of Business Conduct is an exhibit to this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS FOR NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Compensation Discussion and Analysis describes our compensation program, the compensation decisions we made under our program, and the reasoning underlying those decisions. This discussion and analysis focuses on the compensation of our named executive officers, who in fiscal 2016 were:

- Charles V. Bergh, President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO")
- Harmit Singh, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO")
- Carrie Ask, Executive Vice President and President, Global Retail
- Roy Bagattini, Executive Vice President and President, Americas
- Seth Ellison, Executive Vice President and President, Europe

Our compensation policies and programs are designed to support the achievement of our strategic business plans by motivating, retaining and attracting exceptional talent. Our ability to compete effectively in the marketplace depends on the knowledge, capabilities and integrity of our leaders. Our compensation programs help create a high-performance, outcome-driven and principled culture by holding leaders accountable for delivering results, developing our employees and exemplifying our core values. In addition, we believe that our compensation policies and programs for leaders and employees are appropriately balanced, reinforcing short-term and long-term results, and as such would not drive behavior that would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

The Human Resources Committee (the "HR Committee") of our Board of Directors (the "Board") is responsible for overseeing our executive compensation practices. Each year, the HR Committee conducts a review of our compensation and benefits programs to assess whether the programs are aligned with our business strategies, the competitive practices of our peer companies and our stockholders' interests.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

Our executive compensation philosophy, which applies to all members of our executive leadership team, focuses on the following key goals:

- Motivate, retain, and attract high performing talent in an extremely competitive marketplace
  - Our ability to achieve our strategic business plans and compete effectively in the marketplace is based on our ability to motivate, retain, and attract exceptional leadership talent in a highly competitive talent market.
- Deliver competitive compensation for achievement of annual and long-term results
  - We provide competitive total compensation opportunities that are intended to motivate, retain, and attract a highly capable and results-driven executive team, with the majority of compensation based on the achievements of long-term performance results.
- Align the interests of our executives with those of our stockholders
  - Our programs offer compensation incentives that are intended to motivate executives to enhance total stockholder return. These programs align certain elements of compensation with our achievement of corporate growth objectives (including defined financial targets and increases in stockholder value) as well as individual performance.

Policies and Practices for Establishing Compensation Packages

The HR Committee establishes the elements of compensation for our executives after an extensive review of market data on the executives from the peer group described below. The HR Committee reviews each element of compensation independently and in the aggregate to determine the right mix of elements, and associated amounts, for each executive that it believes best helps us further our goals of motivating and retaining our executives, achieving our strategic business plans, and enhancing total stockholder return.

A consistent approach is used across the executive leadership team when establishing each compensation element. However, the HR Committee (and the Board with respect to the CEO) maintains flexibility to exercise its independent judgment in how it applies the standard approach to each executive, taking into account unique considerations existing at an executive's time of hire, promotion or annual performance review, and the current and future estimated value of previously granted long-term incentives, both performance and time-vested.

Competitive peer group

In determining the design and the amount of each element of compensation, the HR Committee, with the assistance of its compensation consultant, conducts a thorough annual review of competitive market information. The HR Committee reviews data from major published surveys and proxy information of peer companies in the consumer products, apparel and retail industry segments. The peer group is comprised of companies with median revenue and other industry related characteristics (such as apparel, retail and select consumer products companies with premium branded products) that are comparable to us and that we compete with for executive talent. The peer group used in establishing our executives' 2016 compensation packages is presented below.

Establishing compensation for executives other than the CEO

While the HR Committee uses peer group market data percentiles as reference points in setting executive compensation, the HR Committee does not target specific benchmark percentiles for any element of compensation or total direct compensation for the executive officers. Instead, the HR Committee uses a number of factors in determining compensation for our executives in a manner that it believes best helps us further our goals of motivating and retaining our executives, achieving our strategic business plans, and enhancing total stockholder return. The factors considered in establishing compensation for our executives include, among others, our performance, the individual's performance in the prior year, the scope of each individual's responsibilities, internal and external pay equity, the guidelines used for setting annual cash, long-term and total compensation for the executives, succession planning strategies, and data regarding pay practices and trends.

The CEO conducts an annual performance review of each executive and makes recommendations to the HR Committee about the structure of the executive compensation program and individual arrangements. The HR Committee carefully considers the CEO's recommendation and also consults with its consultant, Exequity, an independent board advisory firm, which informs the HR Committee of market trends and conditions, comments on market data relative to each executive's current compensation, and provides perspective on other company executive compensation practices.

Establishing the CEO compensation package

Annually, the Board's Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee (the "NG&CC Committee") assesses the CEO's performance and submits its performance assessment to the HR Committee. The HR Committee then reviews the performance assessment and peer group compensation data. The HR Committee also consults with its consultant, Exequity, which informs the HR Committee of market trends and conditions, comments on market data relative to the CEO's current compensation, and provides perspective on other companies' CEO compensation practices. Based on all of these inputs, the Company's performance, and the guidelines used for setting annual cash, long-term and total compensation for the other executives, the HR Committee prepares a recommendation to the full Board on all aspects of the CEO's compensation. The full Board then considers the HR Committee's recommendation and approves the final compensation package for the CEO.

Role of the Compensation Consultant in compensation decisions

The HR Committee has engaged Exequity to provide the HR Committee with periodic advice on the compensation program structure and individual compensation arrangements for all executives. The consultant was selected by the HR Committee in its sole discretion and does not provide any other services to the Company. The consultant attends HR Committee meetings from time to time, presents an annual briefing on general and retail-industry compensation trends and developments, and is available to the HR Committee outside of meetings as necessary. The consultant reports directly to the HR Committee, although the consultant meets with management from time to time to obtain information necessary to advise the HR Committee.

In addition, the HR Committee periodically reviews its relationship with its independent compensation consultant. The HR Committee believes that the consultant is able to provide it with independent advice.

Elements of Compensation

The primary elements of compensation for our executives including our named executive officers are:

- Base Salary;
- Annual Incentive Plan Awards; and
- Long-Term Incentive Awards.

Base Salary

The objective of base salary is to reward each executive for his or her current contributions to the Company, reflect the scope of the executive's role and responsibilities and compensate each executive for his or her expected day-to-day performance, as well as provide fixed compensation that generally reflects what the market pays to individuals in similar roles with comparable experience. The peer group data serves as a general guideline only. The HR Committee, and for the CEO, the Board, retains the authority to exercise its independent judgment in establishing the base salary levels for each executive. The HR Committee reviews base salaries for executives on an annual basis in the first fiscal quarter considering the factors described above under "Establishing compensation for executives other than the CEO," and as needed in connection with promotions or other changes in responsibilities. The table below summarizes base salaries during fiscal 2015 and 2016 , and changes that occurred during the year for our named executive officers.

Name	Base Salary as of November 27, 2016 [1]	Base Salary as of November 29, 2015
Charles V. Bergh	$ 1,350,000	$ 1,310,000
Harmit Singh	750,000	730,000
Carrie Ask [2]	500,000	—
Roy Bagattini [3]	750,000	626,382
Seth Ellison	615,000	585,000

(1) The base salary for each of Messrs. Bergh, Singh, Bagattini, and Ellison were increased in February 2016 as part of the annual review to position each appropriately relative to the other executives of the Company.

(2) On February 16, 2016, Ms. Ask joined the Company as Executive Vice President and President, Global Retail.

(3) Prior to June 1, 2016, Mr. Bagattini was paid in Singapore Dollars (SGD). For presentation purposes of his base salary as of November 29, 2015, the average exchange rate of the last month of fiscal year 2015 was used to convert Mr. Bagattini’s base salary (SGD 884,845 as of November 29, 2015) to U.S. Dollars.

Annual Incentive Plan

Our Annual Incentive Plan ("AIP") provides the executives, and other eligible employees, an opportunity to share in any success that they help create by aligning annual incentive compensation with annual performance. The AIP encourages the achievement of our internal annual business goals and rewards attainment of those goals based on Company, business unit and individual performance as measured against those annual objectives. The alignment of the AIP with our internal annual business goals is intended to motivate all participants to achieve and exceed our annual performance objectives. Actual AIP bonus payments were based on the following two components:

Financial performance

- 75% of their total opportunity was based on financial performance of the Company, for corporate executives, or a combination of Company (weighted 25%) and business unit (weighted 50%) performance for business unit executives. Company and business unit financial performance is based 50% on earnings before interest and taxes ("EBIT"), 25% on free cash flow and 25% on net revenues. Performance measures are described in more detail below under "Performance measures."

Individual performance

- 25% of their total opportunity was based on individual objectives, to recognize achievement of other organizational goals.

Financial performance above minimum thresholds is required before any bonus payout is made to executives.

The table below describes the target AIP participation rate and potential AIP payout range for each named executive officer. Mr. Bergh’s AIP target percentage of base salary was higher to ensure competitiveness and to recognize the impact of his role on Company performance relative to the other executives .

Name	2016 AIP Participation Rate as a Percentage of Base Salary	Potential AIP Payout Range as a Percentage of Base Salary
Charles V. Bergh	160%	0 – 320%
Harmit Singh	100%	0 – 200%
Carrie Ask	70%	0 – 140%
Roy Bagattini	80%	0 – 160%
Seth Ellison	80%	0 – 160%

Performance measures

Our priorities for 2016 were to drive business growth and create stockholder value. Our 2016 AIP funding goals were aligned with these key priorities through the use of three performance measures:

- EBIT, a non-GAAP measure that is determined by excluding from operating income, as determined under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"), the following: restructuring expense, net curtailment gains and losses from our postretirement medical plan in the United States and pension plans worldwide, and certain management-defined unusual or non-recurring items;

- Free cash flow, a non-GAAP measure defined as cash flow generated from Company operations minus capital expenditures minus dividends paid; and
- Net revenues, a GAAP measure defined as gross product sales minus returns, discounts and allowances, plus licensing revenue.

We used these measures because we believe they are key drivers in increasing stockholder value and because every AIP participant can impact them in some way. EBIT and free cash flow are used as indicators of our earnings and operating cash flow performance, and net revenues is used as an indicator of our growth. These measures may change from time to time based on business priorities. The HR Committee approves the minimum, target and maximum goals for each measure each year. The reward for meeting the AIP goals is set by the HR Committee. If goal levels are not met, but financial performance reaches minimum thresholds, participants may receive partial payouts to recognize their efforts that contributed to Company and/or business unit performance.

The table below shows the 2016 total Company performance goals at target for each of our three performance measures and the actual 2016 payout percentage. In the case of Messrs. Bergh and Singh, 75% of their total AIP opportunity was based on financial performance of the Company. For Messrs. Bagattini, and Ellison, and Ms. Ask, a combination of Company (weighted 25%) and their respective business unit performance (weighted 50%) was used to calculate their actual financial performance achievement. EBIT, free cash flow, and net revenues goals for each business unit were set using the same methodology as the Company goals.

	(Dollars in millions)
Total Company	$506	$130	$4,564	108%

* The actual percentage achieved results are weighted 50% on EBIT and 25% for Free Cash Flow and Net Revenues, respectively. Actual results also exclude the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations on our business results. See “Actual AIP awards” below for details of the calculation.

At the close of the fiscal year, the HR Committee reviews and approves the final AIP payout results based on the level of attainment of the designated financial measures at the business unit and total Company levels. The Committee's review includes an analysis of the fundamentals of the underlying business performance and adjustments for items that are not indicative of ongoing results . Such adjustments may include external factors or internal business decisions that may have impacted financial results during the year. For example, EBIT, free cash flow and net revenues are expressed in constant currencies (i.e., excluding the effects of foreign currency translation), since we believe that period-to-period changes in foreign exchange rates can cause our reported results to appear more or less favorable than business fundamentals indicate.

Individual performance measures

Executives were eligible to receive bonuses based on individual performance. For executives other than the CEO, individual performance and resulting individual performance payout percentage is based on the CEO’s assessment of the executive's performance against his or her annual objectives and performance relative to his or her internal peers. The CEO’s individual performance is based on the HR Committee’s assessment of Mr. Bergh’s performance against his annual objectives, including the NG&CC Committee's assessment of the CEO's performance against annual objectives, and the HR Committee's assessment of his leadership in 2016 . Based on all of these inputs, the HR Committee prepares a recommendation to the full Board on the CEO’s individual performance. The full Board then considers the HR Committee's recommendation and approves the final individual performance payout percentage for the CEO. Individual annual objectives include non-financial goals which are not stated in quantitative terms, and a particular weighting is not assigned to any one of these individual goals. The non-financial objectives are not established in terms of how difficult or easy they are to attain; rather, they are taken into account in assessing the overall quality of the individual's performance. For fiscal 2016 , these objectives consisted of initiatives that focused on five key behaviors: (1) understanding the Company’s business in the context of the market, (2) owning and delivering on commitments, (3) placing Company success over individual or group success, (4) collaboration, and (5) leading by positive example.

Actual AIP awards

For fiscal 2016 , financial performance applicable to each named executive officer was mixed, and AIP payouts reflect the different performance outcomes. The table below shows the inputs used for the calculation of the actual bonus for fiscal 2016 for each eligible named executive officer.

Charles V. Bergh	$ 1,350,000	160%	108%	N/A	120%	$ 2,400,000
Harmit Singh	750,000	100%	108%	N/A	120%	832,500
Carrie Ask (2)	392,308	70%	108%	169%	110%	381,716
Roy Bagattini (3)	750,000	80%	108%	64%	100%	504,000
Seth Ellison	615,000	80%	108%	173%	190%	792,120

(1) Except for Messrs. Bergh and Singh for whom Total Company performance is weighted 75%, Total Company performance is weighted 25% and Business Unit performance is weighted 50%. For all executives, Individual Performance is weighted 25%.

(2) On February 16, 2016, Ms. Ask joined the Company as Executive Vice President and President, Global Retail. Base salary reflects her prorated annual salary.

(3) Mr. Bagattini's award was based on Asia, Middle East & Africa business unit performance in recognition of his contributions as the Executive Vice President and President, Asia Middle East & Africa prior to assuming his current role as the America business unit leader in June 2016.

Long-Term Incentives

The HR Committee believes a large part of an executive's compensation should be linked to long-term stockholder value creation as an incentive for sustained, profitable growth. Therefore, our long-term incentives for our executives are in the form of equity awards, both performance and time-vested, and provide reward opportunities competitive with those offered by companies in the peer group for similar jobs. Consistent with the other elements of compensation, the HR Committee does not target specific benchmark percentiles for long-term incentive awards for our executives and uses a number of factors in establishing the long-term incentive award levels for each individual, including a review of each individual's accumulated vested and unvested awards, the current and potential realizable value over time using stock appreciation assumptions, vesting schedules, comparison of individual awards between executives and in relation to other compensation elements, market data, stockholder dilution and accounting expense. Should we deliver against our long-term goals, the long-term equity incentive awards become a significant portion of the total compensation of each executive. For more information on the 2016 long-term equity grants, see the 2016 Grants of Plan-Based Awards table. Stock-based awards are granted under our 2016 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended to date ("EIP"), which enables the HR Committee to select from a variety of stock awards, including stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units, and stock appreciation rights ("SARs").

During fiscal 2016, stock settled SARs were the only form of equity granted to our executives under the EIP. The HR Committee chose to grant SARs to align the interests of executives to our stockholders. SARs provide value to the executive only if the price of our stock increases. The terms of the SAR grants made to our executives to date provide for stock settlement only. When a SAR is exercised and settled in stock, the shares issued are subject to the terms of the Company's Stockholders' Agreement, including restrictions on transfer. After the participant has held the shares issued under the EIP for six months, he or she may require the Company to repurchase, or the Company may require the participant to sell to the Company, those shares of common stock. The value of shares repurchased or sold back to the Company will be based on the most recent valuation conducted by Evercore Group LLC ("Evercore"), an independent third-party valuation firm. The Company's obligations to repurchase shares under the EIP are subject to certain restrictive covenants in our various debt agreements (see Note 6 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for more details).

SARs with Service Conditions ("Service SARs")

Service SARs are typically granted annually (or, in the case of new executives, at the HR Committee meeting generally held in February or July following the date they join the Company or first become an executive) with four-year vesting periods and exercise periods of up to seven years. (See the table entitled "Outstanding Equity Awards at 2016 Fiscal Year-End" for details concerning the Service SARs' vesting schedule, including any individual variations from the typical four-year vesting period). During fiscal 2016 , Service SARs with a four-year vesting period again accounted for 60% of each executive's total 2016 annual SAR grant value.

Performance-based SARs

Performance-based SARs drive greater accountability for the achievement of the strategic plan of the Company and create long-term value for stockholders. During fiscal 2016 , performance-based SARs again accounted for 40% of each executive's total 2016 annual SAR grant value. The key features of the 2016 performance-based SARs are described below:

- Each executive is eligible to receive an annual performance-based SAR award. Performance-based SARs give the executive the right (subject to HR Committee discretion to reduce but not increase awards beyond the maximum opportunity) to vest in a number of SARs based on achievement against performance goals over a three-year performance period. Actual shares that will vest, if any, will vary based on achievement of the performance goals at the end of the three years. The three-year performance period was designed to discourage short-term risk taking and reinforce the link between the interests of our stockholders and our executives over the long-term.
- 50% of the number of actual performance-based SARs that vest at the end of three years is based on the following two internal performance metrics: 1) the Company's average margin of net earnings over the three-year period adjusted for certain items such as interest and taxes, and 2) the target compound annual growth rate ("CAGR") in the Company's net revenues over the three-year period covering fiscal 2016 through fiscal 2018 . The potential payout range as a percentage of this portion of the target award is 0% to 150%.
- The remaining 50% of the number of actual performance-based SARs that vest is based on the Company's total shareholder return ("TSR") over the three-year period covering fiscal 2016 through fiscal 2018 relative to the expanded peer group approved by the HR Committee in February 2016 as listed above under "Competitive peer group". The potential payout range as a percentage of this portion of the target award is 0% to 150%.
- If earned at target, 100% of the performance-based SARs vest at the end of the three-year performance period.

The Board has the discretion under the EIP to make adjustments in the method of calculating the attainment of performance goals for a performance period.

2014 Performance-based SARs

As described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2014, we granted performance-based SARs during fiscal 2014 which were based on the same performance metrics described above but covered the period from the beginning of fiscal 2014 through the end of fiscal 2016: 1) 50% based on the Company's average margin of net earnings over the three-year period adjusted for certain items such as interest and taxes, and the target compound annual growth rate in the Company's net revenues over the three-year period, and 2) 50% based on the Company's TSR over the three-year period covering fiscal 2014 through fiscal 2016. The potential vesting range as a percentage of the target award was 0% to 150%.

The table below summarizes the goals at target for each of the two performance measures and our actual adjusted achievement. The actual percentage achieved was 0% for the 50% based on the internal performance metrics and 115% for the 50% based on TSR for a weighted attainment of 57.5%. However, excluding the impact of currency fluctuations on results for fiscal 2014 through fiscal 2016, the weighted percentage achievement would have been approximately 111%. In December 2016, based on its review of the negative impact of currency fluctuations on the results for the completed fiscal 2014 through fiscal 2016 performance period, the Board exercised its discretion to adjust actual percentage achieved from 0% to 75%.

Total Company	11.4%	3.2%	75%

Based on the 75% achievement level as set forth in the table above, the fiscal 2014 performance-based SARs (for which the three year performance cycle has been completed) vested as follows:

Name	Target Performance-based SARs	Actual Percentage Achieved After Adjustment	Vested Performance-based SARs
Charles V. Bergh	128,770	75%	96,577
Harmit Singh	29,369	75%	22,026
Roy Bagattini	15,249	75%	11,436
Seth Ellison	14,120	75%	10,590

Long-term incentive grant practices

The Company does not have any program, plan, or practice to time equity grants to take advantage of the release of material, non-public information. The Company's common stock is not listed on any stock exchange. Accordingly, the price of a share of our common stock for all purposes, including setting the grant price of SARs, is established by the Board based on an independent third-party valuation conducted by Evercore. The valuation process is typically conducted three times a year, with interim valuations occurring from time to time based on stockholder and Company needs. Please see “Stock-Based Compensation” under Note 1 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for more information about the valuation process.

Benefits and Perquisites

Executives generally are eligible for the same health and welfare insurance plans offered to all employees such as medical, dental, supplemental life, long-term disability and business travel insurance. In addition, although not a significant part of total compensation, the Company provides limited perquisites to executives. The primary perquisite provided to the executives is a flexible allowance to cover expenses such as auto-related expenses, financial and tax planning, legal assistance and excess medical costs. The Company also requires and pays for an annual medical exam for its executives and other members of its executive leadership team. Like many of the companies in the peer group, the Company also offers a non-qualified supplement to the 401(k) plan, which is not subject to the IRS and ERISA limitations, through a Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives and Outside Directors. The Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives and Outside Directors is a U.S. non-qualified, unfunded tax deferred savings plan provided to senior level executives, including our named executive officers, and the outside directors.

Prior to his transfer and relocation to San Francisco in June 2016, Mr. Bagattini was based in Singapore and was provided certain benefits under our global assignment program, including a housing allowance to cover the cost of his rent and utilities. In addition, as an Italian citizen, he did not participate in the local retirement plan offered in Singapore. Mr. Bagattini participated in an international supplemental retirement savings plan designed for globally mobile employees. The Company contributed 14% of Mr. Bagattini’s annual base salary on his behalf to such plan. Mr. Bagattini may voluntarily contribute funds to this plan above and beyond what the Company contributed on his behalf. The Company’s contribution was grossed up to provide a tax-advantaged contribution. As a participant under this plan, Mr. Bagattini could direct investments similar to a 401(k) plan. Mr. Bagattini was allowed to make partial withdrawals from the plan two times per calendar year. Following his transfer to San Francisco, Mr. Bagattini's global assignment benefits ceased, including his participation in the international supplemental retirement savings plan. Mr. Bagattini is eligible for the same health and welfare insurance plans offered to all employees in San Francisco.

The benefits and perquisites received by our named executive officers and their value are described in more detail in the footnotes to the Summary Compensation Table.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

We have structured our compensation program in a manner intended to comply with Internal Revenue Code Section 409A. Because our common stock is not registered on any exchange, we are not subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Severance and Change in Control Benefits

The terms of Mr. Bergh's severance and change in control benefits were determined during the negotiation of his employment agreement in 2011 at the time he was hired. As part of this negotiation, the HR Committee determined that the benefits and structure of these benefits were within normal competitive practice, reasonable and appropriate for the circumstances, and necessary to attract Mr. Bergh to the Company. Enhanced termination benefits in the case of a change in control of the Company were included in his employment agreement for the same reasons and to help ensure retention of Mr. Bergh in the case of a potential or actual change in control.

We maintain an Executive Severance Plan that is meant to provide a reasonable and competitive level of financial transitional support to executives who are involuntarily terminated. If an executive's employment is involuntarily terminated by the Company due to reduction in force, layoff or position elimination, the executive is eligible for severance payments and benefits. Severance benefits are not payable upon a change in control if the executive is still employed by or offered a comparable position with the surviving entity.

While compensation decisions affect potential payouts under these severance arrangements, these arrangements generally did not affect such decisions as these severance provisions are conditional and may never come into effect.

More information about the severance benefits payable to our named executive officers under the Executive Severance Plan and to Mr. Bergh under his employment agreement is set forth in the sections entitled "Potential Payments Upon Termination Or Change In Control" and "Employment Contracts."

Under the EIP, in the event of a change in control in which the surviving corporation does not assume or continue the outstanding SARs program or substitute similar awards for such outstanding SARs, the vesting schedule of all SARs held by executives that are still employed upon the change in control will be accelerated in full as of a date prior to the effective date of the transaction as the Board determines. This accelerated vesting structure is designed to encourage the executives to remain employed with the Company through the date of the change in control and to ensure that the equity incentives awarded to the executives are not eliminated by the surviving company.

Compensation Committee Report

The Human Resources Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management. Based on the review and discussion, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 27, 2016 .

(1) In February 2016, Ms. Ask joined the Company and currently serves as Executive Vice President and President, Global Retail. Prior to June 1, 2016, Mr. Bagattini was paid in Singapore Dollars (SGD). For presentation purposes of this table, the average exchange rates of the last month of fiscal years 2016, 2015, and 2014 were used to convert Mr. Bagattini's compensation paid in SGD into U.S. Dollars.

(2) Ms. Ask received a new hire sign-on bonus of $750,000 in February 2016.

Mr. Bagattini received a one-time relocation bonus of $1,000,000 in June 2016 and received the second installment (SGD 315,925 per installment) of a new hire sign-on bonus in June 2014.

(3) These amounts reflect the aggregate grant date fair value of SARs, including performance-based SARs, granted to the recipient under the Company's 2016 Equity Incentive Plan, computed in accordance with FASB ASC 718. These amounts reflect the grant date fair value, and do not represent the actual value that may be realized by the executives. For 2016 , this column includes the grant date fair value of the target number of performance-based SARs that may be earned for the three-year performance period beginning with fiscal 2016 . For a description of the assumptions used to determine the compensation cost of our awards, see Note 1 and Note 11 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report. Please refer to the Grants of Plan-Based Awards table in this report and in our 2015 and 2014 Annual Reports on Form 10-K for information on awards actually granted in fiscal 2016 , 2015 and 2014 .

(4) The amounts in this column reflect the non-equity amounts earned by the executives under the Company’s annual incentive plan (“AIP”).

(5) No above-market or preferential interest rate options are available under our deferred compensation programs. Please refer to the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation table for additional information on deferred compensation earnings.

(6) The amounts shown in the All Other Compensation column for fiscal 2016 are detailed in the table below:

Name	Executive Perquisites (a)	Relocation (b)	401(k) Plan Match (c)	Deferred Compensation Match (d)	Tax Payments (e)	Charitable Match (f)	Total
Charles V. Bergh	$ 44,130	$ —	$ 18,500	$ 269,239	$ 3,377	$ 6,750	$ 341,996
Harmit Singh	24,167	—	19,875	108,607		—	152,649
Carrie Ask	11,888	43,224	18,911	5,609	20,781		100,413
Roy Bagattini	82,718	210,753	122,512	2,349	1,033,451	—	1,451,783

For presentation purposes, payments in this table made in Singapore Dollars were converted into U.S. Dollars using the average exchange rate of the last month of fiscal 2016 .

For Mr. Ellison, this amount includes event tickets and an annual allowance of $15,000 intended to cover legal, financial and/or other incidental business related expenses.

(b) For Ms. Ask, this amount reflects costs in connection with her relocation to San Francisco.

For Mr. Bagattini, this amount reflects costs in connection with his international assignment and relocation to San Francisco.

For Mr. Ellison, this amount reflects payments in connection with his international assignment.

(c) These amounts reflect Company matching contributions under the Company’s 401(k) Plan. For Mr. Bagattini, this amount also includes the Company’s contribution of $103,225 to an international supplemental retirement savings plan he was eligible for in connection with his international assignment. For additional information about Mr. Bagattini’s supplemental retirement savings plan, see “Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers.”

(d) These amounts reflect Company matching contributions under the Company’s Deferred Compensation Plan.

(e) For Mr. Bergh, this amount reflects tax reimbursements in connection with event tickets and annual physicals under our Executive Medical Exam benefit.

For Ms. Ask, this amount reflects tax reimbursements for allowances she received in connection with her relocation to San Francisco.

For Mr. Bagattini, this amount reflects tax reimbursements on his contributions to the international supplemental retirement savings plan, his allowance in connection wtih his relocation to San Francisco and $954,178 in tax reimbursements to equalize his income to the same tax levels had he remained in Singapore.

For Mr. Ellison, this amount reflects tax reimbursements for the tax liability of allowances he received in connection with his international assignment.

(f) These amounts reflect Company matching under the Company’s Matching Gift Program, available to all employees.

Other Matters

Employment Contracts

Mr. Bergh . We have an employment agreement with Mr. Bergh effective September 1, 2011. The agreement initially provided for an annual base salary of $1,200,000 and an AIP target participation rate of 135%, which have since been adjusted, and may be further adjusted, pursuant to annual review. For 2016 , his base salary and target participation rate under the AIP were $1,350,000 and 160% of base salary, respectively.

Mr. Bergh also participates in our EIP. This element of Mr. Bergh’s compensation for 2016 is reflected and discussed in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Mr. Bergh's employment agreement also provides that if Mr. Bergh is involuntarily terminated without Cause, as defined in his employment agreement, Mr. Bergh is eligible to receive certain benefits and payments upon his separation from the Company under certain circumstances under the terms of the Executive Severance Plan for U.S. executives and the EIP; provided however that if Mr. Bergh's employment is terminated for Good Reason in connection with a Change in Control of the Company (each as defined in his employment agreement), he will be entitled to receive, among other standard benefits, (1) an aggregate amount equal to two times the sum of his then-effective base salary plus his then-effective target AIP amount, (2) a prorated AIP award in respect of the performance period at the time, and (3) company-paid continuation coverage for certain benefits for 18 months. addition, the unvested portion of his SAR awards that would have vested during the 24 months following the date of such termination will immediately vest, and all vested SAR awards will be exercisable for 18 months following such termination.

Mr. Bergh's right to any severance or vesting acceleration is subject to his execution of an effective release of claims in favor of the Company and compliance with certain restrictive covenants.

Mr. Bergh is eligible to receive standard healthcare, life insurance and long-term savings program benefits, as well as relocation program benefits. He also receives benefits under the Company's various executive perquisite programs consistent with that provided to his predecessor.

Mr. Bergh's employment is at-will and may be terminated by the Company or by him at any time. Mr. Bergh does not receive any separate compensation for his services as a member of our Board.

Mr. Singh. We have an employment arrangement with Mr. Singh effective January 16, 2013. It provides for his annual base salary and participation in our AIP, which are subject to annual review and adjustment, and his participation in our EIP. These elements of Mr. Singh's compensation for 2016 are reflected and discussed in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Mr. Singh also receives standard healthcare, life insurance and long-term savings program benefits, as well as benefits under our various executive perquisite programs.

Mr. Singh’s employment is at-will and may be terminated by the Company or by Mr. Singh at any time.

Ms. Ask. We have an employment arrangement with Ms. Ask effective February 16, 2016. It provides for her annual base salary and participation in our AIP, which are subject to annual review and adjustment, and her participation in our EIP. These elements of Ms. Ask's compensation for 2016 are reflected and discussed in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Ms. Ask also receives standard healthcare, life insurance and long-term savings program benefits, as well as benefits under our various executive perquisite programs.

Ms. Ask's employment is at-will and may be terminated by us or by Ms. Ask at any time.

Mr. Bagattini. We have an employment arrangement with Mr. Bagattini effective June 1, 2016. His arrangement provides for his annual base salary and participation in our AIP, which are subject to annual review and adjustment, and his participation in our EIP. These elements of Mr. Bagattini's compensation for 2016 are reflected and discussed in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Mr. Bagattini also receives standard healthcare, life insurance, and long-term savings program benefits, as well as benefits under our various executive perquisite programs.

Prior to June 2016, he was eligible to receive benefits under our global assignment program, including, education assistance fees and a housing allowance of up to approximately $18,000 per month to cover the cost of his rental and utilities.

Mr. Bagattini’s employment is at-will and may be terminated by the Company or by Mr. Bagattini upon 3 months' notice or pay in lieu of notice.

Mr. Ellison. We have an employment arrangement with Mr. Ellison effective September 10, 2012. It provides for his annual base salary and participation in our AIP, which are subject to annual review and adjustment, and his participation in our EIP. These elements of Mr. Ellison's compensation for 2016 are reflected and discussed in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Mr. Ellison also receives standard healthcare, life insurance and long-term savings program benefits, as well as benefits under our global assignment program and our various executive perquisite programs.

Mr. Ellison's employment is at-will and may be terminated by us or by Mr. Ellison at any time.

(1) The amounts shown in these columns reflect the estimated potential payment levels for the fiscal 2016 performance period under the Company's annual incentive plan (the "AIP"), further described under "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers." The potential payouts were performance-based and, therefore, were completely at risk. The potential target and maximum payment amounts assume achievement of 100% and 200%, respectively, of the individual objectives of the AIP. Each executive received a bonus under the AIP, which is reported in the Summary Compensation Table under the column entitled "Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation."

(2) For each executive, the amounts shown in these columns reflect, in shares, the target and maximum amounts for performance-based SARs subject to a three-year performance period beginning in fiscal 2016 that is further described under "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers." The potential awards are performance-based and, therefore, completely at risk.

(3) Reflects service-based SARs granted in 2016 under the 2016 Equity Incentive Plan.

(4) The exercise price is based on the fair market value of the Company's common stock as of the grant date established by the Evercore valuation process.

(5) The value of an option award, which is granted in the form of SARs, is based on the fair value as of the grant date of such award determined in accordance with FASB ASC 718. Please refer to Note 1 and Note 11 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for the relevant assumptions used to determine the valuation of our option awards. Values for future payouts of performance-based SARs reflect the aggregate grant date fair value based on target award achievement. If maximum performance conditions are achieved over the entire three-year period, the grant date fair values would be $3,928,052 for Mr. Bergh, $847,319 for Mr. Singh, $601,106 for Ms. Ask, $438,798 and $1,051,948 for Mr. Bagattini, and $438,798 for Mr. Ellison.

(1) The following sets forth the vesting schedule for unvested outstanding SAR awards and generally depends upon continued employment:
  (a) SARs vest 25% on 2/5/2014 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.
  (b) SARs vest 25% on 2/5/2015 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.
  (c) SARs vest 25% on 2/4/2016 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.
  (d) SARs vest 25% on 2/9/2017 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.
  (e) SARs vest 25% on 7/13/2017 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.
  (f) SARs vest 25% on 7/10/2014 and then monthly over the remaining 36 months.

(2) Unless otherwise indicated below, represents the target number of SARs that may be earned under the performance-based SAR award program (see "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers" for more details) that vest at the end of a three-year performance period.
  (a) Represents actual number of earned SARs that vested and remain outstanding pursuant to certification of performance results.
  (b) SARs vesting subject to certification of performance results in the first quarter of fiscal 2018. The total number of SARs that could vest if the maximum performance is achieved over the three-year performance period for each named executive is as follows: Mr. Bergh (188,679), Mr. Singh (45,543), Mr. Bagattini (22,772), and Mr. Ellison (22,772).
  (c) SARs vesting subject to certification of performance results in the first quarter of fiscal 2019. Executive Retirement Plans

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation

The Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives and Outside Directors ("Deferred Compensation Plan") is a U.S. non-qualified, unfunded deferred tax effective savings plan provided to the executives, among other executives and the directors, as part of competitive compensation.

Participants may elect to defer all or a portion of their base salary and AIP payment and may elect an in-service and/or retirement distribution. Executive officers who defer salary or bonus under this plan are credited with market-based returns depending upon the investment choices made by the executive applicable to each deferral. The investment options under the plan, which closely mirror the options provided under our qualified 401(k) plan, include a number of mutual funds with varying risk and return profiles. Participants may change their investment choices as frequently as they desire, consistent with our 401(k) plan.

In addition, under the Deferred Compensation Plan, the Company provides a match up to 6% of eligible deferred compensation that cannot be provided under the qualified 401(k) plan due to IRS qualified plan compensation limits. The amounts in the table below reflect non-qualified contributions over the 401(k) limit by the executive officers and the resulting Company match.

The table below provides information on the non-qualified deferred compensation activity for each of our named executive officers for the year ended November 27, 2016 .

	Year Ended November 27, 2016
Name	Company Contributions [1]	Executive Contributions	Aggregate Earnings	Aggregate Withdrawals / Distributions	Aggregate Balance at November 27, 2016
Charles V. Bergh	$ 269,239	$ 214,819	$ 143,345	$ —	$ 2,260,550
Harmit Singh	108,607	86,328	24,478	—	374,971
Carrie Ask	5,609	4,487	29	—	10,124
Roy Bagattini [2]	128,117	2,192	4	—	130,313
Seth Ellison	72,285	180,210	13,023	—	611,585

(1) Amounts reflect the deferred compensation plan match contributions made by the Company and are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table under All Other Compensation.

(2) Mr. Bagattini also participated in an international supplemental retirement savings plan designed for globally mobile employees. The Company contributed 14% of Mr. Bagattini's annual base salary on his behalf to such plan. The Company's contribution is grossed up to provide a tax-advantaged contribution. For additional detail, please refer to the section entitled Benefits and Perquisites in "Compensation Discussion and Analysis for Named Executive Officers."

Potential Payments Upon Termination Or Change In Control

On June 9, 2011, the Company and Charles V. Bergh, our President and CEO, executed an employment agreement in connection with Mr. Bergh joining the Company. The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Bergh is involuntarily terminated without Cause, Mr. Bergh is eligible to receive certain benefits and payments upon his separation from the Company under certain circumstances under the terms of the Executive Severance Plan for U.S. executives and the EIP; provided however that if Mr. Bergh's employment is terminated for Good Reason in connection with a Change in Control of the Company (each as defined in his employment agreement), he will be entitled to receive, among other standard benefits, (1) an aggregate amount equal to two times the sum of his then-effective base salary plus his then-effective target AIP amount, (2) a prorated AIP award in respect of the performance period at the time, and (3) company-paid continuation coverage for certain benefits for 18 months. In addition, the unvested portion of his SAR awards that would have vested during the 24 months following the date of such termination will immediately vest, and all vested SAR awards will be exercisable for 18 months following such termination.

Mr. Bergh's right to any severance or vesting acceleration is subject to his execution of an effective release of claims in favor of the Company and compliance with certain restrictive covenants.

In 2016 , our U.S. severance arrangements under our Executive Severance Plan offered the named executive officers eighty (80) weeks of severance pay equal to base salary plus the beneficiaries' AIP target amount, upon execution of a General Release Agreement, if their employment ceases due to a reduction in force, layoff or position elimination. We also cover the cost of the COBRA health coverage premium for the duration of the executive's severance payment period, up to a maximum of 18 months. The COBRA premium coverage is shared between the individual and the Company at the same shared percentage that was effective during the executive's employment. We also provide life insurance, career counseling and transition services. These severance benefits would not be payable upon a change in control if the executive is still employed or offered a comparable position with the surviving entity.

Under the EIP, in the event of a change in control in which the surviving corporation does not assume or continue the outstanding SARs or substitute similar awards for the outstanding SARs, the vesting schedule of all SARs held by executives that are still employed will be accelerated in full to a date prior to the effective time of the transaction as determined by the Board. If the SARs are not exercised at or prior to the effective time of the transaction, all rights to exercise them will terminate, and any reacquisition or repurchase rights held by the Company with respect to such SARs shall lapse.

The information in the tables below reflects the estimated value of the compensation to be paid by us to each of the named executive officers in the event of termination or a change in control. The amounts shown below assume that each named individual was employed and that a termination or change in control was effective as of November 27, 2016 . The actual amounts that would be paid can only be determined at the time of an actual termination event. The amounts also assume a share price of $69.00 for the SAR grants, which is based on the Evercore share valuation dated as of December 31, 2016 .

Board compensation is reviewed by the NG&CC Committee and approved by the Board. In fiscal 2016 , director compensation consisted of an annual retainer paid in cash and equity compensation in the form of RSUs. Committee chairpersons also received an additional cash retainer, as described below.

Annual Cash Retainer

In fiscal 2016 , each non-employee director received compensation consisting of an annual cash retainer fee of $100,000 and was eligible to participate in the provisions of the Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives and Outside Directors that apply to directors. In fiscal 2016 , Mr. Neal, Mr. Fleischer, and Ms. Pineda participated in this Deferred Compensation Plan for Executives and Outside Directors.

Equity Compensation

In fiscal 2016 , each non-employee director also received an annual equity award in the form of RSUs which are granted under the EIP. The annual equity award value in the form of RSUs granted under the EIP is $135,000. RSU recipients have target stock ownership guidelines of $300,000 worth of equity ownership within five years of participation in the program. The value of the RSUs is tracked against the Company's share prices, established by the Evercore valuation process.

RSUs are units, representing beneficial ownership interests, corresponding in number and value to a specified number of underlying shares of stock. The RSUs vest in three equal installments after thirteen, twenty-four and thirty-six months following the grant date. After the recipient of the RSU has held the shares for six months, he or she may require the Company to repurchase, or the Company may require the participant to sell to the Company, those shares of common stock. If the director's service terminates for reason other than cause after the first, but prior to full, vesting period, then any unvested portion of the award will fully vest as of the date of such termination. In addition, each director's initial RSU grant includes a deferral delivery feature, under which the director will not receive the vested awards until six months following the cessation of service on the Board.

Under the terms of the EIP, recipients of RSUs receive additional grants as a dividend equivalent when the Board declares a dividend to all stockholders. Therefore, all directors who held RSUs as of February 19, 2016, received additional RSUs as a dividend equivalent. Dividend equivalents are subject to all the terms and conditions of the underlying Restricted Stock Unit Award Agreement to which they relate.

Compensation of Committee Chairpersons

In addition to the compensation described above, committee chairpersons receive an additional retainer fee in the amount of $20,000 for the Audit Committee and the HR Committee and $15,000 for the Finance Committee and the Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee.

Mr. Neal is the Chairman of the Board. As the Chairman of the Board, he is entitled to receive an additional annual retainer in the amount of $200,000, 50% of which is paid in cash and 50% of which is paid in the form of RSUs. The Chairman may also receive the additional retainers attributable to committee chairmanship if applicable.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The HR Committee serves as the compensation committee of our Board. Its members are Mr. Eckert (Chair), Mr. Alstead, Mr. P.E. Haas Jr., and Ms. Pineda. In 2016 , no member of the HR Committee was a current officer or employee of ours. There are no compensation committee interlocks between us and other entities involving our executive officers and our Board members who serve as executive officers of those other entities.

Item 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

Our common stock is primarily owned by descendants of the family of Levi Strauss and their relatives. Shares of our common stock are not publicly held or traded. All shares are subject to a stockholders' agreement described below. The following table contains information about the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of February 6, 2017 , by:

- Each person known by us to own beneficially more than 5% of our common stock;
- Each of our directors and each of our named executive officers; and
- All of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Under the rules of the SEC, a person is deemed to be a "beneficial owner" of a security if that person has or shares "voting power," which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of the security, or "investment power," which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of the security. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which that person has no economic interest. Except as described in the footnotes to the table below, the individuals named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all common stock beneficially owned by them, subject to community property laws where applicable.

As of February 6, 2017 , there were 276 record holders of common stock. The percentage of beneficial ownership shown in the table is based on 37,470,158 shares of common stock outstanding as of February 6, 2017 . The business address of all persons listed is 1155 Battery Street, San Francisco, California 94111.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table sets forth certain information, as of November 27, 2016 , with respect to the EIP, our only equity compensation plan. This plan was amended and restated by the Board in February 2016 and approved by our stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders in April 2016. See Note 11 to our audited consolidated financial statements included in this report for more information about the EIP.

Number of Outstanding Options, Warrants and Rights (1)	Number of Securities to Be Issued Upon Exercise of Outstanding Options, Warrants and Rights (2)	Weighted-Average Exercise Price of Outstanding Options, Warrants and Rights (1)	Number of Securities Remaining Available for Future Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans (3)
4,381,167	1,157,347	$52.66	2,906,683

(1) Includes only SARs and stock settled director RSUs.

(2) Represents the number of shares of common stock the SARs and stock settled director RSUs would convert to if exercised November 27, 2016 , calculated based on the conversion formula as defined in the plan and the fair market value of our common stock on that date as determined by an independent third party.

(3) Calculated based on the number of stock awards authorized upon the adoption of the EIP, less the number of outstanding dilutive SARs, less shares issued in connection with converted RSUs, less securities expected to be issued in the future upon conversion of outstanding RSUs. The EIP provides for an award pool of 8,000,000 shares of Company common stock that may be subject to awards under the plan. The 2,906,683 shares in the table above reflects the potential number of shares which could be issued pursuant to future awards. Note that the following shares may return to the EIP and be available for issuance in connection with a future award: (i) shares covered by an award that expires or otherwise terminates without having been exercised in full; (ii) shares that are forfeited or awards which are canceled and regranted in accordance with the terms of the plan; (iii) shares covered by an award that may only be settled in cash per the terms of the award which do not count against the plan's award pool; (iv) shares withheld to cover payment of an exercise price or cover applicable tax withholding obligations; (v) shares tendered to cover payment of an exercise price; and (vi) shares that are cancelled pursuant to an exchange or repricing program.

Stockholders' Agreement

Our common stock is primarily owned by descendants of the family of Levi Strauss and their relatives and are not publicly held or traded. All shares are subject to a stockholders' agreement. The agreement limits the transfer of shares and certificates to other holders, family members, specified charities and foundations and to the Company. The agreement does not provide for registration rights or other contractual devices for forcing a public sale of shares or certificates, or other access to liquidity. The Stockholders' Agreement will terminate on April 15, 2019, (unless extended for a maximum of two, two-year periods), or earlier upon the first of the following to occur: (1) the Company's receipt of a written notice signed by stockholders holding at least two-thirds of the shares of common stock seeking to terminate the Stockholders' Agreement, or (2) 180 days following the consummation of an initial public offering ("IPO") (or such earlier date following the consummation of an IPO that the Company's Board of Directors may determine).

Item 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Charles V. Bergh, President and Chief Executive Officer, Peter E. Haas Jr., a director of the Company, Kelly McGinnis, Senior Vice President of Corporate Affairs and Chief Communications Officer, and Liz O'Neil, Senior Vice President and Chief Supply Chain Officer, are board members of the Levi Strauss Foundation, which is not a consolidated entity of the Company. Seth R. Jaffe, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, is Vice President of the Levi Strauss Foundation. During 2016 , we donated $6.9 million to the Levi Strauss Foundation.

Procedures for Approval of Related Party Transactions

We have a written policy concerning the review and approval of related party transactions. Potential related party transactions are identified through an internal review process that includes a review of director and officer questionnaires and a review of any payments made in connection with transactions in which related persons may have had a direct or indirect material interest. Any business transactions or commercial relationships between the Company and any director, stockholder, or any of their immediate family members, are reviewed by the Nominating, Governance and Corporate Citizenship Committee of the board and must be approved by at least a majority of the disinterested members of the board. Business transactions or commercial relationships between the Company and named executive officers who are not directors or any of their immediate family members requires approval of the chief executive officer with reporting to the Audit Committee.

Director Independence Policy

Although our shares are not registered on a national securities exchange, we review and take into consideration the director independence criteria required by the New York Stock Exchange in determining the independence of our directors on an annual basis. In addition, the charters of our board committees prohibit members from having any relationship that would interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company. The fact that a director may own stock in the Company is not, by itself, considered an "interference" with independence under the committee charters. Family stockholders or other family member directors are not eligible for membership on the Audit Committee. These independence standards are disclosed on our website at http://www.levistrauss.com/investors/corporate-governance . Except as described below, all of our directors are independent under the independence criteria required by the New York Stock Exchange.

Charles V. Bergh, who serves as our full-time President and Chief Executive Officer, is not considered independent due to his employment with the Company. The Board does not have a lead director.

Item 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

Engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee is responsible for approving every engagement of our independent registered public accounting firm to perform audit or non-audit services for us before being engaged to provide those services. The Audit Committee's pre-approval policy provides as follows:

- First, once a year when the base audit engagement is reviewed and approved, management will identify all other services (including fee ranges) for which management knows or believes it will engage our independent registered public accounting firm for the next 12 months. Those services typically include quarterly reviews, statutory audits, specified tax matters, certifications to the lenders as required by financing documents, and consultation on new accounting and disclosure standards.
- Second, if any new proposed engagement comes up during the year that was not pre-approved by the Audit Committee as discussed above, the engagement will require: (i) specific approval of the chief financial officer and corporate controller (including confirming with counsel permissibility under applicable laws and evaluating potential impact on independence) and, if approved by management, (ii) approval of the Audit Committee.
- Third, the chair of the Audit Committee will have the authority to give such approval, but may seek full Audit Committee input and approval in specific cases as he or she may determine.

Auditor fees. The following table shows fees billed to or incurred by us for professional services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm during 2016 and 2015 :

	Year Ended
	November 27, 2016	November 29, 2015
	(Dollars in thousands)
Services provided:
Audit fees [1]	$ 5,733	$ 5,744
Audit-related fees	—	—
Tax fees	599	866
All other fees [2]	228	50
Total fees	$ 6,560	$ 6,660

(1) Includes fees for the audit of our annual consolidated financial statements, quarterly reviews of interim consolidated financial statements and statutory audits. Further, these include fees for services in support of issuing non-audit letters over financial information, as well as fees for access to electronic accounting and audit reference materials.

(2) Consist of fees for permissible services other than the services reported above. In 2015, this relates to the Private Health Exchange Project and in 2016 this relates to the Close Acceleration Project.

LEVI STRAUSS & CO.

December 8, 2015

Carrie Ask

Dear Carrie,

I am delighted to confirm our offer of employment to join Levi Strauss & Co. (LS&Co.) as Executive Vice President & President, Global Retail Strategy & Operations, reporting to me. The details of our offer are as follows:

Start Date

Your start date is anticipated to be February 1, 2016.

Salary

Your starting annual salary will be $500,000.

Initial Bonus

You will receive a one-time contingent bonus of $750,000 (less applicable taxes) paid within 30 days of your Start Date. The bonus is offered in anticipation of the contributions you will make to our business over time. Your entitlement to retain the full amount of the initial bonus is contingent on the following terms and conditions:

- In the event that you resign your employment or you are terminated For Cause at any time before completing at least twelve (12) months of employment, you will be required to repay 100% of this bonus or $750,000. In the event that you resign or are terminated For Cause after completing twelve (12) months of employment but before completing twenty-four (24) months of employment, you will be required to pay back 50% or $375,000 of this bonus. Any repayment will be due within ninety (90) days of your last day of employment.

We will provide you with our standard Initial Bonus Acknowledgment and Payback Agreement. Please sign and return the Payback Agreement.

Annual Incentive Plan

Your target participation in the Annual Incentive Program (AIP) is 70% of your base salary, with a 2016 target value of $350,000. Bonus payments will be prorated based on Start Date. Depending on financial and individual performance results, your actual bonus, if any, may be higher or lower and can reach a maximum of 140%. Bonuses for fiscal 2016 are scheduled for payment in February 2017 and you must be employed by LS&Co. on the payment date. LS&Co. has the right to modify the program at any time. Management discretion can be used to modify the final award amount. Bonus payments are subject to supplemental income tax withholding.

Long-Term Incentives

Your offer includes long-term incentive award(s), which give you the opportunity to share in LS&Co.'s success over time. Subject to Board approval in February 2016 and the provisions of the LS&Co.'s equity incentive plan for fiscal 2016, you will receive an initial grant of Stock Appreciation Rights (SARs) with a grant date target value of $1,000,000. The strike price will be equal to the fair market value of LS&Co. stock as determined by a third party valuation firm and approved by the Board of Directors in February 2016. 60% of the total award will vest 25% after the first year and monthly thereafter for years two through four. Subject to achievement of performance goals, the remaining 40% of the award will vest 100% after the end of year three. In any event, you must be employed on the vesting dates.

You may also be eligible for additional long-term incentives in effect during your employment with LS&Co. The Company has the right to modify the program at any time including, but not limited to the target grant value.

Benefits

Our offer also includes participation in our flexible benefits program. There are a number of benefit options available to you in the areas of health care and life insurance, as well as our long-term savings programs which provide important tax advantages for your savings.

You are eligible to participate in the executive perquisite programs associated with a position at your level that includes reserved parking, Executive Medical Exams for you and your spouse, and a cash allowance of $15,000 (paid 50% January and June). You will receive your first payment of $7,500 in June 2016.

You are eligible to accrue three (3) weeks of TOPP (Time Off with Pay Program) during your first year of employment. In addition to the three weeks of TOPP pay that you will normally accrue during your first year of employment, you will be granted one (1) additional week of TOPP. These hours will be banked in full, without accrual, and will be available for you to use immediately upon hire.

Relocation

You are eligible to receive relocation benefits to facilitate your move to the San Francisco area. A Relocation Manager at TheMIGroup will contact you to provide information about your benefits and explain Levi Strauss & Co. relocation process and the level of service that we provide. During your relocation, it will be necessary for you to be in contact with a variety of external service providers who will assist you with your move. If there are questions that arise during the process, you may reach out to your Relocation Manager.

In the event that you separate from the company for any reason other than layoff before completing 12 months of employment, you will be required to repay all or part of the company financed relocation assistance you received. Any such repayment may be deducted in whole or in part from any final payments due to you. A Relocation Payback Agreement is attached and must be signed and returned to the Company before any relocation benefits are delivered.

Questions about relocation may be directed to TheMIGroup at 1-800-360-6473.

Worldwide Code of Business Conduct

LS&Co.'s Worldwide Code of Business Conduct (WCOBC) sets out basic principles to guide all employees of the Company on how LS&Co. conducts business, while at the same time provides helpful guideposts for behavior while on the job. Compliance with the WCOBC is a fundamental condition of employment, and employees are required to sign a Statement of Commitment agreeing to abide by the principles set forth in the document. LS&Co.'s WCOBC is available for review on our website at http://www.levistrauss.com/careers/culture .

Non-Solicitation of Employees

In order to protect Confidential Information (as defined in the enclosed “Employee Invention and Confidentiality Agreement”), you agree that so long as you are employed by LS&Co., and for a period of one year thereafter, you will not directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself, any other person or entity, solicit, call upon, recruit, or attempt to solicit any of LS&Co.’s employees or in any way encourage any LS&Co. employee to leave their employment with LS&Co. You further agree that you will not directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself, any other person or entity, interfere or attempt to interfere with LS&Co.’s relationship with any person who at any time was an employee, consultant, customer or vendor or otherwise has or had a business relationship with LS&Co.

Non-Disparagement

You agree now, and after your employment with the LS&Co. terminates not to, directly or indirectly, disparage LS&Co., its business activities, or any of its directors, managers, officers, employees, affiliates, agents or representatives to any person or entity.

Other

Prior to your Start Date you will receive an email from Workday, LS&Co.'s HR system of record, sent to your personal email address that will provide important onboarding information. Please follow the instructions carefully and complete all of the required forms at least 24 hours before your Start Date - many of the forms may be completed online via Workday.

On your first day, please bring any completed forms that were not submitted via Workday and your identification and proof of authorization to work in the United States. A complete list of appropriate documentation is enclosed in the onboarding materials. The list includes items such as a driver's license and Social Security card, or a U.S. passport. Please review the list carefully. If you have questions about documentation, contact Michelle Williamson. Your employment is specifically conditioned upon you providing this information within 72 hours of your Start Date.

During your first week, a Human Resources representative will contact you to schedule the New Employee Welcome (NEW!) Orientation. The orientation gives new employees the opportunity to learn and ask questions about the policies, history, and benefit programs at LS&Co.

At-Will Employment

LS&Co. expects your association with the company will be mutually beneficial. Nonetheless, LS&Co. is an "at-will employer," which means you or LS&Co. can terminate your employment at LS&Co. at any time with or without cause, and with or without notice. Only the President & CEO or Senior Vice President & CHRO can authorize an employment agreement to the contrary and then such employment agreement must be in writing.

Please note that except for those agreements or plans referenced in this letter and attachments, this letter contains the entire understanding of the parties with respect to this offer of employment and supersedes any other agreements, representations or understandings (whether oral or written and whether express or implied) with respect to this offer of employment. Please review and sign this letter and the attached Employee Invention and Confidentiality Agreement. We must receive your signed letter and Agreement before or on your first day of employment. You may keep one original for your personal records. This offer is valid only until December 9, 2015 and may be withdrawn at any time prior to your acceptance.

Carrie, we are very excited about you joining the company. We are confident that you will make a valuable contribution to LS&Co.'s business.

Sincerely,

Chip Bergh
President & CEO

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENT

This annual report contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements regarding driving profitable growth, future investments in our retail, international and ecommerce operations, sustainability goals, new store openings, and future dividends.

We have based these forward-looking statements on our current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. We use words like "believe," "will," "so we can," "when," "anticipate," "intend," "estimate," "expect," "project" and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these words. These forward-looking statements are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of our senior management and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Investors should consider the information contained in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year 2016, especially in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Risk Factors" sections. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could have material adverse effects on our future results, performance or achievements. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward-looking events discussed in this annual report may not occur. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date this annual report was published. We are not under any obligation and do not intend to make publicly available any update or other revisions to any of the forward-looking statements contained in this annual report to reflect circumstances existing after the date of this annual report or to reflect the occurrence of future events even if experience or future events make it clear that any expected results expressed or implied by those forward-looking statements will not be realized.
