Lifetime Brands, Inc., is North America's leading designer, developer and marketer of a broad range of nationally branded consumer products used in the home, including Kitchenware, Cutlery & Cutting Boards, Bakeware & Cookware, Pantryware & Spices, Dinnerware, Flatware, Glassware and Home Décor.

Dear Fellow Shareholders

In 2009, Lifetime's net sales were $415.0 million and net income was $2.7 million or $0.22 per diluted share. Although these results were not as strong as we wished, considering the challenging economic climate in which we operated most of the year, I believe they represent a solid achievement.

Lifetime's ability to prosper in this environment is a tribute to the resilience of our organization, the flexibility of our business model, the strength of our brands and our commitment to innovation. We focused on expanding market share, improving our profits, controlling expenses and reducing inventory. Our strategy of providing products that set us apart from the competition has laid the foundation for us to be able to produce solid results.

Growing Our Market Share

In my letter to you last year, I wrote, "While we expect economic conditions to remain challenging during all of 2009, we believe this environment presents us with opportunities to expand market share in each of our product classifications." I am pleased to report that Lifetime Brands was able to achieve the market share growth we had forecast. Moreover, I believe that the Company is well positioned to continue to gain share across all its categories in 2010.

This year, I would like to highlight the turnaround in our dinnerware business. This would have been an outstanding accomplishment under any circumstances, but it was particularly notable in a year when most dinnerware companies struggled to stay in business. Thanks to the efforts of Glenn Simon and the team he has built over the past two years, both our "downstairs" housewares and our "upstairs" bridal and luxury dinnerware businesses gained significant market share in 2009.

In 2009, we expanded the reach of the Pfaltzgraff® and Mikasa® brands by developing brand extensions, such as Pfaltzgraff® Everyday and Gourmet Basics by Mikasa™, which allow us to present those brands to a broader spectrum of consumers. We also introduced Pfaltzgraff® and Mikasa® flatware, and added new home décor and home fragrance lines under the Mikasa® brand.

Based on current customer commitments, we are well positioned for our dinnerware businesses to achieve record levels of sales and profitability in 2010.

Strengthening Our Balance Sheet

In 2009, Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP measure that we define as net income (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, restructuring expenses, goodwill and intangible asset impairment and stock option expense, reached $34.0 million for 2009, as compared to $10.5 million in 2008.

The combination of this strong cash flow and our focus on reducing inventory levels enabled us to reduce borrowings under our bank credit agreement at year-end by almost $65 million, or 72%, as compared to year-end 2008.

Although we dramatically reduced inventory, from $141.6 million at December 31, 2008 to $103.9 million at year-end 2009, our fill rate was virtually unchanged.

Grupo Vasconia S.A.B., one of Mexico's leading housewares companies, in which Lifetime owns a 30% interest, again posted strong results. Net sales and net income in Mexican Pesos increased 5% and 77%, respectively. These gains were driven by strong increases in sales of kitchen and tabletop products across all distribution channels. For 2009, our equity in Grupo Vasconia's earnings, net of taxes, increased to $2.2 million, as compared to $1.5 million in

“ Lifetime’s ability to prosper in this environment is a tribute to the resilience of our organization ”

2008, notwithstanding the weaker Mexican Peso in 2009.

Driving Growth through Innovation

Looking forward through 2010, we believe consumers are likely to continue to be cautious throughout the year and retailers are not yet ready to expand inventories – although, happily, we do not expect further reductions. Under these circumstances, growth must obviously come from increased market share. As in the past, we believe that increases in market share can only be attained by bringing to market products that fulfill our customers’ needs for newness and innovation.

Lifetime Brands has led the housewares industry in new product development for many years. Indeed, in a year when many companies cut product development budgets and reduced staff across the board, we increased overall spending in this area. With almost 100 designers, engineers and artists in the U.S. and Asia, we introduced more new and innovative products annually than any other company in our industry.

In 2009, we introduced over 5,000 new or redesigned items, a number that we expect to increase to more than 5,500 this year. Many of these were shown for the first time at the March 2010 International Home + Housewares Show in Chicago. Reflecting our overarching goal of offering innovative solutions to improve everyday tasks, Lifetime’s new products include enhanced designs and functionality in water bottle and coffee mugs; multi-purpose peelers, graters and slicers; high-quality barbecue tools and accessories; fashion-forward, cutting-edge cutlery, shear and board designs; unique spice & storage solutions; and more.

In addition to our own full-time, in-house design staff, we have developed an open innovation network of thousands of inventors and new product entrepreneurs. In fact, in 2009, we screened more than 1,000 inventions submitted by this group and some of our most successful new product introductions originated from this network.

Building a Leaner and Stronger Organization

In 2009, we took a number of actions that resulted in our becoming a leaner, stronger organization and positioned Lifetime to take advantage of further economies as business conditions improve.

We completed the consolidation of our Distribution Centers and thereby laid the foundation for further reducing Distribution Expense, especially as business improves.

Having closed our retail outlet stores, we were able to reduce Selling, General & Administrative Expense by $35.6 million, or 27%, compared to the prior year, without affecting our ability to properly run the business.

The new disciplines we have developed now are a permanent part of our culture and should serve us well as business conditions improve. They will help us continue offering trusted brands and outstanding design at significant values.

I want to express my thanks to our employees, customers, vendors, financial partners and shareholders, for their support during this extraordinary period.

Jeffrey Siegel
Chairman of the Board,
President and Chief Executive Officer

Innovation that Leads the Way

“ Our products make it easier to prepare, cook and serve food at home ”

In today’s competitive environment, Lifetime Brands provides consumers with innovative products that meet the needs of their busy lifestyles. Our products make it easier to prepare, cook and serve food at home and make consumers proud of the meals they are providing for their friends and families.

Our in-house design and development department consists of nearly 100 professionals, located in four design centers in the United States and China. The technologies we employ are second to none and are among the most advanced in the industry.

Lifetime Brands also believes strongly in Open Innovation and we work with industry experts to search out and screen unique and innovative product ideas from individual inventors. The best ideas are brought to life utilizing the Company’s existing design, development and marketing infrastructure.

Innovation reaches every part of our business through our “Ideas of a Lifetime” program, where every associate contributes ideas on how to improve our products, our processes or our performance. Our Ideas program has increased efficiencies throughout the company, saved money and has improved customer experiences with our products.

Brands Consumers Trust

“ consumers continue to prefer nationally brand products and are willing to spend more for a product that delivers on quality ”

Our successful strategy of pairing premium brands with superior innovation and design has established Lifetime Brands as the industry leader in the food preparation and tabletop categories. And even in these uncertain times, consumers continue to look to brands to provide value for home products.

A recent brand study conducted through an independent third party clearly showed that our licensed KitchenAid® and Farberware® brands are highly favored in the kitchen tool and gadget category and are closely associated with quality. The study we commissioned also showed that consumers continue to prefer nationally branded products and are willing to spend more for a product that delivers on quality and will last a long time. All of these findings underscore the dominant positions of our brands in the marketplace and solidify the important role of brands in consumer home products.

Our successful tabletop brands, such as Mikasa®, Pfaltzgraff®, Wallace® and Towle®, are among the oldest and most respected in the industry. Pfaltzgraff, renowned for unique designs and motifs and a vast array of collectible accessories, celebrates its 200th anniversary in 2011. Towle, dating back to a small silversmith in colonial Massachusetts, is celebrating its 320th anniversary in 2010. Mikasa, our premier tabletop brand, resonates with consumers and is uniquely positioned in the current economic climate to gain significant market share by offering affordable luxury and exceptional quality.

Value Without Compromise

“ We offer quality product from brands consumers know and trust at great values ”

At Lifetime Brands, we understand that consumers' perception of value is an increasingly important factor in purchasing decisions. To that end, we are focused on offering products that not only perform as well as or, in many cases, better than the competition, but also provide outstanding value.

In 2009 we launched a variety of multi-functional items such as the 3-in-1 Grater and Chop & Slide Cutting Board with Removable Scraper, which eliminate the need to use numerous products to accomplish cooking tasks. We also introduced products that help the consumer create gourmet meals, usually reserved for dining out, right in their own homes. Home chefs can easily and quickly slice, grate or julienne vegetables, fruits, nuts and cheese using Speed Prep: The One-Handed Mandoline Slicer. We're even developing ways to transform simple foods into gourmet delights with products such as our Perfect Burger Stuffer. We've also integrated streamlined packaging, whereby the products themselves serve as packaging, cutting down on costs as well as being "greener" for the environment. Our hanging Knives with Storage Sheaths are a great example.

This year we also instituted our Free Spice Refills for 5 Years program on all our spice racks. When a consumer purchases any of our premium spice racks, we offer them free spice refills for five years after the purchase.

Additionally, in 2009 we developed quality bone china dinnerware at price points far below those currently in the marketplace. Mikasa's new Designing Redesigned™ products feature bone china superior strength and style at an affordable price. Similarly, our Pfaltzgraff® Everyday and Gourmet Basics by Mikasa™ products provide great value while expanding the market for the Pfaltzgraff® and Mikasa® brands.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Annual Report on Form 10-K contains “forward-looking statements” as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include information concerning Lifetime Brands, Inc.’s (the “Company’s”) plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenues, performance, capital expenditures, financing needs and other information that is not historical information. Many of these statements appear, in particular, under the headings Business and Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in Item 1 of Part I and Item 7 of Part II, respectively. When used in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, the words “estimates,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “plans,” “intends,” “believes” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, the Company’s examination of historical operating trends, are based upon the Company’s current expectations and various assumptions. The Company believes there is a reasonable basis for its expectations and assumptions, but there can be no assurance that the Company will realize its expectations or that the Company’s assumptions will prove correct.

There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause the Company’s actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this Annual Report. Important factors that could cause the Company’s actual results to differ materially from those expressed as forward-looking statements are set forth in this Annual Report, including the risk factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A under the heading Risk Factors.

Except as may be required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements which may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

OTHER INFORMATION

The Company is required to file its annual reports on Forms 10-K and quarterly reports on Forms 10-Q, and other reports and documents as required from time to time with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). The public may read and copy any materials that the Company files with the SEC at the SEC’s Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549. Information may be obtained with respect to the operation of the Public Reference Room by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330. The SEC also maintains an Internet site that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding the Company’s electronic filings with the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company also maintains a website at <http://www.lifetimebrands.com> where users can access the Company’s electronic filings free of charge.

PART I

Item 1. Business

OVERVIEW

The Company is one of North America's leading resources for nationally branded food preparation, tabletop and home décor products. The Company does not sell electric products or appliances. The Company either owns or licenses its brands. The Company's licenses generally only permit the Company to sell certain products using the licensed brand name. The Company sells its products to retailers and distributors, and directly to consumers through its Internet websites and mail order catalog operations. The Company markets its products under well-respected and widely-recognized brand names in the U.S. housewares industry. According to the Home Furnishing News Brand Survey for 2009, three of the Company's brands, KitchenAid®, Cuisinart®, and Farberware®, are among the four most recognized brands in the "Kitchen Tool, Cutlery and Gadgets" category. The Company primarily targets moderate to premium price points through every major level of trade and generally markets several lines within each of its product categories under more than one brand. At the heart of the Company is a strong culture of innovation and new product development. The Company introduced over 5,000 new or redesigned products in 2009 and expects to introduce over 5,500 new or redesigned products in 2010.

The Company's three main product categories are Food Preparation, consisting primarily of kitchenware and cutlery, Tabletop, consisting primarily of dinnerware and flatware, and Home Décor, which consists primarily of wall décor, picture frames and decorative shelving products.

The Company sources almost all of its products from suppliers located outside the United States, primarily in the People's Republic of China. The Company produces its sterling silver products at a leased manufacturing facility in San Germán, Puerto Rico and fills spices and assembles spice racks at its owned Winchendon, Massachusetts distribution facility.

The Company's top ten brands and their respective product categories are:

Brand	Licensed/Owned	Product Category
Farberware®	Licensed*	Food Preparation and Tabletop
KitchenAid®	Licensed	Food Preparation
Mikasa®	Owned	Tabletop and Home Décor
Elements®	Owned	Home Décor
Melannco®	Owned	Home Décor
Pfaltzgraff®	Owned	Tabletop and Home Décor
Cuisinart®	Licensed	Food Preparation and Tabletop
Wallace Silversmiths®	Owned	Tabletop and Home Décor
Kamenstein®	Owned	Food Preparation
Towle®	Owned	Tabletop and Home Décor

* The Company has a 185 year royalty free license to utilize the Farberware® brand for kitchenware products.

The Company sells its products wholesale to a diverse customer base including mass merchants, specialty stores, national chains, department stores, warehouse clubs, home centers, supermarkets and off-price retailers.

ACQUISITIONS

Since 1976, the Company has expanded its product offerings largely through acquisitions. There were no acquisitions in 2009.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The Company's two reportable segments; the wholesale segment, which is the Company's primary business that designs, markets and distributes its products to retailers and distributors, and the direct-to-consumer segment, through its Pfaltzgraff®, Mikasa® and Lifetime Sterling™ Internet websites and Pfaltzgraff® mail-order catalogs. The Company has segmented its operations in a manner that reflects how management reviews and evaluates the results of its operations. While both segments distribute similar products, the segments are distinct due to the different types of customers and the different methods used to sell, market and distribute the products.

During 2008, the Company also operated retail outlet stores that were included in the direct-to-consumer segment. The operations of these stores ceased by December 31, 2008.

Additional information regarding the Company's reportable segments is included in Note K of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 15.

CUSTOMERS

The Company's products are sold in North America to a diverse customer base including mass merchants (such as Wal-Mart and Target), specialty stores (such as Bed Bath & Beyond), national chains (such as JC Penney, Kohl's, and Sears), department stores (such as Macy's), warehouse clubs (such as Costco, BJ's Wholesale Club and Sam's Club), home centers (such as Lowe's), supermarkets (such as Stop & Shop and Kroger), off-price retailers (such as TJX and Ross Stores) and Internet retailers (such as Amazon.com).

The Company also operates Internet and catalog operations that sell the Company's products directly to the consumer.

During the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (including Sam's Club) accounted for 18%, 20%, and 21% of sales, respectively. No other customer accounted for 10% or more of the Company's sales during these periods. For the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company's ten largest customers accounted for 64%, 60%, and 62% of sales, respectively.

DISTRIBUTION

The Company operates the following distribution centers:

Location	Size (square feet)
Fontana, California	753,000
Robbinsville, New Jersey	700,000
Winchendon, Massachusetts	175,000
Medford, Massachusetts	5,590

SALES AND MARKETING

The Company's sales and marketing staff coordinate directly with its wholesale customers to devise marketing strategies and merchandising concepts and to furnish advice on advertising and product promotion. The Company has developed several promotional programs for use in the ordinary course of business to promote sales throughout the year.

The Company's sales and marketing efforts are supported from its principal offices and showroom in Garden City, New York; as well as showrooms in New York, New York; Medford, Massachusetts; Atlanta, Georgia; Bentonville, Arkansas; and Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin.

The Company generally collaborates with its largest wholesale customers and in many instances produces specific versions of the Company's product lines with exclusive designs and packaging for their stores.

DESIGN AND INNOVATION

At the heart of the Company is a strong culture of innovation and new product development. The Company's in-house design and development team currently consists of 90 professional designers, artists and engineers. Utilizing the latest available design tools, technology and materials, this team creates new products, redesigns products, and creates packaging and merchandising concepts.

SOURCES OF SUPPLY

The Company sources its products from over 400 suppliers. Most of the Company's suppliers are located in the People's Republic of China. The Company also sources products from suppliers in the United States, Hong Kong, Taiwan, India, Japan, Indonesia, Thailand, Italy, Korea, Vietnam, Germany, Czech Republic, United Kingdom, Canada, Poland, Portugal, Switzerland, Malaysia, Colombia, Turkey, and Mexico. The Company orders products substantially in advance of the anticipated time of their sale. The Company does not have any formal long-term arrangements with any of its suppliers and its arrangements with most manufacturers allow for flexibility in modifying the quantity, composition and delivery dates of orders. All purchase orders issued by the Company are cancelable.

MANUFACTURING

The Company produces its sterling silver products at its leased manufacturing facility in San Germán, Puerto Rico and fills spices and assembles spice racks at its owned Winchendon, Massachusetts distribution facility.

COMPETITION

The markets for food preparation, tabletop and home décor products are highly competitive and include numerous domestic and foreign competitors, some of which are larger than the Company. The primary competitive factors in selling such products to retailers are innovative products, brand, quality, aesthetic appeal to consumers, packaging, breadth of product line, distribution capability, prompt delivery and selling price.

PATENTS

The Company owns 129 design and utility patents on the overall design of some of its products. The Company believes that the expiration of any of its patents would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

BACKLOG

Backlog is not material to the Company's business because actual confirmed orders from the Company's customers are typically not received until close to the required shipment dates.

EMPLOYEES

At December 31, 2009, the Company had a total of 979 full-time employees, 147 of whom are located in China. In addition, the Company employed 72 people on a part-time basis, predominately in customer service and sales. None of the Company's employees are represented by a labor union. The Company considers its employee relations to be good.

REGULATORY MATTERS

The products the Company manufactures are subject to the jurisdiction of various Federal, State and local statutes and regulatory agencies, as well as the scrutiny of consumer groups. The Company's spice container filling operation in Winchendon, Massachusetts is regulated by the Food and Drug Administration. The Company's sterling silver manufacturing operations are subject to the jurisdiction of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Company's products are also subject to regulation under certain state laws pertaining to product safety and liability.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

The Company's business, operations, and financial condition are subject to various risks. The risks and uncertainties described below are those that the Company considers material.

General Economic Factors and Political Conditions

The Company's performance is affected by general economic factors and political conditions that are beyond the Company's control. These factors include recession, inflation, deflation, housing markets, consumer credit availability, consumer debt levels, fuel and energy costs, interest rates, tax rates and policy, unemployment trends, the impact of natural disasters and terrorist activities, conditions affecting the retail environment for the home and other matters that influence consumer spending. Unfavorable economic conditions in the United States adversely affected the Company's performance in 2008 and 2009, and could continue to adversely affect the Company's performance. Unstable economic and political conditions, civil unrest and political activism, particularly in Asia, could adversely impact the Company's businesses.

Liquidity

The Company has substantial indebtedness and depends upon its lenders to finance its liquidity needs. The Company was not in compliance with the terms of its Credit Facility as of December 31, 2008, and, during the first quarter of 2009, operated under a forbearance agreement with its banks. Although the Company has been in compliance with the terms of its Credit Facility since March 30, 2009, the interest rate on its borrowings has increased. Such increases in the cost of funding the Company's operations have adversely affected its performance and will continue to do so. To the extent that the Company's access to credit was to be restricted, the Company would not be able to operate normally.

The Company's Credit Facility matures in January 2011 and its Convertible Notes mature in July 2011. The Company's ability to operate normally would be severely jeopardized if it were unable to refinance its Credit Facility and its Convertible Notes.

Competition

The markets for the Company's products are intensely competitive and the Company competes with numerous other suppliers, some of which are larger than the Company, have greater financial and other resources or employ brands that are more established, have greater consumer recognition or are more favorably perceived by consumers or retailers than the Company's brands.

The Company believes it possesses certain competitive advantages; however, many factors could erode these competitive advantages or prevent their strengthening. Accordingly, future operating results will depend on the Company's ability to protect or enhance its competitive advantages.

Customers

The Company's wholesale customers include mass merchants, specialty stores, national chains, department stores, warehouse clubs, home centers, supermarkets, off-price retailers and Internet retailers. Unanticipated changes in purchasing and other practices by its customers, including customers' pricing and other requirements, could adversely affect the Company. In its e-commerce and catalog businesses, the Company sells to individual consumers nationwide.

Many of the Company's wholesale customers are significantly larger than the Company, have greater financial and other resources and also purchase goods directly from vendors in Asia and elsewhere. Decisions by large customers to increase their purchases directly from overseas vendors could have a materially adverse affect on the Company.

The Company is largely dependent on the financial health of its customers. Significant changes or financial difficulties, including consolidations of ownership, restructurings, bankruptcies, liquidations or other events that affect retailers could result in fewer stores selling the Company's products, the Company having to rely on a smaller group of customers, an increase in the risk of extending credit to these customers or limit the Company's ability to collect amounts due from these customers.

In 2009, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (including Sam's Club) accounted for 18% of the Company's sales. A material reduction in purchases by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. could have a significant adverse effect on the Company's business and operating results. In addition, pressures by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. that would cause the Company to materially reduce the price of the Company's products could result in reductions of the Company's operating margin.

Supply Chain

The Company sources its products from suppliers located principally in Asia and, to a lesser extent, in Europe and in the United States. The Company's Asia vendors are located primarily in the People's Republic of China. Interruption of supply from any of the Company's suppliers, or the loss of one or more key vendors, could have a negative effect on the Company's business and operating results.

Changes in currency exchange rates might negatively affect the profitability and business prospects of the Company and its overseas vendors. The Company does not have access to its vendors' financial information and is unable to assess its vendors' liquidity.

The Company is subject to risks and uncertainties associated with economic and political conditions in foreign countries, including but not limited to, foreign government regulations, taxes, import and export duties and quotas, anti-dumping regulations, incidents and fears involving security, terrorism and wars, political unrest and other restrictions on trade and travel.

The Company imports its products for delivery to its distribution centers and arranges for its customers to import goods to which title has passed overseas. For purchases that are to be delivered to its distribution centers, the Company arranges for transportation, primarily by sea, from ports in Asia and Europe to ports in the United States, principally Newark/Elizabeth, New Jersey, and Los Angeles/Long Beach, California. Accordingly, the Company is subject to risks incidental to such transportation. These risks include, but are not limited to, increases in fuel costs, the availability of shipping containers, increased security restrictions, work stoppages and carriers' ability to provide delivery services to meet the Company's shipping needs. Transportation disruptions and increased transportation costs could adversely affect the Company's business.

The Company delivers its products to its customers or makes such products available for customer pickup from its distribution centers. Prolonged domestic transportation disruptions, as well as workforce or systems issues related to the Company's distribution centers, could have a negative affect on the Company's ability to deliver goods to its customers.

Intellectual Property

Significant portions of the Company's business are dependent on trade names, trademarks and patents, some of which are licensed from third-parties. Several of these license agreements are subject to termination by the licensor. The loss of certain licenses or a material increase in the royalties the Company pays under such licenses upon renewal could have a material adverse affect on the Company's results of operations.

Regulatory

The Company is subject in the ordinary course of its business, in the United States and elsewhere, to many other statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations that if violated by the Company could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business.

The marketing of certain of the Company's consumer products involve an inherent risk of product liability claims or recalls or other regulatory or enforcement actions initiated by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, by state regulatory authorities or through private causes of action. Any defects in products the Company markets could harm the Company's credibility, adversely affect its relationship with its customers and decrease market acceptance of the Company's products and the strength of the brand names under which the Company markets such products. Potential product liability claims may exceed the amount of the Company's insurance coverage and could materially damage the Company's business and its financial condition.

The Company is subject to significant regulations, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Company cannot assure that it will not find material weaknesses in the future or that the Company's independent registered public accounting firm will conclude that the Company's internal control over financial reporting is operating effectively.

The Company is subject to general business regulations and laws, as well as regulations and laws specifically governing the Internet and e-commerce. Such existing and future laws and regulations may impede the growth of the Internet or other online services. These regulations and laws may cover taxation, user privacy, data protection, pricing, content, copyrights, distribution, electronic contracts and other communications, consumer protection, the provision of online payment services, broadband residential Internet access, and the characteristics and quality of products and services. It is not clear how existing laws governing issues such as property ownership, sales and other taxes, and personal privacy apply to the Internet and e-commerce. Unfavorable resolutions of these issues would harm the Company's business. This could, in turn, diminish the demand for the Company's products on the Internet and increase the Company's cost of doing business.

Technology

The Company relies on several different information technology systems for the operation of its principal business functions, including the Company's enterprise, warehouse management, inventory forecast and re-ordering and call center systems. In the case of the Company's inventory forecast and re-ordering system, most of the Company's orders are received directly through electronic connections with the Company's largest customers. The failure of any one of these systems could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and results of operations.

The Company has made significant efforts to secure its computer network. However, the Company's computer network could be compromised and confidential information such as customer credit card information could be misappropriated. This could lead to adverse publicity, loss of sales and profits or cause the Company to incur significant costs to reimburse third-parties for damages which could impact profits.

In addition, although the Company has upgraded its systems and procedures to fully comply with Payment Card Industry ("PCI") data security standards, failure by the Company to maintain compliance with the PCI requirements or rectify a security issue could result in fines and the imposition of restrictions on the Company's ability to accept credit cards.

Personnel

The Company's success depends on its ability to identify, hire and retain skilled personnel. The Company's industry is characterized by a high level of employee mobility and aggressive recruiting among competitors for personnel with successful track records. The Company may not be able to attract and retain skilled personnel or may incur significant costs in order to do so. If Jeffrey Siegel, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, were to leave the Company, it would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

In March 2008, the Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”) announced that the Company’s San Germán Ground Water Contamination site in Puerto Rico has been added to the Superfund National Priorities List due to contamination present in the local drinking water supply. Wallace Silversmiths de Puerto Rico, Ltd. (“Wallace”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a Notice of Potential Liability and Request for Information Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sections 9607(a) and 9604(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, Liability Act regarding the San Germán Ground Water Contamination Superfund Site, San Germán, Puerto Rico dated May 29, 2008 from the EPA. The EPA requested that Wallace provide information regarding Wallace’s occupation of the facility located in San Germán, Puerto Rico and contamination of the ground water supply. By letter dated June 18, 2008, the Company responded to the EPA’s Request for Information on behalf of Wallace. The Company has engaged environmental consultants to investigate the environmental condition of the property and preliminary discussions with the EPA have been initiated. At this time, it is not possible for the Company to evaluate the outcome.

The Company is, from time to time, involved in other legal proceedings. The Company believes that other current litigation is routine in nature and incidental to the conduct of the Company’s business, and that none of this litigation, if determined adversely to it, would have a material adverse effect on the Company’s consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Notes:

- (1) The Company acquired the business and certain assets of the following in the respective years noted which affects the comparability of the periods: Pfaltzgraff® in July 2005, Salton in September 2005, Syratech in April 2006, Pomerantz® and Design for Living® in April 2007, Gorham® in July 2007, a 30% interest in Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. in December 2007 and Mikasa® in June 2008.
- (2) Certain amounts have been adjusted in these years to reflect the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20 on a retrospective basis. See Note F of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 15 for further information regarding the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements for the Company and notes thereto set forth in Item 15. This discussion contains forward-looking statements relating to future events and the future performance of the Company based on the Company's current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about it and the Company's industry. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results and timing of various events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of factors, as more fully described in this section and elsewhere in this Annual Report. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available or other events occur in the future.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

The Company is one of North America's leading resources for nationally branded food preparation, tabletop and home décor products. The Company's three major product categories are Food Preparation, Tabletop and Home Décor. The Company markets several product lines within each of these product categories and under each of the Company's brands, primarily targeting moderate to premium price points, through every major level of trade. The Company's competitive advantage is based on availability and use of its brands, an emphasis on innovation and new product development and sourcing capabilities. The Company owns or licenses a number of the leading brands in its industry including Farberware®, KitchenAid®, Cuisinart®, Pfaltzgraff® and Mikasa®. Historically, the Company's sales growth has come from expanding product offerings within the Company's current categories by developing existing brands, and acquiring new brands and product categories. Key factors in the Company's growth strategy have been, and will continue to be, the selective use and management of the Company's brands, and the Company's ability to provide a stream of new products and designs. A significant element of this strategy is the Company's in-house design and development team that creates new products, packaging and merchandising concepts.

EFFECTS OF THE CURRENT ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

Sales of the Company's products declined in 2008 and 2009 as a result of the global economic recession that began in late 2007. In addition, in 2009, retailers generally decreased overall stock-keeping levels, resulting in lower inventory replenishment. While there are signs that a moderate economic recovery currently is underway, the Company believes that sustainable increases in the demand for its products will not occur until employment levels improve from current levels. A deterioration of economic conditions likely would have an adverse impact on the Company's sales.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The Company operates in two reportable business segments; the wholesale segment which is the Company's primary business that designs, markets and distributes its products to retailers and distributors, and the direct-to-consumer segment, through its Pfaltzgraff®, Mikasa® and Lifetime Sterling™ Internet websites and Pfaltzgraff® mail-order catalogs. During 2008, the Company also operated retail outlet stores utilizing the Pfaltzgraff® and Farberware® names that were included in the direct-to-consumer segment. However, the Company ceased operating these stores by December 31, 2008.

INVESTMENT IN GRUPO VASCONIA, S.A.B.

In December 2007, the Company acquired approximately 30% of the capital stock of Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. ("Vasconia"), a manufacturer and distributor of aluminum disks, cookware and related items. Shares of Vasconia capital stock are traded on the Bolsa Mexicana de Valores, S.A. de C.V., the Mexico Stock Exchange, under the symbol VASCONI.MX. The Company accounts for its investment in Vasconia using the equity method of accounting and has recorded its proportionate share of Vasconia's net income for the years ended 2009 and 2008, net of taxes, as equity in earnings of Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B in the Company's statement of operations.

INVENTORY REDUCTION PLAN

The Company has had an inventory reduction plan in effect since 2007. The plan includes reducing the number of individual items offered for sale and to shorten the period between inventory procurement and sale to the customer. Consistent with this plan, the Company has been selling slower moving inventory at lower than regular gross margin levels. The plan was developed to increase efficiency by reducing the capital invested in inventory and substantially reducing third-party warehousing and related expenses. The plan has, in certain cases, negatively impacted the Company's gross margins and may negatively impact the Company's gross margins in the future. The Company believes this plan has been successful and it expects to continue its inventory reduction efforts for the foreseeable future.

RESTRUCTURING EXPENSES

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company recognized restructuring and non-cash impairment charges of $2.6 million. The restructuring charges consisted of lease obligations, employee related expenses and other related costs.

The restructuring costs recognized in 2009 and 2008 were incurred in connection with: (i) the Company's closure of its unprofitable retail outlet store operations, (ii) the closure of the Company's York, Pennsylvania distribution center, the operations of which were consolidated with those of the Company's main East Coast and West Coast distribution centers, (iii) the decision to vacate certain excess showroom space, (iv) the realignment of the management structure of certain of the Company's divisions and (v) the elimination of a portion of the workforce at its Puerto Rico sterling silver manufacturing facility.

The restructuring charges in 2009 also reflect adjustments to the restructuring charges recognized in 2008 as the result of decisions by the Company not to vacate certain leased space that the Company had expected to vacate and a decision not to terminate the employment of certain employees, whose employment the Company had expected to terminate.

The Company's restructuring efforts are substantially complete and the Company does not expect any significant restructuring charges in the foreseeable future.

The Company has not accounted for the retail outlet store operations as discontinued operations pursuant to the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic No. 205-20, Presentation of Financial Statements- Discontinued Operations, since the Company determined that the operations and cash flows of the retail outlet store operations would not be eliminated from the on-going operations of the Company. Specifically, the Company also determined that the migration of customers from the Company’s retail outlet stores to the Company’s Internet, catalog and wholesale businesses would not be insignificant. For this purpose, the Company concluded that the migration of sales from the retail outlet stores to the Internet, catalog and wholesale businesses of greater than 5% would be significant.

SEASONALITY

The Company’s business and working capital needs are highly seasonal, with a majority of sales occurring in the third and fourth quarters. In 2009, 2008 and 2007, net sales for the third and fourth quarters accounted for 58%, 61%, and 61% of total annual net sales, respectively. In anticipation of the pre-holiday shipping season, inventory levels increase primarily in the June through October time period.

EFFECT OF ADOPTION OF ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLE

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted the provisions of the FASB ASC Topic No. 470-20, Debt with Conversion and Other Options, on a retrospective basis. ASC Topic No. 470-20 requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash, or other assets, on conversion (including partial cash settlement), to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components in a manner that reflects the issuer’s non-convertible debt borrowing rate with the resulting debt discount amortized as additional non-cash interest expense over the life of the convertible debt. Accordingly, the December 31, 2008 consolidated balance sheet and December 31, 2008 and 2007 consolidated statements of operations and cash flows have been adjusted to reflect the application of the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

2009 COMPARED TO 2008

Net Sales

Net sales for the year were $415.0 million, a decrease of 14.9% compared to net sales of $487.9 million in 2008.

Net sales for the wholesale segment in 2009 were $389.0 million, a decrease of $14.6 million or 3.6% compared to net sales of $403.6 million in 2008. On a comparable basis, adjusting 2009 net sales of Mikasa®, which was acquired on June 6, 2008, to reflect net sales only for the period after June 6, 2009, the same post acquisition period as 2008, net sales for the Company's wholesale segment were $374.4 million for 2009, a decrease of $29.2 million or 7.2% compared to net sales for 2008. Net sales for the Company's Food Preparation product category decreased approximately $14.8 million. The decrease was primarily attributable to changes in the Company's key customers' sourcing patterns and product mix, and the liquidation of a significant customer in 2008. Net sales for the Company's Tabletop product category, excluding Mikasa®, decreased approximately $12.9 million primarily as the result of lower sales of flatware and giftware which management attributes to the weak economy and its negative impact on consumer spending habits, particularly for luxury items. Net sales for the Company's Home Décor product category decreased approximately $4.3 million due primarily to the elimination of certain low margin business in 2009. Net sales of other wholesale products increased by $2.8 million due to the addition of a product line in 2009.

Net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment in 2009 were $26.0 million compared to $84.3 million for 2008. On a comparable basis, excluding (a) 2009 net sales related to Mikasa® of $1.4 million to reflect net sales for the same post acquisition period as 2008, and (b) 2008 net sales of $55.8 million attributable to the retail outlet stores that the Company closed by the end of 2008, net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment were $24.6 million for 2009 compared to $28.5 million in 2008, a decrease of $3.9 million. During 2009, the Company de-emphasized its catalog business due to low profitability which, together with the weak retail sales environment, contributed to the decline.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales for 2009 was $257.8 million compared to $303.5 million for 2008. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was 62.1% for 2009 compared to 62.2% for 2008.

Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales for the wholesale segment was 64.3% for 2009 compared to 64.0% for 2008. The decrease in gross margin, primarily attributable to a shift in customer mix, was substantially offset by lower in-bound freight costs and lower minimum royalties during 2009.

Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment decreased to 29.4% in 2009 from 53.4% in 2008. On a comparable basis, excluding 2008 cost of sales attributable to the retail outlet stores that the Company closed by the end of 2008, cost of sales as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment were 31.8% for 2008. The increase in gross margin was primarily attributable to selective price increases and less promotional free shipping in 2009.

Distribution expenses

Distribution expenses for 2009 were $43.3 million compared to $57.7 million for 2008. Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales were 10.4% in 2009 and 11.8% for 2008.

Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales for the wholesale segment decreased to 8.7% in 2009 from 11.0% in 2008. The decrease was primarily attributable to the elimination of duplicative costs incurred while the Company consolidated its West Coast distribution centers in 2008 and distribution services for Mikasa® provided by the seller and additional costs to integrate the Mikasa® inventory into the Company's existing distribution centers in 2008, collectively which accounted for approximately 1.3% of the decrease in distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales. The balance of the decrease was primarily attributable to improved labor efficiencies realized in 2009.

Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment were 35.3% for 2009 compared to 15.9% for 2008. On a comparable basis, excluding 2008 distribution expenses for the retail outlet stores that the Company closed by the end of 2008, distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment were 39.6% for 2008. The decrease was due primarily to the benefit of the Company's closure of its York, Pennsylvania distribution center.

Selling, general and administrative expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2009 were $95.6 million, a decrease of 27.1% compared to $131.2 million for 2008.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2009 for the wholesale segment were $73.5 million, a decrease of $9.5 million or 11.4% compared to $83.0 million in 2008. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses were 18.9% for 2009 compared to 20.6% for 2008. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses was primarily attributable to the Company's expense reduction efforts and the non-recurrence of the costs incurred in 2008 for transitional services related to Mikasa®. The decrease as a percentage of net sales was offset in part due to the lower sales volume in 2009.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2009 for the direct-to-consumer segment were $10.8 million compared to $37.3 million for 2008. On a comparable basis, excluding 2008 selling, general and administrative expenses for the retail outlet stores that the Company closed by the end of 2008, selling, general and administrative expenses for the direct-to-consumer segment were $12.7 million for 2008. The decrease was primarily attributable to reductions in postage and catalog production costs as a result of the Company's de-emphasis of its catalog channel.

Unallocated corporate expenses for 2009 and 2008 were $11.3 million and $10.9 million, respectively. The increase was primarily attributable to an increase in short-term incentive compensation expense offset by a decrease in professional fees and stock option expense.

Restructuring expenses

During 2009, the Company recorded restructuring expenses and non-cash impairment charges of $2.6 million related to the Company's 2008 restructuring initiative, the realignment of the management structure of certain divisions and the elimination of a portion of the workforce at its Puerto Rico sterling silver manufacturing facility. The restructuring expenses consisted principally of charges for lease obligations, employee related expenses and other related costs. The restructuring charges in 2009 also reflect adjustments reducing the restructuring charges recognized in 2008 by $1.9 million as the result of decisions by the Company not to vacate certain leased space that the Company had expected to vacate and a decision not to terminate the employment of certain employees, whose employment the Company had expected to terminate.

Interest expense

Interest expense for 2009 was $13.2 million compared to $11.6 million for 2008. The increase in interest expense was primarily attributable to higher interest rates in 2009 primarily as the result of an increase in the applicable margin rates under the Company's Credit Facility and a reclassification from other comprehensive loss to interest expense as a result of the de-designation of a cash flow hedge. The increase was offset in part by lower average borrowings during 2009.

Income tax benefit (provision)

The income tax provision for 2009 was $1.9 million compared to a benefit of $14.2 million for 2008. The Company's effective tax rate for 2009 primarily reflects state taxes and deferred taxes related to basis differences in certain assets.

2008 COMPARED TO 2007

Net Sales

Net sales for the year were $487.9 million, a decrease of 1.2% over net sales of $493.7 million in 2007.

Net sales for the wholesale segment in 2008 were $403.6 million, a decrease of $13.3 million or 3.2% over net sales of $416.9 million for 2007. Excluding Mikasa® net sales of $32.8 million, net sales for the wholesale segment were $370.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2008, a decrease of $46.1 million or 11.1% compared to the 2007 period. The decrease is the result of volume declines in most of the Company's product categories. Management attributes these declines primarily to the economic slowdown's effect on consumer spending.

Net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment in 2008 were $84.3 million compared to $76.8 million for 2007. The increase was primarily due to the going-out-of-business sales at the Company's retail stores that were closed by December 31, 2008 and, to a lesser extent, an increase in Internet sales as a result of the acquisition of Mikasa®.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales for 2008 was $303.5 million compared to $289.0 million for 2007. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was 62.2% for 2008 compared to 58.5% for 2007.

Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales for the wholesale segment was 64.0% for 2008 compared to 62.1% for 2007. The reduction in gross margin was due primarily to the Company's continued effort to reduce inventory levels.

Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment increased to 53.4% in 2008 from 39.1% in 2007. The increase was due to lower margins as a result of the going-out-of-business sales at the Company's retail stores.

Distribution expenses

Distribution expenses for 2008 were $57.7 million compared to $53.5 million for 2007. Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales were 11.8% in 2008 and 10.8% for 2007.

Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales for the wholesale segment increased to 11.0% in 2008 from 9.5% for 2007. The increase in distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales was due primarily to transitional service expenses related to Mikasa® acquired in June 2008, duplicative expenses related to the consolidation of the Company's West Coast distribution centers and lower sales volume, partially offset by improved labor efficiency.

Distribution expenses as a percentage of net sales for the direct-to-consumer segment were 15.9% for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to 17.8% for 2007. The decrease was due primarily to reduced third-party warehouse costs as a result of planned decreases in inventory levels, improved labor efficiency and the effects of higher sales volume.

Selling, general and administrative expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2008 were $131.2 million, an increase of 2.1% over the $128.5 million in 2007.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2008 for the wholesale segment were $83.0 million, an increase of $7.8 million or 10.4% over the $75.2 million in 2007. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses were 20.6% for 2008 compared to 18.0% for 2007. The increase was primarily due to transitional services and an increase in compensation as a result of the Mikasa® acquisition, the full-year effect of depreciation expense on 2007 capital expenditures and higher provisions for doubtful accounts.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for 2008 for the direct-to-consumer segment were $37.3 million compared to $41.2 million for 2007. The decrease was due to operating fewer stores during 2008 compared to 2007.

Unallocated corporate expenses for 2008 and 2007 were $10.9 million and $12.2 million, respectively. Higher expenses in 2007 were primarily due to a charge related to the termination of a licensing agreement.

Goodwill and intangible asset impairment

In 2008, the Company recorded a non-cash goodwill impairment charge of $27.4 million and a non-cash impairment charge related to certain of its other intangible assets of $2.0 million in accordance with ASC Topic No. 350, Intangibles- Goodwill and Other.

Restructuring expenses

In 2008, in connection with the cessation of its retail store operations and the plans to vacate its distribution facility in York, Pennsylvania, the Company recorded a $3.9 million non-cash fixed asset impairment charge and $14.1 million in restructuring related expenses consisting of lease obligations, consulting fees, employee related expenses, and other incremental costs.

Interest expense

Interest expense for 2008 was $11.6 million compared to $10.6 million for 2007. The increase in interest expense was attributable to higher average borrowings outstanding under the Company's Credit Facility during 2008. The increase was offset in part by lower average interest rates in 2008.

Other income, net

Other income, net was zero in 2008 and $3.9 million in 2007. In 2007, the Company recognized a gain on the sale of its former corporate headquarters and a gain on a foreign currency forward contract.

Income tax benefit (provision)

The income tax benefit for 2008 was $14.2 million compared to a provision of $6.6 million for 2007. The Company's effective income tax rate was 22.4% for 2008 and 46.6% for 2007. The decrease in the effective tax rate in 2008 was due to valuation allowances the Company recorded against certain deferred tax assets.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations discusses the Company's consolidated financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and with the instructions to Form 10-K and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. On an on-going basis, management evaluates its estimates and judgments based on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The Company evaluates these estimates including those related to revenue recognition, allowances for doubtful accounts, reserves for sales returns and allowances and customer chargebacks, inventory mark-down provisions, impairment of tangible and intangible assets, including goodwill, stock option expense, derivative valuation and accruals related to the Company's tax positions. Actual results may differ from these estimates using different assumptions and under different conditions. The Company's significant accounting policies are more fully described in Note A of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 15. The Company believes that the following discussion addresses its most critical accounting policies, which are those that are most important to the portrayal of the Company's consolidated financial condition and results of operations and require management's most difficult, subjective and complex judgments.

Inventory

Inventory consists principally of finished goods sourced from third-party suppliers. Inventory also includes finished goods, work in process and raw materials related to the Company's manufacture of sterling silver products. Inventory is priced by the lower of cost (first-in, first-out basis) or market method. The Company estimates the selling price of its inventory on a product by product basis based on the current selling environment and considering the various available channels of distribution (e.g. wholesale: specialty store, off-price retailers etc. or the Internet and catalog). If the estimated selling price is lower than the inventory's cost, the Company reduces the value of inventory to the estimated selling price. If the Company is inaccurate in its estimates of selling prices, it could report material fluctuations in gross margin. Historically, the Company's adjustments to inventory have been appropriate and have not resulted in material unexpected charges.

Receivables

The Company periodically reviews the collectibility of its accounts receivable and establishes allowances for estimated losses that could result from the inability of its customers to make required payments. A considerable amount of judgment is required to assess the ultimate realization of these receivables including assessing the initial and on-going creditworthiness of the Company's customers. The Company also maintains an allowance for anticipated customer deductions. The allowances for deductions are primarily based on contracts the Company has with its customers. However, in certain cases the Company does not have a formal contract and/or customer deductions are non-contractual. To evaluate the reasonableness of non-contractual customer deductions, the Company analyzes currently available information and historical trends of deductions. If the financial conditions of the Company's customers or economic conditions were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments or sell the Company's products at reasonable sales prices, or the Company's estimate of non-contractual deductions was determined to be inaccurate, revisions to allowances may be required, which could adversely affect the Company's financial condition. Historically, the Company's allowances have been appropriate and have not resulted in material unexpected charges.

Intangible assets and long-lived assets

Intangible assets deemed to have indefinite lives are not amortized but instead are subject to an annual impairment assessment in accordance with the provisions of ASC Topic No. 350, Intangibles- Goodwill and Other. Based on the results of the Company's 2009 assessment, no impairment of the Company's indefinite-lived intangible assets was identified for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Long-lived assets, including intangible assets deemed to have finite lives, are reviewed for impairment in accordance with ASC Topic No. 360, Property, Plant and Equipment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that such assets may have been impaired. Impairment indicators include, among other conditions, cash flow deficits, historic or anticipated declines in revenue or operating profit or material adverse changes in the business climate that indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may be impaired. When impairment indicators are present, the Company compares the carrying value of the assets to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the assets. If the assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. The Company considered indicators of impairment of its long-lived assets and determined that no such indicators were present at December 31, 2009.

Revenue recognition

The Company sells products wholesale, to retailers and distributors, and retail, direct to the consumer through the Company's factory and outlet store, catalog and Internet operations. Wholesale sales are recognized when title passes and the risks and rewards of ownership have transferred to the customer. The retail store sales in 2008 were recognized at the time of sale. Catalog and Internet sales are recognized upon delivery to the customer. Shipping and handling fees that are billed to customers in sales transactions are recorded in net sales. Net sales exclude taxes that are collected from customers and remitted to the taxing authorities.

Employee stock options

The Company accounts for its stock options in accordance with ASC Topic No. 718-20, Awards Classified as Equity, which requires the measurement of compensation expense for all share-based compensation granted to employees and non-employee directors at fair value on the date of grant and recognition of compensation expense over the related service period for awards expected to vest. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model to estimate the fair value of its stock options. The Black-Scholes option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility of the Company's common stock. Changes in these subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate of the Company's stock options.

Income taxes

The Company applies the provisions of ASC Topic No. 740, Income Taxes, for the financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of uncertain tax positions recognized in the Company's financial statements. Tax positions must meet a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken.

Derivatives

The Company accounts for derivative instruments in accordance with ASC Topic No. 815, Derivatives and Hedging, which requires that all derivative instruments be recognized on the balance sheet at fair value as either an asset or a liability. Changes in the fair value of derivatives that qualify as hedges and have been designated as part of a hedging relationship for accounting purposes have no net impact on earnings to the extent the derivative is considered perfectly effective in achieving offsetting changes in fair value or cash flows attributable to the risk being hedged, until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. For derivatives that do not qualify or are not designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes, changes in fair value are recorded in operations.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's principal sources of cash to fund liquidity needs are: (i) cash provided by operating activities and (ii) borrowings available under the Credit Facility. The Company's primary uses of funds consist of working capital requirements, capital expenditures and payment of principal and interest on its debt.

At December 31, 2009, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $682,000 compared to $3.5 million at December 31, 2008, working capital was $96.6 million at December 31, 2009 compared to $82.7 million at December 31, 2008 and the current ratio was 2.25 to 1 at December 31, 2009 compared to 1.55 to 1 at December 31, 2008.

Borrowings under the Company's Credit Facility decreased to $24.6 million at December 31, 2009 compared to $89.3 million at December 31, 2008. The decrease was primarily attributable to an increase in cash from operations that was used to pay down the amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility due to the Company's inventory reduction efforts, receipt of an income tax refund, reduction of discretionary expenses and other expense reduction efforts.

The Company believes that availability under the Credit Facility and cash flows from operations is sufficient to fund the Company's operations. However, due to the tightening of the credit markets, the Company believes that if needed other available sources of liquidity could be limited. If circumstances were to adversely change, the Company would seek to improve its liquidity by taking actions such as to further lower its inventory and reduce expenses. However, there can be no assurance that any such efforts would be successful or that the results of any such efforts would be adequate. Finally, the combined effects of the economic downturn and credit crisis have had a significant impact on the Company's retail partners and in certain cases resulted in bankruptcies and eventual liquidation. The Company closely monitors the creditworthiness of its customers. Based upon the evaluation of changes in customers' creditworthiness, the Company may modify credit limits and/or terms of sale. The Company has not been materially affected by the bankruptcy or liquidation of any of its customers to date. However, notwithstanding the Company's efforts to monitor its customers' financial condition, the Company may be materially affected in the future.

In 2009, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (including Sam's Club) accounted for 18% of the Company's sales. A material reduction of product orders by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. could have significant adverse effects on the Company's business and operating results and ultimately the Company's liquidity, including the loss of predictability and volume production efficiencies associated with such a large customer.

Credit facility

The Company has a $130.0 million secured credit facility that matures on January 31, 2011 (the "Credit Facility"). Borrowings under the Credit Facility are secured by all assets of the Company. On March 31, 2009, the Company entered into a waiver and amendment to the Credit Facility (the "Amendment"). Pursuant to the Amendment, the Company's lenders waived the Company's non-compliance with the financial covenants required by the Credit Facility at December 31, 2008. The Amendment modified the Credit Facility in certain ways including, as follows: (i) changed the maturity date to January 31, 2011, (ii) added certain asset categories to the borrowing base, (iii) increased the applicable margin rates (including a minimum LIBOR of 1.75%), (iv) revised the minimum Consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the Credit Facility) and fixed charge coverage covenants and added both a minimum net sales for 2009 only and maximum capital expenditures covenant, (v) eliminated the requirement of maximum leverage and minimum interest coverage ratios, (vi) eliminated the $50.0 million accordion feature, (vii) revised the minimum excess availability amount and (viii) placed restrictions on dividends and acquisitions. The Amendment also provided for a lock-box arrangement with the collateral agent for the benefit of its lenders; as such, the Company classified the indebtedness as a current liability in its consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2009 and 2008.

On October 13, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to reduce the minimum net sales requirement for the quarter ended September 30, 2009 from $114.8 million to $107.0 million.

On October 30, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to amend the Credit Facility to, among other things: (i) reduce the minimum required availability to $15.0 million for all fiscal quarters beginning with the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2009, (ii) eliminate the orderly liquidation value of the Company's trademarks from the borrowing base and (iii) reduce the total commitment to $130.0 million.

On February 12, 2010, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to amend the Credit Facility to, among other things: (i) permit the Company to purchase, from time to time, in the aggregate, up to $15.0 million principal amount of the Company's 4.75% Convertible Notes and (ii) eliminate the requirement for the Company to obtain a consent from the lenders prior to consummating a Permitted Acquisition (as defined in the Credit Facility).

At December 31, 2009, the Company had $1.2 million of open letters of credit and $24.6 million of borrowings outstanding under the Credit Facility. Interest rates on outstanding borrowings at December 31, 2009 ranged from 5.75% to 6.25%. Availability under the Credit Facility at December 31, 2009 was $49.9 million (net of $15.0 million of minimum required availability). The Company has interest rate swap and collar agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $55.2 million at December 31, 2009. The Company entered into these agreements to effectively fix the interest rate on a portion of its borrowings under the Credit Facility.

The Company was in compliance with its financial covenants at December 31, 2009. The Company's Consolidated EBITDA (as defined by the Credit Facility) for the year ended December 31, 2009 was $33.3 million compared to the minimum Consolidated EBITDA required by the Credit Facility of $25.5 million. Capital expenditures for the year ended December 31, 2009 were $2.3 million compared to the maximum capital expenditures permitted by the Credit Facility of $6.0 million. Net sales for the three months ended December 31, 2009 were $128.1 million compared to the minimum net sales required by the Credit Facility of $116.9 million. The fixed charge coverage ratio was 3.29 to 1.00 compared to the minimum fixed charge coverage ratio of 1.40 to 1.00.

The borrowing base at December 31, 2009 under the Credit facility is determined as the sum of (1) 85% of eligible receivables and 85% of the orderly liquidation value of eligible inventory, less (2) reserves.

Non-GAAP financial measure

Consolidated EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure within the meaning of Regulation G promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The following is a reconciliation of the net income (loss) as reported to Consolidated EBITDA:

	Three Months Ended		Year Ended
	December 31,		December 31,

Convertible Notes

The Company has outstanding $75.0 million aggregate principal amount of 4.75% Convertible Senior Notes due on July 2011 (the "Notes"). The Notes are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion price of $28.00 per share, subject to adjustment in certain events. The Notes bear interest at 4.75% per annum, payable semiannually in arrears on January 15 and July 15 of each year, and are unsubordinated except with respect to the Company's debt outstanding under its Credit Facility. The Company may not redeem the Notes at any time prior to maturity. The Notes are convertible at the option of the holder anytime prior to the close of business on the business day prior to the maturity date. Upon conversion, the Company may elect to deliver either shares of the Company's common stock, cash or a combination of cash and shares of the Company's common stock in satisfaction of the Company's obligations upon conversion of the Notes. If the Notes are not converted prior to the maturity date the Company is required to pay the holders of the Notes the principal amount of the Notes in cash upon maturity.

Dividends

In February 2009, the Company suspended paying cash dividends on its outstanding common shares.

Operating activities

Cash provided by operating activities was $64.0 million in 2009 compared to $6.9 million in 2008. The increase was primarily attributable to improved operating results and working capital during the 2009 period and the income tax refund related to the carry-back of fiscal 2008 losses. The increase in working capital was primarily attributable to a reduction of inventory and accounts receivable in 2009 compared to the 2008 period.

Investing activities

Cash used in investing activities was $1.9 million in 2009 compared to $24.8 million in 2008. In 2009, investing activities included capital expenditures of $2.3 million. In 2008, investing activities included cash paid by the Company of $16.3 million to acquire the business and certain assets of Mikasa® and capital expenditures of $8.9 million related primarily to the Company's new West Coast distribution center located in Fontana, California and the Company's new office space in Medford, Massachusetts. The Company's 2010 planned capital expenditures are estimated not to exceed $8.0 million.

Financing activities

Cash used in financing activities was $64.8 million in 2009 compared to cash provided by financing activities of $17.2 million in 2008. In 2009, net repayments under the Company's Credit Facility were $64.7 million. In 2008, the Company received net cash proceeds from borrowings under the Credit Facility of $20.6 million.

Contractual obligations

As of December 31, 2009, the Company's contractual obligations were as follows (in thousands):

	Payment due by period
	Total	Less than 1 year	1-3 years	3-5 years	More than 5 years
Operating leases	$117,607	$12,476	$ 24,643	$24,567	$55,921

Total	$222,551	$22,819	$114,726	$25,469	$59,537

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Market risk represents the risk of loss that may impact the consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company. The Company is exposed to market risk associated with changes in interest rates. The Company's Credit Facility bears interest at variable rates and, therefore, the Company is subject to increases and decreases in interest expense resulting from fluctuations in interest rates. The Company has entered into interest rate swap agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $50.0 million and interest rate collar agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $40.2 million to manage interest rate exposure in connection with these variable interest rate borrowings. There have been no changes in interest rates that would have a material impact on the consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data

The Company's Consolidated Financial Statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009 in Item 15 commencing on page F-1 are incorporated herein by reference.

The following table sets forth certain unaudited consolidated quarterly statement of operations data for the eight quarters ended December 31, 2009. This information is unaudited, but in the opinion of management, it has been prepared substantially on the same basis as the audited consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 10-K and all necessary adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, have been included in the amounts stated below to present fairly the unaudited consolidated quarterly results of operations. The consolidated quarterly data should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and the notes to such statements appearing elsewhere in this Annual Report. The results of operations for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for any future period:

Notes:

- (1) The Company recognized restructuring and fixed asset impairment expenses of $824,000, $(663,000), $671,000 and $1.8 million in the first, second, third and fourth quarters of 2009, respectively.
- (2) The Company recognized restructuring expenses of $2.9 million, $4.6 million and $10.5 million in the first, third and fourth quarters of 2008, respectively, and a non-cash goodwill and intangible asset impairment of $29.4 million in the fourth quarter of 2008.
- (3) Certain amounts have been adjusted in 2008 to reflect the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20 on a retrospective basis. See Note F of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 15 for further information regarding the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None

Item 9A. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company (its principal executive officer and principal financial and accounting officer, respectively) have concluded, based on their evaluation as of December 31, 2009, that the Company's controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports filed by it under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and include controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in such reports is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls

There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, and for performing an assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009. Internal control over financial reporting is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) or 15d-15(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act as a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the Company's principle executive and principal financial officers and effected by the Company's Board of Directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

All internal control systems, no matter how well designed, have inherent limitations. Because of the inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Accordingly, even those systems determined to be effective can provide only reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation.

Management performed an assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 using the criteria set forth in the Internal Control Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this assessment, management has determined that the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 is effective.

The effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 has been audited by Ernst & Young LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Lifetime Brands, Inc.

We have audited Lifetime Brands Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (the COSO criteria). Lifetime Brands Inc.'s management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting included in the accompanying Management Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, Lifetime Brands, Inc. maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 based on the COSO criteria.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheets of Lifetime Brands, Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2009 of Lifetime Brands, Inc. and our report dated March 17, 2010 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Lifetime Brands, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Lifetime Brands, Inc. (the “Company”) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders’ equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2009. Our audits also included the financial statement schedule listed in the Index at Item 15(a). These financial statements and schedule are the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and schedule based on our audits. The financial statements of Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. and Subsidiaries (a corporation in which the Company has a 30.12% interest), have been audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us, and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. and Subsidiaries, is based solely on the report of the other auditors. In the consolidated financial statements, the Company’s investment in Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. and Subsidiaries is stated at $20.3 million at December 31, 2009 and the Company’s equity in the net income of Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. and Subsidiaries is stated at $2.2 million for the year then ended.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits and the report of other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Lifetime Brands, Inc. at December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2009, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Notes A and F to the consolidated financial statements, the Company adopted the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic No. 470-20, Debt with Conversion and Other Options, effective January 1, 2009.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), Lifetime Brands, Inc.’s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009, based on criteria established in Internal Control – Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated March 17, 2010 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

NOTE A — SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and business

Lifetime Brands, Inc. (the “Company”) designs, markets and distributes a broad range of consumer products used in the home, including food preparation, tabletop and home décor products and markets its products under a number of brand names and trademarks, which are either owned or licensed. The Company markets and sells its products wholesale to retailers throughout North America and directly to the consumer through its Pfaltzgraff®, Mikasa® and Lifetime Sterling™ Internet websites and Pfaltzgraff® mail order catalogs.

Up until December 31, 2008, the Company also operated retail outlet stores under the Pfaltzgraff® and Farberware® names.

Principles of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Revenue recognition

Wholesale sales are recognized when title is transferred to the customer. Internet and catalog sales are recognized upon delivery to the customer. The retail outlet store sales in 2008 were recognized at the time of sale. Shipping and handling fees that are billed to customers in sales transactions are included in net sales and amounted to $3.5 million, $4.4 million, and $4.8 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively. Net sales exclude taxes that are collected from customers and remitted to the taxing authorities.

Distribution expenses

Distribution expenses consist primarily of warehousing expenses, handling costs of products sold and freight-out expenses. Freight-out expenses amounted to $6.9 million, $8.7 million, and $8.4 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Advertising expenses

Advertising expenses are expensed as incurred and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses. Advertising expenses were $880,000, $1.6 million and $1.6 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Accounts receivable

The Company periodically reviews the collectibility of its accounts receivable and establishes allowances for estimated losses that could result from the inability of its customers to make required payments. A considerable amount of judgment is required to assess the ultimate realization of these receivables including assessing the initial and on-going creditworthiness of the Company’s customers. The Company also maintains an allowance for anticipated customer deductions. The allowances for deductions are primarily based on contracts the Company has with its customers. However, in certain cases the Company does not have a formal contract and/or customer deductions are non-contractual. To evaluate the reasonableness of non-contractual customer deductions, the Company analyzes currently available information and historical trends of deductions. If the financial conditions of the Company’s customers or economic conditions were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments or sell the Company’s products at reasonable sales prices, or the Company’s estimate of non-contractual deductions was determined to be inaccurate, revisions to allowances may be required, which could adversely affect the Company’s financial condition. Historically, the Company’s allowances have been appropriate and have not resulted in material unexpected charges.

Inventory

Inventory consists principally of finished goods sourced from third-party suppliers. Inventory also includes finished goods, work in process and raw materials related to the Company's manufacture of sterling silver products. Inventory is priced by the lower of cost (first-in, first-out basis) or market method. The Company estimates the selling price of its inventory on a product by product basis based on the current selling environment and considering the various available channels of distribution (e.g. wholesale: specialty store, off-price retailers etc. or the Internet and catalog). If the estimated selling price is lower than the inventory's cost, the Company reduces the value of inventory to the estimated selling price. If the Company is inaccurate in its estimates of selling prices, it could report material fluctuations in gross margin. Historically, the Company's adjustments to inventory have been appropriate and have not resulted in material unexpected charges. Consistent with the seasonality of the Company's business, inventory generally increases, beginning late in the second quarter of the year, and reaches a peak at the end of the third quarter or early in the fourth quarter, and declines thereafter.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Property and equipment, other than leasehold improvements, is depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Building and improvements are being depreciated over 30 years and machinery, furniture, and equipment over periods ranging from 3 to 10 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the term of the lease or the estimated useful lives of the improvements, whichever is shorter. Advances paid towards the acquisition of property and equipment and the cost of property and equipment not ready for use before the end of the period are classified as construction in progress.

Cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of credit risk

The Company's cash and cash equivalents are potentially subject to concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains cash with several financial institutions that, in some cases, is in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits.

Concentrations of credit risk with respect to trade accounts receivable are limited due to the large number of entities comprising the Company's customer base and their dispersion across North America.

During the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (including Sam's Clubs) accounted for 18%, 20% and 21% of sales, respectively. No other customer accounted for 10% or more of the Company's sales during the periods. For the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company's ten largest customers accounted for 64%, 60% and 62% of sales, respectively.

Fair value of financial instruments

The Company estimated that the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable are a reasonable estimate of their fair value because of their short-term nature. The Company estimated that the carrying amounts of borrowings outstanding under its revolving Credit Facility approximate fair value since such borrowings bear interest at variable market rates. The fair value of the Company's $75.0 million 4.75% Convertible Senior Notes at December 31, 2009 and 2008 was $66.8 million and $39.4 million, respectively, based on Level 2 observable inputs consisting of the most recent quoted price for the Notes obtained from the FINRA Trade Reporting and Compliance Engine™ system at December 31, 2009 and 2008.

Fair value measurements

Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic No. 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides enhanced guidance for using fair value to measure assets and liabilities and establishes a common definition of fair value, provides a framework for measuring fair value under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosure requirements about fair value measurements. Fair value measurements included in the Company's consolidated financial statements relate to the Company's convertible notes, annual intangible asset impairment test and derivatives, described in Notes A, D and G, respectively.

Derivatives

The Company accounts for derivative instruments in accordance with ASC Topic No. 815, Derivatives and Hedging. ASC Topic No. 815 requires that all derivative instruments be recognized on the balance sheet at fair value as either an asset or a liability. Changes in the fair value of derivatives that qualify as hedges and have been designated as part of a hedging relationship for accounting purposes have no net impact on earnings to the extent the derivative is considered perfectly effective in achieving offsetting changes in fair value or cash flows attributable to the risk being hedged, until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. For derivatives that do not qualify or are not designated as hedging instruments for accounting purposes, changes in fair value are recorded in operations.

Goodwill, intangible assets and long-lived assets

Goodwill and intangible assets deemed to have indefinite lives, are not amortized but instead are subject to an annual impairment assessment in accordance with the provisions of ASC Topic No. 350, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other. As more fully described in Note D, the results of the Company's 2009 assessment did not indicate an impairment of the Company's indefinite-lived intangible assets.

Long-lived assets, including intangible assets deemed to have finite lives, are reviewed for impairment in accordance with ASC Topic No. 360, Property, Plant and Equipment, whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that such amounts may have been impaired. Impairment indicators include, among other conditions, cash flow deficits, historic or anticipated declines in revenue or operating profit or material adverse changes in the business climate that indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may be impaired. When impairment indicators are present, the Company compares the carrying value of the asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the assets. If the assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. The Company considered indicators of impairment of its long-lived assets and determined that, other than the impairment charges related to the Company's restructuring activities described in Note B, no such indicators were present at December 31, 2009.

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method in accordance with ASC Topic No. 740, Income Taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

The Company applies the provisions of ASC Topic No. 740 for the financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of uncertain tax positions recognized in the Company's financial statements. In accordance with this provision, tax positions must meet a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position.

Stock options

The Company accounts for its stock options in accordance with ASC Topic No. 718-20, Awards Classified as Equity, which requires the measurement of compensation expense for all share-based compensation granted to employees and non-employee directors at fair value on the date of grant and recognition of compensation expense over the related service period for awards expected to vest. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model to estimate the fair value of its stock options. The Black-Scholes option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility of the Company's common stock. Changes in these subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate of the Company's stock options.

New accounting pronouncements

In May 2008, the FASB issued ASC Topic No. 470-20, Debt with Conversion and Other Options, which requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash, or other assets, on conversion (including partial cash settlement), to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate with the resulting debt discount amortized as additional non-cash interest expense over the life of the convertible debt. The provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20 were effective for the Company on January 1, 2009 and the effects on the Company's consolidated financial statements as a result of the adoption are described in Note F.

In May 2009, the FASB issued ASC Topic No. 855, Subsequent Events. ASC Topic No. 855 establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. ASC Topic No. 855 is effective for interim and annual reporting periods ending after June 15, 2009. The adoption of ASC Topic No. 855 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Subsequent events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date of the filing of its consolidated financial statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

NOTE B — RESTRUCTURING

The restructuring and impairment charges discussed below are included in restructuring expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007.

December 2007 store closings

In December 2007, management of the Company commenced a plan to close 30 underperforming Farberware® and Pfaltzgraff® factory outlet stores. All 30 stores were closed by the end of the first quarter of 2008. In connection with these store closings the Company incurred restructuring related costs consisting of the following:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007
	(in thousands)
Store lease obligations	$2,300	$ —
Consulting fees	393	289
Employee related expenses	141	—
Other related costs	153	—
Total	$2,987	$289

There were no costs associated with these store closings recognized during the year ended December 31, 2009. The remaining store lease obligations that were included in accrued expenses at December 31, 2008 related to these store closings of $566,000 were paid in the first quarter of 2009.

The Company also recorded a non-cash fixed asset impairment charge of $1.6 million at December 31, 2007 related to these store closings. No impairment charges were recognized in connection with these store closings during the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008.

September 2008 restructuring initiative

In September 2008, management of the Company commenced a plan to: (i) close its 53 remaining Farberware® and Pfaltzgraff® retail outlet stores due to continued poor performance, (ii) vacate its York, Pennsylvania distribution center and consolidate the distribution with the Company's main East and West Coast distribution centers and (iii) vacate certain excess showroom space. In connection with these restructuring activities the Company incurred restructuring related costs consisting of the following:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2009	2008
	(in thousands)
Store lease obligations	$1,263	$ 7,662
Consulting fees	—	1,766
Employee related expenses	(206)	1,354
Other related costs	411	318
Total	$1,468	$11,100

LIFETIME BRANDS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE B — RESTRUCTURING (continued)

The following is a roll-forward of the amounts included in accrued expenses related to the September 2008 restructuring initiative (in thousands):

	Balance December 31, 2008	Accrual adjustments	Charges	Payments	Balance December 31, 2009
Lease obligations	$7,578	$(439)	$1,702	$ (8,494)	$ 347
Consulting fees	354	—	—	(354)	—
Employee related expenses	1,168	(289)	83	(955)	7
Other related costs	224	—	411	(537)	98
Total	$9,324	$(728)	$2,196	$(10,340)	$ 452

The adjustments in the table above reflect decisions by the Company not to vacate certain leased space that the Company had expected to vacate and not to terminate the employment of certain employees, whose employment the Company had expected to terminate. The amounts were included in the Company's restructuring charges for the year ended December 31, 2008.

During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company recorded non-cash asset impairment charges of $789,000 and $3.9 million, respectively, related to these restructuring activities. The non-cash impairment charge for the year ended December 31, 2009 reflects an adjustment reducing the non-cash impairment charge recognized in 2008 by $1.2 million as the result of decisions by the Company not to vacate certain leased space that the Company had expected to vacate.

Pursuant to ASC Topic No. 205-20, Presentation of Financial Statements- Discontinued Operations, the Company has not accounted for its retail outlet store operations as discontinued operations since the Company believes that the operations and cash flows of the retail outlet store operations would not be eliminated from the on-going operations of the Company as a result of these store closings. Specifically, the Company determined that the migration of customers from the Company's retail outlet stores to the Company's Internet, catalog and wholesale businesses would not be insignificant. For this purpose, the Company concluded that the migration of sales from the retail outlet stores to the Internet, catalog and wholesale businesses of greater than 5% would be significant.

Third quarter 2009 restructuring activities

During the third quarter of 2009, management of the Company commenced a plan to realign the management structure of certain of its divisions and eliminate a portion of the workforce at its Puerto Rico sterling silver manufacturing facility. In connection with these restructuring activities, the Company recorded $363,000 of restructuring expenses consisting of employee related expenses, of which $136,000 of these expenses were unpaid and included in accrued expenses at December 31, 2009.

NOTE C — INVESTMENT IN GRUPO VASCONIA, S.A.B.

In December 2007, the Company acquired approximately a 30% interest in Grupo Vasconia, S.A.B. (“Vasconia”) for $23.0 million in cash. The Company accounts for its investment in Vasconia using the equity method of accounting. Accordingly, the Company has recorded its proportionate share of Vasconia’s net income (reduced for amortization expense related to the customer relationships acquired) for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations. The Company’s proportionate share of Vasconia’s net income has been translated from Mexican Pesos (“MXP”) to U.S. Dollars (“USD”) using the average daily exchange rate during the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company received a cash dividend of $218,000 from Vasconia. Included in prepaid expenses and other current assets at December 31, 2009 and 2008, are amounts due from Vasconia of $202,000 and $371,000, respectively.

Summarized financial statement information for Vasconia as of and for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 is as follows:

NOTE D — INTANGIBLE ASSETS AND GOODWILL

The Company performed its 2009 annual impairment tests for its indefinite-lived intangible assets in accordance with ASC Topic No. 350, Intangibles- Goodwill and Other, as of October 1, 2009. The test involved the assessment of the fair market value of the Company's indefinite-lived intangible assets which was based on Level 2 observable inputs using a discounted cash flow approach assuming a discount rate of 14% and an annual growth rate of 3%. The results of the assessment indicated that the fair value of the Company's indefinite-lived intangibles exceeded the carrying amount by approximately $29.0 million. Accordingly, the Company concluded that no impairment to the carrying value of the Company's indefinite-lived intangibles existed at December 31, 2009.

In 2008, due primarily to the significant decline in the Company's market capitalization, the Company recognized non-cash impairment charges of $29.4 million consisting of the write-off of all recorded goodwill of $27.4 million and a reduction of the carrying amount of the Company's indefinite-lived intangibles of $2.0 million.

Intangible assets, all of which are included in the wholesale segment, consist of the following (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31,
	2009			2008
	Gross	Accumulated Amortization	Net	Gross	Accumulated Amortization	Net
Indefinite-lived intangible assets:

Total	$45,024	$(7,383)	$37,641	$45,024	$(6,604)	$38,420

The weighted-average amortization periods for the Company's finite-lived intangible assets as of December 31, 2009 are as follows:

	Years
Trade names	30
Licenses	33
Customer relationships	3
Patents	17

Estimated amortization expense for each of the five succeeding fiscal years is as follows (in thousands):

NOTE E — CREDIT FACILITY

The Company has a $130.0 million secured credit facility that matures on January 31, 2011 (the “Credit Facility”). Borrowings under the Credit Facility are secured by all assets of the Company.

On March 31, 2009, the Company entered into a waiver and amendment to the Credit Facility (the “Amendment”). Pursuant to the Amendment, the Company’s lenders waived the Company’s non-compliance with the financial covenants required by the Credit Facility at December 31, 2008. The Amendment modified the Credit Facility in certain ways including, as follows: (i) changed the maturity date to January 31, 2011, (ii) added certain asset categories to the borrowing base, (iii) increased the applicable margin rates (including a minimum LIBOR of 1.75%), (iv) revised the minimum Consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the Credit Facility) and fixed charge coverage covenants and added both a minimum net sales for 2009 only and maximum capital expenditures covenant, (v) eliminated the requirement of maximum leverage and minimum interest coverage ratios, (vi) eliminated the $50.0 million accordion feature, (vii) revised the minimum excess availability amount and (viii) placed restrictions on dividends and acquisitions. The Company was in compliance with its financial covenants at December 31, 2009. The Amendment also provided for a lock-box arrangement with the collateral agent for the benefit of its lenders; as such, the Company has classified the indebtedness as a current liability in its consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2009 and 2008.

On October 13, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to reduce the minimum net sales requirement for the quarter ended September 30, 2009 from $114.8 million to $107.0 million.

On October 30, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to further amend the Credit Facility to, among other things: (i) reduce the minimum required availability to $15.0 million for all fiscal quarters beginning with the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2009, (ii) eliminate the orderly liquidation value of the Company’s trademarks from the borrowing base and (iii) reduce the total commitment to $130.0 million.

On February 12, 2010, the Company entered into an agreement with its lenders to further amend the Credit Facility to, among other things: (i) permit the Company to purchase, from time to time, in the aggregate, up to $15.0 million principal amount of the Company’s 4.75% Convertible Notes and (ii) eliminate the requirement for the Company to obtain a consent from the lenders prior to consummating a Permitted Acquisition (as defined in the Credit Facility).

At December 31, 2009, the Company had $1.2 million of open letters of credit and $24.6 million of borrowings outstanding under the Credit Facility. Interest rates on outstanding borrowings at December 31, 2009 ranged from 5.75% to 6.25%. Availability under the Credit Facility at December 31, 2009 was $49.9 million (net of $15.0 million of minimum required availability). The Company has interest rate swap and collar agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $55.2 million at December 31, 2009 (see Note G). The Company entered into these agreements to effectively fix the interest rate on a portion of its borrowings under the Credit Facility.

NOTE F — CONVERTIBLE NOTES

The Company has outstanding $75.0 million aggregate principal amount of 4.75% Convertible Senior Notes due July 15, 2011 (the “Notes”). The Notes are convertible into shares of the Company’s common stock at a conversion price of $28.00 per share, subject to adjustment in certain events. The Notes bear interest at 4.75% per annum, payable semiannually in arrears on January 15th and July 15th of each year and are unsubordinated except with respect to the Company’s debt outstanding under its Credit Facility. The Company may not redeem the Notes at any time prior to maturity.

The Notes are convertible at the option of the holder anytime prior to the close of business on the business day prior to the maturity date. Upon conversion, the Company may elect to deliver either shares of the Company’s common stock, cash or a combination of cash and shares of the Company’s common stock in satisfaction of the Company’s obligations upon conversion of the Notes. At any time prior to the 26th trading day preceding the maturity date, the Company may irrevocably elect to satisfy in cash the Company’s conversion obligation with respect to the principal amount of the Notes to be converted after the date of such election, with any remaining amount to be satisfied in shares of the Company’s common stock. The election would be in the Company’s sole discretion without the consent of the holders of the Notes. The conversion rate of the Notes may be adjusted upon the occurrence of certain events that would dilute the Company’s outstanding common stock. In addition, holders that convert their Notes in connection with certain fundamental changes, such as a change in control, may be entitled to a make whole premium in the form of an increase in the conversion rate. If the Notes are not converted prior to the maturity date the Company is required to pay the holders of the Notes the principal amount of the Notes in cash upon maturity. The Company has reserved 2,678,571 shares of common stock for issuance upon conversion of the Notes.

As part of the issuance of the Notes, the Company incurred $3.1 million in underwriter’s discounts and other offering expenses. The offering costs are being amortized to interest expense over the term of the Notes. At December 31, 2009 the unamortized balance of these costs is $917,000 and is included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted the provisions of ASC Topic No. 470-20 on a retrospective basis as though the provisions were in effect at the date of issuance of the Notes in June 2006. As a result of the adoption, the Company reclassified $7.9 million (net of taxes of $2.8 million) from convertible notes to additional paid-in-capital and recorded a debt discount of $12.8 million to be amortized to interest expense over the term of the Notes. In 2008, the Company recorded a full valuation allowance against all of its deferred taxes. Accordingly, the Company increased additional paid in capital and accumulated deficit by $2.8 million to reflect the valuation allowance in the 2008 period in the accompanying statement of stockholders’ equity.

At December 31, 2009 and December 31, 2008, the carrying amounts of the debt and equity components of the Notes were as follows (in thousands):

	December 31,
	2009	2008
Carrying amount of equity component, net of tax	$10,628	$10,628
Principal amount of liability component	$75,000	$75,000
Unamortized discount	(4,473)	(7,136)
Carrying amount of debt component	$70,527	$67,864

At December 31, 2009 the remaining period over which the debt discount will be amortized is 1.5 years. The effective interest rate of the liability component was 9.02% at the date of issuance. Total interest recognized related to the Notes, including amortization of the debt discount and offering costs, was $6.8 million, $6.6 million and $6.4 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

NOTE G — DERIVATIVES

The Company has interest rate swap agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $50.0 million and interest rate collar agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $40.2 million to manage interest rate exposure related to its variable interest rate borrowings under the Credit Facility. The agreements expire in November 2010 through January 2011.

An interest rate swap agreement with a notional amount of $15.0 million and the interest rate collar agreements were designated as cash flow hedges at inception, with the effective portion of the fair value gains or losses on these agreements recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive loss. During November 2009, the interest rate collar agreements were de-designated as a cash flow hedge as a result of reductions and projected future reductions in the Company's borrowings hedged by the interest rate collar agreements. Accordingly, the Company reclassified a portion of the loss included in other comprehensive loss related to the interest rate collar agreements of $780,000, representing the ineffective portion of the hedge, to interest expense. In addition, beginning in December 2009 and through the termination of the interest rate collar agreements, the Company will amortize the remaining loss of $382,000 included in other comprehensive loss and recognize the fair value gains or losses related to the interest rate collar agreements in interest expense. The effect of recording the cash flow hedges at fair value resulted in an unrealized gain of $543,000 at December 31, 2009 and unrealized losses of $1.9 million and $203,000 (net of taxes of $170,000) for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Interest rate swap agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $35.0 million were not designated as hedges at inception and the fair value gains or losses from these swap agreements are recognized in interest expense. The effect of recording these interest rate swap agreements and the interest rate collar agreements (beginning with December 31, 2009) at fair value resulted in unrealized gains of $143,000 and $148,000 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, and an unrealized loss of $358,000 for the year ended December 31, 2007.

The fair value of the above derivatives have been obtained from the counterparties to the agreements and are based on Level 2 observable inputs using proprietary models and estimates about relevant future market conditions. The aggregate fair value of the Company's derivative instruments was a liability of $1.8 million and $2.5 million at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, and is included in accrued expenses and deferred rent & other long-term liabilities.

NOTE H — CAPITAL STOCK

Long-term incentive plan

In June 2009, the shareholders of the Company approved an amendment to the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "Plan") to increase the shares available for grant by 1,000,000 shares to 3,500,000 shares. These shares of the Company's common stock may be subject to outstanding awards granted to directors, officers, employees, consultants and service providers and affiliates in the form of stock options or other equity-based awards. The Plan authorizes the Board of Directors of the Company, or a duly appointed committee thereof, to issue incentive stock options, non-qualified options, and other stock-based awards. Options that have been granted under the Plan expire over a range of five to ten years from the date of grant and vest over a range of up to five years from the date of grant. As of December 31, 2009, there were 1,215,729 shares available for grant under the Plan. All stock options granted through December 31, 2009 under the Plan have exercise prices equal to the market values of the Company's common stock on the dates of grant.

In February 2009, two key executives of the Company irrevocably and voluntarily cancelled their options to purchase a total of 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which had a nominal fair value, in order to increase the shares available for grant under the Plan.

The aggregate intrinsic value in the table above represents the total pre-tax intrinsic value that would have been received by the option holders had all option holders exercised their stock options on December 31, 2009. The intrinsic value is calculated for each in-the-money stock option as the difference between the closing price of the Company's common stock on December 31, 2009 and the exercise price.

The total intrinsic value of stock options exercised for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 was $12,000, $10,000, and $417,000, respectively. The intrinsic value of a stock option that is exercised is calculated as the difference between the quoted market price of the Company's common stock at the date of exercise and the exercise price of the stock option multiplied by the number of shares exercised.

The Company recognized stock option expense of $2.1 million, $2.8 million, and $2.2 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively. Total unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested stock options at December 31, 2009, before the effect of income taxes, was $3.8 million and is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.37 years.

The Company values stock options using the Black-Scholes option valuation model. The Black-Scholes option valuation model, as well as other available models, was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options, which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. The Black-Scholes option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility.

Because the Company's stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate of the Company's stock options.

The weighted-average per share grant date fair value of stock options granted during the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 was $1.92, $5.05 and $8.26, respectively.

The fair value for these stock options was estimated at the date of grant using the following weighted-average assumptions:

	2009	2008	2007
Historical volatility	73%	50%	40%
Expected term (years)	4.4	4.8	5.2
Risk-free interest rate	1.92%	2.41%	4.56%
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	5.20%	1.18%

Cash dividends

The Company did not pay cash dividends on its outstanding shares of common stock during the year ended December 31, 2009. During the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, the Company paid a total annual cash dividend of $0.25 per share.

Preferred stock

The Company is authorized to issue 100 shares of Series A Preferred Stock and 2,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, none of which is outstanding at December 31, 2009.

Restricted stock

In 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company issued 33,335, 22,586 and 7,280 restricted shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock to its Board of Directors representing payment of a portion of their annual retainer. The total fair value of the restricted shares, based on the number of shares granted and the quoted market price of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, was $150,000, $172,500 and $150,000, respectively. The shares vest 100% one year from the date of grant.

Escrow shares

In 2009, the Company received back 20,436 shares of its common stock valued at $149,000 that previously had been held in escrow in connection with its 2006 acquisition of certain assets of Syratech Corporation. See Note L.

NOTE I — INCOME (LOSS) PER COMMON SHARE

Basic income (loss) per common share has been computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of shares of the Company's common stock outstanding. Diluted income (loss) per common share adjusts net income (loss) and basic income (loss) per common share for the effect of all potentially dilutive shares of the Company's common stock. The calculations of basic and diluted income (loss) per common share for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 are as follows:

	2009	2008	2007
	(in thousands - except per share amounts)
Net income (loss) - Basic	$ 2,715	$(47,755)	$ 7,529
Interest expense, net, 4.75% Convertible Senior Notes	—	—	—
Net income (loss) – Diluted	$ 2,715	$(47,755)	$ 7,529
Weighted-average shares outstanding – Basic	12,009	11,976	12,969
Effect of dilutive securities:
Stock options	66	—	130
4.75% Convertible Senior Notes	—	—	—
Weighted-average shares outstanding – Diluted	12,075	11,976	13,099
Basic income (loss) per common share	$ 0.23	$ (3.99)	$ 0.58
Diluted income (loss) per common share	$ 0.22	$ (3.99)	$ 0.57

The computations of diluted income (loss) per common share for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 excludes options to purchase 1,435,348, 2,036,650 and 1,544,000 shares of the Company's common stock, respectively, due to their antidilutive effect. The computations of diluted income (loss) per common share for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 also excludes 2,678,571 shares of the Company's common stock issuable upon the conversion of the Company's 4.75% Convertible Senior Notes and related interest expense, due to their antidilutive effect.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company has utilized the Federal net operating loss carry forward generated in the prior year. Additionally, the Company has various state net operating loss carry forwards of $12.4 million that will begin to expire in 2014. The Company has credit carryforwards of $633,000 that do not expire. Management has determined that it is not more likely than not that these assets will be realized and a valuation allowance has been established. In accordance with ASC Topic No. 740, Income Taxes, the Company has offset its total deferred tax asset with certain deferred tax liabilities that are expected to reverse in the carry forward period.

The provision (benefit) for income taxes differs from the amounts computed by applying the applicable Federal statutory rates as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2009	2008	2007
Provision (benefit) for Federal income taxes at the statutory rate	35.0%	(35.0)%	35.0%
Increases (decreases):
State and local income taxes, net of Federal income tax benefit	37.9	(3.3)	5.9
Non-deductible stock options	11.5	0.5	3.4
Non-deductible expenses	6.4	1.1	0.8
Valuation allowance	(19.3)	19.4	—
Other	6.1	(5.1)	1.5
Provision (benefit) for income taxes	77.6%	(22.4)%	46.6%

The estimated value of the Company's tax positions at December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007 is a liability of $335,000, $498,000 and $1.4 million, respectively, and consists of the following:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2009	2008	2007
		(in thousands)
Balance at January 1	$498	$1,437	$1,704
Additions based on tax positions related to the current year			36
Additions for tax positions of prior years	28	303	9
Reductions for tax position of prior years	191	1,242	312
Balance at December 31	$335	$ 498	$1,437

The Company had approximately $69,000, net of federal benefit, accrued at December 31, 2009 for the payment of interest. The Company's policy for recording interest and penalties is to record such items as a component of income taxes.

If the Company's tax positions are sustained by the taxing authorities in favor of the Company, the Company's liability would be reduced by $335,000, of which $335,000 would impact the Company's tax provision. On a quarterly basis, the Company evaluates its tax positions and revises its estimates accordingly. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that $335,000 of its tax positions will be resolved within the next twelve months.

The Company has identified the following jurisdictions as "major" tax jurisdictions: U.S. Federal, California, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey. As of December 31, 2009, the Company has settled their Federal tax examination for the periods 2006 through 2008. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. Federal income tax examinations for the years prior to 2008. The periods subject to examination for the Company's major state jurisdictions are the years ended 2006 through 2008.

NOTE K — BUSINESS SEGMENTS

Segment information

The Company operates in two reportable business segments; the wholesale segment, which is the Company's primary business that designs, markets and distributes its products to retailers and distributors, and the direct-to-consumer segment, through its Pfaltzgraff®, Mikasa® and Lifetime Sterling™ Internet websites and the Company's Pfaltzgraff® mail-order catalogs.

As more fully described in Note B, the Company ceased operating its Pfaltzgraff® and Farberware® retail outlet stores by December 31, 2008. The results of operations of certain of these stores were included in the direct-to-consumer segment during 2008.

The Company has segmented its operations in a manner that reflects how management reviews and evaluates the results of its operations. While both segments distribute similar products, the segments are distinct due to their different types of customers and the different methods used to sell, market and distribute the products. Management evaluates the performance of the wholesale and direct-to-consumer segments based on net sales and income (loss) from operations. Such measures give recognition to specifically identifiable operating costs such as cost of sales, distribution expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses. Certain general and administrative expenses, such as senior executive salaries and benefits, stock compensation, director fees and accounting, legal and consulting fees, are not allocated to the specific segments and are reflected as unallocated corporate expenses. Assets in each segment consist of assets used in its operations and acquired intangible assets. Assets in the unallocated corporate category consist of cash and tax related assets that are not allocated to the segments.

NOTE L — COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Operating leases

The Company has lease agreements for its corporate headquarters, distribution centers, showrooms and sales offices that expire through 2022. These leases generally provide for, among other things, annual base rent escalations, and additional rent for real estate taxes and other costs.

In December 2009, in connection with the Company's restructuring activities described in Note B, the Company entered into an agreement pursuant to which, among other things, the Company was released from its lease obligations for the space the Company leased in the Greenway Tech Center in York, Pennsylvania that had served as the headquarters of the Company's retail operations.

Future minimum payments under non-cancelable operating leases are as follows (in thousands):

Year ending December 31
2010	$ 12,476
2011	12,195
2012	12,448
2013	12,319
2014	12,248
Thereafter	55,921
Total	$117,607

Rental and related expenses under operating leases were $13.5 million, $23.0 million and $18.3 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Capital leases

The Company has entered into various capital lease arrangements for the leasing of equipment that is primarily utilized in its distribution centers. These leases expire through 2011 and the future minimum lease payments due under the leases are as follows (in thousands):

Year ending December 31
2010	$169
2011	94
Total minimum lease payments	263
Less: amounts representing interest	(19)
Present value of minimum lease payments	$244

The current and non-current portions of the Company's capital lease obligations at December 31, 2009 of $154,000 and $90,000, respectively, and at December 31, 2008 of $230,000 and $239,000, respectively, are included in accrued expenses, and deferred rent & other long-term liabilities, respectively.

Royalties

The Company has license agreements that require the payment of royalties on sales of licensed products, which expire through 2023. Future minimum royalties payable under these agreements are as follows (in thousands):

Year ending December 31
2010	$ 6,463
2011	5,423
2012	5,707
2013	300
2014	306
Thereafter	1,060
Total	$19,259

Legal proceedings

The Company is a defendant in various lawsuits and from time-to-time regulatory proceedings which may require the recall of its products, arising in the ordinary course of its business. Management does not expect the outcome of any of these matters, individually or collectively, to have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

In October 2007, Syratech Corporation ("Syratech") commenced an action against the Company and the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Syratech Acquisition Corporation, in the New York State Supreme Court, New York County, asserting a single cause of action for breach of contract. Syratech alleged that the Company breached the parties' asset purchase agreement by failing to file and make effective a registration statement for shares of the Company's common stock issued to Syratech for its assets. In November 2009, the Company entered into a settlement agreement and the action was dismissed. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, the Company paid Syratech $425,000.

In March 2008, the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") announced that the San Germán Ground Water Contamination site in Puerto Rico was added to the Superfund National Priorities List due to contamination present in the local drinking water supply. Wallace Silversmiths de Puerto Rico, Ltd. ("Wallace"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a Notice of Potential Liability and Request for Information Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sections 9607(a) and 9604(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, Liability Act regarding the San Germán Ground Water Contamination Superfund Site, San Germán, Puerto Rico dated May 29, 2008 from the EPA. The EPA requested that Wallace provide information regarding Wallace's occupation of the facility located in San Germán, Puerto Rico and contamination of the ground water supply. By letter dated June 18, 2008, the Company responded to the EPA's Request for Information on behalf of Wallace. The Company has engaged environmental consultants to investigate the environmental condition of the property and preliminary discussions with the EPA have been initiated. At this time, it is not possible for the Company to evaluate the outcome.

NOTE M — RETIREMENT PLANS

401(k) plan

The Company maintains a defined contribution retirement plan for eligible employees under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Participants can make voluntary contributions up to the Internal Revenue Service limit of $16,500 ($22,000 for employees 50 years or over) for 2009. During 2008 and 2007, the Company matched 50% of employee contributions up to 4% of an employee's eligible compensation. Effective January 1, 2009 the Company suspended its matching contribution as an expense savings measure. The Company made matching contributions to the 401(k) plan of $777,000 and $778,000 in 2008 and 2007, respectively.

Retirement benefit obligations

As part of the acquisition of the business and certain assets of Syratech in April 2006, the Company assumed certain obligations for retirement benefits to be payable to certain former executives of Syratech. The obligations under these agreements are unfunded. At December 31, 2009 and 2008, the total unfunded retirement benefit obligation was $3.3 million and $3.2 million, respectively, and is included in accrued expenses, and deferred rent & other long-term liabilities. During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company paid retirement benefits related to these obligations of $153,000 and $148,000, respectively. The Company expects to pay a total of $148,000 in retirement benefits related to these obligations during the year ending December 31, 2010.
