Item 1. Business

Unless the context requires otherwise, all references to "School Specialty," the "Company," "we" or "our" refer to School Specialty, Inc. and its subsidiaries. Our fiscal year ends on the last Saturday in April of each year. In this Annual Report on Form 10-K ("Annual Report"), we refer to fiscal years by reference to the calendar year in which they end (e.g., the fiscal year ended April 27, 2013 is referred to as "fiscal 2013").

Bankruptcy Filing

On January 28, 2013, School Specialty, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were jointly administered as Case No. 13-10125 (KJC) under the caption "In re School Specialty, Inc., et al." The Debtors continued to operate their business as "debtors-in-possession" under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Chapter 11 and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Company's foreign subsidiaries were not part of the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Chapter 11 Cases were filed in response to an environment of ongoing declines in school spending and a lack of sufficient liquidity, including trade credit provided by the Debtors' vendors, to permit the Debtors to pursue their business strategy to position the School Specialty brands successfully for the long term. As a result of the Chapter 11 filing, the Company's common stock was delisted from the NASDAQ Stock Market, effective March 1, 2013.

On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Reorganization Plan"), and a corrected copy of such order was entered by the Bankruptcy Court on June 3, 2013. The Reorganization Plan, which is described in additional detail below, became effective on June 11, 2013 (the "Effective Date"). Pursuant to the Reorganization Plan, on the Effective Date, the Company's existing credit agreements, outstanding convertible subordinated debentures, equity plans and certain other agreements were cancelled. In addition, all outstanding equity interests of the Company that were issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date were cancelled on the Effective Date. Also on the Effective Date, in accordance with and as authorized by the Reorganization Plan, the Company reincorporated in Delaware and issued a total of 1,000,004 shares of Common Stock of the reorganized Company to holders of certain allowed claims against the Debtors in exchange for such claims. As of June 12, 2013, there were 60 record holders of the new common stock of the reorganized Company issued pursuant to the Reorganization Plan.

The Reorganization Plan

General

The Reorganization Plan generally provided for the payment in full in cash on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date of specified claims, including:

- All claims (the "DIP Financing Claims") under the Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the "ABL DIP Agreement") by and among Wells Fargo Capital Finance, LLC (as Administrative Agent, Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner) and GE Capital Markets, Inc. (as Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner and Syndication Agent), General Electric Capital Corporation (as syndication agent), the lenders party to the ABL DIP Facility (as defined below), and the Company and certain of its subsidiaries;
- Certain pre-petition secured claims;
- All claims relating to the costs and expenses of administering the Chapter 11 Cases; and
- All priority claims.

In addition, the Reorganization Plan generally provides for the treatment of allowed claims against, and equity interests in, the Debtors as follows:

- The lenders under the Senior Secured Super Priority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the “Ad Hoc DIP Agreement”) by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries, U.S. Bank National Association, as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent and the lenders party thereto were entitled to receive (i) cash in an approximate amount of $98.3 million, and (ii) 65% of the common stock of the reorganized Company;
- Each holder of an allowed general unsecured claim is entitled to receive a deferred cash payment equal to 20% of such allowed claim, plus interest, on the terms described in the Reorganization Plan;
- Each holder of an unsecured claim arising from the provision of goods and/or services to the Debtors in the ordinary course of its pre-petition trade relationship with the Debtors, with whom the reorganized Debtors continue to do business after the Effective Date, is entitled to receive a deferred cash payment equal to 20% of such claim, plus interest, on the terms described in the Reorganization Plan. Such holders may increase their percentage recoveries to 45%, plus interest, by electing to provide the reorganized Debtors with customary trade terms for a specified period, as described in the Reorganization Plan;
- Each holder of the Company’s 3.75% Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2026, as further described elsewhere in this report, received its pro rata share of 35% of the common stock of the reorganized Company;
- Each holder of an allowed general unsecured claim or allowed trade unsecured claim of $3,000 or less, or any holder of a general unsecured claim or trade unsecured claim in excess of $3,000 that agreed to voluntarily reduce the amount of its claim to $3,000 under the terms described in the Reorganization Plan, was entitled to receive a cash payment equal to 20% of such allowed claim on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date; and
- Holders of equity interests in the Company prior to the Effective Date, including claims arising out of or with respect to such equity interests, were not entitled to receive any distribution under the Reorganization Plan.

Exit Facilities

As of the Effective Date, the Debtors closed on the exit credit facilities, the proceeds of which were or will be, among other things, used to (i) pay in cash the DIP Financing Claims, to the extent provided for in the Reorganization Plan, (ii) make required distributions under the Reorganization Plan, (iii) satisfy certain Reorganization Plan-related expenses, and (iv) fund the reorganized Company’s working capital needs. The terms of the exit credit facilities are described under Item 7, Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, below.

Equity Interests

As mentioned above, all shares of the Company’s common stock outstanding prior to the Effective Date were cancelled and extinguished as of the Effective Date. In accordance with the Reorganization Plan, on the Effective Date, the reorganized Company issued the new common stock, subject to dilution pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan (as defined and described below). The Company issued 1,000,004 shares of new common stock on the Effective Date pursuant to the Reorganization Plan, which constitutes the total number of shares of new common stock outstanding immediately following the Effective Date, subject to dilution pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan.

On the Effective Date, equity interests in the Company’s U.S. subsidiaries were deemed cancelled and extinguished and of no further force and effect, and each reorganized subsidiary was deemed to issue and distribute the new subsidiary equity interests. The ownership and terms of such new subsidiary equity interests in the reorganized subsidiaries are the same as the ownership and terms of the equity interests in these subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Reorganization Plan.

Reincorporation in Delaware; Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

On the Effective Date, the Company was reincorporated as a Delaware corporation. Prior to the Effective Date, the Company caused a new wholly owned subsidiary to be formed in Delaware. On the Effective Date, the Company entered into a plan of merger with the Delaware subsidiary, providing for the Company to merge with and into the Delaware subsidiary, so that the Company's separate corporate existence as a Wisconsin corporation ceased and the Delaware subsidiary was the surviving corporation. The certificates of incorporation of the reorganized Company and its reorganized subsidiaries were amended to be consistent with the provisions of the Reorganization Plan and the Bankruptcy Code, including the prohibition of issuance of nonvoting equity securities only for so long as, and to the extent that, the issuance of nonvoting equity securities is prohibited by the Bankruptcy Code. The reorganized Company was authorized to issue the new common stock for distribution in accordance with the terms of this Reorganization Plan and the amended certificate of incorporation without the need for any further corporate or shareholder action.

Appointment of Senior Executive Officers and Directors

Pursuant to the Reorganization Plan, on the Effective Date, the terms of the directors and managers of the board of directors or board of managers of the Debtors expired and such directors and managers were deemed removed from such boards. The initial board of directors of the reorganized Company is comprised of four members, including:

- Michael P. Lavelle, the Company's Chief Executive Officer; and
- Three directors, including Madhu Satyanarayana, Justin Lu and James R. Henderson, as designated by the three largest lenders under the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement.

All of the other lenders under the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement had the right to designate an additional director under the Reorganization Plan. These lenders determined not to exercise their right, and have requested that the board of directors designate the additional director at its discretion.

On the Effective Date, the officers of each of the reorganized Company and subsidiaries were appointed in accordance with the provisions of the new organizational documents.

On July 22, 2013 the Company entered into a Transition and Separation Agreement and Mutual General Release (the "Transition Agreement") with Mr. Lavelle, pursuant to which Mr. Lavelle resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and as a member of the board of directors of the Company, effective as of such date after August 2, 2013 as determined by the board of directors, but not later than September 1, 2013. The effective date is expected to be August 9, 2013. As discussed in more detail in Item 10, Directors, Executive Officers and corporate Governance, because of the resignation of Mr. Lavelle, the board of directors appointed James R. Henderson to serve as interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Restructuring

The Reorganization Plan provided as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, that the reorganized Company and subsidiaries may simplify and rationalize their corporate structures by eliminating certain entities deemed no longer essential. As of the date hereof, the Company has not eliminated any such entities.

Management Incentive Plan

The Reorganization Plan provides that, following the Effective Date, the board of directors of the reorganized Company will determine the terms of an incentive plan (a "Management Incentive Plan") permitting the reorganized Company to grant participating employees, officers and directors of the reorganized Company shares of common stock of the reorganized Company and/or options to acquire shares of common stock, and/or to provide such participating employees, officers and directors with such other consideration, including cash bonuses, as the new board of directors may determine.

Company Overview

School Specialty is a leading education company serving the pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade (“preK-12”) market with innovative and value-added instructional solutions that address a broad spectrum of educational needs, from basic school supplies to standards-based curriculum solutions. The Company offers its products through two operating groups: Accelerated Learning and Educational Resources. Accelerated Learning provides core and supplemental curriculum programs that help educators deepen students’ subject matter understanding and accelerate the speed of learning. This group intends to expand its portfolio of instructional programs, combining print-based and digital instructional and assessment tools to deliver value to educators and build competitive advantages in the marketplace. We believe the Educational Resources group offers educators the broadest range and deepest assortment of basic school supplies, supplemental learning products, classroom equipment and furniture available from a single supplier. That positioning creates competitive advantages in the ability to aggregate products and deliver materials in cross curricular and educational category kits. The group further differentiates itself through proprietary product development activities that result in innovative approaches to early childhood and student learning.

Across both groups, we reach our customers through a sales force of approximately 497 professionals, 8.9 million catalogs, and our proprietary e-commerce websites. In fiscal 2013, we believe we sold products to approximately 70% of the estimated 130,000 schools in the United States and we believe we reached a majority of the 3.8 million teachers in those schools. For fiscal 2013 we generated revenues of $675.0 million.

The following is a more complete description of our two operating groups, or segments. Financial information about our segments, as well as geographic information, is included in Note 16 under Item 8, Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

Accelerated Learning Segment. Our Accelerated Learning segment is a preK-12 curriculum-based publisher of proprietary and nonproprietary products and services supporting the following areas:

- Science
- Math
- Reading and Math Intervention
- Planning and Student Development
- Coordinated School Health

Products in our Accelerated Learning segment are typically sold to teachers, curriculum specialists and other educators with direct responsibility for advancing student outcomes.

Accelerated Learning develops standards-based curriculum products, supplemental curriculum materials, instructional programs and student assessment tools. Its offerings are both comprehensive and targeted to address specific learning needs, drive improved student performance, engage learners and accelerate the learning process. A team of more than 50 product development associates create and work with an impressive stable of outside developers, authors, co-publishing strategic partners and consultants to develop educational products and solutions that satisfy curriculum standards and improve classroom teaching effectiveness.

Our product portfolio is guided by K-12 curriculum standards, which can vary by state, but there is a consistency that allows for the creation of nationally marketed programs with the occasional customized development of state-specific curriculum solutions. We believe our Accelerated Learning operating segment provides a broad collection of educational programs that effectively combines supplemental curriculum solutions, academic planning and organization, inquiry based (hands-on) learning, comprehensive learning kits, extensive performance assessments, and consultant-led or web-delivered teacher training.

Our Accelerated Learning segment product lines include Premier Agendas™, Delta Education®, FOSS®, CPO Science™, Frey Scientific®, Educator's Publishing Service®, Academy of Reading®, Wordly Wise 3000®, ThinkMath!™, Making Connections®, S.P.I.R.E.® and SPARK®. Our Accelerated Learning products and services accounted for approximately 26% of our revenues in fiscal 2013.

Educational Resources Segment. Our Educational Resources segment provides supplemental educational materials to educators in the preK-12 market. Products include a comprehensive line of everyday consumables and instructional materials and furniture and equipment. Educational Resources products are marketed using a category management structure that focuses on customer segments within three primary product categories: Administrator, Educator and Furniture.

- The Administrator category offers basic classroom supplies, office products, janitorial and sanitation supplies, school equipment, technology products and paper.
- The Educator category includes supplemental learning materials, teaching resources, art supplies, early childhood products, physical education equipment and special needs equipment and classroom technology.
- The Furniture category includes classroom furniture, library furniture, cafeteria furniture, office furniture, fixed furniture such as bleachers and lockers, as well as construction and project management services.

We believe Educational Resources offers the broadest range and deepest assortment of basic school supplies, supplemental learning products, classroom equipment and furniture available from a single supplier. It also differentiates its offerings through proprietary product development that results in innovative instructional tools and service solutions for the education marketplace. Its ability to provide offerings across a broad range of educational categories, aggregate school purchases, and offer a suite of value-added professional services helps save school administrators' time and money by providing solutions to supply chain issues, back-to-school logistics and construction management services.

Educational Resources products include both proprietary branded products and national brands. The segment's well-known proprietary brands include Education Essentials®, Sportime®, Childcraft®, Sax® Arts & Crafts, Califone®, abc®, Abilitations®, School Smart®, Classroom Select® and Projects by Design®. Educational Resources products and services accounted for approximately 74% of our revenues for fiscal 2013.

School Specialty, Inc., founded in October 1959, was acquired by U.S. Office Products in May 1996. In June 1998, School Specialty was spun-off from U.S. Office Products in a tax-free transaction. In August 2000, we reincorporated from Delaware to Wisconsin. In accordance with the Reorganization Plan, in June 2013, the Company was reincorporated in Delaware. Our principal offices are located at W6316 Design Drive, Greenville, Wisconsin 54942, and our telephone number is (920) 734-5712. Our general website address is www.schoolspecialty.com. Industry Overview

The United States preK-12 education market is a large industry that has historically exhibited attractive and stable growth characteristics, despite fluctuations in the U.S. economy. For example, during the recessions of 1981-1983, 1991-1992 and 2001-2002, preK-12 education funding in the United States grew at compound annual growth rates ("CAGRs") of 5.3%, 5.0% and 4.7%, respectively. However, the significant downturn in the general economy from 2008 through 2013 has had a major impact on all sectors of the economy, including education.

Public education funding for school districts with over 15,000 students typically comes from three major sources: state funding which provides about 47%, local funding which provides about 43% and federal funding which provides about 10%. The ongoing pressure on state budgets has negatively impacted school funding and, in turn, school spending has been much more severely affected than in prior recessions. In addition, local tax revenues have been dramatically affected by lower property tax receipts, further restricting educational spending.

Over the long term, we expect total educational expenditures (excluding capital outlays and interest on debt) to stabilize and then rise when state and local funding returns to more normalized levels. While recent macroeconomic events have created an unprecedented reduction in school budgets, spending per student and student enrollment are the two primary drivers of future education expenditures, and each is predicted to rise over the next nine years. According to the National Center for Education Statistics, public and private preK-12 enrollment is projected to rise from 54.9 million in 2012-13 school year to 57.9 million by the 2020-21 school year. Total public school enrollment is projected to increase each year from 2013 to 2020.

Our focus within the United States preK-12 education market is on supplemental educational products, equipment and standards-based curriculum in targeted subject areas. Our customers are teachers, curriculum specialists, individual schools and school districts who purchase products and instructional solutions for school and classroom use. We estimate that our addressable market for supplemental educational products, equipment and curriculum has generally tracked education funding and currently is approximately $6 billion to $7 billion.

The supplemental educational products and equipment market is highly fragmented with over 3,000 retail and wholesale companies providing products and equipment, a majority of which are family- or employee-owned, regional companies that generate annual revenues under $10 million. The standards-based curriculum market is highly competitive and School Specialty competes with several large, well-known education companies as well as smaller, niche companies. Curriculum purchases are heavily influenced by state-adoption calendars and open territory states, which are those states that do not follow adoption calendars.

We believe the increasing customer demands for single source suppliers, prompt order fulfillment and competitive pricing are acting as catalysts for industry consolidation. In addition, we believe these factors are more important in today's economic environment, since school districts are moving toward increased centralization of their purchasing decision-making. This includes an increasing portion of school spending that is done through large purchasing cooperatives. We believe these changes should drive growth in the demand for curriculum- and age-focused instructional and educational products. We believe that in the long-term, these industry trends will have a favorable competitive impact on our business, and that we are well positioned to utilize our operational capabilities, recognized brands, respected educational content and curriculum development expertise, and broad product offering to meet evolving customer demands.

Recent Acquisitions

We have acquired two businesses since fiscal 2008:

Fiscal 2011

Telex. On April 4, 2011, we completed the acquisition of a portion of the operating assets of Telex, a division of Bosch Security Systems, Inc., for an aggregate purchase price of $0.4 million. The assets acquired relate to Telex's distribution of headphones, earphones, headsets, and their replaceable cords used in the education marketplace. The earphone and headphone models acquired included the Discovery, Odyssey, Explorer and 610 models. This business has been integrated into the Company's Califone business unit within the Educational Resources segment.

Fiscal 2010

AutoSkill International, Inc. On August 19, 2009, we completed the acquisition of AutoSkill International, Inc. (“AutoSkill”) for an aggregate purchase price of $12 million. AutoSkill is a leading education technology company that provides educators with reading and math intervention solutions for struggling students. This business has been integrated into the Company’s Educator’s Publishing Service business within the Accelerated Learning segment.

Competitive Strengths

We attribute our strong competitive position to the following key factors:

A Market Leader in Fragmented Industry. We are one of the largest providers of supplemental educational products and equipment to the preK-12 education markets in the United States and Canada. Within our industry, there are over 3,000 retail and wholesale competitors, a majority of which are family or employee-owned, regional companies that generate annual revenues under $10 million. We believe that our scale and scope of operations relative to our education competitors provide several competitive advantages, including a broader product offering, advantageous purchasing power, a national distribution network and the ability to manage the seasonality and peak shipping requirements of the school purchasing cycle.

Largest Product Offering and Premier Brands. With over 75,000 items ranging from classroom supplies, furniture and playground equipment, and standards-based curriculum solutions, we believe we are the only national provider of a broad range of supplemental educational products and equipment to meet substantially all of the needs of schools and teachers in the preK-12 education market. Our breadth of offerings creates opportunities to repurpose or repackage traditional supplemental materials with supplemental curriculum solutions into kits or groups of related items that our customers value. In addition, we believe we have many of the most established brands in the industry that are recognized by educators across the country, with some brands more than 100 years old. We believe that the brand loyalty our products enjoy represents a significant competitive advantage. In addition, approximately 40% of our revenues are derived from our proprietary products, many of which are curriculum-based, which typically generate higher margins than our non-proprietary products.

Strong Customer Reach and Relationships. We have developed a highly integrated, three-tiered sales and marketing approach which we believe provides us with an unparalleled ability to reach teachers and curriculum specialists as well as school district and individual school administrators. We reach our customers through the industry’s largest sales force of approximately 497 professionals, catalog mailings and our proprietary e-commerce websites. In fiscal 2013, we estimate that we sold products to approximately 70% of the estimated 130,000 schools in the United States and reached a majority of the 3.8 million teachers in those schools. We utilize our extensive customer databases to selectively target the appropriate customers for our catalog offerings. Additionally, we have invested heavily in the development of our e-commerce websites, which provide broad product offerings and which we believe generate higher internet sales than many of our education competitors. Revenues derived directly from internet sales, which were approximately 21.3% of our sales in fiscal 2013 compared to less than 17% of our sales in fiscal 2009, have increased as more school districts and teachers go online to order supplies.

Highly Diversified Business Mix. Our broad product portfolio and geographic reach minimize our concentration and exposure to any one school district, state, product or supplier. In fiscal 2013, our top 10 school district customers collectively accounted for less than 10% of revenues and our customers within any one state collectively accounted for less than 10% of revenues. For the same period, our top 100 products accounted for less than 11% of revenues. Products from our top 10 suppliers generated less than 21% of revenues in fiscal 2013. We believe this diversification somewhat limits our exposure to state and local funding cycles and to product demand trends.

Strong Repeat Business. Over 70% of our revenues are generated from the sale of consumable products, which typically need to be replaced each school year. We continue to maintain strong relationships with schools, school districts and other customers and believe our customer retention rate is over 90% in a highly competitive business.

Strong Cost Controls and Focus on Working Capital. Despite our revenue declines in recent years, we believe our focus on cost reductions and aggressive management of working capital, are positioning the Company to capitalize on future revenue growth when the economy and school funding return to more normal levels. We continue to focus on growing revenues within our Accelerated Learning and Educational Resources segments, increasing our mix of proprietary products and improving our operations. We also enjoy highly predictable working capital cycles.

Focus on Growth Opportunities through Transformation Initiatives and Partnerships. In addition, we believe we have multiple long term revenue growth and margin improvement opportunities, including enhancing our sales efforts in under-penetrated states, expanding our private-label business, further developing our educational curriculum and technology offerings, increasing sourcing from overseas, optimizing direct marketing operations, increasing supply chain efficiency and expanding our product line through strategic extensions. We are actively pursuing partnering opportunities for content development and distribution. We also believe our movement toward organizing around product and customer categories has better synchronized our go-to-market strategies, product development efforts and supplier relationships.

Growth Strategy

We are in the process of implementing a strategy to turnaround the Company and are focused on four immediate priorities and objectives:

- Targeting investments that will best capitalize on growth opportunities and increase EBITDA;
- Building product management and marketing capabilities to transform the organization;
- Identifying and exiting product lines with inadequate returns; and
- Driving a change in culture that focuses on accountability and organic growth.

The Company's long term initiatives are intended to enhance organic growth, improve margins, and evaluate capital investments and allocation. Those initiatives are based on five major themes, including:

- Improving product management and market focus;
- Optimizing our business;
- Improving the customer experience;
- Expanding into new markets; and
- Improving communication.

Organic Growth. We are focused on growing revenues and profits from our existing product lines and possible line extensions. We are cautiously optimistic that schools are at or near the bottom of funding levels. As schools begin the slow return to more normalized spending we plan to increase our share of this spending and organically grow our revenues in the long-term by:

- Optimizing product quality and market focus within the higher margin business;
- Unifying and aligning our marketing efforts;
- Enhancing the usability of our website and our web-based marketing initiatives;

- Developing new curriculum, supplemental learning and technology solutions in response to industry trends and educator needs;
 - Increasing our focus and selling resources in under-penetrated states and districts; and
 - Seeking new channels for growth, such as expanding our relationships with both large purchasing cooperatives, third party internet resources and international partners.

Margin Improvement. As we grow our revenues, we plan to increase margins by:

- Continuing to expand our private label business through the introduction of new products;
- Increasing the efficiency and speed of delivery for products sourced from low-cost, overseas manufacturers;
- Improving efficiencies of our supply chain activities, and driving overall efficiencies through our company-wide, lean-based process improvement program;
- Evaluating the benefits of consolidation of distribution centers and eliminating of redundant expenses; and
- Utilizing our purchasing scale to negotiate favorable supplier terms and conditions.

Evaluation of Capital Investment and Allocation: We are in the process of a major review of all of our product lines and businesses to determine those with unacceptable or inadequate profitability, while simultaneously analyzing the appropriate solution to maximize our returns, either from disposition or further capital investment. We expect to finalize this analysis by the end of fiscal 2014.

Product Lines

We market two broad categories of supplemental educational products and equipment: Accelerated Learning products and Educational Resources products. Our Accelerated Learning products enrich our Educational Resources product offering and create opportunities to cross merchandise our Accelerated Learning products, many of which are proprietary, to our Educational Resources customers.

Our Accelerated Learning offerings are focused in the following areas:

Planning and Student Development: We believe we are the largest provider of planning and student development content in the United States and Canada, which is delivered through student agendas. Our offerings are focused on developing better personal, social and organizational skills, as well as serving as an effective tool for students and parents to track and monitor their daily activities, assignments and achievements. Many of our agendas are customized at the school level to include each school's academic, athletic and extra-curricular activities. Our agendas are primarily marketed under the Premier™ brand name. We are also a leading publisher of school forms, including record books, grade books, teacher planners and other printed forms under the brand name Hammond & Stephens™.

Science: Our leading science position, largely comprised of highly recognized proprietary or exclusive offerings, provides learning resources focused on promoting scientific education and inquiry, literacy and achievement to the preK-12 education market. Our products range from laboratory supplies, equipment and furniture to highly effective hands-on learning curriculums. Our science brands include FOSS ® (Full Option Science System), Frey Scientific®, Delta Science Modules™, Delta Education®, CPO Science™, and Neo/SCI®.

Literacy & Intervention: Our reading and math intervention programs, which are standards- and curriculum-based products, are focused on providing educators and parents effective tools to encourage and enhance literacy and mathematics skills, serving the K-12 grade levels. Educator's Publishing Service (EPS) provides tailored reading and language arts instruction for students with special needs and proprietary instructional materials for educators. Our Academy of Reading[®] and Academy of Math[®] products offer comprehensive reading, math and response to intervention solutions to help K-12 schools close the achievement gap for students who fall below proficiency benchmarks. Our print and technology resources combine to meet the instructional needs of students possessing learning disabilities or are at risk for reading and math failure.

Coordinated School Health: We offer proven, research-based physical education and health solutions such as SPARK[®], which is a curriculum- and product-based program focused on promoting healthy, active lifestyles and combating childhood obesity. Each SPARK program provides a coordinated package of curriculum, on-site teacher training, and content-matched equipment from our Sportime[®] product line. The program maximizes physical activity during physical education classes by providing teachers with alternative games, dances and sports that ensure all students are actively engaged and learning.

Our Educational Resources offerings are focused in the following areas:

Administrator Category: We believe we are the largest marketer of school and classroom supplies into the school market. Through our School Specialty Educational Resources catalogs, which offer both national brands and many of our proprietary School Smart[®] products, we provide an extensive offering of basic supplies that are consumed in the school and classrooms. This offering includes office products, classroom supplies, janitorial and sanitation supplies, school equipment, technology and paper. These products are commodity based and require efficient supply chain, distribution and logistics expertise to be competitive. As a result of our large distribution network and supply chain expertise position, our customers view us as a preferred supplier in the Administrator category. Our School Smart private label brand products are primarily sourced direct from low-cost, overseas manufacturers, which we believe will allow us to enhance our product offering and improve profitability. Our School Smart brand is also represented in many of our Accelerated Learning offerings.

Educator Category: We believe we are the largest marketer of educator supplies and learning materials. Our Educator category includes art supplies, supplemental learning materials (reading, social studies, math and science), teaching resources, physical education equipment and classroom technology. Innovation, proprietary products, brand strength and direct merchandising are key success factors. These product offerings create opportunity for margin enhancement through innovation and unique assortments. The products in the Educator category serve the following areas:

Early Childhood. Our early childhood offering provides educators of young children with products that promote learning and development. Our full-line, highly proprietary offering provides educators with everything from advanced literacy and dramatic play to manipulatives, and basic arts and crafts. We manufacture award-winning early childhood wood furniture in our Bird-in-Hand Woodworks[®] facility. Our well-known early childhood brands include Childcraft[®] and abc[®].

Arts Education. Our leading market position is led by Sax[®] Arts & Crafts, which offers products and programs focused on nurturing creativity and self-expression through hands-on learning. The product line ranges from original cross-curricular lesson plans and teaching resource materials to basic art materials, such as paints, brushes and papers. Our arts education group is supported by our team of art consultants who proactively serve the education process locally and nationally by conducting workshops and providing curriculum assistance to art educators.

Physical Education & Health. We offer a full range of programs, solutions, resources and equipment designed to help improve student and staff wellness. Our products, which are primarily offered under our Sportime[®] brand, range from traditional sports equipment to unique and innovative products designed to encourage participation by all.

Special Learning Needs. We offer a full range of solutions for children with special learning needs through our Abilitations[®] and Integrations[®] product lines. Our proprietary solutions and products are designed to help educate children with learning, behavioral, sensory or physical differences and are focused on helping educators and therapists make a real difference in a child's life.

Audio Technology. We believe we are the leading provider of educator-inspired quality audio technology products, including state-of-the-art multi-media, audio visual and presentation equipment for the preK-12 education market. These products are marketed under the brand name Califone®.

Furniture Category: We believe we are the largest source for school furniture in the United States, offering a full range of school-specific furniture and equipment. Our offering allows us to equip an entire facility, refurbish a specific location within a school, such as a cafeteria, gymnasium or media center, or to replace individual items such as student desks and chairs. We launched a product line of proprietary furniture under our Classroom Select® brand. This offering is a highly functional and outstanding quality classroom furniture line. We also have been granted exclusive franchises for certain furniture lines in specific territories. In addition, we offer our proprietary service, Projects by Design®, which provides turn-key needs assessment, budget analysis and project management for new construction projects.

Our product development managers apply their extensive education industry experience to design curriculum- and age-specific products to enhance the learning experience. New product ideas are reviewed with customer focus groups and advisory panels comprised of educators to ensure new offerings will be well received and meet an educational need.

Our merchandising managers, many of whom were educators, continually review and update the product lines for each business. They determine whether current offerings are attractive to educators and anticipate future demand. The merchandising managers also travel to product fairs and conventions seeking out new product lines. This annual review process results in a constant reshaping and expansion of the educational materials and products we offer.

Sales and Marketing

Supplemental educational product procurement decisions are generally made at the classroom level by teachers and curriculum specialists and at the district and school levels by administrators. The Company currently has an expansive sales force that sells our products at the classroom, school and district level to educators nation-wide.

Our Accelerated Learning segment sales and marketing approach utilizes a field sales force of more than 220 professionals, supported by about 50 inside sales associates. The sales coverage is nationwide, with the largest student populated states served by a larger contingent of sales professionals. The field and inside sales associates are supported by 21 targeted catalogs and our brand-specific websites to deliver premium educational products to teachers and curriculum specialists.

Generally, for each Accelerated Learning product line, a major catalog containing its full product offering is distributed near the end of the calendar year and during the course of the year we mail additional supplemental catalogs. Schools, teachers and curriculum specialists can also access websites for product information and purchasing. Further, we believe that by cross-marketing our Accelerated Learning brands to Educational Resources customers, we can achieve substantial incremental sales.

Our Educational Resources segment sales and marketing approach utilizes a sales force of about 300 professionals, approximately 55 distinct catalog titles, and School Specialty Online[®], an e-commerce solution that enables us to tailor our product offerings and pricing to individual school districts and school administrators. In addition, by reorganizing using category management principles Educational Resources has targeted three primary product categories with specific customer characteristics: Administrator, Educator, and Furniture.

In the Administrator category, we leverage our national sales force, the largest distribution network in the market, and our supply chain expertise to reduce our customers' cost of acquisition in the most commonly purchased, highest volume commodity items used by schools. In the Educator category, we market our products through direct marketing channels. We compete by offering deep assortments in the most commonly purchased products, by leveraging our size to reduce product costs, and by driving customer retention and acquisition through sophisticated database analytics. In the Furniture category, our unique Projects by Design[®] service gives us significant competitive advantages by providing customers with value-added construction management support, from interior design through installation and field support. In the non-construction segment of furniture, we capitalize on relationship selling through the largest direct sales force in the market.

Schools typically purchase supplemental educational products based on established relationships with relatively few vendors. We seek to establish and maintain these critical relationships by assigning accounts within a specific geographic territory to a local area account manager who is supported by a centrally located customer service team. The account managers frequently call on existing customers to ascertain and fulfill their supplemental educational resource needs. The customer service representatives maintain contact with these customers throughout the order cycle and assist in order processing.

We have a national sales, marketing, distribution and customer service structure. We believe that this structure significantly improves our effectiveness through better sales management, resulting in higher regional penetration and significant cost savings through the reduction of distribution centers.

Projects by Design. Projects by Design[®] is a service we provide our customers free of charge to aid in the design, building and renovation of schools. Our professional designers prepare a detailed analysis of the building and individual classrooms to optimize the layout of student and teacher desks, student lockers and other classroom equipment and fixtures. Customers have the ability to view prospective classrooms through our innovative software in order to efficiently manage the project. We believe this service makes us an attractive alternative to other furniture and school fixture suppliers.

Internet Operations. Our internet channel activities through School Specialty Online are focused on enhancing customer loyalty, driving down cost by receiving more orders electronically and creating a full customer self-service portal. Our brands are available through School Specialty Online which allows our customers a single access point for purchasing. Our systems provide functionality to meet the specific needs of school districts and school customers, who generally purchase Educational Resources products, as well as the needs of individual teachers and curriculum specialists, who tend to buy Accelerated Learning products. School Specialty Online allows our customers to manage funding through the use of purchase order spending limitation, approval workflows, order management and reporting. In addition, we offer schools and districts the ability to fully integrate their procurement systems with School Specialty Online, which gives us another important link to our customers and a significant competitive advantage. It also includes other features that are more helpful to teachers, curriculum specialists and others with more sophisticated online ordering needs, including product search, custom catalogs and email notification, allowing users to have access to the full line of School Specialty products. We have maintained an electronic ordering system for the past 20 years and offer e-commerce solutions directed exclusively at the education market. Each of our Accelerated Learning product lines has a dedicated website for its own products. We also continue to explore expanding our offerings provided through third party internet sources. As such, we have added a channel agreement with Amazon.com under which we have created our own branded storefront within the office and school segment of Amazon.com shopping portal. We believe that this channel will allow us to reach educators and segments of the education space that we did not reach previously.

Pricing. Pricing for our Accelerated Learning and Educational Resources product offerings varies by product and market channel. We generally offer a negotiated discount from catalog prices for products from our Educational Resources catalogs, and respond to quote and bid requests. The pricing structure of proprietary Accelerated Learning products offered through direct marketing is generally less subject to negotiation.

Procurement

Non-Proprietary Products. Each year, we add new items to our catalogs. We purchase and stock these items before the catalogs are released so that we can immediately satisfy customer demand. We typically negotiate annual supply contracts with our vendors. Contracts with larger vendors usually provide negotiated pricing and/or extended terms and often include volume discounts and rebate programs. We have exclusive distribution rights on several furniture and equipment lines.

Proprietary Products. We develop many proprietary products and generally outsource the manufacturing of these items. We purchase non-proprietary Accelerated Learning products in a similar manner to that of our purchasing process for Educational Resources products. In fiscal 2010, we signed an agreement for the exclusive manufacture of our proprietary Classroom Select® furniture lines in China.

Global Sourcing. We are decreasing our product unit costs by consolidating our international supplier network. We are also improving product quality by being very selective in our off-shore alliances. Working in conjunction with our supply partners, we have streamlined our international procurement process, gained real-time visibility, added in-process checks, and established new systems and procedures to ensure product safety.

Private Label Product. We launched the School Smart brand in 2005. Since that time we have focused our strategy on providing a private brand alternative for educators, using a combination of off-shoring and out-sourcing of products. In fiscal 2013 our revenue for School Smart branded products was approximately $60.8 million. We continue to seek opportunities to optimize the balance of branded and private brand products and we believe that there are additional opportunities to grow sales through new products, product line extensions and new product configurations.

We maintain close and stable relationships with our vendors to facilitate a streamlined procurement process. At the same time, we continually review alternative supply sources in an effort to improve quality and customer satisfaction and reduce product cost. Increasingly, transactions with our vendors are processed through an electronic procurement process. This electronic process reduces costs and improves accuracy and efficiency in our procurement and fulfillment process. When more than one of our business units buys from the same vendor, we typically negotiate one contract to fully leverage our combined purchasing power.

Logistics

We believe we have one of the largest and most sophisticated distribution networks among our direct competitors with five fully automated and seamlessly integrated distribution centers, totaling approximately 1.3 million square feet of operating space. We believe this network represents a significant competitive advantage, allowing us to reach any school in a fast and efficient fashion. We have enhanced our distribution model, allowing most of our customers to receive their orders 3 to 5 days after shipment. We utilize a third-party logistics provider in Asia to consolidate inbound shipments, lowering our transportation and inventory storage costs.

In order to maintain the proprietary nature of some of our products, we operate three manufacturing facilities. Our Lancaster, Pennsylvania plant manufactures wood furniture for our early childhood offerings. The Bellingham, Washington, and Fremont, Nebraska, facilities produce products for our agenda and forms offerings. Products that we manufacture accounted for less than 10% of sales during fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011.

Information Systems

We believe that through the utilization of technology for process improvement in areas such as procurement, inventory management, customer order management, order fulfillment, and information management, we are able to offer customers more convenient and cost-effective ways to order products, improve the order fulfillment process to increase on-time and complete performance and effectively focus our sales and marketing strategies.

We have implemented a common enterprise resource planning (“ERP”) platform across the majority of our businesses. This platform has now replaced most of our existing systems and primarily includes software from Oracle’s E-Business suite. One of the major benefits from the common ERP platform is the consolidation of both product and customer information, which is designed to enhance our ability to execute our sales and marketing strategies. In addition, by utilizing common business systems across the Company, we have improved business processes, reduced cycle time and enhanced integration between the business units. We believe the technologies of the systems will readily support continued growth and integration of our existing businesses. Our distribution centers utilize interfaced warehouse management software to manage orders from our ERP and legacy systems.

Competition

The supplemental educational products and equipment market is highly fragmented with over 3,000 companies providing products and equipment, many of which are family- or employee-owned, regional companies that generate annual revenues under $10 million. We also compete, to a much lesser extent, with alternate channel competitors such as office product contract stationers, office supply superstores, purchasing cooperatives and internet-based businesses. Their primary advantages over us include size, location, greater financial resources and purchasing power. Their primary disadvantage is that their product mix typically covers a very small portion of a school’s needs (measured by volume). We believe we compete favorably with these companies on the basis of service, product offering and customer reach. The standards-based curriculum market is highly competitive and School Specialty competes with several large, well-known education companies as well as small, niche companies.

Employees

As of June 12, 2013, we had approximately 1,583 full-time employees. To meet the seasonal demands of our customers, we employ many seasonal employees during the late spring and summer months. Historically, we have been able to meet our requirements for seasonal employment. None of our employees are represented by a labor union and we consider our relations with our employees to be good.

Backlog

We had no material backlog at April 27, 2013. Our customers typically purchase products on an as-needed basis.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Annual Report which are not historical are “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements include: (1) statements made under Item 1, Business and Item 7, Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, including, without limitation, statements with respect to internal growth plans, projected revenues, margin improvement, capital expenditures and adequacy of capital resources; (2) statements included or incorporated by reference in our future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (3) information contained in written material, releases and oral statements issued by, or on behalf of, School Specialty including, without limitation, statements with respect to projected revenues, costs, earnings and earnings per share. Forward-looking statements also include statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectation of School Specialty or its officers. Forward-looking statements include statements preceded by, followed by or that include forward-looking terminology such as “may,” “should,” “believes,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “continues” or similar expressions.

All forward-looking statements included in this Annual Report are based on information available to us as of the date hereof. We do not undertake to update any forward-looking statements that may be made by or on behalf of us, in this Annual Report or otherwise. Our actual results may differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements identified above. Factors which may cause such a difference to occur include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth below.

The agreements governing our debt contain various covenants that limit our discretion in the operation of our business, could prohibit us from engaging in transactions we believe to be beneficial and could lead to the acceleration of our debt and/or an increased cost of capital.

Our existing and future debt agreements impose and may impose operating and financial restrictions on our activities. These restrictions require us to comply with or maintain certain financial tests and ratios, and restrict our ability and our subsidiaries’ ability to:

- incur additional debt;
- create liens;
- make acquisitions;
- redeem and/or prepay certain debt;
- sell or dispose of a minority equity interest in any subsidiary or other assets;
- make capital expenditures;
- make certain investments;
- enter new lines of business;
- engage in consolidations, mergers and acquisitions;
- repurchase or redeem capital stock;
- guarantee obligations;
- engage in certain transactions with affiliates; and
- pay dividends and make other distributions.

Our credit facilities also require us to comply with certain financial ratios, including a maximum total leverage ratio, a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, and minimum interest coverage ratio, as well as minimum liquidity levels at the end of each month. These restrictions may hamper our ability to operate our business or could seriously harm our business by, among other things, limiting our ability to take advantage of financing, mergers and acquisitions, and other corporate opportunities. In the event that we fail to comply with the financial ratios or minimum liquidity levels contained in our credit facilities, the lenders could elect to declare all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable and terminate all commitments to extend further credit. If the lenders accelerate the repayment of borrowings, we may not have sufficient assets to repay the amounts due. Also, should there be an event of default, or a need to obtain waivers following an event of default, we may be subject to higher borrowing costs and/or more restrictive covenants in future periods.

See the Liquidity and Capital Resources section of Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, for a more detailed discussion of the Company's projected compliance with these debt covenants.

Our common stock is currently not listed on a stock exchange or traded on any of the over-the-counter (OTC) markets, and as a result our investors do not have a meaningful degree of liquidity.

Our common stock is not currently listed on a stock exchange nor is it traded on any of the OTC markets. An investor may find it difficult or impossible to dispose of shares or obtain accurate information as to the market value of the common stock.

Our bankruptcy proceedings, which improved our capital structure and short-term liquidity position, contemplated that we would refine and implement our strategy and business plan, based upon assumptions and analyses developed by us. If these assumptions and analyses prove to be incorrect, we may be unsuccessful in executing our strategy and business plan, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operation.

Our bankruptcy proceedings, which improved our capital structure and short-term liquidity position, contemplated that we would refine and implement our strategy and business plan based upon assumptions and analyses developed by us in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors that we considered appropriate under the circumstances. Whether actual future results and developments will be consistent with our expectations and assumptions depends on a number of factors, including but not limited to (i) our ability to obtain adequate liquidity and financing sources and establish an appropriate level of debt; (ii) our ability to restore customers' confidence in our viability as a continuing entity and to attract and retain sufficient customers; (iii) our ability to retain key employees in those businesses that we intend to continue to emphasize; and (iv) the overall strength and stability of general economic conditions and, in particular, the school funding environment. The failure of any of these factors could materially adversely affect the successful execution of our strategy and business plan.

In connection with our bankruptcy proceedings, we prepared projected financial information to demonstrate to the Bankruptcy Court the feasibility of our Reorganization Plan and our ability to continue operations upon emergence from bankruptcy. The projections reflect numerous assumptions concerning anticipated future performance and prevailing and anticipated market and economic conditions that were and continue to be beyond our control and that may not materialize. Further, the projections were limited by the information available to us as of the date of their preparation, which is subject to change. Accordingly, our actual financial condition and results of operations may differ, perhaps materially, from what we have anticipated. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the results or developments contemplated by the Reorganization Plan or our strategy and business plan will occur or, even if they do occur, that they will have the anticipated effects on us and our subsidiaries or our businesses or operations. The failure of any such results or developments to materialize as anticipated could materially adversely affect the successful execution of the transactions contemplated by the Reorganization Plan or subsequent strategy and business plan. In addition, the accounting treatment required for our bankruptcy reorganization may have an impact on our results going forward.

We are highly leveraged. As of April 27, 2013, we had $374 million of total debt, and as of June 12, 2013, immediately following the Effective Date, we had $173 million of total debt. This level of debt could adversely affect our operating flexibility and put us at a competitive disadvantage.

Our level of debt and the limitations imposed on us by our credit agreements could have important consequences for investors, including the following:

- we will have to use a portion of our cash flow from operations for debt service rather than for our operations;
- we may not be able to obtain additional debt financing for future working capital, capital expenditures or other corporate purposes or may have to pay more for such financing;
- the debt under our credit agreements is at a variable interest rates, making us more vulnerable to increases in interest rates;
- we could be less able to take advantage of significant business opportunities, such as acquisition opportunities, and to react to changes in market or industry conditions;
- we will be more vulnerable to general adverse economic and industry conditions; and
- we may be disadvantaged compared to competitors with less leverage.

We expect to service our debt primarily from cash flow from operations. Our ability to service our debt obligations thus depends on our future performance, which will be affected by financial, business, economic and other factors. We are not able to control many of these factors, such as economic conditions in the markets where we operate and pressure from competitors. The cash flow we generate may not be sufficient to allow us to service our debt obligations. If we do not have sufficient capital, we may be required to refinance all or part of our existing debt, sell assets or borrow additional funds. We may not be able to take such actions on terms that are acceptable to us, if at all. In addition, the terms of our existing or future debt agreements may restrict us from adopting any of these refinancing alternatives.

The bankruptcy filing has had a negative impact on our relationships with customers, which may negatively impact our business going forward.

We have experienced reduced order volume since the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases. Although we have maintained relationships with many of our customers since our emergence from bankruptcy, we have experienced lower order volumes since the announcement of the Chapter 11 Cases. We believe that the bankruptcy negatively impacted many of our customers' perceptions of our brand and financial stability. In particular, interest in our Projects by Design[®] services and orders related to furniture and school fixtures have declined since the announcement of the Chapter 11 Cases. We attribute this trend to customer uncertainty regarding whether the Company will remain solvent for the months or years that may be required to complete the design, building and renovation of schools. Additionally, as a result of the bankruptcy, we have experienced increased backorders associated with procuring product due to liquidity constraints. The negative perception of our financial condition that was created by the bankruptcy filing may also have an effect on the terms under which some customers are willing to continue to do business with us, and could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. The impact of this customer uncertainty as to the status of the Company cannot be accurately predicted or quantified. In order to compete successfully in our markets, we will need to restore customer confidence in our brand and our Company. We are engaging in efforts intended to improve and expand our relations with our customers. We have attempted to support our position with our key customers through direct and active contact with teachers, curriculum specialists and administrators. We may not be able to successfully improve our customer relationships so that our customers will do business with us as they have in the past. The failure to increase sales volumes would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition. In addition, the delay or cancellation of material orders from, or problems at, any of our major customers could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, or financial condition.

Our inability to obtain sufficient trade credit from our vendors or other sources in a timely manner and on reasonable terms could inhibit our growth and have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our ability to pay for products is largely dependent upon the payment terms, or trade credit, that our principal vendors provide us. The payment terms are based on several factors, including (i) our recent operating results, financial position (including our level of indebtedness) and cash flows; (ii) our payment history with the vendor; (iii) the vendor's credit granting policies (including any contractual restrictions to which it is subject), our creditworthiness (as determined by various entities) and general industry conditions; (iv) prevailing interest rates; and (v) the vendors' ability to obtain credit insurance in respect of amounts that we owe. We expect to continue to rely on trade credit from our vendors to provide a significant amount of our working capital. If our vendors fail to provide us with sufficient trade credit in a timely manner, we may have to rely on other sources of financing, which may not be readily available or, if available, may not be on terms acceptable or favorable to us. Our recent bankruptcy is likely to have adversely affected our relationship with our vendors and may damage our vendors' perception of our financial position. These factors, along with any other adverse changes in any of these factors, could increase the costs of financing our inventory, limit or eliminate our ability to obtain vendor financing and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Volatility and disruptions in the global economic environment including tightening in the credit markets could heighten the risk that we may not be able to obtain trade credit or alternative sources of financing, or that to the extent we can obtain it, the terms will be unfavorable. We are engaging in efforts intended to restore and improve our relations with our vendors. To the extent we are unable to do so, the loss of key vendors could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

As a result of the Chapter 11 Cases, our historical financial information may not be indicative of our future financial performance.

Our capital structure was significantly altered under the Reorganization Plan. Under fresh-start reporting rules that apply to us upon the effective date of the Reorganization Plan, our assets and liabilities have been adjusted to fair value and our accumulated deficit has been restated to zero. Accordingly, our financial condition and results of operations subsequent to the effective date of the Reorganization Plan will not be comparable to the financial condition and results of operations reflected in our historical financial statements. It is also possible that additional restructuring and related charges may be identified and recorded in future periods. Such charges could be material to our consolidated financial position and results of operations. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Annual Report, the financial statements and other financial information contained herein do not reflect fresh start accounting adjustments.

Our net operating loss carryforwards may be limited and other tax attributes may be reduced.

The Company expects to generate a Federal net operating loss in fiscal 2014. However, in conjunction with matters that resulted in the Chapter 11 Cases and Reorganization Plan, the Company experienced a change in ownership under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. This could limit annual federal net operating loss utilization to an amount equal to the net equity value of our stock at the time of the ownership change multiplied by the federal long-term tax exempt rate.

In addition, the Company's Reorganization Plan is expected to result in a reduction of tax attributes, including net operating losses and tax attributes particularly related to goodwill and intangible assets, as a result of the cancellation of pre-bankruptcy indebtedness and obligations. The reduction of these tax attributes may result in increased tax expense in future years.

Our business depends upon the growth of the student population and school expenditures and can be adversely impacted by fixed or declining school budgets.

Our growth strategy and profitability depend in part on growth in the student population and expenditures per student in preK-12 schools. The level of student enrollment is largely a function of demographics, while expenditures per student are affected by federal, state and local government budgets. In addition, the current macroeconomic weakness has resulted in significantly reduced school budgets. In school districts in states that primarily rely on local tax proceeds for funding, significant reductions in those proceeds for any reason can restrict district expenditures and impact our results of operations. Any significant and sustained decline in student enrollment and/or expenditures per student could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Because school budgets are fixed on a yearly basis, any shift by schools in expenditures during a given fiscal year to areas that are not part of our business, such as facility operating costs and employee related expenditures, could also materially affect our business.

The negative global macroeconomic conditions could continue to impact the education funding provided by state and local governments.

The weakened economic environment has placed increased pressure on state and local government budgets, which are the primary source of school funding. The global economy is currently suffering from the effects of the latest recession which has led to a decline in consumer and business spending and confidence. This has resulted in our customers delaying or cutting school expenditures as the recession creates state and local budget deficits and uncertainty about future economic funding by state and local governments. The federal stimulus funds that were provided by the federal government to school districts helped education funding in 2009 and 2010, but these federal funds have been fully distributed and many states have not been able to replace them due to declining state revenue. Significant and sustained declines in the per student funding levels provided for in state and local budgets, and delays or decreases in spending by our customers due to concerns about potential or actual declines in funding levels, could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

A continued decline in school spending will impact our ability to maintain operating margins.

We have seen a decline in our operating margin in recent years, primarily as a result of our revenue declines, which we believe are primarily related to the continued school spending cuts. The Company will continue to aggressively pursue further cost reductions if school spending continues to decline, but the Company does not intend to cut costs in areas that it believes could have a significant impact on future revenue growth. To the extent we are unable to identify additional cost reductions that can be made consistent with our strategy and the weakness in school spending persists, our operating margin may continue to decline. Additionally, spending declines can cause schools to consider purchasing lower priced products, which will lower the Company's operating margins.

Increasing use of web-based products could affect our printed supplemental materials business.

The growth in web-based supplements could reduce the physical paper-based supplements the Company currently markets. While we continue to enhance our product lines with digital alternatives, it is possible that our paper-based products could be supplanted and/or replaced by online sources other than our own.

Increased costs and other difficulties associated with the distribution of our products would adversely affect our results of operations.

Higher than expected costs and other difficulties associated with the distribution of our products could affect our results of operations. To the extent we incur difficulties or higher-than-expected costs related to updating our distribution centers, such costs may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Any disruption in our ability to service our customers may also impact our revenues or profits.

Moreover, as we update our distribution model or change the product mix of our distribution centers, we may encounter unforeseen costs or difficulties that may have an adverse impact on our financial performance.

Our business is highly seasonal.

Because most of our customers want their school supplies delivered before or shortly after the commencement of the school year, we record most of our revenues from June to October. During this period, we receive, ship and bill the majority of orders for our products so that schools and teachers receive their products by the start of each school year. To the extent we do not sell our products to schools during the peak shipping season, many of such sales opportunities will be lost and will not be available in subsequent quarters. Our inventory levels increase in April through June in anticipation of the peak shipping season. We usually earn more than 100% of our annual net income in the first two quarters of our fiscal year and operate at a net loss in our third and fourth fiscal quarters. This seasonality causes our operating results and operating cash flows to vary considerably from quarter to quarter within our fiscal years.

If our key suppliers or service providers were unable or unwilling to provide the products and services we require, our business could be adversely affected.

We depend upon a limited number of suppliers for some of our products, especially furniture and proprietary products. We also depend upon a limited number of service providers for the delivery of our products. If these suppliers or service providers are unable or unwilling to provide the products or services that we require or materially increase their costs (especially during our peak season of June through October), our ability to deliver our products on a timely and profitable basis could be impaired and thus could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Many of our agreements with our suppliers are terminable at any time or on short notice, with or without cause, and, we cannot assure that any or all of our relationships will not be terminated or that such relationships will continue as presently in effect.

Our business is highly competitive.

The market for supplemental educational products and equipment is highly competitive and fragmented. We estimate that over 3,000 companies market supplemental educational products and equipment to schools with preK-12 as a primary focus of their business. We also face competition from alternate channel marketers, including office supply superstores, office product contract stationers, and purchasing cooperatives that have not traditionally focused on marketing supplemental educational products and equipment. Our competitors impact the prices we are able to charge and we expect to continue to face pricing pressure from our competitors in the future, especially on our commodity-type products. These competitors are likely to continue to expand their product lines and interest in supplemental educational products and equipment. Some of these competitors have greater financial resources and buying power than we do. We believe that the supplemental educational products and equipment market will consolidate over the next several years, which could increase competition in both our markets. We also face increased competition and pricing pressure as a result of the accessibility of the internet.

If any of our key personnel discontinue their role with us, our business could be adversely affected.

Our business depends to a large extent on the abilities and continued efforts of our executive officers and senior management. Since March 2013, several of our key employees, including our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Marketing Officer, have resigned. These departures could have a material adverse effect on our business. In addition, if we are unable to attract and retain other key personnel and qualified employees, our business could be adversely affected. We do not intend to maintain key man life insurance covering any of our executive officers or other members of our management.

A failure to successfully implement our business strategy could materially and adversely affect our operations and growth opportunities.

Our ability to achieve our business and financial objectives is subject to a variety of factors, many of which are beyond our control, and we may not be successful in implementing our strategy. This includes limitations due to the inability to obtain financing and/or the restrictiveness of our debt covenants. In addition, the implementation of our strategy may not lead to improved operating results. We may decide to alter or discontinue aspects of our business strategy and may adopt alternative or additional strategies due to business or competitive factors or factors not currently expected, such as unforeseen costs and expenses or events beyond our control. Any failure to successfully implement our business strategy could materially and adversely affect our results of operations and growth opportunities.

We face risks associated with our increasing emphasis on imported goods and private label products.

Increases in the cost or a disruption in the flow of our imported goods may adversely impact our revenues and profits and have an adverse impact on our cash flows. Our business strategy includes an increased emphasis on offering private label products and sourcing quality merchandise directly from low-cost suppliers. As a result, we expect to rely more heavily on imported goods from China and other countries and we expect the sale of imported goods to continue to increase as a percentage of our total revenues. To the extent we rely more heavily on the sale of private label products, our potential exposure to product liability claims may increase. In addition, our reputation may become more closely tied to our private label products and may suffer to the extent our customers are not satisfied with the quality of such products. Private label products will also increase our risks associated with returns and inventory obsolescence. Our reliance on imported merchandise subjects us to a number of risks, including: (a) increased difficulties in ensuring quality control; (b) disruptions in the flow of imported goods due to factors such as raw material shortages, work stoppages, strikes, and political unrest in foreign countries; (c) problems with oceanic shipping, including shipping container shortages; (d) economic crises and international disputes; (e) increases in the cost of purchasing or shipping foreign merchandise resulting from a failure of the United States to maintain normal trade relations with China and the other countries we do business in; (f) import duties, import quotas, and other trade sanctions; and (g) increases in shipping rates imposed by the trans-Pacific shipping cartel. If imported merchandise becomes more expensive or unavailable, we may not be able to transition to alternative sources in time to meet our demands. A disruption in the flow of our imported merchandise or an increase in the cost of those goods due to these or other factors would significantly decrease our revenues and profits and have an adverse impact on our cash flows.

Currency exchange rates may impact our financial condition and results of operations and may affect the comparability of our results between financial periods.

To the extent we source merchandise from overseas manufacturers and sell products internationally, exchange rate fluctuations could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and ability to service our U.S. dollar-denominated debt. All of our debt is in U.S. dollars while a portion of our revenue is derived from imported products and international sales. Therefore, fluctuations in the exchange rate of foreign currencies versus the U.S. dollar could impact our costs and revenues. In addition, for the purposes of financial reporting, any change in the value of the foreign currencies against the U.S. dollar during a given financial reporting period would result in a foreign currency loss or gain. Consequently, our reported earnings could fluctuate as a result of foreign exchange translation and may not be comparable from period to period.

It is difficult to forecast our revenue stream given the seasonal purchasing patterns of our customers and delays in passage of state budgets.

The seasonal purchasing patterns of our customers, the fact that our customers typically purchase products on an as-needed basis, and the lack of visibility into education funding levels if state budgets are delayed make it difficult for us to accurately forecast our revenue stream, which may vary significantly from period to period.

Financial analysts and others that may seek to project our future performance face similar difficulties. The difficulty in accurately forecasting our revenue increases the likelihood that our financial results will differ materially from any projected financial results. Any shortfall in our financial results from our, or third-party, projected results could cause a decline in the trading price of our common stock and our convertible subordinated debentures.

We may have a material amount of intangible assets which are potentially subject to impairment.

At April 27, 2013, intangible assets are expected to represent approximately 13% of our total assets on a pro forma basis using the application of fresh-start accounting. The Company is currently in the process of valuing its assets in conjunction with fresh-start accounting. Prospectively, the amount of goodwill and intangible assets may change based on the application of fresh-start accounting (except as otherwise expressly stated in this Annual Report, the financial information contained herein do not reflect fresh start accounting adjustments). We are required to evaluate whether our intangible assets have been impaired. As discussed in Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements in Item 8 of this report, the Company recorded impairment charges of $4.7 million related to indefinite-lived intangible assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2013 and $21.0 million related to indefinite-lived intangible assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2012. The impairments were determined as part of the fair value assessment of these assets.

We have a material amount of capitalized product development costs which might be written-down.

We had capitalized product development costs of $28.2 million and $27.7 million at April 27, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively, related to internally developed products, which are amortized to expense over the lesser of five years or the product's life cycle. Any changes in the estimated sales volume or life cycle of the underlying products could cause the currently capitalized costs or costs capitalized in the future to be impaired.

Our operations are dependent on our information systems.

We have integrated the operations of most of our divisions and subsidiaries, which operate on systems located at both our Greenville, Wisconsin, headquarters and our third-party hosted ERP system provider's facilities. In addition, there are divisions running legacy systems hosted at their locations. All systems rely on continuous telecommunication connections to the main computers. If any of these connections becomes disrupted, or unavailable, for an extended period of time, the disruption could materially and adversely affect our business, operations and financial performance.

Even though we have taken precautions to protect ourselves from unexpected events that could interrupt new and existing business operations and systems, we cannot be sure that fire, flood or other natural disasters would not disable our systems and/or prevent them from communicating between business segments. The occurrence of any such event could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We rely on our intellectual property in the design and marketing of our products.

We rely on certain trademarks, trade names and service names, along with licenses to use and exploit certain trademarks, trade names and service names (collectively, the "marks") in the design and marketing of some of our products. We could lose our ability to use our brands if our marks were found to be generic or non-descriptive. While no single mark is material to our business, the termination of a number of these marks could have an adverse effect on our business. We also rely on certain copyrights, patents and licenses other than those described above, the termination of which could have an adverse effect on our business.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations ("MD&A")

You should read the following discussion and analysis in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and related notes, included elsewhere in this Annual Report.

Background

We are a leading education company serving the preK-12 education market by providing products, programs and services that enhance student achievement and development to educators and schools across the United States and Canada. We offer more than 75,000 items through an innovative two-pronged marketing approach that targets both school administrators and individual teachers.

On January 28, 2013, we filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") were jointly administered as Case No. 13-10125 (KJC) under the caption "In re School Specialty, Inc., et al." We continued to operate our business as "debtors-in-possession" under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Chapter 11 and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. Our foreign subsidiaries were not part of the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Chapter 11 Cases were filed in response to an environment of ongoing declines in school spending and a lack of sufficient liquidity, including trade credit provided by our vendors, to permit us to pursue our business strategy to position the School Specialty brands successfully for the long term.

On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Reorganization Plan, and a corrected copy of the Reorganization Plan was entered by the Bankruptcy Court on June 3, 2013. The Reorganization Plan became effective on June 11, 2013 (the "Effective Date"). Pursuant to the Reorganization Plan, on the Effective Date, the Company's existing credit agreements, outstanding convertible subordinated debentures, equity plans and certain other agreements were cancelled. In addition, all outstanding equity interests of the Company that were issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date were cancelled on the Effective Date. Also on the Effective Date, in accordance with and as authorized by the Reorganization Plan, the Company reincorporated in Delaware and issued a total of 1,000,004 shares of Common Stock of the reincorporated company to holders of certain allowed claims against the Debtors in exchange for such claims. As of June 12, 2013, there were 60 record holders of the new common stock of the reorganized Company issued pursuant to the Reorganization Plan. The Reorganization Plan is described in additional detail above in Item 1, Business.

Our goal is to grow profitably as a leading provider of supplemental education products. We have experienced revenue declines in each of the last four fiscal years due primarily to the significant impact the current macroeconomic conditions have had on school spending. While we anticipate a decline in revenue in fiscal 2014 due to a combination of the macroeconomic conditions and the impact that our bankruptcy filing has had on our business, we believe revenue growth can be realized in future years. We expect to achieve this goal over the long-term through an organic growth strategy based on leveraging our strong brand names and distribution capabilities, transforming the Company's sales and marketing to a more market-centric emphasis with a balance of new customer acquisition and customer retention, and exploring partnering and licensing opportunities to provide new revenue streams. New revenue streams include exploring opportunities in areas that could expand our addressable market, such as international markets. In addition, the Company is committed to continuing to invest in its internal product development efforts in order to expand curriculum-based product offerings.

Our gross margin has decreased from 40.4% in fiscal 2011 to 39.1% in fiscal 2013. This decrease is primarily related to product mix. The Accelerated Learning segment typically has higher gross margins due to the curriculum-nature of its products. However, the revenue from the Accelerated Learning segment has declined at a faster rate than the Educational Resources segment, resulting in decreasing consolidated gross margins. Also, the year-to-year variation in state adoption revenue affects revenue from sales of Accelerated Learning products, which has an impact on gross margin between years.

In fiscal 2013 and fiscal 2012, our operating losses were $49.4 million and $95.1 million, respectively. The operating loss in fiscal 2013 is due primarily to the goodwill and intangible asset non-cash impairment charges of $45.8 million and pre-petition bankruptcy related charges of $4.7 million that the Company recorded in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The operating loss in fiscal 2012 was due primarily to the goodwill and intangible asset non-cash impairment charges of $107.5 million that the Company recorded in the third quarter of fiscal 2012. Due to the significance of the impairment charges in fiscal 2013 and 2012, the Company believes it is more meaningful to compare operating income and margin excluding these impairment charges and pre-petition bankruptcy related charges. Excluding the impact of the impairment and bankruptcy charges in fiscal 2013 and 2012, the Company's operating income was $1.1 million and $12.4 million, respectively. The Company's business results have been negatively impacted by the continued softness in the economy as well as customer uncertainty caused by the bankruptcy. Economic conditions have resulted in revenue and profitability declines as cautious spending by schools and teachers and state budget deficits have created uncertainty as to upcoming education funding levels from the states. In response to this uncertainty around education funding, anticipated reductions in spending by schools and the uncertainty of the duration of any such reduction, all of which negatively impacted our revenues, the Company initiated a significant expense-reduction plan beginning in fiscal 2010 in order to better balance expenses and product costs with potentially lower revenue. These expense-reduction plans were accomplished through a combination of facility closures, furloughs, functional department consolidations that resulted in staff reductions and improvements in our control of product costs through negotiations with some of the Company's larger vendors. These cost savings partially offset the revenue shortfall caused by the weakened economy. The Company's goal of improving operating margins also includes ongoing evaluation of selling, general and administrative expense ("SG&A") saving opportunities such as potential outsourcing relationships and an in-depth evaluation of total spending needs.

Impairments

In connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company concluded a triggering event had occurred which would more likely than not reduce the fair value of the reporting units below their carrying value. The triggering event was a combination of the declines in the Company's forecasted future years' operating results and cash flows, and the liquidity concerns and eventual default under pre-bankruptcy credit agreements. As a result of the Company's performance of the goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test as detailed below, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $41.1 million for goodwill and $4.7 million for indefinite-lived intangible assets.

Due to the triggering events identified above, the Company also performed an impairment test of its long-lived assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company compared the sum of the undiscounted cash flows during the remaining useful life of the primary asset for each identified asset group to the carrying value of the asset group. No impairment was recorded as a result of this analysis.

In connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the third quarter of fiscal 2012, the Company concluded a triggering event had occurred which required the Company to assess whether the fair values of the reporting units were below their carrying values. The triggering event was a combination of the continued decrease in the Company's market capitalization and declines in the Company's forecasted operating results and cash flows. On December 31, 2011, the Company's closing stock price was $2.50 per share compared with $14.15 per share as of May 1, 2011. As a result of the Company's performance of the goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test as detailed below, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $86.5 million for goodwill and $21.0 million for indefinite-lived intangible assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2012. See Note 8 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional discussion of the impairment charge recorded for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets.

In the first quarter of fiscal 2011, the Company performed its annual impairment test of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets. The continued downturn in the economy and cautious spending by schools and districts pointed to an impairment triggering event at the end of the first quarter of fiscal 2011. The Company had year-over-year revenue and gross profit declines in excess of 20% during the first quarter of fiscal 2011 and its cost reduction activities could not keep pace with these steeper than expected declines. The Company recorded a $411.2 million and $0.2 million impairment related to goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets, respectively.

The continued downturn in the economy as well as cautious spending by schools and districts also has had a negative effect on the Company's investment in Carson-Dellosa Publishing, LLC ("Carson-Dellosa"). The Company reviews Carson-Dellosa's unaudited financial statements on a quarterly basis and audited financial statements on an annual basis for indicators of triggering events or circumstances that indicate a potential impairment. During the fourth quarters of fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011, the Company evaluated its investment in Carson-Dellosa for impairment and recorded other-than-temporary impairment charges of $7.7 million, $9.0 million and $6.9 million, respectively, in other expense in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. Carson-Dellosa is an unconsolidated affiliate in which the Company has a 35% ownership interest as described below. See Note 7 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional discussion of the impairment charge recorded for the investment in unconsolidated affiliate.

Our business and working capital needs are highly seasonal, with peak sales levels occurring from June through October. During this period, we receive, ship and bill the majority of our business so that schools and teachers receive their products by the start of each school year. Our inventory levels increase in April through June in anticipation of the peak shipping season. The majority of shipments are made between June and October and the majority of cash receipts are collected from September through December. As a result, we usually earn more than 100% of our annual net income in the first two quarters of our fiscal year and operate at a net loss in our third and fourth fiscal quarters.

The fiscal 2013 back-to-school season was another year of cautious school spending. This cautious school spending contributed to a revenue decline in fiscal 2013 of approximately 7.8%. This rate of decline has slowed significantly as compared to declines experienced in the past five fiscal years and the Company believes school funding is beginning to stabilize. While the Company still expects a decline in revenues in fiscal 2014 as this stabilization continues, it believes it has positioned itself to expand operating margins when revenue increases.

Acquisition and Divestiture

During fiscal 2012, the Company sold its SEEDS of Science/Roots of Reading program for $6.7 million and recognized a $4.4 million gain in its operations. The Company considered this program to be ancillary to its other curriculum products and non-core to the rest of the product portfolio. The Company will continue to review and consider divestment of non-core assets or products.

During fiscal 2011, the Company completed the acquisition of a portion of the operating assets of Telex ("Telex") for an aggregate purchase price of $0.4 million. The assets acquired relate to Telex's distribution of headphones, earphones, headsets, and their replaceable cords used in the education marketplace. The earphone and headphone models acquired included the Discovery, Odyssey, Explorer and 610 models. This business has been integrated into the Company's Califone business within the Educational Resources segment. The results of this business have been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements under Item 8 since the date of acquisition and would not have had a material effect on the Company's overall performance on a pro forma basis and did not have a material effect on the Company's fiscal 2011 performance.

Consolidated Results

Fiscal 2013 Compared to Fiscal 2012

The following discussion and analysis of fiscal 2013 results compared to fiscal 2012 results is based on a comparison of the Company's results of operations from continuing operations.

Overview of Fiscal 2013

Revenues for fiscal 2013 decreased 7.8% to $675.0 million as compared to $732.0 million in fiscal 2012. The Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments experienced revenue declines of 5.8% and 13.0% in fiscal 2013, respectively. The revenue declines in both the Educational Resources and the Accelerated Learning segments were attributable primarily to the current macroeconomic conditions and the impact those conditions have had on state budget funding levels. According to the National Bureau of Economic Research, state revenue collections underperformed forecasts during the latest recession. Since approximately 50% of school funding is provided by states, the Company believes the decreased state revenues are adversely affecting school funding and the related spending by schools. In addition, the Company believes the Chapter 11 Cases negatively impacted revenues in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 due to a combination of customer uncertainty as to the status of the Company and increased backorders associated with procuring product due to liquidity constraints. State tax receipts, a key component of school funding, have shown modest signs of recovery. However, local tax revenues, another major source of school funding, continue to be depressed. These factors, coupled with the lingering effects of the Chapter 11 Cases during our peak ordering season, lead management to believe that fiscal 2014 will be a year of continued revenue decline, although management anticipates a slower rate of decline.

Gross margin increased 40 basis points to 39.1% in fiscal 2013 as compared to 38.7% in fiscal 2012. The increased gross margin was related primarily to improvements in Educational Resources gross margin. The Company expects gross margin to continue to show modest improvement in fiscal 2014.

SG&A increased 200 basis points as a percent of revenue in fiscal 2013 as compared to fiscal 2012. SG&A attributable to the Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments decreased a combined $23.3 million and Corporate SG&A increased $15.8 million in fiscal 2013 as compared fiscal 2012. The increase in Corporate SG&A was related primarily to the effect of lower costs related to company-wide furloughs taken in the third quarter of fiscal 2012 that did not occur in fiscal 2013 and an increase in employee healthcare costs and professional and outside services. The remaining increase is due to $4.7 million of reorganization expenses incurred during the third quarter of fiscal 2013 with attorneys and other advisors in relation to the preparation for the Company's bankruptcy filing.

Operating loss was $49.4 million in fiscal 2013 as compared to $95.1 million in fiscal 2012. Operating margins decreased from 1.7% in fiscal 2012 to 0.2% in fiscal 2013 excluding the impact of the impairment charges and bankruptcy related charges. The decrease in operating margins is a result of declines in school spending in fiscal 2013 due to the uncertainty in education funding levels and state budgetary concerns.

Revenue

Revenue decreased 7.8% from $732.0 million in fiscal 2012 to $675.0 million in fiscal 2013. Approximately $14 million of the full year revenue decline occurred in the fourth quarter. The Company believes that the Chapter 11 Cases, and the related uncertainty it created for customers and vendors, contributed to the revenue decline in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013. Backorders increased as the Company experienced product shortages related to its inability to meet pre-bankruptcy commitments to vendors.

Educational Resources segment revenue decreased 5.8% from $526.3 million in fiscal 2012 to $495.8 million in fiscal 2013. The decline in Educational Resources segment revenue was comprised of a decline of approximately $19 million in the supplies category and a decline of approximately $11 million in the furniture category. The decline in the supplies category is related primarily to classroom supplemental products and other specialty brands which schools consider more discretionary than basic school supplies. Segment revenue in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 was down $10.9 million, or 11.3%, which we believe was partially related to the Chapter 11 Cases.

Accelerated Learning segment revenues decreased by 13.0% from $205.1 million in fiscal 2012 to $178.5 in fiscal 2013. Approximately $13.5 million of the decline was related to decreased school spending on our science division curriculum and the prior year disposition of our SEEDS of Science product line. While the majority of the decline in the science curriculum was anticipated due to large prior year shipments for science adoptions in Indiana, Nevada and New York City that were not expected to repeat in fiscal 2013, the Company believes that school districts continue to delay spending as the impact from the pending changes to Next Generation Science Standards and general economic conditions remains uncertain. Approximately $12.4 million of the decline is related to our student planner and agenda products, which we believe schools consider more discretionary in nature. Segment revenue in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 was down $3.6 million, or 15.3%, which we believe was partially related to the Chapter 11 Cases.

Gross Profit

Gross profit decreased 6.7% from $283.0 million in fiscal 2012 to $263.9 million in fiscal 2013. The decrease in consolidated revenue resulted in approximately $22.1 million of the decline in gross profit had consolidated gross margin remained constant. Gross margin increased 40 basis points, from 38.7% in fiscal 2012 to 39.1% in fiscal 2013 primarily due to improvements in Educational Resources gross margin. The Accelerated Learning segment generates higher gross margin due to its curriculum-based products than the Educational Resources segment and accounted for 26.4% of consolidated revenue in fiscal 2013 compared to 28.1% in fiscal 2012. This shift in sales between segments partially offset the increase in consolidated gross margin by approximately 20 basis points.

Educational Resources segment gross profit decreased $3.8 million from $174.2 million in fiscal 2012 to $170.4 in fiscal 2013. Gross margin increased 100 basis points from 33.1% in fiscal 2012 to 34.1% in fiscal 2013. The increase was related to margin improvements in furniture and supplies associated with product pricing.

Accelerated Learning segment gross profit decreased $13.8 million from $108.1 million in fiscal 2012 to $94.3 million in fiscal 2013. The decrease in gross profit for fiscal 2013 compared to fiscal 2012 is due to decreased spending on the Company's curriculum products. Gross margin increased 10 basis points from 52.7% in fiscal 2012 to 52.8% in fiscal 2013. Increased product development amortization spread over a smaller revenue base resulted in a 90 basis point reduction in gross margins in fiscal 2013. Favorable product mix partially offset this reduction.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

SG&A includes selling expenses, the most significant of which are wages and sales commissions; operations expenses, which include customer service, warehouse and out-bound freight costs; catalog costs; general administrative overhead, which includes information systems, accounting, legal and human resources; and depreciation and intangible asset amortization expense.

As a percent of revenue, SG&A increased from 37.6% in fiscal 2012 to 39.6% in fiscal 2013. SG&A decreased $7.5 million from $275.0 million in fiscal 2012 to $267.5 million in fiscal 2013. SG&A attributable to the Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments decreased a combined $23.3 million and Corporate SG&A increased $15.8 million in fiscal 2013 as compared to fiscal 2012. Approximately $7.5 million of the increase relates to costs associated with the Chapter 11 Cases. This includes $4.7 million of pre-petition expenses associated with attorney and advisor fees incurred in preparation of the Chapter 11 filing and $2.8 million of expenses associated with Company's rejection of the lease, and subsequent shutdown, of the Mt. Joy, Pennsylvania distribution center. The effect of company-wide furloughs taken in the third quarter of fiscal 2012 that did not occur in fiscal 2013 and an increase in employee healthcare costs and professional and outside services contributed to the increase in Corporate SG&A.

Educational Resources segment SG&A decreased $13.4 million, or 9.3%, from $144.1 million in fiscal 2012 to $130.7 million in fiscal 2013. The segment had a decrease of $7.4 million in marketing costs primarily associated with a decrease in catalog costs related to continued refinements in the Company's circulation strategy. In addition, reduced volume led to an approximate $3.7 million decrease in its variable costs such as transportation, warehousing, and selling expenses. The remaining decrease is related primarily to headcount reductions. Educational Resources segment SG&A decreased as a percent of revenues from 27.4% in fiscal 2012 to 26.4% in fiscal 2013.

Accelerated Learning segment SG&A decreased $9.9 million, or 11.4%, from $86.9 million in fiscal 2012 to $77.0 million in fiscal 2013. Reduced volume led to approximately $4.5 million of a decrease in the segment's variable costs such as transportation, warehousing, and selling expenses. The remaining reduction is related primarily to segment headcount reductions and other compensation-related cost saving actions. Accelerated Learning segment SG&A increased as a percent of revenues from 42.4% for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2012 to 43.1% for the fiscal year ended April 27, 2013.

Bankruptcy Related Reorganization Costs

As of April 27, 2013, the Company had incurred $23.0 million of post-petition charges related to its Chapter 11 bankruptcy filing and costs related to debtor in possession (“DIP”) financing required as part of the bankruptcy process. Professional fees incurred with attorneys and other advisors were $12.4 million. The remaining reorganization expense was primarily related to the DIP financing. Bankruptcy-related expenses incurred post-petition have been classified as “Bankruptcy Related Reorganization Costs” on the Company’s Statement of Operations. Bankruptcy-related costs incurred pre-petition have been classified as SG&A.

Impairment Charges

The Company recorded $45.8 million of impairment charges in fiscal 2013. Due to a triggering event in the third quarter, the Company recorded a goodwill impairment charge of $41.1 million, which consisted of $27.5 million, $9.7 million and $3.9 million for the Planning and Student Development, Reading and Califone reporting units, respectively. An impairment charge of $4.7 million was related to indefinite-lived intangible assets of the Accelerated Learning segment.

The Company recorded $107.5 million of goodwill and other intangible asset impairment charges in fiscal 2012 based on an assessment during the third quarter of fiscal 2012. The goodwill impairment charge was $86.5 million, which consisted of $47.4 million, $20.3 million, $7.8 million and $11.0 million for the Planning and Student Development, Science, Reading and Califone reporting units, respectively. An impairment charge of $21.0 million was related to indefinite-lived intangible assets of both the Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments.

Interest Expense

Interest expense increased $1.4 million from $27.2 million in fiscal 2012 to $28.6 million in fiscal 2013. The increase is related primarily to higher borrowing costs on the Company’s pre-petition term loan as compared with the borrowing costs under the credit agreement in place during fiscal 2012. These increases have been partially offset by approximately $3.7 million of reduced interest expense on the Company’s convertible debt. Since the convertible debt was an unsecured claim which management believed was unlikely to be allowed as a priority claim in the Chapter 11 Cases, interest on the convertible debt was not subsequent to the Company’s January 28, 2013 bankruptcy filing.

Loss on Early Extinguishment of Debt

The Company recorded a $10.2 million charge in fiscal 2013 associated with the unamortized debt issuance costs related to the pre-bankruptcy credit facilities.

Early Termination of Long-Term Indebtedness

During the second quarter of fiscal 2013 the Company recorded a $1.2 million early payment fee associated with the Company’s repayment of a portion of its pre-petition term loan.

During the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company recorded a $25.1 million prepayment charge related to the acceleration of the obligations under the term loan credit agreement. The charge was triggered by the Company’s non-compliance with the minimum liquidity covenant. The early prepayment fee represented the present value of interest payments due to Bayside Finance, LLC during the term of the term loan credit agreement.

Impairment of Long-Term Asset

In the second quarter of fiscal 2013 the Company recorded a $1.4 million impairment charge related to the note receivable it had recorded on its balance sheet from the sale of the Visual Media business in fiscal 2008. The Company received proceeds of $3.0 million in conjunction with the settlement of the note receivable that was used to pay down a portion of the then-outstanding term loan.

Impairment of Unconsolidated Affiliate Investment

The Company recorded an impairment of its investment in Carson-Dellosa in both fiscal 2013 and fiscal 2012. The value of the Company's 35% ownership interest was re-evaluated in fiscal 2013 and fiscal 2012 as Carson-Dellosa operating results did not achieve expectations and prospective forecasts were lowered based on continued school spending declines in the supplemental education market. The decline in current and projected cash flows resulted in the value of the Company's ownership interest being $7.7 million less than the Company's carrying amount in fiscal 2013. In fiscal 2012, this investment was written down by $9.0 million. The write downs in both years have been reflected in other expense.

Provision for/(Benefit from) Income Taxes

The benefit from income taxes was $0.3 million in fiscal 2013 as compared to a provision for income taxes of $0.2 million in fiscal 2012. The current year benefit from income taxes includes $8.5 million of income tax benefit related to the $45.8 million goodwill and non-amortizable asset impairment. The fiscal 2012 benefit from income taxes included $22.3 million of income tax benefit related to the $107.5 million impairment of goodwill and non-amortizable asset impairment. For fiscal 2013 and 2012, approximately $26.1 million and $52.6 million, respectively, of the goodwill and non-amortizable intangible asset impairment was related to non-deductible goodwill and non-amortizable intangible assets associated with a past stock acquisition for which a tax benefit was not recorded. The remaining $19.7 million impairment generated the $8.5 million of tax benefit in fiscal 2013 and the remaining $54.9 million impairment generated the $22.3 million in fiscal 2012.

The tax provision for fiscal 2013 also includes an increase in our valuation allowance of $38.6 million against deferred tax assets which the Company determined did not meet the standard of more likely than not of being realized. In fiscal 2012, the Company recorded a valuation allowance of $32.6 million. The total valuation allowance at the end of fiscal 2013 is $71.3 million.

Fiscal 2012 Compared to Fiscal 2011

The following discussion and analysis of fiscal 2012 results compared to fiscal 2011 results is based on a comparison of the Company's results of operations from continuing operations.

Overview of Fiscal 2012

Revenues for fiscal 2012 decreased 3.9% to $732.0 million as compared to $762.1 million in fiscal 2011. The Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments experienced revenue declines of 1.6% and 9.5% in fiscal 2012, respectively. The revenue declines in both the Educational Resources and the Accelerated Learning segments were attributable primarily to the current macroeconomic conditions and the impact those conditions have had on state budget funding levels.

Gross margin decreased 170 basis points to 38.7% in fiscal 2012 as compared to 40.4% in fiscal 2011. The decreased gross margin was related primarily to price discounting in the Educational Resources segment and product mix as the higher margin Accelerated Learning segment had a steeper revenue decline.

SG&A decreased 10 basis points as a percent of revenue in fiscal 2012 as compared to fiscal 2011. The decrease in SG&A as a percent of revenue was due to compensation –related decisions during the year, including employee furloughs and a reduction in force. Total SG&A declined by $12.6 million in fiscal 2012 as compared to fiscal 2011. The Company's current full-time staffing was down approximately 150 individuals, or 8%, in fiscal 2012 as compared to fiscal 2011.

In the third quarter of fiscal 2012, the Company sold the SEEDS of Science/Roots of Reading product line for $6.7 million. The Company recorded a gain on the sale of assets of $4.4 million.

We recorded $107.5 million of pre-tax impairment charges in the third quarter of fiscal 2012. The triggering event for the impairment analysis was a combination of the continued decrease in the Company's market capitalization and declines in the Company's forecasted future years' operating results and cash flows. On December 31, 2011, the Company's closing stock price was $2.50 per share, compared with $14.15 per share as of May 1, 2011. The Company's performance of the goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test resulted in an impairment charge of $86.5 million for goodwill and $21.0 million for indefinite-lived intangible assets. We recorded $411.4 million of pre-tax impairment charges in the first quarter of fiscal 2011 primarily to reduce the carrying value of goodwill of the Educational Resources reporting unit, which is part of the Educational Resources segment, and the Science and Planning and Student Development reporting units, which are part of the Accelerated Learning segment. The Company experienced a significant decline in revenue and operating income in the first quarter, as education spending continued to suffer from the ongoing economic downturn. This, coupled with the decline in the Company's market capitalization during the first quarter of fiscal 2011, led to the determination during that period that goodwill and an indefinite-lived tradenames were impaired.

The Company also recorded a $9.0 million and $6.9 million pre-tax impairment charges related to its investment in Carson-Dellosa in the fourth quarters of fiscal 2012 and 2011, respectively due to experienced declines in Carson-Dellosa's revenue and operating income in those fiscal years.

Operating loss was $95.1 million in fiscal 2012 as compared to $391.4 million in fiscal 2011. Operating margins decreased from 2.6% in fiscal 2011 to 1.7% in fiscal 2012 excluding the impact of the impairment charge. The decrease in operating margins was a result of declines in school spending in fiscal 2012 due to the uncertainty in education funding levels and state budgetary concerns.

Revenue

Revenue decreased 3.9% from $762.1 million in fiscal 2011 to $732.0 million in fiscal 2012. Approximately 1% of the decline, or $7.5 million was related to the incremental week in fiscal 2011 versus fiscal 2012 (53-week year versus 52-week year).

Educational Resources segment revenue decreased 1.6% from $534.8 million in fiscal 2011 to $526.3 million in fiscal 2012. The decline in Educational Resources segment revenue was comprised of a decline of approximately $7 million in the supplies category and a decline of approximately $2 million in the furniture category. Approximately $6 million of the overall segment decline was related to the 52-week year in fiscal 2012 versus fiscal 2011's 53-week year. Thus, revenue was essentially flat between fiscal 2011 and fiscal 2012 on a comparable week basis.

Revenue for the supplies category had declined in fiscal 2011 due to execution issues in both the consolidation of the Company's bid departments, which respond to customer bid requests, and the streamlining of the Company's pricing and discount structure. The consolidation of the Company's bid departments resulted in an organization that was not properly staffed to effectively respond to bid opportunities. Thus, the Company's number of successful bid awards was negatively impacted, which the Company believes contributed to decreased revenue. The Company had addressed the staffing issues in the consolidated bid department and believes it more effectively responded to customer bid requests in fiscal 2012. For the fiscal 2011 back to school season, the Educational Resources segment of the Company consolidated pricing strategies of various brands. Historically, the Educational Resources segment used a variety of price and discount strategies for its different brands and catalogs. In moving to a consolidated pricing structure that was common to all brands, catalog prices and discounts were revised with the intention of creating a more consistent and easier to understand pricing structure for the customer. This consolidated pricing structure instead created customer confusion in fiscal 2011 due to the Company's ineffective communication of these new price points and discounting to the customer. The Company believes that this customer confusion contributed to a revenue decline in the first nine months of fiscal 2011 and led to the Company offering steeper price discounts in order to prevent any further revenue erosion. The Company believes that better communication to customers of its pricing strategy stabilized price erosion and its impact on revenue and gross margin in fiscal 2012. The Company believes that its correction of these fiscal 2011 issues offset revenue declines from continued decreases in school spending.

Accelerated Learning segment revenues decreased by 9.5% from $226.6 million in fiscal 2011 to $205.1 in fiscal 2012. Approximately $11 million of the decline was related to the Company's student planner and agenda products. Reductions in school funding of planners and agendas resulted in a combination of schools electing to forego agenda purchases entirely in the current school year, schools transitioning to lower priced agendas or lost business to lower-end competitors. The remaining decline was attributable primarily to the Company's curriculum products, which have been more susceptible to softer school spending partly attributable to delays in the finalization of a national curriculum. Partially offsetting the decline in the curriculum products was approximately $5.6 million of science adoption revenue in Indiana.

Gross Profit

Gross profit decreased 8.0% from $307.5 million in fiscal 2011 to $283.0 million in fiscal 2012. The decrease in consolidated revenue resulted in approximately $12 million of the decline in gross profit had consolidated gross margin remained constant. The decrease in consolidated gross margin of 170 basis points, from 40.4% in fiscal 2011 to 38.7% in fiscal 2012, decreased gross profit by $12.4 million. The decreased gross margin was related to higher price discounts within the Educational Resources segment due to competitive pricing within the market and decreased revenues and product mix in the Accelerated Learning segment around new curriculum-based materials. In addition, a shift in product mix between the Company's segments accounted for approximately 40 basis points of gross margin decrease in fiscal 2012. The Accelerated Learning segment, which generates higher gross margin than the Educational Resources segment, due to its curriculum-based products, accounted for 29.7% of the consolidated revenue in fiscal 2011 compared to 28.1% in fiscal 2012.

Educational Resources segment gross profit decreased $5.2 million from $179.4 million in fiscal 2011 to $174.2 in fiscal 2012. The decrease in segment revenue resulted in approximately $3 million of the decline in gross profit had segment gross margin remained constant. The decrease in gross margin of 40 basis points from 33.5% in fiscal 2011 to 33.1% in fiscal 2012 decreased gross profit by $2.2 million. Approximately 80 basis points of the decline in gross margin is related to cost increases such as higher freight costs attributable to fuel prices and substitution of higher cost domestic products to meet an increase in demand of products typically sourced overseas. The decline was partially offset by an increase of approximately 20 basis points in gross margin related to product mix shift within the segment towards more profitable products.

Accelerated Learning segment gross profit decreased $17.8 million from $125.9 million in fiscal 2011 to $108.1 million in fiscal 2012. The decrease in segment revenue resulted in a $12.0 million decline in gross profit had segment gross profit remained constant. The decrease in gross margin of 280 basis points from 55.5% in fiscal 2011 to 52.7% in fiscal 2012 resulted in a decrease in gross profit of $5.8 million. Approximately 100 basis points of the decline was related to increased product development amortization spread over a smaller revenue base. The remaining decrease in gross margin was related to a loss of higher margin revenue associated with the Company's curriculum products as well as increased plastic costs for agenda products.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

As a percent of revenue, SG&A decreased from 37.7% in fiscal 2011 to 37.6% in fiscal 2012. SG&A decreased $12.6 million from $287.6 million in fiscal 2011 to $275.0 million in fiscal 2012. Approximately $3.5 million of the SG&A savings for fiscal 2012 is related to company-wide furloughs during the year and reduced headcount year-over-year. SG&A attributable to the Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments decreased a combined $16.2 million and Corporate SG&A increased $3.6 million in fiscal 2012 as compared to fiscal 2011. Approximately $2 million of the increase in Corporate SG&A was related to additional depreciation expense, primarily for software and business system upgrades made in prior years. Incremental severance costs contributed $0.6 million of the year-over-year increase.

Educational Resources segment SG&A decreased $8.1 million, or 5.3%, from $152.2 million in fiscal 2011 to $144.1 million in fiscal 2012. The segment had a decrease of approximately $4.0 million in its variable SG&A costs such as transportation, warehousing, and selling expenses associated with decreased revenues. The segment's portion of the consolidated savings related to the above-mentioned company-wide furloughs was approximately $1.6 million. The remaining decrease was related primarily to headcount reductions and a reduction in severance expense. Educational Resources segment SG&A decreased as a percent of revenues from 28.5% for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2011 to 27.4% for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2012.

Accelerated Learning segment SG&A decreased $8.1 million, or 8.5%, from $95.0 million in fiscal 2011 to $86.9 million in fiscal 2012. Reduced volume led to approximately $6.3 million of a decrease in the segment's variable costs such as transportation, warehousing, and selling expenses. The segment's portion of the consolidated savings related to the above-mentioned company-wide furloughs was approximately $1.2 million. The remaining decrease was related primarily to headcount reductions. Accelerated Learning segment SG&A increased as a percent of revenues from 41.9% for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2011 to 42.4% for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2012.

Gain on Sale of Product Line

In the third quarter of fiscal 2012, the Company sold the SEEDS of Science/Roots of Reading product line for $6.7 million. The Company recorded a gain on the sale of assets of $4.4 million.

Impairment Charges

The Company recorded $107.5 million of goodwill and other intangible asset impairment charges in fiscal 2012 based on an assessment during the third quarter of fiscal 2012. The goodwill impairment charge was $86.5 million, which consisted of $47.4 million, $20.3 million, $7.8 million and $11.0 million for the Planning and Student Development, Science, Reading and Califone reporting units, respectively. An impairment of $21.0 million was related to indefinite-lived intangible assets of both the Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning segments. The Company recorded $411.4 million of impairment charges in fiscal 2011 pursuant to its annual goodwill and intangible asset assessment. The goodwill impairment charge was $411.2 million, which consisted of $247.9 million, $55.4 million, and $106.1 million for the Educational Resources, Science, and Planning and Student Development reporting units, respectively. An impairment of $0.2 million was related to an indefinite-lived tradename intangible.

Interest Expense

Net interest expense decreased $1.0 million from $28.2 million in fiscal 2011 to $27.2 million in fiscal 2012. The decrease was related primarily to a $0.5 million reduction in commitment fees on unborrowed funds under the Company's credit facility in fiscal 2012 as the total facility size was reduced through amendments to the Credit Agreement. Non-cash interest expense associated with the Company's then-outstanding convertible notes decreased by approximately $0.5 million. These decreases were partially offset by increased amortization of loan fees in fiscal 2012.

Other Expense

In the first quarter of fiscal 2012 and the fourth quarter of fiscal 2011, the Company entered into exchange agreements with holders of $57.5 million and $100.0 million, respectively, in aggregate principal amount of the Company's 3.75% Convertible Debentures due 2026 that were originally issued in 2006. In the exchanges for their old debentures, the holders received new debentures with changes to the conversion, put and premium features. The Company incurred and expensed $1.1 million and $1.9 million in issuance costs in conjunction with these exchange transactions in fiscal 2012 and fiscal 2011, respectively.

The Company recorded an impairment of its equity method investment in Carson-Dellosa in both fiscal 2012 and fiscal 2011. The value of the Company's 35% ownership interest was re-evaluated in fiscal 2012 as Carson-Dellosa operating results did not achieve expectations and prospective forecasts were lowered based on continued school spending declines in the supplemental education market. The decline in current and projected cash flows resulted in the value of the Company's ownership interest being $9.0 million less than the Company's carrying amount. In fiscal 2011, this equity method investment was written down by $6.9 million. The write downs in both years have been reflected in other expense.

Provision for/(Benefit from) Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes was $0.2 million in fiscal 2012 as compared to a benefit from income taxes of $73.1 million in fiscal 2011. The current year provision for income taxes includes $22.3 million of income tax benefit related to the $107.5 million goodwill and non-amortizable asset impairment. The fiscal 2011 benefit from income taxes included $66.5 million of income tax benefit related to the $411.4 million impairment of goodwill and non-amortizable asset impairment. For fiscal 2012 and 2011, approximately $52.6 million and $237.8 million, respectively, of the goodwill and non-amortizable intangible asset impairment was related to non-deductible goodwill and non-amortizable intangible assets associated with a past stock acquisition for which a tax benefit was not recorded. The remaining $54.9 million impairment generated the $22.3 million of tax benefit in fiscal 2012 and the remaining $173.4 million impairment generated the $66.5 million in fiscal 2011.

The tax provision for fiscal 2012 also included a valuation allowance of $32.6 million against deferred tax assets which the Company determined did not meet the standard of more likely than not of being realized. This is due to the Company's recent history of losses and forward-looking projections of a taxable loss in fiscal 2013. There was no valuation allowance recorded in fiscal 2011.

Due to the significant impact the impairment charge and valuation allowance had on the effective rate, the Company believes the tax benefit and effective rate excluding these items is a better comparison between fiscal 2012 and fiscal 2011. Excluding the impairment charge and valuation allowance, fiscal 2012 would have had a tax benefit of $9.4 million as compared to a tax benefit of $6.6 million for fiscal 2011. The increase was related to a decline in pre-tax income excluding impairment. Excluding impairment and valuation allowance, the effective tax rate was 37.1% in fiscal 2012 as compared to 39.2% in fiscal 2011.

Excluding impairment and valuation allowance, the effective income tax rate of 37.1% exceeds the federal statutory rate of 35% primarily due to state income taxes.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At April 27, 2013, the Company had negative working capital of $30.3 million. Our capitalization at April 27, 2013 was $294.5 million and consisted of debt of $373.7 million and shareholders' deficit of $79.2 million.

On May 22, 2012, the Company entered into an Asset-Based Credit Agreement (the "2012 ABL Facility") and Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "Term Loan"), which replaced the Company's then-existing credit facility. The lenders under the 2012 ABL Facility agreed to provide a revolving senior secured asset-based credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of $200 million. Under the Term Loan, the lenders agreed to make a term loan to the Company in aggregate principal amount of $70 million. The Company used the proceeds of the 2012 ABL Facility and the Term Loan to repay outstanding indebtedness under the Company's previous credit facility. Both the 2012 ABL Facility and the Term Loan contained customary events of default and certain financial, affirmative and negative covenants. The Company was not in compliance with the minimum liquidity covenant under the term loan as of the end of December, 2012. As a result, the Company entered into a forbearance agreement with the 2012 ABL Facility and Term Loan lenders on January 4, 2013.

On January 28, 2013 the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”). The cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) were being jointly administered as Case No. 13-10125 (KJC) under the caption “In re School Specialty, Inc., et al.” The Debtors continued to operate their business as “debtors-in-possession” under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Chapter 11 and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Company’s foreign subsidiaries were not part of the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Chapter 11 Cases were filed in response to an environment of ongoing declines in school spending and a lack of sufficient liquidity, including trade credit provided by the Debtors’ vendors, to permit the Debtors to pursue their business strategy to position the School Specialty brands successfully for the long term.

Subsequent to filing the Chapter 11 Cases, on January 31, 2013, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Super Priority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the “Bayside DIP Agreement”) by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries, Bayside Finance, LLC (“Bayside”) (as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent), and the lenders party to the Bayside Credit Agreement and a Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the “ABL DIP Agreement”) by and among Wells Fargo Capital Finance, LLC (as Administrative Agent, Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner) and GE Capital Markets, Inc. (as Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner and Syndication Agent), General Electric Capital Corporation (as Syndication Agent), and the lenders that are party to the Asset-Based Credit Agreement (the “Asset-Based Lenders”) and the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

The Bayside DIP Agreement provided for a senior secured, super-priority revolving credit facility of up to $50 million (the “Bayside DIP Facility”), with an initial borrowing upon closing of $15 million, and subsequent borrowings of $8.0 million.

Borrowings by the Company under the Bayside DIP Facility were subject to borrowing limitations based on the exhaustion of availability of credit under the ABL DIP Facility (as defined below) and certain other conditions. The principal amounts outstanding under the Bayside DIP Facility bore interest based on applicable LIBOR or base rates plus margins as set forth in the Bayside DIP Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an event of default in the Bayside DIP Agreement, an additional default interest rate of 3.0% per annum applied. The Bayside DIP Agreement also provided for certain additional fees payable to the agents and lenders.

All borrowings under the Bayside DIP Agreement were required to be repaid on the earliest of (i) June 30, 2013, and (ii) the date of termination of the Bayside DIP Agreement, whether pursuant to the consummation of a sale of substantially all of the assets of the Debtors under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) certain other termination events.

Pursuant to a Security and Pledge Agreement, the Bayside DIP Facility was secured by substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the Asset-Based Lenders and the Bayside Lenders (the “Intercreditor Agreement”) the Bayside Lenders had a first priority security interest in all interests in real property, all intellectual property, all equipment and fixtures, and certain other assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, and had a second priority security interest in accounts receivable, inventory and certain other assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Asset-Based Lenders in such assets. The obligations under the Bayside DIP Facility were extinguished with proceeds from the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement discussed below.

The ABL DIP Agreement provided a revolving senior secured asset-based credit facility (the “ABL DIP Facility”) in an aggregate principal amount of $175 million. Outstanding amounts under the ABL DIP Facility bore interest at a rate per annum equal to either: (1) a base rate (equal to the greatest of (a) the prime lending rate, (b) the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, and (c) the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 1.00% per annum) plus 2.75%, or (2) a LIBOR rate plus 3.75%. The default interest rate was three percentage points above the otherwise applicable rate.

Pursuant to a Guaranty and Security Agreement, the ABL DIP Facility was secured by substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under the Intercreditor Agreement, the Asset-Based Lenders had a first priority security interest in accounts receivable, inventory and certain other assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, and had a second priority security interest in all interests in real property, all intellectual property, all equipment and fixtures, and certain other assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Bayside Lenders in such assets.

The ABL DIP Agreement contained customary events of default and affirmative and negative covenants, including (but not limited to) affirmative covenants relating to reporting, appointment of a chief restructuring officer, and bankruptcy transaction milestones, and negative covenants related to the financing order of the Bankruptcy Court, additional indebtedness, liens, assets, fundamental changes, and use of proceeds.

On February 27, 2013, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Super Priority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the "Ad Hoc DIP Agreement") by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries, U.S. Bank National Association, as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent and the lenders party to the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, which replaced the Bayside DIP Agreement, the related Bayside DIP Facility and the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement provided for a senior secured, super-priority revolving credit facility of up to $155 million (the "Ad Hoc DIP Facility"), with an initial borrowing upon closing of $130 million, and subsequent borrowings of $15 million following the entry of the final order of the Bankruptcy Court and upon the satisfaction of certain conditions.

The principal amounts outstanding under the Ad Hoc DIP Facility bore interest based on applicable LIBOR or base rates plus margins as set forth in the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an event of default in the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, an additional default interest rate of 2.0% per annum applies. The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement also provides for certain additional fees payable to the agents and lenders.

All borrowings under the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement were required to be repaid on the earliest of (i) June 30, 2013, and (ii) the date of termination of the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, whether pursuant to the consummation of a sale of substantially all of the assets of the Debtors under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) certain other termination events.

Pursuant to a Security and Pledge Agreement, the Ad Hoc DIP Facility was secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all of the assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries.

Under Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the filing of voluntary bankruptcy petitions by the Debtors automatically stayed most actions against the Debtors, including most actions to collect indebtedness incurred prior to the Petition Date or to exercise control over the Company's property. Accordingly, although the Company defaulted on certain of the Debtors' debt obligations, creditors were stayed from taking any actions as a result of such defaults.

On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Reorganization Plan pursuant to a Confirmation Order dated May 23, 2013, as corrected June 3, 2013 (the "Confirmation Order"). On the Effective Date of the Reorganization Plan, the Ad Hoc DIP Facility and the ABL DIP Facility and the related security agreements were terminated in accordance with the terms of the Reorganization Plan.

On June 11, 2013, in accordance with the Reorganization Plan, the Company entered into a Loan Agreement (the "Asset-Based Credit Agreement") among the Company, Bank of America, N.A., as Agent, SunTrust Bank, as Syndication Agent, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc., as Joint Lead Arrangers and Bookrunners, and the Lenders that are party to the Asset-Based Credit Agreement (the "Asset-Based Lenders").

Under the Asset-Based Credit Agreement, the Asset-Based Lenders agreed to provide a revolving senior secured asset-based credit facility (the “New ABL Facility”) in an aggregate principal amount of $175 million. Outstanding amounts under the New ABL Facility will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to, at the Company’s election: (1) a base rate (equal to the greatest of (a) the prime lending rate, (b) the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, and (c) the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 1.00% per annum) (the “Base Rate”) plus an applicable margin (equal to a specified margin based on the interest rate elected by the Company, the fixed charge coverage ratio under the New ABL Facility and the applicable point in the life of the New ABL Facility) (the “Applicable Margin”), or (2) a LIBOR rate plus the Applicable Margin (the “LIBOR Rate”). Interest on loans under the New ABL Facility bearing interest based upon the Base Rate will be due monthly in arrears, and interest on loans bearing interest based upon the LIBOR Rate will be due on the last day of each relevant interest period or, if sooner, on the respective dates that fall every three months after the beginning of such interest period.

The New ABL Facility will mature on June 11, 2018. The Company may prepay advances under the New ABL Facility in whole or in part at any time without penalty or premium. The Company will be required to make specified prepayments upon the occurrence of certain events, including: (1) the amount outstanding on the New ABL Facility exceeding the Borrowing Base, and (2) the Company’s receipt of net cash proceeds of any sale or disposition of assets that are first priority collateral for the New ABL Facility.

Pursuant to a Guaranty and Collateral Agreement dated as of June 11, 2013 (the “New ABL Security Agreement”), the New ABL Facility is secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the Asset-Based Lenders and the Term Loan Lenders, as defined and described below, the Asset-Based Lenders have a first priority security interest in substantially all working capital assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries, and a second priority security interest in all other assets, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Term Loan Lenders in such other assets.

The Asset-Based Credit Agreement contains customary events of default and financial, affirmative and negative covenants, including but not limited to a springing financial covenant relating to the Company’s fixed charge coverage ratio and restrictions on indebtedness, liens, investments, asset dispositions and dividends and other restricted payments.

Also on June 11, 2013, the Company entered into a Credit Agreement (the “New Term Loan Credit Agreement”) among the Company, Credit Suisse AG, as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent, and the lenders party to the New Term Loan Credit Agreement (the “Term Loan Lenders”).

Under the New Term Loan Credit Agreement, the Term Loan Lenders agreed to make a term loan (the “New Term Loan”) to the Company in aggregate principal amount of $145 million. The outstanding principal amount of the New Term Loan will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the applicable LIBOR rate (with a 1% floor) plus 8.50%, or the base rate plus a margin of 7.50%. Interest on loans under the New Term Loan Credit Agreement bearing interest based upon the base rate will be due quarterly in arrears, and interest on loans bearing interest based upon the LIBOR rate will be due on the last day of each relevant interest period or, if sooner, on the respective dates that fall every three months after the beginning of such interest period.

The New Term Loan matures on June 11, 2019. The New Term Loan Credit Agreement requires prepayments at specified levels upon the Company’s receipt of net proceeds from certain events, including: (1) certain dispositions of property, divisions, business units or business lines; and (2) other issuances of debt other than Permitted Debt, as defined in the New Term Loan Credit Agreement. The Post-Emergence Term Loan Credit Agreement also requires prepayments at specified levels from the Company’s excess cash flow. The Company is also permitted to voluntarily prepay the New Term Loan in whole or in part. Any prepayments are to be made at par, plus an early payment fee calculated in accordance with the terms of the New Term Loan Credit Agreement if prepaid prior to the second anniversary of the New Term Loan Credit Agreement.

Pursuant to a Guarantee and Collateral Agreement dated as of June 11, 2013 (the “New Term Loan Security Agreement”), the New Term Loan is secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the Asset-Based Lenders and the Term Loan Lenders, the Term Loan Lenders have a second priority security interest in substantially all working capital assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Asset-Based Lenders in such assets, and a first priority security interest in all other assets.

The New Term Loan Credit Agreement contains customary events of default and financial, affirmative and negative covenants, including but not limited to quarterly financial covenants commencing on the fiscal quarter ending October 26, 2013, relating to the Company’s (1) minimum interest coverage ratio and (2) maximum net total leverage ratio and restrictions on indebtedness, liens, investments, asset dispositions and dividends and other restricted payments.

Previous Financings

In November 2006, we sold $200.0 million of convertible subordinated debentures due 2026, (the “2006 Debentures”). The 2006 Debentures were unsecured, subordinated obligations of the Company, which paid interest at 3.75% per annum and were convertible upon satisfaction of certain conditions. The debentures were redeemable at our option on or after November 30, 2011. On November 30, 2011, the holders had the right to require us to repurchase all or some of the 2006 Debentures.

On March 1, 2011 and July 7, 2011, we exchanged $100.0 million and $57.5 million, respectively, in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding 2006 Debentures, for $100.0 million and $57.5 million, respectively, in aggregate principal amount of convertible debentures also due November 30, 2026, (the “2011 Debentures”). The 2011 Debentures were unsecured, subordinated obligations of the Company, which paid interest at 3.75% per annum on each May 30th and November 30th, and were convertible upon satisfaction of certain conditions. Principal accreted on the 2011 Debentures at a rate of 3.9755% per year, compounding on a semi-annual basis.

On the Effective Date of the Reorganization Plan, pursuant to the Reorganization Plan and the Confirmation Order, 2011 Debentures were canceled and the indenture under which the 2011 Debentures were issued was terminated.

Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities decreased $15.4 million, from net cash provided by operating activities of $17.9 million in fiscal 2012 to net cash provided by operating activities of $2.5 million in fiscal 2013. This change is primarily related to the Company’s Chapter 11 Cases. As a result of the Chapter 11 Cases, a portion of the Company’s vendors suspended normal trade terms and required the Company to prepay for inventory purchases. These prepayments were approximately $15 million as of the end of fiscal 2013.

Net cash used in investing activities for fiscal 2013 was $36.9 million, compared to $12.1 million for fiscal 2012. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company placed $25.0 million of cash into a restricted account. The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement required the funds to be placed in an escrow account as a deposit for an early termination fee payable to Bayside that was provided under the Term Loan Credit Agreement. During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company transferred $2.7 million of cash into a restricted account. During fiscal 2013, $1.4 million was transferred from the restricted cash account as the letters of credit secured by this amount were canceled. The funds in this restricted account serve as collateral primarily for the Company’s workmen’s compensation insurance and other lease obligations, secured by letters of credit. The funds held in restricted accounts cannot be withdrawn from our account without prior written consent of the secured parties. Additions to property, plant and equipment decreased $6.4 million, from $11.1 million in fiscal 2012 to $4.7 million in fiscal 2013. Partially offsetting the increase was the $3.0 million receipt related to the collection of portion of a long-term note receivable which was related to divestiture activity dating back to fiscal 2008. The proceeds from the long-term note receivable were used to reduce the then-existing Term Loan from $70.0 million to $67.0 million during the second quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company received no proceeds from the sale of assets in fiscal 2013 as compared to $6.7 million in fiscal 2012.

Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities increased $69.8 million to $54.6 million net cash provided by financing activities in fiscal 2013 as compared to net cash used in financing activities of $15.2 million for fiscal 2012. The increase was due to $46.9 million of increased borrowings under the Company's credit facilities and $42.5 million related to the Company's redemption of convertible debt in fiscal 2012. The increases were offset by an $8.5 million increase in debt fees incurred in fiscal 2013 and $9.9 million of fees related to the DIP financing incurred in fiscal 2013.

- (3) As of April 27, 2013, we did not have any material long-term purchase obligations. The Company's short-term purchase obligations as of April 27, 2013 were primarily for the purchase of inventory in the normal course of business.

Fluctuations in Quarterly Results of Operations

Our business is subject to seasonal influences. Our historical revenues and profitability have been dramatically higher in the first two quarters of our fiscal year, primarily due to increased shipments to customers coinciding with the start of each school year. Quarterly results also may be materially affected by variations in our costs for the products sold, the mix of products sold and general economic conditions. Therefore, results for any quarter are not indicative of the results that we may achieve for any subsequent fiscal quarter or for a full fiscal year.

The following table sets forth certain unaudited consolidated quarterly financial data for fiscal years 2013 and 2012 (in thousands, except per share data). We derived this quarterly data from our unaudited consolidated financial statements.

Inflation

Inflation, particularly in fuel and other oil-related costs, has had and could continue to have an effect on our results of operations and our internal and external sources of liquidity.

Critical Accounting Policies

We believe the policies identified below are critical to our business and the understanding of our results of operations. The impact and any associated risks related to these policies on our business are discussed throughout this section where applicable. Refer to the notes to our consolidated financial statements in Item 8 for detailed discussion on the application of these and other accounting policies. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. We evaluate our estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis and base them on a combination of historical experience and various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Our critical accounting policies that require significant judgments and estimates and assumptions used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements are as follows:

Revenue Recognition

Revenue, net of estimated returns and allowances, is recognized upon the shipment of products or upon the completion of services provided to customers, which corresponds to the time when risk of ownership transfers, the selling price is fixed, the customer is obligated to pay, collectability is reasonably assured and we have no significant remaining obligations. Cash received in advance from customers is deferred on our balance sheet as a current liability and recognized upon the shipment of products or upon the completion of services provided to the customers.

Catalog Costs and Related Amortization

We spend approximately $16 million annually to produce and distribute catalogs. We accumulate all direct costs incurred, net of vendor cooperative advertising payments, in the development, production and circulation of our catalogs on our balance sheet until such time as the related catalog is mailed. They are subsequently amortized into SG&A over the expected sales realization cycle, which is one year or less. Consequently, any difference between our estimated and actual revenue stream for a particular catalog and the related impact on amortization expense is neutralized within a period of one year or less. Our estimate of the expected sales realization cycle for a particular catalog is based on, among other possible considerations, our historical sales experience with identical or similar catalogs and our assessment of prevailing economic conditions and various competitive factors. We track our subsequent sales realization, reassess the marketplace, and compare our findings to our previous estimate and adjust the amortization of our future catalogs, if necessary.

Development Costs

We accumulate external and certain internal costs incurred in the development of our products which can include a master copy of a book, video or other media, on our balance sheet. As of April 27, 2013, we had $28.2 million in development costs on our balance sheet. A majority of these costs are associated with science and reading intervention businesses. The capitalized development costs are subsequently amortized into cost of revenues over the expected sales realization cycle of the products, which is typically five years. During fiscal 2013, we amortized development costs of $7.2 million to expense. We continue to monitor the expected sales realization cycle for each product, and will adjust the remaining expected life of the development costs or recognize an impairment, if warranted.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets, and Long-Lived Assets

At April 27, 2013, intangible assets represented approximately 27.4% of our total assets. We review our goodwill and other indefinite life intangible assets for impairment annually, or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist. A significant amount of judgment is involved in determining if an indicator of impairment has occurred. Such indicators may include, among others: a significant decline in our expected future cash flows; a sustained, significant decline in our stock price and market capitalization; a significant adverse change in legal factors or in the business climate; unanticipated competition; the testing for recoverability of a significant asset group within a reporting unit; and slower growth rates. Any adverse change in these factors could have a significant impact on the recoverability of these assets and could have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements.

As it relates to goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets, we apply the impairment rules in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 350, “Intangibles—Goodwill and Other”. As required by FASB ASC Topic 350, the recoverability of these assets is subject to a fair value assessment, which includes judgments regarding financial projections, including forecasted cash flows and discount rates, and comparable market values. As it relates to finite life intangible assets, we apply the impairment rules as required by FASB ASC Topic 360-10-15, “Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets” which also requires significant judgments related to the expected future cash flows attributable to the primary asset. Key assumptions used in the impairment analysis include, but are not limited to, expected future cash flows, business plan projections, revenue growth rates, and the discount rate utilized for discounting such cash flows. The impact of modifying any of these assumptions can have a significant impact on the estimate of fair value and, thus, the estimated recoverability, or impairment, if any, of the asset.

In connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company concluded a triggering event had occurred which would more likely than not reduce the fair value of the reporting units below their carrying value. The triggering event was a combination of the declines in the Company’s forecasted future years’ operating results and cash flows, and the liquidity concerns and eventual default under pre-bankruptcy credit agreements.

As discussed in Note 8 of the consolidated financial statements, in the third quarter of fiscal 2013 and the third quarter of fiscal 2012 the Company recorded impairment charges of $41.1 million and $86.5 million, respectively, to goodwill and $4.7 million and $21.0 million, respectively, to indefinite-lived intangible assets. The goodwill impairment recorded in fiscal 2013 reduced the Company’s goodwill balance to zero. The impairments were determined as part of the fair value assessment of these assets.

In the first quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company performed its annual impairment test. We tested goodwill for impairment by determining the fair value of the Company’s reporting units using a combined income (discounted cash flow) and market approach (guideline public company comparables) valuation model. The details regarding the determination of the fair value of the reporting units, including the key assumptions used in the impairment analysis, are discussed in Note 8 of the consolidated financial statements. The impact of modifying any of these assumptions can have a significant impact on the estimate of fair value and, thus, the estimated recoverability, or impairment, if any, of the asset. Changes in estimates or the application of alternative assumptions could have produced significantly different results.

The fair value assessments in the third quarter of fiscal 2013 of the reporting units with goodwill (Califone, Reading, and Planning and Student Development) indicated that the goodwill balances of these reporting units was impaired as the carrying value exceeded the fair value of the units. As a result, the Company recorded impairment charges of $3.9 million, $9.7 million and $27.5 million to the reporting units of Califone, Reading, Science and Planning and Student Development, respectively.

The fair value assessment in the third quarter of fiscal 2013 on the indefinite-lived intangible assets indicated the carrying value exceeded the fair value. As a result the Company recorded an impairment of $4.7 million to non-amortizable trademark and tradename.

The Company also performed an impairment test of its long-lived assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company compared the sum of the undiscounted cash flows during the remaining useful life of the primary asset for each identified asset group to the carrying value of the asset group. No impairment was recorded as a result of this analysis.

Valuation Allowance for Deferred Tax Assets

We initially recorded a tax valuation allowance against our deferred tax assets in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2012. In recording the valuation allowance, management considered whether it was more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets would be realized. This analysis included consideration of scheduled reversals of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, carry back potential and tax planning strategies, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 740, “Income Taxes”. At April 27, 2013, our valuation allowance totaled $71.3 million.

Fresh Start Accounting

As a result of the Chapter 11 Cases, the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities, without substantial adjustment and/or changes in ownership are subject to uncertainty. The implementation of the Reorganization Plan and the adoption of fresh start accounting on June 11, 2013 will materially change the amounts and classifications of certain assets and liabilities, as compared to amounts and classifications shown in the historical consolidated financial statements. For further details on fresh start accounting, see Note 23 of the consolidated financial statements. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Annual Report, the financial statements and other financial information contained herein do not reflect fresh start accounting adjustments.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Our financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and debt. Market risks relating to our operations result primarily from changes in interest rates. Our borrowings under our credit facility are primarily dependent upon LIBOR rates. Assuming no change in our financial structure, if variable interest rates were to have averaged 100 basis points higher during fiscal 2013 and fiscal 2012, pre-tax earnings would have decreased by approximately $3.1 million and $3.4 million respectively. This amount was determined by considering a hypothetical 100 basis point increase in interest rates on average variable-rate debt outstanding. The estimated fair value of long-term debt approximated its carrying value at April 27, 2013 and April 28, 2012, with the exception of our convertible debt, which at April 27, 2013 had a carrying value of $163.7 million and an estimated fair market value $30.4 million based on estimated equity value to be received in connection with the Debtors' Reorganization Plan, and at April 28, 2012 had a carrying value of $157.5 million and a fair market value of $113.4 million.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE FISCAL YEARS ENDED APRIL 27, 2013, APRIL 28, 2012 AND APRIL 30, 2011
(In Thousands, Except Per Share Amounts)

NOTE 1—BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS

On January 28, 2013 (the “Petition Date”), School Specialty, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”). The cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) were jointly administered as Case No. 13-10125 (KJC) under the caption “In re School Specialty, Inc., et al.” The Debtors continued to operate their business as “debtors-in-possession” (“DIP”) under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Chapter 11 and orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Company’s foreign subsidiaries (collectively, the “Non-Filing Entities”) were not part of the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Chapter 11 Cases were filed in response to an environment of ongoing declines in school spending and a lack of sufficient liquidity, including trade credit provided by the Debtors’ vendors, to permit the Debtors to pursue their business strategy to position the School Specialty brands successfully for the long term. As part of the Chapter 11 Cases and as discussed further in Note 24 – Subsequent Events, the Debtors’ developed and implemented a Chapter 11 reorganization plan that met the standards for confirmation under the Bankruptcy Code. The Chapter 11 reorganization plan will materially alter the classifications and amounts reported in the Company’s consolidated financial statements, which do not give effect to any adjustments to the carrying values of assets or amounts of liabilities that might be necessary as a consequence of confirmation of the Chapter 11 reorganization plan or the effect of any operational changes that may be implemented.

Operation and Implication of the Bankruptcy Filing

Under Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the filing of voluntary bankruptcy petitions by the Debtors automatically stayed most actions against the Debtors, including most actions to collect indebtedness incurred prior to the Petition Date or to exercise control over the Company’s property. Accordingly, although the Company defaulted on certain of the Debtors’ debt obligations, creditors were stayed from taking any actions as a result of such defaults. Absent an order of the Bankruptcy Court, substantially all of the Company’s pre-petition liabilities were subject to settlement under a reorganization plan or in connection with a Section 363 sale.

Subsequent to the Petition Date, the Company received approval from the Bankruptcy Court to pay or otherwise honor certain pre-petition obligations generally designed to stabilize the Company’s operations. These obligations related to certain employee wages, salaries and benefits, and the payment of vendors and other providers in the ordinary course for goods and services received after the Petition Date. The Company retained, pursuant to Bankruptcy Court approval, legal and financial professionals to advise the Company in connection with the bankruptcy filing and certain other professionals to provide services and advice in the ordinary course of business.

Reorganization Plan

In order for the Company to emerge successfully from Chapter 11, the Company determined that it was in the best interests of the Debtors’ estates to seek Bankruptcy Court confirmation of a reorganization plan. A reorganization plan determines the rights and satisfaction of claims of various creditors and security holders, subject to the ultimate outcome of negotiations and Bankruptcy Court decisions ongoing through the date on which the reorganization plan is confirmed.

(In Thousands, Except Per Share Amounts)

On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Reorganization Plan"), and a corrected copy of such order was entered by the Bankruptcy Court on June 3, 2013. The Reorganization Plan became effective on June 11, 2013 (the "Effective Date"). See Note 24 for additional information regarding the Reorganization Plan.

During fiscal 2013, the Company incurred $27,711 of legal, professional and financial fees related to the Company's Chapter 11 filing. $4,732 of the charges were incurred pre-petition and are included in selling, general and administrative expense on the consolidated statements of operations. These pre-petition costs were related to professional services and advice in conjunction with the bankruptcy filing. $22,979 of these charges were incurred post-petition and are detailed in Note 5.

Financial Statement Presentation and Going Concern

We have prepared the accompanying consolidated financial statements in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 852 "Reorganizations" and on a going concern basis, which assumes continuity of operations, realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the ordinary course of business. During the Chapter 11 Cases, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern was contingent upon its ability to comply with the financial and other covenants contained in its ABL DIP Agreement and Ad Hoc DIP Agreement (see Note 10), the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Company's Reorganization Plan and the Company's ability to successfully implement the Company's plan and obtain exit financing, among other factors. As a result of the Chapter 11 Cases, the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities were subject to uncertainty. The Company emerged from Chapter 11 in June, 2013. Accordingly, management believes, subject to performance in accordance with the terms outlined in the Reorganization Plan upon emergence from Chapter 11 on the Effective Date (see Note 24), as well as projected compliance with applicable financial, affirmative, and negative covenants, that has resolved the substantial doubt and uncertainty relative to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, described above.

In connection with the Company's emergence from Chapter 11, the Company adopted fresh start accounting as of June 11, 2013 in accordance with ASC 852 "Reorganizations". Upon the adoption of fresh start accounting, the financial statements of the Company will not be comparable in various material respects, to any of the Company's previously issued financial statements. The financial statements as of June 11, 2013 and for periods subsequent to the fresh start effective date reflect that of a new entity, resulting in changes to balances previously presented (see Note 23). Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Note 23, these financial statements do not reflect fresh start accounting adjustments.

NOTE 3—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Definition of Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year ends on the last Saturday in April in each year. As used in these consolidated financial statements and related notes to consolidated financial statements, "fiscal 2013," "fiscal 2012" and "fiscal 2011" refer to the Company's fiscal years ended April 27, 2013, April 28, 2012 and April 30, 2011, respectively. The year ended April 30, 2011 represents a 53 week year, while the years ended April 27, 2013 and April 28, 2012 represent 52 week years.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers cash investments with original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Inventories

Inventories, which consist primarily of products held for sale, are stated at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 330, "Inventories". Excess and obsolete inventory reserves recorded were $9,437 and $9,950 as of April 27, 2013 and April 28, 2012, respectively.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Additions and improvements are capitalized, whereas maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. The estimated useful lives range from twenty-five to forty years for buildings and their components and three to fifteen years for furniture, fixtures and equipment. Property and equipment leased under sale-leaseback obligations and capital leases are amortized over the lesser of its useful life or its lease term.

Goodwill and Non-amortizable Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method. Certain intangible assets including a perpetual license agreement and various trademarks and tradenames are estimated to have indefinite lives and are not subject to amortization. Under FASB ASC Topic 350, "Intangibles—Goodwill and Other," goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are not subject to amortization but rather must be tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate they might be impaired. The Company performs the annual impairment test during the first quarter of each fiscal year. Amortizable intangible assets include customer relationships, publishing rights, non-compete agreements, trademarks and tradenames, order backlog and copyrights and are being amortized over their estimated useful lives. In the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company concluded that a triggering event had occurred which required the Company to assess whether the fair values of the reporting units were below their carrying values. The triggering event was a combination of the declines in the Company's forecasted future years' operating results and cash flows, and the liquidity concerns and eventual default under pre-bankruptcy credit agreements. As a result of the Company's performance of the goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test in the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company recorded impairment charges of $41,089 for goodwill and $4,700 for indefinite-lived intangible assets. As a result of an assessment performed in the third quarter of fiscal 2012, the Company recorded goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible impairment charges of $86,491 and $21,010, respectively in fiscal 2012. See Note 8 for details of these impairment charges.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

As required by FASB ASC Topic 360-10-35 "Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets," the Company reviews property, plant and equipment, definite-lived intangible assets and development costs for impairment if events or circumstances indicate an asset might be impaired. The Company assesses impairment based on undiscounted cash flows and records any impairment based on estimated fair value determined using discounted cash flows.

Due to the triggering events identified above in the discussion of Goodwill and Non-Amortizable Intangible Assets, the Company also performed an impairment test of its long-lived assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company compared the sum of the undiscounted cash flows during the remaining useful life of the primary asset for each identified asset group to the carrying value of the asset group. No impairment was recorded as a result of this analysis.

Development Costs

Development costs represent external and internal costs incurred in the development of a master copy of a book, workbook, video or other supplemental educational materials and products. The Company capitalizes development costs and amortizes these costs into costs of revenues over the lesser of five years or the product's life cycle in amounts proportionate to expected revenues. At April 27, 2013 and April 28, 2012, net development costs totaled $28,234 and $27,726, respectively, and are included as a component of development costs and other assets, net, in the consolidated balance sheets.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

U.S. GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability. U.S. GAAP also classifies the inputs used to measure fair value into the following hierarchy:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or input other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The following table sets forth the items measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis during fiscal years 2013 and 2012. All items were categorized as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy. Refer to these notes to the consolidated financial statements for descriptions valuation techniques and inputs used to develop these fair value measurements, there were no changes to the valuation techniques during fiscal 2013, relative to fiscal 2012:

Description	Balance Sheet Location	Fiscal 2013	Fiscal 2012
Goodwill	Goodwill	$ —	$ 41,263
Indefinite-lived intangible assets	Intangible assets, net	14,410	19,110
Investment in Carson-Dellosa	Investment in unconsolidated affiliate	715	9,900

The Fiscal 2012 disclosure of items measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis has been revised from amounts previously reported to adjust indefinite-lived intangible assets to exclude definite-lived intangibles and to exclude the new debentures, which were not measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis.

As a result of the Company's performance of the goodwill impairment test in the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $41,089 for goodwill.

As a result of the Company's performance of the indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test in the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $4,700 for indefinite-lived intangible assets.

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company evaluated its investment in Carson-Dellosa for impairment and, based on updated current forward-looking projections, concluded Carson-Dellosa investment had an other-than-temporary impairment. As such, the Company recorded an impairment of $7,749 in fiscal 2013.

In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 825, "Financial Instruments" and FASB ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurement," the carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and accrued liabilities approximate fair value given the short maturity of these instruments.

The following table sets forth the financial instruments where carrying amounts may vary from fair value as of April 27, 2013:

Description	Balance Sheet Location	Carrying Value	Fair Value	Categorization
ABL DIP Agreement	Current maturities	$ 43,302	$ 43,302	Level 3
Ad Hoc DIP Agreement	Current maturities	155,000	155,000	Level 3
2011 Debentures	Liabilities subject to compromise	163,688	30,355	Level 3
Accounts payable	Liabilities subject to compromise	51,951	19,400	Level 3
Sale leaseback obligations	Liabilities subject to compromise	11,684	—	Level 3

The Company has estimated the April 27, 2013 fair value of the amounts outstanding under its ABL DIP Agreement and Ad Hoc DIP Agreement approximated their carrying values at the end of fiscal 2013 given the variable interest rates and the proximate maturity date of each facility. As a result of the Company's Chapter 11 filing, each of the 2011 Debentures, accounts payable and sale leaseback obligations are liabilities subject to compromise as of April 27, 2013. The amount of liabilities subject to compromise represents the Company's estimate, where an estimate is determinable, of known or potential prepetition claims to be addressed in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings. The carrying amount of such liabilities are reported at the Company's current estimate, where an estimate is determinable, of the allowed claim amount, even though they may settle for lesser amounts. The Company has estimated the April 27, 2013 fair value of each of these financial instruments based on the expected value of the recovery as reflected in the Company's Reorganization Plan and as depicted in Note 23 – Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Financial Statements (Unaudited). The fair value of the 2011 Debentures is based on the expected equity valuation of common shares which the Company distributed to the holders of the 2011 Debentures in accordance with the term of the Reorganization Plan.

The estimated fair value of the amounts outstanding under the then-existing credit facility approximated its carrying value at April 28, 2012 given the variable interest rates included with this facility. The Company's convertible debt had a carrying value of $164,878 and a fair market value of $113,359 at April 28, 2012, as determined using the closing bid prices as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.'s Portal Market on April 28, 2012. The Company's sale-leaseback obligations had a carrying value of $12,663 and a fair market value of $13,736 at April 28, 2012 as determined using estimated interest rates available at April 28, 2012 for similar long-term borrowings.

Income Taxes

In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 740, "Income Taxes", income taxes have been computed utilizing the asset and liability approach which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the tax consequences of temporary differences by applying enacted statutory tax rates applicable to future years to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax basis of existing assets and liabilities. Valuation allowances are provided when it is anticipated that some or all of a deferred tax asset is not likely to be realized.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue, net of estimated returns and allowances, is recognized upon the shipment of products or upon the completion of services provided to customers, which corresponds to the time when risk of ownership transfers, the selling price is fixed, the customer is obligated to pay, collectability is reasonably assured and the Company has no significant remaining obligations. Cash received in advance from customers is deferred on the balance sheet as a current liability and recognized upon the shipment of products or upon the completion of services provided to customers.

Concentration of Credit Risks

The Company grants credit to customers in the ordinary course of business. The majority of the Company's customers are school districts and schools. Concentration of credit risk with respect to trade receivables is limited due to the significant number of customers and their geographic dispersion. During fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011, no customer represented more than 10% of revenues or accounts receivable.

Vendor Rebates

The Company receives reimbursements from vendors (vendor rebates) based on annual purchased volume of products from its respective vendors. The Company's vendor rebates are earned based on pre-determined percentage rebates on the purchased volume of products within a calendar year. The majority of the rebates are not based on minimum purchases or milestones, and therefore the Company recognizes the rebates on an accrual basis and reduces cost of revenues over the estimated period the related products are sold.

Deferred Catalog Costs

Deferred catalog costs represent costs which have been paid to produce Company catalogs, net of vendor cooperative advertising payments, which will be used in and benefit future periods. Deferred catalog costs are amortized in amounts proportionate to expected revenues over the life of the catalog, which is one year or less. Amortization expense related to deferred catalog costs is included in the consolidated statements of operations as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses. Such amortization expense for fiscal years 2013, 2012 and 2011 was $16,057, $22,051 and $20,731, respectively.

Restructuring

The Company accounts for restructuring costs associated with both the closure or disposal of distribution centers and severance related to headcount reductions in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 712, “Compensation — Retirement Benefits.” During fiscal 2013, the Company recorded $1,561 of severance expense. During fiscal 2012 and fiscal 2011, the Company recorded $2,313 and $1,847, respectively, of severance expense. As of April 27, 2013, April 28, 2012 and April 30, 2011, there was $716, $1,123 and $361, respectively, of accrued restructuring costs recorded in other accrued liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet primarily related to various cost reduction activities. See Note 20 for details of these restructuring charges.

Shipping and Handling Costs

In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 605-45-45, “Revenue Recognition—Principal Agent Considerations— Other Presentation,” the Company accounts for shipping and handling costs billed to customers as a component of revenues. The Company accounts for shipping and handling costs incurred as a cost of revenues for shipments made directly from vendors to customers. For shipments made from the Company’s warehouses, the Company accounts for shipping and handling costs incurred as a selling, general and administrative expense. The amount of shipping and handling costs included in selling, general and administrative expenses for fiscal years 2013, 2012 and 2011 was $31,631, $31,844 and $33,635, respectively.

Foreign Currency Translation

The financial statements of foreign subsidiaries have been translated into U.S. dollars in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 830, “Foreign Currency Matters.” All balance sheet accounts have been translated using the exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. Amounts in the statements of operations have been translated using the weighted average exchange rate for the year. Resulting translation adjustments are included in foreign currency translation adjustment within other comprehensive income.

Share-Based Compensation Expense

The Company accounts for its share-based compensation plans under the recognition and measurement principles of FASB ASC Topic 718, “Compensation—Stock Compensation” and FASB ASC Topic 505, “Equity-Based Payments to Non-Employees”. See Note 15.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May, 2011, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update (“ASU”) No. 2011-04, Fair Value Measurements, FASB ASC Topic 820. The purpose of ASU No. 2011-04 was to develop common requirements for measuring fair value and for disclosing information about fair value measurements in accordance with US GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). ASU No. 2011-04 was effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2011. The adoption ASU No. 2011-04 by the Company did not have a material impact on the Company’s financial position, results of operations, comprehensive income (loss) or cash flows.

In June, 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-05, Presentation of Comprehensive Income, FASB ASC Topic 220. The purpose of ASU No. 2011-05 was to improve the comparability, consistency, and transparency of financial reporting and to increase the prominence of items reported in other comprehensive income. ASU No. 2011-05 became effective for fiscal years and interim reporting periods within those years beginning after December 15, 2011, and early adoption was permitted. The Company early adopted ASU No. 2011-05 during the second quarter ended October 29, 2011. The adoption of ASU No. 2011-05 impacted the presentation of the Company’s consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss) in the consolidated financial statements but it did not change the items that must be reported in other comprehensive income or when an item of other comprehensive income must be reclassified to net income.

In September 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-08, Testing Goodwill for Impairment, FASB ASC Topic 350, which provides entities with the option of first assessing qualitative factors to determine whether it is more-likely-than-not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If it is determined, on the basis of qualitative factors, that the fair value of the reporting unit is more-likely-than-not less than the carrying amount, the two-step impairment test would still be required. ASU No. 2011-08 became effective for interim and annual goodwill impairment tests performed for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2011, and early adoption was permitted. The Company did not elect to perform a qualitative assessment during fiscal 2013. As a result, the adoption ASU No. 2011-08 had no impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

In July 2012, the FASB issued ASU No. 2012-02, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other, FASB ASC Topic 350 – Testing Indefinite-Lived Intangible Assets for Impairment. ASU No. 2012-02 amends the impairment test for indefinite-lived intangible assets by allowing companies to first assess the qualitative factors to determine if it is more likely than not that an indefinite-lived intangible asset might be impaired as a basis for determining whether it is necessary to perform the quantitative impairment test. The changes to the ASC as a result of this update are effective prospectively for annual and interim impairment tests performed for fiscal years beginning after September 15, 2012. The Company does not expect that the adoption of this guidance will have a material impact on its Consolidated Financial Statements.

In February 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-02, “Reporting of Amounts Reclassified Out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income.” ASU No. 2013-02 requires presentation of reclassification adjustments from each component of accumulated other comprehensive income either in a single note or parenthetically on the face of the financial statements, for those amounts required to be reclassified into net income (loss) in their entirety in the same reporting period. For amounts that are not required to be reclassified in their entirety in the same reporting period, cross-reference to other disclosures is required. This update is effective for the Company beginning in fiscal 2014. The adoption of this guidance requires changes in presentation only and will have no impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 4—LIABILITIES SUBJECT TO COMPROMISE

The following table reflects pre-petition liabilities that are subject to compromise.

	April 27, 2013
Accounts payable	$ 51,951
2011 Debentures	163,688
Pre-petition accrued interest on 2011 Debentures	979
Sale-leaseback obligations	11,684
Liabilities subject to compromise	$ 228,302

Liabilities subject to compromise primarily represented unsecured pre-petition obligations of the Debtors that are expected to be subject to compromise as part of the Reorganization Plan and are subject to settlement at lesser amounts. The amount of liabilities subject to compromise represents the Debtors' estimate, where an estimate is determinable, of known or potential prepetition claims to be addressed in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings. Such liabilities are reported at the Debtors' current estimate, where an estimate is determinable, of the allowed claim amount, even though they may settle for lesser amounts.

As of April 27, 2013, the Company had not completed the process of reconciling its pre- and post-petition liabilities. Pursuant to court order, the Company has been authorized to pay certain prepetition and operating liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business (e.g., salaries and insurance). Accordingly, liabilities subject to compromise is subject to change.

NOTE 5—BANKRUPTCY RELATED REORGANIZATION COSTS

The following table reflects bankruptcy related reorganization costs incurred in fiscal 2013.

NOTE 6—BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Fiscal 2011

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2011, the Company completed the acquisition of a portion of the operating assets of Telex, a division of Bosch Security Systems, Inc. for an aggregate purchase price of $360. The assets acquired relate to Telex's distribution of headphones, earphones, headsets, and their replaceable cords used in the education marketplace. The earphone and headphone models subject to the acquisition are the Discovery, Odyssey, Explorer and 610 models. This business has been integrated into the Company's Califone business unit within the Educational Resources segment. The results of this acquisition have been included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements since the date of acquisition, would not have had a material effect on the Company's overall performance on a pro forma basis, and did not have a material effect on the Company's fiscal 2011 performance.

NOTE 7—INVESTMENT IN UNCONSOLIDATED AFFILIATE

Investment in unconsolidated affiliate was accounted for under the equity method through the end of the third quarter in fiscal 2013. Effective with the commencement of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases, the Company no longer maintained a seat on the unconsolidated affiliate's board of directors as a result of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases. As a result, the Debtor no longer had significant influence over the unconsolidated affiliate and began to account for the investment in unconsolidated affiliate under the cost method effective at the beginning of the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013.

The investment in unconsolidated affiliate consisted of the following:

	Percent- Owned	April 27, 2013	April 28, 2012
Carson-Dellosa Publishing, LLC	35%	$ 715	$ 9,900

On November 13, 2009, the Company completed the divestiture of the School Specialty Publishing business unit to Carson-Dellosa Publishing, LLC ("Carson-Dellosa"), a newly-formed business entity. Under the divestiture agreement, the Company combined its publishing unit net assets with those of Cookie Jar Education, Inc. and received a 35% interest, accounted for under the equity method, in Carson-Dellosa. For the years ended April 27, 2013, April 28, 2012 and April 30, 2011, the Company recorded a pre-tax loss of $1,436, $1,488 and $1,038, respectively, resulting from its 35% minority equity interest in Carson-Dellosa.

The Company reviews Carson-Dellosa's unaudited financial statements on a quarterly basis and audited financial statements on an annual basis for indicators of triggering events or circumstances that indicate a potential impairment. During the fourth quarters of fiscal 2013 and 2012, the Company evaluated its investment in Carson-Dellosa for impairment and, based on updated current forward-looking projections, concluded the Carson-Dellosa investment had an other-than-temporary impairment. As such, the Company recorded $7,749, $9,012 and $6,861 impairments in fiscals 2013, 2012, and 2011 respectively in other expense in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. The resulting fair value of $715 and $9,900 in fiscal 2013 and 2012, respectively, was estimated using a discounted cash flow model and is considered a Level 3 fair value measurement due to the use of significant unobservable inputs related to the timing and amount of future earnings based on projections of Carson-Dellosa's future financing structure, contractual and market-based revenues and operating costs.

In performing the impairment assessment, the Company estimated the fair value of its reporting units using the Income Approach (discounted cash flow analysis). The discounted cash flow ("DCF") valuation method requires an estimation of future cash flows of an entity and then discounting those cash flows to their present value using an appropriate discount rate. The discount rate selected should reflect the risks inherent in the projected cash flows. The key inputs and assumptions of the DCF method are the projected cash flows, the terminal value of the reporting unit and the discount rate. The growth rate used for the terminal value calculation was 0% and 3% in fiscal 2013 and 2012, respectively, and the discount rate was 11.3% in both fiscal 2013 and 2012.

Estimated intangible asset amortization expense for each of the five succeeding fiscal years is:

2014	$9,928
2015	$ 9,880
2016	$ 9,831
2017	$ 9,131

This estimated intangible amortization expense over the succeeding five years is based on the historical cost of the Company's intangible assets. In connection with the Debtors' reorganization plan, see Note 24 – Subsequent Events, the Company's intangible assets will be recorded at fair value as of the June 11, 2013 date of the reorganization. As a result, the estimated intangible amortization reflected in the above table may or may not be indicative of the actual intangible amortization expense to be recognized in subsequent years.

In accordance with the accounting guidance on goodwill and other intangible assets, the Company performs its impairment test of goodwill at the reporting unit level and indefinite-lived intangible assets at the unit of account level during the first quarter of each fiscal year, or more frequently if events or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of its reporting units below their carrying values.

A reporting unit is the level at which goodwill impairment is tested and can be an operating segment or one level below an operating segment, also known as a component. A component of an operating segment is a reporting unit if the component constitutes a business for which discrete financial information is available for segment management to regularly review the operating results of that component. The Educational Resources segment consists of the Education Resources and Califone reporting units. The Accelerated Learning segment consists of the Science, Planning and Student Development, Reading, and Health reporting units. The goodwill for each reporting unit is shown in the table above.

Goodwill impairment is assessed under a two-step method. In the first step, the Company determined the fair value of the reporting unit, generally by utilizing a combination of the income approach (weighted 90%) and the market approach (weighted 10%) derived from comparable public companies. The Company believes that each approach has its merits. However, in the instances where the Company has utilized both approaches, the Company has weighted the income approach more heavily than the market approach because the Company believes that management's assumptions generally provide greater insight into the reporting unit's fair value. The Company did not use the market approach for the Science reporting unit because of the variability in revenue due to the curriculum adoption schedule. This fair value determination was categorized as level 3 in the fair value hierarchy pursuant to FASB ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurement". The estimated fair value of the reporting units is dependent on several significant assumptions, including earnings projections and discount rates.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company performed its annual goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test. In connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company concluded a triggering event had occurred which would more likely than not reduce the fair value of the reporting units below their carrying value. The triggering event was a combination of the declines in the Company's forecasted future years' operating results and cash flows, and the liquidity concerns and eventual default under pre-bankruptcy credit agreements. As a result of the Company's performance of the goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test as detailed below, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $41,089 for goodwill and $4,700 for indefinite-lived intangible assets.

In performing the impairment assessment, the Company estimated the fair value of its reporting units using the following valuation methods and assumptions:

- Income Approach (discounted cash flow analysis)—the discounted cash flow ("DCF") valuation method requires an estimation of future cash flows of a reporting unit and then discounting those cash flows to their present value using an appropriate discount rate. The discount rate selected should reflect the risks inherent in the projected cash flows. The key inputs and assumptions of the DCF method are the projected cash flows, the terminal value of the reporting units and the discount rate. Due to persistent weakness in the industry and the Company's revenue, as well as the anticipated near-term operational challenges resulting from the Chapter 11 Cases, projected cash flows and terminal value growth rates were reduced in the fiscal 2013 third quarter discounted cash flow analysis, with corresponding adjustments of discount rates to reflect risks inherent in those updated projected cash flows. The growth rates used for the terminal value calculations and the discount rates of the respective reporting units were as follows:

	Terminal Value Growth Rates	Discount Rate
Education Resources	2.0%	14.5%
Califone	2.0%	14.5%
Science	1.5%	11.5%
Planning and Student Development	2.0%	11.5%
Reading	2.0%	11.5%
Health	2.0%	11.5%

2. Market Approach (market multiples)—this method begins with the identification of a group of peer companies in the same or similar industries as the company reporting unit being valued. A valuation average multiple is then computed for the peer group based upon a valuation metric. The Company selected a ratio of enterprise value to projected earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) and a ratio of enterprise value to projected revenue as appropriate valuation metrics. These two metrics were evenly weighted for the Reading, Planning and Student Development, and Health reporting units. Various operating performance measurements of the reporting unit being valued are then benchmarked against the peer group and a discount rate or premium is applied to reflect favorable or unfavorable comparisons. The resulting multiple is then applied to the reporting unit being valued to arrive at an estimate of its fair value. A control premium is then applied to the equity value. Eleven companies were deemed relevant to the Planning and Student Development, Health, and Reading reporting units and ten companies were deemed relevant to the Education Resources and Califone reporting units under the guideline public company method to provide an indication of value. A control premium was then applied to the enterprise value of the reporting unit. The control premium was established based on a review of transactions over a 36 month period. The resulting multiples and control premiums were as follows:

	EBITDA Multiples	Revenue Multiples	Control Premium
Education Resources	6.2x	N/A	10.3%
Califone	6.2x	N/A	10.3%
Reading	7.7x	1.1x	11.7%
Health	7.7x	1.1x	11.7%
Planning and Student Development	7.7x	1.1x	11.7%

Based upon the assessment performed in the third quarter of fiscal 2013, the Califone, Planning and Student Development and Reading reporting units failed step one of the goodwill impairment test, requiring a step two analysis with respect to those reporting units. In step two, the Company allocated the fair value of the reporting units to all of the assets and liabilities of the reporting units, including any unrecognized intangible assets, in a hypothetical calculation to determine the implied fair value of the goodwill. The impairment charge, if any, is measured as the difference between the implied fair value of goodwill and its carrying value.

As a result of this analysis, $41,089 of goodwill was considered impaired during the third quarter of fiscal 2013. Assumptions utilized in the impairment analysis are subject to significant management judgment. Changes in estimates or the application of alternative assumptions could have produced significantly different results. As shown above in the table, the Califone reporting unit, which is part of the Educational Resources segment, and the Reading and Planning and Student Development reporting units, which are part of the Accelerated Learning segment, were determined to have impairments of their goodwill balance as of January 26, 2013.

Due to the triggering events described above, the Company also performed an impairment test of its indefinite-lived intangible assets during the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company utilized an income approach, whereby the assets are valued by reference to the amount of royalty income generated if the assets were licensed to a third party. In this method, a sample of comparable guideline royalty or license agreements was analyzed. The Company recorded a $4,700 impairment charge related to non-amortizable tradenames in the Accelerated Learning segment. The following table presents a summary of the carrying value of indefinite-lived intangible assets:

	Educational Resources	Accelerated Learning	Total
Tradenames	$ —	$ 38,890	$ 38,890
Trademarks	1,430	—	1,430

Balance at April 27, 2013:	$ 410	$ 14,000	$ 14,410

Due to the triggering events identified above in the discussion of Goodwill and Non-Amortizable Intangible Assets, the Company also performed an impairment test of its long-lived assets in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The Company compared the sum of the undiscounted cash flows during the remaining useful life of the primary asset for each identified asset group to the carrying value of the asset group. No impairment was recorded as a result of this analysis.

The following discussion relates to the goodwill and other intangible assets impairment test performed during the third quarter of fiscal 2012:

In performing the impairment assessment, the Company estimated the fair value of its reporting units using a combination of the Income Approach and Market Approach discussed above. Key assumptions used in these approaches were as follows:

- Income Approach (discounted cash flow (“DCF”) analysis)—the DCF valuation method requires an estimation of future cash flows of a reporting unit and then discounting those cash flows to their present value using an appropriate discount rate. The discount rate selected should reflect the risks inherent in the projected cash flows. The key inputs and assumptions of the DCF method are the projected cash flows, the terminal value of the reporting units and the discount rate. The growth rates used for the terminal value calculations and the discount rates of the respective reporting units were as follows:

	Terminal Value Growth Rates	Discount Rate
Education Resources	2.0%	19.6%
Califone	2.0%	18.4%
Science	2.4%	15.4%
Planning and Student Development	3.0%	17.9%
Reading	2.0%	19.3%
Health	2.0%	17.9%

- Market Approach (market multiples)—this method begins with the identification of a group of peer companies in the same or similar industries as the company reporting unit being valued. A valuation average multiple is then computed for the peer group based upon a valuation metric. The Company selected a ratio of enterprise value to projected earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) and a ratio of enterprise value to projected revenue as appropriate valuation metrics. These two metrics were evenly weighted for the Reading and Planning and Student Development reporting units. Various operating performance measurements of the reporting unit being valued are then benchmarked against the peer group and a discount rate or premium is applied to reflect favorable or unfavorable comparisons. The resulting multiple is then applied to the reporting unit being valued to arrive at an estimate of its fair value. A control premium is then applied to the equity value. The Company selected 8 companies that were deemed relevant to the Planning and Student Development and Reading reporting units and 9 companies that were deemed relevant to the Education Resources and Califone reporting units under the guideline public company method to provide an indication of value. A control premium was then applied to the enterprise value of the reporting unit. The control premium was established based on a review of transactions over an 18 month period. The resulting multiples and control premiums were as follows:

	EBITDA Multiples	Revenue Multiples	Control Premium
Education Resources	4.2x	N/A	13.8%
Califone	3.9x	N/A	13.8%
Reading	5.8x	1.2x	15.1%
Planning and Student Development	4.6x	0.8x	15.1%

Based upon the assessment performed in the third quarter of fiscal 2012, the Califone, Science, Planning and Student Development and Reading reporting units failed step one of the goodwill impairment test, requiring a step two analysis with respect to those reporting units. In step two, the Company allocated the fair value of the reporting units to all of the assets and liabilities of the reporting units, including any unrecognized intangible assets, in a hypothetical calculation to determine the implied fair value of the goodwill. The impairment charge, if any, is measured as the difference between the implied fair value of goodwill and its carrying value.

As a result of this analysis, $86,491 of goodwill was considered impaired during the third quarter of fiscal 2012. Assumptions utilized in the impairment analysis are subject to significant management judgment. Changes in estimates or the application of alternative assumptions could have produced significantly different results. As shown above in the table, the Califone reporting unit, which is part of the Educational Resources segment, and the Science, Reading and Planning and Student Development reporting units, which are part of the Accelerated Learning segment, were determined to have an impairment of their goodwill balance as of January 28, 2012.

Due to the triggering events described above, the Company also performed an impairment test of its indefinite-lived intangible assets during the third quarter of fiscal 2012. The Company utilized an income approach, whereby the assets are valued by reference to the amount of royalty income generated if the assets were licensed to a third party. In this method, a sample of comparable guideline royalty or license agreements was analyzed. The Company recorded a $21,010 impairment charge in the third quarter of fiscal 2012 related to a non-amortizable trademark in the Educational Resources segment and to non-amortizable tradenames in the Accelerated Learning segment. The following table presents a summary of the carrying value of indefinite-lived intangible assets:

Agreement (the “ABL DIP Agreement”) by and among Wells Fargo Capital Finance, LLC (as Administrative Agent, Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner) and GE Capital Markets, Inc. (as Co-Collateral Agent, Co-Lead Arranger and Joint Book Runner and Syndication Agent), General Electric Capital Corporation (as Syndication Agent), and the lenders that are party to the Asset-Based Credit Agreement (the “Asset-Based Lenders”) and the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

The Bayside DIP Agreement provided for a senior secured, super-priority revolving credit facility of up to $50,000 (the “Bayside DIP Facility”), with an initial borrowing upon closing of $15,000, and subsequent borrowings of $8,000.

Borrowings by the Company under the Bayside DIP Facility were subject to borrowing limitations based on the exhaustion of availability of credit under the ABL DIP Facility (as defined below) and certain other conditions. The principal amounts outstanding under the Bayside DIP Facility bore interest based on applicable LIBOR or base rates plus margins as set forth in the Bayside DIP Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an event of default in the Bayside DIP Agreement, an additional default interest rate of 3.0% per annum applied. The Bayside DIP Agreement also provided for certain additional fees payable to the agents and lenders.

All borrowings under the Bayside DIP Agreement were required to be repaid on the earliest of (i) June 30, 2013, (ii) the date of termination of the Bayside DIP Agreement, whether pursuant to the consummation of a sale of substantially all of the assets of the Debtors under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) certain other termination events.

Pursuant to a Security and Pledge Agreement, the Bayside DIP Facility was secured by substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the Asset-Based Lenders and the Bayside Lenders (the “Intercreditor Agreement”), the Bayside Lenders had a first priority security interest in all interests in real property, all intellectual property, all equipment and fixtures, and certain other assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, and had a second priority security interest in accounts receivable, inventory and certain other assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Asset-Based Lenders in such assets. The obligations under the Bayside DIP Facility were extinguished with proceeds from the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement discussed below.

The ABL DIP Agreement provided a revolving senior secured asset-based credit facility (the “ABL DIP Facility”) in an aggregate principal amount of $175,000. The amount of revolving loans made during any one week was based on certain conditions, including the budget supplied by the Company. Outstanding amounts under the ABL DIP Facility bore interest at a rate per annum equal to either: (1) a base rate (equal to the greatest of (a) the prime lending rate, (b) the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, and (c) the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 1.00% per annum) plus 2.75%, or (2) a LIBOR rate plus 3.75%. The default interest rate was three percentage points above the otherwise applicable rate.

Pursuant to a Security and Pledge Agreement, the ABL DIP Facility was secured by substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under the Intercreditor Agreement, the Asset-Based Lenders had a first priority security interest in accounts receivable, inventory and certain other assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, and had a second priority security interest in all interests in real property, all intellectual property, all equipment and fixtures, and certain other assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Bayside Lenders in such assets.

The ABL DIP Agreement contained customary events of default and affirmative and negative covenants, including (but not limited to) affirmative covenants relating to reporting, appointment of a chief restructuring officer, and bankruptcy transaction milestones, and negative covenants related to the financing order of the Bankruptcy Court, additional indebtedness, liens, assets, fundamental changes, and use of proceeds.

On February 27, 2013, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Super Priority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the "Ad Hoc DIP Agreement") by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries, U.S. Bank National Association, as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent and the lenders party to the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, which replaced the Bayside DIP Agreement, the related Bayside Facility and the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement provided for a senior secured, super-priority revolving credit facility of up to $155,000 (the "Ad Hoc DIP Facility"), with an initial borrowing upon closing of $130,000, and subsequent borrowings of $15,000 following the entry of the final order of the Bankruptcy Court and upon the satisfaction of certain conditions.

The principal amounts outstanding under the Ad Hoc DIP Facility bore interest based on applicable LIBOR or base rates plus margins as set forth in the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an event of default in the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, an additional default interest rate of 2.0% per annum applied. The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement also provided for certain additional fees payable to the agents and lenders.

All borrowings under the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement were required to be repaid on the earliest of (i) June 30, 2013, (ii) the date of termination of the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement, whether pursuant to the consummation of a sale of substantially all of the assets of the Debtors under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (iii) certain other termination events.

Pursuant to a Security and Pledge Agreement, the Ad Hoc DIP Facility was secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all of the assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries.

See Note 24 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional discussion of the post-emergence debt agreements.

Pre-Bankruptcy Filing Debt

Credit Agreement

On May 22, 2012, the Company entered into an Asset-Based Credit Agreement (the "Asset-Based Credit Agreement"). Under the Asset-Based Credit Agreement, the Asset-Based Lenders agreed to provide a revolving senior secured asset-based credit facility (the "2012 ABL Facility") in an aggregate principal amount of $200,000.

The 2012 ABL Facility was secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the lenders under the 2012 ABL Facility and the Term Loan lenders, as described below, the Asset-Based Lenders had a first priority security interest in substantially all working capital assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries, and a second priority security interest in all other assets, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the Term Loan lenders in such other assets.

The Asset-Based Credit Agreement contained customary events of default and financial, affirmative and negative covenants, including financial covenants relating to the Company's (1) minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, (2) maximum secured leverage ratio, (3) maximum total leverage ratio, (4) maximum term loan ratio and (5) minimum interest coverage ratio. In addition, the Asset-Based Credit Agreement contained a minimum liquidity covenant requiring the Company to maintain minimum liquidity levels at the end of each month during the life of the Term Loan (consisting of Qualified Cash, subject to a $2,000 cap, plus availability under the 2012 ABL Facility). The Company was not in compliance with the minimum liquidity covenant as of the end of December, 2012. As a result, the Company entered into a Forbearance Agreement with its 2012 ABL Facility lenders and Bayside Finance, LLC on January 4, 2013 and subsequently filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

Outstanding amounts under the 2012 ABL Facility bore interest at a rate per annum equal to, at the Company's election: (1) a base rate (equal to the greatest of (a) the prime lending rate, (b) the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, and (c) the 30-day LIBOR rate plus 1.00% per annum) (the "Base Rate") plus an applicable margin (equal to a specified margin based on the interest rate elected by the Company, the excess availability under the 2012 ABL Facility and the applicable point in the life of the 2012 ABL Facility) (the "Applicable Margin"), or (2) a LIBOR rate plus the Applicable Margin (the "LIBOR Rate"). Interest on loans under the 2012 ABL Facility that bore interest based upon the Base Rate were due monthly in arrears, and interest on loans that bore interest based upon the LIBOR Rate were due on the last day of each relevant interest period. The effective interest rate under the 2012 ABL Facility for the first nine months of fiscal 2013 was 5.41%, which included amortization of loan origination fees of $866 and commitment fees on unborrowed funds of $376. As of January 26, 2013, the outstanding balance on the 2012 ABL Facility was $41,589. The balances under this Credit Agreement on the date of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases were repaid during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 using cash collections from accounts receivable securing the obligations under this facility.

Term Loan

On May 22, 2012, the Company entered into a term loan credit agreement (the "Term Loan Credit Agreement"). Under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, the Term Loan lender agreed to make a term loan (the "Term Loan") to the Company in aggregate principal amount of $70,000.

The Term Loan was secured by a first priority security interest in substantially all assets of the Company and the guarantor subsidiaries. Under an intercreditor agreement between the lenders under the 2012 ABL Facility and the Term Loan lender, the Term Loan lender had a second priority security interest in substantially all working capital assets of the Company and the subsidiary guarantors, subordinate only to the first priority security interest of the lenders under the 2012 ABL Facility in such assets, and a first priority security interest in all other assets.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement contained customary events of default and financial, affirmative and negative covenants, including quarterly financial covenants relating to the Company's (1) maximum secured leverage ratio, (2) maximum total leverage ratio, (3) maximum term loan ratio, (4) minimum fixed charge coverage ratio and (5) minimum interest coverage ratio. In addition, the Term Loan Credit Agreement contained a minimum liquidity covenant requiring the Company to maintain minimum liquidity levels at the end of each month during the life of the Term Loan (consisting of Unrestricted Cash plus availability under the 2012 ABL Facility). The Company was not in compliance with the minimum liquidity covenant as of the end of December, 2012. As a result, the Company entered into a Forbearance Agreement with its ABL lenders and Bayside Finance, LLC on January 4, 2013 and subsequently filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

The outstanding principal amount of the Term Loan bore interest at a rate per annum equal to the applicable LIBOR rate (calculated as the greater of (1) the current three-month LIBOR rate and (2) 1.5%) plus 11.0%, accruing and paid on a quarterly basis in arrears. The term loan was prepaid by $3,000 in the second quarter of fiscal 2013. In the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013 the remaining term loan of $67,000 was retired using the proceeds from the Ad Hoc DIP Agreement. Interest expense on the Term Loan was not accrued subsequent to the Chapter 11 filing. Absent the Chapter 11 filing, the Company would have had additional interest expense of $865.

The Company recorded a $25,054 charge related to the acceleration of the obligations under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, including the early payment fee. The charge was triggered by the Company's non-compliance with the minimum liquidity covenant. The early payment fee represented the present value of all interest payments due to Bayside during the term of the Term Loan Credit Agreement. The Company has incurred $1,295 of interest expense related to the $25,054 early payment fee. The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement required $25,000 to be placed in an escrow account as a deposit for an early termination fee payable to Bayside that was provided under the Term Loan Credit Agreement. The official Committee of Unsecured Creditors is contesting that Bayside is entitled to receive the funds. The Bankruptcy Court has ruled that Bayside is entitled to the funds, but the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors is contesting the ruling and has filed an appeal in the Federal District Court of Delaware. The funds will remain in the escrow account until the appeal process has been concluded or a settlement of the issues is reached between the parties.

Former Credit Agreement

The Company entered into its former revolving credit facility (the "Credit Agreement") on April 23, 2010 which was subsequently amended in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2011 and the first quarter of fiscal 2012. The Credit Agreement provided borrowing capacity of $242,500. This capacity consisted of a revolving loan of $200,000 and a delayed draw term loan of up to $42,500, which was used to refinance a portion of the Company's convertible notes. Interest accrued at a rate of, at the Company's option, either a Eurodollar rate plus an applicable margin of up to 4.50%, or the lender's base rate plus an applicable margin of up to 3.50%. The Company also paid a commitment fee on the revolving loan and delayed draw term loan of 0.50% on unborrowed funds. The Credit Agreement was secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and contained certain financial covenants, including a consolidated total and senior leverage ratio, a consolidated fixed charge coverage ratio and a limitation on consolidated capital expenditures. The effective interest rate under the Credit Agreement for fiscal 2013, until its termination on May 22, 2012, was 7.39%, which included amortization of loan origination fees of $84 and commitment fees on unborrowed funds of $34.

The Company used a portion of the proceeds of the 2012 ABL Facility and the Term Loan to repay outstanding indebtedness under the former Credit Agreement.

The Company recorded a $10.2 million charge associated with the unamortized debt issuance costs related to the extinguishment of the pre-petition credit facilities.

Convertible Notes

Accounting standards require the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (or other assets) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the market interest rate at debt issuance without the conversion feature. The Company had two convertible debt instruments outstanding during fiscal 2013 and had three convertible debt instruments outstanding during portions of fiscal 2012. A fair value must be assigned to the equity conversion options of (1) the Company's $200,000 convertible subordinated debentures due 2026 (the "2006 Debentures"), which were issued November 22, 2006 of which $42,500 in aggregate principal amount was repaid in the third quarter of fiscal 2012 and the balance of which was exchanged for the 2011 Debentures described in the following clauses (2) and (3); (2) the Company's $100,000 convertible subordinated debentures (the "2011 Debentures"), which were issued on March 1, 2011 of which $100,000 in aggregate original principal amount was outstanding as of April 27, 2013; and (3) the additional $57,500 of the 2011 Debentures, which were issued on July 7, 2011, of which $57,500 in aggregate original principal amount was outstanding as of April 27, 2013 (collectively, the "Convertible Notes"). The value assigned to the equity conversion option results in a corresponding decrease in the value assigned to the carrying value of the debt portion of the instruments.

The values assigned to the debt portions of the Convertible Notes were determined based on market interest rates for similar debt instruments without the conversion feature as of the respective November 22, 2006, March 1, 2011 and July 7, 2011 issuance dates of the Convertible Notes. The difference in market interest rates versus the coupon rates on the Convertible Notes results in non-cash interest that is amortized into interest expense over the expected terms of the Convertible Notes. For purposes of the valuation, the Company used an expected term of five years for the Convertible Notes issued on November 22, 2006 and an expected term of approximately four years for both the Convertible Notes issued March 1, 2011 and July 7, 2011, which corresponds with the first date the holders of the respective Convertible Notes could put their Convertible Notes back to the Company.

The 2006 Debentures were unsecured, subordinated obligations of the Company, paid interest at 3.75% per annum on each May 30th and November 30th, and were convertible upon satisfaction of certain conditions. The debentures were redeemable at the Company's option on or after November 30, 2011. No debentures were converted into shares of common stock.

On November 30, 2011, the holders of the 2006 Debentures presented to the Company for redemption $42,400 of the $42,500 2006 Debentures outstanding. The Company satisfied the $42,400 repayment in cash by borrowing on its former Credit Agreement. The remaining outstanding amount of $100 was called by the Company during the third quarter of fiscal 2012.

On March 1, 2011 and July 7, 2011, the Company entered into separate, privately negotiated exchange agreements under which it retired $100,000 and $57,500, respectively, in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding 2006 Debentures in exchange for the issuance of $100,000 and $57,500, respectively, in aggregate principal amount of the 2011 Debentures. The 2011 Debentures bore interest semi-annually at a rate of 3.75% per year in respect of each $1 original principal amount of 2011 Debentures (the "Original Principal Amount") on each May 30th and November 30th, and the principal accreted on the principal amount of the 2011 Debentures (including the Original Principal Amount) at a rate of 3.9755% per year, compounding on a semi-annual basis (such principal amount, including any accretions thereon, the "Accreted Principal Amount"). The events of default under the 2012 ABL Facility and Term Loan and the acceleration of the obligations thereunder, which are described above, were events of default under the 2011 Debentures. In conjunction with the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate accreted principal amount declared the accreted principal amount of the 2011 Debentures and any accrued and unpaid interest on the 2011 Debentures to be immediately due and payable, subject to the subordination provisions of the 2011 Debentures.

Interest expense on the convertible subordinated debentures was not accrued subsequent to the Chapter 11 filing. Absent the Chapter 11 filing, the Company would have had additional interest expense of $3,864. Of this amount, $1,477 would have been 3.75% coupon interest and $2,387 of non-cash interest under ASC 470-20.

See Note 24 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional discussion of the post-emergence debt.

Sale-leaseback Obligations

The Company entered into two sale-leaseback transactions during fiscal 2001 which are accounted for as financings due to a technical default provision within the leases which could allow, under remote circumstances, for continuing ownership involvement by the Company in the two properties.

Due to the Chapter 11 filing, the 2011 Debentures and sale-leaseback obligations are shown in liabilities subject to compromise and all long-term debt is shown as current debt in the consolidated financial statements as of April 27, 2013, as the Company's DIP related debt had a maturity date of June 30, 2013. See Note 24 for discussion of the impact of the Reorganization Plan on debt.

The Company has estimated that an ownership change occurred in fiscal 2013 that is subject to Internal Revenue Code Section 382. Due to the limitation imposed under Section 382, certain federal and state deferred tax attributes may be significantly reduced over the next five years.

At April 27, 2013, the Company has state net operating losses of approximately $124,736, which expire during fiscal years 2014 – 2030. In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, the Company considers whether it is more likely than not that either all, or some portion, of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The realization is dependent upon the future generation of taxable income, reversal of deferred tax liabilities, tax planning strategies, and expiration of tax attribute carryovers. In fiscal 2012, the Company concluded that the realization of a majority of the deferred tax assets did not meet the more likely than not threshold, and recorded a tax valuation allowance of $32,638. In fiscal 2013, the Company increased its tax valuation allowance to $71,272. As of April 27, 2013, the Company had an immaterial amount of unremitted earnings from foreign investments.

The Company's effective income tax rate varied from the U.S. federal statutory tax rate as follows:

	Fiscal 2013	Fiscal 2012	Fiscal 2011
U.S. federal statutory rate	35.0%	35.0%	35.0%

Valuation allowance	-24.4%	-24.2%	0.0%
Effective income tax rate	0.2%	-0.1%	17.1%

The Company files income tax returns with the U.S., various U.S. states, and foreign jurisdictions. The most significant tax return the Company files is with the U.S. The Company's tax returns are no longer subject to examination by the U.S. for fiscal years before 2011. The Company has various tax audits and appeals in process at any given time. It is not anticipated that any adjustments resulting from tax examinations or appeals would result in a material change to the Company's financial position or results of operations.

As of April 27, 2013, April 28, 2012 and April 30, 2011, the Company's liability for uncertain tax positions, net of federal tax benefits, was $925, $587 and $688, respectively, all of which would impact the effective tax rate if recognized. The Company does not expect any material changes in the amount of uncertain tax positions within the next twelve months. The Company classifies accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the consolidated statements of operations. The amounts of accrued interest and penalties included in the liability for uncertain tax positions are not material.

The following table summarizes the activity related to the Company's gross liability for uncertain tax positions:

NOTE 12—OPERATING LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Company leases various types of warehouse and office facilities and equipment, under lease agreements which expire at various dates. Future minimum lease payments under operating leases for the Company's fiscal years are as follows:

2014	7,218
2015	5,594

Rent expense for fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011, was $9,164, $9,308 and $9,453, respectively.

NOTE 13—EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Company sponsors the School Specialty, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "401(k) Plan") which allows employee contributions in accordance with Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company has the discretion to match a portion of employee contributions and virtually all full-time employees are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan after 90 days of service. In fiscal 2013, fiscal 2012 and fiscal 2011, the Company did not make any 401(k) match due to the economic conditions and the Company's liquidity position.

NOTE 14—SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY (DEFICIT)

Share Repurchase Programs

The Company did not repurchase any shares of its outstanding common stock during the last three fiscal years. Restrictive covenants in the Company's pre-bankruptcy credit facilities and bankruptcy-related debtor-in-possession credit facilities prevent the Company's repurchase of additional common stock.

Earnings Per Share (“EPS”)

Basic EPS excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities to issue common stock were exercised or otherwise issued. The following information presents the Company’s computations of basic and diluted EPS for the periods presented in the consolidated statements of operations:

	(Loss)/Income (Numerator)	Shares (Denominator)	Per Share Amount
Fiscal 2013:
Basic EPS	$(147,692)	18,922	$ (7.81)
Effect of dilutive employee stock options		—
Effect of dilutive non-vested stock units		—
Diluted EPS	$(147,692)	18,922	$ (7.81)
Fiscal 2012:
Basic EPS	$ (134,017)	18,878	$ (7.10)
Effect of dilutive employee stock options		—
Effect of dilutive non-vested stock units		—
Diluted EPS	$ (134,017)	18,878	$ (7.10)
Fiscal 2011:
Basic EPS	$ (356,273)	18,870	$ (18.88)
Effect of dilutive employee stock options		—
Effect of dilutive non-vested stock units		—
Diluted EPS	$ (356,273)	18,870	$ (18.88)

The Company had additional employee stock options outstanding of 2,570, 1,802 and 1,529 during fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively, which were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because they were anti-dilutive.

The 2011 Debentures, had no current impact on the Company’s denominator for computing diluted EPS because conditions under which the debentures may be converted and shares may be issued upon conversion had not been satisfied. See Note 10.

NOTE 15—SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION EXPENSE

Employee Stock Plans

Prior to the Effective Date, the Company had three share-based employee compensation plans under which awards were outstanding as of April 27, 2013: the School Specialty, Inc. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the “1998 Plan”), the School Specialty, Inc. 2002 Stock Incentive Plan (the “2002 Plan”), and the School Specialty, Inc. 2008 Equity Incentive Plan (the “2008 Plan”). All plans were approved by the Company’s shareholders.

includes shares subject to inducement options granted to the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Marketing Officer in connection with the commencement of their respective employment with the Company. While these inducement options had a time-based vesting element, the exercisability of a portion of these options was subject to either a minimum stock purchase requirement and/or a minimum price per share threshold.

In fiscal 2013 there were no time-based NSU awards granted.

In fiscal 2012, the Company granted 14 time-based NSU awards to non-employee directors of the Company with an approximate fair value of $194. The awards would have vested one year from the date of grant and the Company was recognizing share-based compensation expense related to time-based NSU awards on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

In fiscal 2013 there were no shares of restricted stock awarded.

In fiscal 2012, the Company awarded 75 shares of restricted stock to Mr. Lavelle in connection with the commencement of his employment with the Company. As awarded, the restricted stock would have vested one-third of the shares on the date which Mr. Lavelle meets the minimum stock purchase requirement of $400 and would have vested as to an additional one-third on each of the first two anniversaries of that date. In fiscal 2012, the Company also awarded 90 shares of restricted stock to other key senior executives which would have vested ratably over a three year period. The approximate fair value of the grants in fiscal 2012 was $467.

The total unrecognized share-based compensation expense as of April 27, 2013, April 28, 2012 and April 30, 2011 were as follows:

	April 27, 2013	April 28, 2012	April 30, 2011

NSUs	225	28	721
RSUs	1,071	1,239	1,417

The Company would normally expect to recognize this expense over a weighted average period of approximately 2.1 years. However, in conjunction with the Debtors' Reorganization Plan which became effective on June 11, 2013 (see Note 24 – Subsequent Events), all shares, options, NSUs and restricted shares that were outstanding on the Effective Date were canceled. As a result, the Company will not have any compensation expense subsequent to June 11, 2013 related to the above-mentioned equity grants.

The weighted average fair value of options granted during fiscal 2013, 2012 and 2011, was $1.27, $3.40 and $6.72, respectively. The fair value of options is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes single option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions:

NOTE 16—SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company determines its operating segments based on the information utilized by the chief operating decision maker, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, to allocate resources and assess performance. Based on this information, the Company has determined that it operates in two operating segments, Educational Resources and Accelerated Learning, which also constitute its reportable segments. The Company operates principally in the United States, with limited operations in Canada. The Educational Resources segment offers products that include basic classroom supplies and office products, supplemental learning materials, physical education equipment, classroom technology, and furniture. The Accelerated Learning segment is a PreK-12 curriculum-based publisher of proprietary and non-proprietary products in the categories of science, reading and literacy, coordinated school health, and planning and student development. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in Summary of Significant Accounting Policies. Intercompany eliminations represent intercompany sales primarily from the Accelerated Learning segment to the Educational Resources segment, and the resulting profit recognized on such intercompany sales.

While a significant majority of revenue and assets are derived from the Company's U.S. operations, the Company had Canadian revenue of $27,914, $31,082, and $32,325 for fiscal years 2013, 2012, and 2011 respectively, and long-term assets of $929, $10,842, and $28,460 for fiscal years 2013, 2012, and 2011

NOTE 17—RESTRICTED CASH

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company placed $25,000 of cash into a restricted account. The Ad Hoc DIP Agreement required the funds to be placed in an escrow account as a deposit for an early termination fee payable to Bayside that was provided under the Term Loan Credit Agreement. The Bankruptcy Court has ruled that the funds are owed, but the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors is contesting the ruling and has filed an appeal in the Federal District Court of Delaware. The funds will remain in the escrow account until the appeal process has been concluded or a settlement of the issues is reached between the parties.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company transferred $2,708 of cash into a restricted account. The funds in the restricted account serve as collateral primarily for the Company's workmen's compensation insurance and other lease obligations, secured by letters of credit. During the third and fourth quarters of fiscal 2013, $972 and $434 respectively, was transferred from the restricted cash account as the letters of credit secured by these amounts were canceled. The remaining restricted funds cannot be withdrawn from our account without prior written consent of the secured parties.

(In Thousands, Except Per Share Amounts)

The summation of quarterly net income per share may not equate to the calculation for the full fiscal year as quarterly calculations are performed on a discrete basis.

The Company's business activity is subject to seasonal influences. Our historical revenues and profitability have been dramatically higher in the first two quarters of our fiscal year, primarily due to increased shipments to customers coinciding with the start of each school year. Quarterly results also may be materially affected by variations in our costs for the products sold, the mix of products sold and general economic conditions. Therefore, results for any quarter are not indicative of the results that we may achieve for any subsequent fiscal quarter or for a full fiscal year.

NOTE 23—PRELIMINARY PRO FORMA FRESH START BALANCE SHEET AND STATEMENT OF OPERATIONS (UNAUDITED)

In connection with the Company's emergence from Chapter 11, the Company adopted fresh start accounting as of June 11, 2013 in accordance with ASC 852 "Reorganizations". Upon the adoption of fresh start accounting, the financial statements of the Company will not be comparable, in various material respects, to any of the Company's previously issued financial statements. The financial statements as of June 11, 2013 and for periods subsequent to the fresh start effective date reflect that of a new entity. Fresh start accounting results in the creation of a new reporting entity that has no retained earnings or accumulated deficit.

Fresh start accounting reflects the value of the Company as determined in the confirmed plan of reorganization. Under fresh start accounting, the Company's asset values are remeasured using fair value, and are allocated in conformity with ASC 805, "Business Combinations".

The following Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Balance Sheet and Statement of Operations illustrate the presently estimated financial effects of the implementation of the plan of reorganization and the adoption of fresh start accounting. The Pro Forma Fresh Start Balance Sheet reflects the assumed effect of the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Plan of Reorganization, including settlement of various liabilities and securities issuances, incurrence of new indebtedness, and cash payments. The Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Balance Sheet is presented as if the effectiveness of the Plan of Reorganization had occurred, and the Company had adopted fresh start accounting, as of April 27, 2013. The Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Statement of Operations is presented as if the effectiveness of the Plan of Reorganization had occurred, and the Company had adopted fresh start accounting, as of the last day of the fiscal 2012. As a result, the pro forma fiscal 2013 results do not include costs related to the Chapter 11 Cases.

This preliminary pro forma data is unaudited. Asset appraisals for fresh start accounting have not yet been completed, and comparable interest rate and other data required for evaluation of liability values are still being compiled and finalized. Changes in the values of assets and liabilities and changes in assumptions from those reflected in the Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Balance Sheet could significantly impact the reported value of intangibles. Accordingly, the amounts shown are not final, and are subject to changes and revisions, including differences between the estimates used to develop this Preliminary Pro Forma Fresh Start Balance Sheet and the actual amounts ultimately determined. This could also result in differences between the estimates used in the Preliminary Pro Forma Statement of Operations and actual amounts ultimately determined. (1) Debt Discharge

This column represents the discharge, reinstatement or reclassification of liabilities subject to compromise pursuant to the terms of the plan of reorganization. Along with creditor claims accumulated through the bankruptcy proceedings, discharged liabilities include the rejection or reclassification of capital lease obligations. The debtors liabilities subject to compromise total approximately $230,000, of which:

- Approximately $19,400 is reclassified as long-term liabilities representing the estimated recovery of general unsecured creditors.

- Approximately $164,700 represents the pre-petition 3.75% convertible notes (including accrued interest through the filing date), due in 2026, for which the note holders were issued equity with estimated value of $30,400.
- Approximately $11,700 represents capital lease obligations for which the lease was either rejected or amended in a manner that results in an operating lease.

As a result of the various debt discharge and reclassification transactions, a gain on extinguishment of approximately $170,500 is expected to be recognized as a non-cash reorganizational item.

(2) New Credit Financing Transactions

This column reflects the retirement of approximately $198,300 of DIP financings which consisted of repayments of $141,600 and the issuance of equity with an estimated fair value of $57,245. The proceeds for the DIP repayments were made using $138,400 net proceeds, after payment of debt issuance costs and other expenses, from the exit financing and approximately $3,300 of existing cash.

(3) Fresh Start Adjustments

Fresh start adjustments are made to reflect asset values at their estimated fair value. This includes the elimination of debtor equity accounts. Based on an the Company's estimated enterprise value of $300,000, as reported to the Bankruptcy Court, the Company estimates that intangible assets will be reduced from their historical amount by approximately $78,700. This is an estimate until the valuation and fresh start accounting is completed in the first quarter of fiscal 2014.

(1) Eliminate bankruptcy-related costs and interest expense on old debt

This column eliminates $4,732 of bankruptcy-related costs that the Company incurred pre-petition and had included in its SG&A. financing. Other costs related to the extinguishment of the Company's pre-bankruptcy credit facilities, including the $10,201 loss on extinguishment and $26,247 early termination of long-term indebtedness, are eliminated.

- (2) Record interest expense on new debt.

The Company estimates the interest expense on the exit financing will be approximately $19,033. This includes approximately $1,500 on the asset-based loan assuming an average outstanding balance of $60,000 during the course of the fiscal year, $13,775 on the $145,000 term loan, $2,038 of amortized debt issuance costs and $1,720 on the $19,400 estimated face value of the deferred cash payments owed to general unsecured creditors in accordance with Reorganization Plan.

- (3) Adjustments related to the adoption of fresh start accounting and other restructuring.

The Company's preliminary fresh start balance sheet reflects a reduction of intangible assets of $78,704, of which the Company has preliminarily estimated to relate to definite-lived intangibles with an average useful life of approximately 10 years. Thus, the estimated reduction in intangible amortization is approximately $7,800. The Company incurred approximately $2,800 of costs in fiscal 2013 related to the closure of its Mt. Joy, Pennsylvania distribution Center as the lease was rejected in the bankruptcy process. These costs have been eliminated in the Pro Forma Statement of Operations. In addition, the Company estimates that the impact of this lease rejection will reduce occupancy-related costs by approximately $2,000 on a full year basis.

NOTE 24—SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court approved the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Reorganization Plan") pursuant to the Confirmation Order dated May 23, 2013, as corrected June 3, 2013 (the "Confirmation Order"). On June 11, 2013 (the "Effective Date"), the Ad Hoc Facility and the ABL DIP Facility and the related security agreements were terminated in accordance with the terms of the Reorganization Plan. Also on the Effective Date, the 2011 Debentures were canceled and the indenture under which the 2011 Debentures were issued was terminated.

Interest on loans under the New ABL Facility bearing interest based upon the Base Rate will be due monthly in arrears, and interest on loans bearing interest based upon the LIBOR Rate will be due on the last day of each relevant interest period or, if sooner, on the respective dates that fall every three months after the beginning of such interest period.

The New ABL Facility will mature on June 11, 2018. The Company may prepay advances under the New ABL Facility in whole or in part at any time without penalty or premium. The outstanding principal amount of the New Term Loan will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the applicable LIBOR rate (with a 1% floor) plus 8.50%, or the base rate plus a margin of 7.50%. Interest on loans under the New Term Loan Credit Agreement bearing interest based upon the base rate will be due quarterly in arrears, and interest on loans bearing interest based upon the LIBOR Rate will be due on the last day of each relevant interest period or, if sooner, on the respective dates that fall every three months after the beginning of such interest period.

The Term Loan matures on June 11, 2019. The New Term Loan Credit Agreement requires prepayments at specified levels upon the Company's receipt of net proceeds from certain events, including: (1) certain dispositions of property, divisions, business units or business lines; and (2) other issuances of debt other than Permitted Debt (as defined in the New Term Loan Credit Agreement). The New Term Loan Credit Agreement also requires prepayments at specified levels from the Company's excess cash flow. The Company is also permitted to voluntarily prepay the New Term Loan in whole or in part. Any prepayments are to be made at par, plus an early payment fee calculated in accordance with the terms of the New Term Loan Credit Agreement if prepaid prior to the second anniversary of the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

Item 11. Executive Compensation

SUMMARY COMPENSATION TABLE

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Explanatory Note

As previously disclosed, on January 28, 2013, School Specialty, Inc. and the other Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the Bankruptcy Court. On May 23, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Debtors' Reorganization Plan and a corrected copy of such order was entered by the Bankruptcy Court on June 3, 2013. In connection with the Reorganization Plan, all outstanding equity interests of the Company that were issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date were cancelled on the Effective Date.

Pursuant to the Reorganization Plan, on the Effective Date, the terms of the directors and managers of the board of directors or board of managers of the Debtors expired and such directors and managers were deemed removed from such boards. The initial board of directors of the reorganized Company is comprised of four members, including Michael P. Lavelle, Madhu Satyanarayana, Justin Lu and James R. Henderson.

On July 22, 2013 the Company entered into a Transition and Separation Agreement and Mutual General Release (the "Transition Agreement") with Mr. Lavelle, pursuant to which Mr. Lavelle resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and as a member of the board of directors of the Company, effective as of such date after August 2, 2013 as determined by the board of directors, but not later than September 1, 2013. The effective date is expected to be August 9, 2013.

Because of the resignation of Mr. Lavelle on July 22, 2013 the board of directors appointed James R. Henderson, Chairman of the board of directors to serve as interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective as of Mr. Lavelle's Separation Date. Mr. Henderson will continue as Chairman of the board of directors and a director of the Company.

On June 17, 2013, the Board created a new Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors and appointed Messrs. Lu and Henderson to serve on the newly created committee. The new Compensation Committee has not yet determined compensation for fiscal 2014. Accordingly, the executive compensation information discussed below for the fiscal year ended April 27, 2013 does not necessarily reflect the executive compensation program to be implemented by the newly constituted Compensation Committee and Board of Directors of the Company.

In accordance with the smaller reporting company disclosure requirements of Form 10-K and Regulation S-K, this section describes the compensation awarded to, earned by, or paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the next two most highly compensated executive officers (the "Named Executive Officers") during fiscal 2013. In this section, references to the "Company," "Board of Directors," "Compensation Committee," and the like refer to the Company prior to the Effective Date.

Employment Agreements

During fiscal 2013, the Company was party to an employment agreement with each of Mr. Lavelle and Mr. Vander Ploeg, and an offer letter with Mr. Collins. Material terms of these arrangements are described below.

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Lavelle effective January 12, 2012, the term of which would have lasted through June 30, 2015. The agreement provided for an annual base salary of $625,000 (subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors), and eligibility for participation in annual incentive bonus, long-term incentive compensation, retirement and welfare benefit plans offered by the Company to its senior executives. The agreement also provided for the grant of certain options and shares of restricted stock, all of which were cancelled in connection with the reorganization. The agreement contained confidentiality and non-compete provisions during the term of his employment and for a specified period of time thereafter. In the event Mr. Lavelle's employment was terminated without cause, under the agreement he would have been entitled to a severance payment equal to 12 months of base salary, payable in accordance with the normal Company payroll practices. If Mr. Lavelle was terminated without cause within 24 months of a change of control, under the agreement he would have been entitled to a severance payment of 24 months of base salary, payable in accordance with the normal Company payroll practices. Additionally, during any period of salary continuation described in the agreement, Mr. Lavelle and his family would have been entitled under the agreement to continue to be covered under all health insurance coverage of the Company at the then-effective cost sharing arrangement between Mr. Lavelle and the Company. The agreement did not provide for any additional rights if his employment would have been terminated for cause, death, disability or resignation, except for the right to receive any unpaid base salary, accrued time off or reimbursement of expenses to which he was entitled.

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Vander Ploeg effective April 21, 2008. The agreement had an initial term of three years, with automatic one year renewals, unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $330,000 (subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors) and participation in an incentive bonus plan with a 50% of annual earned base salary target with a maximum opportunity of 100%. The agreement contains confidentiality and non-compete provisions that continue for 18 months after termination of employment. In the event Mr. Vander Ploeg's employment is terminated without cause, he is entitled to a severance payment equal to 12 months of base salary, payable in accordance with the normal Company payroll practices. Mr. Vander Ploeg will have no additional rights if his employment is terminated for cause, death, disability or resignation, except for the right to receive any unpaid base salary, accrued time off or reimbursement of expenses to which he is entitled.

Under the offer letter dated August 16, 2012 provided to Mr. Collins in connection with his employment with the Company, Mr. Collins's total compensation includes an initial base salary of $300,000 per year; participation in the Company's annual bonus plan and long-term equity incentive program. Mr. Collins received certain equity grants, which were terminated in connection with the reorganization. Mr. Collins will receive four weeks of paid time off and all benefits that the Company customarily provides to similarly situated employees. Should his employment be terminated for reasons other than cause, Mr. Collins will be eligible to receive one year of severance based on his salary at the date of termination, contingent on his agreement to customary covenants and conditions.

- (1) Represents unvested options that were not "in-the-money" based on the closing price of the Common Stock of $0.10 as of April 27, 2013.
- (2) There were no remaining unearned NSU awards that were not vested at fiscal year-end.
- (3) Because the Company's three-year Adjusted Earnings Per Share ("EPS") for the fiscal 2009-2011 performance period was less than the threshold three-year average Adjusted EPS goal for the NSUs granted in fiscal 2009, no shares were earned under that grant. The Company's Adjusted EPS for fiscal 2010 was between the threshold and target Adjusted EPS goals for the NSUs granted in fiscal 2010. Therefore, a number of shares equal to 88% of the target payout were earned under the fiscal 2010 grant. These shares vested on June 22, 2012 for the recipients employed with the Company through that date. The Company's Adjusted EPS for fiscal 2011 was less than the threshold Adjusted EPS goal for the NSUs granted in fiscal 2011. Therefore, no shares were earned under the fiscal 2011 grant. No NSUs were granted in fiscal 2012 or fiscal 2013.
- (4) The options granted on June 22, 2009, with an expiration date of June 22, 2019, would have vested in four equal annual installments on June 22, 2010, June 22, 2011, June 22, 2012, and June 22, 2013, respectively.
- (5) The options granted on May 5, 2008, with an expiration date of May 5, 2018, vested in four equal annual installments on May 5, 2009, May 5, 2010, May 5, 2011, and May 5, 2012, respectively.
- (6) The options granted on June 28, 2010, with an expiration date of June 28, 2020, would have vested in four equal annual installments on June 28, 2011, June 28, 2012, June 28, 2013, and June 28, 2014, respectively.
- (7) Restricted shares awarded on June 28, 2010 would have vested 30% on June 28, 2013, an additional 30% on June 28, 2014 and the final 40% on June 28, 2015.

- (8) Restricted shares awarded to Mr. Lavelle as of January 12, 2012 would have vested 33% on the first anniversary following his purchase of $400,000 of Common Stock; 33% on the second anniversary of such purchase and 34% on the third anniversary of such purchase. Restricted shares awarded to Mr. Vander Ploeg as of April 2, 2012 would have vested 33% on the first anniversary of the award date, 33% on the second anniversary and 34% on the third anniversary.
 - (9) The options granted on June 22, 2011, with an expiration date of June 22, 2021, would have vested in four equal annual installments on June 22, 2012, June 22, 2013, June 22, 2014 and June 22, 2015, respectively.
 - (10) Stock options awarded to Mr. Lavelle as of January 12, 2012 would have vested 33% on the first anniversary following his purchase of $400,000 of Common Stock; 33% on the second anniversary of such purchase and 34% on the third anniversary of such purchase.
 - (11) Stock options awarded to Mr. Lavelle as of January 12, 2012 would have vested 25% upon the achievement of an average stock price of $5, $10, $15 and $20, respectively. Regardless of the stock price targets for vesting purposes, no options were exercisable in the first year of employment, 33% would have become exercisable on each of the first three anniversaries of Mr. Lavelle's date of hire.
 - (12) Stock options awarded to Mr. Vander Ploeg on April 2, 2012 would have vested 50% each upon the achievement of an average stock price of $5 and $10, respectively. Regardless of the stock price targets for vesting purposes, no options were exercisable prior to the first anniversary of the grant date, then 33% become exercisable after each of the first three anniversary dates of their respective hire dates. However, Mr. Vander Ploeg would could not have exercised any of these stock options prior to his purchase of $75,000 of Common Stock.
 - (13) Stock options awarded to Mr. Vander Ploeg on April 2, 2012 would have vested 33% on each of the first three anniversary dates of the grant date.
 - (14) Mr. Collins was awarded two stock options on September 6, 2012, each with an expiration date of September 4, 2022. The option to purchase 30,000 shares would have become exercisable on each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date, and, following his purchase of $115,000 of Common Stock, the option to purchase 75,000 shares would have vested 25% upon the achievement of an average stock price of $5, $10, $15 and $20, respectively; provided, however, that the option could not be exercised with respect to more than one-third of the underlying shares on each of the first three anniversaries of the date of grant.

Option Exercises. There were no options to acquire Common Stock exercised during fiscal 2013 by the Named Executive Officers.

POTENTIAL PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION OR CHANGE OF CONTROL

Potential Payments upon Termination by the Company

Under the employment agreement in effect for Mr. Lavelle as of January 12, 2012, upon termination of his employment without cause, Mr. Lavelle was eligible for a severance payment of 12 months of base salary as further quantified in the table below. In addition, Mr. Lavelle and his family would have continued to be covered under all health insurance coverage of the Company for a 12-month period at the then-effective cost sharing arrangement between Mr. Lavelle and the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of the Transition Agreement with Mr. Lavelle, the Company has agreed to make certain payments to Mr. Lavelle following the Separation Date, subject to Mr. Lavelle's execution of a waiver and release of claims on the Separation Date in favor of the Company and subject to Mr. Lavelle's compliance with certain continuing restrictive covenants in his employment agreement. In particular, the Company has agreed (i) to pay Mr. Lavelle's base salary for a period of six months following the Separation Date, (ii) to reimburse Mr. Lavelle for that portion of premiums paid by Mr. Lavelle to obtain continuation health coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended (also known as COBRA) equal to the Company's subsidy for health coverage for active employees with family coverage for a period of six months following the Separation Date, (iii) to reimburse Mr. Lavelle's reasonable legal fees, up to $15,000, incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation and execution of the Transition Agreement, and (iv) in the event the Company requests that Mr. Lavelle provide consulting services to the Company following the Separation Date, to pay certain fees for such consulting services to the extent Mr. Lavelle's consulting services require more than ten hours in any month.

Upon termination without cause, Mr. Vander Ploeg and Mr. Collins are eligible for a severance payment of 12 months of base salary as further quantified in the table below.

No payments are required to any Named Executive Officer upon termination for cause (in each case, as defined in the applicable agreement).

Potential Payments upon Retirement, Death or Disability

Executive officers are not eligible for any additional benefits upon retirement.

Potential Payments upon a Change of Control

Upon a change of control, Mr. Lavelle is eligible for a severance payment of 24 months of base salary as further quantified in the table below, only in the event Mr. Lavelle is terminated without cause within a two year period following a change of control. In addition, for a period of 24 months following a termination without cause following a change of control, Mr. Lavelle and his family will continue to be covered under all health insurance coverage of the Company at the then-effective cost sharing arrangement between Mr. Lavelle and the Company.

No other Named Executive Officers are entitled to salary continuation benefits upon a change of control. Any unvested equity awards granted to employees and non-employee directors would have vested upon a change of control.

The table below reflects the amounts that would have been payable to each of the Named Executive Officers of the Company had such person terminated his or her employment effective as of April 27, 2013. The actual amounts payable can only be determined at the time of an individual's separation from the Company.

- (1) Upon a change of control, Mr. Lavelle has the right to terminate his employment and is eligible for salary continuation through the remaining term of his employment contract. No other Named Executive Officers are entitled to salary continuation benefits upon a change of control. Any unvested equity awards granted to employees and non-employee directors would have vested upon a change of control, except with respect to the stock options awarded to Mr. Lavelle that were subject to minimum share price vesting requirements, the vesting of which would be accelerated only if and to the extent the consideration per share for the Company's common stock in a change of control were to exceed specified values.
- (2) The amounts shown reflect the accelerated vesting of unvested NSUs and restricted stock.

NON-EMPLOYEE DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

During fiscal 2013, the Compensation Committee Charter provided for the Committee to review the level and composition of compensation provided to non-employee members of the Board of Directors on a periodic basis, and to approve any changes. Such approval was required to be ratified by a majority of independent members of the Board of Directors.

The compensation program for non-employee directors was designed to both provide fair compensation for work required of directors of a company the size and complexity of School Specialty, Inc. and align the interests of directors with those of the Company's shareholders. Non-employee directors were compensated with a combination of both cash and equity-based compensation. The Committee's target for the equity component of the annual director compensation was at least 50 percent of the total annual director compensation.

In fiscal 2013, non-employee directors were paid an annual retainer of $50,000 plus $1,000 for each additional special meeting and committee meeting attended and are reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses related to their service as directors. The non-executive chairman was paid an additional annual retainer of $50,000, and the Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Governance Committee chairpersons were paid additional annual retainers of $10,000, $5,000 and $5,000, respectively.

Non-employee directors were granted options under the Company's stock incentive plans to purchase 15,000 shares of Common Stock upon their initial election as members of the Board of Directors. During the June meeting of the Board of Directors each year, each non-employee director was awarded an annual grant under the Company's equity incentive plans which historically approximated at least $65,000 in value. This target amount of equity-based compensation was based on the Committee's estimate of the average annual cash compensation earned by the Company's directors, thus targeting a total compensation objective of approximately equal cash and equity components.

The Committee had targeted approximately one-half the value of this annual equity-based compensation to be granted in the form of stock options, and approximately one-half the value of this equity-based compensation to be granted in the form of NSUs. Stock options were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the date of grant and have three year, variable vesting schedules (20% after year one, 50% cumulative after year two, and 100% cumulative after year three). The NSUs were fully earned and vested after the one-year anniversary of the date of grant.

- (1) The amounts reflect the dollar value of the compensation cost of options and NSUs granted during fiscal 2013, computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718. The assumptions used in the computation of these amounts are included in Note 15 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's fiscal 2013, 2011 and 2012 Annual Reports on Form 10-K. As of April 27, 2013 each Director had outstanding options to purchase the following number of shares of Common Stock: Terry L. Lay: 67,500; Edward C. Emma: 57,500; Herbert A. Trucksess, III: 57,500; Jacqueline F. Woods: 57,500; Jonathan J. Ledecy: 67,500; A. Jacqueline Dout: 52,500, and David J. Vander Zanden: 608,300.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

No member of the Compensation Committee during fiscal 2013, had ever been an officer of School Specialty or any of the Company's subsidiaries, and none of the Company's executive officers served on the compensation committee or the board of directors of any company of which any of the Company's directors is an executive officer.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence

Related Party Transactions

The Company's Audit Committee Charter provides that the responsibilities of the Audit Committee include a review and approval of all related party transactions with directors, executive officers, persons that are beneficial owners of more than 5% of the Company's common stock ("5% Holders"), members of their family and persons or entities affiliated with any of them. While the Audit Committee Charter does not provide specific procedures as to the review of related party transactions, the Audit Committee requires management to present to it at each quarterly meeting the details of any such transactions, and any such transactions are subject to review and evaluation by the Audit Committee based on the specific facts and circumstances of each transaction.

Each of the transactions described below occurred in connection with the Company's Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings and were approved by the Company's Board of Directors or were in accordance with the Reorganization Plan.

Convertible Subordinated Debentures

Item 14. Principal Accountant Fees and Services.

Fees Paid to Independent Auditors

The following table presents fees for audit services rendered by Deloitte & Touche LLP for the audit of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years 2013 and 2012, and fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for other services rendered during the same periods.

Type of Fees	Fiscal 2013	Fiscal 2012
Audit Fees	$ 900,000	$ 789,246
Audit-Related Fees	15,157	30,500
Tax Fees	184,620	373,723
All Other Fees	0	0
Total	$ 1,099,777	$ 1,193,469

In the above table, “audit fees” are fees the Company paid Deloitte for professional services for the audit of the Company’s consolidated financial statements included in its annual report on Form 10-K and the review of financial statements included in its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, or for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. Services related to School Specialty’s compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 are included in audit fees for fiscal 2012. “Audit-related fees” are fees billed by Deloitte for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company’s financial statements. Audit-related services for fiscal 2013 included work related to the Company’s response to a SEC comment letter. “Tax fees” are fees for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. Tax-related services for fiscal 2013 and fiscal 2012 included tax return preparation and consulting.

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and non-audit work, including tax compliance and tax consulting, performed by Deloitte. However, the Audit Committee has delegated the approval of one category of non-audit services, post-closing accounting services related to School Specialty’s future acquisitions and dispositions, to the Chairman in the event it is not administratively expedient for the full Audit Committee to approve and authorize such services. In such case, the Chairman is required to make a report to the full Audit Committee at its next meeting. All audit and non-audit services provided by Deloitte during fiscal 2013 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

In performing all of the functions described above, the Audit Committee acts only in an oversight capacity. The Audit Committee does not complete its reviews of the matters described above prior to the Company’s public announcements of financial results and, necessarily, in its oversight role, the Audit Committee relies on the work and assurances of the Company’s management, which has the primary responsibility for the Company’s financial statements and reports and internal control over financial reporting, and of the independent auditors, who, in their report, express an opinion on the conformity of the Company’s annual financial statements to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The Borrowers shall be required to prepay the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.9(c) upon the following events in the amounts stated below, in each case within one (1) Business Day of the receipt thereof, unless such prepayment is waived in writing by the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders:

(i) upon the receipt by any Group Member of the proceeds of a Carson-Dellosa Drag-Along Sale or any other voluntary or involuntary Disposition or spin-offs of property, divisions, business units, or business lines of a Group Member (including casualty losses or condemnations but excluding sales or dispositions which are permitted under clause (a) of Section 6.5 and dispositions of Inventory in the ordinary course of business), in an amount equal to (x) in the case of Net Cash Proceeds (including condemnation awards and payments in lieu thereof) received in respect of ABL DIP Credit Priority Collateral by such Group Member in connection with such Dispositions or spin-offs, 100% of the amount thereof, and (y) in all other cases, in an amount equal to 100% of the Net Cash Proceeds (including condemnation awards and payments in lieu thereof) received by such Group Member in connection with such Dispositions or spin-offs; provided, that, nothing contained in this Section 2.9(a)(i) shall permit any Group Member to Dispose of any property other than in accordance with Section 6.5; and

(ii) upon the receipt by any Group Member of (1) any net proceeds of issuances of Debt for the refinancing of the Obligations, in an amount equal to 100% of such amounts, (2) net proceeds of issuances of Debt (other than Debt described in the preceding clause (1), and other Permitted Debt), in an amount equal to 50% of such amounts, (3) net proceeds of issuances of Equity Interests to any Person other than an Obligor, in an amount equal to 50% of such amounts, (4) Extraordinary Receipts attributable to or received in respect of Term and Revolving Loan Priority Collateral, in an amount equal to 100% of such amounts, (5) Extraordinary Receipts attributable to or received in respect of ABL DIP Credit Priority Collateral, in an amount equal to 0% of such amounts that are received prior to Payment in Full of the ABL Priority Debt (as each such term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) and 100% of such amounts that are received thereafter, (6) other Extraordinary Receipts, in an amount equal to 50% of such amounts, (7) any proceeds of business interruption insurance, in an amount equal to 50% of such amounts, (8) any proceeds of all other insurance in respect of loss or destruction of property and of the proceeds of all awards and other recoveries in respect of condemnation and analogous events in respect of property, in each case attributable to or received in respect of Term and Revolving Loan Priority Collateral, in an amount equal to 100% of such amounts, and (9) any proceeds of all other insurance in respect of loss or destruction of property and of the proceeds of all awards and other recoveries in respect of condemnation and analogous events in respect of property, in each case attributable to or received in respect of ABL DIP Credit Priority Collateral (calculated as determined in Section 5.2 of the Intercreditor Agreement), in an amount equal to 0% of such amounts that are received prior to Payment in Full of the ABL Priority Debt (as each such term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) and 100% of such amounts that are received thereafter (in each case in clauses (8) and (9) above, subject to exceptions for repairs and replacements effected within 60 days of receipt of such insurance proceeds or other award by any Group Member and costing up to $200,000 per casualty event (or such greater amount as the Administrative Agent may approve, to the extent commercially reasonable)).

(b) Voluntary Prepayments. The Borrowers may prepay the outstanding principal amount of any Loan in whole at any time and/or in part, at par, from time to time, upon not less than thirty (30) days', and not more than sixty (60) days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent, which notice shall be irrevocable once given, provided that (i) the Borrowers will remain liable for any breakage costs that may be owing pursuant to Section 2.13 after giving effect to such prepayment, and (ii) each partial prepayment that is not of the entire outstanding amount of Loans shall be in an aggregate amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000,000.

(c) Prepayments Generally. The following provisions shall apply to all prepayments under Section 2.9(a) and (b), to the extent specified below:

(i) any prepayment of the Revolving Loans under Section 2.9(a) and (b) shall be applied against the outstanding Revolving Loans of each Lender pro rata according to each Lender's Percentage of such Loans with a permanent reduction of the Revolving Commitment;

(ii) at any time that an Application Event has occurred, prepayments under Section 2.9(a) shall be applied in accordance with the terms of Section 2.10(f)(ii);

(iii) [Reserved];

(iv) [Reserved]; and

(v) upon receipt by any Obligor of any Net Cash Proceeds, Extraordinary Receipts, net proceeds of issuances of Debt or Equity Interests, insurance proceeds or other awards payable in connection with the loss, destruction or condemnation of any property, or other amounts described in Section 2.9(a) (except clause (a)(i)(x)), the Administrative Borrower shall immediately deposit such funds, or cause such funds to be immediately deposited, in the Term and Revolving Loan Priority Collateral Deposit Account in an amount not less than the maximum amount that would be required to be applied to prepayment of the Obligations hereunder (assuming none of such proceeds would be elected to be used for any permitted repairs or replacements); the Administrative Borrower will cause such funds to be maintained in the Term and Revolving Loan Priority Collateral Deposit Account until applied to prepayment of the Obligations, or to a permitted repair or replacement, in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.9.

(d) No Violation of Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this Agreement, the Borrowers shall not be permitted to make, and the Agent and the Lenders shall not be required to receive (and for the avoidance of doubt, if the Lenders do so receive, such receipt shall be subject to the Intercreditor Agreement), any voluntary prepayments of the Obligations (for the avoidance of doubt, including voluntary prepayments pursuant to Section 2.9(b) and also prepayments specified to be in such amounts as the Administrative Borrower may elect pursuant to Section 2.9(a)(i)(y)) that would contravene, or result in a breach of, any provision of the Intercreditor Agreement.

Section 2.10. Payments.

(a) Making of Payments. All payments and prepayments of principal, interest and other amounts due hereunder shall be made (unless otherwise expressly stated in this Agreement) to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders pro rata according to their respective applicable Percentages. All payments to the Administrative Agent shall be made to the Administrative Agent at its office in Miami, Florida, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the date due, in Dollars in immediately available funds, and funds received after that hour shall be deemed, for purposes of determining timeliness of payments and for all purposes of computation of interest, to have been received by the Administrative Agent on the next following Business Day. Any payment or prepayment of principal shall be accompanied by accrued unpaid interest on such amount of principal paid or prepaid through the date of payment or prepayment, and, if applicable, additional compensation calculated in accordance with Section 2.13. The Administrative Agent shall remit to each Lender in immediately available funds its share of all such payments received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender on the Business Day next succeeding the Business Day such payments are received by the Administrative Agent. If the Administrative Agent fails to remit any payment to any Lender when required hereby, the Administrative Agent shall pay interest on demand to that Lender for each day during the period commencing on the date such remittance was due until the date such remittance is made at an annual rate equal to the Federal Funds Rate for such day. All payments under Section 2.11, 2.12 or 2.13 shall be made by the Borrowers directly to each Lender entitled thereto.

(b) Effect of Payments. Each payment by the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.10(a) shall be deemed to constitute payment by the Borrowers directly to such Lender, provided, however, that in the event any such payment by the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent is required to be returned to the Borrowers for any reason whatsoever, then the Borrowers' obligation to such Lender with respect to such payment shall be deemed to be automatically reinstated.

(c) Distributions by Agent. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by a Lender or a Borrower prior to the date on which such Lender or Borrower are scheduled to make payment to the Administrative Agent of (in the case of a Lender) the proceeds of a Revolving Loan to be made by it hereunder or (in the case of a Borrower) a payment to the Administrative Agent for the account of one or more of the Lenders hereunder (such payment by a Lender or Borrower (as the case may be) being herein called a “Required Payment”), which notice shall be effective upon receipt, that it does not intend to make the Required Payment to the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Required Payment has been made and may, in reliance upon such assumption (but shall not be required to), make the amount thereof available to the intended recipient(s) on such date and, if such Lender or Borrower (as the case may be) has not in fact made the Required Payment to the Administrative Agent, the recipient(s) of such payment shall, on demand, repay to the Administrative Agent the amount so made available together with interest thereon for each day during the period commencing on the date such amount was so made available by the Administrative Agent until the date the Administrative Agent recovers such amount at a rate (i) equal to the Federal Funds Rate for such day, in the case of a Required Payment owing by a Lender, or (ii) equal to the applicable rate of interest as provided in this Agreement for the Loans (calculated daily and not in respect of any Interest Period), in the case of a Required Payment owing by a Borrower.

(d) Setoff. Each Borrower agrees that each Lender, subject to such Lender’s sharing obligations set forth in Section 8.6, shall have all rights of setoff and bankers’ lien provided by Applicable Law, and in addition thereto, each Borrower agrees that if at any time any Obligation is due and owing by such Borrower under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents to any Lender at a time when an Event of Default has occurred hereunder, any Lender may apply any and all balances, credits, and deposits, accounts or moneys of such Borrower then or thereafter in the possession of such Lender (excluding, however, any trust or escrow accounts held by such Borrower for the benefit of any third party) to the payment thereof.

(e) Due Date Extension. If any payment of principal or of interest on any Loan or any fees payable hereunder falls due on a day that is not a Business Day, then such due date shall be extended to the next following Business Day, and (in the case of principal) additional interest shall accrue and be payable for the period of such extension.

(f) Apportionment and Application of Payments.

(i) So long as no Application Event has occurred, and except as otherwise expressly specified herein, all principal and interest payments shall be apportioned ratably among the Lenders (according to the unpaid principal balance of the Obligations to which such payments relate held by each Lender) and all payments of fees and expenses (other than fees or expenses that are for the Agent’s separate account) shall be apportioned ratably among the Lenders to which a particular fee or expense relates. All payments to be made hereunder by the Borrowers shall (subject to the last sentence of Section 2.10(a) hereof) be remitted to the Administrative Agent and all (subject to Section 2.10(f)(iii) hereof) such payments, and all proceeds of Collateral received by the Agent, shall be applied, so long as no Application Event has occurred, to reduce the balance of the Loans and other Obligations outstanding and, thereafter, to the Administrative Borrower or such other Person entitled thereto under Applicable Law.

(ii) At any time that an Application Event has occurred, all payments remitted to the Administrative Agent and all proceeds of Collateral received by the Agent shall be applied as follows:

(A) first, to pay any Agent Expenses (including cost or expense reimbursements) or indemnities then due to the Agent under the Loan Documents, until paid in full;

- (B) second, to pay any fees or premiums then due to the Agent under the Loan Documents until paid in full;
 - (C) third, to pay interest due in respect of all Protective Advances, pro rata, until paid in full;
 - (D) fourth, to pay the principal of all Protective Advances, pro rata, until paid in full;
 - (E) fifth, ratably to pay any fees then due to any of the Lenders under the Loan Documents until paid in full;
 - (F) sixth, ratably to pay interest due in respect of the Loans then outstanding until paid in full;
 - (G) seventh, ratably to pay the principal of all Loans then outstanding until paid in full;
 - (H) eighth, ratably to pay any other Obligations; and
 - (I) ninth, to the Administrative Borrower or such other Person entitled thereto under Applicable Law.

(iii) In each instance, so long as no Application Event has occurred, Section 2.10(f)(i) shall not apply to any payment made by the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent and specified by the Administrative Borrower to be for the payment of specific Obligations then due and payable (or prepayable) under any provision of this Agreement.

(iv) For purposes of Section 2.10(f)(ii), “paid in full” means payment in cash in Dollars of all amounts owing under the Loan Documents according to the terms thereof, including loan fees, service fees, professional fees, interest (and specifically including interest accrued after the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding), default interest, interest on interest and expense reimbursements, whether or not any of the foregoing would be or is allowed or disallowed in whole or in part in any Insolvency Proceeding.

(v) In the event of a direct conflict between the priority provisions of this Section 2.10(f) and any other provision contained in any other Loan Document, it is the intention of the parties hereto that such provisions be read together and construed, to the fullest extent possible, to be in concert with each other. In the event of any actual, irreconcilable conflict that cannot be resolved as aforesaid, the terms and provisions of this Section 2.10(f) shall control and govern.

(g) Administrative Agent Fee. On the Closing Date the Administrative Borrower shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the Agent, as agency fees set forth in the Administrative Agent Fee Agreement.

(h) Closing Fee. On the Closing Date the Administrative Borrower shall pay, or cause to be paid, to Bayside Capital, Inc. a fee (the “Closing Fee”) in the aggregate amount of $500,000 pursuant to the Administrative Agent Fee Agreement. The Closing Fee shall be due and payable on the Closing Date and not refundable under any circumstances.

(i) [Reserved].

(j) Commitment Fees. On the Closing Date, Administrative Borrower shall pay or cause to be paid to the Lenders commitment fees (the “Commitment Fees”) in the aggregate amount of $1,000,000.

(k) Unused Line Fee. From and after the Closing Date, Administrative Borrower shall pay or cause to be paid to Administrative Agent an unused line fee (the “Unused Line Fee”) equal to 1.00% of the average daily difference between (a) the Revolving Commitments and (b) the aggregate outstanding Revolving Loans payable monthly in arrears and on the Termination Date.

Section 2.11. Taxes.

(a) Payments. All payments made by the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent or any other Secured Party (herein any “Payee”) under or in connection with this Agreement or the Term Notes shall be made without any setoff or other counterclaim, and shall be free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for or on account of any present or future Taxes now or hereafter imposed by any Governmental Authority or other authority, except to the extent that any such deduction or withholding is compelled by law. As used herein, the term “Taxes” shall include all income, excise and other taxes of whatever nature (other than taxes generally assessed on the overall net income of a Payee by any Governmental Authority of the country, state or political subdivision in which such Payee is incorporated or in which the office through which such Payee is acting is located) as well as all levies, imposts, remittances, duties, charges, or fees of whatever nature. If a Borrower is compelled by law to make any deductions or withholdings on account of any Taxes (including any foreign withholding), such Borrower will:

(i) pay such additional amounts (including, without limitation, any penalties, interest or expenses) as may be necessary in order that the net amount received by the Payee after such deductions or withholdings (including any required deduction or withholding on such additional amounts) shall equal the amount the Payee would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made; and

(ii) pay to the relevant authorities the full amount required to be so withheld or deducted (including with respect to such additional amounts); and

(iii) promptly forward to the Administrative Agent (for delivery to the appropriate Payee) an official receipt or other documentation satisfactory to the Administrative Agent evidencing such payment to such authorities.

If any Taxes otherwise payable by a Borrower pursuant to the foregoing are directly asserted against a Payee, such Payee may pay such taxes and such Borrower promptly shall reimburse such Payee to the full extent otherwise required under this Section 2.11.

(b) Other Taxes. In addition, the Borrowers shall pay any present or future stamp or documentary taxes or any other excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies that arise from any payment made by the Borrowers hereunder or under any other Loan Documents or from the execution, delivery or registration of, performing under, or otherwise with respect to, this Agreement or the other Loan Documents (hereinafter referred to as “Other Taxes”).

(c) Indemnification by Borrowers. The Borrowers shall indemnify each Lender and the Administrative Agent for and hold it harmless against the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes and Other Taxes (including, without limitation, taxes of any kind imposed or asserted by any jurisdiction on amounts payable under this Section 2.11(c)) imposed on or paid or remitted by such Lender or the Administrative Agent (as the case may be) and any liability (including penalties, interest and reasonable expenses) arising therefrom or with respect thereto exclusive of any transfer taxes that the Purchaser will pay pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement. This indemnification shall be made within 30 days from the date such Lender or the Administrative Agent (as the case may be) makes written demand therefor with appropriate supporting documentation.

(d) Evidence of Payment. Within 30 days after the date of any payment of Taxes, the appropriate Borrower shall furnish to the Administrative Agent, at its address referred to in Section 10.3, the original or a certified copy of a receipt evidencing such payment to the extent such a receipt is issued therefor, or other written proof of payment thereof that is reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent. In the case of any payment hereunder or under the Notes or any other documents to be delivered hereunder by or on behalf of a Borrower through an account or branch outside the United States or by or on behalf of a Borrower by a payor that is not a United States person, if such Borrower determines that no Taxes are payable in respect thereof, such Borrower shall furnish, or shall cause such payor to furnish, to the Administrative Agent, at such address, an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent stating that such payment is exempt from Taxes. For purposes of this subsection (d) and subsection (e), the terms “United States” and “United States person” shall have the meanings specified in Section 7701 of the IR Code.

(e) Exemption from Withholding. Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax under the law of the jurisdiction in which the Borrower is located, or any treaty to which such jurisdiction is a party, with respect to payments under this Agreement shall deliver to the Borrower (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), to the extent such Lender is legally entitled to do so, at the time or times prescribed by applicable law, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable law as may reasonably be requested by the Borrower to permit such payments to be made without such withholding Tax or at a reduced rate; provided that no Lender shall have any obligation under this paragraph (e) with respect to any withholding Tax imposed by any jurisdiction other than the United States if in the reasonable judgment of such Lender such compliance would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would otherwise be prejudicial to such Lender in any material respect.

(f) FATCA. If a payment made to a Lender hereunder or under any Loan Documents would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the IR Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Company and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Company or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the IR Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Company or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Company and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender’s obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. If any form or document referred to in this subsection (f) (other than FATCA documentation) requires the disclosure of information, other than information necessary to compute the tax payable and information required on the Closing Date by IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8ECI or the related certificate described above, that the Lender reasonably considers to be confidential, the Lender shall give notice thereof to the Company and shall not be obligated to include in such form or document such confidential information, except directly to a governmental authority or other Person subject to a reasonable confidentiality agreement. In addition, upon the written request of the Company or the Administrative Agent, each, Lender or the Administrative Agent shall provide any other certification, identification, information, documentation or other reporting requirement if (i) delivery thereof is required by a change in the law, regulation, administrative practice or any applicable tax treaty as a precondition to exemption from or a reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding; (ii) the Administrative Agent or Lender, as the case may be, is legally entitled to make delivery of such item; and (iii) delivery of such item will not result in material additional costs unless Company shall have agreed in writing to indemnify Lender or the Administrative Agent for such costs. Solely for the purposes of this subsection (f), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(g) Additional Amounts Payable. Any Lender claiming any additional amounts payable pursuant to this Section 2.11 agrees to use reasonable efforts (consistent with its internal policy and legal and regulatory restrictions) to change the jurisdiction of its Applicable Lending Office if the making of such a change would avoid the need for, or reduce the amount of, any such additional amounts that may thereafter accrue and would not, in the judgment of such Lender, be otherwise disadvantageous to such Lender.

(h) Refund of Taxes. If any Lender or the Administrative Agent determines, in its sole discretion, that it has actually and finally received a refund of any Taxes paid or reimbursed by a Borrower pursuant to subsection (a) or (c) above in respect of payments under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, shall pay to the applicable Borrower, with reasonable promptness following the date on which it actually receives such refund, an amount equal to such refund, net of all out-of-pocket expenses in securing such refund; provided, that the Company, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, agrees to repay the amount paid (with interest and penalties) over to any Borrower to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such amount to such governmental authority. This Section 2.11(h) shall not be construed to require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes which it deems confidential) to the Borrowers or any other person.

(i) Indemnification of Administrative Agent. Each Lender shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within 10 days after demand therefor, for (i) any Taxes or Other Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that any Borrower has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Taxes and Other Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Borrowers to do so) and (ii) any taxes excluded from the definition of Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant governmental authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Agent under this Section 2.11(i). For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.11(a), Section 2.11(b) and Section 2.11(c), nothing in this Section 2.11(i) shall result in any increase in the liability of any Borrower to any Lender or the Administrative Agent for Taxes or Other Taxes.

Section 2.12. Increased Costs; Capital Adequacy; Funding Exceptions.

(a) Increased Costs on LIBOR Rate. If Regulation D of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or after the date of this Agreement the adoption of any applicable law, rule or regulation, or any change in any existing law, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by a Lender with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency, shall:

(i) subject a Lender to or cause the withdrawal or termination of any exemption previously granted to a Lender with respect to, any tax, duty or other charge with respect to its Loans or its obligation to make Loans, or shall change the basis of taxation of payments to a Lender of the principal of or interest under this Agreement in respect of its Loans or its obligation to make Loans (except for changes in the rate of tax on the overall net income of a Lender imposed by the jurisdictions in which such Lender's principal executive office is located or in which such Lender is organized), or

(ii) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve (including, without limitation, any reserve imposed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, but excluding any reserve included in the determination of interest rates pursuant to Section 2.4), special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, a Lender; or

(iii) impose on a Lender any other condition affecting its making, maintaining or funding of its Loans or its obligation to make Loans; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to an affected Lender of making or maintaining any Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender under this Agreement or with respect to a Loan, then the affected Lender will notify the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent of such increased cost and within fifteen (15) days after demand by such Lender (which demand shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the basis of such demand) and the Borrowers shall pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate the Lender for such increased cost or such reduction. Each Lender will notify the Administrative Borrower of any event of which it has knowledge, occurring after the date hereof, which will entitle such Lender to compensation pursuant to this Section 2.12. The obligations of the Borrowers under this Section 2.12(a) shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

(b) Capital Adequacy. If a Lender determines at any time that such Lender's Return has been reduced as a result of any Capital Adequacy Rule Change, such Lender may require the Borrowers to pay to such Lender the amount necessary to restore such Lender's Return to what it would have been had there been no Capital Adequacy Rule Change. For purposes of this Section 2.12(b), the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Return", for any fiscal quarter or shorter period, means the percentage determined by dividing (A) the sum of interest and ongoing fees earned by a Lender under this Agreement during such period by (B) the average capital such Lender is required to maintain during such period as a result of its being a party to this Agreement, as determined by such Lender based upon its total capital requirements and a reasonable attribution formula that takes account of the Capital Adequacy Rules then in effect. Return may be calculated for a Lender for each fiscal quarter and for the shorter period between the end of a fiscal quarter and the date of termination in whole of this Agreement.

(ii) "Capital Adequacy Rule" means any law, rule, regulation or guideline regarding capital adequacy that applies to a Lender, or the interpretation thereof by any Governmental Authority. Capital Adequacy Rules include rules requiring financial institutions to maintain total capital in amounts based upon percentages of outstanding loans, binding loan commitments and letters of credit.

(iii) "Capital Adequacy Rule Change" means any change in any Capital Adequacy Rule occurring after the date of this Agreement, but does not include any changes in applicable requirements that at the date hereof are scheduled to take place under the existing Capital Adequacy Rules or any increases in the capital that a Lender is required to maintain to the extent that the increases are required due to a regulatory authority's assessment of such Lender's financial condition.

The initial notice sent by a Lender shall be sent after such Lender learns that its Return has been reduced, shall include a demand for payment of the amount necessary to restore such Lender's Return through and including the quarter in which the notice is sent, and shall state in reasonable detail the cause for the reduction in such Lender's Return and such Lender's calculation of the amount of such reduction. Thereafter, a Lender may send a new notice during each fiscal quarter setting forth the calculation of the reduced Return for that quarter and including a demand for payment of the amount necessary to restore such Lender's Return for that quarter. A Lender's calculation in any such notice shall be conclusive and binding absent demonstrable error.

(c) Basis for Determining Interest Rate Inadequate or Unfair. If with respect to any Interest Period:

(i) the Administrative Agent determines, or the Required Lenders determine and advise the Administrative Agent (which determination shall be binding and conclusive on all parties), that deposits in Dollars (in the applicable amounts) are not being offered in the London interbank eurodollar market for such Interest Period; or

(ii) the Administrative Agent otherwise determines, or the Required Lenders determine and advise the Administrative Agent (which determination shall be binding and conclusive on all parties), that by reason of circumstances affecting the London interbank eurodollar market adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the applicable LIBOR Rate; or

(iii) the Administrative Agent otherwise determines, or the Required Lenders determine and advise the Administrative Agent (which determination shall be binding and conclusive on all parties), that the LIBOR Rate as determined by the Administrative Agent will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to the Lenders of maintaining or funding a Loan for such Interest Period, or that the making or funding of Loans has become impracticable as a result of an event occurring after the date of this Agreement which in the opinion of such Lenders materially affects such Loans;

then the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the affected parties and the Administrative Borrower shall enter into good faith negotiations with each affected Lender in order to determine an alternate method to determine the LIBOR Rate for such Lender.

(d) Illegality. In the event that any change in (including the adoption of any new) Applicable Laws, or any change in the interpretation of Applicable Laws by any Governmental Authority, including any central bank or comparable agency or any other regulatory body, charged with the interpretation, implementation or administration thereof, or compliance by a Lender with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) of any such Governmental Authority, including any central bank or comparable agency or other regulatory body, should make it unlawful or, in the good faith judgment of the affected Lender, shall raise a substantial question as to whether it is unlawful, for such Lender to make, maintain or fund Loans, then (i) the affected Lender shall promptly notify the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent, (ii) the obligation of the affected Lender to make Loans shall, upon the effectiveness of such event, be suspended for the duration of such unlawfulness, and (iii) the Borrowers shall prepay all applicable Loans of such Lender, either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid.

(e) Procedures to Mitigate. If circumstances arise in respect of any Lender which would, or would upon the giving of notice, result in any liability of the Borrowers under Section 2.11 or this Section 2.12 then, without in any way limiting, reducing or otherwise qualifying the Borrowers' obligations under Section 2.11 or this Section 2.12, such Lender shall promptly, upon becoming aware of the same, notify the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Borrower thereof and shall, in consultation with the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Borrower and to the extent that it can do so without, in its reasonable judgment, disadvantaging itself, take such reasonable steps as may be available to it to mitigate the effects of such circumstances (including, without limitation, the designation of an alternate office or the transfer of its Loans to another office). If and so long as a Lender has been unable to take, or has not taken, steps reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent to mitigate the effect of the circumstances in question, such Lender shall be obliged, at the request of the Administrative Borrower or the Administrative Agent, to assign all its rights and obligations hereunder to another Person designated by the Administrative Agent, or the Administrative Borrower with the approval of the Administrative Agent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), and willing to enter this Agreement in place of such Lender; provided that such Person satisfies all of the requirements of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, providing the forms and documents required by Section 8.12 and any such Person shall cover all costs incurred in connection with effecting such replacement.

Section 2.13. Funding Losses. Each Borrower hereby agrees that upon demand by any Lender (which demand shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the basis for the calculations of the amount being claimed) such Borrower will indemnify such Lender against any loss or expense which such Lender may have sustained or incurred (including, without limitation, any net loss or expense incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds acquired by such Lender to fund or maintain Loans) or which such Lender may be deemed to have sustained or incurred, as reasonably determined by such Lender, (i) as a consequence of any failure by the Borrowers to make any payment when due of any amount due hereunder in connection with any Loans, or (ii) due to any failure of the Borrowers to borrow on a date specified therefor in a Notice of Borrowing. For this purpose, all notices under Section 2.2 shall be deemed to be irrevocable.

Section 2.14. Right of Lenders to Fund through Other Offices. Each Lender, if it so elects, may fulfill its agreements hereunder with respect to any Loan by causing a foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided, that in such event the obligation of the Borrowers to repay such Loan shall nevertheless be to such Lender and such Loan shall be deemed held by such Lender for the account of such branch or Affiliate.

Section 2.15. Discretion of Lenders as to Manner of Funding. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, each Lender shall be entitled to fund and maintain all or any part of its Loans in any manner it deems fit, it being understood, however, that for the purposes of this Agreement (specifically including, without limitation, Section 2.13 hereof) all determinations hereunder shall be made as if each Lender had actually funded and maintained each Loan during each Interest Period for such Loan through the purchase of deposits having a maturity corresponding to such Interest Period and bearing an interest rate equal to the appropriate LIBOR Rate for such Interest Period.

Section 2.16. Conclusiveness of Statements; Survival of Provisions. Determinations and statements of a Lender pursuant to Section 2.11, 2.12, or 2.13 shall be conclusive absent demonstrable error. Each Lender may use reasonable averaging and attribution methods in determining compensation pursuant to such Sections 2.11, 2.12, or 2.13 and the provisions of Sections 2.11, 2.12, and 2.13 and the obligations of the Borrowers thereunder shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Section 2.17. Protective Advances.

(a) The Administrative Agent hereby is authorized by each Borrower and the Lenders (but is not obligated to), from time to time in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion, (i) after the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, or (ii) at any time that any of the other applicable conditions precedent set forth in Article III are not satisfied, to make advances to the Borrowers on behalf of the Lenders that the Administrative Agent, in its Permitted Discretion, deems necessary or desirable (A) to preserve or protect the Collateral, or any portion thereof, (B) to enhance the likelihood of repayment of the Obligations, or (C) to pay any other amount chargeable to the Borrowers pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including Agent Expenses (any of the advances described in this Section 2.17(a) shall be referred to as "Protective Advances"), which Protective Advances shall bear interest at all times at the same rate as would be applicable during the continuation of an Event of Default to the Loans, whether or not an Event of Default then exists.

(b) All payments on the Protective Advances shall be payable to the Administrative Agent solely for its own account. The principal of and accrued unpaid interest on the Protective Advances shall be payable on demand from time to time, and shall be secured by the Agent's Liens, not be subject to the pro rata payment provisions of this Agreement, and constitute Obligations hereunder. The provisions of this Section 2.17 are for the exclusive benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, and are not intended to benefit the Obligors in any way, and in no event shall a Borrower or any other Obligor be deemed a beneficiary of this Section nor authorized to enforce any of its terms.

Section 2.18. Maximum Interest. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Loan Document, the interest paid or agreed to be paid under the Loan Documents shall not exceed the maximum rate of non-usurious interest permitted by Applicable Law (the "maximum rate"). If any Secured Party shall receive interest hereunder in an amount that exceeds the maximum rate, the excess interest shall be applied to the principal of the Obligations or, if it exceeds such unpaid principal, refunded to the Administrative Borrower. In determining whether the interest contracted for, charged or received by a Secured Party exceeds the maximum rate, such Person may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, (a) characterize any payment that is not principal as an expense, fee or premium rather than interest; (b) exclude voluntary prepayments and the effects thereof; and (c) amortize, prorate, allocate and spread in equal or unequal parts the total amount of interest throughout the contemplated term of the Obligations hereunder.

Section 2.19. Defaulting Lenders. The failure of any Lender to fund a Loan or to otherwise perform its obligations hereunder (any Lender who fails to fund a Loan or to otherwise perform its obligations hereunder, a “Defaulting Lender”) shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligations, and no Lender shall be responsible for default by another Lender. The Lenders and the Administrative Agent agree (which agreement is solely among them, and not for the benefit of or enforceable by any Borrower or other Group Member) that, solely for purposes of determining a Defaulting Lender’s right to vote on matters relating to the Loan Documents and to share in payments, fees and Collateral proceeds thereunder, a Defaulting Lender shall not be deemed to be a “Lender” until all its defaulted obligations have been cured.

ARTICLE III

(b) no event shall have occurred, or would result from the making of the Loans or the ABL DIP Credit Loans or consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents or the Related Transactions that, with the giving of notice or lapse of time or both, if required, constitutes, or would give rise to, a Default or an Event of Default.

(f) The making of such Loan shall not violate any requirement of Applicable Law and shall not be enjoined, temporarily, preliminarily or permanently.

ARTICLE IV REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

To induce the Agent and the Lenders to enter into this Agreement and to make Loans, each Group Member represents and warrants to the Agent and the Lenders that:

Section 4.1. Existence and Power; Good Standing; Compliance with Law. Each Group Member is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and, except as set forth on Schedule 4.1, is duly licensed or qualified to transact business in all jurisdictions where its assets are located, where the character of the property owned or leased or the nature of the business transacted by it makes such licensing or qualification necessary and wherever otherwise necessary to carry out its business and operations. Upon entry of the DIP Order, each Group Member has all requisite power and authority, and the legal right, to conduct its business as currently and proposed to be conducted, to own, operate and pledge its properties and to execute and deliver, and to perform all of its obligations under, each of the Loan Documents and ABL DIP Credit Documents to which it is a party and to consummate the Related Transactions. Each Group Member is in compliance with all applicable Requirements of Law (including Requirements of Law relating to remittances, withholdings, source deductions and wages (including vacation pay and pension contributions)) and has all necessary Permits from or by, has made all necessary filings with, and has given all necessary notices to, each Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over it or its properties, to the extent required for such ownership, operation, pledge or conduct of business. Schedule 4.1 hereto contains, as of the date hereof, (i) a complete and accurate list, for each jurisdiction in which any Group Member operates, of the Permits held by each Group Member with respect to such jurisdiction and (ii) a complete and accurate list of all Permits issued by a Governmental Authority and held by a Group Member with respect to such Group Member's operations in any state or other jurisdiction generally.

Section 4.2. Authorization for Borrowings; No Conflict as to Law or Agreements. Subject to entry of the DIP Order, the execution and delivery by each Obligor of, and performance by such Obligor of its obligations under, each of the Loan Documents and ABL DIP Credit Documents to which it is a party, and the Loans made hereunder, and the consummation of the Related Transactions, are within such Obligor's corporate, limited liability company or similar entity powers, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability or similar entity action in respect of such Obligor and do not and will not (i) require any authorization, consent or approval by, or registration, declaration or filing (other than filing of financing statements and mortgages as contemplated hereunder) with, or notice to, any Governmental Authority, any holders of Equity Interests in such Obligor, or any other Person, except such authorization, consent, approval, registration, declaration, filing or notice as has been obtained, accomplished or given prior to the date hereof, (ii) violate any Requirement of Law with respect to such Obligor or any of its Subsidiaries, (iii) conflict with or contravene such Obligor's Constituent Documents, (iv) conflict with, contravene, constitute a default or breach under, or result in or permit the termination or acceleration of, any indenture or loan or credit agreement or any other material agreement, lease or instrument to which such Obligor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it or its properties may be bound or affected (including the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents), or (v) result in, or require, the creation or imposition of any Lien upon or with respect to any of the properties now owned or hereafter acquired by such Obligor or any of its Subsidiaries (other than as required under the Loan Documents in favor of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, and as required under the ABL DIP Credit Documents).

Section 4.3. Legal Agreements. Subject to entry of the DIP Order, each of the Loan Documents and ABL DIP Credit Documents to which any Obligor is a party constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation and agreement of such Obligor, enforceable against such Obligor in accordance with its terms.

Section 4.4. Group Members; Subsidiaries; Equity Interests. Set forth on Part A of Schedule 4.4 hereto is a complete and correct list of all the Group Members and all Subsidiaries and joint ventures of any of them, reflecting, for each such Person as of the date of this Agreement, its legal name, jurisdiction of organization, the number of shares or units of each class of Equity Interests authorized (if applicable), the number of shares or units of each class of Equity Interests outstanding on the Closing Date and the number and percentage of the outstanding shares or units of each such class of Equity Interests owned (directly or indirectly) by each Borrower and each Guarantor. All outstanding Equity Interests in each such Person have been validly issued, are fully paid and non-assessable (to the extent applicable) and, except in the case of Equity Interests issued by the Administrative Borrower, are owned beneficially and of record by an Obligor free and clear of all Liens other than the security interests created by the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents, any non-consensual Liens arising as a matter of law and permitted under Section 6.1 and, in the case of joint ventures, Permitted Liens. Except as provided in Part B of Schedule 4.4, as of the Closing Date, there are no preemptive or other outstanding subscription or other rights, options, warrants, convertible interests, conversion rights, agreements to issue or sell or vote, phantom rights or powers of attorney other or similar agreements or understandings for the purchase or acquisition from any Group Member, or the voting, of any Equity Interests in any such Person or otherwise relating to the Equity Interests in any Group Member. Except as disclosed in Part C of Schedule 4.4, in the five years preceding the Closing Date, no Obligor and no Subsidiary has acquired any substantial assets from any other Person nor been the surviving entity in a merger or combination.

Section 4.5. Financial Condition; No Adverse Change; No Restricted Payments. The Administrative Borrower has furnished to the Administrative Agent various documents, files, materials, correspondence and other information regarding the business of Borrower and its Subsidiaries, including, without limitation, the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2012, the unaudited consolidating financial statements for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2012, the unaudited consolidated and consolidating financial statements for each fiscal month and fiscal quarter ended after April 28, 2012 through the Closing Date, and financial projections through April 30, 2016 (the "Projections"). All such documents, files, materials, correspondence and information (other than the Projections) are complete and correct as to the subject matter thereof (taken as a whole) in all respects as of the date made available to the Administrative Agent, do not contain any misstatement of material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition of the Administrative Borrower and its Subsidiaries on the dates thereof and the results of operations for the periods then ended (subject to year-end audit adjustments) and were prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Projections have been prepared in good faith based upon reasonable estimates and assumptions stated therein, which the Administrative Borrower has determined to be reasonable and fair in light of the then current conditions and facts. Since December 29, 2012, other than the filing, commencement and continuation of the Chapter 11 Cases, and the events that customarily result from the filing, commencement and continuation of the Chapter 11 Cases (including any litigation resulting therefrom), there has not occurred any event, development or circumstance or other change in fact, that could, individually or in the aggregate, have or reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Since the Petition Date, no Group Member has directly or indirectly declared, ordered, paid or made, or set apart any sum or property for, any Restricted Payment or agreed to do so except as set forth on Schedule 4.5 or as permitted by Section 6.4.

Section 4.6. Litigation. Other than the filing, commencement and continuation of the Chapter 11 Cases and any litigation resulting therefrom, there are no actions, investigations, suits, audits, claims, demands, orders, disputes or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of any Group Member, threatened against or affecting any Group Member or the properties of any of them before any Governmental Authority, that in each case (i) seek injunctive or similar relief or a monetary recovery against any Group Member in excess of $50,000 or (ii) if adversely determined, could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; in each case, except as set forth and described in Schedule 4.6.

Section 4.7. Margin Regulations. No Group Member has engaged in, or will engage in, the business of extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock (within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), and no part of the proceeds of any Loan or other extensions of credit hereunder will be used to purchase or carry any margin stock, or to extend credit to others for the purpose of purchasing or carrying any margin stock, in a manner that would result in a violation of Regulation T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Section 4.8. Taxes. Each Group Member has paid or caused to be paid to the proper Governmental Authorities all federal or national, state or provincial, and local taxes, domestic or foreign, required to be paid by it. Each Group Member has duly filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority all federal or national, state or provincial, local income, franchise and other tax returns, reports and statements (the “Tax Returns”), domestic or foreign, required to be filed by it, all such Tax Returns are true and correct in all material respects, and all taxes, charges and other impositions reflected therein or otherwise due and payable have been paid prior to the date on which any Liability may be added thereto for non-payment thereof except for those contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted and for which adequate reserves are maintained on the books of the appropriate Group Member in accordance with GAAP all of which are described in Schedule 4.8.

Section 4.9. Titles and Liens; Letters of Credit. Each of the Group Members has good and absolute title to all properties and assets reflected as being owned by such Person in the latest consolidating balance sheets referred to in Section 4.5 (including good record and marketable fee simple title to all Owned Real Property and valid leasehold interests in all Leased Real Property), and each Group Member has good and absolute title to all properties pledged by it, or a Lien on which is granted by it, pursuant to any Loan Document, in each case free and clear of all Liens, except for Permitted Liens. In addition, no financing statement or other Lien notice or recordation naming any Group Member as debtor is on file in any office except to perfect only Permitted Liens and precautionary filings for leases and consignments. The Collateral Agent has a valid, perfected, first-priority (subject only to Permitted Senior Liens) and enforceable security interest in and Lien on the Collateral. As of the date hereof, no Obligor is the account party under any letter of credit other than (x) as listed and described on Schedule 4.9 or (y) as may be issued pursuant to and under the ABL DIP Credit Agreement.

Section 4.10. Employee Benefits Plans. Schedule 4.10 identifies each ERISA Plan as of the Closing Date. No ERISA Event has occurred or could reasonably be expected to occur with respect to an ERISA Plan. Full payment has been made of all amounts that a Controlled Group member is required, under Applicable Law or under the governing documents, to have paid as a contribution to or a benefit under each ERISA Plan. As of the most recent date of release of the financial statements for each Controlled Group member, the liability of such Controlled Group member with respect to each ERISA Plan has been fully funded based upon reasonable and proper actuarial assumptions or has been fully insured. No changes have occurred that would cause a material increase in the cost of providing benefits under any ERISA Plan. With respect to each ERISA Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the IR Code: (a) such ERISA Plan and any associated trust operationally comply in all respects with the applicable requirements of Section 401(a) of the IR Code; (b) such ERISA Plan and any associated trust have been amended to comply with all such requirements as currently in effect, other than those requirements for which a retroactive amendment can be made within the “remedial amendment period” available under Section 401(b) of the IR Code (as extended under Treasury regulations and other Treasury pronouncements upon which taxpayers may rely); (c) such ERISA Plan and any associated trust have received a favorable determination or opinion letter from the IRS stating that such ERISA Plan qualifies under Section 401(a) of the IR Code, that the associated trust qualifies under Section 501(a) of the IR Code and, if applicable, that any cash or deferred arrangement under the ERISA Plan qualifies under Section 401(k) of the IR Code, unless such ERISA Plan was first adopted at a time for which the above-described “remedial amendment period” has not yet expired; (d) such ERISA Plan currently satisfies the requirements of Section 410(b) of the IR Code, without regard to any retroactive amendment that may be made within the above-described “remedial amendment period”; and (e) no contribution made to such ERISA Plan is subject to an excise tax under Section 4972 of the IR Code. With respect to any Pension Plan, there are no unfunded benefit liabilities as defined in Section 4001(a)(18) of ERISA and the “accumulated benefit obligation” with respect to such Pension Plan (as determined in accordance with Statement of Accounting Standards No. 87, “Employers’ Accounting for Pensions”) does not exceed the fair market value of Pension Plan assets.

Section 4.11. Default; Affiliate Transactions; Material Contracts. Each Group Member is in compliance with all provisions of all material agreements, instruments, decrees and orders (including the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents) to which it is a party or by which it or its property is bound or affected. Each representation, warranty and certification made by each Group Member under the ABL DIP Credit Documents was true and correct when made or deemed made. Except as set forth on Part A of Schedule 4.11, no Obligor has (i) any written agreements or binding arrangements of any kind with any Affiliate of any Obligor (except for another Obligor) or (ii) any management or consulting agreements of any kind. Part B of Schedule 4.11 contains a true, correct and complete list of all the Material Contracts (other than the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents) in effect as of the date hereof, and except as set forth on Part C of Schedule 4.11, all Material Contracts (including the Loan Documents and the ABL DIP Credit Documents) are in full force and effect and no defaults exist thereunder.

Section 4.12. Environmental Compliance. Each Group Member has obtained all Permits that are required under Environmental Laws at the facilities of such Group Member or any of its Subsidiaries or in connection with the operation of such facilities.

Except as disclosed in Schedule 4.12, each Group Member complies, and all activities of each Group Member at its respective facilities comply, and has or have complied for the past five years, with all Environmental Laws and with all terms and conditions of any required Permits applicable to such Group Member with respect thereto.

Except as disclosed in Schedule 4.12, each Group Member is in compliance with all limitations, restrictions, conditions, standards, prohibitions, requirements, obligations, schedules and timetables contained in Environmental Laws or contained in any plan, order, decree, judgment or notice of which such Group Member is aware.

Except as disclosed in Schedule 4.12:

(i) no Group Member is aware of, nor has any Group Member received notice of, any events, conditions, circumstances, activities, practices, incidents, actions or plans which may interfere with or prevent continued compliance with, or which may give rise to any Liability under, any Environmental Laws, and each Group Member has maintained an environmental management system for its and each of its Subsidiaries' operations that demonstrates a commitment to environmental compliance and includes procedures for (a) preparing and updating written compliance manuals covering pertinent regulatory areas, (b) tracking changes in applicable Environmental Laws and modifying operations to comply with new requirements thereunder, (c) training employees to comply with applicable environmental requirements and updating such training as necessary, (d) performing regular internal compliance audits of each of its facility and ensuring correction of any incidents of non-compliance detected by means of such audits, and (e) reviewing the compliance status of off-site waste disposal facilities,

(iii) no Lien in favor of any Governmental Authority securing, in whole or in part, Environmental Liabilities has attached to any property of any Group Member and, to the knowledge of each Group Member, no facts, circumstances or conditions exist that could reasonably be expected to result in any such Lien attaching to any such property,

(iv) no Group Member has caused or permitted to occur a Release of Hazardous Substances at, to or from any Real Property currently (or to the knowledge of any Group Member previously) owned, leased, subleased, operated or otherwise occupied by or for any Group Member and each such Real Property is free of contamination by any Hazardous Substances except for such Release or contamination that could not reasonably be expected to result in Environmental Liabilities of any Group Member,

(v) to the best of its knowledge, no Group Member nor any of its Subsidiaries has any unregistered underground storage tanks on or under any Real Property currently (or to the knowledge of any Group Member previously) owned, leased, subleased, operated or otherwise occupied by or for any Group Member that are subject to any Environmental Laws, including underground storage tank laws or regulations,

(vi) no Group Member nor any of its Subsidiaries owns a storage tank facility,

Section 6.11. Hazardous Substances. The Obligors will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, cause or permit any Hazardous Substances to be disposed of in any manner which might result in any liability to any Group Member, on, under or at any Real Property which is operated by any Group Member or in which any Group Member has any interest (including, but not limited to, as owner, tenant, lessee, sublessee or otherwise).

Section 6.12. Transactions with Affiliates. (g) so long as it has been approved by School Specialty's or its applicable Subsidiary's board of directors (or comparable governing body) in accordance with applicable law, any indemnity provided for the benefit of directors (or comparable managers) of School Specialty or its applicable Subsidiary; and

(h) so long as it has been approved by School Specialty's or its applicable Subsidiary's board of directors (or comparable governing body) in accordance with applicable law, the payment of reasonable compensation, severance, or employee benefit arrangements to executive officers and outside directors of School Specialty and its Subsidiaries.

Each Obligor will cause each of its Non-Obligor Subsidiaries to comply with all of the terms of the Intercompany Subordination and Payment Agreement. Section 6.14. No Sale-Leaseback Transactions. Section 7.2. Rights and Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default (unless waived in writing by the Required Lenders), the Administrative Agent may upon five (5) days’ written notice to the Administrative Borrower (and, upon written request of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent shall) exercise any or all of the following rights and remedies:

(a) declare all or any portion of the Commitments, if then in effect, to be terminated, whereupon the same shall forthwith terminate;

(b) declare all or any portion of the unpaid principal amount of the Loans, all interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and all other Obligations to be forthwith immediately due and payable or otherwise accelerated, whereupon the Loans, all such accrued interest and all such other Obligations shall become and be forthwith due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or further notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by each Obligor;

(c) apply any and all monies owing by any Secured Party to any Group Member to the payment of the Loans, including interest accrued thereon, or to payment of any or all other Obligations then owing by the Obligors;

(d) exercise and enforce the rights and remedies available to the Agent, the Lenders or any other Secured Party under any Loan Document and under Applicable Law, including all rights and remedies with respect to the Collateral under the Loan Documents and under Applicable Law; and

(e) exercise any other rights and remedies available to the Agent (including, without limitation, hereunder and under any other Loan Documents), the Lenders or any other Secured Party under Applicable Law, any Loan Document or otherwise.

Such rights and remedies include the rights (subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, where applicable) to (i) take possession of any Collateral; (ii) require the Obligors to assemble Collateral, at the Obligors' expense, and make it available to the Collateral Agent at a place designated by the Collateral Agent; (iii) enter any premises where Collateral is located and store Collateral on such premises until sold (and if the premises are owned or leased by an Obligor, such Obligor agrees not to charge for such storage); and (iv) Dispose of any Collateral in its then condition, or after any further manufacturing or processing thereof, at public or private sale, with such notice as may be required by Applicable Law, in lots or in bulk, and at such locations, all as the Collateral Agent, in its discretion, deems advisable. Each Obligor agrees that 10 days' notice of any proposed Disposition of Collateral by the Collateral Agent shall be reasonable. The Collateral Agent shall have the right to conduct such sales on any Obligor's premises, without charge, and such sales may be adjourned from time to time in accordance with Applicable Law. The Collateral Agent shall have the right to Dispose of any Collateral for cash, credit or any combination thereof, and the Collateral Agent may purchase any Collateral at public or, if permitted by law, private sale and, in lieu of actual payment of the purchase price, may "credit bid" or otherwise set off the amount of such price against the Obligations.

Each Obligor hereby agrees that: (a) so long as the Agent complies with its obligations, if any, under the Code, the Agent, the Lenders, and the other Secured Parties shall not in any way or manner be liable or responsible for: (i) the safekeeping of the Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof, or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, warehouseman, bailee, forwarding agency, or other Person, and (b) all risk of loss, damage, or destruction of the Collateral shall be borne by the Obligors.

At any time during an Event of Default, the Agent, the Lenders, the other Secured Parties and any of their Affiliates are authorized, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, in whatever currency) at any time held and other obligations (in whatever currency) at any time owing by the Agent, such Lender, such other Secured Party or such Affiliate to or for the credit or the account of an Obligor against any Obligations, irrespective of whether or not the Agent, such Lender, such other Secured Party or such Affiliate shall have made any demand under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and although such Obligations may be contingent or unmatured or are owed to a branch or office of the Agent, such Lender, such other Secured Party or such Affiliate different from the branch or office holding such deposit or obligated on such obligation. The rights of the Agent, each Lender, each such other Secured Party and each such Affiliate under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) that such Person may have.

ARTICLE VIII AGREEMENT AMONG LENDERS AND AGENT

Section 8.1. Authorization; Powers. Each Lender irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to act as administrative agent, and the Collateral Agent to act as collateral agent, for and on behalf of such Lender to the extent provided herein, in any Loan Documents (including by way of acting as "Secured Party" under any Loan Document relating to Collateral) or in any other document or instrument delivered hereunder or in connection herewith, and to take such other actions as may be reasonably incidental thereto. The Administrative Agent agrees to act as administrative agent for each Lender, and the Collateral Agent agrees to act as collateral agent for each Lender, upon the express conditions contained in this Article VIII, but in no event shall the Agent constitute a fiduciary of any Lender, nor shall the Agent have any fiduciary responsibilities in respect of any Lender. In furtherance of the foregoing, and not in limitation thereof, each Lender irrevocably (a) authorizes the Agent to execute and deliver and perform those obligations under each of the Loan Documents to which the Agent is a party as are specifically delegated to the Agent, and to exercise all rights, powers and remedies as may be specifically delegated hereunder or thereunder, together with such additional powers as may be reasonably incidental thereto, (b) appoints the Agent as nominal beneficiary or nominal secured party, as the case may be, under the Loan Documents and all related UCC financing statements (to the extent of the collateral security granted with respect to the Obligations), and (c) authorizes the Agent to act as agent of and for such Lender for purposes of holding, perfecting and Disposing of Collateral under the Loan Documents. As to any matters not expressly provided for by the Loan Documents, the Agent shall not be required to exercise any discretion or take any action, but shall be required to act or to refrain from acting (and shall be fully protected in so acting or refraining from acting) upon the instructions of the Required Lenders or, if so required pursuant to Section 10.2, upon the instructions of all Lenders; provided, however, that except for action expressly required of the Agent hereunder, the Agent shall in all cases be fully justified in failing or refusing to act hereunder unless it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense which may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action, and the Agent shall not in any event be required to take any action which is contrary to the Loan Documents or Applicable Law.

(a) The Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize Agent to release any Lien on any Collateral (i) upon the termination of the Commitments and payment and satisfaction in full by Borrowers of all of the Obligations, (ii) constituting property being Disposed of if a release is required or desirable in connection therewith and if Administrative Borrower certifies to Agent that the Disposition is permitted under Section 6.5 (and Agent may rely conclusively on any such certificate, without further inquiry), (iii) constituting property in which School Specialty or its Subsidiaries owned no interest at the time Agent's Lien was granted nor at any time thereafter, or (iv) constituting property leased to School Specialty or its Subsidiaries under a lease that has expired or is terminated in a transaction permitted under this Agreement. The Obligors and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize Agent, based upon the instruction of the Required Lenders, to (a) consent to, credit bid or purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) credit bid or purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral at any Disposition thereof conducted under the provisions of the Code, including pursuant to Sections 9-610 or 9-620 of the Code, or (c) credit bid or purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral at any other sale or foreclosure conducted by Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with applicable law. In connection with any such credit bid or purchase, (i) the Obligations owed to the Lenders shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims being estimated for such purpose if the fixing or liquidation thereof would not unduly delay the ability of Agent to credit bid or purchase at such Disposition of the Collateral and, if such claims cannot be estimated without unduly delaying the ability of Agent to credit bid, then such claims shall be disregarded, not credit bid, and not entitled to any interest in the asset or assets purchased by means of such credit bid) and the Lenders whose Obligations are credit bid shall be entitled to receive interests (ratably based upon the proportion of their Obligations credit bid in relation to the aggregate amount of Obligations so credit bid) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase), and (ii) Agent, based upon the instruction of the Required Lenders, may accept non-cash consideration, including debt and equity securities issued by such acquisition vehicle or vehicles and in connection therewith Agent may reduce the Obligations owed to the Lenders (ratably based upon the proportion of their Obligations credit bid in relation to the aggregate amount of Obligations so credit bid) based upon the value of such non-cash consideration. Except as provided above, Agent will not execute and deliver a release of any Lien on any Collateral without the prior written authorization of (y) if the release is of all or substantially all of the Collateral, all of the Lenders, or (z) otherwise, the Required Lenders. Upon request by Agent or Administrative Borrower at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing Agent's authority to release any such Liens on particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 8.1(b); provided, that (1) Agent shall not be required to execute any document necessary to evidence such release on terms that, in Agent's opinion, would expose Agent to liability or create any obligation or entail any consequence other than the release of such Lien without recourse, representation, or warranty, and (2) such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those expressly being released) upon (or obligations of any Obligor in respect of) all interests retained by any Loan Party, including, the proceeds of any Disposition, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral. The Lenders further hereby irrevocably authorize Agent, at its option and in its sole discretion, to subordinate any Lien granted to or held by Agent under any Loan Document to the holder of any Permitted Lien on such property if such Permitted Lien secures Permitted PMM/Capital Lease Debt.

(b) Agent shall have no obligation whatsoever to any of the Lenders to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by School Specialty or its Subsidiaries or is cared for, protected, or insured or has been encumbered, or that Agent's Liens have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or that any particular items of Collateral meet the eligibility criteria applicable in respect thereof or whether to impose, maintain, reduce, or eliminate any particular reserve hereunder or whether the amount of any such reserve is appropriate or not, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to Agent pursuant to any of the Loan Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission, or event related thereto, subject to the terms and conditions contained herein, Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its sole discretion given Agent's own interest in the Collateral in its capacity as one of the Lenders and that Agent shall have no other duty or liability whatsoever to any Lender as to any of the foregoing, except as otherwise provided herein.

Section 8.2. Application of Proceeds. The Agent, after deduction of any costs of collection, as provided in Section 8.5, shall remit to each Lender (to the extent a Lender is to share therein and subject to the provisions of Section 2.10(f)) that Lender's pro rata share of all payments of principal, interest, premiums and fees payable hereunder in accordance with such Lender's appropriate Percentage. Each Lender's interest under the Loan Documents shall be payable solely from payments, collections and proceeds actually received by the Agent under the Loan Documents; and the Agent's only liability to a Lender with respect to any such payments, collections and proceeds shall be to account for such Lender's Percentage of such payments, collections and proceeds in accordance with this Agreement. If the Agent is required for any reason to refund any such payments, collections or proceeds, each Lender will refund to the Agent, upon demand, its Percentage of such payments, collections or proceeds, together with its Percentage, or share, as applicable, of interest or penalties, if any, payable by the Agent in connection with such refund. If any Lender has wrongfully refused to fund its Percentage of any Loans, or if the outstanding principal balance of the Loans made by any Lender is for any other reason less than its respective Percentage of the aggregate principal balance of all Loans, the Agent may remit payments received by it to the other Lenders until such payments have reduced the aggregate amounts owed by the Borrowers to the extent that the aggregate amount of the Loans owing to such Lender hereunder are equal to its Percentage of the aggregate amounts of the Loans owing to all of the Lenders hereunder. The foregoing provision is intended only to set forth certain rules for the application of payments, proceeds and collections in the event that a Lender has breached its obligations hereunder and shall not be deemed to excuse any Lender from such obligations.

Section 8.3. Exculpation. The Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Agent in connection with the Loan Documents, except for its own gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct. The Agent shall be entitled to rely upon advice of counsel concerning legal matters, the advice of independent public accountants with respect to accounting matters and advice of other experts as to any other matters and upon any Loan Document and any schedule, certificate, statement, report, notice or other writing which it reasonably believes to be genuine or to have been presented by a proper Person. Neither the Agent nor any of its Affiliates or any of its or their respective directors, officers, employees or agents shall be responsible or in any way liable with respect to or for (a) any recitals, representations or warranties contained in, or for the execution, legality, validity, genuineness, sufficiency, effectiveness or enforceability of any Loan Document, or any other instrument or document delivered hereunder or in connection herewith, (b) the validity, genuineness, perfection, priority, effectiveness, enforceability, existence, value or enforcement of any Collateral, or (c) except for its own gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct, any action taken or omitted by it. The designation of Bayside (or any successor thereto as Agent) as Agent hereunder shall in no way impair or affect any of the rights and powers of, or impose any duties or obligations upon, Bayside (or such successor thereto) in its individual capacity as Lender hereunder.

Section 8.4. Use of the term "Agent". The term "Agent" is used herein in reference to the Agent merely as a matter of custom. It is intended to reflect only an administrative relationship between the Agent and the Lenders, in each case as independent contracting parties. However, the obligations of the Agent shall be limited to those expressly set forth herein and in no event shall the use of such term create or imply any fiduciary relationship or any other obligation arising under the general law of agency.

Section 8.5. Reimbursement for Costs and Expenses. All payments, collections and proceeds received or effected by the Agent may be applied first to pay or reimburse the Agent for all reasonable costs and expenses at any time incurred by or imposed upon the Agent in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including but not limited to all reasonable attorney's fees), foreclosure or liquidation expenses and advances made to protect the security of any collateral (to the extent of the collateral security is granted with respect to the Obligations). If the Agent does not receive payments, collections or proceeds sufficient to cover any such costs and expenses within five (5) days after their incurrence or imposition, each Lender shall, upon demand, remit to the Agent such Lender's Percentage of the difference between (i) such costs and expenses and (ii) such payments, collections and proceeds, together with interest on such amount for each day following the thirtieth day after demand therefor until so remitted at a rate equal to the Federal Funds Rate for each such day.

Section 8.6. Payments Received Directly by Lenders. If any Lender shall obtain any payment or other recovery (whether voluntary, involuntary, by application of offset or otherwise) on account of any Loan or on account of any interest, premium or fees under this Agreement (other than through distributions made in accordance with Section 8.2 hereof) in excess of such Lender's applicable Percentage with respect to the Loan, such Lender shall promptly give notice of such fact to the Agent and shall promptly remit to the Agent such amount as shall be necessary to cause the remitting Lender to share such excess payment or other recovery ratably with each of the Lenders in accordance with their respective applicable Percentages, together with interest for each day on such amount until so remitted at a rate equal to the Federal Funds Rate for each such day; provided, however, that if all or any portion of the excess payment or other recovery is thereafter recovered from such remitting Lender or holder, the remittance shall be restored to the extent of such recovery.

Section 8.7. Indemnification. Each Lender severally, but not jointly, hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Agent, as well as the Agent's agents, employees; officers and directors, ratably according to their respective Percentages from and against any and all losses, liabilities (including liabilities for penalties), actions, suits, judgment, demands, damages, costs, disbursements, or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses, and costs of in-house counsel) of any kind or nature whatsoever, which are imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Agent or its agents, employees, officers or directors in any way relating to or arising out of the Loan Documents, or as a result of any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Agent; provided, however, that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of any such losses, liabilities (including liabilities for penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs disbursements, or expenses resulting from the gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of the Agent.

Section 8.8. Agent and Affiliates. Bayside (and any successor thereto as Agent) shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender hereunder as any other Lender and may exercise or refrain from exercising the same as though it were not the Agent, and Bayside (or such successor) and its affiliates may accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with the Group Members or their Affiliates as fully as if Bayside (or such successor) were not the Agent hereunder.

Section 8.9. Credit Investigation. Each Lender acknowledges that it has made such inquiries and taken such care on its own behalf as would have been the case had its Loans made directly by such Lender to the Borrowers without the intervention of the Agent or any other Lender. Each Lender agrees and acknowledges that the Agent and each other Lender makes no representations or warranties about the creditworthiness of the Obligor or any other party to this Agreement or with respect to or for (a) any recitals, representations or warranties contained in, or for the execution, legality, validity, genuineness, sufficiency, effectiveness or enforceability of any Loan Document, or any other instrument or document delivered hereunder or in connection herewith, (b) the validity, genuineness, perfection, priority, effectiveness, enforceability, existence, value or enforcement of any Collateral.

Section 8.10. Defaults. The Agent shall have no duty to inquire into any performance or failure to perform by the Group Members and shall not be deemed to have knowledge of the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default (other than under Sections 7.1(a) or 7.1(b)) hereof unless the Agent has received notice from a Lender or a Borrower specifying the occurrence of such Default or Event of Default. In the event that the Agent receives such a notice of the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default, the Agent shall give prompt notice thereof to the Lenders. In the event of any Default, the Agent shall (subject to Section 8.7 hereof) (a) in the case of a Default that constitutes an Event of Default, not take any of the actions referred to in Section 7.2(b) hereof unless so directed by the Required Lenders, and (b) in the case of any Default or Event of Default, take such actions with respect to such Default as shall be directed by the Required Lenders; provided that, unless and until the Agent shall have received such directions, the Agent may take any action, or refrain from taking any action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interest of the Lenders.

Section 8.11. Obligations Several. The obligations of each Lender hereunder are the several obligations of such Lender, and neither any Lender nor the Agent shall be responsible for the obligations of any other Lender hereunder, nor will the failure by the Agent or any Lender to perform any of its obligations hereunder relieve the Agent or any other Lender from the performance of its respective obligations hereunder. Nothing contained in this Agreement, and no action taken by any Lender or the Agent pursuant hereto or in connection herewith or pursuant to or in connection with the Loan Documents shall be deemed to constitute the Lenders, together or with or without the Agent, as a partnership, association, joint venture, or other entity.

Section 8.12. Sale or Assignment; Addition of Lenders. Except as permitted under the terms and conditions of this Section 8.12, no Lender may sell, assign or transfer its rights or obligations under this Agreement or such Lender's Notes or Loans or Commitment.

(i) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (a)(ii) below, any Lender may at any time upon at least five Business Day's advance notice to the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Borrower assign to one or more assignees that (x) is a domestic or foreign bank (having a branch office in the United States), an insurance company, a hedge fund or analogous investment fund, an Approved Fund or any other financial institution (provided that such proposed assignee, if other than a fund, has capital and surplus, or in the case of a fund (other than an Approved Fund), has, together with all other funds under common management, investment assets, as applicable, in excess of $250 million), and (y) is not an Obligor or a Group Member or an Affiliate of any of the foregoing or a natural person or a competitor of any Group Member whose primary business competes in the same business segment and in the same geographic area as the Group Members (any such bank, insurance company, fund or Approved Fund meeting the foregoing requirements, an "Applicant") on any date (the "Adjustment Date") selected by such Lender, all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment, the Revolving Notes and Revolving Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent of:

(A) the Administrative Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided that no consent of the Administrative Borrower shall be required for an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender, an Approved Fund or, if a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any other assignee; and

(B) the Administrative Agent (which consent of the Administrative Agent may be withheld or given in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion); provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of all or any portion of a Note or Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of any assignment made in connection with an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment and Notes and Loans at the time owing to it or in the case of an assignment to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund with respect to a Lender, the aggregate amount of the Commitment or, if the applicable Commitment is not then in effect, the principal outstanding balance of the Revolving Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment Certificate with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent or, if "Trade Date" is specified in the Assignment Certificate, as of the Trade Date) shall not be less than $1.0 million, unless each of the Administrative Agent and, so long as no Default has occurred and is continuing, Administrative Borrower otherwise consents (each such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed);

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Revolving Loans or the Revolving Commitment, as applicable, assigned;

(C) the Administrative Agent, the assigning Lender and such Applicant shall, on or before the Adjustment Date, execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment Certificate in substantially the form of Exhibit G (an “Assignment Certificate”);

(D) if requested by the Administrative Agent, each Borrower will execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent, for delivery by the Administrative Agent in accordance with the terms of the Assignment Certificate, (i) a new Revolving Note or Term Note, as applicable, payable to the order of the Applicant in the amount corresponding to the applicable Revolving Loan acquired by such Applicant and (ii) a new Revolving Note or Term Note payable to the order of the assigning Lender in the amount corresponding to the retained Revolving Loan. Such new Term Notes or Revolving Notes shall be in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Term Notes or Revolving Notes to be replaced by such new Term Notes or Revolving Notes, shall be dated the effective date of such assignment and shall otherwise be in the form of the Term Note or Revolving Note to be replaced thereby. Such new Term Notes or Revolving Notes shall be issued in substitution for, but not in satisfaction or payment of, the Term Note or Revolving Note being replaced thereby and such new Term Notes or Revolving Notes shall be treated as a Term Note or Revolving Note) for all purposes of this Agreement; and

(E) the assigning Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent an administrative fee of $3,500.

(iii) Any assignment or purported assignment to any Person that is not an Eligible Assignee shall be null and void. Upon the execution and delivery of such Assignment Certificate and such new Term Notes or Revolving Notes, and effective as of the effective date thereof (A) this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to reflect the addition of such additional Lender and the resulting adjustment of the Percentages arising therefrom, (B) the assigning Lender shall be relieved of all obligations hereunder to the extent of the reduction of the assigning Lender’s Percentage, and (C) the Applicant shall become a party hereto and shall be entitled to all rights, benefits and privileges accorded to a Lender herein and in each other Loan Document or other document or instrument executed pursuant hereto and subject to all obligations of a Lender hereunder, including, without limitation, the right to approve or disapprove actions which, in accordance with the terms hereof, require the approval of the Required Lenders or all Lenders. In order to facilitate the addition of additional Lenders hereto, the Administrative Borrower (subject to its approval rights hereunder, if any) and the Lenders shall cooperate fully with the Administrative Agent in connection therewith and shall provide all reasonable assistance requested by the Administrative Agent relating thereto, including, without limitation, the furnishing of such written materials and financial information regarding the Group Members as the Administrative Agent may reasonably request, the execution of such documents as the Administrative Agent may reasonably request with respect thereto, and the participation by officers of the Administrative Borrower and the Lenders at reasonable times and places in a meeting or teleconference call with any Applicant upon the reasonable request of the Administrative Agent.

Section 8.13. Participation. In addition to the rights granted in Section 8.12, each Lender may, upon the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent may be given or withheld in Agent’s sole discretion), grant participations in all or a portion of its Revolving Note and Revolving Loans to any domestic or foreign commercial bank (having a branch office in the United States), insurance company, financial institution or an Affiliate of such Lender pursuant to documentation delivered to and deemed acceptable to the Administrative Agent. No holder of any such participation shall be entitled to require any Lender to take or omit to take any action hereunder, except that a Lender selling a participation may agree with the participant that such Lender will not, without such participant's consent, take any action which would, in the case of any principal, interest, premium or fee in which the participant has an ownership or beneficial interest: (a) extend the final maturity of any Loans or extend the Maturity Date, (b) reduce the interest rate on the Loans or the amount of any premium or fee payable in respect of the Loans, (c) forgive any principal of, or interest on, the Loans, or any premium or fees payable in respect thereof, or (d) release all or substantially all of any Collateral for the Loans. The Lenders shall not, as among the Borrowers, the Agent and the Lenders, be relieved of any of their respective obligations hereunder as a result of any such granting of a participation. Each Obligor hereby acknowledges and agrees that any holder of a participation described in this Section 8.13 may rely upon, and possess all rights under, any opinions, certificates, or other instruments or documents delivered under or in connection with any Loan Document. Except as set forth in this Section 8.13, no Lender may grant any participation in its Notes or Loans.

Section 8.14. Withholding Tax Exemption. At least five (5) Business Days prior to the first date on which interest or premium or fees are payable hereunder for the account of any Lender, each Lender that is not incorporated under the laws of the United States of America, or a state thereof, agrees that it will deliver to the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent two duly completed copies of United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8ECI, certifying in either case that such Lender is entitled to receive payments under this Agreement and the Notes without deduction or withholding of any United States federal income taxes. Each Lender that so delivers a Form W-8BEN or W-8ECI further undertakes to deliver to the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent two additional copies of such form (or a successor form) on or before the date that such form expires or becomes obsolete or after the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent forms so delivered by it, and such amendments thereto or extensions or renewals thereof as may be reasonably requested by the Administrative Borrower or the Administrative Agent, in each case certifying that such Lender is entitled to receive payments under this Agreement and the Term Notes without deduction or withholding of any United States federal income taxes, unless an event (including without limitation any change in treaty, law or regulation) has occurred prior to the date on which any such delivery would otherwise be required that renders all such forms inapplicable or that would prevent such Lender from duly completing and delivering any such form with respect to it and such Lender advises the Administrative Borrower and the Administrative Agent that it is not capable of receiving payments without any deduction or withholding of United States federal income tax.

Section 8.15. Agent's Counsel. In connection with the negotiation, drafting and execution of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, perfecting any security interest, completing any filings or registrations and in connection with future legal representation relating to loan administration, amendments, modifications, waivers, forbearance or enforcement of remedies, any law firm engaged by the Agent (the "Agent Firm") has only represented and shall only represent the Agent (or its Affiliates), in its/their capacity as Agent or as a Lender, as applicable. Each Borrower and each other Lender hereby acknowledges, and each Assignee and Participant (by accepting an Assignment or a Participation, as provided in Sections 8.12 and 8.13 hereof) shall be deemed to acknowledge, that no Agent Firm represents it in connection with any such matters.

Section 8.16. Obligor not a Beneficiary or Party. Except with respect to the limitation of liability applicable to the Lenders under Section 8.11, the provisions and agreements in this Article VIII are solely among the Lenders and the Agent, and no Obligor shall be considered a party thereto or a beneficiary thereof.

Section 8.17. Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent May Delegate Duties. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may appoint sub-agents to exercise on their behalf any of their respective duties, obligations or rights under the Loan Documents, and each such sub-agent shall have all of the rights and benefits of the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, under this Article VIII. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents selected by it with reasonable care, except as otherwise provided in Section 8.3.

Section 8.18. Collateral Matters.

(a) The Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Collateral Agent, at its option and in its sole discretion, to release any Lien on any Collateral upon the termination of the Commitments, and payment and satisfaction in full in cash by the Borrowers of all Obligations, constituting property being Disposed of if a release is required or desirable in connection therewith and if the Administrative Borrower certifies to the Collateral Agent that the Disposition is permitted under Section 6.5 of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents (and the Collateral Agent may rely conclusively on any such certificate, without further inquiry), constituting property in which no Group Member owned any interest at the time the Agent's Lien was granted nor at any time thereafter, or constituting property leased to a Group Member under a Lease or other lease that has expired or is terminated in a transaction permitted under this Agreement. Except as provided above, the Collateral Agent will not execute and deliver a release of any Lien on any Collateral without the prior written authorization of (y) if the release is of all or substantially all of the Collateral, all of the Lenders, or (z) otherwise, the Required Lenders. Upon request by the Administrative Agent or the Administrative Borrower at any time, the Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent's authority to release any such Liens on particular types or items of Collateral pursuant to this Section 8.18; provided, however, that (1) the Collateral Agent shall not be required to execute any document necessary to evidence such release on terms that, in the Collateral Agent's opinion, would expose the Collateral Agent to liability or create any obligation or entail any consequence other than the release of such Lien without recourse, representation, or warranty, and (2) such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those expressly being released) upon (or obligations of any Obligor in respect of) all property and other interests retained by the Obligors, including, the proceeds of any Disposition, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral.

(b) The Agent and its Affiliates and Agent Firm and other representatives shall have no obligation whatsoever to any of the Lenders to assure that the Collateral exists or is owned by the Group Members or is cared for, protected, or insured or has been encumbered, or that the Agent's Liens have been properly or sufficiently or lawfully created, perfected, protected, or enforced or are entitled to any particular priority, or to exercise at all or in any particular manner or under any duty of care, disclosure or fidelity, or to continue exercising, any of the rights, authorities and powers granted or available to the Agent pursuant to any of the Loan Documents, it being understood and agreed that in respect of the Collateral, or any act, omission, or event related thereto, subject to the terms and conditions contained herein, the Agent may act in any manner it may deem appropriate, in its sole discretion given the Agent's own interest in the Collateral in its capacity as one of the Lenders and that the Agent shall have no other duty or liability whatsoever to any Lender as to any of the foregoing, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

Section 8.19. Agency for Perfection. The Collateral Agent hereby appoints each other Lender as its agent (and each Lender hereby accepts such appointment) for the purpose of perfecting the Agent's Liens in property that, in accordance with Article VIII or Article IX, as applicable, of the Code can be perfected only by possession or control. Should any Lender obtain possession or control of any such Collateral, such Lender shall notify the Administrative Agent thereof, and, promptly upon the Administrative Agent's request therefor shall deliver possession or control of such Collateral to the Collateral Agent or in accordance with the Administrative Agent's instructions.

Section 8.20. Field Audits and Examinations; Confidentiality; Disclaimers by Lenders. By becoming a party to this Agreement, each Lender:

- (a) is deemed to have requested that the Administrative Agent furnish such Lender, promptly after it becomes available, a copy of each completed field audit or examination report respecting the Group Members (each a “Report” and collectively, “Reports”) prepared by or at the request of the Administrative Agent, and the Administrative Agent shall so furnish each Lender with such Reports,
- (b) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Administrative Agent does not (i) make any representation or warranty as to the accuracy of any Report, and (ii) shall not be liable for any information contained in any Report,
- (c) expressly agrees and acknowledges that the Reports are not comprehensive audits or examinations, that the Administrative Agent or other party performing any audit or examination will inspect only specific information regarding the Group Members and will rely significantly upon the Group Members’ books and records, as well as on representations of the Group Members’ personnel,
- (d) agrees to keep all Reports and other material, non-public information regarding the Group Members and their operations, assets, and existing and contemplated business plans in a confidential manner in accordance with Section 10.12, and
- (e) without limiting the generality of any other indemnification provision contained in this Agreement, agrees: (i) to hold the Administrative Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report harmless from any action the indemnifying Lender may take or fail to take or any conclusion the indemnifying Lender may reach or draw from any Report in connection with any loans or other credit accommodations that the indemnifying Lender has made or may make to the Borrowers, or the indemnifying Lender’s participation in, or the indemnifying Lender’s purchase of, a loan or loans of the Borrowers; and (ii) to pay and protect, and indemnify, defend and hold the Administrative Agent, and any such other Lender preparing a Report, harmless from and against, the claims, actions, proceedings, damages, costs, expenses, and other amounts (including, attorneys fees and costs) incurred by the Administrative Agent and any such other Lender preparing a Report as the direct or indirect result of any third parties who might obtain all or part of any Report through the indemnifying Lender.

Section 8.21. Successor Agent. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may voluntarily resign as administrative agent or collateral agent, as applicable, at any time by giving ten Business Days’ prior written notice thereof to the other Agent, the Administrative Borrower and the Lenders. Upon any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right to appoint a successor Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable. If no successor shall have been so appointed and shall have accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may, on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Agent from among the Lenders or from among those financial institutions who regularly provide such services in the New York financial markets. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as Agent hereunder by a successor Agent, that successor Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent and the retiring Agent shall promptly (i) transfer to such successor Agent all sums, securities and other items of collateral (if any) held by it under the Loan Documents, together with all records and other documents necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the duties of the successor Agent under the Loan Documents, and (ii) execute and deliver to such successor Agent such documents, and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the assignment to such successor Agent of the rights and benefits under the Loan Documents, whereupon such retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. After any retiring Agent's resignation hereunder as Agent, the provisions of this Article VIII shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was Agent hereunder.

ARTICLE IX GUARANTY

Section 9.1. Guaranty.

(a) Each Guarantor, and each Borrower (with respect to each other Borrower), hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the full and prompt payment when due of the Obligations, including, without limitation, any interest thereon (including, without limitation, interest, premiums and fees, as provided in this Agreement, accruing after the filing of a petition initiating any Insolvency Proceeding, whether or not such interest, premium or fees accrue or are recoverable against the Borrowers after the filing of such petition for purposes of the Bankruptcy Code or are an allowed claim in such proceeding), plus documented, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses if the obligations represented by this Guaranty are collected by law, through an attorney-at-law, or under advice therefrom.

(b) Regardless of whether any proposed guarantor or any other Person shall become in any other way responsible to the Secured Parties, or any of them, for or in respect of the Obligations or any part thereof, and regardless of whether or not any Person now or hereafter responsible to the Secured Parties, or any of them, for the Obligations or any part thereof, whether under this Guaranty or otherwise, shall cease to be so liable, each Guarantor and each Borrower hereby declares and agrees that this Guaranty shall be a joint and several obligation, shall be a continuing guaranty and shall be operative and binding until the Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and all Commitments shall have been terminated.

(c) Each Guarantor and each Borrower absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably waives any and all right to assert any defense (other than the defense of payment in cash in full, or performance, to the extent of its obligations hereunder, or a defense that such Guarantor's or such Borrower's liability is limited as provided in Section 9.3), set-off, counterclaim or cross-claim of any nature whatsoever with respect to this Guaranty or the obligations of the Guarantors or the Borrowers under this Guaranty or the obligations of any other Person or party (including, without limitation, the Borrowers) relating to this Guaranty or the obligations of any of the Guarantors and the Borrowers under this Guaranty or otherwise with respect to the Obligations in any action or proceeding brought by the Administrative Agent or any other Secured Party to collect the Obligations or any portion thereof, or to enforce the obligations of any of the Guarantors or the Borrowers under this Guaranty or to foreclose on any Collateral owned by any Obligor.

(d) The Secured Parties, or any of them, may from time to time, without exonerating or releasing any Guarantor or any Borrower in any way under this Agreement, including this Guaranty, (i) take such further or other security or securities for the Obligations or any part thereof as they may deem proper, or (ii) release, discharge, abandon or otherwise deal with or fail to deal with any Guarantor or guarantor or Borrower of the Obligations or any security or securities therefor or any part thereof now or hereafter held by the Secured Parties, or any of them, or (iii) amend, modify, extend, accelerate or waive in any manner any of the provisions, terms, or conditions of the Loan Documents, all as they may consider expedient or appropriate in their sole discretion. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, or of Section 9.1(e), it is understood that the Secured Parties, or any of them, may, without exonerating or releasing any Guarantor or Borrower, give up, modify or abstain from perfecting or taking advantage of any security for or guarantee of the Obligations and accept or make any compositions or arrangements, and realize upon any security for or guarantee of the Obligations when, and in such manner, and with or without notice, all as such Person may deem expedient.

(e) Each Guarantor and each Borrower acknowledges and agrees that no change in the nature or terms of the Obligations or any of the Loan Documents, or other agreements, instruments or contracts evidencing, related to or attendant with the Obligations (including any novation), shall discharge all or any part of the liabilities and obligations of such Guarantor or Borrower pursuant to this Guaranty; it being the purpose and intent of the Guarantors, the Borrowers and the Secured Parties that the covenants, agreements and all liabilities and obligations of each Guarantor and of each Borrower hereunder are absolute, unconditional and irrevocable under any and all circumstances. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Guarantor and each Borrower agrees that until each and every one of the covenants and agreements of this Guaranty is fully performed, and without possibility of recourse, whether by operation of law or otherwise, such Guarantor's or such Borrower's undertakings hereunder shall not be released, in whole or in part, by any action or thing which might, but for this paragraph of this Guaranty, be deemed a legal or equitable discharge of a surety or guarantor, or by reason of any waiver, omission of the Secured Parties, or any of them, or their failure to proceed promptly or otherwise, or by reason of any action taken or omitted by the Secured Parties, or any of them, whether or not such action or failure to act varies or increases the risk of, or affects the rights or remedies of, such Guarantor or such Borrower, or by reason of any further dealings between the Borrowers or Guarantors, on the one hand, and any Secured Party, on the other hand, or any other guarantor or surety, and such Guarantor or such Borrower hereby expressly waives and surrenders any defense to its liability hereunder, or any right of counterclaim or offset of any nature or description which it may have or may exist based upon, and shall be deemed to have consented to, any of the foregoing acts, omissions, things, agreements or waivers.

(f) The Secured Parties, or any of them, may, without demand or notice of any kind upon or to any Guarantor or Borrower, at any time or from time to time when any amount shall be due and payable hereunder by any Guarantor or Borrower following and during the continuance of an Event of Default, if the Borrowers shall not have timely paid any of the Obligations, set-off and appropriate and apply to any portion of the Obligations hereby guaranteed, and in such order of application as the Administrative Agent may from time to time elect in accordance with this Agreement, any deposits, property, balances, credit accounts or moneys of any Guarantor or any Borrower in the possession of any Secured Party or under their respective control for any purpose. If and to the extent that any Guarantor or Borrower makes any payment to the Administrative Agent or any other Person pursuant to or in respect of this Guaranty, any claim, by subrogation, contribution or otherwise, which such Guarantor or Borrower may have against any Borrower or other Guarantor by reason thereof shall be subject and subordinate to the prior payment in full of the Obligations to the satisfaction of the Administrative Agent.

(g) Upon the bankruptcy or winding up or other distribution of assets of any Borrower, or of any surety or guarantor (other than the applicable Guarantor or other Borrower) for any Obligations of the Borrowers to the Secured Parties, or any of them, the rights of the Administrative Agent against any Guarantor or Borrower shall not be affected or impaired by the omission of any Secured Party to prove its claim, or to prove the full claim, as appropriate, against any Borrower, or any other Borrower or any such other guarantor or surety, and the Administrative Agent may prove such claims as it sees fit and may refrain from proving any claim and in its discretion may value as it sees fit or refrain from valuing any Collateral or other security held by it without in any way releasing, reducing or otherwise affecting the liability to the Secured Parties of each of the Guarantors and each of the Borrowers.

(h) Each Guarantor and each Borrower hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably expressly waives, except to the extent such waiver would be expressly prohibited by Applicable Law, the following: (i) notice of acceptance of this Guaranty, (ii) notice of the existence or creation of all or any of the Obligations, (iii) presentment, demand, notice of dishonor, protest and all other notices whatsoever (other than notices expressly required hereunder or under any other Loan Document to which any Guarantor is a party), (iv) all diligence in collection or protection of or realization upon the Obligations or any part thereof, any obligation hereunder, or any security for any of the foregoing, (v) until the Obligations shall have been paid in full in cash, all rights to enforce any remedy which the Secured Parties, or any of them, may have against any Borrower and (vi) until the Obligations shall have been paid in full in cash, all rights of subrogation, indemnification, contribution and reimbursement from the Borrowers or other Guarantors for amounts paid hereunder and any benefit of, or right to participate in, any Collateral or other security now or hereinafter held by the Secured Parties, or any of them, in respect of the Obligations. If a claim is ever made upon any Secured Party for the repayment or recovery of any amount or amounts received by such Person in payment of any of the Obligations and such Person repays all or part of such amount by reason of (A) any judgment, decree or order of any court or administrative body or other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over such Person or any of its property, or (B) any settlement or compromise of any such claim effected by such Person with any such claimant, including any Borrower, then in such event each Guarantor and each Borrower agrees that any such judgment, decree, order, settlement or compromise shall be binding upon such Guarantor or such Borrower, notwithstanding any revocation hereof or the cancellation of any promissory note or other instrument evidencing any of the Obligations, and such Guarantor or such Borrower shall be and remain obligated to such Person hereunder for the amount so repaid or recovered to the same extent as if such amount had never originally been received by such Person.

(i) This Guaranty is a continuing guaranty of the Obligations and all liabilities to which it applies or may apply under the terms hereof and shall be conclusively presumed to have been created in reliance hereon. No failure or delay by any Secured Party in the exercise of any right, power, privilege or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by the Administrative Agent of any right or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy and no course of dealing between any Guarantor, any Borrower and any Secured Party shall operate as a waiver thereof. No action by any Secured Party permitted hereunder shall in any way impair or affect this Guaranty. For the purpose of this Guaranty, the Obligations shall include, without limitation, all Obligations of the Borrowers to the Secured Parties, notwithstanding any right or power of any third party, individually or in the name of any Borrower or the Secured Parties, or any of them, to assert any claim or defense as to the invalidity or unenforceability of any such Obligation, and no such claim or defense shall impair or affect the obligations of any Guarantor or any Borrower hereunder.

(j) This is a guaranty of payment and not of collection. In the event the Administrative Agent makes a demand upon any Guarantor or any Borrower in accordance with the terms of this Guaranty, such Guarantor or Borrower shall be held and bound to the Administrative Agent directly as debtor in respect of the payment of the amounts hereby guaranteed. All costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred by the Administrative Agent in obtaining performance of or collecting payments due under this Guaranty shall be deemed part of the Obligations guaranteed hereby.

(k) Each Guarantor and each Borrower expressly represents and acknowledges that any financial accommodations by the Secured Parties to the Borrowers, including, without limitation, the extension of credit, are and will be of direct interest, benefit and advantage to such Guarantor or such Borrower.

(l) Each Guarantor and each Borrower shall be entitled to subrogation and contribution rights from and against the Borrowers to the extent any Guarantor or any Borrower is required to pay to any Secured Party any amount in excess of the Revolving Loans advanced directly to, or other Obligations incurred directly by, such Guarantor or Borrower or as otherwise available under Applicable Law; provided, however, that such subrogation and contribution rights are and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 9.1(l), and provided further that the payment obligation of a Guarantor or a Borrower to any other Guarantor or any other Borrower under any Applicable Law regarding contribution rights or subrogation rights or similar rights among co-obligors or otherwise is and shall be expressly subordinate and subject in right of payment to the prior indefeasible payment in full in cash of the obligations of such Guarantor or such Borrower under the other provisions of this Guaranty and the indefeasible payment in full in cash of all Obligations and termination of all Commitments, and such Guarantor or such Borrower shall not exercise any right or remedy with respect to such contribution rights or subrogation rights or similar rights until (i) payment and satisfaction in full of all such obligations and (ii) the Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash and all Commitments shall have been terminated.

Section 9.2. Special Provisions Applicable to Additional Guarantors. Pursuant to Section 5.8 of this Agreement, any new Subsidiary of any Obligor is required to enter into this Agreement by executing and delivering to the Administrative Agent a Guaranty Supplement. Upon the execution and delivery of a Guaranty Supplement by such new Subsidiary, such Subsidiary shall become a Guarantor and Obligor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Guarantor herein. The execution and delivery of any Guaranty Supplement (or any other supplement to any Loan Document delivered in connection therewith) adding an additional Guarantor as a party to this Agreement or any other applicable Loan Document shall not require the consent of any other party hereto. The rights and obligations of each party hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Guarantor hereunder.

Section 9.3. Maximum Liability of Obligors. It being understood that the intent of the Secured Parties is to obtain a guaranty from each Guarantor and each Borrower, and the intent of each Guarantor and each Borrower is to incur guaranty obligations, in an amount no greater than the largest amount that would not render such obligations subject to avoidance under Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable state law relating to fraudulent conveyances or fraudulent transfers, it is hereby agreed that:

(a) If (i) the sum of the guaranty obligations of the Guarantors and the Borrowers under Section 9.1 and, without duplication, in the case of each Borrower, the obligations arising from the joint and several liability of such Borrower with respect to Loans or other extensions of credit made under this Agreement to each other Borrower (collectively, the "Guarantor Obligations") exceeds (ii) the sum (the "Total Available Net Assets") of the Maximum Available Net Assets (as defined in Section 9.4) of each Guarantor and each Borrower, in the aggregate, then (without prejudice to the Obligations of each of the Borrowers under this Agreement with respect to Loans or other extensions of credit made under this Agreement to it) the Guarantor Obligations of each Guarantor and each Borrower shall be limited to the greater of (x) the Total Available Net Assets and (y) the value received by such Guarantor or such Borrower in connection with the incurrence of the Guarantor Obligations to the greatest extent such value can be determined; and

(b) if, but for the operation of this Section 9.3(b) and notwithstanding Section 9.3(a), the Guarantor Obligations of any Guarantor or any Borrower hereunder otherwise would be subject to avoidance under Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable state law relating to fraudulent conveyances or fraudulent transfers, taking into consideration such Guarantor's or such Borrower's (i) rights of contribution, reimbursement and indemnity from the Borrowers and the other Guarantors with respect to amounts paid by such Guarantor or such Borrower in respect of the Obligations (including pursuant to Section 9.4) (calculated so as to reasonably maximize the total amount of obligations able to be incurred hereunder), and (ii) rights of subrogation to the rights of the Secured Parties, then the Guarantor Obligations of such Guarantor or such Borrower shall be the largest amount, if any, that would not leave such Guarantor or such Borrower, after the incurrence of such obligations, insolvent or with unreasonably small capital within the meaning of Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable state law relating to fraudulent conveyances or fraudulent transfers, or otherwise make such obligations subject to such avoidance.

Any Person asserting that the Guarantor Obligations of such Guarantor or such Borrower are subject to Section 9.3(a) or are avoidable as referenced in Section 9.3(b) shall have the burden (including the burden of production and of persuasion) of proving (a) the extent to which such Guarantor Obligations, by operation of Section 9.3(a), are less than the Obligations of the Borrowers owed to the Secured Parties or (b) that, without giving effect to Section 9.3(b), such Guarantor's or such Borrower's Guarantor Obligations hereunder would be avoidable and the extent to which such Guarantor Obligations, by operation of Section 9.3(b), are less than such Obligations of the Borrowers, as the case may be.

Section 9.4. Contribution Rights, Etc. In order to provide for just and equitable contribution, indemnity and reimbursement among the Guarantors and any other Obligors, including the Borrowers, in connection with the execution of this Guaranty, the Obligors have agreed among themselves that if any Obligor satisfies some or all of the Obligations (a "Funding Obligor"), the Funding Obligor shall be entitled to contribution, indemnity or reimbursement, as applicable, from the other Obligors that have positive Maximum Available Net Assets (as defined below) for all payments made by the Funding Obligor in satisfying the Obligations, so that each Obligor that remains obligated under this Guaranty or any other guaranty or otherwise for the Obligations at the time that a Funding Obligor makes such payment, without regard to the making of such payment (a "Remaining Obligor"), and that has a positive Maximum Available Net Assets, shall bear a portion of such payment equal to the percentage that such Remaining Obligor's Maximum Available Net Assets bears to the aggregate Maximum Available Net Assets of all Obligors that have positive Maximum Available Net Assets, provided that no Remaining Obligor's obligation to make such contribution, indemnity or reimbursement payments hereunder shall exceed an amount equal to the Maximum Available Net Assets of such Remaining Obligor.

As used herein, "Available Net Assets" means, with respect to any Obligor, the amount, as of the respective date of calculation, by which the sum of a Person's assets (including subrogation, indemnity, contribution, reimbursement and similar rights that the Obligor may have, but excluding any such rights in respect of the Guarantor Obligations), determined on the basis of a "fair valuation" or their "fair saleable value" (whichever is the applicable test under Section 548 and other relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the relevant state fraudulent conveyance or transfer laws), is greater than the amount that will be required to pay all of such Person's debts, in each case matured or unmatured, contingent or otherwise, as of the date of calculation, but excluding liabilities arising under this Guaranty or, in the case of each Borrower, the liabilities arising from the joint and several liability of such Borrower with respect to Loans or other extensions of credit made under this Agreement to each other Borrower and excluding, to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law with the objective of avoiding rendering such Person insolvent, liabilities subordinated to the Obligations arising out of loans or advances made to such Person by any other Person, and “Maximum Available Net Assets” means, with respect to any Obligor, the greatest of the Available Net Assets of such Obligor calculated as of the following dates: (A) the date on which such Person becomes an Obligor, and (B) each date on which such Obligor expressly reaffirms this Guaranty.

Each Guarantor and Borrower shall be deemed to expressly reaffirm the guaranty provided for in this Article IX upon each borrowing of a Loan and automatically, without further action, upon each delivery by the Administrative Borrower of financial statements required pursuant to Section 5.1(a). The meaning of the terms “fair valuation” and “fair saleable value” and the calculation of assets and liabilities shall be determined and made in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable state fraudulent conveyance or transfer laws.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.1. No Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No failure or delay on the part of the Agent, any Lender or any other Secured Party in exercising any right, power or remedy under the Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy under the Loan Documents. The remedies provided in the Loan Documents are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law.

Section 10.2. Amendments, Requested Waivers, Etc. No amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Obligor therefrom shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders; provided that no amendment, modification, termination, waiver or consent shall do any of the following unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent and each Lender directly affected thereby:

- (a) increase the Commitments;
- (b) reduce the amount of any principal of or interest, premium or fees due on or in respect of the Loans other fees payable to the Lenders;
- (c) postpone any date fixed for any scheduled payment of principal of or interest, premium or fees due on or in respect any outstanding Loan or other fees payable to the Lenders hereunder (for the avoidance of doubt, mandatory prepayments pursuant to Section 2.9(a) may be postponed, delayed, waived or modified with the consent of the Required Lenders);
- (d) release any material Guaranty or the pledge of any Equity Interest in any Subsidiary under any Loan Document, other than a release of such Guaranty or pledge of such Equity Interest to permit divestiture of the relevant Subsidiary permitted by this Agreement or specifically approved by the Required Lenders;
- (e) other than as permitted by Section 8.18(a)(i), release Agent’s Lien in all or substantially all of the Collateral;

(f) change the definition of “Required Lenders”; or

(g) amend this Section 10.2 or any other provision of this Agreement requiring the consent or other action of the Required Lenders or all Lenders.

Any waiver or consent given hereunder shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Borrower in any case shall entitle any Borrower to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

If, in connection with any proposed amendment, waiver or consent requiring the consent of “each Lender directly affected thereby,” the consent of the Required Lenders is obtained, but the consent of other necessary Lenders is not obtained (any such Lender whose consent is necessary but not obtained being referred to herein as a “Non-Consenting Lender”), then the Administrative Agent may elect to replace a Non-Consenting Lender as a Lender party to this Agreement, provided that, concurrently with such replacement, (i) another bank or other entity which is satisfactory to the Administrative Agent shall agree, as of such date, to purchase for cash the Revolving Loans and other Obligations due to the Non-Consenting Lender pursuant to an assignment and assumption and to become a Lender for all purposes under this Agreement and to assume all obligations of the Non-Consenting Lender to be terminated as of such date and to comply with the requirements of Section 8.12, unless waived by the Administrative Agent and the Administrative Borrower and (ii) the Administrative Borrower shall pay to such Non-Consenting Lender in same day funds on the day of such replacement (1) all interest, fees and other amounts then accrued but unpaid to such Non-Consenting Lender by the Borrowers hereunder to and including the date of termination, and (2) an amount, if any, equal to the payment (in excess of the face value of the principal amount) which would have been due to such Lender on the day of such replacement had the Loans of such Non-Consenting Lender been prepaid on such date rather than sold to the replacement Lender.

Section 10.3. Notices and Distributions.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for under the Loan Documents shall be in writing and delivered to the applicable parties at their respective addresses set forth on Schedule 10.3, or, as to each party, at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other party complying as to delivery with the terms of this Section 10.3. All such notices, requests, demands and other communications, shall be effective upon actual delivery if hand delivered, or shall be effective when sent by nationally recognized overnight mail courier or delivery service, or if sent by email or PDF, when sent, in each case addressed as aforesaid, except that notices or requests to the Agent, any Lender, or any other Secured Party pursuant to any of the provisions of Article II shall not be effective until received by the Agent, such Lender, or such other Secured Party.

(b) Each Obligor agrees that the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be required to) make any materials delivered by such Obligor to the Administrative Agent, as well as, but not limited to, any amendments, waivers, consents, and other written information, documents, instruments and other materials relating to any Group Member, or any other materials or matters relating to this Agreement, the other Loan Documents, the ABL DIP Credit Documents, the Related Transactions or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (collectively, the “Communications”) available to the Secured Parties by posting such notices on an electronic delivery system (which may be provided by the Administrative Agent, an Affiliate, or any Person that is not an Affiliate of the Administrative Agent), such as IntraLinks®, or a substantially similar electronic system that requires passwords for access and takes other customary measures with respect to confidentiality and security (the “Platform”) all of which shall be at the cost and expense of the Obligors. Each of Holdings and each Obligor acknowledges that (i) the distribution of material through an electronic medium is not necessarily secure and that there are confidentiality and other risks associated with such distribution, (ii) the Platform is provided “as is” and “as available” and (iii) neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its Affiliates represents or warrants the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, sufficiency or sequencing of the Communications posted on the Platform. The Administrative Agent and its Affiliates expressly disclaim with respect to the Platform any liability for errors in transmission, incorrect or incomplete downloading, delays in posting or delivery, or problems accessing the Communications posted on the Platform and any liability for any losses, costs, expenses or liabilities that may be suffered or incurred in connection with the Platform. No warranty of any kind, express, implied or statutory, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement of third party rights or freedom from viruses or other code defects, is made by the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in connection with the Platform.

(c) Each Secured Party party hereto agrees that notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) (a “Notification”) specifying that any Communication has been posted to the Platform shall for purposes of this Agreement constitute effective delivery to such Secured Party, as applicable, of such information, documents or other materials comprising such Communication. Each Secured Party party hereto agrees (i) to notify, on or before the date such Secured Party becomes a party to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent in writing of such Secured Party’s e-mail address to which a Notification may be sent (and from time to time thereafter to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record an effective e-mail address for such Secured Party) and (ii) that any Notification may be sent to such e-mail address.

Section 10.4. Agent Expenses. Any action taken by any Obligor under or with respect to any Loan Document, even if required under any Loan Document or at the request of any Secured Party, shall be at the expense of such Obligor, and no Secured Party shall be required under any Loan Document to reimburse any Group Member therefor except as expressly provided therein. The Borrowers will reimburse the Agent for all Agent Expenses, such reimbursement to be made (a) on the Closing Date, in the case of all Agent Expenses incurred on or prior to the Closing Date (unless waived by the Agent), and (b) promptly following request for reimbursement, in the case of other Agent Expenses. The obligations of the Obligors under this Section 10.4 shall survive termination of this Agreement and the discharge of the Obligations.

Section 10.5. Costs and Expenses; Indemnification. In addition to the payment of Agent Expenses pursuant to Section 10.4, each Borrower agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Agent, each Lender, each other Secured Party and each of their respective participants, parent corporations, subsidiary corporations, affiliated corporations, successor corporations, and all present and future officers, directors, employees, attorneys and agents (the “Indemnitees”), from and against (i) any Environmental Liability, or any other Liability to which any Indemnitee may be subjected as a result of any past, present or future existence, use, handling, storage, transportation or disposal of any Hazardous Substance by any Group Member or with respect to any property owned, leased or controlled by any Group Member, (ii) any and all transfer taxes, documentary taxes, recording taxes, assessments or charges made by any Governmental Authority (excluding income or gross receipts taxes) by reason of the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the recording or filing of any Mortgage or other Loan Document, the Agent’s Lien in any Collateral, or the making of any Loans, and (iii) any and all Liabilities of any kind or nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceedings, whether or not such Indemnitee shall be designated a party thereto, or with any other matter, in each case which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against such Indemnitee, in any manner relating to or arising out of or in connection with, (w) the Commitments, the making or maintaining of any Loans, the entering into of this Agreement or any other Loan Documents, any Obligation (or the repayment thereof), the Agent's Lien in any Collateral, or the use or intended use of the proceeds of the Loans, or any securities filing of, or with respect to, any Group Member, (x) any commitment letter, proposal letter or term sheet with any Person or any contractual obligation, arrangement or understanding with any broker, finder or consultant, in each case entered into by or on behalf of any Group Member or any Affiliate of any of them in connection with any of the foregoing and any contractual obligation entered into in connection with any Platform, (y) any actual or prospective investigation, litigation or other proceeding, whether or not brought by any such Indemnitee or any of its Related Persons, any holders of its securities or its creditors (and including attorneys' fees in any case), whether or not any such Indemnitee, Related Person, holder or creditor is a party thereto, and whether or not based on any securities or commercial law or regulation or any other Requirement of Law or theory thereof, including common law, equity, contract, tort or otherwise, or (z) any other act, event or transaction related, contemplated in or attendant to any of the foregoing. If any investigative, judicial or administrative proceeding arising from any of the foregoing is brought against any Indemnitee, upon request of such Indemnitee, the Administrative Borrower, or counsel designated by the Administrative Borrower and satisfactory to the Indemnitee, will resist and defend such action, suit or proceeding to the extent and in the manner directed by the Indemnitee, at the Borrowers' sole cost and expense. Each Indemnitee will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate in the defense of any such action, suit or proceeding. If the foregoing undertaking to indemnify, defend and hold harmless may be held to be unenforceable because it violates any law or public policy, the Borrowers shall nevertheless make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of the indemnified liabilities contemplated hereby which is permissible under Applicable Law. Each of the Group Members hereby releases, acquits, and forever discharges the Agent, each of the Lenders, and each other Secured Party, and each of and every past and present affiliates, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, representatives and attorneys of the Agent, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, debts, liens, obligations, liabilities, demands, losses, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) of any kind, character, or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, fixed or contingent, which any Group Member may have or claim to have now or which may hereafter arise out of or connected with any act of commission or omission of the Indemnitees (except, as to each Indemnitee, to the extent arising solely out of the gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee as finally determined by a non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction) including, without limitation, any claims, liabilities or obligations arising with respect to the this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. The provisions of this Section 10.5 shall be binding upon each of the Group Members and shall inure to the benefit of the Agent, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties and each of the past and present affiliates, officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, representatives and attorneys of the Agent, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties. The obligations of the Obligors under this Section 10.5 shall survive termination of this Agreement and the discharge of the Obligations.

Section 10.6. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement and other Loan Documents may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered (including by PDF or facsimile transmission, which shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart hereof) shall be deemed to be an original and all of which counterparts, taken together, shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

Section 10.7. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial; Waiver of Special, Direct, or Consequential Damages.

(a) Governing Law. The Loan Documents shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York (without giving effect to any conflict of law principles), except to the extent the law of any other jurisdiction applies as to the perfection or enforcement of the any security interest in any Collateral (to the extent collateral security is granted with respect to the Obligations) and except to the extent expressly provided to the contrary in any Loan Document.

(b) Jurisdiction. The Obligors, the Agent and the Lenders hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court and any state or federal court of the United States sitting in the State of New York, and any appellate court thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, and the Obligors, the Agent and the Lenders hereby irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such state or federal court. The Obligors, the Agent and the Lenders hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. Each Obligor agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Section 10.7(b) shall affect the right of the Agent or any Lender to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of the Agent or any Lender to bring any action or proceeding against any Group Member or the property of any Group Member (including the Collateral) in the courts of other jurisdictions.

(c) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THE OBLIGORS, THE LENDERS AND THE AGENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO ANY LOAN DOCUMENT OR ANY INSTRUMENT OR DOCUMENT DELIVERED THEREUNDER.

(d) Special, Indirect or Consequential Damages. In no event shall any Indemnitee be liable on any theory of liability for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (including any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings), unless resulting solely and directly from the gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee as determined pursuant to a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Each Obligor hereby waives, releases and agrees (and shall cause each other Group Member to waive, release and agree) not to sue upon any such claim for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor.

Section 10.8. Integration; Inconsistency. This Agreement, together with the Loan Documents, comprise the final and complete integration of all prior expressions by the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter, superseding all prior oral or written understandings. If any provision of a Loan Document (other than the Intercreditor Agreement) is inconsistent with or conflicts with a comparable or similar provision appearing in this Agreement, the comparable or similar provision in this Agreement shall govern.

Section 10.9. Agreement Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective upon delivery of fully executed counterparts hereof to each of the parties hereto.

Section 10.10. Advice from Independent Counsel. The parties hereto understand that this Agreement is a legally binding agreement that may affect such party's rights. Each party hereto represents to the other that it has received legal advice from counsel of its choice regarding the meaning and legal significance of this Agreement and that it is satisfied with its legal counsel and the advice received from it.

Section 10.11. Binding Effect; No Assignment by Borrower; Third Party Beneficiary. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Obligors, the Lenders, the Agent and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, no Obligor may assign any or all of its rights or obligations hereunder or any of its interest herein without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and all Lenders.

Section 10.12. Confidentiality. The Agent and each Lender shall hold all non-public information regarding the Group Members and their businesses obtained by the Agent or such Lender pursuant to the requirements hereof in accordance with the Agent's or such Lender's customary procedures for handling confidential information of such nature, it being understood and agreed by each Group Member that, in any event, the Agent and each Lender may make (i) on a confidential basis, disclosures of such information to Affiliates of such Lender or the Agent and to their respective agents and advisors (and to other Persons authorized by a Lender or the Agent to organize, present or disseminate such information in connection with disclosures otherwise made in accordance with this Section 10.12), (ii) disclosures of such information reasonably required by any bona fide or potential assignee, transferee or participant in connection with the contemplated assignment, transfer or participation of or in any Revolving Loans or by any direct or indirect contractual counterparties (or the professional advisors thereto) to any swap or derivative transaction relating to any Group Member and its obligations (provided, such assignees, transferees, participants, counterparties and advisors are advised of and agree to be bound by either the provisions of this Section 10.12 or other provisions at least as restrictive as this Section 10.12), (iii) disclosure to any rating agency when required by it, provided that, prior to any disclosure, such rating agency shall undertake in writing to preserve the confidentiality of any confidential information relating to the Group Members received by it from the Agent or any Lender, (iv) disclosures in connection with any litigation or other adversary proceeding involving parties hereto which such litigation or adversary proceeding involves claims related to the rights or duties of such parties under this Agreement or the other Loan Documents, and (v) disclosures required or requested by any Governmental Authority or representative thereof or pursuant to legal or judicial process; provided, unless specifically prohibited by Applicable Law or court order, each Lender and the Agent shall make reasonable efforts to notify the Administrative Borrower of any request by any Governmental Authority or representative thereof (other than any such request in connection with any examination of the financial condition or other routine examination of such lender by such Governmental Authority) for disclosure of any such non-public information prior to disclosure of such information. In addition, notwithstanding the above, Bayside (or any successor thereto as Agent) and its Affiliates (but, subject to the foregoing, not any other Lenders or their Affiliates) may disclose the existence of the Loan Documents and the information about the Loan Documents to any Person.

(a) Each Group Member shall, and shall cause its Affiliates to, not disclose any of the terms and conditions or other provisions of the Administrative Agent Fee Agreement to any Person, and shall keep all such terms and conditions confidential, provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, any Group Member make disclosures of such information (i) to its accountants, legal counsel and other advisors provided that such Persons are informed of the confidentiality of such information and agree to keep such information confidential at least to the same extent as is required hereby, or (ii) as required or requested by any Governmental Authority or representative thereof or pursuant to legal or judicial process or as required by Applicable Law; provided that, unless specifically prohibited by Applicable Law, each Group Member shall make reasonable efforts to notify the Administrative Agent of any request by any Governmental Authority or representative thereof for disclosure of any such confidential information, and shall in any event, unless specifically prohibited by Applicable Law, notify the Administrative Agent of each public disclosure of any such information by a Group Member or any Affiliate thereof, together with the proposed text of such public disclosure, prior to disclosure of such information, and provide the Administrative Agent an opportunity to comment thereon, and will not in any such disclosure disclose more information than is mandatorily required to be disclosed under Applicable Law.

Section 10.13. Severability of Provisions. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof.

Section 10.14. Senior Debt. The Obligations are intended to be senior Debt, and not subordinated to any other senior Debt, or made pari passu with Debt that is subordinated to any other Debt, of any Obligor. The Obligations are deemed to be expressly designated and named as “Designated Senior Debt,” “Designated Senior Indebtedness,” “Senior Indebtedness” or similar terms for purposes of any present or future loan agreement, indenture, note issuance or purchase agreement or other document under which such a designation is applicable or available for senior Debt of any Obligor (including without limitation the 2011 Convertible Subordinated Debenture Indenture).

Section 10.17. Administrative Borrower as Agent for Borrower. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints Administrative Borrower as the borrowing agent and attorney-in-fact for all Borrowers. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes Administrative Borrower (i) to provide Agent with all notices with respect to Loans obtained for the benefit of any Borrower and all other notices and instructions under this Agreement and (ii) to take such action as Administrative Borrower deems appropriate on its behalf to obtain Loans and to exercise such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. Each Borrower hereby jointly and severally agrees to indemnify each Indemnitee and hold each Indemnitee harmless against any and all liability, expense, loss or claim of damage or injury, made against the Indemnitees by any Obligor or by any third party whosoever, arising from or incurred by reason of (a) the handling of the Collateral as herein provided, (b) the Indemnitees’ relying on any instructions of Administrative Borrower, or (c) any other action taken by the Indemnitees hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, except that Borrowers will have no liability to the relevant Indemnitee under this Section 10.17 with respect to any liability that has been finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted solely from the gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

James Keller, James Hoff and Larry Ward vs. School Specialty, Inc. – This matter deals with a claim from for sales representatives regarding the classification of items and the marginal commission rates based upon that classification. School Specialty, Inc. anticipates its likely exposure will not exceed $200,000. This claim is not covered by insurance. As of the closing this case is currently in the discovery stage with ongoing deposition.

Wilbert Scott Herman vs. School Specialty Inc., Case Number 37-2008-00092226-OU-PL-CTL, filed September 22, 2008 in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego. Mr. Herman was a school teacher in California and was struck in the head by falling flagpole which was sold by the Parent but not designed or manufactured by the Parent. This is an insured product liability claim and the Parent's deductible for products liability is $50,000.

Jenna Baker (d.o.b. 10/5/2006; date of accident 06/09/2009; date of reported claim 05/26/2011) claim against Childcraft Education Corp. (a wholly owned subsidiary of School Specialty, Inc.) due to injury suffered by Ms. Baker while at C J's County Kids Childcare Center LLC with a product allegedly sold by Childcraft. Gallagher Bassett Services through its Subsequent Detailed Status Report dated 01/23/2013, has set the liability reserve on this claim for School Specialty to be $200,000.

School Specialty, Inc. ("SSI") v. RR Donnelley & Sons Company ("RRD"), U.S. Dist. Ct. E.D. Wis., Case No.1:12-CV-01034. SSI sued RRD for damages resulting from a deficient printing job. RRD counterclaimed against SSI for fraud in the inducement and breach of contract, claiming SSI concealed known problems with the inks RRD used for the printing job, and SSI breached its contract with RRD by cancelling purchase orders for additional work. RRD seeks damages in excess of $500,000.

Redcay Industrial Development, III, LLC ("Redcay") v. School Specialty, Inc., U.S. Dist. Ct. E.D. PA, Case No. 12-CV-7074. Redcay leased a warehouse in Mt. Joy, Pennsylvania to SSI for 20 years, ending on January 1, 2025. Pursuant to the terms of the lease, if SSI's credit rating adversely changes during the term of the lease, and that change impairs Redcay's ability to obtain financing or increases the costs of financing, SSI's rent increases by the resulting costs and expenses incurred by Redcay. Redcay claims that SSI's credit rating went down, and Redcay was unable to refinance the property at a substantially lower interest rate. Redcay seeks a declaratory judgment that SSI owes more rent under the lease or, in the alternative, Redcay seeks damages for breach of contract for over $100,000 of additional rent annually.

Serenity McArthur v. Sportime, LLC, et al., Cal. Sup. Ct., Eldorado County, Case No. PC20120634. Ms. McArthur, a minor, claims that while she was at the Boys and Girls Club of Eldorado County Western Slope (the "Boys and Girls Club"), a resistance band manufactured and sold by Sportime wrapped around her neck, causing her to fall and injure herself. She also has named as defendants Black Oak Mine Unified School District and the Boys and Girls Club. She seeks compensatory and punitive damages against Sportime, based on theories of strict products liability and failure to warn.

Innovatio IP Ventures, LLC – claims to own some 20 patents in the field of wireless networking technology. Innovatio has notified School Specialty that Innovatio believes School Specialty requires a license under Innovatio's patents in order to permit users and visitors at any School

Specialty location to use wireless technology to exchange information, including access to the Internet. To date, the company is still gathering information to respond substantively, and has discussed the matter with Innovatio's counsel to a limited extent. Regarding the Innovatio IP Ventures, LLC claim, which is not at the litigation stage, we estimate the exposure to be less than $250,000. We believe that we have a significant chance of prevailing in the event that this is litigated. These claims are not covered by insurance.

Landmark Technology, LLC – claims to own U.S. Patent Nos. 5,576,951, 6,289,319 and 7,010,508 relating to transaction processes and features used in many electronic commerce systems including structures which exchange business data among trading partners. Landmark has notified School Specialty that Landmark believes School Specialty requires a license under these patents. To date, the company is still gathering information to respond substantively, and has discussed the matter with Landmark's counsel to a limited extent. Regarding the Landmark Technology, LLC claim, which is not at the litigation stage, we estimate the exposure to be less than $200,000. We believe that we have a significant chance of prevailing in the event that this is litigated. These claims are not covered by insurance.

JFJ Toys d/b/a D&L Company and D&L's owner, Fred Ramirez – claims to own trademark registrations for STOMP and STOMP ROCKET for use with toy air rockets. D&L has claimed that School Specialty's (Sportime's) sale of the STOMP-N-LAUNCH BALL LAUNCHER is a trademark infringement. Sportime has removed the product from its web sites and catalogs, and has changed the name of its product to STEP-N-LAUNCH BALL LAUNCHER, but there is still some older product in the pipelines. The company expects the matter to be resolved soon without payment of money to D&L.

S&S Worldwide, Inc. – claims to own a trademark registration for GATOR SKIN for use in connection with certain children's play ball products. S&S has claimed that School Specialty's use, in connection with its TechnoSkin ball products, of "Compare our quality and our prices with Gatorskin and all other 'cheap' balls. We know ours is the best value and higher quality." is pejorative and deceptively false. The referenced phrase appears in School Specialty's catalogs only, and not on its web site. School Specialty plans to remove the referenced phrase from future catalogs. The company expects the matter to be resolved soon without payment of money to S&S.

The Hubbard Company – claims to own a trademark registration for WARD and design, for use in connection with lesson plans, class records and assignment and attendance notebooks, and is a former supplier of these products to School Specialty. Hubbard claims that some of School Specialty's web sites, including Hammond & Stephens, Learning Outlet, Classroom Direct and School Specialty Canada, are using images and item numbers of Hubbard products, but shipping products from other companies, and claims that such activities are acts of trademark infringement and unfair competition. School Specialty has changed the images of the products shown in its Education Essentials catalog and on its web site, and has changed the item numbers used, and has informed Hubbard of these changes. The company expects the matter to be resolved soon without payment of money to Hubbard.

Barry Traub – is a former employee of the Sportime unit. Mr. Traub has claimed that, after Mr. Traub's separation from Sportime, Sportime adopted some of his product ideas, and has not complied with its termination agreement with him regarding payment for those ideas. The matter is not yet at the litigation stage, and the company believes the matter will be resolved with a payment, if any, of less than $30,000.

Carson-Dellosa Publishing, LLC (“CD”) a limited liability company of which School Specialty, Inc. (“SSI”) owns a 35% equity interest has through their counsel of Schell Bray PLLC noticed SSI in a letter dated January 3, 2012 that CD alleges that SSI “may have breached and may be contemplating further breaches of the noncompetition provisions set forth in Section 14.4. of the Operating Agreement (the “Noncompetition Provisions”). We are not attempting to describe comprehensively the depth and breadth of the Noncompetition Provisions in this letter. We do, however, wish to express concern about certain activities of SSI that may violate the Noncompetition Provisions.” No formal action has been taken at this time and SSI disputes this allegation.

SECTION 1. Grant of Security.

Each Grantor hereby pledges, mortgages, hypothecates and (except in the case of ULC Shares) assigns to Agent, and hereby grants to Agent, for the benefit of Secured Parties, a security interest in all of such Grantor's right, title and interest in and to all of the property of such Grantor, in each case whether now or hereafter existing, whether tangible or intangible, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, wherever the same may be located and whether or not subject to the Uniform Commercial Code as it exists on the date of this Agreement, or as it may hereafter be amended in, the State of New York (the "UCC"), including all of the following (the "Collateral"):

- (a) all Accounts;
- (b) all Chattel Paper;
- (c) all Money, Securities Accounts and all Deposit Accounts, together with all amounts on deposit from time to time in such Deposit Accounts;
- (d) all Documents;

- (e) all Farm Products;
 - (f) all General Intangibles, and all Intellectual Property, Payment Intangibles and Software;
 - (g) all Goods, including Inventory, Equipment and Fixtures;
 - (h) all Instruments;
 - (i) all Investment Property;
 - (j) all Letter-of-Credit Rights and other Supporting Obligations;
 - (k) all Records;
 - (l) all Assigned Contracts;
 - (m) all Commercial Tort Claims, including those set forth on Schedule 1 annexed hereto; and
 - (n) all Proceeds and Accessions with respect to any of the foregoing Collateral, including all insurance proceeds on or in respect of any of the foregoing Collateral.

Each term set forth above shall have the meaning set forth in the UCC (to the extent such term is defined in the UCC or elsewhere herein), it being the intention of Grantors that the description of the Collateral set forth above be construed to include the broadest possible range of assets.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Collateral include, and no Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in any of such Grantor's rights or interests in or under: (i) voting Equity Interests of any CFC, solely to the extent (y) such Equity Interests represent an excess over 65% of the outstanding voting Equity Interests of such CFC, and (z) pledging or hypothecating more than 65% of the total outstanding Equity Interests of such CFC would result in adverse tax consequences or the costs to the Grantors of providing such pledge are unreasonably excessive (as determined by the Agent in consultation with the Administrative Borrower) in relation to the benefits to Agent and the other Secured Parties of the security afforded thereby (which pledge, if reasonably requested by Agent, shall be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of such Subsidiary); (ii) any United States intent-to-use trademark applications to the extent that, and solely during the period in which, the grant of a security interest therein would impair the validity or enforceability of such intent-to-use trademark applications under applicable federal law, provided that upon submission and acceptance by the applicable IP Filing Office of an amendment to allege use pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 1060(a) (or any successor provision), such intent-to-use trademark application shall be considered Collateral; and (iii) any license, contract, permit, Instrument, security or franchise to which such Grantor is a party as of the date hereof or any of its rights or interests thereunder to the extent, but only to the extent, that such a grant would, under the terms of such license, contract, permit, Instrument, security or franchise, result in a breach of the terms of, or constitute a default under, such license, contract, permit, Instrument, security or franchise (other than to the extent that any such term would be rendered ineffective pursuant to the UCC or any other applicable law (including the Bankruptcy Code) or principles of equity); provided, that, immediately upon the ineffectiveness, lapse or termination of any such provision the Collateral shall, without any further action by any party hereto, include, and such Grantor shall be deemed to have granted a security interest in, all such rights and interests as if such provision had never been in effect; and provided, further, that the foregoing exclusion shall in no way be construed to limit, impair or otherwise affect any of Agent's or any other Secured Party's continuing security interests in and liens upon any rights or interests of any Grantor in or to monies due or to become due under or in connection with any described such license, contract, permit, Instrument, security or franchise, or any proceeds from the sale, license, lease or other dispositions of any such license, contract, permit, Instrument, security or franchise. In the event that any asset of a Grantor is excluded from the Collateral by virtue of clause (iii) of the foregoing sentence (other than to the extent that any such term would be rendered ineffective pursuant to the UCC or any other applicable law (including the Bankruptcy Code) or principles of equity), such Grantor agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all requisite consents to enable such Grantor to provide a security interest in such asset pursuant hereto as promptly as practicable. The security interests granted hereunder shall not extend to (i) any consumer goods (as defined in the PPSA) of Select Agendas; or (ii) the last day of any real property lease, or any agreement to lease to which Select Agendas is now or becomes a party as lessee, provided that any such last day shall be held in trust by Select Agendas for the Agent and, on the exercise by the Agent of its rights and remedies hereunder, shall be assigned by Select Agendas as directed by the Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Agent shall have a security interest in, and a pledge and collateral assignment of (but not a present assignment of) any Canadian trademarks or ULC Shares forming part of the Collateral.

SECTION 2. Security for Obligations.

This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, acceleration or demand in accordance with the Credit Agreement, or otherwise, of all obligations of each Grantor to each Secured Party, including the Obligations (as defined in the Credit Agreement), however created, arising or evidenced, and whether or not evidenced by a Loan Document (including, without limitation, interest and other amounts that, but for the filing of a petition in bankruptcy with respect to any Grantor, would accrue on such obligations, whether or not a claim is allowed against such Grantor for such amounts in the related bankruptcy proceeding), together with all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, interest, fees, premiums, expenses, reimbursement obligations, indemnities, or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, now existing or hereafter arising or acquired, liquidated or unliquidated, whether or not jointly owed with others, and whether or not from time to time decreased or extinguished and later increased, created or incurred, and all or any portion of such obligations or liabilities that are paid, to the extent all or any part of such payment is avoided or recovered directly or indirectly from Agent or any other Secured Party as a preference, fraudulent transfer or otherwise, and all obligations of every nature of Grantors now or hereafter existing under this Agreement (collectively, the "Secured Obligations"). Each Grantor confirms that value has been given by the Secured Parties or any of them to such Grantor, that such Grantor has rights in its Collateral existing at the date of this Agreement and that such Grantor and the Agent have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the Security Interest in any of the Collateral of such Grantor.

SECTION 3. Grantors Remain Liable.

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) each Grantor shall remain liable under any contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, to the extent set forth therein, to perform all of its duties and obligations thereunder to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, (b) the exercise by Agent of any of its rights hereunder shall not release any Grantor from any of its duties or obligations under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral, (c) Agent shall not have any obligation or liability under any contracts, licenses, and agreements included in the Collateral by reason of this Agreement, nor shall Agent be obligated to perform any of the obligations or duties of any Grantor thereunder or to take any action to collect or enforce any claim for payment assigned hereunder and (d) neither Agent nor any other Secured Party shall have any custodial or ministerial duties to perform with respect to the Collateral pledged except as expressly set forth herein; and by way of explanation and not by way of limitation, neither Agent nor any other Secured Party shall incur liability for any of the following: (i) defects in title to or ownership of Collateral, (ii) loss or depreciation of, or any decline in the value of, Collateral, or (iii) failure to present any paper for payment or protest, to protest or give notice of nonpayment or any other notice with respect to any paper or Collateral.

SECTION 4. Representations and Warranties.

Each Grantor represents and warrants to the Agent, for the benefit of Secured Parties, as follows:

(a) Ownership of Collateral. Except as expressly permitted by the Credit Agreement and the DIP Order, (i) such Grantor owns its interests in the Collateral free and clear of any Lien and (ii) except as set forth on Schedule 16 hereto, no effective financing statement or other instrument similar in effect covering all or any part of the Collateral is on file in any filing or recording office, including any IP Filing Office. Upon the recordation of a Grant with respect to the Intellectual Property Collateral with the applicable IP Filing Office, no subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for value may obtain claim in or title to any Intellectual Property Collateral having priority or seniority over the security interests in such Intellectual Property Collateral granted by each Grantor to Agent for the benefit of Secured Parties pursuant hereto.

Schedule 4A sets forth each state in which each Grantor maintains any assets, operates any portion of its business or is authorized to do business.

(d) Names. No Grantor (or predecessor by merger or otherwise of such Grantor) has, within the five-year period preceding the date hereof, or, in the case of an Additional Grantor, the date of the applicable Supplement, had a different name from the name of such Grantor listed on the signature pages hereof or of the applicable Supplement, except the names set forth on Schedule 5 annexed hereto (as amended by Agent pursuant to any such Supplement).

(e) Delivery of Certain Collateral. All certificates or Instruments (excluding checks) evidencing, comprising or representing the Collateral have been delivered to Agent duly endorsed or accompanied by duly executed instruments of transfer or assignment in blank.

(f) Securities Collateral. All of the Pledged Subsidiary Equity set forth on Schedule 6 annexed hereto has been duly authorized and validly issued and is, in the case of stock, fully paid and non-assessable (subject to the general assessability of shares of a ULC); and in the case of all other Pledged Subsidiary Equity, subject to no assessments, capital calls or additional payment requirements of any nature, all of the Pledged Subsidiary Debt set forth on Schedule 7 annexed hereto has been duly authorized and is the legally valid and binding

(h) Deposit Accounts, Securities Accounts, Commodity Accounts. Schedule 11 annexed hereto lists all Deposit Accounts, Securities Accounts and Commodity Accounts (separately identified as such) owned by each Grantor, and in each case, indicates the institution or intermediary at which the account is held and the account name and number.

(j) Letter-of-Credit Rights. Such Grantor has no interest in any Letter-of-Credit Rights, except as set forth on Schedule 13 annexed hereto.

(k) Documents. No negotiable Documents are outstanding with respect to any of the Inventory or other Collateral, except as set forth on Schedule 14 annexed hereto.

In addition to the representations and warranties set forth in the Credit Agreement, the representations and warranties as to the information set forth in Schedules referred to herein are made as to each Grantor (other than Additional Grantors) as of the date hereof and as to each Additional Grantor as of the date of the applicable Supplement, except that, in the case of a Pledge Supplement, IP Supplement or notice delivered pursuant to Section 5(d) hereof, such representations and warranties are made as of the date of such supplement or notice.

SECTION 5. Further Assurances.

(a) Generally. Each Grantor agrees that from time to time, at the expense of Grantors, such Grantor will promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents, and take any and all further action, that may be necessary or desirable, or that Agent may reasonably request, in order to perfect and protect any security interest or other Lien granted or purported to be granted hereby or under the DIP Order or to enable Agent to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder or under applicable law with respect to any Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Grantor will: (i) notify Agent in writing of receipt by such Grantor of any interest in Chattel Paper and at the request of Agent, mark conspicuously each item of Chattel Paper and each of its records pertaining to the Collateral, with a legend, in form and substance satisfactory to Agent, indicating that such Collateral is subject to the security interest granted hereby, (ii) deliver to Agent all promissory notes and other Instruments (other than, unless requested by the Agent as provided below, promissory notes and other Instruments individually in a principal amount less than $10,000 and in an aggregate principal amount not in excess of $250,000 from time to time), and, at the request of Agent, all other promissory notes and instruments and original counterparts of Chattel Paper, duly endorsed and accompanied by duly executed instruments of transfer or assignment, all in form and substance satisfactory to Agent, (iii) (A) execute (if necessary) and file such financing statements and other filings or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, (B) subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Credit Agreement, execute and deliver, and cause to be executed and delivered, agreements establishing that Agent has control of Deposit Accounts (other than Excluded Accounts) to the extent necessary or desirable for perfection, and Investment Property of such Grantor, (C) deliver such documents, instruments, notices, records and consents, and take such other actions, necessary to establish that Agent has control over electronic Chattel Paper (other than electronic Chattel Paper the aggregate value or face amount of which does not at any one time exceed $250,000) and Letter-of-Credit Rights (to the extent the Grantors (or any of them) are or become beneficiary of letters of credit, other than letters of credit having a face amount or value of no more than $250,000 in the aggregate) of such Grantor, (D) promptly notify Agent (and in any event within five (5) Business Days) of any Account or Chattel Paper arising out of a contract or contracts with the United States of America, Canada or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof (other than Accounts and Chattel Paper (x) the aggregate value of which does not at any one time exceed $500,000 or (y) which are based upon purchase orders which are fully satisfied within sixty (60) days of acceptance of the same by any Grantor) and, subject to Section 31, promptly (and in any event within five (5) Business Days) after request by Agent, execute any instruments or take any steps reasonably required by Agent in order that all moneys due or to become due under such contract or contracts shall be assigned to Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and shall provide written notice thereof under the Federal Assignment of Claims Act of 1940 or other applicable law, and (E) deliver such other instruments or notices, in each case, as may be necessary or desirable, or as Agent may reasonably request, in order to perfect and preserve the security interests or other Liens granted or purported to be granted hereby and under the DIP Order, (iv) furnish to Agent from time to time statements and schedules further identifying and describing the Collateral and such other reports in connection with the Collateral as Agent may reasonably request, all in reasonable detail, (v) subject to the limitations set forth in the Credit Agreement, at any reasonable time upon request by Agent, exhibit the Collateral to and allow inspection, examination and audit of the Collateral by Agent, or persons designated by Agent, (vi) at Agent's request and upon reasonable prior notice, appear in and defend any action or proceeding that may affect such Grantor's title to or Agent's security interest in or other Liens on all or any part of the Collateral, and (vii) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any necessary consents of third parties to the creation and perfection of a security interest or other Lien in favor of Agent with respect to any Collateral. Each Grantor hereby authorizes Agent to file one or more financing statements or similar documents or continuation statements, and amendments thereto, relative to all or any part of the Collateral (including any financing statement indicating that it covers "all assets", "all present and after-acquired personal property" or "all personal property" of such Grantor) without the signature of any Grantor. Each Grantor hereby waives, to the greatest extent permitted under applicable law, notice or receipt of copies of any such statements or amendments or any verification statements in respect thereof.

(b) Securities Collateral. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing Section 5(a), each Grantor agrees that (i) all certificates or Instruments representing or evidencing the Securities Collateral shall be delivered to and held by or on behalf of Agent pursuant hereto and shall be in suitable form for transfer by delivery or, as applicable, shall be accompanied by such Grantor's endorsement, where necessary, or duly executed instruments of transfer or assignments in blank, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Agent and (ii) it will, upon obtaining any additional Equity Interests or Debt, promptly (and in any event within three (3) Business Days for any such Equity Interests and within five (5) days for any such Debt) deliver to Agent a Pledge Supplement, duly executed by such Grantor, in respect of such additional Pledged Equity or Pledged Debt; provided, that the failure of any Grantor to execute a Pledge Supplement with respect to any additional Pledged Equity or Pledged Debt shall not impair the security interest of Agent therein or otherwise adversely affect the rights and remedies of Agent hereunder and under the DIP Order with respect thereto. Upon each such acquisition, the representations and warranties contained in Section 4(f) hereof shall be deemed to have been made by such Grantor as to such Pledged Equity or Pledged Debt, whether or not such Pledge Supplement is delivered.

(c) Intellectual Property Collateral. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar month, each Grantor shall notify Agent in writing of any rights to Intellectual Property Collateral acquired or created (and any additions of new tradenames or changes to existing tradenames) by such Grantor after the date hereof during such month and shall execute and deliver to Agent an IP Supplement, and a Grant for recordation in the applicable IP Filing Office with respect to each Trademark Registration, Patent or Copyright Registration (or application with respect thereto) filed during such month; provided, the failure of any Grantor to execute and deliver an IP Supplement or such Grant for recordation with respect to any additional Intellectual Property Collateral shall not impair the security interest of Agent therein or otherwise adversely affect the rights and remedies of Agent hereunder or under the DIP Order with respect thereto. Upon delivery to Agent of an IP Supplement, Schedules 8, 9 and 10 annexed hereto and Schedule A to each Grant, as applicable, shall be deemed modified to include a reference to any right, title or interest in any existing Intellectual Property Collateral or any such Intellectual Property Collateral set forth on Schedule A to such IP Supplement (and the representations and warranties contained in Section 4(g) hereof shall be deemed to have been made by such Grantor as of the end of such calendar month with respect to which such IP Supplement is delivered).

(d) Commercial Tort Claims. Grantors have no Commercial Tort Claims as of the date hereof, except as set forth on Schedule 1 annexed hereto. In the event that a Grantor shall at any time after the date hereof have any Commercial Tort Claims (other than Commercial Tort Claims the amount of which does not exceed $250,000 in the aggregate), such Grantor shall promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) notify Agent thereof in writing, which notice shall (i) set forth in reasonable detail the basis for and nature of such Commercial Tort Claim, (ii) constitute an amendment to this Agreement by which such Commercial Tort Claim shall constitute part of the Collateral and (iii) constitute authorization to file any additional financing statements describing such Commercial Tort Claim to give Agent a perfected security interest in such Commercial Tort Claim.

SECTION 6. Certain Covenants of Grantors.

Each Grantor shall:

(a) not use any Collateral, or permit any Collateral to be used, unlawfully or in violation of any provision of this Agreement, the DIP Order or any applicable statute, regulation or ordinance or any policy of insurance covering the Collateral;

(b) give Agent at least 30 days' prior written notice of (i) any change in such Grantor's legal name (including adopting a French or combined form of name), identity or corporate structure and (ii) any reincorporation, reorganization or other action that results in a change of the jurisdiction of organization of such Grantor;

(c) if Agent gives value to enable such Grantor to acquire rights in or the use of any Collateral, use such value for such purposes and in accordance with the DIP Order;

(d) keep correct and accurate Records of Collateral at the locations described in Schedule 3 annexed hereto;

(f) not permit any item of Collateral to become a fixture to real estate or an accession to other personal collateral property unless such real estate or other property is also Collateral hereunder or under another Security Document; and

Together with each schedule, Grantors shall, if requested by Agent, furnish Agent with copies of each Grantor's sales, journals, invoices, customer purchase orders or the equivalent, and original shipping or delivery receipts for all good sold, and each Grantor warrants the genuineness thereof.

SECTION 7. Special Covenants With Respect to Equipment and Inventory.

Each Grantor shall:

(a) if any Inventory is in possession or control of any of such Grantor's agents or processors, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default at the request of Agent, instruct such agent or processor to hold all such Inventory for the account of Agent and subject to the instructions of Agent;

(b) if any Inventory is, or becomes, subject to consignment, bill and hold, sale or return, sale on approval, or other conditional terms of sale, promptly file UCC financing statements listing the Grantor owning such Inventory as the "Secured Party" and the consignee of such Inventory as the "Debtor" and properly identifying the Inventory subject to such consignment; provided that the foregoing obligation shall not apply to consignment or similar transactions if the Inventory related thereto is less than $10,000 in value in the aggregate;

(c) subject to Article V of the Credit Agreement, cause each mortgagee of real property owned by a Grantor and each landlord of real property leased by a Grantor to execute and deliver instruments satisfactory in form and substance to Agent by which such mortgagee or landlord subordinates its rights, if any, in the Collateral and cause to be delivered by each such landlord collateral access agreements in form and substance satisfactory to Agent relating to all Collateral located from time to time on all such leased premises;

(d) promptly upon the issuance and delivery to such Grantor of any negotiable Document (other than checks that are promptly deposited into a deposit account subject to a perfected Lien in favor of the Agent securing the Secured Obligations) evidencing a payment obligation in excess of $10,000 or, with respect to any other negotiable Document, promptly upon Agent's request, deliver such Document to Agent; and

(e) with respect to Equipment owned at any time by such Grantor that is covered by a certificate of title (other than such Equipment having an aggregate value, for all Grantors, of no more than $200,000), promptly file with the registrar of motor vehicles or other appropriate authority in the applicable jurisdiction an application requesting the notation of the security interest created hereunder on such certificate of title.

SECTION 8. Special Covenants with respect to Accounts and Assigned Agreements.

(a) Each Grantor shall, for not less than three years from the date on which each Account of such Grantor arose, maintain (i) complete Records of such Account, including records of all payments received, credits granted and merchandise returned, and (ii) all documentation relating thereto.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b), each Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to such Grantor under the Accounts in accordance with the customary payment terms with respect to such Accounts. In connection with such collections, each Grantor may take (and, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default at Agent's direction, shall take) such action as such Grantor or, following an Event of Default, Agent may deem necessary or advisable to enforce collection of amounts due or to become due under the Accounts in accordance with the customary payment terms with respect to such Accounts; provided, however, that Agent shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to (i) notify the account debtors or obligors under any Accounts of the assignment of such Accounts to Agent and to direct such account debtors or obligors to make payment of all amounts due or to become due to such Grantor thereunder directly to Agent, (ii) notify each Person maintaining a lockbox or similar arrangement to which account debtors or obligors under any Accounts have been directed to make payment to remit all amounts representing collections on checks and other payment items from time to time sent to or deposited in such lockbox or other arrangement directly to Agent, (iii) enforce collection of any such Accounts at the expense of Grantors, and (iv) adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor might have done. All amounts and proceeds (including checks and Instruments) received by each Grantor in respect of amounts due to such Grantor in respect of the Accounts or any portion thereof (but in the case of cash, only to the extent received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default) shall be received in trust for the benefit of Agent hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of such Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Agent in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement) and, to the extent applicable, in accordance with any applicable terms of the Credit Agreement and the DIP Order. Grantors shall not at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, without the written consent of Agent, adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any Account, or release wholly or partly any account debtor or obligor thereof, or allow any credit or discount thereon.

(c) Each Grantor shall at its expense:

(i) if consistent with sound business practices, perform and observe all terms and provisions of the Assigned Agreements to be performed or observed by it, maintain the Assigned Agreements in full force and effect, enforce the Assigned Agreements in accordance with their terms, and take all such action to such end as may be from time to time reasonably requested by Agent; and

(ii) upon request of Agent, (A) furnish to Agent, promptly upon receipt thereof, copies of all notices, requests and other documents received by such Grantor under or pursuant to the Assigned Agreements and from time to time such information and reports regarding the Assigned Agreements as Agent may reasonably request and (B) make to the parties to such Assigned Agreements such demands and requests for information and reports or for action as such Grantor is entitled to make under the Assigned Agreements.

(d) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, no Grantor shall (i) cancel or terminate any of the Assigned Agreements or consent to or accept any cancellation or termination thereof; (ii) amend or otherwise modify the Assigned Agreements or give any consent, waiver or approval thereunder; (iii) waive any default under or breach of the Assigned Agreements; (iv) consent to or permit or accept any prepayment of amounts to become due under or in connection with the Assigned Agreements, except as expressly provided therein; or (v) take any other action in connection with the Assigned Agreements that could reasonably be expected to materially impair the value of the interest or rights of such Grantor thereunder or that could reasonably be expected to materially impair the interest or rights of Agent.

SECTION 9. Special Covenants With Respect to the Securities Collateral: IRREVOCABLE PROXY.

(a) Form of Securities Collateral. Agent shall have the right at any time to exchange certificates or instruments representing or evidencing Securities Collateral for certificates or instruments of smaller or larger denominations. As of the Closing Date, each limited liability company agreement governing the Pledged Equity shall expressly provide that such Pledged Equity is a security governed by Article 8 of the UCC (and, in the case of any Grantor that is organized under the laws of Canada or a province or territory thereof, such Grantor represents and warrants that all interests in partnerships or limited liability companies are a “security” for the purposes of the STA (if applicable)).

(b) Covenants. Each Grantor shall, subject to the terms of the Credit Agreement, (i) not permit any issuer of Pledged Subsidiary Equity to merge or consolidate unless all the outstanding Equity Interests of the surviving or resulting Person are, upon such merger or consolidation, pledged and become Collateral hereunder and no cash, securities or other property is distributed in respect of the outstanding Equity Interests of any other constituent corporation; (ii) cause each issuer of Pledged Subsidiary Equity not to issue Equity Interests in addition to or in substitution for the Pledged Subsidiary Equity issued by such issuer, except to such Grantor; (iii) promptly upon its acquisition (directly or indirectly) of any Equity Interests, including additional Equity Interests in each issuer of Pledged Equity, comply with Section 5(b); (iv) promptly upon issuance of any and all Instruments or other evidences of additional Debt from time to time owed to such Grantor by any obligor on the Pledged Debt, comply with Section 5; (v) promptly deliver to Agent all written notices received by it with respect to the Securities Collateral; (vi) at its expense (A) perform and comply in all material respects with all terms and provisions of any agreement related to the Securities Collateral required to be performed or complied with by it, (B) maintain all such agreements in full force and effect and (C) enforce all such agreements in accordance with their terms; and (vii) promptly execute and deliver to Agent an agreement providing for control (within the meaning under the UCC) by Agent of all Security Entitlements, Securities Accounts, Commodity Contracts and Commodity Accounts of such Grantor.

(c) Voting and Distributions. So long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing (or, in the case of pledged ULC Shares, until the ULC Shares are no longer registered in the name of the applicable Grantor) and except as otherwise specified in the Credit Agreement, (i) each Grantor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and other consensual rights pertaining to the Securities Collateral or any part thereof for any purpose not prohibited by the terms of this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or the DIP Order; provided, no Grantor shall exercise any such right, or refrain from exercising any such right, if such exercise, or refrain from exercising, any such right would have a material adverse effect on the value of the Securities Collateral or any part thereof; or on the rights and remedies of Agent or the Lenders under the Loan Documents or in respect of the Collateral, and (ii) each Grantor shall be entitled, subject to the Carve-Out and the DIP Order, to receive and retain any and all dividends, other distributions, principal and interest paid in respect of the Securities Collateral.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (x) upon written notice from Agent to any Grantor, all rights of such Grantor to exercise the voting and other consensual rights which it would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant hereto shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in Agent who shall thereupon have the sole right to exercise such voting and other consensual rights; (y) all rights, if any, of such Grantor to receive the dividends, other distributions, principal and interest payments which it would otherwise be authorized to receive and retain pursuant hereto shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in Agent who shall thereupon have the sole right to receive and hold as Collateral such dividends, other distributions, principal and interest payments; and (z) all dividends, principal, interest payments and other distributions which are received by such Grantor contrary to the provisions of clause (y) above shall be received in trust for the benefit of Agent, shall be segregated from other funds of such Grantor and shall forthwith be paid over to Agent as Collateral in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsements); provided, however, that solely in the case of ULC Shares, the applicable Grantor shall have the right to vote such shares and to retain for its own account any dividends or other distributions on such shares (other than to the extent same consists of certificated Pledged Equity which shall be delivered to Agent to be held in accordance with the terms hereof) until such shares are effectively transferred in to the name of a person other than such Grantor).

In order to permit Agent to exercise the voting and other consensual rights which it may be entitled to exercise pursuant hereto and to receive all dividends and other distributions which it may be entitled to receive hereunder, (I) each Grantor shall promptly execute and deliver (or cause to be executed and delivered) to Agent all such proxies, dividend payment orders and other instruments as Agent may from time to time reasonably request, which proxies, dividend payment orders and instruments shall be effective, automatically and without the necessity of any action (including any transfer of any Pledged Equity on the record books of the issuer thereof) by any other Person (including the issuer of the Pledged Equity or any officer or Agent thereof), upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and (II) without limiting the effect of clause (I) above, EACH GRANTOR HEREBY GRANTS TO AGENT AN IRREVOCABLE PROXY AND IRREVOCABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY (WHICH POWER OF ATTORNEY IS COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST) to vote the Pledged Equity and to exercise all other rights, powers, privileges and remedies to which a holder of the Pledged Equity would be entitled (including giving or withholding written consents of holders of Equity Interests, calling special meetings of holders of Equity Interests and voting at such meetings), which proxy and power of attorney shall be effective, automatically and without the necessity of any action (including any transfer of any Pledged Equity on the record books of the issuer thereof) by any other Person (including the issuer of the Pledged Equity or any officer or Agent thereof), upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (except with respect to the ULC Shares) and which proxy and power of attorney shall only terminate upon the waiver of such Event of Default as evidenced by a writing executed by Agent and any other Person required by the terms of the Loan Documents, or on the Termination Date.

(d) Each Grantor acknowledges that certain of the Collateral of such Grantor may now or in the future consist of ULC Shares, and that it is the intention of Agent and each Grantor that neither Agent nor any Secured Party should under any circumstances prior to realization thereon be held to be a “member” or a “shareholder”, as applicable, of a ULC for the purposes of any ULC Laws. Therefore, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document, where a Grantor is the registered and beneficial owner of ULC Shares which are Collateral of such Grantor, such Grantor will remain the sole registered and beneficial owner of such ULC Shares until such time as such ULC Shares are effectively transferred into the name of the Agent, any other Secured Party, or any other Person on the books and records of the applicable ULC. Accordingly, each Grantor shall be entitled, subject to the Carve-Out and the DIP Order, to receive and retain for its own account any dividend on or other distribution, if any, in respect of such ULC Shares (except for any dividend or distribution comprised of any certificates representing the Pledged Interests of such Grantor, which shall be delivered to Agent to hold hereunder) and shall have the right to vote such ULC Shares and to control the direction, management and policies of the applicable ULC to the same extent as such Grantor would if such ULC Shares were not pledged to Agent pursuant hereto. Nothing in this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document is intended to, and nothing in this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document shall, constitute Agent, any Secured Party, or any other Person other than the applicable Grantor, a member or shareholder of a ULC for the purposes of any ULC Laws (whether listed or unlisted, registered or beneficial), until such time as notice is given to such Grantor and further steps are taken pursuant hereto or thereto so as to register the Agent, any Secured Party, or such other Person, as specified in such notice, as the holder of the ULC Shares. To the extent any provision hereof or the Credit Agreement or any other Loan Document would have the effect of constituting Agent or any Secured Party, as applicable, a member or shareholder of any ULC prior to such time, such provision shall be severed herefrom or therefrom and shall be ineffective with respect to ULC Shares which are Collateral of any Grantor without otherwise invalidating or rendering unenforceable this Agreement or invalidating or rendering unenforceable such provision insofar as it relates to Collateral of any Grantor which is not ULC Shares. Except upon the exercise of rights of Agent to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of ULC Shares in accordance with this Agreement, the Credit Agreement or the other Loan Documents, each Grantor shall not cause or permit, or enable a Grantor that is a ULC to cause or permit, Agent or any Secured Party to: (a) be registered as a shareholder or member of such Pledged Company; (b) have any notation entered in their favour in the share register of such Grantor; (c) be held out as shareholders or members of such Grantor; (d) receive, directly or indirectly, any dividends, property or other distributions from such Grantor by reason of Agent holding the Security Interests over the ULC Shares; or (e) act as a shareholder or member of such Grantor, or exercise any rights of a shareholder or member including the right to attend a meeting of shareholders or members of such Grantor or to vote its ULC Shares.

SECTION 10. Special Covenants With Respect to the Intellectual Property Collateral.

(a) Each Grantor shall:

(i) not permit the inclusion in any contract to which it hereafter becomes a party of any provision that could or might in any way impair or prevent the creation of a security interest in, or the assignment of, such Grantor's rights and interests in any property included within the definitions of any Intellectual Property Collateral acquired under such contracts;

(ii) take any and all reasonable steps to protect the secrecy of all trade secrets relating to the products and services sold or delivered under or in connection with the Intellectual Property Collateral, including, without limitation, where appropriate entering into confidentiality agreements with employees and labeling and restricting access to secret information and documents;

(iii) use proper statutory notice in connection with its use of any of the Intellectual Property Collateral and products and services covered by the Intellectual Property Collateral (in the case of Intellectual Property Collateral that is acquired after the Closing Date, within a commercially reasonable period, but in any event within no more than 45 days after such Intellectual Property Collateral is acquired); and

(iv) use a commercially appropriate standard of quality (which may be consistent with such Grantor's past practices) in the manufacture, sale and delivery of products and services sold or delivered under or in connection with the Trademarks.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 10, each Grantor shall continue to collect, at its own expense, all amounts due or to become due to such Grantor in respect of the Intellectual Property Collateral or any portion thereof in accordance with customary applicable payment terms. In connection with such collections, each Grantor may take (and, after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default at Agent's reasonable direction, shall take) such action as such Grantor or Agent may deem reasonably necessary or advisable to enforce collection of such amounts in accordance with customary applicable payment terms; provided, Agent shall have the right at any time, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, to notify the obligors with respect to any such amounts of the existence of the security interest created hereby and to direct such obligors to make payment of all such amounts directly to Agent, and, upon such notification and at the expense of such Grantor, to enforce collection of any such amounts and to adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as such Grantor might have done. All amounts and proceeds (including checks and Instruments) received by each Grantor in respect of amounts due to such Grantor in respect of the Intellectual Property Collateral or any portion thereof (but in the case of cash, only to the extent received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default) shall be received in trust for the benefit of Agent hereunder, shall be segregated from other funds of such Grantor and shall be forthwith paid over or delivered to Agent in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement), in accordance, where applicable, with the terms of the Credit Agreement and the DIP Order. Grantors shall not at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, without the written consent of Agent, adjust, settle or compromise the amount or payment of any such amount or release wholly or partly any obligor with respect thereto or allow any credit or discount thereon.

(c) Each Grantor shall diligently, through counsel reasonably acceptable to Agent, prosecute, file and/or make, unless and until such Grantor, in its commercially reasonable judgment, decides otherwise, (i) any application for registration relating to any of the Intellectual Property Collateral owned, held or used by such Grantor and set forth on Schedules 8, 9 or 10 annexed hereto, as applicable, that is pending as of the date of this Agreement, (ii) any Copyright Registration on any existing or future unregistered but copyrightable works (except for works of nominal commercial value or with respect to which such Grantor has determined in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment that it shall not seek registration), (iii) any application on any future patentable but unpatented innovation or invention comprising Intellectual Property Collateral (except for inventions of nominal commercial value with respect to which such Grantor has determined in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment that it shall not seek a patent), and (iv) any Trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings, renew Trademark Registrations and Copyright Registrations and do any and all acts which are necessary or desirable to preserve and maintain all rights in all Intellectual Property Collateral (except for Intellectual Property of nominal commercial value with respect to which such Grantor has determined in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment that it shall not maintain such proceeding or seek such protection). Any expenses incurred in connection therewith shall be borne solely by Grantors. Subject to the foregoing, each Grantor shall give Agent prior written notice of any abandonment of any Intellectual Property Collateral (except for Intellectual Property of nominal commercial value with respect to which such Grantor has determined in the exercise of its commercially reasonable judgment that it shall not maintain such proceeding or seek such protection).

(d) Except as provided herein, each Grantor shall have the right to commence and prosecute in its own name, as real party in interest, for its own benefit and at its own expense, such suits, proceedings or other actions for infringement, unfair competition, dilution, misappropriation or other damage, or reexamination or reissue proceedings as are necessary to protect the Intellectual Property Collateral. Each Grantor shall promptly, following its becoming aware thereof, notify Agent of the institution of, or of any adverse determination in, any proceeding (whether in an IP Filing Office or any federal, state, provincial, local or foreign court) or regarding such Grantor's ownership, right to use, or interest in any Intellectual Property Collateral. Each Grantor shall provide to Agent any information with respect thereto reasonably requested by Agent.

(e) In addition to, and not by way of limitation of, the granting of a security interest in the Collateral pursuant hereto, each Grantor, effective upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, hereby assigns, transfers and conveys to Agent the nonexclusive right and license to use all Trademarks, Copyrights, Patents or technical processes (including, without limitation, the Intellectual Property Collateral) owned or used by such Grantor that relate to the Collateral, together with any goodwill associated therewith, all to the extent necessary to enable Agent to realize on the Collateral in accordance with this Agreement and to enable any transferee or assignee of the Collateral to enjoy the benefits of the Collateral. This right shall inure to the benefit of all successors, assigns and transferees of Agent and its successors, assigns and transferees, whether by voluntary conveyance, operation of law, assignment, transfer, foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise. Such right and license shall be granted free of charge, without requirement that any monetary payment whatsoever be made to such Grantor.

SECTION 11. Collateral Account.

[Reserved]

SECTION 12. Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact.

Each Grantor hereby irrevocably appoints Agent as such Grantor's attorney-in-fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest, with full authority in the place and stead of such Grantor and in the name of such Grantor, Agent or otherwise, from time to time in Agent's discretion (subject however to compliance with applicable law) to take any action and to execute any instrument that Agent may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement to the extent any such action is not inconsistent with the DIP Order or the Credit Agreement and without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, including, without limitation:

- (a) to obtain and adjust insurance required to be maintained by such Grantor or paid to Agent pursuant to the Credit Agreement;
- (b) to ask for, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittance and receipts for moneys due and to become due under or in respect of any of the Collateral;
- (c) to receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other Instruments, Documents, Chattel Paper and other documents in connection with clauses (a) and (b) above;
- (d) to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings that Agent may deem necessary or desirable for the collection of any of the Collateral or otherwise to enforce or protect the rights of Agent with respect to any of the Collateral;
- (e) to pay or discharge taxes or Liens (other than taxes not required to be discharged pursuant to the Credit Agreement and Liens permitted under this Agreement or the Credit Agreement) levied or placed upon or threatened against the Collateral, the legality or validity thereof and the amounts necessary to discharge the same to be determined by Agent in its sole discretion, any such payments made by Agent to become obligations of such Grantor to Agent, due and payable immediately without demand;
- (f) to sign and endorse any invoices, freight or express bills, bills of lading, storage or warehouse receipts, drafts against debtors, assignments, verifications and notices in connection with Accounts and other documents relating to the Collateral; and
- (g) generally to sell, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with any of the Collateral as fully and completely as though Agent were the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and to do, at Agent's option and Grantors' expense, at any time or from time to time, all acts and things that Agent deems necessary to protect, preserve or realize upon the Collateral and Agent's security interest therein in order to effect the intent of this Agreement, all as fully and effectively as such Grantor might do.

Without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Agreement, Agent agrees that, except for the powers granted pursuant to clause (e) above, it will not exercise any power or authority granted pursuant to this Section 12 unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

SECTION 13. Agent May Perform.

If any Grantor fails to perform any agreement contained herein, Agent may itself perform, or cause performance of, such agreement, and the expenses of Agent incurred in connection therewith shall be payable by Grantors under Section 18(b).

SECTION 14. Standard of Care.

The powers conferred on Agent hereunder are solely to protect its interest in the Collateral and shall not impose any duty upon it to exercise any such powers. Except for the exercise of reasonable care in the custody of any Collateral in its possession and the accounting for moneys actually received by it hereunder, Agent shall have no duty as to any Collateral or as to the taking of any necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining to any Collateral. Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of Collateral in its possession if such Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which Agent accords its own property.

SECTION 15. Remedies.

(a) Generally. If any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing (subject solely in the case of ULC Shares to Section 9(d)), Agent may, to the extent any such action is not inconsistent with the DIP Order or the Credit Agreement and without application to or order of the Bankruptcy Court, exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it, all the rights and remedies of a Secured Party on default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral), and also may (i) require each Grantor to, and each Grantor hereby agrees that it will, at its expense and upon request of Agent forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by Agent and make it available to Agent at a place to be designated by Agent that is reasonably convenient to both parties, (ii) enter onto the property where any Collateral is located and take possession thereof with or without judicial process, (iii) prior to the disposition of the Collateral, store, process, repair or recondition the Collateral or otherwise prepare the Collateral for disposition in any manner to the extent Agent deems appropriate, (iv) take possession of any Grantor's premises or place custodians in exclusive control thereof, remain on such premises and use the same and any of such Grantor's equipment for the purpose of completing any work in process, taking any actions described in the preceding clause (iii) and collecting any Secured Obligation, (v) without notice except as specified below, sell the Collateral or any part thereof in one or more parcels at public or private sale, at any of Agent's offices or elsewhere, for cash, on credit or for future delivery, at such time or times and at such price or prices and upon such other terms as Agent may deem commercially reasonable, (vi) exercise dominion and control over and refuse to permit further withdrawals from any Deposit Account maintained with Agent or any Lender and provide instructions directing the disposition of funds in Deposit Accounts not maintained with Agent or any Lender, (vii) provide entitlement orders with respect to security entitlements and other investment property constituting a part of the Collateral and, without notice to any Grantor, transfer to or register in the name of Agent or any of its nominees any or all of the Securities Collateral and (viii) appoint by instrument in writing a receiver, receiver-manager, manager or receiver and manager (each a “Receiver”) for the Collateral of each Grantor and with such rights, powers and authority as may be provided for in such instrument of appointment or any supplemental instrument. To the extent permitted by applicable law and the DIP Order, any Receiver appointed by the Agent shall (for the purposes relating to responsibility for the Receiver’s acts or omissions) be considered to be the agent of such Grantor. The Agent may from time to time fix the Receiver’s remuneration and such Grantor shall pay the amount of such remuneration to the Agent. The Agent shall not be liable to any Grantor or any other person in connection with appointing a Receiver or in connection with the Receiver’s actions or omissions. Agent or any Secured Party may be the purchaser of any or all of the Collateral at any such sale and Agent, as agent for and representative of Secured Parties (but not a Secured Party in its individual capacity unless Requisite Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing), shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such public sale, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by Agent at such sale. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the property sold absolutely free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by applicable law) all rights of redemption, valuation, extension, stay and/or appraisal which it now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted. Each Grantor agrees that, to the extent notice of sale shall be required by law, at least ten (10) days’ notice to such Grantor of the time and place of any public sale or the time after which any private sale is to be made shall constitute reasonable notification. Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of Collateral regardless of notice of sale having been given. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence (but subject to the terms of the DIP Order), if, under mandatory requirements of law, the Agent shall be required to make disposition of the Collateral within a period of time which does not permit the giving of notice to the applicable Grantor as specified in the foregoing sentence, the Agent need give the applicable Grantor only such notice of disposition as shall be reasonably practicable. Agent may adjourn any public or private sale from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed therefor, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which it was so adjourned. Each Grantor hereby waives any claims against Agent arising by reason of the fact that the price at which any Collateral may have been sold at such a private sale was less than the price which might have been obtained at a public sale, even if Agent accepts the first offer received and does not offer such Collateral to more than one offeree. If the proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral are insufficient to pay all the Obligations, Grantors shall be jointly and severally liable for the deficiency and the fees of any attorneys employed by Agent to collect such deficiency. Each Grantor further agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in this Section 15 will cause irreparable injury to Agent, that Agent has no adequate remedy at law in respect of such breach and, as a consequence, that each and every covenant contained in this Section shall be specifically enforceable against such Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives and agrees not to assert any defenses against an action for specific performance of such covenants except for a defense that no default has occurred giving rise to the Obligations becoming due and payable prior to their stated maturities. Each Grantor agrees not to assert against Agent or any other Secured Party as a defense (legal or equitable) as a set-off, as a counterclaim or otherwise, any claims any Grantor may have against any seller or lessor that provided personal property or services relating to any part of the Collateral or against any other party liable to any Secured Party for all or any part of the Secured Obligations. Each Grantor waives all exemptions and homestead rights with respect to the Collateral. Each Grantor waives any and all rights to any bond or security which might be required by applicable law prior to the exercise of any Agent's or other Secured Party's remedies against Collateral. All rights of Agent and the other Secured Parties or otherwise arising from the security interests hereunder, and all obligations of the Grantors hereunder or under the other Loan Documents shall be absolute and unconditional, not discharged or impaired irrespective of (and regardless of whether any Grantor receives any notice of): (i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any other Loan Document, (ii) any change in the time, manner or place of payment or performance, or in any term, of all or any of the Secured Obligations or the Loan Documents or any other amendment or waiver or consent to any departure from any Loan Document, and any increase or decrease from time to time in the amount of, and any payment and new incurrence from time to time of, the Secured Obligations or (iii) any exchange, insufficiency, unenforceability, enforcement, release, impairment, or non-perfection of any Collateral, or any release of or modifications to or other insufficiency, unenforceability or enforcement of the obligations of any obligor.

(b) Securities Collateral.

(i) Each Grantor recognizes that, by reason of certain prohibitions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, Agent may be compelled, with respect to any sale of all or any part of the Securities Collateral conducted without prior registration or qualification of such Securities Collateral under the Securities Act and/or such state securities laws, to limit purchasers to those who will agree, among other things, to acquire the Securities Collateral for their own account, for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale thereof. Each Grantor acknowledges that any such private placement may be at prices and on terms less favorable than those obtainable through a sale without such restrictions (including an offering made pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act) and, notwithstanding such circumstances and the registration rights granted to Agent by such Grantor pursuant hereto, each Grantor agrees that any such private placement shall not be deemed, in and of itself, to be commercially unreasonable solely because it is a private placement and that Agent shall have no obligation to delay the sale of any Securities Collateral for the period of time necessary to permit the issuer thereof to register it for a form of sale requiring registration under the Securities Act or under applicable state securities laws, even if such issuer would, or should, agree to so register it. If Agent determines to exercise its right to sell any or all of the Securities Collateral, upon written request, each Grantor shall and shall cause each issuer of any Securities Collateral to be sold hereunder from time to time to furnish to Agent all such information as Agent may request in order to determine the amount of Securities Collateral which may be sold by Agent in exempt transactions under the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder, as the same are from time to time in effect.

(ii) If Agent shall determine to exercise its right to sell all or any of the Securities Collateral pursuant to this Section, each Grantor agrees that, upon request of Agent (which request may be made by Agent in its sole discretion) and subject to applicable securities laws, such Grantor will, at its own expense (A) execute and deliver, and cause or, to the extent such issuer is not a Subsidiary of such Grantor, use its best efforts to cause, each issuer of the Securities Collateral contemplated to be sold and the directors and officers thereof to execute and deliver, all such instruments and documents, and do or cause to be done all such other acts and things, as may be necessary or, in the opinion of Agent, advisable to register such Securities Collateral under the provisions of the Securities Act and to cause the registration statement relating thereto to become effective and to remain effective for such period as prospectuses are required by law to be furnished, and to make all amendments and supplements thereto and to the related prospectus which, in the opinion of Agent, are necessary or advisable, all in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable thereto; (B) use its best efforts to qualify the Securities Collateral under all applicable state securities or "Blue Sky" laws and to obtain all necessary governmental approvals for the sale of the Securities Collateral, as reasonably requested by Agent; (C) cause each such issuer to make available to its security holders, as soon as practicable, an earnings statement which will satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act; (D) do or cause to be done all such other acts and things as may be necessary to make such sale of the Securities Collateral or any part thereof valid and binding and in compliance with applicable law; and (E) bear all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of carrying out its obligations under this Section. Prior to a realization and re-registration contemplated by Section 9(d), the foregoing provisions shall not apply to ULC Shares.

(iii) Without limiting the generality of the indemnification and expense reimbursement provisions of the Credit Agreement, in the event of any registered offering described herein, each Grantor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Agent, and each Secured Party and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents from and against any loss, fee, cost, expense, damage, liability or claim, joint or several, to which any such Persons may become subject or for which any of them may be liable, under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, fees, costs, expenses, damages, liabilities or claims (or any litigation commenced or threatened in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any preliminary prospectus, registration statement, prospectus or other such document published or filed in connection with such registered offering, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and will reimburse Agent and such other Persons for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by Agent and such other Persons in connection with any litigation, of any nature whatsoever, commenced or threatened in respect thereof (including any and all fees, costs and expenses whatsoever reasonably incurred by Agent and such other Persons and counsel for Agent and other such Persons in investigating, preparing for, defending against or providing evidence, producing documents or taking any other action in respect of, any such commenced or threatened litigation or any claims asserted). This indemnity shall be in addition to any liability which any Grantor may otherwise have and shall extend upon the same terms and conditions to each Person, if any, that controls Agent or such Persons within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(c) Collateral Account.

[Reserved]

SECTION 16. Additional Remedies for Intellectual Property Collateral.

(a) Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, (i) Agent shall have the right (but not the obligation) to bring suit, in the name of any Grantor, Agent or otherwise, to enforce any Intellectual Property Collateral, in which event each Grantor shall, at the request of Agent, do any and all lawful acts and execute any and all documents required by Agent in aid of such enforcement and each Grantor shall promptly, upon demand, reimburse and indemnify Agent as provided in the indemnification and expense reimbursement provisions of the Credit Agreement and Section 18 hereof, as applicable, in connection with the exercise of its rights under this Section 16, and, to the extent that Agent shall elect not to bring suit to enforce any Intellectual Property Collateral as provided in this Section, each Grantor agrees to use all reasonable measures, whether by action, suit, proceeding or otherwise, to prevent the infringement of any of the Intellectual Property Collateral by others, subject to the exercise of commercially reasonable judgment in whether and how to maintain any action, suit or proceeding against any Person so infringing reasonably necessary to prevent such infringement; (ii) upon written demand from Agent, each Grantor shall execute and deliver to Agent an assignment or assignments of the Intellectual Property Collateral and such other documents as are necessary or appropriate to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement; and each Grantor agrees that such an assignment and/or recording shall be applied to reduce the Secured Obligations outstanding only to the extent that Agent (or any Secured Party) receives cash proceeds or other value in respect of the sale of, or other realization upon, the Intellectual Property Collateral.

(b) If (i) an Event of Default shall have occurred and, by reason of waiver, modification, amendment or otherwise, shall no longer be continuing, (ii) no other Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, (iii) an assignment to Agent of any rights, title and interests in and to the Intellectual Property Collateral shall have been previously made, and (iv) the Secured Obligations shall not have become immediately due and payable, then upon the written request of any Grantor, Agent shall promptly execute and deliver to such Grantor such assignments as may be necessary to reassign to such Grantor any such rights, title and interests as may have been assigned to Agent as aforesaid, subject to any disposition thereof that may have been made by Agent; provided, after giving effect to such reassignment, Agent's security interest granted pursuant hereto, as well as all other rights and remedies of Agent granted hereunder, shall continue to be in full force and effect; and provided further, the rights, title and interests so reassigned shall be free and clear of all Liens other than Liens (if any) encumbering such rights, title and interest at the time of their assignment to Agent and Permitted Liens.

SECTION 17. Application of Proceeds.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, if so determined by Agent, in its sole discretion, or upon any Application Event or acceleration of the Obligations pursuant to Article VII of the Credit Agreement, Agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection, sale, foreclosure or other realization upon any Collateral (as determined by Agent in its sole discretion) and the proceeds of any insurance policy in respect of any Collateral in the order of application set forth in Article II of the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 18. Indemnity and Expenses.

(a) Grantors jointly and severally agree to indemnify Agent and each Secured Party and their respective Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, counsel, trustees, advisors, agents and attorneys-in-fact in accordance with Section 10.5 of the Credit Agreement.

(b) Grantors jointly and severally agree to pay to Agent and each Secured Party upon demand the amount of any and all costs and expenses in accordance with Section 10.4 and Section 10.5 of the Credit Agreement.

(c) The obligations of Grantors in this Section 18 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the discharge of Grantors' other obligations, including the obligations under this Agreement, the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 19. Continuing Security Interest; Transfer of Loans; Termination and Release.

(a) This Agreement shall create a continuing security interest in the Collateral and shall (i) remain in full force and effect until the Termination Date, (ii) be binding upon Grantors and their respective successors and assigns, and (iii) inure, together with the rights and remedies of Agent hereunder, to the benefit of Agent and its successors, transferees and assigns.

(b) On the Termination Date, the security interest granted hereby shall terminate and all rights to the Collateral not theretofore sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the exercise of rights and remedies of the Agent hereunder or as otherwise contemplated hereby shall revert to the applicable Grantors. Upon any such termination Agent will, at Grantors' expense, execute and deliver to or at the direction of Grantors such documents as Grantors shall reasonably request to evidence such termination. In addition, upon the proposed sale or other disposition of any Collateral by Grantor in accordance with the Credit Agreement and the DIP Order for which such Grantor desires a security interest release from Agent, such a release may be obtained pursuant to the provisions of the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 20. Bayside as Agent.

(a) Bayside has been appointed to act as Agent hereunder by Lenders. Agent shall be obligated, and shall have the right hereunder, to make demands, to give notices, to exercise or refrain from exercising any rights, and to take or refrain from taking any action (including, without limitation, the release or substitution of Collateral), solely in accordance with this Agreement and the Credit Agreement.

(b) Until the payment in full of all Obligations under the Loan Documents and the termination of the Term Loan Commitments, Agent shall at all times be the same Person that is Collateral Agent under the Credit Agreement. Notice of resignation by Collateral Agent pursuant to the Credit Agreement shall also constitute notice of resignation as Agent under this Agreement; and appointment of a successor Collateral Agent pursuant to the Credit Agreement shall also constitute appointment of a successor Agent under this Agreement. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as Collateral Agent under the Credit Agreement by a successor Collateral Agent, that successor Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Agent under this Agreement, and the retiring Agent under this Agreement shall promptly (i) transfer to such successor Agent all sums, securities and other items of Collateral held hereunder, together with all records and other documents necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the duties of the successor Agent under this Agreement, and (ii) execute (if necessary) and deliver to such successor Agent such amendments to financing statements, and take such other actions, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the assignment to such successor Agent of the security interests created hereunder, whereupon such retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Agreement. After any retiring Agent's resignation hereunder as Agent, the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it under this Agreement while it was Agent hereunder.

SECTION 21. Additional Grantors.

From time to time subsequent to the date hereof, additional Persons may become Additional Grantors, by executing a Supplement. Upon delivery of any such Supplement to Agent, notice of which is hereby waived by Grantors, each such Additional Grantor shall be a Grantor and shall be as fully a party hereto as if such Additional Grantor were an original signatory hereto. Each Grantor expressly agrees that its obligations arising hereunder shall not be affected or diminished by the addition or release of any other Grantor hereunder, nor by any election of Agent not to cause any Person to become an Additional Grantor hereunder. This Agreement shall be fully effective as to any Grantor that is or becomes a party hereto regardless of whether any other Person becomes or fails to become or ceases to be a Grantor hereunder from time to time.

SECTION 22. Amendments; Etc.

No amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, and no consent to any departure by any Grantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by Agent and, in the case of any such amendment or modification, by Grantors; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be modified by the execution of a Supplement by an Additional Grantor in accordance with Section 21 hereof without signature or any other act by any other Grantor and Grantors hereby waive any requirement of notice of or consent to any such Supplement. Any such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

SECTION 23. Notices.

Any notice or other communication herein required or permitted to be given shall be given as provided in Section 10.3 of the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 24. Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative.

No failure or delay on the part of Agent in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

SECTION 25. Severability.

In case any provision in or obligation under this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations, or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction, shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

SECTION 26. Headings.

Section and subsection headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

SECTION 27. Governing Law; Rules of Construction

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, except (i) to the extent the law of any other jurisdiction applies as to the perfection or enforcement of the any security interest in any Collateral (if and to the extent collateral security is granted with respect to the Obligations) and (ii) to the extent applicable, the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Agent and each Grantor hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court and any state or federal court of the United States sitting in the State of New York, and any appellate court thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, and Agent and each Grantor hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such state or federal court. Agent and each Grantor hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent they may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. Each Grantor agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Section 27(b) shall affect the right of Agent to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of Agent to bring any action or proceeding against any Grantor or the property of any Grantor (including the Collateral) in the courts of other jurisdictions.

(c) The rules of construction set forth in Section 1.1 of the Credit Agreement shall be applicable to this Agreement mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 28. Waiver of Jury Trial.

AGENT AND EACH GRANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY INSTRUMENT OR DOCUMENT DELIVERED THEREUNDER.

SECTION 29. Counterparts; Execution.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument; signature pages may be detached from multiple separate counterparts and attached to a single counterpart so that all signature pages are physically attached to the same document. Delivery of an executed signature page by facsimile, PDF or other electronic format shall be as effective as delivery of a manually executed original signature page, and each party hereto delivering an executed signature page hereto in electronic format agrees to deliver to each other party hereto, on request, a manually executed signature page, but the failure to deliver such manually executed signature page shall not affect the validity, effectiveness or enforceability of the signature page delivered electronically, which shall be effective for all purposes.

SECTION 30. WAIVER OF CLAIMS.

EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE GRANTORS HEREBY WAIVE, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW AND THE DIP ORDER, AS APPLICABLE:

(a) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THE DIP ORDER, NOTICE AND JUDICIAL HEARING IN CONNECTION WITH THE AGENT'S TAKING POSSESSION OR THE AGENT'S DISPOSITION OF ANY OF THE COLLATERAL, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY AND ALL PRIOR NOTICE AND HEARING FOR ANY PREJUDGMENT REMEDY OR REMEDIES AND ANY SUCH RIGHT WHICH THE BORROWERS OR ANY GUARANTOR WOULD OTHERWISE HAVE UNDER ANY REQUIREMENT OF LAW;

(b) ALL DAMAGES OCCASIONED BY SUCH TAKING OF POSSESSION EXCEPT ANY DAMAGES WHICH ARE THE DIRECT RESULT OF THE AGENT'S OR ANY LENDER'S BAD FAITH, GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT;

(c) ALL OTHER REQUIREMENTS TO THE TIME, PLACE AND TERMS OF SALE OR OTHER REQUIREMENTS WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE AGENT'S RIGHTS HEREUNDER; AND

(xxiii) any other Liabilities of Sellers not expressly assumed by Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.3.

(b) The parties acknowledge and agree that disclosure of any Liability on any Schedule to this Agreement shall not create an Assumed Liability or other Liability of Purchaser, except where such disclosed Liability has been expressly assumed by Purchaser as an Assumed Liability in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.3.

2.5 Real Property Lease and Contract Designation: Cure Costs.

(a) Contract and Cure Schedule. Within ten (10) days following the date hereof, SS shall deliver to Purchaser a schedule that contains a list of each Contract along with the Sellers' good faith estimate of the amount of Cure Costs applicable to each such Contract (as such schedule may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the "Contract & Cure Schedule"); provided, that if no Cure Cost is estimated to be applicable with respect to any particular Contract, the amount of such Cure Cost has been designated for such Contract as "$0.00". From the date the Contract & Cure Schedule is provided through (and including) the Designation Deadline, promptly following any changes to the information set forth on such Schedule (including any new Contracts included in the Acquired Assets to which a Seller becomes a party and any change in the Cure Cost of any such Contract), the Sellers shall provide Purchaser with a schedule that updates and corrects the Contract & Cure Schedule. Purchaser may, at any time and from time to time through (and including) the Designation Deadline as described below, include or exclude any Designated Contract from the Contract & Cure Schedule and require the Sellers to give notice to the counterparties to any such Designated Contracts of the Sellers' proposed assumption and assignment thereof to Purchaser or Purchaser's Designee and the amount of Cure Costs, as approved by Purchaser, associated with such Designated Contract. If any Designated Contract is added to (or excluded from) the Contract & Cure Schedule as permitted by this Section 2.5(a), then Purchaser and the Sellers shall make appropriate additions, deletions or other changes to any applicable Schedule to reflect such addition or exclusion.

(b) Designation. During the period from the date the Contract and Cure Schedule is provided through the Designation Deadline and pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.5, Purchaser may designate each Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract or an Excluded Contract. Sellers hereby appoint Purchaser as their agent-in-fact from and after the Closing Date for the sole purpose of allowing Purchaser to continue to operate under the Designated Contracts until such time as Purchaser either designates such Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract or an Excluded Contract.

(c) Contract Notice. At any time prior to the Designation Deadline, Purchaser shall have the right, which right may be exercised at any time and from time to time in Purchaser's sole and absolute discretion, to provide written notice to Sellers (each such notice, a "Contract Notice") of Purchaser's election to deem the Designated Contracts identified in the subject Contract Notice(s) an Assigned Contract and require Sellers to use reasonable best efforts, subject to entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court, to assume and assign such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or Purchaser's Designee. In any such Contract Notices, Purchaser also may designate any Designated Contract as an Excluded Contract. Within fifteen (15) days following the date Purchaser delivers a Contract Notice to Sellers electing to deem a Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract, Sellers shall, at no additional cost or expense to Purchaser, take all requisite actions (including actions required under § 363 and/or 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, as applicable) to assume and assign such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or its Designee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, upon receipt of a Contract Notice electing to deem a Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract, Sellers shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain the entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or its Designee and fixing the Cure Costs relating to each of such Designated Contracts, provided, however, that if the Cure Costs to be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court for any Designated Contract in a proposed Assumption Order either are greater than the amount set forth in the Contract & Cure Schedule and are not consented to by Purchaser no later than the hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to consider the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contract, then Purchaser shall be permitted at such hearing to forthwith revoke its designation of any such Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract and thereupon such Designated Contract shall be deemed to be an Excluded Contract for all purposes of this Agreement. Promptly following the entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court, Purchaser shall and shall cause its Designees to assume from Sellers the Assigned Contracts pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and an Assignment and Assumption Agreement.

(d) Bankruptcy Court Matters. Sellers shall give written notice to Purchaser prior to the submission of any motion in their Bankruptcy Cases to assume or reject any Designated Contracts together with a copy of the proposed Assumption Order, and, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, Sellers shall not assume or reject any Designated Contracts. Sellers shall promptly reject any Designated Contract that (i) Purchaser has designated as an Excluded Contract pursuant to a Contract Notice, (ii) has been deemed to be an Excluded Contract pursuant to Section 2.5(b) above or (iii) any Designated Contract that Purchaser has not designated as an Assigned Contract by the Designation Deadline (all such Designated Contracts being deemed to be Excluded Contracts for purposes of this Agreement). Any Designated Contracts that are rejected subject to Bankruptcy Court approval or are the subject of a rejection motion at the Designation Deadline, after complying with the provisions of this Section 2.5 shall constitute Excluded Contracts. Purchaser shall not have any obligation or liability with respect to Excluded Contracts from and after the earliest of: (x) delivery of such a Contract Notice, (y) after such Designated Contract has been deemed to be an Excluded Contract pursuant to Section 2.5(b) above or (z) after the Designation Deadline, as applicable.

(e) Cure Costs: Adequate Assurance. To the extent that any Designated Contract requires the payment of Cure Costs in order to be assigned to Purchaser and assumed pursuant to Section 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Cure Costs related to such Designated Contract shall be paid by the Sellers to the extent of available cash on the Sellers' balance sheet. In the event that the aggregate amount of Cure Costs payable for all Assigned Contracts exceeds the amount of available cash on the Sellers' balance sheet, Purchaser or its Designees shall satisfy such excess Cure Costs. Purchaser shall not be required to make any payment of Cure Costs for, or otherwise have any Liabilities with respect to, any Contract that is not an Assigned Contract. Purchaser will provide adequate assurance of future performance on its behalf and on behalf of its Designees as required under the Bankruptcy Code, including Section 365(f)(2)(B) thereof. Purchaser and the Sellers agree that they will promptly take all actions reasonably required to assist in obtaining a Bankruptcy Court finding that there has been an adequate demonstration of adequate assurance of future performance under each Assigned Contract, such as furnishing affidavits, non-confidential financial information or other documents or information for filing with the Bankruptcy Court and making Purchaser's and the Sellers' employees and representatives available to testify before the Bankruptcy Court, as necessary.

(f) Non-Assignable Contracts. To the extent that any Assigned Contract is not capable of being assigned under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or, if inapplicable, pursuant to other applicable Laws or the terms of such Contract) to Purchaser or a Designee without the consent of the other party thereto or any Person (including a Government Entity), and such consent has not been obtained (collectively, the “Non-Assignable Contracts”), this Agreement will not constitute an assignment thereof, or an attempted assignment, unless any such consent is obtained. Any payment to be made in order to obtain any consent required by the terms of any Non-Assignable Contract shall be the responsibility of Sellers to the extent of available cash on Sellers’ balance sheet. In the event that the aggregate amount of consent fees payable for all Non-Assignable Contracts exceeds the amount of available cash on the Sellers’ balance sheet, Purchaser or its Designees shall satisfy such excess consent fees. If, after giving effect to the provisions of Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, such consent is required but not obtained, the Sellers shall cooperate with Purchaser in any reasonable arrangement designed to provide for Purchaser the benefits and obligations of or under any such Non-Assignable Contract, including enforcement for the benefit of Purchaser of any and all rights of the Sellers against a third party thereto arising out of the breach or cancellation thereof by such third party. Any assignment to Purchaser of any Assigned Contract that shall, after giving effect to the provisions of Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, require the consent of any third party for such assignment as aforesaid shall be made subject to such consent being obtained. Any contract that would be an Assigned Contract but is not assigned in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.5(f) shall not be considered an “Assigned Contract” for purposes hereof unless and until such contract is assigned to Purchaser following the Closing Date upon receipt of the requisite consents to assignment and Bankruptcy Court approval.

ARTICLE 3 CONSIDERATION

3.1 Purchase Price.

(a) The purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) for the purchase, sale, assignment and conveyance of Sellers’ right, title and interest in, to and under the Acquired Assets to Purchaser or its Designees shall consist of (i) an amount equal to $95,000,000, which amount shall be payable in the form of a credit bid of an amount of the obligations then outstanding under the DIP Credit Agreement and the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement (such amount as may be increased pursuant to Section 3.1(b), the “Credit Bid Amount”); (ii) unless such obligations have been assumed by Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.3(e), an amount in cash allocated solely for the benefit of the ABL Credit Parties in order to cause the “payment in full” of the Obligations under each of the ABL Credit Agreements (within the meaning of such phrase under the ABL Credit Agreements), including the Letter of Credit Collateralization (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement) and Payment in Full of ABL Priority Debt (as such term is used the Existing Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement) and the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement); and (iii) the assumption by Purchaser of the Assumed Liabilities.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, at any time, and from time to time, during the Auction, Purchaser may increase the Purchase Price, including by increasing the Credit Bid Amount to the full amount then outstanding and owing under the DIP Credit Agreement and the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and or paying additional cash consideration.

3.2 Allocation of Purchase Price. If the transaction contemplated by this Agreement is an “Applicable Asset Acquisition” as defined in Section 1060(c) of the Code, then by the Designation Deadline, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to Sellers a statement allocating the sum of the Purchase Price, the Assumed Liabilities and other relevant items among the Acquired Assets in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code (such statement, the “Allocation Statement”), and the Allocation Statement shall be finalized upon reasonable consultation with Sellers. Except as otherwise required by applicable Law, the parties shall follow the Allocation Statement for purposes of filing IRS Form 8594 (and any supplements to such form) and all other Tax Returns, and shall not voluntarily take any position inconsistent therewith. If the IRS or any other taxation authority proposes a different allocation, Sellers or Purchaser, as the case may be, shall promptly notify the other party of such proposed allocation. Sellers or Purchaser, as the case may be, shall provide the other party with such information and shall take such actions (including executing documents and powers of attorney in connection with such proceedings) as may be reasonably requested by such other party to carry out the purposes of this section. Except as otherwise required by applicable Law or pursuant to a “determination” under Section 1313(a) of the Code (or any comparable provision of United States state, local, or non-United States law), (i) the transactions contemplated by Article 2 of this Agreement shall be reported for all Tax purposes in a manner consistent with the terms of this Section 3.2; and (ii) neither party (nor any of their Affiliates) will take any position inconsistent with this Section 3.2 in any Tax Return, in any refund claim, in any litigation or otherwise. Notwithstanding the allocation of the Purchase Price set forth in the Allocation Statement, nothing in the foregoing shall be determinative of values ascribed to the Acquired Assets or the allocation of the value of the Acquired Assets in any plan of reorganization or liquidation that may be proposed.

3.3 Assignment to Subsidiaries of Purchaser. Prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall have the right to assign its rights to receive all or any part of the Acquired Assets and its obligations to assume all or any part of the Assumed Liabilities, in each case, to one or more Affiliates or Subsidiaries of Purchaser (each, a “Designee”) by providing written notice to SS and each such Designee shall be deemed to be a Purchaser for all purposes hereunder and under the Ancillary Agreements, except that no such assignment shall relieve Purchaser of any of its obligations hereunder.

(xiv) Sellers file all material Tax Returns and pay or deposit all material Taxes on a timely basis and in accordance with past practice;

(xv) No Seller shall make or change any election, change an annual accounting period, adopt or change any accounting method, file any amended Tax Return, enter into any closing agreement, settle any Tax claim or assessment relating to any Seller, surrender any right to claim a refund of Taxes, consent to any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any Tax claim or assessment relating to any Seller, or take any other similar action relating to the filing of any Tax Return or the payment of any Tax; and

(xvi) Sellers shall not take, or agree, commit or offer (in writing or otherwise) to take, any actions in violation of the foregoing.

6.2 Pre-Closing Covenants of Purchaser. Purchaser covenants to Sellers that, during the period from the Execution Date through and including the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Purchaser shall take, or cause to be taken, all commercially reasonable actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or appropriate, consistent with applicable Law, to consummate and make effective as soon as possible the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that the foregoing shall not require Purchaser to participate as a bidder in the Auction.

Said reasonable best efforts and cooperation include counsel's undertaking (i) to keep each other appropriately informed of communications from and to personnel of the reviewing antitrust authority, and (ii) to confer with each other regarding appropriate contacts with and response to personnel of said antitrust authority.

Sellers shall give and make all notices and reports Sellers are required to make to the appropriate Governmental Authorities and other Persons with respect to the Permits that may be necessary for the sale of the Acquired Assets to Purchaser at the Closing.

6.5 Employment Covenants and Other Undertakings.

Only Employees of Sellers who are offered and then accept such offer of employment with Purchaser will become a Purchaser Employee after the Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will, after the Closing Date, impose on Purchaser any obligation to retain any Purchaser Employee in its employment. Except as described in the remaining sentences of this Section 6.5, the employment of each such Purchaser Employee with Purchaser will commence immediately after the Closing. In the case of any individual who is offered employment by Purchaser and accepts such offer, but who is absent from active employment and receiving short-term disability or workers' compensation benefits, the employment of any such individual with Purchaser would commence upon his or her return to active work, and such individual would become a Purchaser Employee as of such date.

Purchaser Employees will be given full credit for years of service with any Seller for purposes of any employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement of Purchaser to the same extent and purpose as such service was taken into account by such Seller immediately prior to the Closing Date and credit Purchaser Employees for any earned or accrued paid time off.

(b) Other Obligations. Except as otherwise required by Law, specified in this Agreement, or otherwise agreed in writing by Purchaser or its Affiliates, neither Purchaser nor its Affiliates shall be obligated to provide any severance, separation pay, or other payments or benefits, including any key employee retention payments, to any Employee on account of any termination of such Employee's employment on or before the Closing Date, and such benefits (if any) shall remain obligations of Sellers.

(c) Forms W-2 and W-4. Sellers and Purchaser shall adopt the "standard procedure" for preparing and filing IRS Forms W-2 (Wage and Tax Statements) and Forms W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate) regarding the Purchaser Employees. Under this procedure established by Revenue Procedure 2004-53, Sellers (so long as they remain in existence) shall keep on file all IRS Forms W-4 provided by the Purchaser Employees for the period required by applicable Law concerning record retention and Purchasers will obtain new IRS Forms W-4 with respect to each Purchaser Employee.

(d) No Right to Continued Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall confer upon any Purchaser Employee any right with respect to continuance of employment by Purchaser, nor shall anything herein interfere with the right of Purchaser to terminate the employment of any Purchaser Employees at any time, with or without notice, or restrict Purchaser, in the exercise of its business judgment in modifying any of the terms or conditions of employment of the Purchaser Employees after the Closing.

(e) Employee Communications. Prior to making any written or oral communications to the Employees pertaining to their employment, termination, compensation, benefit or other terms and conditions of employment that are affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Sellers shall consult with Purchaser and provide Purchaser with a copy of the intended communication.

(f) Employee Benefit Plans. As of the Closing, all of the Purchaser Employees will cease participation in any of the Employee Benefit Plans that such Purchaser Employees participated in immediately prior to the Closing that are not Assumed Plans. In accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 54.4980B-9 Q&A-7, as of the Closing Date, Purchaser will assume all liability for providing and administering all required notices and benefits under Section 4980B of the Code and Part 6 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA (usually referred to as "COBRA") to all current and former employees of Sellers (including Purchaser Employees). Prior to the Closing Date, Sellers shall provide to Purchaser detailed information reasonably requested by Purchaser (including all pertinent information concerning individuals who have elected or continue to have a right to elect COBRA continuation coverage and/or any COBRA subsidy pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009) sufficient to enable Purchaser to carry out its obligations under this Section 6.5(f). Sellers will have no COBRA Liability to such current and former employees after the Closing Date, except with respect to any violations of Law that occurred prior to the Closing Date.

(g) Assumed Plans. Purchaser shall notify Sellers in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing as to which Employee Benefit Plans Purchaser shall adopt and assume, if any (the “Assumed Plans”). With respect to each Assumed Plan, Purchaser or, any entity designated by Purchaser, will be substituted for the applicable Seller as the plan sponsor under any such Assumed Plan and Purchaser shall have all rights of such Seller thereunder, including full authority to maintain, amend or terminate any such Assumed Plan at any time, in Purchaser’s sole discretion. Sellers agree to cooperate with Purchaser in adopting and effectuating any plan amendments to the Assumed Plans reasonably requested by Purchaser, so long as such amendments are effective as of, or after, the Closing Date and are consistent with applicable Law and other agreements under which Sellers are obligated. The parties agree to cooperate in all respects and take any actions necessary to implement the assumption by Purchaser of the Assumed Plans. Before, or as soon as administratively practicable after, the Closing, Sellers will provide Purchaser with (i) all records concerning participation, vesting, accrual of benefits, payment of benefits, and election forms of benefits under each Assumed Plan, and (ii) any other information reasonably requested by Purchaser as necessary or appropriate for the administration of each Assumed Plan, each subject to the provision of consent by any Purchaser Employee to the extent and in the manner required by Law. Purchaser will make all required filings or reports with or to the IRS, or any other governmental agency, and the participants and their beneficiaries with respect to each Assumed Plan on a timely basis for all plan years ending before, on or after the Closing Date or as may be required with respect to such Assumed Plan, provided the initial deadline for such filing or report is after the Closing Date. All parties recognize that a reasonable transition period may be necessary after the Closing Date and prior to Purchaser’s implementation of its assumption of the Assumed Plans before full compliance with this Section 6.5 is achieved, during which some or all of the Purchaser Employees and other participants and beneficiaries of the Assumed Plans may not be able to (i) make (and Purchaser may not be able to process) elective deferral contributions, loan repayments, investment changes, distribution requests, benefit payment requests or reimbursement requests or (ii) exercise or enjoy other rights or features of the Assumed Plans, and that during such transition period Purchaser shall not be considered to be in violation of this Section 6.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall not assume or succeed to any of Sellers’ past, current or future Liabilities (including any withdrawal liability, termination liability or mass withdrawal liability) with respect to any multiemployer plan to which any Seller or any ERISA Affiliate contributes or has ever contributed.

(h) Compliance with WARN Act. With respect to the Employees, Sellers will have full responsibility under the WARN Act caused by any action of Sellers. Sellers shall be responsible for all WARN Act Liabilities relating to the periods prior to and on the Closing Date, including any such Liabilities that result from Employees’ separation of employment from Sellers and/or Employees not becoming Purchaser Employees pursuant to this Section 6.5.

(i) Successor Employer Status. Sellers shall provide Purchaser with all necessary records and documentation required by Purchaser as a “successor employer” within the meaning of Sections 3121 and 3306 of the Code.

6.6 Exclusivity. For the period beginning on the Execution Date until the date of the Bankruptcy Court's approval and entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, Sellers and their respective Affiliates and Related Persons shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate discussions with or engage in negotiations with any Person (whether such negotiations are initiated by Sellers or otherwise), other than Purchaser and its Affiliates, relating to the acquisition of any of the Acquired Assets (other than sales of inventory and dispositions of assets, in each case in the ordinary course of business), whether by way of purchase of equity or assets or otherwise (a "Potential Transaction"); or (ii) enter into an agreement, letter of intent or similar document (whether or not binding) with any Person, other than Purchaser or its Affiliates, providing for or relating to any Potential Transaction. If Sellers or their respective Affiliates or Related Persons receive an inquiry, offer or proposal relating to any of the above (unsolicited or otherwise), Sellers shall immediately notify Purchaser in writing. Upon the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Sellers and their respective Affiliates and Related Persons shall immediately cease all discussions, negotiations and communications with all other Persons regarding any Potential Transaction until entry of the Bid Procedures Order.

6.7 Casualty. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if, before the Closing, all or any portion of the Acquired Assets is (a) condemned or taken by eminent domain, or (b) a material portion is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, Sellers shall notify Purchaser promptly in writing of such fact, and (i) in the case of condemnation or taking, Sellers shall assign or pay, as the case may be, any proceeds thereof to Purchaser at the Closing, and (ii) in the case of fire or other casualty, Sellers shall, at the option of Purchaser, either use any insurance proceeds to restore such damage or assign such insurance proceeds therefrom to the Purchaser at Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 6.7 shall not in any way modify the Purchaser's other rights under this Agreement, including any applicable right to terminate the Agreement if any condemnation, taking, damage or other destruction resulted in a Material Adverse Effect.

6.8 Name Change. Within ten (10) days after the Closing Date, Sellers and their Subsidiaries shall take such corporate and other actions necessary to change their corporate and company names to ones that are not similar to, or confusing with, their current names, including any necessary filings required by applicable Law.

6.9 Release of Claims. At the Closing, Sellers shall provide a release of all rights, claims or causes of action of Sellers arising under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6.10 Transition Services. The Parties shall cooperate with each other, and shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective Related Persons to cooperate with each other, to provide an orderly transition of the Business from Sellers to Purchaser and to minimize the disruption to the Business resulting from the transactions contemplated hereby as requested by any Party, including facilitating the transition of the business relationship with Regents of the University of California acting on behalf of its Lawrence Hall of Science in respect of the FOSS contracts and other key partner/client relationships.

6.11 Alternate Transactions. Subject to Section 11.3, nothing in this Agreement shall restrict Sellers' right to pursue one or more Alternate Transactions, including marketing Sellers' assets or providing due diligence materials, solely to the extent permitted by the Bidding Procedures Order.

6.12 Post-Closing Access. On and after the Closing Date, upon reasonable advance notice, Purchaser will afford promptly to Sellers (and their successors and assigns) and their counsel, advisors and other agents reasonable access during normal business hours to Purchaser's properties, books, records, employees, auditors and counsel to the extent necessary for financial reporting and accounting matters, employee benefits matters, the preparation and filing of any Tax returns, reports or forms, the defense of any Tax audit, Claim or assessment, the reconciliation of Claims in the Bankruptcy Cases, to permit Sellers to determine any matter relating to its rights and obligations hereunder, or in connection with addressing any other issues arising in connection with or relating to the Bankruptcy Cases; provided, however, that any such access by Sellers shall not unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of Purchaser; provided, further, that, subject to applicable Law, Purchaser may destroy materials relating to the Purchased assets and Business after the two year anniversary of Closing provided that it gives written notice to Sellers, to the extent that Sellers are still in existence, with respect to its intent to do so and gives Sellers the opportunity to make copies of the same prior to destruction thereof.

6.13 Purchaser Financing Cooperation. From the Execution Date through and including the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Sellers shall use their reasonable best efforts to, and shall cause their officers, employees and other representatives to use their respective reasonable best efforts to assist Purchaser in obtaining any financing necessary to fund the Business after the Closing, including by taking the following actions: (i) make senior management, representatives and advisors of Sellers reasonably available for meetings and due diligence sessions with prospective financing sources, (ii) cooperate with prospective lenders, placement agents, initial purchasers and their respective advisors in performing their due diligence, and (iii) assist Purchaser in procuring credit agreements, hedging arrangements, notes, mortgages, pledge and security documents, landlord waivers, estoppels, consents, and approvals and other definitive financing documents or other requested certificates or documents (including solvency certificates to the extent required), it being understood that in no event shall Sellers be obligated or required to execute any such document. Nothing in this Section 6.13 shall require such cooperation from Sellers to the extent it would unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of Sellers.

ARTICLE 7

TAXES

7.1 Tax Matters.

(a) Purchaser and the Sellers agree that the Purchase Price is exclusive of any Transfer Taxes. Purchaser shall promptly pay directly to the appropriate Tax Authority all applicable Transfer Taxes that may be imposed upon or payable or collectible or incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein, or that may be imposed upon or payable or collectible or incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) In the event that Sellers elect to file a plan of reorganization or liquidation in conjunction with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Purchaser and Sellers covenant and agree that they will use their reasonable best efforts to obtain an order from the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code exempting, to the maximum extent possible, the Transfer of the Acquired Assets from Sellers to Purchaser from any and all Transfer Taxes. To the extent the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any portion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not exempt from Transfer Taxes under section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code, Purchaser shall be responsible for and shall pay all Transfer Taxes in accordance with Section 7.1. Purchaser and Sellers shall cooperate in providing each other with any appropriate certification and other similar documentation relating to exemption from Transfer Taxes (including any appropriate resale exemption certifications), as provided under applicable Law.

(c) Purchaser and Sellers agree to furnish, or cause their Affiliates to furnish, to each other, upon request, as promptly as practicable, such information and assistance relating to the Acquired Assets or the Business (including access to books and records) as is reasonably necessary for the filing of all Tax Returns, and making of any election related to Taxes, the preparation for any audit by any taxing authority, and the prosecution or defense of any claim, suit or proceeding relating to any Tax Return. Purchaser and Sellers shall cooperate, and cause their Affiliates to cooperate, with each other in the conduct of any audit or other proceeding related to Taxes and each shall execute and deliver such powers of attorney and other documents as are reasonably necessary to carry out the intent of this Section 7.1(c). Purchaser and Sellers shall provide, or cause their Affiliates to provide, timely notice to each other in writing of any pending or threatened tax audits, assessments or litigation with respect to the Acquired Assets or the Business for any taxable period for which the other party may have liability under this Agreement. (d) Real and personal property Taxes and assessments, and all rents, utilities and other charges, on the Acquired Assets for any taxable period commencing on or prior to the Closing Date and ending after the Closing Date (the “Straddle Period Property Tax”) shall be prorated on a per diem basis between Purchaser and Sellers as of the Closing Date; provided, however, that Sellers shall not be responsible for, or benefit from, any increased or decreased assessments on real or personal property resulting from the transactions contemplated hereby. All such prorations of Straddle Period Property Taxes shall be allocated so that items relating to time periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date shall be allocated to Sellers and items relating to time periods beginning after the Closing Date shall be allocated to Purchaser. The amount of all such prorations shall be settled and paid on the Closing Date. If any of the rates for the Straddle Period Property Taxes for any taxable period commencing on or prior to the Closing Date and ending after the Closing Date are not established by the Closing Date, the prorations shall be made on the basis of such rates in effect for the preceding taxable period. The apportioned obligations under this Section 7.1(d) shall be timely paid and all applicable filings made in the same manner as set forth for the apportioned Transfer Taxes in Section 7.1(a) and 7.1(b).

7.2 Waiver of Bulk Sales Laws. To the greatest extent permitted by applicable Law, Purchaser and Sellers hereby waive compliance by Purchaser and Sellers with the terms of any bulk sales or similar Laws in any applicable jurisdiction in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Purchaser shall indemnify Sellers from and hold Sellers harmless from and against any Liabilities, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from or arising out of (i) the parties' failure to comply with any such bulk sales Laws in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (ii) any action brought or levy made as a result thereof. The Sale Order shall exempt Sellers and Purchaser from compliance with any such Laws.

Except for the provisions of Article 12, no representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of Sellers and Purchaser made in this Agreement shall survive the Closing Date except where, and only to the extent that, the terms of any such covenant or agreement expressly provide for obligations extending after the Closing. Sellers hereby acknowledge that the obligation to pay the Breakup Fee and the Expense Reimbursement (each, to the extent due hereunder) shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and shall have administrative status against Sellers and their respective estates.

12.2 Further Assurances. At the request and the sole expense of the requesting party, Purchaser or Sellers, as applicable, shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, such documents as Purchaser or Sellers, as applicable, or their respective counsel may reasonably request to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements. Each party shall use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all other actions and to do, or cause to be done, all other things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective as promptly as practicable the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Sellers shall not assign this Agreement or any of their rights or obligations hereunder and any such assignment shall be void and of no effect. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the successors and permitted assigns of the parties hereto, including any trustee appointed in any of the Bankruptcy Cases or subsequent Chapter 7 cases and Sellers, if the Bankruptcy Cases are dismissed.

For so long as Sellers are subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, the parties irrevocably elect, as the sole judicial forum for the adjudication of any matters arising under or in connection with the Agreement, and consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of, the Bankruptcy Court. After Sellers are no longer subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, the parties irrevocably elect, as the sole judicial forum for the adjudication of any matters arising under or in connection with this Agreement, and consent to the jurisdiction of, any state or federal court having competent jurisdiction in New York.

12.5 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each of the parties shall pay their own expenses in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including any legal and accounting fees and commissions or finder's fees, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated. Purchaser shall pay the cost of all surveys, title insurance policies and title reports ordered by Purchaser.

12.6 Severability. In the event that any part of this Agreement is declared by any Governmental Authority to be null, void or unenforceable, a suitable and equitable provision shall be substituted therefor in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid or unenforceable provision, said provision shall survive to the extent it is not so declared, and all of the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect only if, after excluding the portion deemed to be unenforceable and the application of any provision so substituted, the remaining terms shall provide for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby in substantially the same manner as originally set forth at the later of (a) the Execution Date and (b) the date this Agreement was last amended.

2.5 Real Property Lease and Contract Designation: Cure Costs.

(a) Contract and Cure Schedule. Within ten (10) days following the date hereof, SS shall deliver to Purchaser a schedule that contains a list of each Contract along with the Sellers' good faith estimate of the amount of Cure Costs applicable to each such Contract (as such schedule may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the "Contract & Cure Schedule"); provided, that if no Cure Cost is estimated to be applicable with respect to any particular Contract, the amount of such Cure Cost has been designated for such Contract as "$0.00". From the date the Contract & Cure Schedule is provided through (and including) the Designation Deadline, promptly following any changes to the information set forth on such Schedule (including any new Contracts included in the Acquired Assets to which a Seller becomes a party and any change in the Cure Cost of any such Contract), the Sellers shall provide Purchaser with a schedule that updates and corrects the Contract & Cure Schedule. Purchaser may, at any time and from time to time through (and including) the Designation Deadline as described below, include or exclude any Designated Contract from the Contract & Cure Schedule and require the Sellers to give notice to the counterparties to any such Designated Contracts of the Sellers' proposed assumption and assignment thereof to Purchaser or Purchaser's Designee and the amount of Cure Costs, as approved by Purchaser, associated with such Designated Contract. If any Designated Contract is added to (or excluded from) the Contract & Cure Schedule as permitted by this Section 2.5(a), then Purchaser and the Sellers shall make appropriate additions, deletions or other changes to any applicable Schedule to reflect such addition or exclusion.

(b) Designation. During the period from the date the Contract and Cure Schedule is provided through the Designation Deadline and pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.5, Purchaser may designate each Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract or an Excluded Contract. Sellers hereby appoint Purchaser as their agent-in-fact from and after the Closing Date for the sole purpose of allowing Purchaser to continue to operate under the Designated Contracts until such time as Purchaser either designates such Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract or an Excluded Contract.

(c) Contract Notice. At any time prior to the Designation Deadline, Purchaser shall have the right, which right may be exercised at any time and from time to time in Purchaser's sole and absolute discretion, to provide written notice to Sellers (each such notice, a "Contract Notice") of Purchaser's election to deem the Designated Contracts identified in the subject Contract Notice(s) an Assigned Contract and require Sellers to use reasonable best efforts, subject to entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court, to assume and assign such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or Purchaser's Designee. In any such Contract Notices,

Purchaser also may designate any Designated Contract as an Excluded Contract. Within fifteen (15) days following the date Purchaser delivers a Contract Notice to Sellers electing to deem a Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract, Sellers shall, at no additional cost or expense to Purchaser, take all requisite actions (including actions required under § 363 and/or 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, as applicable) to assume and assign such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or its Designee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, upon receipt of a Contract Notice electing to deem a Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract, Sellers shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain the entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court approving the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contracts to Purchaser or its Designee and fixing the Cure Costs relating to each of such Designated Contracts, provided, however, that if the Cure Costs to be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court for any Designated Contract in a proposed Assumption Order either are greater than the amount set forth in the Contract & Cure Schedule and are not consented to by Purchaser no later than the hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to consider the assumption and assignment of such Designated Contract, then Purchaser shall be permitted at such hearing to forthwith revoke its designation of any such Designated Contract as an Assigned Contract and thereupon such Designated Contract shall be deemed to be an Excluded Contract for all purposes of this Agreement. Promptly following the entry of an Assumption Order by the Bankruptcy Court, Purchaser shall and shall cause its Designees to assume from Sellers the Assigned Contracts pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and an Assignment and Assumption Agreement.

(d) Bankruptcy Court Matters. Sellers shall give written notice to Purchaser prior to the submission of any motion in their Bankruptcy Cases to assume or reject any Designated Contracts together with a copy of the proposed Assumption Order, and, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, Sellers shall not assume or reject any Designated Contracts. Sellers shall promptly reject any Designated Contract that (i) Purchaser has designated as an Excluded Contract pursuant to a Contract Notice, (ii) has been deemed to be an Excluded Contract pursuant to Section 2.5(b) above or (iii) any Designated Contract that Purchaser has not designated as an Assigned Contract by the Designation Deadline (all such Designated Contracts being deemed to be Excluded Contracts for purposes of this Agreement). Any Designated Contracts that are rejected subject to Bankruptcy Court approval or are the subject of a rejection motion at the Designation Deadline, after complying with the provisions of this Section 2.5 shall constitute Excluded Contracts. Purchaser shall not have any obligation or liability with respect to Excluded Contracts from and after the earliest of: (x) delivery of such a Contract Notice, (y) after such Designated Contract has been deemed to be an Excluded Contract pursuant to Section 2.5(b) above or (z) after the Designation Deadline, as applicable.

(e) Cure Costs; Adequate Assurance. To the extent that any Designated Contract requires the payment of Cure Costs in order to be assigned to Purchaser and assumed pursuant to Section 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Cure Costs related to such Designated Contract shall be paid by the Sellers to the extent of available cash on the Sellers' balance sheet. In the event that the aggregate amount of Cure Costs payable for all Assigned Contracts exceeds the amount of available cash on the Sellers' balance sheet, Purchaser or its Designees shall satisfy such excess Cure Costs. Purchaser shall not be required to make any payment of Cure Costs for, or otherwise have any Liabilities with respect to, any Contract that is not an Assigned Contract. Purchaser will provide adequate assurance of future performance on its behalf and on behalf of its Designees as required under the Bankruptcy Code, including Section 365(f)(2)(B) thereof. Purchaser and the Sellers agree that they will promptly take all actions reasonably required to assist in obtaining a Bankruptcy Court finding that there has been an adequate demonstration of adequate assurance of future performance under each Assigned Contract, such as furnishing affidavits, non-confidential financial information or other documents or information for filing with the Bankruptcy Court and making Purchaser's and the Sellers' employees and representatives available to testify before the Bankruptcy Court, as necessary.

(f) Non-Assignable Contracts. To the extent that any Assigned Contract is not capable of being assigned under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or, if inapplicable, pursuant to other applicable Laws or the terms of such Contract) to Purchaser or a Designee without the consent of the other party thereto or any Person (including a Government Entity), and such consent has not been obtained (collectively, the "Non-Assignable Contracts"), this Agreement will not constitute an assignment thereof, or an attempted assignment, unless any such consent is obtained. Any payment to be made in order to obtain any consent required by the terms of any Non-Assignable Contract shall be the responsibility of Sellers to the extent of available cash on Sellers' balance sheet. In the event that the aggregate amount of consent fees payable for all Non-Assignable Contracts exceeds the amount of available cash on the Sellers' balance sheet, Purchaser or its Designees shall satisfy such excess consent fees. If, after giving effect to the provisions of Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, such consent is required but not obtained, the Sellers shall cooperate with Purchaser in any reasonable arrangement designed to provide for Purchaser the benefits and obligations of or under any such Non-Assignable Contract, including enforcement for the benefit of Purchaser of any and all rights of the Sellers against a third party thereto arising out of the breach or cancellation thereof by such third party. Any assignment to Purchaser of any Assigned Contract that shall, after giving effect to the provisions of Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, require the consent of any third party for such assignment as aforesaid shall be made subject to such consent being obtained. Any contract that would be an Assigned Contract but is not assigned in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.5(f) shall not be considered an "Assigned Contract" for purposes hereof unless and until such contract is assigned to Purchaser following the Closing Date upon receipt of the requisite consents to assignment and Bankruptcy Court approval.

ARTICLE 3 CONSIDERATION

3.1 Purchase Price.

(a) The purchase price (the "Purchase Price") for the purchase, sale, assignment and conveyance of Sellers' right, title and interest in, to and under the Acquired Assets to Purchaser or its Designees shall consist of (i) an amount equal to $95,000,000, which amount shall be payable in the form of a credit bid of an amount of the obligations then outstanding under the DIP Credit Agreement and the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement (such amount as may be increased pursuant to Section 3.1(b), the "Credit Bid Amount"); (ii) unless such obligations have been assumed by Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.3(e), an amount in cash allocated solely for the benefit of the ABL Credit Parties in order to cause the "payment in full" of the Obligations under each of the ABL Credit Agreements (within the meaning of such phrase under the ABL Credit Agreements), including the Letter of Credit Collateralization (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement) and Payment in Full of ABL Priority Debt (as such term is used in the Existing Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement) and the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the ABL DIP Credit Agreement); and (iii) the assumption by Purchaser of the Assumed Liabilities.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, at any time, and from time to time, during the Auction, Purchaser may increase the Purchase Price, including by increasing the Credit Bid Amount to the full amount then outstanding and owing under the DIP Credit Agreement and the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and or paying additional cash consideration.

3.2 Allocation of Purchase Price. If the transaction contemplated by this Agreement is an “Applicable Asset Acquisition” as defined in Section 1060(c) of the Code, then by the Designation Deadline, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to Sellers a statement allocating the sum of the Purchase Price, the Assumed Liabilities and other relevant items among the Acquired Assets in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code (such statement, the “Allocation Statement”), and the Allocation Statement shall be finalized upon reasonable consultation with Sellers. Except as otherwise required by applicable Law, the parties shall follow the Allocation Statement for purposes of filing IRS Form 8594 (and any supplements to such form) and all other Tax Returns, and shall not voluntarily take any position inconsistent therewith. If the IRS or any other taxation authority proposes a different allocation, Sellers or Purchaser, as the case may be, shall promptly notify the other party of such proposed allocation. Sellers or Purchaser, as the case may be, shall provide the other party with such information and shall take such actions (including executing documents and powers of attorney in connection with such proceedings) as may be reasonably requested by such other party to carry out the purposes of this section. Except as otherwise required by applicable Law or pursuant to a “determination” under Section 1313(a) of the Code (or any comparable provision of United States state, local, or non-United States law), (i) the transactions contemplated by Article 2 of this Agreement shall be reported for all Tax purposes in a manner consistent with the terms of this Section 3.2; and (ii) neither party (nor any of their Affiliates) will take any position inconsistent with this Section 3.2 in any Tax Return, in any refund claim, in any litigation or otherwise. Notwithstanding the allocation of the Purchase Price set forth in the Allocation Statement, nothing in the foregoing shall be determinative of values ascribed to the Acquired Assets or the allocation of the value of the Acquired Assets in any plan of reorganization or liquidation that may be proposed.

3.3 Assignment to Subsidiaries of Purchaser. Prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall have the right to assign its rights to receive all or any part of the Acquired Assets and its obligations to assume all or any part of the Assumed Liabilities, in each case, to one or more Affiliates or Subsidiaries of Purchaser (each, a “Designee”) by providing written notice to SS and each such Designee shall be deemed to be a Purchaser for all purposes hereunder and under the Ancillary Agreements, except that no such assignment shall relieve Purchaser of any of its obligations hereunder.

The Schedules shall be deemed amended by all such supplements and amendments for all purposes (except for purposes of determining whether the conditions set forth in Section 9.2(a) of this Agreement have been satisfied), unless within ten (10) days from the receipt of such supplement or amendment Purchaser provides notice in good faith that the facts described in such supplement or amendment would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Acquired Assets or the Business.

(vi) Sellers shall comply in all material respects with all Laws applicable to Sellers or having jurisdiction over the Business or any Acquired Asset;

(vii) Sellers shall not (1) enter into any Contract (other than in the ordinary course of business) that would constitute a Material Contract, if in effect on the Execution Date or (2) assume, amend, modify or terminate any Material Contract to which any Seller is a party or by which any Seller is bound and that is used in or related to the Business or the Acquired Assets (including any Assigned Contract), or fail to exercise any renewal right with respect to any Material Contract (including any Real Property Lease) that by its terms would otherwise expire;

(x) Sellers shall not assign, sublet, pledge, encumber, terminate (other than those Real Property Leases that will terminate by their terms), amend or modify in any manner any Real Property Lease or Owned Real Property;

(xi) Subject to the impact of the Bankruptcy Cases on the Business, Sellers shall use reasonable best efforts to (1) conduct the Business in substantially the same manner as conducted as of the Execution Date only in the ordinary course, (2) preserve the existing business organization and management of the Business intact, (3) keep available the services of the Employees, to the extent reasonably feasible, and (4) maintain the existing relations with customers, distributors, suppliers, creditors, business partners, employees and others having business dealings with the Business, to the extent reasonably feasible;

(xii) Sellers shall use best efforts to pay all accounts payable and collect all Accounts Receivable only in the ordinary course of business;

(xiii) Sellers shall at all times maintain all of the tangible Acquired Assets, used, held for use or useful in the conduct of the Business and keep the same in good repair, working order and condition (taking into consideration ordinary wear and tear) and from time to time make, or cause to be made, all necessary or appropriate repairs, replacements and improvements thereto consistent with past practice;

(xiv) Sellers file all material Tax Returns and pay or deposit all material Taxes on a timely basis and in accordance with past practice;

(xv) No Seller shall make or change any election, change an annual accounting period, adopt or change any accounting method, file any amended Tax Return, enter into any closing agreement, settle any Tax claim or assessment relating to any Seller, surrender any right to claim a refund of Taxes, consent to any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any Tax claim or assessment relating to any Seller, or take any other similar action relating to the filing of any Tax Return or the payment of any Tax; and

(xvi) Sellers shall not take, or agree, commit or offer (in writing or otherwise) to take, any actions in violation of the foregoing.

6.2 Pre-Closing Covenants of Purchaser. Purchaser covenants to Sellers that, during the period from the Execution Date through and including the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Purchaser shall take, or cause to be taken, all commercially reasonable actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or appropriate, consistent with applicable Law, to consummate and make effective as soon as possible the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that the foregoing shall not require Purchaser to participate as a bidder in the Auction.

6.3 Antitrust Notification. If required, Sellers and Purchaser shall use their reasonable best efforts to promptly obtain any clearance required under the HSR Act for the consummation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and shall keep each other apprised of the status of any communications with, and any inquiries or requests for additional information from, the United States Federal Trade Commission and the United States Department of Justice and shall comply promptly with any such inquiry or request. If required, the parties hereto commit to instruct their respective counsel to cooperate with each other and use reasonable best efforts to facilitate and expedite the identification and resolution of any such issues and, consequently, the expiration of the applicable HSR Act waiting period at the earliest practicable date. Said reasonable best efforts and cooperation include counsel's undertaking (i) to keep each other appropriately informed of communications from and to personnel of the reviewing antitrust authority, and (ii) to confer with each other regarding appropriate contacts with and response to personnel of said antitrust authority.

6.4 Transfer of Permits; Surety Bonds.

Except for those Permits that are not transferable by Law, Sellers shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the issuance or transfer of all Permits included in the Acquired Assets to Purchaser on or before the Closing Date. Sellers shall give and make all notices and reports Sellers are required to make to the appropriate Governmental Authorities and other Persons with respect to the Permits that may be necessary for the sale of the Acquired Assets to Purchaser at the Closing.

(b) Surety Bond Obligations. Both prior to and after the Closing Date, Sellers shall use reasonable best efforts to (i) cooperate with Purchaser to cause the transfer, if practicable, by the issuers of the surety bonds, performance bonds and other instruments listed on Schedule 4.4(b) and any such surety bonds, performance bonds and other similar instruments entered into by Sellers between the Execution Date and the Closing Date (the “Surety Bonds”) for the benefit of Purchaser to support the beneficiaries of such Surety Bonds as customers or proposed customers of Purchaser after the Closing Date together with any existing letters of credit, security deposits and cash collateral securing or provided by the Sellers as credit support for the Surety Bonds, or (ii) cooperate with Purchaser to provide the beneficiaries of each Surety Bond with replacement or substitute surety bonds and to facilitate the transfer of any existing letters of credit, security deposits and cash collateral for the existing Surety Bonds to the issuer of such replacement or substitute surety bonds for the benefit of Purchaser.

6.5 Employment Covenants and Other Undertakings.

(a) Employment. Purchaser shall offer to employ, on such terms and conditions of employment as determined by Purchaser in its sole discretion, substantially all of the Employees of Sellers. Only Employees of Sellers who are offered and then accept such offer of employment with Purchaser will become a Purchaser Employee after the Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will, after the Closing Date, impose on Purchaser any obligation to retain any Purchaser Employee in its employment. Except as described in the remaining sentences of this Section 6.5, the employment of each such Purchaser Employee with Purchaser will commence immediately after the Closing. In the case of any individual who is offered employment by Purchaser and accepts such offer, but who is absent from active employment and receiving short-term disability or workers’ compensation benefits, the employment of any such individual with Purchaser would commence upon his or her return to active work, and such individual would become a Purchaser Employee as of such date. Purchaser Employees will be given full credit for years of service with any Seller for purposes of any employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement of Purchaser to the same extent and purpose as such service was taken into account by such Seller immediately prior to the Closing Date and credit Purchaser Employees for any earned or accrued paid time off.

(b) Other Obligations. Except as otherwise required by Law, specified in this Agreement, or otherwise agreed in writing by Purchaser or its Affiliates, neither Purchaser nor its Affiliates shall be obligated to provide any severance, separation pay, or other payments or benefits, including any key employee retention payments, to any Employee on account of any termination of such Employee’s employment on or before the Closing Date, and such benefits (if any) shall remain obligations of Sellers.

(c) Forms W-2 and W-4. Sellers and Purchaser shall adopt the “standard procedure” for preparing and filing IRS Forms W-2 (Wage and Tax Statements) and Forms W-4 (Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate) regarding the Purchaser Employees. Under this procedure established by Revenue Procedure 2004-53, Sellers (so long as they remain in existence) shall keep on file all IRS Forms W-4 provided by the Purchaser Employees for the period required by applicable Law concerning record retention and Purchasers will obtain new IRS Forms W-4 with respect to each Purchaser Employee.

(d) No Right to Continued Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall confer upon any Purchaser Employee any right with respect to continuance of employment by Purchaser, nor shall anything herein interfere with the right of Purchaser to terminate the employment of any Purchaser Employees at any time, with or without notice, or restrict Purchaser, in the exercise of its business judgment in modifying any of the terms or conditions of employment of the Purchaser Employees after the Closing.

(e) Employee Communications. Prior to making any written or oral communications to the Employees pertaining to their employment, termination, compensation, benefit or other terms and conditions of employment that are affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Sellers shall consult with Purchaser and provide Purchaser with a copy of the intended communication.

(f) Employee Benefit Plans. As of the Closing, all of the Purchaser Employees will cease participation in any of the Employee Benefit Plans that such Purchaser Employees participated in immediately prior to the Closing that are not Assumed Plans. In accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 54.4980B-9 Q&A-7, as of the Closing Date, Purchaser will assume all liability for providing and administering all required notices and benefits under Section 4980B of the Code and Part 6 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA (usually referred to as “COBRA”) to all current and former employees of Sellers (including Purchaser Employees). Prior to the Closing Date, Sellers shall provide to Purchaser detailed information reasonably requested by Purchaser (including all pertinent information concerning individuals who have elected or continue to have a right to elect COBRA continuation coverage and/or any COBRA subsidy pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009) sufficient to enable Purchaser to carry out its obligations under this Section 6.5(f). Sellers will have no COBRA Liability to such current and former employees after the Closing Date, except with respect to any violations of Law that occurred prior to the Closing Date.

(g) Assumed Plans. Purchaser shall notify Sellers in writing no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing as to which Employee Benefit Plans Purchaser shall adopt and assume, if any (the “Assumed Plans”). With respect to each Assumed Plan, Purchaser or, any entity designated by Purchaser, will be substituted for the applicable Seller as the plan sponsor under any such Assumed Plan and Purchaser shall have all rights of such Seller thereunder, including full authority to maintain, amend or terminate any such Assumed Plan at any time, in Purchaser’s sole discretion. Sellers agree to cooperate with Purchaser in adopting and effectuating any plan amendments to the Assumed Plans reasonably requested by Purchaser, so long as such amendments are effective as of, or after, the Closing Date and are consistent with applicable Law and other agreements under which Sellers are obligated. The parties agree to cooperate in all respects and take any actions necessary to implement the assumption by Purchaser of the Assumed Plans. Before, or as soon as administratively practicable after, the Closing, Sellers will provide Purchaser with (i) all records concerning participation, vesting, accrual of benefits, payment of benefits, and election forms of benefits under each Assumed Plan, and (ii) any other information reasonably requested by Purchaser as necessary or appropriate for the administration of each Assumed Plan, each subject to the provision of consent by any Purchaser Employee to the extent and in the manner required by Law. Purchaser will make all required filings or reports with or to the IRS, or any other governmental agency, and the participants and their beneficiaries with respect to each Assumed Plan on a timely basis for all plan years ending before, on or after the Closing Date or as may be required with respect to such Assumed Plan, provided the initial deadline for such filing or report is after the Closing Date. All parties recognize that a reasonable transition period may be necessary after the Closing Date and prior to Purchaser's implementation of its assumption of the Assumed Plans before full compliance with this Section 6.5 is achieved, during which some or all of the Purchaser Employees and other participants and beneficiaries of the Assumed Plans may not be able to (i) make (and Purchaser may not be able to process) elective deferral contributions, loan repayments, investment changes, distribution requests, benefit payment requests or reimbursement requests or (ii) exercise or enjoy other rights or features of the Assumed Plans, and that during such transition period Purchaser shall not be considered to be in violation of this Section 6.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall not assume or succeed to any of Sellers' past, current or future Liabilities (including any withdrawal liability, termination liability or mass withdrawal liability) with respect to any multiemployer plan to which any Seller or any ERISA Affiliate contributes or has ever contributed.

(h) Compliance with WARN Act. With respect to the Employees, Sellers will have full responsibility under the WARN Act caused by any action of Sellers. Sellers shall be responsible for all WARN Act Liabilities relating to the periods prior to and on the Closing Date, including any such Liabilities that result from Employees' separation of employment from Sellers and/or Employees not becoming Purchaser Employees pursuant to this Section 6.5.

(i) Successor Employer Status. Sellers shall provide Purchaser with all necessary records and documentation required by Purchaser as a "successor employer" within the meaning of Sections 3121 and 3306 of the Code.

6.6 Exclusivity. For the period beginning on the Execution Date until the date of the Bankruptcy Court's approval and entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, Sellers and their respective Affiliates and Related Persons shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate discussions with or engage in negotiations with any Person (whether such negotiations are initiated by Sellers or otherwise), other than Purchaser and its Affiliates, relating to the acquisition of any of the Acquired Assets (other than sales of inventory and dispositions of assets, in each case in the ordinary course of business), whether by way of purchase of equity or assets or otherwise (a "Potential Transaction"); or (ii) enter into an agreement, letter of intent or similar document (whether or not binding) with any Person, other than Purchaser or its Affiliates, providing for or relating to any Potential Transaction. If Sellers or their respective Affiliates or Related Persons receive an inquiry, offer or proposal relating to any of the above (unsolicited or otherwise), Sellers shall immediately notify Purchaser in writing. Upon the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Sellers and their respective Affiliates and Related Persons shall immediately cease all discussions, negotiations and communications with all other Persons regarding any Potential Transaction until entry of the Bid Procedures Order.

6.7 Casualty. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if, before the Closing, all or any portion of the Acquired Assets is (a) condemned or taken by eminent domain, or (b) a material portion is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, Sellers shall notify Purchaser promptly in writing of such fact, and (i) in the case of condemnation or taking, Sellers shall assign or pay, as the case may be, any proceeds thereof to Purchaser at the Closing, and (ii) in the case of fire or other casualty, Sellers shall, at the option of Purchaser, either use any insurance proceeds to restore such damage or assign such insurance proceeds therefrom to the Purchaser at Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Section 6.7 shall not in any way modify the Purchaser's other rights under this Agreement, including any applicable right to terminate the Agreement if any condemnation, taking, damage or other destruction resulted in a Material Adverse Effect.

6.8 Name Change. Within ten (10) days after the Closing Date, Sellers and their Subsidiaries shall take such corporate and other actions necessary to change their corporate and company names to ones that are not similar to, or confusing with, their current names, including any necessary filings required by applicable Law.

6.9 Release of Claims. At the Closing, Sellers shall provide a release of all rights, claims or causes of action of Sellers arising under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6.10 Transition Services. The Parties shall cooperate with each other, and shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective Related Persons to cooperate with each other, to provide an orderly transition of the Business from Sellers to Purchaser and to minimize the disruption to the Business resulting from the transactions contemplated hereby as requested by any Party, including facilitating the transition of the business relationship with Regents of the University of California acting on behalf of its Lawrence Hall of Science in respect of the FOSS contracts and other key partner/client relationships.

6.11 Alternate Transactions. Subject to Section 11.3, nothing in this Agreement shall restrict Sellers' right to pursue one or more Alternate Transactions, including marketing Sellers' assets or providing due diligence materials, solely to the extent permitted by the Bidding Procedures Order.

6.12 Post-Closing Access. On and after the Closing Date, upon reasonable advance notice, Purchaser will afford promptly to Sellers (and their successors and assigns) and their counsel, advisors and other agents reasonable access during normal business hours to Purchaser's properties, books, records, employees, auditors and counsel to the extent necessary for financial reporting and accounting matters, employee benefits matters, the preparation and filing of any Tax returns, reports or forms, the defense of any Tax audit, Claim or assessment, the reconciliation of Claims in the Bankruptcy Cases, to permit Sellers to determine any matter relating to its rights and obligations hereunder, or in connection with addressing any other issues arising in connection with or relating to the Bankruptcy Cases; provided, however, that any such access by Sellers shall not unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of Purchaser; provided, further, that, subject to applicable Law, Purchaser may destroy materials relating to the Purchased assets and Business after the two year anniversary of Closing provided that it gives written notice to Sellers, to the extent that Sellers are still in existence, with respect to its intent to do so and gives Sellers the opportunity to make copies of the same prior to destruction thereof.

6.13 Purchaser Financing Cooperation. From the Execution Date through and including the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement, Sellers shall use their reasonable best efforts to, and shall cause their officers, employees and other representatives to use their respective reasonable best efforts to assist Purchaser in obtaining any financing necessary to fund the Business after the Closing, including by taking the following actions: (i) make senior management, representatives and advisors of Sellers reasonably available for meetings and due diligence sessions with prospective financing sources, (ii) cooperate with prospective lenders, placement agents, initial purchasers and their respective advisors in performing their due diligence, and (iii) assist Purchaser in procuring credit agreements, hedging arrangements, notes, mortgages, pledge and security documents, landlord waivers, estoppels, consents, and approvals and other definitive financing documents or other requested certificates or documents (including solvency certificates to the extent required), it being understood that in no event shall Sellers be obligated or required to execute any such document. Nothing in this Section 6.13 shall require such cooperation from Sellers to the extent it would unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of Sellers.

12.12 Electronic Delivery; Counterparts. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement, and any amendments hereto or thereto, may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. Any such counterpart, to the extent delivered by means of a facsimile machine or by .pdf, .tif, .gif, .jpg or similar attachment to electronic mail (any such delivery, an "Electronic Delivery") shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original executed counterpart and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. At the request of any party hereto, each other party hereto shall re-execute the original form of this Agreement and deliver such form to all other parties. No party hereto shall raise the use of Electronic Delivery to deliver a signature or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through the use of Electronic Delivery as a defense to the formation of a contract, and each such party forever waives any such defense, except to the extent such defense relates to lack of authenticity.

12.13 Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LITIGATION, ACTION, PROCEEDING, CROSS-CLAIM, OR COUNTERCLAIM IN ANY COURT (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF, RELATING TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH (i) THIS AGREEMENT OR THE VALIDITY, PERFORMANCE, INTERPRETATION, COLLECTION OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF OR (ii) THE ACTIONS OF SUCH PARTY IN THE NEGOTIATION, AUTHORIZATION, EXECUTION, DELIVERY, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE OR ENFORCEMENT HEREOF. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THIS WAIVER IN THEIR RELATED FUTURE DEALINGS. EACH PARTY HERETO FURTHER WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH LEGAL COUNSEL OF ITS OWN CHOOSING, OR HAS HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO DO SO, AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS, HAVING HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL.

(b) THIS WAIVER IS IRREVOCABLE, MEANING THAT IT MAY NOT BE MODIFIED EITHER ORALLY OR IN WRITING, AND THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS, OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS AGREEMENT. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT WITHOUT A JURY.

The parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS AND CONSTRUCTION.

1.1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement shall have the meanings specified therefor on Schedule 1.1.

1.2. Accounting Terms. All accounting terms not specifically defined herein shall be construed in accordance with GAAP; provided, that if Administrative Borrower notifies Agent that Borrowers request an amendment to any provision hereof to eliminate the effect of any Accounting Change occurring after the Closing Date or in the application thereof on the operation of such provision (or if Agent notifies Administrative Borrower that the Required Lenders request an amendment to any provision hereof for such purpose), regardless of whether any such notice is given before or after such Accounting Change or in the application thereof, then Agent and Borrowers agree that they will negotiate in good faith amendments to the provisions of this Agreement that are directly affected by such Accounting Change with the intent of having the respective positions of the Lenders and Borrowers after such Accounting Change conform as nearly as possible to their respective positions prior to such Accounting Change and, until any such amendments have been agreed upon and agreed to by the Required Lenders, the provisions in this Agreement shall be calculated as if no such Accounting Change had occurred. When used herein, the term “financial statements” shall include the notes and schedules thereto. Whenever the term “Parent” is used in respect of a financial covenant or a related definition, it shall be understood to mean Parent and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, unless the context clearly requires otherwise. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (a) all financial statements delivered hereunder shall be prepared, and all financial covenants contained herein shall be calculated, without giving effect to any election under the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159 (or any similar accounting principle) permitting a Person to value its financial liabilities or Indebtedness at the fair value thereof, and (b) the term “unqualified opinion” as used herein to refer to opinions or reports provided by accountants shall mean an opinion or report that is (i) unqualified, and (ii) does not include any explanation, supplemental comment, or other comment concerning the ability of the applicable Person to continue as a going concern or concerning the scope of the audit.

1.3. Code. Any terms used in this Agreement that are defined in the Code shall be construed and defined as set forth in the Code unless otherwise defined herein; provided, that to the extent that the Code is used to define any term herein and such term is defined differently in different Articles of the Code, the definition of such term contained in Article 9 of the Code shall govern.

1.4. Construction. Unless the context of this Agreement or any other Loan Document clearly requires otherwise, references to the plural include the singular, references to the singular include the plural, the terms “includes” and “including” are not limiting, and the term “or” has, except where otherwise indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase

“and/or.” The words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby,” “hereunder,” and similar terms in this Agreement or any other Loan Document refer to this Agreement or such other Loan Document, as the case may be, as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement or such other Loan Document, as the case may be. Section, subsection, clause, schedule, and exhibit references herein are to this Agreement unless otherwise specified. Any reference in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document to any agreement, instrument, or document shall include all alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, replacements, substitutions, joinders, and supplements, thereto and thereof, as applicable (subject to any restrictions on such alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, replacements, substitutions, joinders, and supplements set forth herein). The words “asset” and “property” shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect and to refer to any and all tangible and intangible assets and properties. Any reference herein or in any other Loan Document to the satisfaction, repayment, or payment in full of the Obligations shall mean (a) the payment or repayment in full in immediately available funds of (i) the principal amount of, and interest accrued and unpaid with respect to, all outstanding Loans, together with the payment of any premium applicable to the repayment of the Loans, (ii) all Lender Group Expenses that have accrued and are unpaid regardless of whether demand has been made therefor, (iii) all fees or charges that have accrued hereunder or under any other Loan Document (including the Letter of Credit Fee and the Unused Line Fee) and are unpaid, (b) in the case of contingent reimbursement obligations with respect to Letters of Credit, providing Letter of Credit Collateralization, (c) in the case of obligations with respect to Bank Products (other than Hedge Obligations), providing Bank Product Collateralization, (d) the receipt by Agent of cash collateral in order to secure any other contingent Obligations for which a claim or demand for payment has been made on or prior to such time or in respect of matters or circumstances known to Agent or a Lender at such time that are reasonably expected to result in any loss, cost, damage, or expense (including attorneys’ fees and legal expenses), such cash collateral to be in such amount as Agent reasonably determines is appropriate to secure such contingent Obligations, (e) the payment or repayment in full in immediately available funds of all other outstanding Obligations (including the payment of any termination amount then applicable (or which would or could become applicable as a result of the repayment of the other Obligations) under Hedge Agreements provided by Hedge Providers) other than (i) unasserted contingent indemnification Obligations, (ii) any Bank Product Obligations (other than Hedge Obligations) that, at such time, are allowed by the applicable Bank Product Provider to remain outstanding without being required to be repaid or cash collateralized, and (iii) any Hedge Obligations that, at such time, are allowed by the applicable Hedge Provider to remain outstanding without being required to be repaid, and (f) the termination of all of the Commitments of the Lenders. Any reference herein to any Person shall be construed to include such Person’s successors and assigns. Any requirement of a writing contained herein or in any other Loan Document shall be satisfied by the transmission of a Record.

1.5. Time References. Unless the context of this Agreement or any other Loan Document clearly requires otherwise, all references to time of day refer to Central standard time or Central daylight saving time, as in effect in Chicago, Illinois on such day. For purposes of the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word “from” means “from and including” and the words “to” and “until” each means “to and including”; provided that, with respect to a computation of fees or interest payable to Agent or any Lender, such period shall in any event consist of at least one full day.

1.6. Schedules and Exhibits. All of the schedules and exhibits attached to this Agreement shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference.

2. LOANS AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

2.1. Revolving Loans.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and during the term of this Agreement, each Revolving Lender agrees (severally, not jointly or jointly and severally) to make revolving loans (“Revolving Loans”) to Borrowers in an amount at any one time outstanding not to exceed the lesser of:

- (i) such Lender’s Revolver Commitment, and
- (ii) such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of an amount equal to the lesser of:

(A) the amount equal to (1) the Maximum Revolver Amount less the Availability Reserve less (2) the sum of (y) the Letter of Credit Usage at such time, plus (z) the principal amount of Swing Loans outstanding at such time less (3) the amount of any Reinstated Existing Secured Obligations less (4) the Existing Secured Obligations then outstanding, and

(B) the amount equal to

(1) the Borrowing Base as of such date (based upon the most recent Borrowing Base Certificate delivered by Administrative Borrower to Co-Collateral Agents) less

(2) the sum of (x) the Letter of Credit Usage at such time, plus (y) the principal amount of Swing Loans outstanding at such time less

(3) the amount of any Reinstated Existing Secured Obligations less

(4) the amount of any Existing Secured Obligations then outstanding.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) the aggregate Revolving Loans made during any week shall not exceed (i) for the first two weeks following the Filing Date, 115% of the aggregate uses of cash set forth for such week in the Budget, and (ii) for each full week thereafter, 110% of the aggregate uses of cash set forth for such week in the Budget, (y) the aggregate principal amount of the Revolving Loans at any time outstanding during any week shall not exceed the projected outstanding Revolving Loans set forth in the Budget for such week and (z) the Revolving Loans shall be used by Borrowers solely as set forth in Section 6.11.

(b) Amounts borrowed pursuant to this Section 2.1 may be repaid and, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, reborrowed at any time during the term of this Agreement. The outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans, together with interest accrued and unpaid thereon, shall constitute Obligations and shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date, the Required Prepayment Date or, if earlier, on the date on which they are declared due and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Anything to the contrary in this Section 2.1 notwithstanding, Co-Collateral Agents shall have the right (but not the obligation), in the exercise of their Permitted Discretion, to establish and increase or decrease or eliminate Receivable Reserves, Inventory Reserves, Bank Product Reserves, Reserves to address the results of any audit or appraisal performed by or on behalf of Co-Collateral Agents from time to time after the Closing Date, Reserves with respect to the Carveout, Reserves with respect to other potential costs and expenses pertaining to the Bankruptcy Cases, Reserves with respect to Other Statutory Liabilities and other Reserves against the Borrowing Base (or any component thereof) or the Maximum Revolver Amount. The amount of any such Reserve established by Co-Collateral Agents shall have a reasonable relationship to the event, condition, other circumstance, or fact that is the basis for such reserve and shall not be duplicative of any other reserve established and currently maintained.

2.2. Intentionally Omitted.

2.3. Borrowing Procedures and Settlements.

(a) Procedure for Borrowing Revolving Loans. Each Borrowing shall be made by a written request by an Authorized Person delivered to Agent and received by Agent no later than 10:30 a.m. (i) on the Business Day that is the requested Funding Date in the case of a request for a Swing Loan, and (ii) on the Business Day that is 1 Business Day prior to the requested Funding Date in the case of all other requests, specifying (A) the amount of such Borrowing, and (B) the requested Funding Date (which shall be a Business Day); provided, that Agent may, in its sole discretion, elect to accept as timely requests that are received later than 10:30 a.m. on the applicable Business Day. At Agent's election, in lieu of delivering the above-described written request, any Authorized Person may give Agent telephonic notice of such request by the required time. In such circumstances, Borrowers agree that any such telephonic notice will be confirmed in writing within 24 hours of the giving of such telephonic notice, but the failure to provide such written confirmation shall not affect the validity of the request.

(b) Making of Swing Loans. In the case of a request for a Swing Loan and so long as the aggregate amount of Swing Loans made since the last Settlement Date, minus all payments or other amounts applied to Swing Loans since the last Settlement Date, plus the amount of the requested Swing Loan does not exceed $20,000,000, and Swing Lender, in its sole discretion, agrees to make a Swing Loan, Swing Lender shall make a Revolving Loan (any such Revolving Loan made by Swing Lender pursuant to this Section 2.3(b) being referred to as a "Swing Loan" and all such Revolving Loans being referred to as "Swing Loans") available to Borrowers on the Funding Date applicable thereto by transferring immediately available funds in the amount of such requested Borrowing to the Designated Account. Each Swing Loan shall be deemed to be a Revolving Loan hereunder and shall be subject to all the terms and conditions (including Section 3) applicable to other Revolving Loans, except that all payments (including interest) on any Swing Loan shall be payable to Swing Lender solely for its own account. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.3(d)(ii), Swing Lender shall not make and shall not be obligated to make any Swing Loan if Swing Lender has actual knowledge that (i) one or more of the applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 3 (including, without limitation, the conditions precedent set forth in the final paragraph of Section 3.2 hereof) will not be satisfied on the requested Funding Date for the applicable Borrowing, or (ii) the requested Borrowing would exceed the Availability on such Funding Date. Swing Lender shall not otherwise be required to determine whether the applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 3 have been satisfied on the Funding Date applicable thereto prior to making any Swing Loan. The Swing Loans shall be secured by Agent's Liens, constitute Revolving Loans and Obligations, and bear interest at the rate applicable from time to time to Revolving Loans that are Base Rate Loans.

(c) Making of Revolving Loans.

(i) In the event that Swing Lender is not obligated to make a Swing Loan, then after receipt of a request for a Borrowing pursuant to Section 2.3(a), Agent shall notify the Lenders by telecopy, telephone, email, or other electronic form of transmission, of the requested Borrowing; such notification to be sent on the Business Day that is 1 Business Day prior to the requested Funding Date. If Agent has notified the Lenders of a requested Borrowing on the Business Day that is 1 Business Day prior to the Funding Date, then each Lender shall make the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the requested Borrowing available to Agent in immediately available funds, to Agent's Account, not later than 10:00 a.m. on the Business Day that is the requested Funding Date. After Agent's receipt of the proceeds of such Revolving Loans from the Lenders, Agent shall make the proceeds thereof available to Borrowers on the applicable Funding Date by transferring immediately available funds equal to such proceeds received by Agent to the Designated Account; provided, that, subject to the provisions of Section 2.3(d)(ii), no Lender shall have an obligation to make any Revolving Loan, if (1) one or more of the applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 3 (including, without limitation, the conditions precedent set forth in the final paragraph of Section 3.2 hereof) will not be satisfied on the requested Funding Date for the applicable Borrowing unless such condition has been waived, or (2) the requested Borrowing would exceed the Availability on such Funding Date.

(ii) Unless Agent receives notice from a Lender prior to 9:30 a.m. on the Business Day that is the requested Funding Date relative to a requested Borrowing as to which Agent has notified the Lenders of a requested Borrowing that such Lender will not make available as and when required hereunder to Agent for the account of Borrowers the amount of that Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Borrowing, Agent may assume that each Lender has made or will make such amount available to Agent in immediately available funds on the Funding Date and Agent may (but shall not be so required), in reliance upon such assumption, make available to Borrowers a corresponding amount. If, on the requested Funding Date, any Lender shall not have remitted the full amount that it is required to make available to Agent in immediately available funds and if Agent has made available to Borrowers such amount on the requested Funding Date, then such Lender shall make the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the requested Borrowing available to Agent in immediately available funds, to Agent's Account, no later than 10:00 a.m. on the Business Day that is the first Business Day after the requested Funding Date (in which case, the interest accrued on such Lender's portion of such Borrowing for the Funding Date shall be for Agent's separate account). If any Lender shall not remit the full amount that it is required to make available to Agent in immediately available funds as and when required hereby and if Agent has made available to Borrowers such amount, then that Lender shall be obligated to immediately remit such amount to Agent, together with interest at the Defaulting Lender Rate for each day until the date on which such amount is so remitted. A notice submitted by Agent to any Lender with respect to amounts owing under this Section 2.3(c)(ii) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error. If the amount that a Lender is required to remit is made available to Agent, then such payment to Agent shall constitute such Lender's Revolving Loan for all purposes of this Agreement. If such amount is not made available to Agent on the Business Day following the Funding Date, Agent will notify Administrative Borrower of such failure to fund and, upon demand by Agent, Borrowers shall pay such amount to Agent, together with interest thereon for each day elapsed since the date of such Borrowing, for Agent's Account, at a rate per annum equal to the interest rate applicable at the time to the Revolving Loans composing such Borrowing.

(d) Protective Advances and Optional Overadvances .

(i) Any contrary provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document notwithstanding, but subject to Section 2.3(d)(iii), at any time (A) after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, or (B) that any of the other applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 3 are not satisfied, Agent hereby is authorized by Borrowers and the Lenders, from time to time (until such time as either Co-Collateral Agent shall revoke such authority), in Agent's sole discretion, to make Revolving Loans to, or for the benefit of, Borrowers, on behalf of the Revolving Lenders, that Agent, in its Permitted Discretion, deems necessary or desirable (1) to preserve or protect the Collateral, or any portion thereof, (2) to enhance the likelihood of repayment of the Obligations (other than the Bank Product Obligations) (the Revolving Loans described in this Section 2.3(d)(i) shall be referred to as "Protective Advances"), or (3) to pay any other amount chargeable to Borrowers pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including Lender Group Expenses and the costs, fees and expenses described in Section 9. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless Required Lenders otherwise consent, the aggregate amount of all Protective Advances outstanding at any one time shall not exceed $20,000,000.

(A) Any contrary provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document notwithstanding, but subject to Section 2.3(d)(iii), the Lenders hereby authorize Agent or Swing Lender, as applicable, and either Agent or Swing Lender, as applicable, may, but is not obligated to (until such time as either Co-Collateral Agent shall revoke such authority), knowingly and intentionally, continue to make Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans) to Borrowers notwithstanding that an Overadvance exists or would be created thereby, so long as (A) after giving effect to such Revolving Loans, the outstanding Revolver Usage does not, unless Required Lenders otherwise consent, exceed the Borrowing Base by more than $20,000,000, and (B) after giving effect to such Revolving Loans, the outstanding Revolver Usage (except for and excluding amounts charged to the Loan Account for interest, fees, or Lender Group Expenses) does not exceed the Maximum Revolver Amount. In the event Agent obtains actual knowledge that the Revolver Usage exceeds the amounts permitted by the immediately foregoing provisions, regardless of the amount of, or reason for, such excess, Agent shall notify the Lenders as soon as practicable (and prior to making any (or any additional) intentional Overadvances (except for and excluding amounts charged to the Loan Account for interest, fees, or Lender Group Expenses) unless Agent determines that prior notice would result in imminent harm to the Collateral or its value, in which case Agent may make such Overadvances and provide notice as promptly as practicable thereafter), and the Lenders with Revolver Commitments thereupon shall, together with Agent and Co-Collateral Agents, jointly determine the terms of arrangements that shall be implemented with Borrowers intended to reduce, within a reasonable time, the outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans to Borrowers to an amount permitted by the preceding sentence. In such circumstances, if any Lender with a Revolver Commitment objects to the proposed terms of reduction or repayment of any Overadvance, the terms of reduction or repayment thereof shall be implemented according to the determination of the Required Lenders. The foregoing provisions are meant for the benefit of the Lenders, Co-Collateral Agents and Agent and are not meant for the benefit of Borrowers, which shall continue to be bound by the provisions of Section 2.4(e)(1). Each Lender with a Revolver Commitment shall be obligated to make Revolving Loans in accordance with Section 2.3(c) in, or settle Overadvances made by Agent with Agent as provided in Section 2.3(e) (or Section 2.3(g), as applicable) for, the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of any unintentional Overadvances by Agent reported to such Lender, any intentional Overadvances made as permitted under this Section 2.3(d)(ii), and any Overadvances resulting from the charging to the Loan Account of interest, fees, or Lender Group Expenses.

(ii) Each Protective Advance and each Overadvance (each, an "Extraordinary Advance") shall be deemed to be a Revolving Loan hereunder, except that no Extraordinary Advance shall be eligible to be a LIBOR Rate Loan and, prior to Settlement therefor, all payments on the Extraordinary Advances, including interest thereon, shall be payable to Agent solely for its own account. The Extraordinary Advances shall be repayable on demand, secured by Agent's Liens, constitute Obligations hereunder, and bear interest at the rate applicable from time to time to Revolving Loans that are Base Rate Loans. The provisions of this Section 2.3(d) are for the exclusive benefit of Agent, Co-Collateral Agents, Swing Lender, and the Lenders and are not intended to benefit Borrowers (or any other Loan Party) in any way.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the contrary: (A) unless Required Lenders otherwise consent no Extraordinary Advance may be made by Agent if such Extraordinary Advance would cause the aggregate principal amount of Extraordinary Advances outstanding to exceed an amount equal to 10% of the Maximum Revolver Amount; (B) no Protective Advance shall be permitted that causes the aggregate Revolver Usage to exceed the Maximum Revolver Amount; (C) no Lender shall be required to make any Revolving Loan (including reimbursement to Agent of any Extraordinary Advances) in excess of the amount of its Revolver Commitment; and (D) no Extraordinary Advance shall be made that causes the aggregate ABL Debt (as defined in the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement) to exceed the ABL Cap (as defined in the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement), without the written consent of each Lender.

(e) Settlement. It is agreed that each Lender's funded portion of the Revolving Loans is intended by the Lenders to equal, at all times, such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the outstanding Revolving Loans. Such agreement notwithstanding, Agent, Swing Lender, and the other Lenders agree (which agreement shall not be for the benefit of Borrowers) that in order to facilitate the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, settlement among the Lenders as to the Revolving Loans (including the Swing Loans and the Extraordinary Advances) shall take place on a periodic basis in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Agent shall request settlement (“Settlement”) with the Lenders on a weekly basis, or on a more frequent basis if so determined by Agent in its sole discretion (1) on behalf of Swing Lender, with respect to the outstanding Swing Loans, (2) for itself, with respect to the outstanding Extraordinary Advances, and (3) with respect to Loan Parties’ payments or other amounts received, as to each by notifying the Lenders by telecopy, telephone, or other similar form of transmission, of such requested Settlement, no later than 2:00 p.m. on the Business Day immediately prior to the date of such requested Settlement (the date of such requested Settlement being the “Settlement Date”). Such notice of a Settlement Date shall include a summary statement of the amount of outstanding Swing Loans, Extraordinary Advances and other Revolving Loans for the period since the prior Settlement Date. Subject to the terms and conditions contained herein (including Section 2.3(g)): (y) if the amount of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans, and Extraordinary Advances) made by a Lender that is not a Defaulting Lender exceeds such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans, and Extraordinary Advances) as of a Settlement Date, then Agent shall, by no later than 12:00 p.m. on the Settlement Date, transfer in immediately available funds to a Deposit Account of such Lender (as such Lender may designate), an amount such that each such Lender shall, upon receipt of such amount, have as of the Settlement Date, its Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans, and Extraordinary Advances), and (z) if the amount of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans, and Extraordinary Advances) made by a Lender is less than such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans, and Extraordinary Advances) as of a Settlement Date, such Lender shall no later than 12:00 p.m. on the Settlement Date transfer in immediately available funds to Agent’s Account, an amount such that each such Lender shall, upon transfer of such amount, have as of the Settlement Date, its Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans and Extraordinary Advances). Such amounts made available to Agent under clause (z) of the immediately preceding sentence shall be applied against the amounts of the applicable Swing Loans or Extraordinary Advances, shall constitute Revolving Loans of such Lenders. If any such amount is not made available to Agent by any Lender on the Settlement Date applicable thereto to the extent required by the terms hereof, Agent shall be entitled to recover for its account such amount on demand from such Lender together with interest thereon at the Defaulting Lender Rate.

(ii) In determining whether a Lender’s balance of the Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans and Extraordinary Advances) is less than, equal to, or greater than such Lender’s Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans as of a Settlement Date, Agent shall, as part of the relevant Settlement, apply to such balance the portion of payments actually received in good funds by Agent with respect to principal, interest, fees payable by Borrowers and allocable to the Lenders hereunder, and proceeds of Collateral.

(iii) Between Settlement Dates, Agent, to the extent Extraordinary Advances for the account of Agent or Swing Loans for the account of Swing Lender are outstanding, may pay over to Agent or Swing Lender, as applicable, any payments or other amounts received by Agent, that in accordance with the terms of this Agreement would be applied to the reduction of the Revolving Loans, for application to the Extraordinary Advances or Swing Loans. Between Settlement Dates, Agent, to the extent no Extraordinary Advances or Swing Loans are outstanding, may pay over to Swing Lender any payments or other amounts received by Agent, that in accordance with the terms of this Agreement would be applied to the reduction of the Revolving Loans, for application to Swing Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans. If, as of any Settlement Date, payments or other amounts of Loan Parties received since the then immediately preceding Settlement Date have been applied to Swing Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans other than to Swing Loans, as provided for in the previous sentence, Swing Lender shall pay to Agent for the accounts of the Lenders, and Agent shall pay to the Lenders (other than a Defaulting Lender if Agent has implemented the provisions of Section 2.3(g)), to be applied to the outstanding Revolving Loans of such Lenders, an amount such that each such Lender shall, upon receipt of such amount, have, as of such Settlement Date, its Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Loans. During the period between Settlement Dates, Swing Lender with respect to Swing Loans, Agent with respect to Extraordinary Advances, and each Lender with respect to the Revolving Loans other than Swing Loans and Extraordinary Advances, shall be entitled to interest at the applicable rate or rates payable under this Agreement on the daily amount of funds employed by Swing Lender, Agent, or the Lenders, as applicable.

(iv) Anything in this Section 2.3(e) to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that a Lender is a Defaulting Lender, Agent shall be entitled to refrain from remitting settlement amounts to the Defaulting Lender and, instead, shall be entitled to elect to implement the provisions set forth in Section 2.3(g).

(f) Notation. Agent, as a non-fiduciary agent for Borrowers, shall maintain a register showing the principal amount of the Revolving Loans, owing to each Lender, including the Swing Loans owing to Swing Lender, and Extraordinary Advances owing to Agent, and the interests therein of each Lender, from time to time and such register shall, absent manifest error, conclusively be presumed to be correct and accurate.

(g) Defaulting Lenders.

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.4(b)(ii), Agent shall not be obligated to transfer to a Defaulting Lender any payments made by Borrowers to Agent for the Defaulting Lender's benefit or any proceeds of Collateral that would otherwise be remitted hereunder to the Defaulting Lender, and, in the absence of such transfer to the Defaulting Lender, Agent shall transfer any such payments (A) first, to Agent to the extent of any Extraordinary Advances that were made by Agent and that were required to be, but were not, paid by Defaulting Lender, (B) second, to Swing Lender to the extent of any Swing Loans that were made by Swing Lender and that were required to be, but were not, paid by the Defaulting Lender, (C) third, to Issuing Lender, to the extent of the portion of a Letter of Credit Disbursement that was required to be, but was not, paid by the Defaulting Lender, (D) fourth, to each Non-Defaulting Lender ratably in accordance with their Commitments (but, in each case, only to the extent that such Defaulting Lender's portion of a Revolving Loan (or other funding obligation) was funded by such other Non-Defaulting Lender), (E) fifth, in Agent's sole discretion, to a suspense account maintained by Agent, the proceeds of which may be retained by Agent and may be made available to be re-advanced to or for the benefit of Borrowers (upon the request of Administrative Borrower and subject to the conditions set forth in Section 3.2) as if such Defaulting Lender had made its portion of Revolving Loans (or other funding obligations) hereunder, and (F) sixth, from and after the date on which all other Obligations have been paid in full, to such Defaulting Lender in accordance with tier (L) of Section 2.4(b)(ii). Subject to the foregoing, Agent may hold and, in its discretion, prior to the occurrence and continuance of an Application Event, re-lend to Borrowers for the account of such Defaulting Lender the amount of all such payments received and retained by Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender. Solely for the purposes of voting or consenting to matters with respect to the Loan Documents (including the calculation of Pro Rata Share in connection therewith) and for the purpose of calculating the fee payable under Section 2.10(b), such Defaulting Lender shall be deemed not to be a “Lender” and such Lender’s Commitment shall be deemed to be zero; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply to any of the matters governed by Section 14.1(a)(i) through (iii). The provisions of this Section 2.3(g) shall remain effective with respect to such Defaulting Lender until the earlier of (y) the date on which all of the Non-Defaulting Lenders, Agent, Issuing Lender, and Borrowers shall have waived, in writing, the application of this Section 2.3(g) to such Defaulting Lender, or (z) the date on which such Defaulting Lender makes payment of all amounts that it was obligated to fund hereunder, pays to Agent all amounts owing by Defaulting Lender in respect of the amounts that it was obligated to fund hereunder, and, if requested by Agent, provides adequate assurance of its ability to perform its future obligations hereunder (on which earlier date, so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any remaining cash collateral held by Agent pursuant to Section 2.3(g)(ii) shall be released to Borrowers). The operation of this Section 2.3(g) shall not be construed to increase or otherwise affect the Commitment of any Lender, to relieve or excuse the performance by such Defaulting Lender or any other Lender of its duties and obligations hereunder, or to relieve or excuse the performance by Borrowers of their duties and obligations hereunder to Agent, Issuing Lender, or to the Lenders other than such Defaulting Lender. Any failure by a Defaulting Lender to fund amounts that it was obligated to fund hereunder shall constitute a material breach by such Defaulting Lender of this Agreement and shall entitle Borrowers, at their option, upon written notice to Agent, to arrange for a substitute Lender to assume the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender, such substitute Lender to be reasonably acceptable to Agent. In connection with the arrangement of such a substitute Lender, the Defaulting Lender shall have no right to refuse to be replaced hereunder, and agrees to execute and deliver a completed form of Assignment and Acceptance in favor of the substitute Lender (and agrees that it shall be deemed to have executed and delivered such document if it fails to do so) subject only to being paid its share of the outstanding Obligations (other than Bank Product Obligations, but including (1) all interest, fees, and other amounts that may be due and payable in respect thereof, and (2) an assumption of its Pro Rata Share of its participation in the Letters of Credit); provided, that any such assumption of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the Lender Groups’ or Borrowers’ rights or remedies against any such Defaulting Lender arising out of or in relation to such failure to fund. In the event of a direct conflict between the priority provisions of this Section 2.3(g) and any other provision contained in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, it is the intention of the parties hereto that such provisions be read together and construed, to the fullest extent possible, to be in concert with each other. In the event of any actual, irreconcilable conflict that cannot be resolved as aforesaid, the terms and provisions of this Section 2.3(g) shall control and govern.

(ii) If any Swing Loan or Letter of Credit is outstanding at the time that a Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender then:

(A) such Defaulting Lender's Swing Loan Exposure and Letter of Credit Exposure shall be reallocated among the Non-Defaulting Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares but only to the extent (x) the sum of all Non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Loan Exposures plus such Defaulting Lender's Swing Loan Exposure and Letter of Credit Exposure does not exceed the total of all Non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolver Commitments, (y) the sum of each Non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Loan Exposures plus its Pro Rata Share of such Defaulting Lender's Swing Loan Exposure and Letter of Credit Exposure does not exceed such Non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolver Commitments, and (z) the conditions set forth in Section 3.2 are satisfied at such time;

(B) if the reallocation described in clause (A) above cannot, or can only partially, be effected, Borrowers shall within one Business Day following notice by the Agent (x) first, prepay such Defaulting Lender's Swing Loan Exposure (after giving effect to any partial reallocation pursuant to clause (A) above) and (y) second, cash collateralize such Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure (after giving effect to any partial reallocation pursuant to clause (A) above), pursuant to a cash collateral agreement to be entered into in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Agent, for so long as such Letter of Credit Exposure is outstanding; provided, that Borrowers shall not be obligated to cash collateralize any Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure if such Defaulting Lender is also the Issuing Lender;

(C) if Borrowers cash collateralizes any portion of such Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure pursuant to this Section 2.3(g)(ii), Borrowers shall not be required to pay any Letter of Credit Fees to Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 2.6(b) with respect to such cash collateralized portion of such Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure during the period such Letter of Credit Exposure is cash collateralized;

(D) to the extent the Letter of Credit Exposure of the Non-Defaulting Lenders is reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.3(g)(ii), then the Letter of Credit Fees payable to the Non-Defaulting Lenders pursuant to Section 2.6(b) shall be adjusted in accordance with such Non-Defaulting Lenders' Letter of Credit Exposure;

(E) to the extent any Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure is neither cash collateralized nor reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.3(g)(ii), then, without prejudice to any rights or remedies of the Issuing Lender or any Lender hereunder, all Letter of Credit Fees that would have otherwise been payable to such Defaulting Lender under Section 2.6(b) with respect to such portion of such Letter of Credit Exposure shall instead be payable to the Issuing Lender until such portion of such Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure is cash collateralized or reallocated;

(F) so long as any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, the Swing Lender shall not be required to make any Swing Loan and the Issuing Lender shall not be required to issue, amend, or increase any Letter of Credit, in each case, to the extent (x) the Defaulting Lender's Pro Rata Share of such Swing Loans or Letter of Credit cannot be reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.3(g)(ii) or (y) the Swing Lender or Issuing Lender, as applicable, has not otherwise entered into arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Swing Lender or Issuing Lender, as applicable, and Borrowers to eliminate the Swing Lender's or Issuing Lender's risk with respect to the Defaulting Lender's participation in Swing Loans or Letters of Credit; and

(G) Agent may release any cash collateral provided by Borrowers pursuant to this Section 2.3(g)(ii) to the Issuing Lender and the Issuing Lender may apply any such cash collateral to the payment of such Defaulting Lender's Pro Rata Share of any Letter of Credit Disbursement that is not reimbursed by Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.11(a).

(h) Independent Obligations. All Revolving Loans (other than Swing Loans, Protective Advances and, at Agent's election, Overadvances) shall be made by the Lenders contemporaneously and in accordance with their Pro Rata Shares. It is understood that (i) no Lender shall be responsible for any failure by any other Lender to perform its obligation to make any Revolving Loan (or other extension of credit) hereunder, nor shall any Commitment of any Lender be increased or decreased as a result of any failure by any other Lender to perform its obligations hereunder, and (ii) no failure by any Lender to perform its obligations hereunder shall excuse any other Lender from its obligations hereunder.

2.4. Payments; Reductions of Commitments; Prepayments.

(a) Payments by Borrowers.

(i) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by Borrowers shall be made to Agent's Account for the account of the Lender Group and shall be made in immediately available funds, no later than 1:30 p.m. on the date specified herein. Any payment received by Agent later than 1:30 p.m. shall be deemed to have been received (unless Agent, in its sole discretion, elects to credit it on the date received) on the following Business Day and any applicable interest or fee shall continue to accrue until such following Business Day.

(ii) Unless Agent receives notice from Administrative Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Lenders that Borrowers will not make such payment in full as and when required, Agent may assume that Borrowers have made (or will make) such payment in full to Agent on such date in immediately available funds and Agent may (but shall not be so required), in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to each Lender on such due date an amount equal to the amount then due such Lender. If and to the extent Borrowers do not make such payment in full to Agent on the date when due, each Lender severally shall repay to Agent on demand such amount distributed to such Lender, together with interest thereon at the Defaulting Lender Rate for each day from the date such amount is distributed to such Lender until the date repaid.

(b) Apportionment and Application.

(i) So long as no Application Event has occurred and is continuing and except as otherwise provided herein with respect to Defaulting Lenders, all principal and interest payments received by Agent shall be apportioned ratably among the Lenders (according to the unpaid principal balance of the Obligations to which such payments relate held by each Lender) and all payments of fees and expenses received by Agent (other than fees or expenses that are for Agent's separate account or for the separate account of any Co-Collateral Agent or for the separate account of Issuing Lender) shall be apportioned ratably among the Lenders having a Pro Rata Share of the type of Commitment or Obligation to which a particular fee or expense relates. Subject to Section 2.4(b)(iv) and Section 2.4(e), all payments to be made hereunder by Borrowers shall be remitted to Agent and all such payments, and all proceeds of Collateral received by Agent, shall be applied, so long as no Application Event has occurred and is continuing and except as otherwise provided herein with respect to Defaulting Lenders, first, to reduce the balance of the Existing Secured Obligations in the manner set forth in the Existing Loan Agreement, second, to reduce the balance of the Revolving Loans outstanding and, third, to Borrowers (to be wired to the Designated Account) or such other Person entitled thereto under applicable law.

(ii) At any time that an Application Event has occurred and is continuing and except as otherwise provided herein with respect to Defaulting Lenders, all payments remitted to Agent and all proceeds of Collateral received by Agent shall be applied as follows:

(A) first, to reduce the balance of the Existing Secured Obligations in the manner set forth in the Existing Loan Agreement,

(B) second, to pay any Lender Group Expenses (including cost or expense reimbursements) or indemnities then due to Agent and Co-Collateral Agents under the Loan Documents, until paid in full,

(C) third, to pay any fees or premiums then due to Agent and Co-Collateral Agents under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(D) fourth, to pay interest due in respect of all Protective Advances until paid in full,

(E) fifth, to pay the principal of all Protective Advances until paid in full,

(F) sixth, ratably, to pay any Lender Group Expenses (including cost or expense reimbursements) or indemnities then due to any of the Lenders under the Loan Documents, until paid in full,

(G) seventh, ratably, to pay any fees or premiums then due to any of the Lenders under the Loan Documents until paid in full,

(H) eighth, to pay interest accrued in respect of the Swing Loans until paid in full,

(I) ninth, to pay the principal of all Swing Loans until paid in full,

(J) tenth, ratably, to pay interest accrued in respect of the Revolving Loans until paid in full,

(K) eleventh, ratably

i. to pay the principal of all Revolving Loans until paid in full,

ii. to Agent, to be held by Agent, for the benefit of Issuing Lender (and for the ratable benefit of each of the Lenders that have an obligation to pay to Agent, for the account of Issuing Lender, a share of each Letter of Credit Disbursement), as cash collateral in an amount up to 110% of the Letter of Credit Usage (to the extent permitted by applicable law, such cash collateral shall be applied to the reimbursement of any Letter of Credit Disbursement as and when such disbursement occurs and, if a Letter of Credit expires undrawn, the cash collateral held by Agent in respect of such Letter of Credit shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be reapplied pursuant to this Section 2.4(b)(ii), beginning with tier (A) hereof),

iii. ratably, up to the aggregate amount (after taking into account any amounts previously paid pursuant to this clause iii. during the continuation of the applicable Application Event) of the most recently established Bank Product Reserve, which amount was established prior to the occurrence of, and not in contemplation of, the subject Application Event, to Agent for the ratable benefit of the Bank Product Providers (such ratable benefit to be determined based on the ratio of the Bank Product Reserve established for each Bank Product of a Bank Product Provider to the aggregate Bank Product Reserve established for all Bank Products provided by all Bank Product Providers), to be either (I) disbursed by Agent to the Bank Product Providers based upon amounts then certified by the applicable Bank Product Provider to Agent (in form and substance satisfactory to Agent) to be due and payable to such Bank Product Providers on account of Bank Product Obligations or (II) held by Agent as cash collateral (which cash collateral may be released by Agent to the applicable Bank Product Provider and applied by such Bank Product Provider to the payment or reimbursement of any amounts due and payable with respect to Bank Product Obligations owed to the applicable Bank Product Provider as and when such amounts first become due and payable and, if and at such time as all such Bank Product Obligations are paid or otherwise satisfied in full, the cash collateral held by Agent in respect of such Bank Product Obligations shall be reapplied pursuant to this Section 2.4(b)(ii), beginning with tier (A) hereof,

(L) twelfth, ratably, to pay any other Obligations other than Obligations owed to Defaulting Lenders (including being paid, ratably, to the Bank Product Providers on account of all amounts then due and payable in respect of Bank Product Obligations, with any balance to be paid to Agent, to be held by Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Bank Product Providers, as cash collateral (which cash collateral may be released by Agent to the applicable Bank Product Provider and applied by such Bank Product Provider to the payment or reimbursement of any amounts due and payable with respect to Bank Product Obligations owed to the applicable Bank Product Provider as and when such amounts first become due and payable and, if and at such time as all such Bank Product Obligations are paid or otherwise satisfied in full, the cash collateral held by Agent in respect of such Bank Product Obligations shall be reapplied pursuant to this Section 2.4(b)(ii), beginning with tier (A) hereof),

(M) thirteenth, ratably to pay any Obligations owed to Defaulting Lenders; and

(N) fourteenth, to Borrowers (to be wired to the Designated Account) or such other Person entitled thereto under applicable law.

(iii) Agent promptly shall distribute to each Lender, pursuant to the applicable wire instructions received from each Lender in writing, such funds as it may be entitled to receive, subject to a Settlement delay as provided in Section 2.3(e).

(iv) In each instance, so long as no Application Event has occurred and is continuing, Section 2.4(b)(i) shall not apply to any payment made by Borrowers to Agent and specified by Borrowers to be for the payment of specific Obligations then due and payable (or prepayable) under any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(v) For purposes of Section 2.4(b)(ii), "paid in full" of a type of Obligation means payment in cash or immediately available funds of all amounts owing on account of such type of Obligation, including interest accrued after the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding, default interest, interest on interest, and expense reimbursements, irrespective of whether any of the foregoing would be or is allowed or disallowed in whole or in part in any Insolvency Proceeding.

(vi) In the event of a direct conflict between the priority provisions of this Section 2.4 and any other provision contained in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, it is the intention of the parties hereto that such provisions be read together and construed, to the fullest extent possible, to be in concert with each other. In the event of any actual, irreconcilable conflict that cannot be resolved as aforesaid, if the conflict relates to the provisions of Section 2.3(g) and this Section 2.4, then the provisions of Section 2.3(g) shall control and govern, and if otherwise, then the terms and provisions of this Section 2.4 shall control and govern.

(c) Reduction of Commitments. The Revolver Commitments shall terminate on the earlier of the Maturity Date or the Required Prepayment Date. With not less than 5 Business Days written notice to Agent, Borrowers may reduce the Revolver Commitments, without premium or penalty, to an amount not less than the sum of (A) the Revolver Usage as of such date, plus (B) the principal amount of all Revolving Loans not yet made as to which a request has been given by Borrowers under Section 2.3(a), plus (C) the amount of all Letters of Credit not yet issued as to which a request has been given by Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.11(a). Each such reduction shall be in an amount which is not less than $20,000,000 (unless the Revolver Commitments are being reduced to zero and the amount of the Revolver Commitments in effect immediately prior to such reduction are less than $20,000,000), shall be made by providing not less than 5 Business Days prior written notice to Agent, and shall be irrevocable. Once reduced, the Revolver Commitments may not be increased. Each such reduction of the Revolver Commitments shall reduce the Revolver Commitments of each Lender proportionately in accordance with its ratable share thereof.

(d) Optional Prepayments. With not less than 5 Business Days written notice to Agent, Borrowers may prepay the principal of any Revolving Loan at any time in whole or in part but with any amounts due under Section 2.12(b)(ii).

(e) Mandatory Prepayments.

(i) Borrowing Base. If, at any time, (A) the Revolver Usage on such date exceeds (B) the Borrowing Base reflected in the Borrowing Base Certificate most recently delivered by Borrowers to Agent, then Borrowers shall immediately prepay the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an aggregate amount equal to the amount of such excess.

(ii) Dispositions. Upon receipt by any Loan Party of the Net Cash Proceeds of any voluntary or involuntary sale or disposition by such Loan Party of ABL Priority Collateral (or if the Indebtedness under the Split Lien Documents has been paid in full, in accordance with the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral) (including casualty losses or condemnations but excluding sales or dispositions which qualify as Permitted Dispositions under clauses (b), (c), (d), or (f) of the definition of Permitted Dispositions), Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an amount equal to 100% of such Net Cash Proceeds (including condemnation awards and payments in lieu thereof) received by such Person in connection with such sales or dispositions. Nothing contained in this Section 2.4(e)(ii) shall permit Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to sell or otherwise dispose of any assets other than in accordance with Section 6.4.

(iii) Extraordinary Receipts. Upon receipt by any Loan Party of any Extraordinary Receipts constituting ABL Priority Collateral (or if the Indebtedness under the Split Lien Documents has been paid in full, in accordance with the Split Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the Collateral), Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an amount equal to 100% of such Extraordinary Receipts, net of any reasonable expenses incurred in collecting such Extraordinary Receipts.

(iv) Indebtedness. Within 1 Business Day of the date of incurrence by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries of any Indebtedness (other than Permitted Indebtedness), Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an amount equal to 50% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by such Person in connection with such incurrence. The provisions of this Section 2.4(e)(iv) shall not be deemed to be implied consent to any such incurrence otherwise prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(v) Equity. Within 1 Business Day of the date of the issuance by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries of any Equity Interests (other than the issuance of Equity Interest by a Subsidiary of Parent to a Loan Party), Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an amount equal to 50% of the Net Cash Proceeds received by such Person in connection with such issuance. The provisions of this Section 2.4(e)(v) shall not be deemed to be implied consent to any such issuance otherwise prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(vi) Business Interruption Insurance. Upon the receipt by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries of any proceeds of business interruption insurance, Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Obligations in accordance with Section 2.4(g) in an amount equal to 50% of the proceeds received by such Person in connection with such of business interruption insurance.

(vii) Disgorgement. In the event that the Lenders are required to repay or disgorge to Borrowers or any representatives of the Borrowers' estate (as agents, with derivative standing or otherwise) all or any portion of the Existing Secured Obligations authorized and directed to be repaid pursuant to the Financing Order, or any payment on account of the Existing Secured Obligations made to any Lender is rescinded for any reason whatsoever, including, but not limited to, as a result of any Avoidance Action, or any other action, suit, proceeding or claim brought under any other provision of any applicable Bankruptcy Code or any applicable state or provincial law, or any other similar provisions under any other state, federal or provincial statutory or common law (all such amounts being hereafter referred to as the "Avoided Payments"), then, in such event, Borrowers shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans in an amount equal to 100% of such Avoided Payments immediately upon receipt of the Avoided Payments by Borrowers or any representative of the Borrowers' estate.

(viii) Financing Orders. To the extent authorized by the Financing Orders, Borrowers shall prepay 100% of the Existing Secured Obligations outstanding at such time.

(f) Letter of Credit Obligations. In the event any Letters of Credit are outstanding at the time that the Revolver Commitments are terminated or Letters of Credit are required to be cash collateralized at any time pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, Borrowers shall deposit with Agent for the benefit of all Lenders cash in an amount equal to 110% of the aggregate outstanding obligations and Reimbursement Undertakings in connection with such Letters of Credit to be available to Agent to reimburse payments of drafts drawn under such Letters of Credit and pay any fees and expenses related thereto.

(g) Application of Payments. Each prepayment pursuant to Section 2.4(e) shall be applied in the manner set forth in Section 2.4(b)(ii). No prepayment under this Section 2.4(g) shall result in a permanent reduction of the Maximum Revolver Amount or the Revolver Commitments.

2.5. Promise to Pay. Borrowers agree to pay the Lender Group Expenses on the earlier of (a) the first day of the calendar month following the date on which the applicable Lender Group Expenses were first incurred or (b) the date on which demand therefor is made by Agent (it being acknowledged and agreed that any charging of such costs, expenses or Lender Group Expenses to the Loan Account pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(d) shall be deemed to constitute a demand for payment thereof for the purposes of this subclause (b)). Borrowers promise to pay all of the Obligations (including principal, interest, premiums, if any, fees, costs, and expenses (including Lender Group Expenses)) in full on the Maturity Date, the Required Prepayment Date or, if earlier, on the date on which the Obligations (other than the Bank Product Obligations) become due and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Borrowers agree that their obligations contained in the first sentence of this Section 2.5 shall survive payment or satisfaction in full of all other Obligations.

2.6. Interest Rates and Letter of Credit Fee: Rates, Payments, and Calculations.

(a) Interest Rates. Except as provided in Section 2.6(c), all Revolving Loans and all other Obligations (except for undrawn Letters of Credit) that have been charged to the Loan Account pursuant to the terms hereof shall bear interest as follows:

- (i) if the relevant Obligation is a LIBOR Rate Loan, at a per annum rate equal to the LIBOR Rate plus the LIBOR Rate Margin, and
- (ii) otherwise, at a per annum rate equal to the Base Rate plus the Base Rate Margin.

(b) Letter of Credit Fee. Borrowers shall pay Agent (for the ratable benefit of the Revolving Lenders), a Letter of Credit fee (the “Letter of Credit Fee”) (which fee shall be in addition to the fees, charges, commissions, and costs set forth in Section 2.11(j)) that shall accrue at a per annum rate equal to the LIBOR Rate Margin times the undrawn amount of all outstanding Letters of Credit.

(c) Default Rate. Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default and at the election of Agent or the Required Lenders,

- (i) all Revolving Loans and all other Obligations (except for undrawn Letters of Credit) that have been charged to the Loan Account pursuant to the terms hereof shall bear interest at a per annum rate equal to 3 percentage points above the per annum rate otherwise applicable thereunder, and
- (ii) the Letter of Credit Fee shall be increased to 3 percentage points above the per annum rate otherwise applicable hereunder.

(d) Payment. Except to the extent provided to the contrary in Section 2.10 or Section 2.12(a), (i) all interest, all Letter of Credit Fees, and all other fees payable hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents shall be due and payable, in arrears, on the first day of each month, and (ii) all costs and expenses payable hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, and all Lender Group Expenses shall be due and payable on the earlier of (x) the first day of the month following the date on which the applicable costs, expenses, or Lender Group Expenses were first incurred or (y) the date on which demand therefor is made by Agent (it being acknowledged and agreed that any charging of such costs, expenses or Lender Group Expenses to the Loan Account pursuant to the provisions of the following sentence shall be deemed to constitute a demand for payment thereof for the purposes of this subclause (y)). Borrowers hereby authorize Agent, from time to time without prior notice to Borrowers, to charge to the Loan Account (A) on the first day of each month, all interest accrued during the prior month on the Revolving Loans hereunder, (B) on the first day of each month, all Letter of Credit Fees accrued or chargeable hereunder during the prior month, (C) on the first day of each month, the Unused Line Fee accrued during the prior month pursuant to Section 2.10(b), (D) as and when incurred or accrued, all audit, appraisal, valuation, or other charges or fees payable hereunder, including pursuant to Section 2.10(a) and (c), (E) as and when due and payable, all other fees payable hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, (F) as and when incurred or accrued, all fees, charges, commissions, and costs provided for in Section 2.11(j), (G) as and when incurred or accrued, all other Lender Group Expenses, and (H) as and when due and payable all other payment obligations payable under any Loan Document or any Bank Product Agreement (including any amounts due and payable to the Bank Product Providers in respect of Bank Products). All amounts (including interest, fees, costs, expenses, Lender Group Expenses, or other amounts payable hereunder or under any other Loan Document or under any Bank Product Agreement) charged to the Loan Account shall thereupon constitute Revolving Loans hereunder, shall constitute Obligations hereunder, and shall initially accrue interest at the rate then applicable to Revolving Loans that are Base Rate Loans (unless and until converted into LIBOR Rate Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement).

(e) Computation. All interest and fees chargeable under the Loan Documents shall be computed on the basis of a 360 day year, in each case, for the actual number of days elapsed in the period during which the interest or fees accrue. In the event the Base Rate is changed from time to time hereafter, the rates of interest hereunder based upon the Base Rate automatically and immediately shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to such change in the Base Rate.

(f) Intent to Limit Charges to Maximum Lawful Rate . In no event shall the interest rate or rates payable under this Agreement, plus any other amounts paid in connection herewith, exceed the highest rate permissible under any law that a court of competent jurisdiction shall, in a final determination, deem applicable. Borrowers and the Lender Group, in executing and delivering this Agreement, intend legally to agree upon the rate or rates of interest and manner of payment stated within it; provided, that, anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if such rate or rates of interest or manner of payment exceeds the maximum allowable under applicable law, then, ipso facto, as of the date of this Agreement, Borrowers are and shall be liable only for the payment of such maximum amount as is allowed by law, and payment received from Borrowers in excess of such legal maximum, whenever received, shall be applied to reduce the principal balance of the Obligations to the extent of such excess.

2.7. Crediting Payments. The receipt of any payment item by Agent shall not be required to be considered a payment on account unless such payment item is a wire transfer of immediately available federal funds made to Agent's Account or unless and until such payment item is honored when presented for payment. Should any payment item not be honored when presented for payment, then Borrowers shall be deemed not to have made such payment and interest shall be calculated accordingly. Anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding, any payment item shall be deemed received by Agent only if it is received into Agent's Account on a Business Day on or before 1:30 p.m. If any payment item is received into Agent's Account on a non-Business Day or after 1:30 p.m. on a Business Day (unless Agent, in its sole discretion, elects to credit it on the date received), it shall be deemed to have been received by Agent as of the opening of business on the immediately following Business Day.

2.8. Designated Account. Agent is authorized to make the Revolving Loans, and Issuing Lender is authorized to issue the Letters of Credit, under this Agreement based upon telephonic or other instructions received from anyone purporting to be an Authorized Person or, without instructions, if pursuant to Section 2.6(d). Borrowers agree to establish and maintain the Designated Account with the Designated Account Bank for the purpose of receiving the proceeds of the Revolving Loans requested by Borrowers and made by Agent or the Lenders hereunder. Unless otherwise agreed by Agent and Borrowers, any Revolving Loan requested by Borrowers and made by Agent, Swing Lender or the Lenders hereunder shall be made to the Designated Account.

2.9. Maintenance of Loan Account; Statements of Obligations. Agent shall maintain an account on its books in the name of Borrowers (the "Loan Account") on which Borrowers will be charged with all Revolving Loans (including Extraordinary Advances and Swing Loans) made by Agent, Swing Lender, or the Lenders to Borrowers or for Borrowers' account, the Letters of Credit issued or arranged by Issuing Lender for Borrowers' account, and with all other payment Obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, including, accrued interest, fees and expenses, and Lender Group Expenses. In accordance with Section 2.7, the Loan Account will be credited with all payments received by Agent from Borrowers or for Borrowers' account. Agent shall make available to Borrowers monthly statements regarding the Loan Account, including the principal amount the Revolving Loans, interest accrued hereunder, fees accrued or charged hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, and a summary itemization of all charges and expenses constituting Lender Group Expenses accrued hereunder or under the other Loan Documents, and each such statement, absent manifest error, shall be conclusively presumed to be correct and accurate and constitute an account stated between Borrowers and the Lender Group unless, within 30 days after Agent first makes such a statement available to Borrowers, Borrowers shall deliver to Agent written objection thereto describing the error or errors contained in such statement.

2.10. Fees.

(a) Agent Fee. Borrowers shall pay to Agent, for the account of Agent, as and when due and payable under the terms of the Fee Letter, the agent fee set forth in the Fee Letter.

(b) Unused Line Fee. Borrowers shall pay to Agent, for the ratable amount of the Revolving Lenders, on the first day of each month from and after the Closing Date up to the first day of the month prior to the date on which the Obligations are paid in full and on the date on which the Obligations are paid in full, an unused line fee (the "Unused Line Fee") in an amount equal to the Applicable Unused Line Fee Percentage per annum times the result of (i) the aggregate amount of the Revolver Commitments, less (ii) the average amount of the Revolver Usage during the immediately preceding month (or portion thereof).

(c) Field Examination and Other Fees. Borrowers shall pay to Agent or either Co-Collateral Agent, as applicable, field examination, appraisal, and valuation fees and charges, as and when incurred or chargeable, as follows (i) a fee of $1,000 (or the then prevailing rate) per day, per examiner, plus out-of-pocket expenses (including travel, meals, and lodging) for each field examination of Loan Parties performed by personnel employed by any Co-Collateral Agent, and (ii) the fees or charges paid or incurred by any Co-Collateral Agent (but, in any event, no less than a charge of $1,000 per day, per Person, plus out-of-pocket expenses (including travel, meals, and lodging)) if it elects to employ the services of one or more third Persons to perform field examinations of Parent or its Subsidiaries, to establish electronic collateral reporting systems, to appraise the Collateral, or any portion thereof, to perform financial audits or quality of earnings analyses of Borrowers or their Subsidiaries, or to assess Parent's or its Subsidiaries' business valuation.

(d) Closing Fee. Borrowers shall pay to Agent, for the ratable account of the Lenders, as and when due and payable under the terms of the Fee Letter, the closing fee set forth in the Fee Letter. In addition, Borrowers shall pay to Agent, for the ratable benefit of the Revolving Lenders, an incremental facility fee of $500,000 fully earned upon the date hereof and payable hereunder upon the reduction of the Revolver Commitments substantially to zero or the early termination of the Revolver Commitments; provided, that, such fee shall be waived if the Existing Secured Obligations and the Obligations are paid in full with the proceeds of any sale of all or substantially all of the Loan Parties' assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, such fee shall not be waived if the Existing Secured Obligations and the Obligations are paid in full with proceeds from any other source, whether during the Bankruptcy Cases or under a plan of reorganization.

2.11. Letters of Credit.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon the request of Administrative Borrower made in accordance herewith, Issuing Lender agrees to issue, or to cause an Underlying Issuer (including, as Issuing Lender's agent) to issue, a requested Letter of Credit for the account of Borrowers. If Issuing Lender, at its option, elects to cause an Underlying Issuer to issue a requested Letter of Credit, then Issuing Lender agrees that it will enter into arrangements relative to the reimbursement of such Underlying Issuer (which may include, among other means, by becoming an applicant with respect to such Letter of Credit or entering into undertakings or other arrangements that provide for reimbursement of such Underlying Issuer with respect to such drawings under Letter of Credit; each such obligation or undertaking, irrespective of whether in writing, a "Reimbursement Undertaking") with respect to Letters of Credit issued by such Underlying Issuer for the account of Borrowers. By submitting a request to Issuing Lender for the issuance of a Letter of Credit, Borrowers shall be deemed to have requested that (i) Issuing Lender issue or (ii) an Underlying Issuer issue the requested Letter of Credit (and, in such case, to have requested Issuing Lender to issue a Reimbursement Undertaking with respect to such requested Letter of Credit). Each Borrower acknowledges and agrees that such Borrower is and shall be deemed to be an applicant (within the meaning of Section 5-102(a)(2) of the Code) with respect to each Underlying Letter of Credit. Each request for the issuance of a Letter of Credit, or the amendment, renewal, or extension of any outstanding Letter of Credit, shall be made in writing by an Authorized Person and delivered to Issuing Lender via hand delivery, telefacsimile, or other electronic method of transmission reasonably in advance of the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal, or extension. Each such request shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Issuing Lender and (i) shall specify (A) the amount of such Letter of Credit, (B) the date of issuance, amendment, renewal, or extension of such Letter of Credit, (C) the proposed expiration date of such Letter of Credit, (D) the name and address of the beneficiary of the Letter of Credit, and (E) such other information (including, the conditions to drawing, and, in the case of an amendment, renewal, or extension, identification of the Letter of Credit to be so amended, renewed, or extended) as shall be necessary to prepare, amend, renew, or extend such Letter of Credit, and (ii) shall be accompanied by such Issuer Documents as Agent, Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer may request or require, to the extent that such requests or requirements are consistent with the Issuer Documents that Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer generally requests for Letters of Credit in similar circumstances. Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, Issuing Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, issue or cause the issuance of a Letter of Credit or to issue a Reimbursement Undertaking in respect of an Underlying Letter of Credit, in either case, that supports the obligations of Parent or its Subsidiaries in respect of (A) a lease of real property to the extent that the face amount of such Letter of Credit or the amount of such Reimbursement Undertaking exceeds the highest rent (including all rent-like charges) payable under such lease for a period of one year, or (B) an employment contract to the extent that the face amount of such Letter of Credit or the amount of such Reimbursement Undertaking exceeds the highest compensation payable under such contract for a period of one year.

(b) Issuing Lender shall have no obligation to issue a Letter of Credit or a Reimbursement Undertaking in respect of an Underlying Letter of Credit, in either case, if any of the following would result after giving effect to the requested issuance:

(i) the Letter of Credit Usage would exceed $15,000,000, or

(ii) the Letter of Credit Usage would exceed the Maximum Revolver Amount less the Availability Reserve less the outstanding amount of Revolving Loans (including Swing Loans), or

(iii) the Letter of Credit Usage would exceed the Borrowing Base at such time less the outstanding principal balance of the Revolving Loans (inclusive of Swing Loans) at such time.

(c) In the event there is a Defaulting Lender as of the date of any request for the issuance of a Letter of Credit, the Issuing Lender shall not be required to issue or arrange for such Letter of Credit to the extent (x) the Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure with respect to such Letter of Credit may not be reallocated pursuant to Section 2.3(g)(ii) or (y) the Issuing Lender has not otherwise entered into arrangements reasonably satisfactory to it and Borrowers to eliminate the Issuing Lender's risk with respect to the participation in such Letter of Credit of the Defaulting Lender, which arrangements may include Borrowers cash collateralizing such Defaulting Lender's Letter of Credit Exposure in accordance with Section 2.3(g)(ii). Additionally, Issuing Lender shall have no obligation to issue a Letter of Credit or a Reimbursement Undertaking in respect of an Underlying Letter of Credit, in either case, if (I) any order, judgment, or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall, by its terms, purport to enjoin or restrain Issuing Lender from issuing such Letter of Credit or Reimbursement Undertaking or Underlying Issuer from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any law applicable to Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer shall prohibit or request that Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer refrain from the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit or Reimbursement Undertaking (as applicable) in particular, or (II) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of Issuing Lender or Underlying Issuer applicable to letters of credit generally.

(d) Any Issuing Lender (other than Wells Fargo or any of its Affiliates) shall notify Agent in writing no later than the Business Day immediately following the Business Day on which such Issuing Lender issued any Letter of Credit; provided that (y) until Agent advises any such Issuing Lender that the provisions of Section 3.2 are not satisfied, or (z) the aggregate amount of the Letters of Credit issued in any such week exceeds such amount as shall be agreed by Agent and such Issuing Lender, such Issuing Lender shall be required to so notify Agent in writing only once each week of the Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Lender during the immediately preceding week as well as the daily amounts outstanding for the prior week, such notice to be furnished on such day of the week as Agent and such Issuing Lender may agree. Each Letter of Credit shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Issuing Lender, including the requirement that the amounts payable thereunder must be payable in Dollars. If Issuing Lender makes a payment under a Letter of Credit or an Underlying Issuer makes a payment under an Underlying Letter of Credit, Borrowers shall pay to Agent an amount equal to the applicable Letter of Credit Disbursement on the date such Letter of Credit Disbursement is made and, in the absence of such payment, the amount of the Letter of Credit Disbursement immediately and automatically shall be deemed to be a Revolving Loan hereunder (notwithstanding any failure to satisfy any condition precedent set forth in Section 3) and, initially, shall bear interest at the rate then applicable to Revolving Loans that are Base Rate Loans. If a Letter of Credit Disbursement is deemed to be a Revolving Loan hereunder, Borrowers' obligation to pay the amount of such Letter of Credit Disbursement to Issuing Lender shall be automatically converted into an obligation to pay the resulting Revolving Loan. Promptly following receipt by Agent of any payment from Borrowers pursuant to this paragraph, Agent shall distribute such payment to Issuing Lender or, to the extent that Lenders have made payments pursuant to Section 2.11(b) to reimburse Issuing Lender, then to such Lenders and Issuing Lender as their interests may appear.

(e) Promptly following receipt of a notice of a Letter of Credit Disbursement pursuant to Section 2.11(a), each Revolving Lender agrees to fund its Pro Rata Share of any Revolving Loan deemed made pursuant to Section 2.11(a) on the same terms and conditions as if Borrowers had requested the amount thereof as a Revolving Loan and Agent shall promptly pay to Issuing Lender the amounts so received by it from the Lenders. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit or a Reimbursement Undertaking (or an amendment, renewal, or extension of a Letter of Credit or a Reimbursement Undertaking) and without any further action on the part of Issuing Lender or the Revolving Lenders, Issuing Lender shall be deemed to have granted to each Revolving Lender, and each Revolving Lender shall be deemed to have purchased, a participation in each Letter of Credit issued by Issuing Lender and each Reimbursement Undertaking, in an amount equal to its Pro Rata Share of such Letter of Credit or Reimbursement Undertaking, and each such Lender agrees to pay to Agent, for the account of Issuing Lender, such Lender's Pro Rata Share of any Letter of Credit Disbursement made by Issuing Lender or an Underlying Issuer under the applicable Letter of Credit. In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to Agent, for the account of Issuing Lender, such Lender's Pro Rata Share of each Letter of Credit Disbursement made by Issuing Lender or an Underlying Issuer and not reimbursed by Borrowers on the date due as provided in Section 2.11(a), or of any reimbursement payment this is required to be refunded (or that Agent or Issuing Lender elects, based upon the advice of counsel, to refund) to Borrowers for any reason. Each Revolving Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to deliver to Agent, for the account of Issuing Lender, an amount equal to its respective Pro Rata Share of each Letter of Credit Disbursement pursuant to this Section 2.11(b) shall be absolute and unconditional and such remittance shall be made notwithstanding the occurrence or continuation of an Event of Default or Default or the failure to satisfy any condition set forth in Section 3. If any such Lender fails to make available to Agent the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share of a Letter of Credit Disbursement as provided in this Section, such Lender shall be deemed to be a Defaulting Lender and Agent (for the account of Issuing Lender) shall be entitled to recover such amount on demand from such Lender together with interest thereon at the Defaulting Lender Rate until paid in full.

(f) Borrowers hereby agree to indemnify, save, defend, and hold the Lender Group and each Underlying Issuer harmless from any damage, loss, cost, expense, or liability (other than Taxes, which shall be governed by Section 16), and reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or any Underlying Issuer arising out of or in connection with any Reimbursement Undertaking or any Letter of Credit; provided, that Borrowers shall not be obligated hereunder to indemnify the Lender Group or any Underlying Issuer for any loss, cost, expense, or liability that a court of competent jurisdiction finally determines to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or any Underlying Issuer. Borrowers agree to be bound by the Underlying Issuer's regulations and interpretations of any Letter of Credit or by Issuing Lender's interpretations of any Reimbursement Undertaking even though this interpretation may be different from any Borrower's own. Borrowers understand that the Reimbursement Undertakings may require Issuing Lender to indemnify the Underlying Issuer for certain costs or liabilities arising out of claims by Borrowers against such Underlying Issuer. Borrowers hereby agree to indemnify, save, defend, and hold Issuing Lender and the other members of the Lender Group harmless with respect to any loss, cost, expense (including reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and expenses), or liability (other than Taxes, which shall be governed by Section 16) incurred by them as a result of Issuing Lender's indemnification of an Underlying Issuer; provided, that Borrowers shall not be obligated hereunder to indemnify for any such loss, cost, expense, or liability that a court of competent jurisdiction finally determines to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Issuing Lender or any other member of the Lender Group.

(g) Each Lender and Borrowers agree that, in paying any drawing under a Letter of Credit, neither Issuing Lender nor any Underlying Issuer (as applicable) shall have any responsibility to obtain any document (other than any sight draft, certificates and documents expressly required by the Letter of Credit or the Underlying Letter of Credit (as applicable)) or to ascertain or inquire as to the validity or accuracy of any such document or the authority of the Person executing or delivering any such document. None of Issuing Lender, any Underlying Issuer, Agent, any of the Lender-Related Persons or Agent-Related Persons, nor any correspondent, participant or assignee of Issuing Lender shall be liable to any Lender or any Loan Party for (i) any action taken or omitted in connection herewith at the request or with the approval of the Lenders or the Required Lenders, as applicable; (ii) any action taken or omitted in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct; (iii) any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit or any error in interpretation of technical terms; or (iv) the due execution, effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any document or instrument related to any Letter of Credit or Issuer Document. Each Borrower hereby assumes all risks of the acts or omissions of any beneficiary or transferee with respect to its use of any Letter of Credit; provided, that this assumption is not intended to, and shall not, preclude Borrowers from pursuing such rights and remedies as it may have against the beneficiary or transferee at law or under any other agreement. None of Issuing Lender, any Underlying Issuer, Agent, any of the Lender-Related Persons or Agent-Related Persons, nor any correspondent, participant or assignee of Issuing Lender or any Underlying Issuer shall be liable or responsible for any of the matters described in clauses (i) through (vi) of Section 2.11(h) or for any action, neglect or omission under or in connection with any Letter of Credit or Issuer Document, including in connection with the issuance or any amendment of any Letter of Credit, the failure to issue or amend any Letter of Credit, the honoring or dishonoring of any demand under any Letter of Credit, or the following of any Borrower's instructions or those contained in the Letter of Credit or any modifications, amendments, or supplements thereto, and such action or neglect or omission will bind Borrowers. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, Issuing Lender and each Underlying Issuer may accept documents that appear on their face to be in order, without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary (or Issuing Lender and any Underlying Issuer may refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit and may disregard any requirement in a Letter of Credit that notice of dishonor be given in a particular manner and any requirement that presentation be made at a particular place or by a particular time of day), and neither Issuing Lender nor any Underlying Issuer shall be responsible for the validity or sufficiency of any instrument transferring or assigning or purporting to transfer or assign a Letter of Credit or the rights or benefits thereunder or proceeds thereof, in whole or in part, which may prove to be invalid or ineffective for any reason. Neither Issuing Lender nor any Underlying Issuer shall be responsible for the wording of any Letter of Credit (including any drawing conditions or any terms or conditions that are ineffective, ambiguous, inconsistent, unduly complicated or reasonably impossible to satisfy), notwithstanding any assistance Issuing Lender or any Underlying Issuer may provide to Borrowers with drafting or recommending text for any letter of credit application or with the structuring of any transaction related to any Letter of Credit, and Borrowers hereby acknowledge and agree that any such assistance will not constitute legal or other advice by Issuing Lender or any Underlying Issuer or any representation or warranty by Issuing Lender or any Underlying Issuer that any such wording or such Letter of Credit will be effective. Without limiting the foregoing, Issuing Lender or any Underlying Issuer may, as it deems appropriate, use in any Letter of Credit any portion of the language prepared by any Borrower and contained in the letter of credit application relative to drawings under such Letter of Credit. Borrowers hereby acknowledge and agree that neither any Underlying Issuer nor any member of the Lender Group shall be responsible for delays, errors, or omissions resulting from the malfunction of equipment in connection with any Letter of Credit.

(h) The obligation of Borrowers to reimburse Issuing Lender for each drawing under each Letter of Credit shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be paid strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under all circumstances, including the following:

(i) any lack of validity or enforceability of such Letter of Credit, this Agreement, or any other Loan Document,

(ii) the existence of any claim, counterclaim, setoff, defense or other right that Parent or any of its Subsidiaries may have at any time against any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit (or any Person for whom any such beneficiary or any such transferee may be acting), Issuing Lender or any other Person, whether in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or by such Letter of Credit or any agreement or instrument relating thereto, or any unrelated transaction,

(iii) any draft, demand, certificate or other document presented under such Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, or any loss or delay in the transmission or otherwise of any document required in order to make a drawing under such Letter of Credit,

(iv) any payment by Issuing Lender under such Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or certificate that does not substantially or strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit (including, without limitation, any requirement that presentation be made at a particular place or by a particular time of day), or any payment made by Issuing Lender under such Letter of Credit to any Person purporting to be a trustee in bankruptcy, debtor-in-possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, liquidator, receiver or other representative of or successor to any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit,

(v) any other circumstance or happening whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, including any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or discharge of, Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, or

(vi) the fact that any Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

(i) Borrowers hereby authorize and direct any Underlying Issuer to deliver to Issuing Lender all instruments, documents, and other writings and property received by such Underlying Issuer pursuant to such Underlying Letter of Credit and to accept and rely upon Issuing Lender's instructions with respect to all matters arising in connection with such Underlying Letter of Credit and the related application.

(j) Borrowers acknowledge and agree that any and all fees, charges, costs, or commissions in effect from time to time, of Issuing Lender relating to Letters of Credit or incurred by Issuing Lender relating to Underlying Letters of Credit, upon the issuance of any Letter of Credit, upon the payment or negotiation of any drawing under any Letter of Credit, or upon the occurrence of any other activity with respect to any Letter of Credit (including the transfer, amendment, or cancellation of any Letter of Credit), together with any and all fronting fees in effect from time to time related to Letters of Credit, shall be Lender Group Expenses for purposes of this Agreement and shall be reimbursable immediately by Borrowers to Agent for the account of Issuing Lender; it being acknowledged and agreed by Borrowers that, as of the Closing Date, Issuing Lender is entitled to charge Borrowers a fronting fee of 0.25% per annum times the undrawn amount of each Underlying Letter of Credit and that such fronting fee may be changed by Issuing Lender from time to time without notice.

(k) If by reason of (i) any change after the Closing Date in any applicable law, treaty, rule, or regulation or any change in the interpretation or application thereof by any Governmental Authority, or (ii) compliance by Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or Underlying Issuer with any direction, request, or requirement (irrespective of whether having the force of law) of any Governmental Authority or monetary authority including, Regulation D of the Board of Governors as from time to time in effect (and any successor thereto):

(i) any reserve, deposit, or similar requirement is or shall be imposed or modified in respect of any Letter of Credit issued or caused to be issued hereunder or hereby, or

(ii) there shall be imposed on Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or Underlying Issuer any other condition regarding any Letter of Credit or Reimbursement Undertaking, and the result of the foregoing is to increase, directly or indirectly, the cost to Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or an Underlying Issuer of issuing, making, participating in, or maintaining any Reimbursement Undertaking or Letter of Credit or to reduce the amount receivable in respect thereof, then, and in any such case, Agent may, at any time within a reasonable period after the additional cost is incurred or the amount received is reduced, notify Administrative Borrower, and Borrowers shall pay on demand, such amounts as Agent may specify to be necessary to compensate Issuing Lender, any other member of the Lender Group, or an Underlying Issuer for such additional cost or reduced receipt, together with interest on such amount from the date of such demand until payment in full thereof at the rate then applicable to Base Rate Loans hereunder. The determination by Agent of any amount due pursuant to this Section 2.11(k), as set forth in a certificate setting forth the calculation thereof in reasonable detail, shall, in the absence of manifest or demonstrable error, be final and conclusive and binding on all of the parties hereto.

(l) Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Issuing Lender and Borrowers when a Letter of Credit is issued, (i) the rules of the ISP and the UCP 600 shall apply to each standby Letter of Credit, and (ii) the rules of the UCP 600 shall apply to each commercial Letter of Credit.

(m) In the event of a direct conflict between the provisions of this Section 2.11 and any provision contained in any Issuer Document, it is the intention of the parties hereto that such provisions be read together and construed, to the fullest extent possible, to be in concert with each other. In the event of any actual, irreconcilable conflict that cannot be resolved as aforesaid, the terms and provisions of this Section 2.11 shall control and govern.

(n) Schedule 2.11 hereto contains a list of all letters of credit outstanding on the Filing Date pursuant to the Existing Loan Agreement. For the period from and after the effective date of the Interim Order, each such letter of credit set forth on Schedule 2.11, including any extension or renewal thereof, that remains outstanding on the effective date of the Interim Order (each, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof and hereof, an “Existing Letter of Credit”) shall be deemed Letters of Credit re-issued hereunder for the account of Borrowers, for all purposes of this Agreement, including, without limitation, calculations of Availability, the Borrowing Base, Letter of Credit Usage and all other fees and expenses relating to the Letters of Credit (including any related indemnification obligations). Issuing Lender hereby assumes and agrees to perform any and all duties, obligations and liabilities to be performed or discharged by the issuers of the Existing Letters of Credit. Borrowers agree to execute and deliver such documentation, if any, requested by Agent, or an Issuing Lender to evidence, record, or further the foregoing deemed re-issuance.

(o) The expiration date of each Letter of Credit, other than the Existing Letters of Credit, shall be on a date that is not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the Maturity Date unless Borrower provides cash collateral for the obligations and Reimbursement Undertakings associated with such Letters of Credit in the manner set forth in Section 2.4(f) hereof; provided, that a Letter of Credit may provide for automatic extensions of its expiration date for one (1) or more successive periods of up to twelve (12) months for each period; provided, further, that the applicable Issuing Lender has the right to terminate such Letter of Credit on each such expiration date and no renewal term may extend the term of the Letter of Credit to a date that is later than the fifteenth (15th) day prior to the Maturity Date unless Borrowers provide cash collateral for the obligations and Reimbursement Undertakings associated with such Letters of Credit in the amount set forth in Section 2.4(f). Upon direction by Agent or Required Lenders, the applicable Issuing Lender shall not renew any such Letter of Credit at any time during the continuance of an Event of Default; provided, that in the case of a direction by Agent or Required Lenders, the Issuing Lender receives such directions prior to the date notice of non-renewal is required to be given by the Issuing Lender and the Issuing Lender has had a reasonable period of time to act on such notice.

2.12. LIBOR Option.

(a) Interest and Interest Payment Dates. In lieu of having interest charged at the rate based upon the Base Rate, Borrowers shall have the option, subject to Section 2.12(b) below (the “LIBOR Option”) to have interest on all or a portion of the Revolving Loans be charged (whether at the time when made (unless otherwise provided herein), upon conversion from a Base Rate Loan to a LIBOR Rate Loan, or upon continuation of a LIBOR Rate Loan as a LIBOR Rate Loan) at a rate of interest based upon the LIBOR Rate. Interest on LIBOR Rate Loans shall be payable on the earliest of (i) the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto; provided, that, subject to the following clauses (ii) and (iii), in the case of any Interest Period greater than 3 months in duration, interest shall be payable at 3 month intervals after the commencement of the applicable Interest Period and on the last day of such Interest Period), (ii) the date on which all or any portion of the Obligations are accelerated pursuant to the terms hereof, or (iii) the date on which this Agreement is terminated pursuant to the terms hereof. On the last day of each applicable Interest Period, unless Borrowers properly have exercised the LIBOR Option with respect thereto, the interest rate applicable to such LIBOR Rate Loan automatically shall convert to the rate of interest then applicable to Base Rate Loans of the same type hereunder. At any time that an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, at the written election of the Required Lenders, Borrowers no longer shall have the option to request that Revolving Loans bear interest at a rate based upon the LIBOR Rate.

(b) LIBOR Election.

(i) Borrowers may, at any time and from time to time, so long as Administrative Borrower has not received a notice from Agent (which notice Agent may elect to give or not give in its discretion unless Agent is directed to give such notice by the Required Lenders, in which case, it shall give the notice to Administrative Borrower), after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, to terminate the right of Borrowers to exercise the LIBOR Option during the continuance of such Event of Default, elect to exercise the LIBOR Option by notifying Agent prior to 11:00 a.m. at least 3 Business Days prior to the commencement of the proposed Interest Period (the "LIBOR Deadline"). Notice of Borrowers' election of the LIBOR Option for a permitted portion of the Revolving Loans and an Interest Period pursuant to this Section shall be made by delivery to Agent of a LIBOR Notice received by Agent before the LIBOR Deadline, or by telephonic notice received by Agent before the LIBOR Deadline (to be confirmed by delivery to Agent of a LIBOR Notice received by Agent prior to 5:00 p.m. on the same day). Promptly upon its receipt of each such LIBOR Notice, Agent shall provide a copy thereof to each of the affected Lenders.

(ii) Each LIBOR Notice shall be irrevocable and binding on Borrowers. In connection with each LIBOR Rate Loan, Borrowers shall indemnify, defend, and hold Agent and the Lenders harmless against any loss, cost, or expense actually incurred by Agent or any Lender as a result of (A) the payment of any principal of any LIBOR Rate Loan other than on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), (B) the conversion of any LIBOR Rate Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, or (C) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any LIBOR Rate Loan on the date specified in any LIBOR Notice delivered pursuant hereto (such losses, costs, or expenses, "Funding Losses"). A certificate of Agent or a Lender delivered to Administrative Borrower setting forth in reasonable detail any amount or amounts that Agent or such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.12 shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Borrowers shall pay such amount to Agent or the Lender, as applicable, within 30 days of the date of its receipt of such certificate. If a payment of a LIBOR Rate Loan on a day other than the last day of the applicable Interest Period would result in a Funding Loss, Agent may, in its sole discretion at the request of Administrative Borrower, hold the amount of such payment as cash collateral in support of the Obligations until the last day of such Interest Period and apply such amounts to the payment of the applicable LIBOR Rate Loan on such last day, it being agreed that Agent has no obligation to so defer the application of payments to any LIBOR Rate Loan and that, in the event that Agent does not defer such application, Borrowers shall be obligated to pay any resulting Funding Losses.

(iii) Unless Agent, in its sole discretion, agrees otherwise, Borrowers shall have not more than 5 LIBOR Rate Loans in effect at any given time. Borrowers only may exercise the LIBOR Option for proposed LIBOR Rate Loans of at least $1,000,000.

(c) Conversion. Borrowers may convert LIBOR Rate Loans to Base Rate Loans at any time; provided, that in the event that LIBOR Rate Loans are converted or prepaid on any date that is not the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, including as a result of any prepayment through the required application by Agent of any payments or proceeds of Collateral in accordance with Section 2.4(b) or for any other reason, including early termination of the term of this Agreement or acceleration of all or any portion of the Obligations pursuant to the terms hereof, Borrowers shall indemnify, defend, and hold Agent and the Lenders and their Participants harmless against any and all Funding Losses in accordance with Section 2.12 (b)(ii).

(d) Special Provisions Applicable to LIBOR Rate .

(i) The LIBOR Rate may be adjusted by Agent with respect to any Lender on a prospective basis to take into account any additional or increased costs to such Lender of maintaining or obtaining any eurodollar deposits or increased costs, in each case, due to changes in applicable law (other than changes in laws relative to Taxes, which shall be governed by Section 16) occurring subsequent to the commencement of the then applicable Interest Period, including changes in tax laws (except changes of general applicability in corporate income tax laws) and changes in the reserve requirements imposed by the Board of Governors, which additional or increased costs would increase the cost of funding or maintaining loans bearing interest at the LIBOR Rate. In any such event, the affected Lender shall give Administrative Borrower and Agent notice of such a determination and adjustment and Agent promptly shall transmit the notice to each other Lender and, upon its receipt of the notice from the affected Lender, Borrowers may, by notice to such affected Lender (A) require such Lender to furnish to Borrowers a statement setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for adjusting such LIBOR Rate and the method for determining the amount of such adjustment, or (B) repay the LIBOR Rate Loans of such Lender with respect to which such adjustment is made (together with any amounts due under Section 2.12(b)(ii)).

(ii) In the event that any change in market conditions or any law, regulation, treaty, or directive, or any change therein or in the interpretation or application thereof, shall at any time after the date hereof, in the reasonable opinion of any Lender, make it unlawful or impractical for such Lender to fund or maintain LIBOR Rate Loans or to continue such funding or maintaining, or to determine or charge interest rates at the LIBOR Rate, such Lender shall give notice of such changed circumstances to Agent and Administrative Borrower and Agent promptly shall transmit the notice to each other Lender and (y) in the case of any LIBOR Rate Loans of such Lender that are outstanding, the date specified in such Lender's notice shall be deemed to be the last day of the Interest Period of such LIBOR Rate Loans, and interest upon the LIBOR Rate Loans of such Lender thereafter shall accrue interest at the rate then applicable to Base Rate Loans, and (z) Borrowers shall not be entitled to elect the LIBOR Option until such Lender determines that it would no longer be unlawful or impractical to do so.

(e) No Requirement of Matched Funding. Anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding, neither Agent, nor any Lender, nor any of their Participants, is required actually to acquire eurodollar deposits to fund or otherwise match fund any Obligation as to which interest accrues at the LIBOR Rate.

2.13. Capital Requirements.

(a) If, after the date hereof, any Lender determines that (i) the adoption of or change in any law, rule, regulation or guideline regarding capital or reserve requirements for banks or bank holding companies, or any change in the interpretation, implementation, or application thereof by any Governmental Authority charged with the administration thereof, or (ii) compliance by such Lender or its parent bank holding company with any guideline, request or directive of any such entity regarding capital adequacy (whether or not having the force of law), has the effect of reducing the return on such Lender's or such holding company's capital as a consequence of such Lender's Commitments hereunder to a level below that which such Lender or such holding company could have achieved but for such adoption, change, or compliance (taking into consideration such Lender's or such holding company's then existing policies with respect to capital adequacy and assuming the full utilization of such entity's capital) by any amount deemed by such Lender to be material, then such Lender may notify Administrative Borrower and Agent thereof. Following receipt of such notice, Borrowers agree to pay such Lender on demand the amount of such reduction of return of capital as and when such reduction is determined, payable within 30 days after presentation by such Lender of a statement in the amount and setting forth in reasonable detail such Lender's calculation thereof and the assumptions upon which such calculation was based (which statement shall be deemed true and correct absent manifest error). In determining such amount, such Lender may use any reasonable averaging and attribution methods. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to this Section for any reductions in return incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender notifies Administrative Borrower of such law, rule, regulation or guideline giving rise to such reductions and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided further that if such claim arises by reason of the adoption of or change in any law, rule, regulation or guideline that is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

(b) If any Lender requests additional or increased costs referred to in Section 2.12(d)(i) or amounts under Section 2.13(a) or sends a notice under Section 2.12(d)(ii) relative to changed circumstances (any such Lender, an "Affected Lender"), then such Affected Lender shall use reasonable efforts to promptly designate a different one of its lending offices or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices or branches, if (i) in the reasonable judgment of such Affected Lender, such designation or assignment would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.12(d)(i) or Section 2.13(a), as applicable, or would eliminate the illegality or impracticality of funding or maintaining LIBOR Rate Loans and (ii) in the reasonable judgment of such Affected Lender, such designation or assignment would not subject it to any material unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be materially disadvantageous to it. Borrowers agree to pay all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by such Affected Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment. If, after such reasonable efforts, such Affected Lender does not so designate a different one of its lending offices or assign its rights to another of its offices or branches so as to eliminate Borrowers' obligation to pay any future amounts to such Affected Lender pursuant to Section 2.12(d)(i) or Section 2.13(a), as applicable, or to enable Borrowers to obtain LIBOR Rate Loans, then Borrowers (without prejudice to any amounts then due to such Affected Lender under Section 2.12(d)(i) or Section 2.13(a), as applicable) may, unless prior to the effective date of any such assignment the Affected Lender withdraws its request for such additional amounts under Section 2.12(d)(i) or Section 2.13(a), as applicable, or indicates that it is no longer unlawful or impractical to fund or maintain LIBOR Rate Loans, may seek a substitute Lender reasonably acceptable to Agent to purchase the Obligations owed to such Affected Lender and such Affected Lender's Commitments hereunder (a "Replacement Lender"), and if such Replacement Lender agrees to such purchase, such Affected Lender shall assign to the Replacement Lender its Obligations and Commitments, pursuant to an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, and upon such purchase by the Replacement Lender, such Replacement Lender shall be deemed to be a "Lender" for purposes of this Agreement and such Affected Lender shall cease to be a "Lender" for purposes of this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) the issuance of any rules, regulations or directions under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and all requests, rules, guidelines or directives thereunder or issued in connection therewith and (ii) all requests, rules, guidelines or directives promulgated by the Bank for International Settlement, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (or any successor or similar authority) or the United States regulatory authorities, in each case pursuant to Basel III, with respect to clauses (i) and (ii) above, after the date of this Agreement shall be deemed to be a change in law, rule, regulation or guideline for purposes of Sections 2.12 and 2.13 and the protection of Sections 2.12 and 2.13 shall be available to each Lender and Issuing Lender regardless of any possible contention of the invalidity or inapplicability of the law, rule, regulation, guideline or other change or condition which shall have occurred or been imposed, so long as it shall be customary for lenders or issuing banks affected thereby to comply therewith. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, no Lender or Issuing Lender shall demand compensation pursuant to this Section 2.13 if it shall not at the time be the general policy or practice of such Lender or Issuing Lender (as the case may be) to demand such compensation in similar circumstances under comparable provisions of other credit agreements, if any.

2.14. Joint and Several Liability of Borrowers.

(a) Each Borrower is accepting joint and several liability hereunder and under the other Loan Documents in consideration of the financial accommodations to be provided by the Lender Group under this Agreement, for the mutual benefit, directly and indirectly, of each Borrower and in consideration of the undertakings of the other Borrowers to accept joint and several liability for the Obligations.

(b) Each Borrower, jointly and severally, hereby irrevocably and unconditionally accepts, not merely as a surety but also as a co-debtor, joint and several liability with the other Borrowers, with respect to the payment and performance of all of the Obligations (including any Obligations arising under this Section 2.14), it being the intention of the parties hereto that all the Obligations shall be the joint and several obligations of each Borrower without preferences or distinction among them.

(c) If and to the extent that any Borrower shall fail to make any payment with respect to any of the Obligations as and when due or to perform any of the Obligations in accordance with the terms thereof, then in each such event the other Borrowers will make such payment with respect to, or perform, such Obligation.

(d) The Obligations of each Borrower under the provisions of this Section 2.14 constitute the absolute and unconditional, full recourse Obligations of each Borrower enforceable against each Borrower to the full extent of its properties and assets, irrespective of the validity, regularity or enforceability of this Agreement or any other circumstances whatsoever.

(e) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Borrower hereby waives notice of acceptance of its joint and several liability, notice of any Revolving Loans or Letters of Credit issued under or pursuant to this Agreement, notice of the occurrence of any Default, Event of Default, or of any demand for any payment under this Agreement, notice of any action at any time taken or omitted by Agent or Lenders under or in respect of any of the Obligations, any requirement of diligence or to mitigate damages and, generally, to the extent permitted by applicable law, all demands, notices and other formalities of every kind in connection with this Agreement (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement). Each Borrower hereby assents to, and waives notice of, any extension or postponement of the time for the payment of any of the Obligations, the acceptance of any payment of any of the Obligations, the acceptance of any partial payment thereon, any waiver, consent or other action or acquiescence by Agent or Lenders at any time or times in respect of any default by any Borrower in the performance or satisfaction of any term, covenant, condition or provision of this Agreement, any and all other indulgences whatsoever by Agent or Lenders in respect of any of the Obligations, and the taking, addition, substitution or release, in whole or in part, at any time or times, of any security for any of the Obligations or the addition, substitution or release, in whole or in part, of any Borrower. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Borrower assents to any other action or delay in acting or failure to act on the part of any Agent or Lender with respect to the failure by any Borrower to comply with any of its respective Obligations, including any failure strictly or diligently to assert any right or to pursue any remedy or to comply fully with applicable laws or regulations thereunder, which might, but for the provisions of this Section 2.14 afford grounds for terminating, discharging or relieving any Borrower, in whole or in part, from any of its Obligations under this Section 2.14, it being the intention of each Borrower that, so long as any of the Obligations hereunder remain unsatisfied, the Obligations of each Borrower under this Section 2.14 shall not be discharged except by performance and then only to the extent of such performance. The Obligations of each Borrower under this Section 2.14 shall not be diminished or rendered unenforceable by any winding up, reorganization, arrangement, liquidation, reconstruction or similar proceeding with respect to any Borrower or any Agent or Lender.

(f) Each Borrower represents and warrants to Agent and Lenders that such Borrower is currently informed of the financial condition of Borrowers and of all other circumstances which a diligent inquiry would reveal and which bear upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations. Each Borrower further represents and warrants to Agent and Lenders that such Borrower has read and understands the terms and conditions of the Loan Documents. Each Borrower hereby covenants that such Borrower will continue to keep informed of Borrowers' financial condition, the financial condition of other guarantors, if any, and of all other circumstances which bear upon the risk of nonpayment or nonperformance of the Obligations.

(g) Each Borrower waives all rights and defenses arising out of an election of remedies by Agent or any Lender, even though that election of remedies, such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for a guaranteed obligation, has destroyed Agent's or such Lender's rights of subrogation and reimbursement against such Borrower by the operation of Section 580(d) of the California Code of Civil Procedure or any other similar laws or otherwise.

(h) The provisions of this Section 2.14 are made for the benefit of Agent, Lenders and their respective successors and assigns, and may be enforced by it or them from time to time against any or all Borrowers as often as occasion therefor may arise and without requirement on the part of Agent, Lender, successor or assign first to marshal any of its or their claims or to exercise any of its or their rights against any Borrower or to exhaust any remedies available to it or them against any Borrower or to resort to any other source or means of obtaining payment of any of the Obligations hereunder or to elect any other remedy. The provisions of this Section 2.14 shall remain in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been paid in full or otherwise fully satisfied. If at any time, any payment, or any part thereof, made in respect of any of the Obligations, is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned by Agent or any Lender upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Borrower, or otherwise, the provisions of this Section 2.14 will forthwith be reinstated in effect, as though such payment had not been made.

(i) Each Borrower hereby agrees that it will not enforce any of its rights of contribution or subrogation against any other Loan Party with respect to any liability incurred by it hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, any payments made by it to Agent or Lenders with respect to any of the Obligations or any collateral security therefor until such time as all of the Obligations have been paid in full in cash. Any claim which any Borrower may have against any other Loan Party with respect to any payments to any Agent or Lender hereunder or under any other Loan Documents are hereby expressly made subordinate and junior in right of payment, without limitation as to any increases in the Obligations arising hereunder or thereunder, to the prior payment in full in cash of the Obligations and, in the event of any insolvency, bankruptcy, receivership, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceeding under the laws of any jurisdiction relating to any Loan Party, its debts or its assets, whether voluntary or involuntary, all such Obligations shall be paid in full in cash before any payment or distribution of any character, whether in cash, securities or other property, shall be made to any other Loan Party therefor.

3. CONDITIONS; TERM OF AGREEMENT.

3.1. Conditions Precedent to the Initial Extension of Credit. The obligation of each Lender to make the initial extensions of credit provided for hereunder is subject to the fulfillment, to the satisfaction of Agent, each Co-Collateral Agent and each Lender, of each of the conditions precedent set forth on Schedule 3.1 (the making of such initial extensions of credit by a Lender being conclusively deemed to be its satisfaction or waiver of the conditions precedent).

3.2. Conditions Precedent to all Extensions of Credit. The obligation of the Lender Group (or any member thereof) to make any Revolving Loans hereunder (or to extend any other credit hereunder) at any time shall be subject to the following conditions precedent:

(a) the representations and warranties of Parent or its Subsidiaries contained in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representations and warranties that already are qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof) on and as of the date of such extension of credit, as though made on and as of such date (except to the extent that such representations and warranties relate solely to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representations and warranties that already are qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof) as of such earlier date);

(b) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such extension of credit, nor shall either result from the making thereof;

(c) no injunction, writ, restraining order, or other order of any nature restricting or prohibiting, directly or indirectly, the extending of such credit shall have been issued and remain in force by any Governmental Authority against any Borrower, Agent, or any Lender; and

(d) no Material Adverse Change shall have occurred since the Closing Date.

No member of the Lender Group shall make any Revolving Loans under Section 2.1 hereof without the consent of all Lenders at any time that an Event of Default under Section 8.6(a) hereof that arises on account of the occurrence of a Split Lien Termination Date shall have occurred and be continuing, an Event of Default arising as a result of a breach of Section 5.16 hereof shall have occurred and be continuing or the lenders party to the Split Lien Credit Agreement are refusing to fund as a result of the existence of an "Event of Default" under and as defined in the Split Lien Credit Agreement.

3.3. Maturity. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect for a term ending on the earlier of the Maturity Date or the Required Prepayment Date.

3.4. Effect of Maturity. On the earlier of the Maturity Date or the Required Prepayment Date, all commitments of the Lender Group to provide additional credit hereunder shall automatically be terminated and all of the Obligations immediately shall become due and payable without notice or demand and Borrowers shall be required to repay all of the Obligations in full. No termination of the obligations of the Lender Group (other than payment in full of the Obligations and termination of the Commitments) shall relieve or discharge any Loan Party of its duties, obligations, or covenants hereunder or under any other Loan Document and Agent's Liens in the Collateral shall continue to secure the Obligations and shall remain in effect until all Obligations have been paid in full and the Commitments have been terminated. When all of the Obligations have been paid in full and the Lender Group's obligations to provide additional credit under the Loan Documents have been terminated irrevocably, Agent will, at Borrowers' sole expense, execute and deliver any termination statements, lien releases, discharges of security interests, and other similar discharge or release documents (and, if applicable, in recordable form) as are reasonably necessary to release, as of record, Agent's Liens and all notices of security interests and liens previously filed by Agent.

3.5. Early Termination by Borrowers. Borrowers have the option, at any time upon 5 Business Days prior written notice to Agent, to terminate this Agreement and terminate the Commitments hereunder by repaying to Agent all of the Obligations in full, including, without limitation the prepayment fee described in Section 2.10(d), as applicable. The foregoing notwithstanding, (a) Borrowers may rescind termination notices relative to proposed payments in full of the Obligations with the proceeds of third party Indebtedness if the closing for such issuance or incurrence does not happen on or before the date of the proposed termination (in which case, a new notice shall be required to be sent in connection with any subsequent termination), and (b) Borrowers may extend the date of termination at any time with the consent of Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

4. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

In order to induce the Lender Group to enter into this Agreement, each Borrower makes the following representations and warranties to the Lender Group which shall be true, correct, and complete, in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representations and warranties that already are qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof), as of the Closing Date, and shall be true, correct, and complete, in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representations and warranties that already are qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof), as of the date of the making of each Revolving Loan (or other extension of credit) made thereafter, as though made on and as of the date of such Revolving Loan (or other extension of credit) (except to the extent that such representations and warranties relate solely to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representations and warranties that already are qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof) as of such earlier date) and such representations and warranties shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement:

4.1. Due Organization and Qualification; Subsidiaries.

(a) Each Loan Party (i) is duly organized and existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (ii) is qualified to do business in any state where the failure to be so qualified could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (iii) has all requisite power and authority to own and operate its properties, to carry on its business as now conducted and as proposed to be conducted, to enter into the Loan Documents to which it is a party and to carry out the transactions contemplated thereby.

(b) Set forth on Schedule 4.1(b) (as such Schedule may be updated from time to time to reflect changes resulting from transactions permitted under this Agreement) is a complete and accurate description of the authorized Equity Interest of Parent, by class, and, as of the Closing Date, a description of the number of shares of each such class that are issued and outstanding. Other than as described on Schedule 4.1(b), there are no subscriptions, options, warrants, or calls relating to any shares of Parent's Equity Interest, including any right of conversion or exchange under any outstanding security or other instrument. Parent is not subject to any obligation (contingent or otherwise) to repurchase or otherwise acquire or retire any shares of its Equity Interest or any security convertible into or exchangeable for any of its Equity Interest.

(c) Set forth on Schedule 4.1(c) (as such Schedule may be updated from time to time to reflect changes resulting from transactions permitted under this Agreement), is a complete and accurate list of Parent's direct and indirect Subsidiaries, showing: (i) the number of shares of each class of common and preferred Equity Interests authorized for each of such Subsidiaries, and (ii) the number and the percentage of the outstanding shares of each such class owned directly or indirectly by Parent. All of the outstanding Equity Interest of each such Subsidiary has been validly issued and is fully paid and non-assessable.

(d) Except as set forth on Schedule 4.1(c), there are no subscriptions, options, warrants, or calls relating to any shares of Parent's or its Subsidiaries' Equity Interest, including any right of conversion or exchange under any outstanding security or other instrument.

4.2. Due Authorization; No Conflict.
